Comments Detail

12/6/2021: Issued a correction notice to remove open dump and junkyard conditions from the property, cease the outside storage of all unlicensed and inoperative motor vehicles, properly store the RV/utility trailer on the property, and reduce the number of RV/utility trailers to only one on the property or file for a variance. The compliance date is January 21, 2022. I did meet with the owner of the property and went over all these issues with him.
12/6/2021: Properly tag and make operative or remove all unlicensed and inoperative motor vehicles from the property.
12/6/2021: Such as old mowers, metal, wood, old equipment, etc. from the property.
12/6/2021: Reduce the number of RV/utility trailers to only one on the property or file for a variance.
12/6/2021: RV/utility trailers must be parked in the side or rear yard at least 8 feet behind the front foundation line of the dwelling.
1/24/2022: I met the owner at the property, and he has done a lot on the property considering the amount of bad weather and snow they've had up here in the north. He's in the process of following the variance for utility trailers. I'll re-check this property again in 30 days.
2/24/2022: I left a message for the property owner Dan 443-789-9467. Advising him that I would be out there next Tuesday mid to late morning.
3/1/2022: The property owner has cleaned up the property and remove the open dump and junkyard conditions and also reduce the number of snow mobiles to about 12. The four trailers are still on the property and he has filed a variance. I'll check to see if the variance hearing has been scheduled or heard.
