Description: The Long Green Valley Historic District is an approximately 6,066 acre rural agricultural area to the northeast of the city of Baltimore. The valley has a distinct physical unity created by gently rolling fields dotted with crossroads villages such as Glen Arm and Baldwin, and farm complexes. Its architecture covers the 18th, 19th, and early 20th centuries and is generally conservative with most of the major architectural styles of these periods evident. In some examples, more than one style is found in the same building because of renovations. The majority of the structures are domestic or farm related such as barns and utility buildings. Commercial structures stand in the village areas. The older structures are generally of stone or brick construction with frame dominating the mid 19th-century to present era. The houses vary in scale, design, and craftsmanship depending on the history of the structure. Approximately 125 individual buildings, complexes, and objects stand in the district with the majority contributing to the significance of the district. The major intrusions or non-obtrusive elements are industrial complexes around Glen Arm and groupings of post-1930s houses.

Significance: The significance of the Long Green Valley Historic District derives from the collection of 18th, 19th, and early 20th century buildings that are situated in a rural agricultural setting. The buildings, primarily houses and farm structures, embody the distinctive design characteristics of the major architectural styles popular in the United States from the Neoclassical of the 1700s to the Georgian Revival of the pre 1935 period. The buildings range from modest to elaborate in size and exhibit varying degrees of craftsmanship as well as a record of changes in construction techniques in Baltimore County. The buildings also are evidence in the productive agricultural nature of the valley since it was settled in the 1720s thus recording ways of life that have disappeared in other regions surrounding metropolitan Baltimore.

Mr. Clark,

It is my understanding that the county has not approved this site for the proposed use (Temple). The SHA has not approved the existing entrance for this use. From the SHA perspective this site should not be operating at all. Will the county be shutting them down?

Subject: Follow up
Mr. Zeller

This is in reference to the matter about which I wrote on June 21 2018. This concerns the use of a single property residence at 12231 Harford Rd. Glen Arm, MD as a commercial without a State Highway Access Permit and their internet advertising for a major fund raiser July 29-Aug 30, 2018.
It is important to note that our concerns are about community health (disposal of human waste), degradation of the watershed and major traffic problems they testified they created at last year's even.
In order to relieve alleviate any doubt about the situation regarding 12231 Harford Rd, Glen Arm MD, 21057, I have include the direct testimony of the NACCB,Inc. at the hearing January 17, 2018.
Included are the statements about traffic and infrastructure made under oath by the property owners and their expert witnesses. As you will see, the owners testified there is no water onsite (fire sprinklers for commercial venue) and they testify about the problems they caused on Harford Road at the fund raiser last year. The one to be held on July 29-Aug 3 2018 is advertised as even larger.
I included the pages that identify the hearing, date and the speakers. Mr. Kotroco represented the owners of 12231 Harford Rd, I am the representative for those opposed to this use of the property, Mr. Ghimire (misspelled Gimory) is the resident agent for the owner and Mr. Motsco is the Civil Engineer acting as the expert witness for the owner.
Pages 31-33 are the testimony about projected use
Pages 35-55 are the testimony of existing infrastructure
Pages 68 -70 are Mr. Ghimire's description of the fundraiser of July 2017 which resulted in the Cease and Desist order
Pages 71-73 are Mr. Ghimire's direct testimony about the lack of any sanitation facilities; no well and unusable septic.
For your convenience, I highlighted the relevant portions of testimony.
Please feel free to call me at 410.592.9998 if there is anything else you need.
This will be followed by a letter with a paper copy of the attached transcript.

Shyam Karki updated his status

May 19

As usual I go to our Mandir site to check how renovation is progressing, at least once a week. There were 6 people working very hard even in today's heat. They have almost completed wiring for the lights for the outside walls. Repairs of outside walls have also been completed. Moldings were also done and are planned to be up tomorrow.

As I was ready to leave I called Bickramji to inform him that I was there and very impressed with the pace of the repairs. He told me he is on the way and will be there in 5 minutes. Sure enough, he was there in 5 minutes and he took me on a tour of the building showing work completed and plans for the next two weeks. Main door, all window glasses, lights and most of the exterior walls will be completed and then he will focus on the inside. He is full of energy and Mandir renovation has become his passion. We have found a great match for the job. Thank God for the gift

Then we took a walk to the barn. Walking through tall grasses, knee deep at some places, was a problem and we were afraid that we may encounter snakes. So we took two large sticks, just in case. It was almost a 15 minute walk. Barn is huge and may accomodate up to 1,000 people. However all the wooden walls are rotten and the whole structure may need to be rebuilt. It may be a good project for a large auditorium, hall, Community Center and what not for 2022. We started discussing the possibility of building Home for the Elderly just like the Indian community is building one next to the Shiva Bishnu Temple. Our imagination was working at full speed. Having 31 acres of land, and an imaginative mind can be a mind boggling experience.

Then we started talking about Umesh KC's idea of organizing a 5-K race for fund raising and involving youth. It is a Great Idea. In the middle of our discussion of the idea, both of us got excited and said at the same time why not do it here in our own property. Let us make a trail around the periphery of our property and we are sure it will be more than 2.5 K and we can have a 5 K trail in our own property. It will take one up and down the hill, streams and wonderful scenery. We can build some benches for resting along the trail. We can later on even build Drinking Fountains at rest areas. We can go for a morning walk in the weekend mornings, meet our friends, and discuss various plans. What a great idea!

So we call on Umesh to consider this idea seriously and use our Volunteer Corps to build a trail. It may take few weekends of labor and I am sure it can be done. Umesh, here is the chance to build on your idea and may be we can name it "Umesh Trail". Gather about a dozen friends and raise a couple of thousands and there we will have Umesh Trail. A Great Idea, a Doable Idea, Umesh. It's your idea and you have earned the first shot at it. When do you want to start?

Umesh KC Nice idea to have walking trail on our own mandir property and it is feasible. We volunteers are excited to make it happen. We can decide on name later once job is complete, possibly something that represents the volunteers dedication..

Sanosansar Hamrosansar shared a post — with Shyam Karki and 47 others at Hindu Buddha Mandir.
July 10 at 10:31 AM · Glen Arm, MD ·

#BALTIMORE MAHAPURAN 2018
(July 28 to August 3)

Dear Friends,
With the start of the hot summer season, the schools are closed and the families are making plans for vacations. In the meantime, a group of volunteers at the Hindu Buddha Mandir has been working for months to make Shreemad Bhagwat Mahapuran Saptah a reality. It's scheduled from July 28 to August 3. So, it's less than 20 days to go. Please schedule your vacation, out of town visits and work days so that you can attend the event. It's a unique event of its own type to be staged at the Hindu Buddha Mandir site, the largest Nepali Mandir site anywhere in the world outside Nepal. Its site is so beautiful and it's so significant that many people have already started calling it a Dham (Sacred pilgrim site).

Most of the details have already been worked out and the plans are in final stages of implementation. Glimpses of some important programs are provided below.

The event will start with the Kalas Yatra on its first day at 10 am. A large group of ladies wearing saris of different colors will carry Kalas filled with water from the holy rivers of Nepal and will walk around the temple. The original target for the number of women was 108. By this time, the number has already passed 150 and there is still more coming in. We appeal to all friends to make sure that all ladies from your household are registered in this event. Registration fee for Kalas Yatra is $51.00 only and you get to keep the Kalas after the end of the Saptah. You can keep it in your Puja Kotha as a memory from the history making Saptah and it will be the Kalas you will be passing as heirloom to your children and grandchildren as the memory of the day you took a step in ensuring the preservation of our cultural heritage by establishing a place of worship and meditation of our own. There will be Pandits chanting mantras, musicians playing devotional music and everyone chanting "Dharmako Jaya Hos" etc, children showering flowers, it will have its own enchanting ambient. I am sure there will be live broadcast and movies filmed of the event.
So, its history in making and you want to be there. If you haven't yet registered for Kalas Yatra, please do so as soon as possible, You can contact Shalina Sharma, Jasmine Dawadi, Sharmila KC, @Shashi Chhetri for registering for the Kalas yatra. You have our guarantee that no matter how many are registered, everyone willing to register will have their chance in being a part of the history.

Kalas Yatra will be followed by Hom and prayers to all the Gods starting with Ganesh, Navagraha (nine planets) and different Gods and Goddesses. Guru Deenbandhu Pokhrel of International fame will be officiating the event and will be assisted by two gurus (Guru Sapkota and Guru Koirala). Finally, Guru Deenbandhu will start reciting the Puran with Bhajans in between. @Purushottam Shrestha who is the director of music and bhajan at Milljull Bhajan and Satsang Parivar is managing the Bhajan program and has already convinced many renowned area bhajan singers and musicians to join the program. Puruji as we fondly like to call him is not only an accomplished singer and musician, he enjoys to teach bhajan and music to anyone eager to learn. So, if you are an accomplished singer or a musician, and want to participate at the event, please contact Puruji or me. Even if you are a complete novice and yet you are interested in singing Bhajan, Puruji will train you and instill enough confidence to make you to be able to sing at the event. The earlier, you contact him, the better.

In days 2-6, Program will run from 2 pm to 9 pm and will have recitation of verses from the sacred books and discourses on them by Guru Deenbandhu with Bhajans interspersed between them. Evening will have more storytelling and Bhajans.

In day #7, it will be the Sangyhya and the last day. In addition to routine pujas and recitations, Guruji will perform Bratbandha of young men, if you have young men in your family, please Tarun Poudel and he will provide all the details.

Re: Board position regarding Case No. 2018-0122X ('Bonaparte Property' / Proposed Nepali American Cultural Center at 12231 Harford Road)

Attached is the vote of the GKCA board from April 4 of this year

Protestant Exhibit 48

Greater Kingsville Civic Association, Inc.
P.O. Box 221, Kingsville, Maryland 21087

RESOLVED: That the position of the Greater Kingsville Civic Association, Incorporated as adopted by the Board of Directors and the zoning committee on the zoning matter known as Case No. 2018-0122-X 'Bonaparte property'/Proposed Nepali American Cultural Center (12231 Harford Road) is that:

"To oppose the Bonaparte property being used for a large scale, excessive use such as a cultural center and/or a religious facility which would create unsafe traffic conditions, excessive noise, unsafe runoff, and would threaten public health, safety and welfare, through over taxation of our well and septic resources as well as negatively impacting the rural character of the area."

cherishing our rural heritage since 1974

Protestant Exhibit 49

Dear Friends,

As you know, we are eagerly awaiting our hearing to approve our special exception to use the Bonaparte property as a place of worship. Our hearing date is approaching and we are hearing concerns among some of our neighbors. As always, some comments are very welcoming, some indifferent and some very concerned. Having some concerns is natural.

I have lived in the USA for more than forty years. I currently live in the Longfield Estates neighborhood in Kingsville. I have lived in Kingsville since 2004. My daughter lives in nearby Belair. The primary attraction of where we live is that it's a rural community with promise of little to no further development we enjoy it because of its tranquil nature. I enjoy seeing deer and geese from my deck. I have great fun taking my grandson to the pond to feed the geese. It's like a nature resort, away from the noise and crowd of the city.

Bonaparte property is located within 5 miles of my house and I may be the Nepali living nearest to it. I will also be very much concerned about what is happening to the property. None of us wanted to see this beautiful mansion torn down and a developer rezoning the property to allow many houses to be built in its place. We believe the neighborhood is better served by keeping the property the way it always has been.

At the same time, let us remember what the condition of the property was before we purchased it. It was an abandoned property needing major repairs. The bank had taken it back and it was being auctioned off. Since it was in a very private location, it was used by the local youth to have wild parties with plenty of alcohol and drugs. We experienced this as the building was vandalized repeatedly and some of our property was stolen. Local residents routinely road motorcycles and ATV 's on the property, broke out most of the windows of the mansion, cut out and stole the copper water pipes, painted graffiti and racist words on the interior walls and generally ransacked the property. We had to warn strangers coming onto the property in pick-up trucks that we were the new owners and that we did not want any intruders coming on our property and that we would take action to prosecute them.

We installed locks at the gates and motion detector cameras around the building. We started renovating the building, which is almost now complete. Work is already under way for installing a new sewage system and a new well for drinking water. We have also hired a traffic consultant to study the traffic patterns so that safety for our visitors and neighbors would not be compromised. Our goal is to change this property from a community blight to a community showpiece that everyone can be proud of. We have started doing this and won't rest until we accomplish our goal.

One thing we know for sure is this. The Bonaparte Mansion and its 30 acres are way too much house and property for any single family to take care of. The cost to heat it in these winter months and to cool it in the summer months is too expensive for any one family. The cost of upkeep to the property and grounds is overwhelming for one family. Many of us have been working for many months and we still have not made the property habitable. This beautiful Mansion and property was falling into ruin. No one seemed to care! It requires a group of families such as ours to take the property over and restore it to its former glory. We were the only ones willing to put up our own money to restore this property.

Second, it's natural to be curious about who are the people buying the property and what do they want to do with it.

We are Nepalis who have moved to this country and live in and around the northern suburbs of Baltimore. We live in Kingsville, Belair, Towson, Perry Hall, White Marsh and the Parkville areas. We are no different from any of your other neighbors; we are nurses, doctors, teachers, engineers, army soldiers, police men, government employees, small business owners and employees working for others. We go to the same stores, malls, schools, restaurant places and gyms. We want better schools, safer roads, and all the things everyone else wants. Our children go to local schools, colleges and universities. They play sports in their schools and colleges. They are friends with your children and have adapted very well to this country. In other words, we are not different at all from the families next door. We are your neighbors.

Lastly, what do we want to do at the property?

We are mostly from Nepal. Nepal is a unique country where two major religions (Hinduism and Buddhism) have coexisted for centuries. You will find Hindu and Buddhist temples side by side and followers of both faiths go to each of these places to worship the same deities. There are different temples dedicated to different gods at different places. People also go to the temples during certain festivals. Nepali American (we like to call our community) is a new community and we don't have our own place of worship. We have realized that it's time for us to have our own place of worship where we can celebrate our religious festivals and pass our cultural heritage to our children. It's happening in many major cities in the US, (New York, Boston, Dallas, Los Angeles, Raleigh etc.) where there is a large Nepali American community. It's very similar to the movement seen by the such Korean and Chinese communities and other immigrant communities who have built their places of worship in Baltimore County.

Now it's important to note some major differences between Nepali temples and churches. Churches have their own parishioners and all of them go to the same church at the very same time. Christian Churches also have a leader or lecturer such as a priest or a pastor who will deliver a message during services. Nepalis do not have a priest or lecturer. Nepalis go to temple on major religious festivals at different times so that there is not a large gathering of people at any one time.

Churches have their parishioners and they go to the same church every Sunday. Nepalis don't have their own temple. We go to different temples for different festivals at different times. So, based on our experience in other Hindu temples (Indian temples), there will be less than 20 people coming to the temple on weekdays and less than 100 people coming on weekends. There are seven major religious festivals each year when 300-500 people may come to the temple, but they will visit at different times during the festival so that the number of people will not pose a problem. They will arrive at different times in the morning, daytime and evening. There is no set time as such.

We are familiar with Christian services as most of us have at least one member of our family who is married to a Christian and we have celebrated Christian religious holidays with them. We are very familiar with the church operations. Thus, parking and traffic are not major issues with our Temples as compared to what we see with Christian churches. The operations are very different from one another.

The moment we saw the Bonaparte property, we were mesmerized by it. The hills and the serpentine roads remind us of our homeland back in Kathmandu. Kathmandu is a valley surrounded by the hills and most of the temples are in the hills. The Bonaparte property is a very large property (30 acres). It is peaceful, away from the crowd and noise. Furthermore, it commands a wonderful view of the surrounding area just like the famous Swyambhu Hills of Kathmandu where temples are typically found. It is hard for us to believe that people would allow this house and property to fall into ruin.

We just fell in love with this place and we plan to use it as a place of worship and a place where we can teach our children about our religious heritage. We will provide language classes where people from our area of the world can learn to speak English. We will like to collaborate with the other religious organizations in the area, mobilize our resources to improve the quality of life in the community. We will like to work with them for organizing free meal programs during the Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays and to provide for families who are not as fortunate as ours. We will welcome all of our neighbors who would like to learn more about us.

All summer we have worked very hard in bringing the grounds to shape, renovating the building and trying to bring this place to its old glory. We fully realize that it will take us years to accomplish our goal as we are limited by financial resources. However, we are very encouraged by the support we have received from Nepalis far away in different cities and other countries.

We want to work closely with our neighbors and have met with the neighborhood associations multiple times. We have welcomed our neighbors into our programs that we have organized in showing off the property to our community members. We want to work with them so that all of us will be happy. We have every intention of fulfilling all of the requirements of Baltimore County. We have retained the services of an attorney, an engineer, a traffic expert and a water and sewer company to ensure that we have covered all aspects of our use and to comply with all County requirements.

We are confident that we will be a very good neighbor to all and pledge to take care of this property and keep it properly maintained and to make this a place of community pride.

(Dr. Shyam Karki is a member of the Nepali American Community which has purchased the property and has applied to use this property as a place of worship)

Bruce,

I am one of the representative of NACC. First of all, you are so called trying to understand the issue and not on any side..well your posts tell which side you are and that is okay. You have whole time in the world to write negative and false things about us and you live in KINGSVILLE, not sure what your intentions are ??? You never tried to contact us and understand what we are trying to do. You are spreading lies to neighbors who are trying to understand what the issue is. Please STOP. You shouldn't even be writing on this as you are NOT our neighbor ????

Bruce Morgan, Kingsville · 26 Jul

Kris,

Wow, where do I start?

Our previous back and forth was what convinced me what position I would take. I didn't go into this with any conclusion that was predetermined. After listening to you, (as you and Karki have spent significant time on this forum with posts and comments), I felt I understood your intentions fairly well. The past behavior at the site I also considered as well as the continual missteps by your organization regarding the use of the property and the sign erection.

I believe you have created this mess yourself by not doing more preliminary work before purchasing the property and then crossing your fingers that everything would go your way. Property rights go both ways and if what you do there negativity affects the neighbors they should not have their rights infringed upon or compromised.

Since I live in Baltimore county anything that happens here affects me one way or another. I noticed your legal team had no problem putting witnesses on that had supporting opinions, but living miles from your location.

Your comment itself is yet another misstep in that it attempts to shut down conversation rather that talk about facts.

If you want to cite a specific example where I am in error please point it out so I may be corrected.

Mr. Clark,

It is my understanding that the county has not approved this site for the proposed use (Temple). The SHA has not approved the existing entrance for this use. From the SHA perspective this site should not be operating at all. Will the county be shutting them down?

Mr. Zeller

This is in reference to the matter about which I wrote on June 21 2018. This concerns the use of a single property residence at 12231 Harford Rd. Glen Arm, MD as a commercial without a State Highway Access Permit and their internet advertising for a major fund raiser July 29-Aug 30, 2018.
It is important to note that our concerns are about community health (disposal of human waste), degradation of the watershed and major traffic problems they testified they created at last year's even.
In order to relieve alleviate any doubt about the situation regarding 12231 Harford Rd, Glen Arm MD, 21057, I have include the direct testimony of the NACCB,Inc. at the hearing January 17, 2018.
Included are the statements about traffic and infrastructure made under oath by the property owners and their expert witnesses. As you will see, the owners testified there is no water onsite (fire sprinklers for commercial venue) and they testify about the problems they caused on Harford Road at the fund raiser last year. The one to be held on July 29-Aug 3 2018 is advertised as even larger.
I included the pages that identify the hearing, date and the speakers. Mr. Kotroco represented the owners of 12231 Harford Rd, I am the representative for those opposed to this use of the property, Mr. Ghimire (misspelled Gimory) is the resident agent for the owner and Mr. Motsco is the Civil Engineer acting as the expert witness for the owner.
Pages 31-33 are the testimony about projected use
Pages 35-55 are the testimony of existing infrastructure
Pages 68 -70 are Mr. Ghimire's description of the fundraiser of July 2017 which resulted in the Cease and Desist order
Pages 71-73 are Mr. Ghimire's direct testimony about the lack of any sanitation facilities; no well and unusable septic.
For your convenience, I highlighted the relevant portions of testimony.
Please feel free to call me at 410.592.9998 if there is anything else you need.
This will be followed by a letter with a paper copy of the attached transcript.

I know. I just sent a plea to Jayne Miller. Very concerned about the community; very tense.

Whatever happens will be on the heads of those who had the authority to act and did nothing. You have done all you can.

I am just trying to be sure I do everything I can.

Feel like I am watching a wild fire.

Mr. Zeller,

I am pleading for help. Below is a link we are releasing to the press. The NACCB, Inc, in defiance of everything, is going forward with their fundraiser. Tensions are very high here and I am doing my best (including working with Balt. Police) to de conflict the situation. But NO ONE from the county has responded to letters form us about this potential since I first started sending them Jun 16.

Mr. Arnold Jablon, Director

County Office Building
111 West Chesapeake Avenue, Suite 105
Towson, MD 21204

RE: 12231 Harford Road

Dear Mr. Jablon:

The community desires to inform you that on the evening of July 10, 2018 the NACCB, Inc., in defiance of your order dated July 1, 2018, and in disregard of requirements of the State Highway Administration and Maryland Department of the Environment, and concerns of the community, once again accessed the property and held a volleyball tournament on the subject site.

It is apparent that the NACCB, Inc. has no regard for your order, and the various County and State departments who have registered concern about the use of this property for the coming event of July 28 to August 3, 2018.

As such, it appears to the community that the County, the State, and the County Executive must exercise greater attention to this problem, which is quickly escalating to a potentially bad situation.

Within the confines of the County and State requirements, the Long Green Valley community and the 100+ landowners belonging to the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association would request that you take immediate and prompt action to avoid any threats to public health and safety arising from activities of the NACCB, Inc.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Dewey Clark

Mr. Gardina,

Mr. Kevin Weiss, Chief, Baltimore Division, MDE has advised me that your office has the authority and responsibility to act on the matter of a single residence property located at 12231 Harford Road being used as a commercial venue with no well, no plumbing, no septic and evidence that portable toilets are not even installed.

I am grateful to finally understand the proper authority who should be made aware of the situation. While I cc'd you on the letters I sent to Mr. Jablon, the fact that they were cc'd could mean they did not rise to your attention.

July 9 I will deliver to your office a complete package of materials on this matter to be followed up with a certified letter which duplicates those materials.

I also will bring to your attention we are preparing affidavits from guests invited to the property for large gatherings who will attest they found no sanitary facilities for human waste provided. We also are preparing affidavits that visitors observed what appeared to be friable asbestos in areas open to visitors. One is from a licensed contractor who is not asbestos certified and the other was from a prospective buyer of the property when it was offered for sale. As you know, this property was built in the 1930s and all evidence indicates it retained its original heating plant.

Finally, I am in possession of videos published by the owner of this property that show no sign of of external sanitary facilities although the testimony before Administrative Law Judge Beverungen was that there was no well, no plumbing and no septic system.

They have hosted several large gatherings this spring and have been heavily promoting on the internet and social media a gathering intended to attract a crowd larger than the 500-1,000 person crowd they attracted for a similar event last year. This multi-day event is promoted to occur from July 29 to August 3 of 2018.

You may contact me by return email or phone at 410.592.9998.

> Mr. Clark, thanks for your response. The Baltimore County Department of Environmental Protection and Sustainability (DEPS) is in receipt of your concerns on this matter at the aforementioned property off Harford Road. Matters involving residential sewage system failures are firstly handled by the county health departments or in the case in Baltimore County by DEPS, as any septic system there would be permitted through that agency not through MDE at the state level. Also to my understanding the use of the property not in accordance with its zoning (residential vs. commercial) is being handled by the appropriate zoning office in Baltimore County. DEPS will update MDE as they're investigation evolves in this matter. With this said, MDE will not be further investigating this matter unless requested by Baltimore County DEPS.

>> Yes. People who have attended their events report NO spot a pots and no potable drinking water. I am in possession of 60 minute videos published by them again revealing NO spot a pots. We have seen them urinating on the ground. As you can see by the transcripts I sent, they have no working septic (unable to locate) and the copper plumbing was all removed so there is not water from a well they cannot locate.

They are using this as a major commercial venue with advertising for a multistate gathering to be held July 29-Aug 3. I can supply screenshots of this advertising although a lot is in Nepalese.

I have alerted the Fire Marshall and Baltimore County Health whose primary concern is food sanitation. If you can get this referred to the correct agency in BC I would greatly appreciate it.

I will also tell you a licensed contractor (not asbestos certified) is 90% certain he saw friable asbestos in the basement. This building was built in the 1930s and has not been upgraded.

THANK YOU!!

It is unclear however of you specific concerns with respect to pollution occurring there. Is there no spot-a-pots or the existing system is failing and subsequently discharging to nearby streams? Although it appears that these concerns will be addressed under Baltimore County code through they're Department of Environment Protection and Sustainability and through Baltimore County Zoning office, the WSACP once we understand the specific concerns will refer this matter to the above county agencies or investigate the pollution claims ourselves.

Re: 12231 Harford Road

Mr. Ghimire,

It has come to our attention that there have been advertisements for an event at your property located at 12231 Harford Rd. to be held from July 29 to August 3. There have also been allegations of health code violations, including photos, submitted to us by concerned neighbors.

I am aware of the hearing before the Administrative Law Judge, and notwithstanding the approval Judge Beverungen granted, there has been no compliance with the terms and conditions as set out in that decision. Because these terms have not been met, any event such as that which is being advertised will constitute a violation of that order and a violation of the zoning regulations, as well as possible violations of the health code. If your organization holds this scheduled event, an immediate citation will be issued.

Sincerely,

Lionel van Dommelen, Chief

AFFIDAVIT OF JOANNE FOXWORTHY

I, Joanne Foxworthy, do hereby make oath in due form of law and state as follows:

1. I am over 18 years of age and competent to testify in this matter.

2. Beginning in 2017, I observed the following:

I started to have many serious health problems, which are still affecting me.

- Frequent anxiety attacks that happen almost every day.

I retired several years ago and had an enjoyable life working in my garden, being with my family, and doing other things to relax. I worked 30 plus years in payroll for a large construction company and I never had anxiety attacks. The anxiety attacks began in 2017 when the Bonaparte property owners started to have large noisy events. I have suffered anxiety from the loud noise, loud screaming, increased traffic, and headlights streaming into my windows at night when they are leaving the property after an evening event. Even with my doors and windows closed and my air conditioning on in the summer, it sounds like they're in my living room. My house has a lot of windows that face the Bonaparte property so I see the sign, the gate, cars coming and going, the mansion lit up at night, and it causes me a lot of anxiety. I have personally seen people stripping in the open to change clothes and a man relieving himself right across from my house when they were working on the property sign. I worry constantly about all of this and cannot enjoy my home and property like I used to. I also worry about how the run-off from the property is having a bad effect on my septic system. With more parking spaces

Protestant
CBA Exhibit
67 3D only

planned up there, the run-off will only get worse. I have been on medication to help control my anxiety, but the medicine is not working well. I keep going back to the doctor to find something that will help reduce my anxiety.

- Difficulty sleeping at night.

I keep playing the Bonaparte property conflict over and over in my head and it keeps me awake. Sometimes there is loud noise and music at night that keeps me awake. There have been cars leaving the property at night as late at 11:30 pm. The headlights from cars at night leaving the property shine through my windows. Not being able to get a good night's sleep is seriously affecting my health and welfare.

I HEREBY SWEAR AND AFFIRM UNDER THE PENALTIES OF PERJURY THAT THE AFOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT UPON MY PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE.

AFFIDAVIT OF Joanne Foxworthy

I, Joanne Foxworthy, do hereby make oath in due form of law and state as follows:

1. I am over 18 years of age and competent to testify in this matter.
2. On April 9, 2017 , I observed the following:
3. A lot of cars entering 12231 Harford Rd. Some sort of party. They had very loud voices and music coming across to our backyard all day and into the evening. They had some sort of loudspeakers. It was so loud that went inside my home and closed the windows and it was like they were still in my living room.

I HEREBY SWEAR AND AFFIRM UNDER THE PENALTIES OF PERJURY THAT THE A FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT UPON MY PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE.

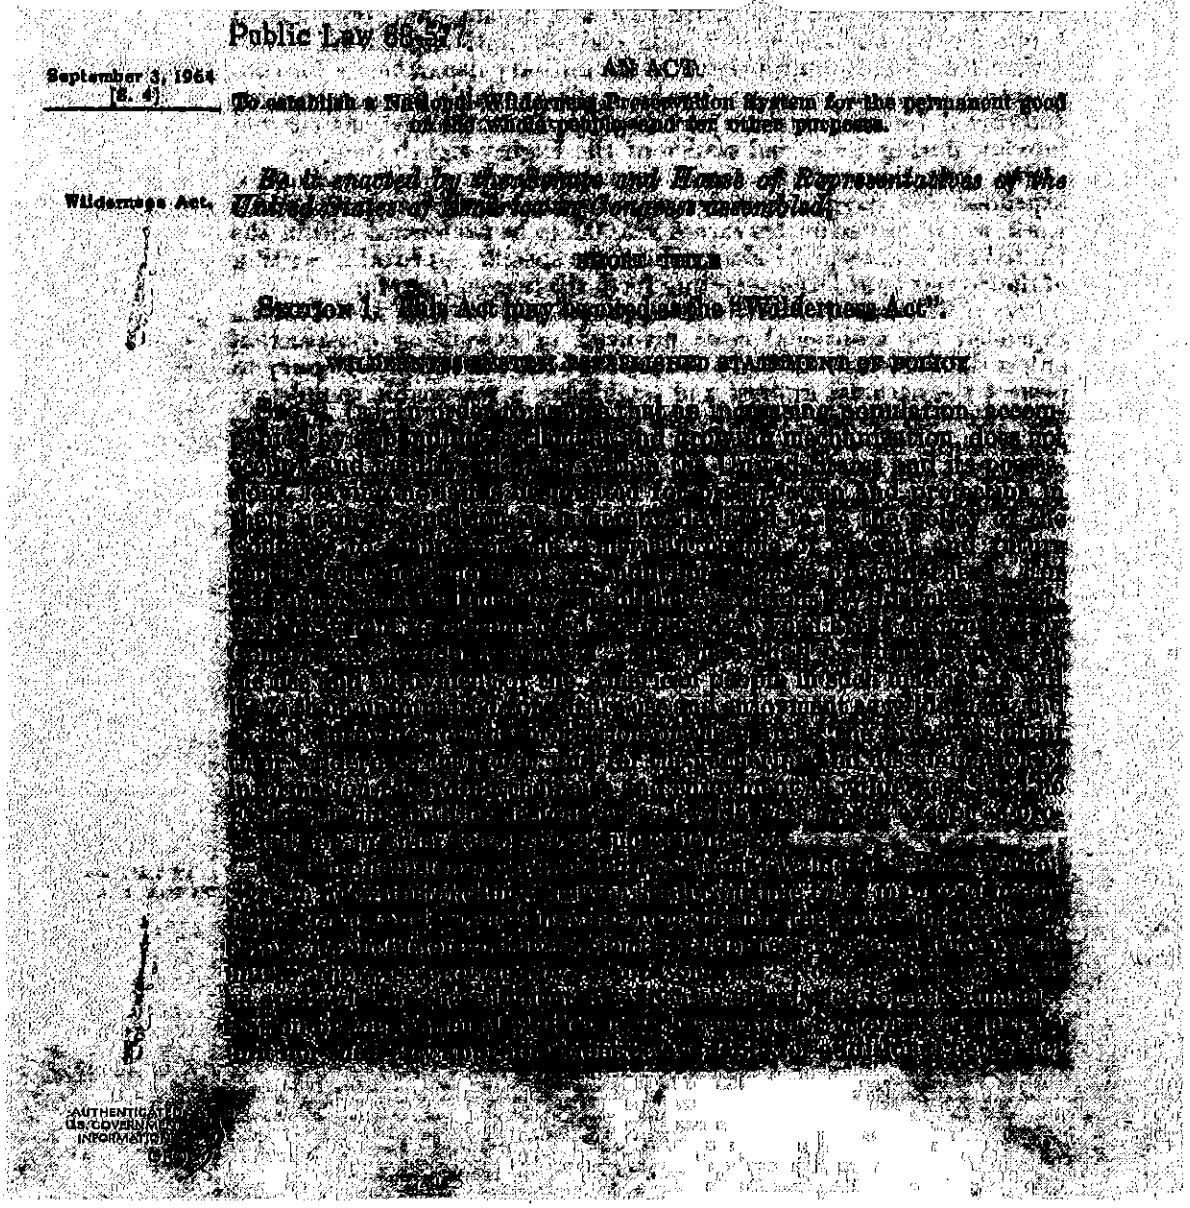
Wilderness Act



Public Law 88-577

September 3, 1964
[S. 4]

AN ACT

To establish a National Wilderness Preservation System for the permanent good of the whole people, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, Wilderness Act.

SHORT TITLE

Section 1. This Act may be cited as the "Wilderness Act".

...gated as being required solely for the purpose of managing or administering areas solely because they are included within the National Wilderness Preservation System.

DEFINITION OF WILDERNESS

(c) A wilderness, in contrast with those areas where man and his own works dominate the landscape, is hereby recognized as an area where the earth and its community of life are untrammeled by man, where man himself is a visitor who does not remain. An area of wilderness is further defined to mean in this Act an area of undeveloped Federal land retaining its primeval character and influence, without permanent improvements or human habitation, which is protected and managed so as to preserve its natural conditions and which (1) generally appears to have been affected primarily by the forces of nature, with the imprint of man's work substantially unnoticeable; (2) has outstanding opportunities for solitude or a primitive and unconfined type of recreation; (3) has at least five thousand acres of land or is of sufficient size as to make practicable its preservation and use in an unimpaired condition; and (4) may also contain ecological, geological, or other features of scientific, educational, scenic, or historical value.

NATIONAL WILDERNESS PRESERVATION SYSTEM—EXTENT OF SYSTEM

SEC. 3. (a) All areas within the national forests classified at least 30 days before the effective date of this Act by the Secretary of Agriculture or the Chief of the Forest Service as "wilderness", "wild", or "canoe" are hereby designated as wilderness areas. The Secretary of Agriculture shall—

(1) within one year after the effective date of this Act, file a map and legal description of each wilderness area with the Interior and Insular Affairs Committees of the United States Senate and the House of Representatives, which descriptions shall have the same force and effect as if included in this Act: Provided, however, That correction of clerical and typographical errors in such legal descriptions and maps may be made.

(2) ...something to said wilderness areas, rules of regulations ... and regulations governing ingress or egress ... eliminations ... jurisdiction ... regional effective only if so provided by an Act of Congress. Areas classified as "primitive" on the effective date of this Act shall continue to be administered under the rules and regulations affecting such areas on the effective date of this Act until Congress has determined otherwise. Any such area may be increased in size by the President at the time he submits his recommendations to the Congress by not more than five thousand acres with no more than one thousand two hundred and eighty acres of such increase in any one compact unit; if it is proposed to increase the size of any such area by more than five thousand acres or by more than one thousand two hundred and eighty acres in any one compact unit the increase in size shall not become effective until acted upon by Congress. Nothing herein contained shall limit the President in proposing as part of his recommendations to Congress, the alteration of existing boundaries of primitive areas or recommending the addition of any contiguous areas of national forest lands predominantly of wilderness value. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, the Secretary of Agriculture may complete his review and delete such area as may be necessary, but not to exceed seven thousand acres, from the southern tip of the Gore Range-Eagles Nest Primitive Area, Colorado, if the Secretary determines that such action is in the public interest.

(b) ...on the ... for ... established ... of the ... drawings to ... Senate ... with respect to ... upon ...

Report to President.

(c) Within ten years after the effective date of this Act the Secretary of the Interior shall review every roadless area of five thousand contiguous acres or more in the national parks, monuments and other units of the national park system and every such area of, and every roadless island within, the national wildlife refuges and game ranges, under his jurisdiction on the effective date of this Act and shall report to the President his recommendation as to the suitability or nonsuitability of each such area or island for preservation as wilderness. The President shall advise the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of his recommendation with respect to the designation as wilderness of each such area or island on which review has been completed, together with a map thereof and a definition of its boundaries. Such advice shall be given with respect to not less than one-third of the areas and islands to be reviewed under this subsection within three years after enactment of this Act, not less than two-thirds within seven years of enactment of this Act, and the remainder within the tenth year after enactment of this Act. A recommendation of the President for designation as wilderness shall become effective only if so provided by an Act of Congress. Nothing contained herein shall, by inference or otherwise, be construed to lessen the present statutory authority of the Secretary of the Interior with respect to the maintenance of roadless areas within units of the national park system.

Presidential recommendation to Congress.

Congressional approval.

(d) The Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Interior shall, prior to submitting any recommendations to the President with respect to the suitability or nonsuitability for preservation as wilderness of any area under their jurisdiction on the effective date of this Act, give such public notice of the proposed action as they deem appropriate, including publication in the Federal Register and in general circulation publications in the area or areas in the vicinity of the affected land.

Suitability.

Hearings.

Publication in Federal Register.

Every such public notice shall include information to the effect that any person wishing to submit comments or to attend a public hearing on the proposed action may do so within a period of not less than sixty days after the date of publication of such notice in the Federal Register. The Secretary concerned shall hold such public hearings at a location or locations convenient to the area affected. The hearings shall be announced through such notices at least thirty days in advance of the date of the hearing as the Secretaries concerned deem appropriate. Such Secretaries shall also give such notice of proposed action and of public hearings to the Governor of the State or States and to the governing body of each political subdivision within which the area or areas are located, to each Federal department or agency having administrative jurisdiction in the area, and to such additional persons as they may deem desirable. Provided, That if any area proposed for wilderness preservation is located in more than one State, at least one public hearing shall be held in each such State in which a portion of the land

(C) at least thirty days before the date of a hearing advise the Governor of each State and the governing board of each county, or in Alaska the borough, in which the lands are located, and Federal departments and agencies concerned, and invite such officials and Federal agencies to submit their views on the proposed action at the hearing or by no later than thirty days following the date of the hearing.

(2) Any views submitted to the appropriate Secretary under the provisions of (1) of this subsection with respect to any area shall be included with any recommendations to the President and to Congress with respect to such area.

(c) Any modification or adjustment of boundaries of any wilderness area shall be recommended by the appropriate Secretary after public notice of such proposal and public hearings as provided in subsection (b) of this section. The proposed modification or adjustment shall then be recommended with map and description thereof to the President. The President shall advise the United States Senate and the House of Representatives of his recommendations with respect to such modification or adjustment and such recommendations shall become effective only in the same manner as provided for in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. Proposed modification.

USE OF WILDERNESS AREAS

SEC. 4. (a) The purposes of this Act are hereby declared to be within and supplemental to the purposes for which national forests and units of the national park and national wildlife refuge systems are established and administered and—

(1) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to be in interference with the purpose for which national forests are established as set forth in the Act of June 4, 1897 (30 Stat. 11), and the Multiple-Use Sustained-Yield Act of June 12, 1960 (74 Stat. 215). 16 USC 475, 16 USC 528-531.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall modify the restrictions and provisions of the Shipstead-Nolan Act (Public Law 539, Seventy-fourth Congress, June 22, 1936; 49 Stat. 1976), the Thye-Blatnik Act (Public Law 733, Eighty-first Congress, June 22, 1948; 62 Stat. 568), and the Humphrey-Thye-Blatnik-Andresen Act (Public Law 607, Eighty-second Congress, June 22, 1956; 70 Stat. 326), as applying to the Superior National Forest or the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture. 16 USC 577-577b. 16 USC 577c-577h. 16 USC 577d-1, 577e-1, 577h.

(3) Nothing in this Act shall modify the statutory authority under which [illegible] are created. [illegible] mineral [illegible] other [illegible] 39 Stat. 535, 16 USC 1 et seq.

(b) [illegible]

wise provided in this Act, wilderness areas shall be devoted to the public purposes of recreational, scenic, scientific, educational, conservation, and historical use.

PROHIBITION OF CERTAIN USES

(c) Except as specifically provided for in this Act, and subject to existing private rights, there shall be no commercial enterprise and no permanent road within any wilderness area designated by this Act and, except as necessary to meet minimum requirements for the administration of the area for the purpose of this Act (including measures required in emergencies involving the health and safety of persons within the area), there shall be no temporary road, no use of motor vehicles, motorized equipment or motorboats, no landing of aircraft, no other form of mechanical transport, and no structure or installation within any such area.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

(d) The following special provisions are hereby made:

(1) Within wilderness areas designated by this Act the use of aircraft or motorboats, where these uses have already become established, may be permitted to continue subject to such restrictions as the Secretary of Agriculture deems desirable. In addition, such measures may be taken as may be necessary in the control of fire, insects, and diseases, subject to such conditions as the Secretary deems desirable.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall prevent within national forest wilderness areas any activity, including prospecting, for the purpose of gathering information about mineral or other resources, if such activity is carried on in a manner compatible with the preservation of the wilderness environment. Furthermore, in accordance with such program as the Secretary of the Interior shall develop and conduct in consultation with the Secretary of Agriculture, such areas shall be surveyed on a planned, regularly recurring basis consistent with the concept of wilderness preservation by the Geological Survey and the Bureau of Mines to determine the mineral values, if any, that may be present; and the results of such surveys shall be made available to the public and submitted to the President and Congress.

Mineral leases, claims, etc.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, until midnight December 31, 1983, the United States mining laws and all laws pertaining to mineral leasing shall, to the same extent as applicable prior to the effective date of this Act, extend to those national forest lands designated by this Act as "wilderness areas", subject, however, to such reasonable regulations governing ingress and egress as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture consistent with the use for mineral development, and exploration, [illegible] necessary in exploring, drilling, [illegible] including areas essential [illegible] and reclamation as the Secretary of the Interior deems reasonably necessary, and any lessee, [illegible] discovery work, [illegible] have kept their [illegible] boundaries of said wilderness areas [illegible] prospecting or mineral [illegible] under the mineral leasing laws of the United States. Any mineral leases issued hereafter for national forest lands designated by this Act as wilderness areas shall convey only to the mineral deposits

Water resources.

(6) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as affecting the jurisdiction or responsibilities of the several States with respect to wildlife and fish in the national forests.

STATE AND PRIVATE LANDS WITHIN WILDERNESS AREAS

SEC. 5. (a) In any case where State-owned or privately owned land is completely surrounded by national forest lands within areas designated by this Act as wilderness, such State or private owner shall be given such rights as may be necessary to assure adequate access to such State-owned or privately owned land by such State or private owner and its successors in interest, or the State-owned land or privately owned land shall be exchanged for federally owned land in the same State of approximately equal value under authorities available to the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided, however, That the United States shall not transfer to a State or private owner any mineral interests unless the State or private owner relinquishes or causes to be relinquished to the United States the mineral interest in the surrounded land.

Transfers, restriction.

(b) In any case where valid mining claims or other valid occupancies are wholly within a designated national forest wilderness area, the Secretary of Agriculture shall, by reasonable regulations consistent with the preservation of the area as wilderness, permit ingress and egress to such surrounded areas by means which have been customarily enjoyed with respect to other such areas similarly situated.

Acquisition.

(c) Subject to the appropriation of funds by Congress, the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to acquire privately owned land within the perimeter of any area designated by this Act as wilderness if (1) the owner concurs in such acquisition or (2) the acquisition is specifically authorized by Congress.

GIFTS, BEQUESTS, AND CONTRIBUTIONS

SEC. 6. (a) The Secretary of Agriculture may accept gifts or bequests of land within wilderness areas designated by this Act for preservation as wilderness. The Secretary of Agriculture may also accept gifts or bequests of land adjacent to wilderness areas designated by this Act for the preservation of wilderness if he has given sixty days advance notice thereof to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. Land accepted by the Secretary of Agriculture under this section shall, [illegible] wilderness area involved. Regulations [illegible] shall be in accordance with such [illegible] this Act, or are made at the [illegible] such conditions, consistent with such policy, as [illegible] and acceptable under such bequest. [illegible] Secretary of the Interior is [illegible] and gifts to be used in furtherance [illegible] Act.

ANNUAL REPORTS

SEC. 7. At the opening of each session of Congress, the Secretaries [illegible] shall report to the President, for [illegible] the administration of the areas designated [illegible] including [illegible] and classification of the areas in the system, recommending [illegible] or withdrawing recommendations [illegible]

AFFIDAVIT OF THOMAS A KNEESHAW

I, Thomas A Kneeshaw, do hereby make oath in due form of law and state as follows:

1. I am over 18 years of age and competent to testify in this matter.

2. On February 25, 2018, I observed the following:

   I attended a "meet and greet" session sponsored by the NACCB, at their facility located at 12231 Harford Rd, Glen Arm, MD 21057.

   I estimate that there were between 150 and 200 people attending the event.

   I did not see any toilet facilities, "spot-a-pots" or hand washing facilities anywhere on the property.

   Light refreshments were being served in the gazebo on the property.

I HEREBY SWEAR AN AFFIRM UNDER THE PENALTIES OF PERJURY THAT THE AFOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT UPON MY PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE.

AFFIDAVIT OF_Ronald Standiford and Darby Standiford, his wife.

We, Ronald and Darby Standiford do hereby make oath in due form of law and state as follows:

1. We are over 18 years of age and competent to testify in this matter.
2. On a Sunday afternoon in late Spring of 2017, we observed the following:

Four Nepalese persons were walking on the property of Redeemer Presbyterian Church, where we reside at 6415 Mount Vista Road, Kingsville, MD 21087; consisting of an older man and woman, who had come to this county within the month from Nepal and were in Nepalese native dress, along with their son with his wife in Americanized dress. We approached and greeted them. They stated they were originally from Nepal and we understood came to see the Hindu Mandir property. They had driven their car to our place where they were looking for a bathroom. Since we were near the church building, we unlocked the door for them to use the bathroom. Then we said our goodbyes.

WE HEREBY SWEAR AN AFFIRM UNDER THE PENALTIES OF PERJURY THAT THE AFOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT UPON MY PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE.

AFFIDAVIT OF Carol N Shaw

I, Carol N Shaw do hereby make oath in due form of law and state as follows:

1. I am over 18 years of age and competent to testify in this matter.

2. On September 19, 2018 I observed the following:

   I attended the Greater Kingsville Civic Association semi-annual meeting on 9/20/2018 in the meeting hall of the Kingsville Volunteer Fire Company.

   Among other comments, Kris Ghimire, a principal of the NACCB, stated they had three porta-potties for the approximately 300 people per day who were attending their week-long festival July 28 – August 3, 2018.

   David Marks stated that he could not be involved in the NACCB matter.

AFFIDAVIT OF Carol N Shaw

I, Mary Clark do hereby make oath in due form of law and state as follows:

1. I am over 18 years of age and competent to testify in this matter.

2. On September 19, 2018 I observed the following:

   I attended the Greater Kingsville Civic Association semi-annual meeting on September 19, 2018. The meeting was held at Kingsville Volunteer Fire Company.

   During the discussion of the Bonaparte property at 12231 Harford Road, 5th District Councilman, David Marks, stated that he could not be involved in the matter since it was a legislative issue. A short while later Kris Ghimire, a member of the NACCB, told the audience that for the July 28 – August 3, 2018 week-long event, they had 3 porta-potties for approximately 300 people who attended each day.

11th Election District - 5th Councilmanic District
Grace Community Church - Owner/Developer
Case No. XI-770

Dear Mr. Gontrum:

Enclosed please find a copy of the decision rendered in the above-captioned matter. The Development Plan has been approved in accordance with the attached Order.

In the event any party finds the decision rendered is unfavorable, any party may file an appeal to the County Board of Appeals within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. For further information on filing an appeal, please contact the Zoning Administration and Development Management office at 887-3391.

Very truly yours,

TIMOTHY M. KOTROCO
Deputy Zoning Commissioner
for Baltimore County

HEARING OFFICER'S OPINION AND DEVELOPMENT PLAN ORDER

This matter comes before this Hearing Officer for consideration of a development plan prepared by KCW Consultants, Inc., for the proposed development of the subject property by Grace Community Church, Owner/ Developer, with a 40,257 sq.ft. worship center. The subject property and proposed development are more particularly described on the development plan submitted and marked into evidence as Developer's Exhibit 1. The property consists of 16.1 acres, more or less, zoned R.C.5, and is located on the southeast side of Belair Road, not far from its intersection with Goettner Road in Kingsville. The use of the subject property as a church is a use permitted in the R.C.5 zone, therefore, no special zoning relief is necessary in order for the Grace Community Church to locate on the subject property. Furthermore, the Owner/Developer is not requesting any variances pursuant to their request and are merely seeking approval of the development plan.

As to the history of this project, a concept plan of the proposed development was prepared and a conference held thereon on July 1, 1996. As required, a community input meeting was held on August 8, 1996 at the Kingsville Elementary School. A second community input meeting was held on August 13, 1996. The Owner/Developer failed to submit a development plan to Baltimore County within the one year period of limitation as provided in Section 26-203 of the B.C.C. and as such, the Owner/Developer was required to resubmit the concept plan and a second concept plan conference was held on November 17, 1997. The requisite community input meeting was held on December 17, 1997, after which, a development plan was prepared and submitted for review at a conference held on March 25, 1998. Following the submission of that plan, development plan comments were submitted by the appropriate reviewing agencies of Baltimore County and a revised development plan incorporating these comments was submitted at the Hearing Officer's Hearing, the first day of which was scheduled for April 17, 1998. However, at the request of Counsel, the hearing was continued and scheduled for dates more convenient to the Protestants and their attorney, J. Carroll Holzer, Esquire, as well as the Owner/Developer. Therefore, the first date for the Hearing Officer's Hearing commenced May 21, 1998 and concluded on the fifth hearing date of June 11, 1998. In addition, Counsel for both the Owner/Developer and the Protestants were given until July 6, 1998 to submit memoranda in support of their respective positions.

Appearing at the public hearing required for this project were Pastor Gregory W. Gill and numerous other individuals who appeared on behalf of the Grace Community Church, Edwin S. Howe, III, Professional Engineer, with KCW Consultants, Inc., the consulting firm which prepared the development plan for this project, and John B. Gontrum, Esquire, attorney for the Owner/Developer. Many other individuals appeared in opposition to the proposed development, including representatives from the Greater Kingsville Community Association, most of whom were represented by J. Carroll Holzer, Esquire. Numerous representatives of the various Baltimore County agencies who reviewed the plan attended the hearing, including Jun R. Fernando, Rahee Famili, Ron Goodwin, and Dave Flowers.

all representatives of the various divisions of the Department of Permits and Development Management (DPDM); R. Bruce Seeley, Pat Farr, Rob Powell, and Keith Kelley with the Department of Environmental Protection and Resource Management (DEPRM); and Carol McEvoy with the Office of Planning. In addition, Larry Gredlein appeared on behalf of the Maryland State Highway Administration (SHA).

The following is but a summation of the testimony and evidence that was received over the course of the five hearing dates. This Order shall only attempt to address the testimony presented as it relates to the issues raised by those citizens who appeared at the hearing. For a more specific and detailed account of the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing, one should refer to the tape recordings made at the time of the hearing.

Pursuant to Section 26-206 of the Baltimore County Code, which regulates the conduct at the Hearing Officer's Hearing, I am required to first identify any unresolved agency comments or issues. On behalf of the Owner/Developer, Counsel indicated that all issues that they were aware of had been resolved and incorporated into the revised development plan which was submitted into evidence as Developer's Exhibit 1. Furthermore, the County representatives who were in attendance indicated that the proposed project, as set forth on Developer's Exhibit 1, met all of their respective requirements. However, as for the community representatives present, it was clear that several issues remained unresolved. On behalf of his clients, J. Carroll Holzer, Esquire indicated that a plethora of issues remained unresolved. Mr. Holzer subsequently submitted a detailed account of those unresolved issues in his Memorandum of Law submitted on July 6, 1998. In addition, Counsel for the Owner/Developer, John B. Gontrum, Esquire, submitted a Memorandum of Law which addressed the many issues raised by the Protestants.

As to the specifics of the development plan approval request, the Grace Community Church has existed in the Perry Hall area of Baltimore County for several years; however, they are looking at this particular site as the permanent home for their Church, which continues to grow in membership. The Owner/Developer seeks approval to develop the subject property with a two-story worship center, consisting of 40,257 sq.ft., with a capacity to seat up to 900 individuals. In addition, classrooms, administrative offices, and a multi-purpose gymnasium/hall is proposed to be located within this structure. In addition to the Church building, the Owner/Developer proposes two separate parking lots which will provide parking for up to 244 vehicles. Access to the property will be by way of a monumental entrance driveway off of Belair Road. This driveway will consist of two lanes, with a planting strip located between them. A storm water management facility is also proposed, as well as a 40,000 sq.ft. septic reserve area. The rear portion of the site contains an existing stream and associated forest buffers and forest conservation easements. The property is bordered to the south and east by residential properties. On the north side of the property are commercial businesses, in that this particular area of Belair Road is where the commercial district of Kingsville commences. However, further removed from this Belair Road frontage are residential properties which gain access to Belair Road from Goettner Road. Across Belair Road from the subject site is an upscale residential subdivision known as Longfield Estates.

As stated previously, the Greater Kingsville Community Association as well as many other citizens who attended the hearing raised a number of issues concerning the proposed development. Perhaps the most common area of concern relative to this development involved the issue of compatibility, given the size and scope of the proposed building. In view of this issue being the major area of concern shared by most of the Protestants present, it shall be the first issue dealt with by this Order.

1) Compatibility: Testimony indicated that the Office of Planning (OP) mandated that the Owner/Developer provide to them a Compatibility Study regarding this project. The Planning Office interpreted the Kingsville Community plan to require such a study. In addition, OP undertook steps to perform their own compatibility study. Mr. Carol McEvoy testified that her agency's position was that the proposed development is compatible with the surrounding Kingsville community. Furthermore, the Developer offered its own compatibility expert. Mr. William Monk, who was accepted as an expert in land planning and site design, testified that the proposed development is compatible with the surrounding community. Mr. Norman Gerber, former Director of the Office of Planning, who was also accepted as an expert in planning and zoning, took the opposite position. Mr. Gerber opined that the subject project was not compatible with the surrounding community. However, what is germane to the issue at hand is whether a compatibility study was required in the first place.

There is no question that compatibility findings are mandated by the Baltimore County Code (B.C.C.) in certain instances. Specifically, Section 26-282 of the B.C.C. dictates when a compatibility study is required in a development plan case. A careful reading of that Section clearly indicates that the County Council has not required that a compatibility finding be made for this particular development proposal in that the proposed Church facility does not fall within any of the categories found in Section 26-282(a)(1-3). All of the parties at the hearing agreed with this interpretation of that particular Section of the Code. However, the Protestants, as well as the Office of Planning, relied on the Greater Kingsville Area Community Plan for the purpose of requiring the Developer to provide a compatibility study. Inasmuch as the Kingsville plan had no compatibility guidelines, the Office of Planning, on their own initiative, requested the Developer to follow those guidelines found in Section 26-282 of the Code when rendering their opinion as to whether the Grace Community Church and the proposed development was compatible with the surrounding community. The Developer acceded to the pressure of the Planning Office and did, in fact, perform a compatibility study, utilizing the expertise of Mr. William Monk in that regard. However, as stated previously, the Planning Office themselves performed a compatibility study, as did the Protestants, through Mr. Norman Gerber. Apparently, all of these witnesses relied upon Section 26-282 of the Code and the guidelines provided therein when rendering their compatibility findings.

The issue of compatibility originally surfaced as a result of the Greater Kingsville Community Plan, and more specifically, Page 28 thereof. The language contained therein provides that:

> "Design requirements for special forms of development should consider the unique purpose of the site and any structures and require compatibility with the surrounding neighborhood. Structures supporting the special forms of development should be architecturally designed to be compatible with neighboring uses. This requirement of compatibility should extend to fencing and significant landscaping, including reforestation/ aforestation."

The Protestants and the Office of Planning rely upon that provision in the Greater Kingsville Community Plan and interpret that provision to mandate that a compatibility study is required.

After reading that particular provision of the Greater Kingsville Community Plan, I find that the Owner/Developer was not required to perform a formal compatibility study, as found in Section 26-282 of the B.C.C. I further find that such a study is not mandated by that Section. In addition, I find it troubling that the Planning Office required the Grace Community Church to undertake the expense of preparing a compatibility study on this particular project when no such study was required to be performed by the Pilgrim Presbyterian Church, which is also located in Kingsville. The Pilgrim Presbyterian Church sought development plan approval before this Hearing Officer within weeks of the Grace Community Church case; however, no compatibility study was requested or performed. My interpretation of the language contained within the Greater Kingsville Community Plan is that no formal compatibility study is required.

Furthermore, and paramount to the issue at hand, is what weight should be given to the Greater Kingsville Community Plan as it pertains to this particular case. The Protestants rely upon Section 26-166(a) of the B.C.C. which clearly states that "All development of land must conform to the master plan, including adopted community plans and these regulations." (emphasis added) Testimony clearly demonstrated that the Greater Kingsville Community Plan was, in fact, an adopted community plan and falls within this particular provision of the Code. That particular provision of the Code has been interpreted by myself and my colleague, Zoning Commissioner Lawrence E. Schmidt, in many cases heard prior to the Grace Community Church. Most recently, Mr. Schmidt dealt extensively with this issue in the case of Graystone Farms Estates development plan, Case No. VII-321. Interestingly enough, that particular case involved the participation of Mr. Gontrum and Mr. Holzer, both of whom are Counsel in the case before me. Mr. Schmidt wrote an extensive analysis of Section 26-166(a) and the manner in which that Section is interpreted, in light of Section 26-167(b). As it is the goal of this Office to be as consistent as possible in our decisions on development plans, I find it compelling to incorporate herein the interpretation applied by my colleague in his opinion on the Graystone Farms Estates case. In his decision, Mr. Schmidt stated as follows:

> "Section 26-166 of the Code contains the development policies for Article V. It sets forth the vision of the regulations. Section 26-167 of the Code is similar in nature, in that it sets forth the purposes of the regulations. Section 26-167(b) states, 'Compliance with the development regulations hereinafter set forth and the comprehensive manual of development policies shall be deemed the fulfillment of the development policies set forth in Section 26-166 and purposes set forth in Section 26-167.' (emphasis added)
> Mr. Peterson, as set forth in his memorandum, contends that Section 167(b) constitutes a rebuttable statutory presumption. Moreover, he claims that he has produced testimony and evidence which successfully rebuts this presumption. The Developer/Peti- tioner, on the other hand, contends that the language of Section 26-167(b) connotes a mandatory finding and/or that the Developer has more than overcome any burden raised by the Protestants' offers of proof.
> It is the cardinal rule of statutory interpretation that the words used in any legislation are to be given their natural and usual meaning, considered with reference to the aim and objective of the statute. See Chesapeake Industrial Leasing Co. v. Comptroller, 331 Md. 428 (1993). A statute must be interpreted reasonably and with reference to the legislative purpose, aim or policy as reflected in that statute. Department of Economic and Employment Development v. Lilley, 106 Md. App. 744 (1995). Moreover, in order to ascertain and effectuate legislative intention, an examination of the language of the statute, itself, is the primary tool used. Klingenberg v. Klingenberg, 342 Md. 316 (1996).
> The language employed in Sections 26-166 and 26-167 sets forth the goals and aims of the development regulations. By their very nature, these goals and aims must be broadly and generally stated. Although each goal considered individually is laudable, the application of these policies and purposes to a particular project can result in obvious contradictions. For example, Section 26-166(b)(1) states as a policy, 'Promotion and encouragement of economic development to ... house the citizens of Baltimore County.' The Developer, in the instant case, would no doubt claim that this policy is being fulfilled by the proposed Graystone Farms Estate residential project. On the other hand, the language set forth in Section 26-166(b)(7) identifies the, 'Preservation of agricultural lands...' as a policy. The Protestants, obviously, contend that this policy is not being met here. These contradictions demonstrate that a strict application of the policies and purposes set forth in Sections 26-166 and 26-167 is difficult on a case by case basis, due to the inherent conflicts in these expressed policies and purposes.

It was no doubt because of this fact that the County Council enacted Section 26-167(b). In my judgment, this Section was created to express the clear mandate that if the development regulations and provision of the C.M.D.P. were satisfied in a development plan, the purposes and policies were, likewise, met by that plan.

I base this conclusion upon several factors. The Council's choice of words (e.g. 'shall be deemed') is significant. Ordinarily, when used in the language of a statute, the word 'shall' is regarded as being a direct indication that the legislature mandates that certain conduct is required. Prince Georges County v. Vieira, 340 Md. 651 (1995). Ordinarily, the word 'shall' is mandatory when used in a statute, and thus denotes an imperative obligation inconsistent with the idea of discretion. Turkey Point Property Owners Association, Inc., v. Anderson, 106 Md. App. 710.

There is little case law on the meaning of the word 'deem'. Both parties, within their memoranda, cited the definition of that word in various dictionaries. Webster's Third New International Dictionary of the English Language, Unabridged, defines the word as 'to come to view, judge, or classify after some reflection or to form or have an opinion.' Black's Law Dictionary states that the word means 'To hold, consider, adjudge, condemn, determine, treat as if or construe.'

In considering these definitions, I hereby conclude that the phrase 'shall be deemed' as used in Section 26-167(b) means that if a Developer complies with the development regulations and comprehensive manual of development policies, such compliance must be considered or is required to be held, as the fulfillment of the development policies and purposes set forth in Sections 26-166 and 26-167.

Such a conclusion is entirely consistent with the use of the phrase 'shall be deemed' elsewhere in the development regulations. As the Developer points out, Section 26-181 also uses that phrase and the context therein connotes a mandatory direction. The phrase is also used in Section 26-206(i) and is clearly mandatory there. It defies logic that the Council would intend the phrase as expressing one meaning in one part of the development regulations and a different meaning in another part.

Finally, I note Mr. Peterson's contention that the subject plan is inconsistent with the development policy set forth in Section 26-166 in that same allegedly fails to conform to the Baltimore County Master Plan, 1989-2000. He specifically cites the first sentence in Section 26-166(a), which states 'All development of land must conform to the Master Plan including adoptive community plans and these regulations.' He alleges that the subject plan is not in conformance and must, therefore, be denied in its present form. I disagree.

The Master Plan is defined in Section 26-1 of the County Code as, '...a composite of the mapped and written proposals of the systematic physical development of the County...'. The Master Plan is comprehensively discussed in Division 2 of Article III of the Code, Sections 26-81 through 26-85. Section 26-81 requires for the adoption of a Master Plan 'which generally shall comprise land use...'. (emphasis added) Section 26-84 states that 'The Master Plan shall be made with the general purpose of guiding and accomplishing a coordinated, adjusted and harmonious development of the County...' These statements make it clear that the Master Plan is a general compilation of material which shall set the overall direction for development in the County. As has been frequently stated, the Master Plan is but a guide. (See pg. 7 - Role of the Master Plan - Master Plan, Baltimore County, 1989-2000)."

The Graystone Farms Estates matter before Mr. Schmidt involved a potential conflict with the Baltimore County Master Plan. The issue before me involves the application of the Greater Kingsville area community plan to the proposed development. The language in Section 26-166(a) states that the development of land must conform to the Master Plan including adopted community plans. (emphasis added) Therefore, the analysis provided by Mr. Schmidt in the Graystone case is directly applicable to my analysis of the application of the Greater Kingsville area community plan to the proposed development. The Greater Kingsville area community plan is but a guide and does not dictate development on this particular parcel of land.

Inasmuch as the B.C.C. does not require a finding of compatibility by this Hearing Officer, and inasmuch as the Master Plan and the Greater Kingsville area community plan are but "guides" in the development of properties, I find that it is not necessary for this Hearing Officer to rule on the compatibility of the Grace Community Church development to the surrounding Kingsville community. My decision herein is further supported by the fact that no compatibility finding or study was required to be made in the Pilgrim Presbyterian Church development plan case, which, as noted above, is also located in the Kingsville area. Neither the Office of Planning or the Greater Kingsville Community Association, both of whom participated in that case, requested a finding of compatibility or offered any testimony or evidence as to the compatibility of that Church with the surrounding community. Therefore, I find that a compatibility finding is not required.

2) Size and Scope of Grace Community Church:

While I have previously determined that it was not necessary for the parties to do a formal compatibility presentation, the issue of the size and scope of the facility certainly is one that must be addressed by this Hearing Officer. Many may interpret these two areas to be very similar in nature, and in some instances they may be. However, while size and scope of the proposed development is a consideration, it does not require me to make comparisons of this project to others in the Kingsville neighborhood. I will simply evaluate the size and scope of this particular project as it relates to the the subject property and any potential adverse effects that this development may have on the surrounding community.

Testimony and evidence indicated that the Grace Community Church originally proposed a facility consisting of three separate buildings, one of which would contain a 27,000 sq.ft. main structure, a 4,000 sq.ft. administrative building, and an 11,000 sq.ft. gymnasium/activity center. In addition, the original proposal called for 464 paved parking spaces which were to be provided around the three-building complex. In addition, the 27,000 sq.ft. sanctuary was of a circular design at that time.

After much opposition from the surrounding community, the Grace Community Church redesigned the project into a single building containing 47,257 sq.ft., with the same seating capacity as that previously proposed. However, the Owner/Developer has reduced the number of paved parking spaces on the subject property from 464 to 244. Furthermore, the Grace Community Church redesigned the architectural theme of the Church, eliminating the circular design for the sanctuary and replacing same with a more agricultural-looking barn-type building with dormer windows and steep pitched roofs. The structure, as it is seen from Belair Road, gives more of a rural appearance than that which was previously designed. It is this size, scope, seating capacity, and potential use that many of the citizens in attendance expressed concern. The Protestants rightfully stated at the hearing that while the Owner/Developer has made efforts to redesign and eliminate parking on the subject property, the seating capacity of the Church, which was originally proposed at 900 seats, remains the same. The ability to seat 900 individuals as well as the additional members who will attend Sunday School services has caused the community concern, given the amount of traffic that such large numbers will generate and the adverse impact that such a large gathering may have on water and septic on the subject property as well as those properties immediately adjacent thereto.

After considering the testimony and evidence offered by the Owner/Developer, as well as the Protestants, I find that the size of the Grace Community Church, which at this time constitutes a single two-story building, comprising 40,257 sq.ft. which includes the sanctuary, the administrative offices, and the multi-purpose gymnasium/activity center, is appropriate for the subject 16.1 acre parcel of land. The Owner/Developer has endeavored to meet the demands of the community by redesigning the Church building to give it more of a rural appearance. The architectural rendering depicted on Developer's Exhibit 3 evidences the rural design and character of the proposed facility, and appropriate conditions and restrictions shall be imposed on the design and appearance of the building to insure that the Church is built according to that theme. Furthermore, the reduction in the parking lot area from 464 parking spaces to 244 spaces, is also appropriate. The Owner/Developer has done an excellent job of breaking up the parking fields on the subject property and landscaping them in the fashion depicted on the landscape plan. Appropriate conditions and restrictions shall be imposed upon the Developer to insure that the landscaping and screening are installed and that the parking areas are not expanded in the future.

However, what is troubling to this Hearing Officer is that while the Owner/Developer has made an effort to reduce the parking areas on the subject property and consolidated the Grace Community Church facility from three separate buildings into one two-story structure, the Owner/Developer has not in any manner decreased the seating capacity of the Church itself. What is more troubling is the fact that while the Church obviously felt that the parking needs for 900 seats under the previous proposal justified a parking lot with 464 parking spaces, the current proposal for those same 900 seats only provides 244 parking spaces. While the parking provided by the Owner/Developer meets the criteria found in the zoning regulations, in that no variance is being requested, I am concerned that, in actuality, there will be a parking problem.

Testimony offered by Pastor Gill on behalf of the Grace Community Church, demonstrated that the Church intends to proceed with development of the subject site in several phases. Phase I would involve building the sanctuary containing 500 seats, the parking lot, and the main shell of the Church building itself. The second phase of the development would allow for the construction of the second floor, or tier, of the sanctuary which would add the additional 400 seats thereby bringing the total number of seats to 900. The third phase involves the construction of the gymnasium/ recreational hall, which would not affect the number of seats.

After considering the testimony and evidence on this issue, I find that the Church should only be permitted to construct a sanctuary with the seating capacity for 500 individuals. Limiting the development to a 500-seat capacity eliminates my concern over the number of parking spaces provided. The 244 parking spaces are more than enough to serve a sanctuary capacity of 500 people.

The Church may, at some point in the future, request a special hearing to modify this seating capacity restriction. However, no future modification of the seating capacity above and beyond 500 seats shall be permitted unless a public hearing is held to entertain the purposes for such a request and also to address any concerns the surrounding community may have over an increase in seating capacity. Furthermore, while I have limited the seating capacity of the sanctuary area to 500, there shall be no standing room or temporary seating allowed anywhere within the second tier of the sanctuary. Additionally, in no event shall the gymnasium/ recreational hall be used in conjunction with the sanctuary for Church services. The second tier or upper floor area of the sanctuary may only be utilized for Church services in the future, if, and only if, a future hearing has been held and permission specifically granted to the Church by a Baltimore County Hearing Officer as to the appropriateness of the expansion of the sanctuary.

Therefore, in consideration of this issue raised by the many citizens who attended the hearing, I find that the seating capacity of the proposed Church shall be strictly limited to 500 seats, and the parking lot restricted to 244 parking spaces, spread out over two separate parking fields as shown on the development plan. There shall be no further expansion of either the sanctuary or these parking areas without a future public hearing to determine the appropriateness of such an increase.

3) Should the Grace Community Church development plan be referred to the Planning Board on the issue of compatibility and a historical site?.

As to the issue of whether this matter should be referred to the Planning Board, Section 26-207 of the Baltimore County Code (B.C.C.) applies to those instances wherein matters should be referred to the Planning Board. Section 26-207 mandates that this Hearing Officer should refer to the Planning Board any proposal that conflicts with the Master Plan. There was no testimony or evidence offered that the proposal by the Grace Community Church conflicts with the Baltimore County Master Plan. Therefore, I find that there is no Master Plan conflict.

Moving on to the issue of a historical site, there was testimony presented that a property known as Gruppy Hollow, exists in close proximity to the subject site. That site is, in fact, on the Landmarks Preservation Committee's final list. Mr. John McGrain, the County Historian, appeared and testified concerning Gruppy Hollow. Mr. McGrain testified that this property, which at one time consisted of a tanyard and springhouse, dates back to the 1820s. Gruppy Hollow is located approximately 1000 feet south of the subject site on Belair Road. It was Mr. McGrain's opinion was that this Church proposal will not adversely affect that historical site.

After considering Mr. McGrain's testimony concerning the subject property and the manner in which it relates to the historic Gruppy Hollow, I find that the development plan submitted at the hearing before me does not "involve" a building, structure or site included on the Landmarks Preservation Commission's preliminary or final list. Therefore, the matter need not be referred to the Planning Board.

4) Traffic:

Many of the citizens who attended the hearing were concerned over the traffic that will be generated by the proposed project. I, too, had concerns over the issue of traffic, which may have been evident by the questions asked by me at the hearing. However, I have already reduced the seating capacity of the Grace Community Church from 900 seats to 500 seats, which, in and of itself, will reduce the potential for traffic coming and going to the site by over 40%. However, I am still concerned over the manner in which members of the Church will exit the site once services have concluded. I am primarily concerned with members leaving the site, turning left onto Belair Road, and traveling in a southerly direction. Crossing over Belair Road at this location, which involves a four-lane highway and vehicles traveling in excess of 55 mph, can be somewhat dangerous. The volume of cars exiting the property at the conclusion of services is at its maximum. Allowing vehicles to turn left onto Belair Road during these peak times would prove too dangerous. Therefore, I believe that the exit from the Grace Community Church site should be restricted in the following manner: Either the Church will have to employ the services of the Baltimore County Police Department to assist motorists leaving Church services in making a left turn onto Belair Road, or the exit from the Church shall be limited to right turns only and posted accordingly. If the Baltimore County Police are unable to assist the Grace Church in facilitating left turns from the subject site, members will have to make a right turn from the property and travel north on Belair Road. They then will have to use the triangle at Belair/Jerusalem/Bradshaw Roads, to utilize the traffic signal at Belair Road and Sunshine Avenue to safely proceed south on Belair Road. Therefore, while the issue of traffic is not sufficient to justify an outright denial of the development plan, it is sufficient to warrant the imposition of this restriction.

5) Environmental Impact of the Grace Community Church on the subject site and adjacent properties:

The Protestants offered extensive testimony and evidence concerning the potential impact that the proposed development will have on water and septic use on the subject site and on surrounding properties. As to the water usage, testimony and evidence indicated that the Owner/Developer was successful in locating a well on the subject property which yields 15 gpm, is 135 feet deep, with a static water level of 16 feet. Having reduced the seating capacity of the Church facility from 900 seats to 500 seats, I find that the existing well at 15 gpm is more than enough to serve the Church. Mr. Rob Powell, a representative of DEPRM, testified that he used statistics indicating a daily usage of 3 gallons of water per seat per day for this particular Church. I have a difficult time understanding how that much water can be used by Church members on any given day. However, I assume that Mr. Powell based his analysis on a "worst case scenario" to insure that there is enough water for the proposed use and enough septic capacity. Having found that the 15 gpm well is sufficient to accommodate the proposed 500-seat Church, I also find, given the reduction in seating capacity, that the septic reserve area designed by the Church and Mr. Powell is sufficient to accommodate the needs of the Church. Mr. Powell is responsible for reviewing percolation tests and the design of septic systems. Mr. Powell designed the septic field for this project, based on a capacity of 900 seats, operating at full capacity. My analysis of the testimony and evidence presented is that Mr. Powell overdesigned the septic field, and that there is more than sufficient capacity to handle the 500-seat sanctuary and the use proposed by the Church. I find that the septic area is sufficient, even though the draw-down times on two of the three test pits were at 2 minutes. Furthermore, testimony revealed that there will be no cooking facilities, other than a "warming kitchen" at this Church. This also lessens the impact on the septic system.

In addition, testimony revealed that there was a leaking fuel tank located on the property immediately to the north of the proposed development. That fuel tank has been removed and the State has installed monitoring wells at that location. Thus, I find that the situation involving this fuel tank is not sufficient to warrant a denial of this development plan. Based on the testimony and evidence offered at the hearing, I find that there are no environmental impacts, be it water use, septic use, wetland delineation, leaking fuel tank, or other environmental considerations, that warrant a denial of this development plan.

6) Is the landscaping and buffer proposed sufficient for the proposed development?:

Testimony and evidence offered revealed that the subject 16.1 acre parcel contains a substantial amount of natural vegetation and buffer. Developer's Exhibit 6, the landscape plan for this project, shows extensive natural vegetation and landscaping existing on the east side of the tract, along a stream that traverses that portion of the property. Therefore, in my view, landscaping and buffering is not an issue in that area. Furthermore, there is substantial natural vegetation and landscaping on the south side of the subject property as shown on the plan. The Developer proposes to locate the Church building in the center of what is as this time, an open field. Furthermore, the parking areas will also be located in an open field. The Owner/Developer proposes no clearing of the existing tree line on the subject property, but for a small area of trees along Belair Road. Ms. Sally Molena, a Landscape Architect engaged by the Owner/Developer, testified as to the landscape plan proposed by the Developer. The Developer has done an excellent job in landscaping the subject property.

After considering the testimony and evidence offered by Ms. Molena and after reviewing the landscape plan and making numerous site visits to the property, I find that the natural vegetation in conjunction with the landscaping proposed by this Developer will be more than sufficient to buffer the proposed development from the surrounding community as well as from passing motorists on Belair Road. My finding was also corroborated by Mr. Avery Harden, who is the Landscape Architect for Baltimore County. Mr. Harden has reviewed the landscaping proposed for the subject property and expressed the opinion that the landscaping proposed is sufficient and appropriate. Therefore, I find that the landscaping and buffering proposed for this site is sufficient and does not warrant a denial of the development plan.

7) Lighting and Noise:

The Protestants raised the issue of lighting of the subject site and noise which might be generated as a result of the proposed use of this property. Specifically, the Protestants are concerned over the illumination of the parking areas as well as the lighting of the facade of the Church facility itself. Given the rural character of the Kingsville community, their concerns are justified. The Protestants are concerned that an over-illumination of the property will detract from the rural character of the surrounding community. Therefore, appropriate conditions and restrictions shall be imposed by way of this Order to insure that the lighting is appropriate. In addition to the lighting concerns, the citizens also expressed concern over noise. As with lighting, noise can also be a problem given the rural character of this area. Therefore, appropriate conditions and restrictions will also be imposed to limit the activity that might occur outside the Church sanctuary to insure that any noise generated by the use of the subject property will not adversely affect the surrounding community. While these issues are not sufficient to warrant an outright denial of the development plan, they are sufficient to justify the imposition of conditions and restrictions.

8) Storm Water Management, Sediment, and Erosion Control:

Mr. Holzer's Memorandum on behalf of the Protestants listed as an issue, storm water management, sediment and erosion control. These issues may have been touched on in the course of the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing. As to the storm water management facility, the Owner/Developer is proposing a storm water management pond in the south-eastern corner of the subject site. Testimony at the hearing indicated that the proposed pond will be sufficient to handle any storm water runoff that will be generated by virtue of the proposed development. Furthermore, restrictions on the future expansion of the paved parking areas will also serve to limit the amount of storm water runoff generated by this facility. Some of the concerns raised by the Protestants may have related to the future expansion of the parking lots and their ability to handle that additional storm water runoff. However, again, in consideration of the conditions and restrictions imposed on parking lot expansion, that concern should be eliminated. In my view, the storm water management proposed at this time is sufficient to accommodate the storm water that will be generated by the proposed facility.

As to sediment and erosion control, the Developer shall be required to perform any and all necessary silt fencing and other sediment and erosion control measures that apply to a development of this nature. Those erosion control measures shall be supervised and at the direction of DEPRM who routinely oversees those issues as development occurs. Thus, this issue is not sufficient to warrant a denial of this development plan.

9) Failure of the Developer's Engineer to identify on the Development Plan wells and septic systems adjacent to the proposed development.

On cross-examing Mr. Edwin Howe, III, the professinal engineer who prepared the development plan, Mr. Holzer was able to bring out that there were certain wells and septic areas on adjacent properties that were not noted on the plan. Mr. Holzer indicated that the concept plan check-list requires that wells and septic systems located within 100 feet of the boundary of the proposed development are to be shown. There are certain instances where this was not done. Mr. Holzer moved that the hearing be dismissed and the development plan denied, based on the failure of the Developer's engineer to show these items. While those items are required to be shown on the development plan, I find, in this particular instance, that the lack of same does not warrant a denial of the development plan. In this particular case, the lack of that information on the development plan does not affect the overall development proposal of the site. On the east and south sides of the subject property, the disturbance due to the construction of this facility will be a considerable distance away from its boundaries. This is also true on the north side of the site. In some cases, such as the instant case, it is next to impossible for an engineer to locate these particular items. The engineer would have to trespass onto private property to locate such items. Many property owners who live around a controversial development of this nature would in no way grant permission for a developer to come onto their property to locate such items. This could be interpreted as supporting the development itself. Therefore, I find that the Engineer's failure to show the well and septic of all properties within 100 feet of the boundary of the subject property and any streams, seeps, ponds, or other water bodies, if any, within 200 feet of the boundary of the subject site, does not warrant a denial of this development plan. The Owner/Developer has complied to the extent possible to show all information that is required to be shown on the development plan.

10) Enforcement of the conditions and restrictions imposed:

The Protestants in attendance and Mr. Holzer argued that many of the conditions and restrictions noted on the plan at this time, and quite possibly, those restrictions which will be imposed by this Hearing Officer upon the Developer, will be difficult, if not impossible, to enforce. The concerns expressed by the citizens were taken into consideration by this Hearing Officer and every attempt to address those concerns will be built into the conditions and restrictions imposed hereinafter. Again, this issue is not sufficient to warrant a denial of the development plan at this time. In the event the Owner/Developer fails to comply with the conditions and restrictions imposed upon them by way of this Order, then the matter shall be referred to the Code Enforcement Division of the Department of Permits and Development Management (DPDM) for prosecution.

All the other issues or concerns raised by the Protestants were not sufficient to justify a denial of this development plan. The plan as submitted complies with the development regulations and applicable policies, rules and regulations promulgated, pursuant to Section 2-416, et sec, of the Code, and therefore, shall be approved. However, in accordance with Section 26-206(o), I shall impose such conditions and restrictions that I believe are necessary, based upon the issues and concerns raised by the Protestants. Those conditions and restrictions are more fully set forth below.

Pursuant to the zoning and development plan regulations of Baltimore County as contained within the B.C.Z.R. and Subtitle 26 of the Baltimore County Code, the advertising of the property and public hearing held thereon, the development plan shall be approved consistent with the comments contained herein and the restrictions set forth hereinafter.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED by the Deputy Zoning Commissioner/Hearing Officer for Baltimore County this 30th day of July, 1998 that the development plan for the Grace Community Church, identified herein as Developer's Exhibit 1, be and is hereby APPROVED, subject to the following terms and restrictions:

1) The design and appearance of the proposed Church shall be in accordance with that shown on Developer's Exhibit 3, the artist's rendering of the appearance of the Church. The Owner/Developer shall be required to utilize building materials as shown in that rendering. Furthermore, the roof of the Church shall be a gray-green or dark green in color. The height of the Church shall not exceed 35 feet at the peak of its roof. The bell tower shall be permitted to be higher than 35 feet

2) There shall be no lighting of the facade of the Church building in any manner, except for security purposes, as necessary. Any lighting the Church wishes to install on the subject property shall be reviewed for its appropriateness by Avery Harden, Landscape Architect for Baltimore County.

3) While the exterior of the Church building will be built as set forth on the plan, the Church is limited to a sanctuary with a 500-seat capacity. The second tier of the proposed Church may be built at this time; however, no seating is permitted in that area, nor shall any standing room or temporary seating be provided in that area. There shall be no activity taking place on the second tier of the sanctuary at any time during Church services. The Owner/Developer shall be permitted to modify this seating restriction in the future, but only after a public hearing is held to determine the appropriateness of any expansion in the seating capacity of this Church to that second tier.

4) The fellowship hall/gymnasium may be built at this time or at a later date; however, this fellowship hall/gymnasium shall in no way be used in conjunction with the sanctuary for Church services. No additional seating or standing room shall be permitted in the fellowship hall/gymnasium during Church services.

5) There shall be no additional buildings of any kind constructed elsewhere on the subject property, other than what has been shown on the development plan. This provision may only be modified by way of an additional public hearing to consider the appropriateness of any additional structure which may be intended to be built on the subject property.

6) There shall be no broadcast or communication towers erected on the subject property.

7) The parking lot as shown on Developer's Exhibit 1 shall consist of 244 parking spaces, dispersed over two separate parking fields. There shall be no additional paved parking areas other than what has been presented and shown on the development plan. No additional paved parking areas shall be permitted without another public hearing to consider the appropriateness of additional parking spaces. The Owner/Developer shall be permitted to use grassy, open areas of the subject property for overflow parking, only during Christmas and Easter Church services. There shall be no overflow parking permitted on the open fields of this property at any other times during the year.

8) There shall be no kitchen or cooking facilities located within the Church, other than the permitted "warming kitchen", as discussed at the hearing and approved by DEPRM.

9) There shall be no daycare or other school facility provided within the Church. Of course, Sunday School classes for members of the congregation are permitted.

10) There shall be no outdoor services of any kind, no outdoor concerts, or carnivals permitted on the Church grounds. There shall be no outdoor loudspeakers or outdoor pavilions of any kind permitted on the property.

11) The Owner/Developer is required to install all landscaping as shown on Developer's Exhibit 6, the landscaping plan submitted at the hearing. The landscaping to be installed shall be reviewed and approved by Avery Harden, Landscape Architect for Baltimore County. Mr. Harden, at his discretion, shall be permitted to increase the amount of landscaping to be installed should the need arise to provide additional buffering or screening.

12) Within ninety (90) days of the date of this Order, the owner/Developer shall be required to submit a lighting plan for the subject property for review and approval by Mr. Avery Harden. Said plan shall be a computer-generated lighting plan, containing light standards no taller than 20 feet, utilizing cut-off lighting versus floodlighting. Said lighting shall be extinguished one hour after the latest evening service then occuring on the property, or by no later than 10:00 PM on any evening, whichever is later. In addition, the entrance sign to the Grace Community Church may not be back-lit; however, the Church shall be permitted to use ground spot-lights to illuminate their sign, so long as this ground lighting does not impact the night vision of motorists travelling along Belair Road. As with all other lighting, the lighting for the identification sign must be extinguished by 10:00 PM of any evening, or within one hour after the last evening service, whichever is later.

13) The Church shall be responsible to secure the services of the Baltimore County Police Department to assist in directing traffic safely from the subject site. If this is not possible, only right turns onto Belair Road shall be permitted from the subject property and the Church shall be required to post their exit accordingly. This restriction shall only apply at the conclusion of regular Church services. At other times during the week, Church members shall be permitted to make left turns onto Belair Road. As stated earlier in this opinion, the volume of cars exiting the property at the conclusion of services is at its maximum. Allowing Church members to turn left during these peak times would be too dangerous. Therefore, members must turn right and proceed to the triangle at Belair/Jerusalem/Bradshaw Roads in order to turn south on Belair Road at the traffic light. Members are prohibited from using Goettner Road unless they reside in that area of the community.

14) The Owner/Developer shall permit a Baltimore County Code Enforcement Inspector to have access to all areas of the Church for purposes of ensuring compliance with the terms, conditions and restrictions of this Order.

15) When applying for any permits, the site plan and landscaping plan filed must reference this case and set forth and address the restrictions of this Order.

Any appeal of this decision must be taken in accordance with Section 26-209 of the Baltimore County Code.

* BEFORE THE
* DEPUTY ZONING COMMISSIONER
* OF BALTIMORE COUNTY
* Case No. 94-50-SPH

* * * * * * * * * * *

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This matter comes before the Deputy Zoning Commissioner as a Petition for Special Hearing filed by the owner of the subject property, Beachmont, Inc., by Paul T. Twining, Director and Gil Thompson, Secretary, through their attorney, Ernest C. Trimble, Esquire. The Petitioner seeks approval of an amendment to the previously approved site plans in Case Nos. 75-83-X and 89-489-SPH by removing Restrictions 1, 2 and 3 thereof and approving the modified site plans proposed herein, in accordance with Petitioner's Exhibit 1.

Appearing on behalf of the Petition were Paul Twining, Director, and Gilbert Thompson, Secretary. The Petitioners were represented by Ernest C. Trimble, Esquire. Appearing as Protestants in the matter were Scott Striebinger, Dorothy Dunsmore, Robert G. Hamilton and Marianne Roebber-Hamilton, Robert F. Long, Franz Brandl, and Charles E. Lucas, all residents of the surrounding community.

The first hearing in this matter was held on September 9, 1993. After taking testimony and evidence at that hearing, the case was continued to allow the Petitioners and the Protestants an opportunity to meet and discuss the proposed changes to the site plan. A continued hearing was scheduled for November 19, 1993 to take testimony and evidence concerning the negotiations that took place from the time of the first hearing.

Mr. Twining also testified concerning special events that take place on the property. He testified that Beachmont has a special Fourth of July celebration and a special Easter celebration at which as many as 800 people will attend. The Petitioner seeks the ability to operate six (6) special functions per year with no more than 1,000 persons present at any one event. Furthermore, Mr. Twining testified that in the 19 years Beachmont has operated from the subject site, there have never been any motor vehicle accidents at the entrance to the facility from Mt. Vista Road. He further testified that the Camp does offer live music which is played in conjunction with their Christian services. He testified that the new activity center will take some of that live music, which can be offensive to surrounding residents, indoors and will eliminate some of the noise about which the neighbors have complained. Mr. Twining testified that the new building they wish to construct will cost approximately $700,000 which the Camp still needs to raise at this time.

The Petitioner also submitted several letters of support from various beneficiaries for both the day camp operations and the relief requested by Beachmont. It should also be noted that several letters of opposition were submitted by various residents in the area, including some of the Protestants who appeared at the hearing.

As previously stated, several residents appeared in opposition to the Petitioner's request. The testimony presented was basically uniform in its nature. The residents complained of the noise generated by the Christian Camp. Furthermore, they testified that campers will often take hayrides along the border of the Christian Camp and their respective properties, and that on occasions, these day campers will impose upon their privacy by looking into their property as they pass by. Furthermore, the adjacent property owners complained of a vespers area that is situated on the southern corner of the property. This area has been set aside by Beachmont as an area for Christian services to take place outdoors. The vespers area has been set aside because of its location near an existing lake on the property. Furthermore, there is a small alter area where these vespers take place. The Protestants find these services objectionable because of noise generated by the use of loudspeakers during these Christian services. Furthermore, they stated that music is often played loudly during these services which also imposes upon the peace and tranquility the residents have come to enjoy in this rural area of Baltimore County.

The neighbors also objected to the use of campfires by Beachmont Christian Camp. They testified that on occasions, the smoke from the campfire will drift onto their adjacent properties and pose a nuisance to them. Furthermore, they fear that any increase in membership or construction of new facilities will exacerbate the already undesirable conditions that exist as a result of the Christian Camp operation.

At the conclusion of the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing, I gave an opportunity to the Protestants and the Petitioners to meet and discuss some of the differences that were voiced at the hearing. The individuals involved were given a sufficient amount of time to exchange information and ideas as to how to make this a better Christian Camp for all concerned. After an appropriate amount of time, the matter was reset for a hearing on negotiations and any progress that was made between the parties. Mr. Scott Striebinger, President of the Greater Mt. Vista Association, advised this office by letter dated October 15, 1993 of the progress, or lack of progress, that was made between the parties and submitted a list of their concerns. The issues raised in his letter will be addressed pursuant to the restrictions and conditions imposed at the end of this Order.

It should be noted that the only restriction that is applicable to this property, according to the records of the Baltimore County Zoning Administration Office, is the number of individuals permitted to utilize the proposed activity center which is limited to 250 persons at this time. The second restriction which concerned overnight camping is not applicable as the Petitioner does not intend to provide overnight camping facilities. To that end, I will impose a restriction that no overnight camping be permitted on the property.

As noted above, the Petitioner wishes to increase the number of people permitted to utilize the activity center from 250 to 350 persons. The Petitioner is also requesting to increase the total number of people permitted to use the camp from October through April to 350 people daily and to increase the total number of people permitted to use the camp from May through September to a maximum of 720 people daily. In addition, the Petitioner wishes to increase the number of special events held from two times per year to six times per year and to permit an increase in the maximum number of people permitted to attend those events to 1,000. I was unable to find in the two prior cases referenced pursuant to this special hearing any of the restrictions cited herein. The testimony and evidence presented was unclear as to whether these were restrictions that were imposed by either Mr. DiNenna or Mr. Haines, the two previous zoning Commissioners who heard those cases. However, I will rule upon the appropriateness of the Petitioner's request in this instance, inasmuch as it is the Petitioner who has indicated that these restrictions apply to the use of the subject property.

In the opinion of this Deputy Zoning Commissioner, the number of persons permitted to use the activity center should be increased. Since the time that Mr. DiNenna imposed that restriction upon the use of the barn, which has since been razed, several changes have taken place. The Camp has acquired additional land and now totals 31.2 acres. The Petitioner seeks to develop the site with a $700,000 facility to accommodate guests as opposed to accommodating them in the old barn. The new activity center can easily handle the increased number of people proposed and the effects on the community will be minimal since activity will be inside. Also any additional traffic as a result of the increased number of people permitted to use the facility should not pose any problems since there have never been any accidents at the entrance to this site and parking on site is plentiful. Therefore, I believe that the number of persons permitted to utilize the new activity center should be increased from 250 to 350 people. This limitation of 350 people daily shall apply to all twelve (12) months of the year and the only exception to that number shall be for "special events" held by the Petitioner.

The main purpose for requesting the special hearing is to permit Beachmont to construct a new activity center in the location where the old barn used to exist. This is something that has been contemplated over the many years that Beachmont has been in existence. I believe it is appropriate at this time for Beachmont to be able to construct this new activity center. However, the use of the activity center and the use of the entire site as a Christian Day Camp will be restricted pursuant to the conditions and restrictions imposed hereinafter.

After due consideration of the testimony and evidence presented, it appears that the relief requested in the special hearing should be granted, subject to restrictions. It has been established that the requirements from which the Petitioner seeks relief would unduly restrict the use of the land due to the special conditions unique to this particular parcel. In the opinion of this Deputy Zoning Commissioner, the new activity center and related parking areas as shown on Petitioner's Exhibit 1, and the relocation of the maintenance shed to the edge of the parking lot will not result in any detriment to the health, safety or general welfare of the surrounding community and meet the spirit and intent of the zoning regulations.

Pursuant to the advertisement, posting of the property, and public hearing on this Petition held, and for the reasons given above, the special hearing should be granted.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED by the Deputy Zoning Commissioner for Baltimore County this 20th day of December, 1993 that the Petition for Special Hearing seeking approval to amend the previously approved site plans in prior Case Nos. 75-83-X and 89-489-SPH by removing Restrictions 1, 2 and 3 thereof and approving the modified site plans proposed herein, in accordance with Petitioner's Exhibit 1, be and is hereby GRANTED, subject to the following restrictions:

1) The Petitioners may apply for their building permit and be granted same upon receipt of this Order; however, Petitioners are hereby made aware that proceeding at this time is at their own risk until such time as the 30-day appellate process from this Order has expired. If, for whatever reason, this Order is reversed, the relief granted herein shall be rescinded.

2) The number of people permitted to occupy the new activity center shall be limited to 350 persons per day. In fact, throughout the entire year the total number of persons permitted to use the Camp facilities shall be limited to 350 persons daily, except during special events as provided for in Restriction 3.

By

3) The Petitioner shall be permitted to conduct special services four (4) times per year and a maximum of 700 persons shall be permitted to attend any one of the four special services.

4) During such times as a special event may be taking place at the Beachmont Christian Camp, the Petitioner shall provide private parking attendants to assist with the safe flow of traffic to and from the site.

5) All services and activities that are conducted on site must be concluded by 10:30 PM on any given day.

6) The Petitioner will make every effort to reduce the amount of noise generated by the children who attend this Christian Day Camp particularly during such times as the children are engaged in outdoor activities. Furthermore, the Petitioner shall adjust the amplified speaker system to reduce all noise and to deflect same away from any adjacent property owners.

7) All hayrides or wagon rides shall be rerouted to lessen their infringement upon the privacy of adjoining residential property owners.

8) The Petitioner shall eliminate or relocate camp fires and outdoor barbecuing facilities to reduce the effects of smoke and to keep any smoke from drifting onto adjacent residential properties .

9) The Petitioner shall rearrange or relocate the vespers area located on the southern portion of the site in a manner that will direct all singing, chanting, and praying away from the adjoining residential properties to lessen the impact that these services have upon the neighbors' quiet enjoyment of their property.

10) The Petitioner is prohibited from providing overnight camping facilities at this time. However, in the event the Petitioner desires to provide overnight camping facilities in the future, it has the right to request a special hearing to amend this restriction.

11) When applying for a building permit, the site plan filed must reference this case and set forth and address the restrictions of this Order.

RE: Revised Parking Layout
Beachmont Christian Camp
Zoning Case #94-50-SPH
11th Election District

Dear Mr. Thompson:

Your letter to Arnold Jablon, Director of Permits and Development Management, has been referred to me for reply. Your request is for approval of a revised parking layout (discussed by the county's Plans Review Office) as shown on the submitted red-lined site plan. This office is approving your request as being within the spirit and intent of approved zoning case #94-50-SPH provided the travelways, aisle widths and parking spaces comply with Section 409 of the Baltimore County Zoning Regulations (20 feet, 22 feet and 8 1/2 x 18 feet respectively and the required number of parking spaces provided).

I trust that the information set forth in this letter is sufficiently detailed and responsive to your request. If you need further information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 887-3391 (FAX - 887-5708).

Sincerely,

"Thank you" is not enough to appreciate all the hard work and efforts of our volunteers, various event coordinators, most specially our main event coordinator, Shreejan Tamrakar who put his heart and soul for the past two months. What a fabulous job ...seeing so many families enjoying the festivities was just a heart warming experience!

Over 1000 attendees from across the state lines came to be a part of this grand festival over 2 days. We had volleyball teams from New York, Pennsylvania, Columbia and off course from Baltimore... and event participants from New Jersey, Virginia and many other states. One of the attendees from VA asked, "Can we have some of your volunteers in Virginia to jump start what you are doing in Baltimore with the mandir?" This sums up everything about our volunteers. Simply "Thank you" for everything you have done. So proud to be a part of this wonderful team!

BNCC'S FUTURE COMMUNITY CENTER

Baltimore Nepalese Community Center (BNCC)

Letter of Appreciation!

by BNCC Newsletter Team

Happy Dashain and Tihar!

We are writing to thank you for your support and especially for your financial contribution to build our very first Nepali Community Center in the greater Baltimore area. With great excitement we're happy to report some progress regarding this momentous but very important task.

The name of this center has been decided as Baltimore Nepali Community Center or "BNCC" in short at one of the public meetings held at Kathmandu Kitchen. This entity is to be incorporated in the state of Maryland with BANA as its parent entity. BANA's executive committee is currently working on incorporating this entity legally in the state of Maryland.

As you know, BANA initiated efforts to build a community center in Baltimore and organized "Maha Puran" as one of its first steps in promoting and fund-raising for the cause. Over 120 of you pledged your support at this program totaling more than $160,000 in financial contributions. It took a little longer for us to report on the progress and reach out to you regarding our future plans. We sincerely apologize for any delays. However, we're happy to report that we have developed concrete plans to move forward and accomplish our dream of building the very first Nepali culture center right here in Baltimore!

First, we have formed two committees to spearhead these efforts. The Fund-Raising committee led by the current BANA president, Mr. Bijaya Shrestha, will focus its efforts solely in raising funds for the project while the technical team led by BANA's past president, Mr. Kris Ghimire will coordinate the technical aspects of the project, such as the acquisition of a potential site or building. Second, we have developed a timeline with concrete milestones to achieve our objectives. A detailed project plan will be presented via our very first newsletter of BNCC.

As we embark on this important journey we're are going to need your continuous support not only to build the center but also to sustain it. We are fully committed to this long term project just as you are to the cause that we all believe in- Nepali Community Center. "No ideas are bad ideas" so please let us know your creative ideas or feedback; we would love to hear from you!

We look forward to working with you and are counting on your continuous support!

Introduction: Nepali in Baltimore Metro

Baltimore is home to thousands of Nepalese, and is one of the most popular destinations in the US for the people of Nepali origin. There are people from all walks of lives from students to business owners to professionals working in many sectors of local economy. With the growing community, the need for a community center is just a natural progression. BANA and several other Nepali organizations have been discussing ideas in establishing a community center in the greater Baltimore area for several years.

Through many community meetings, teams have been formed to further plan and initiate the building of a community center. The publication of this newsletter is the first step in communicating and sharing some of our initial plans that are based on discussions from the past community meetings and some expert opinions.

Two committees: technical and fund-raising have been formed. As we are still in the planning stage... we are actively looking for more volunteers to work in various committees to be formed as need arises.

QUICK DEMOGRAPHIC FACTS

- Baltimore is considered a capital city for Nepali Kalobar outside of Nepal
- Thriving "Mom-n-pop" business community
- Thousands of students from Nepal pursuing higher/ advance degrees at local universities/ colleges
- Recent arrival of thousands of Bhutanese of Nepali origin

What are our options? Buy or Build?

Option #1

Option #2

There are several options but the most viable options are:

- Purchase land and construct a new community center that meets our requirements
- Buy an existing older building of similar type and renovate it

There are advantages and disadvantages to both of these options. Option one would be ideal, in a way it will allow greater customization of the community center. However, it could be a lengthy and expensive endeavor. The second option would be quicker and possibly less costly compared to the first one (building) but it will have limitations as to the layout of the building and location.

During next few months we can explore our options and come up with the most suitable option for our community based on your feedback and further research.

Protestant Exhibit _____

ACTION ITEMS

- Legal setup of BNCC by BANA
- Publication of 1st Newsletter
- Prepare fund- raising prospect list
- Create donor database
- Organize a public program to report on progress
- Re-evaluate plans
- Decide on "buy" or "build"
- Start the search based on "buy" or "build" decision
- Finalize the purchase
- Financing option
- Operations and maintenance plans.

What Should the Community Center Consist of?

- A place for worship? (temple, gumba, church, etc.)
- Community hall or banquet hall?
- Museum or display of Nepali artifacts
- Educational or learning areas
- Garden reflecting Nepali architecture & arts

WHERE DO MOST DONORS LIVE?

65%

of donors live in the east side of Baltimore County of donors live in other parts of Maryland, mostly in the west side of Baltimore Co., Baltimore City and Howard Co, & Harford Co.

35%

Note: The numbers above are solely based on the available contact information of current donors. It is also worth noting that some donors may have moved or left the state since the data was collected.

GOT FUND-RAISIG IDEAS?

We would love to hear from you. This is your project that would impact many generations of Nepali, especially your children so please make your voice heard.

We're in the process of setting up a Facebook page and subpage within BANA's website to interact with you to make this project a reality. We not only want to hear your ideas but also potential concerns about the project.

How much does it cost?

Let's say the total cost of the project is about one million dollars which includes the land and construction of about ten thousand square footage building with at least 200 parking spaces.

MORTGAGE FACTS

- Estimated purchase price: $1 Million
- Down payment: $250,000 (25% of sales price)
- Interest rate on a commercial loan would be about 6.5% or higher
- Property taxes can be waived for non-profit organizations
- Property casualty insurance about $1000 yearly
- Estimated total monthly payment : between $4,000 and $5,000

How do we pay for it?

As you can see from the cost estimate above, running a community center of this size can be very costly and would require a great deal of financial commitment from the community members. The question is how do we pay for it? What is the long term plan in sustaining the community center? It would be much easier to do one-time fundraiser to construct a building than commit to continuous efforts to sustain the community center for the long run.

For the initial construction, if this option chosen, about 25% of total cost would be required upfront as down payment and the rest can be financed for 20 or 30 year mortgage. We already have pledges totaling more than half of estimated down payment required; with many more members remained to pledge their support for this project.

FUND RAISING IDEAS FOR THE BUILDING OF THE COMMUNITY CENTER

- Name of donors on the "wall of fame"
- Donor with a certain amount to be credited as life members
- Donors to receive tax-incentives or deductions
- Garner possible financial and legal support from the local officials via community outreach

With these concerns in mind, here are some of ideas for generating revenues for the operation and maintenance of the community center once the building is completed. Additionally, A management team with detailed operational plans needs to run the center that can assure its financial stability.

POSSIBLE SOURCES OF REVENUES- OPERATION

- Hall rental
- Possible daycare with an emphasis on teaching Nepali culture & language
- Daily prayer or "pooja" & cultural functions including wedding ceremonies, "bratabandha", "pasni", "gunyu cholo " celebration
- Continuous Fundraising Activities

Im assuming that they would not even request traffic control for the same reason but if so, I would assume that it would be declined.

Officer Goorevitz,

Thank you and I understand that aspect of this issue.

I would presume that since the SHA has made the determination that this is an illegal use of a State Highway that any requests by NACCB for traffic control during this event will be declined by the BCP?

Mr. Clark,

We got your email from last week and the information was forwarded to our patrol units so that they are aware of the potential increase in traffic on the roads and the amount of people at the location. Unfortunately, that is all the police department can assist with in this matter. The Police Department does not have the authority to shut this event down for an unpermitted event or for not having the appropriate County approval for use or for not having an SHA approved entrance.

Officer Goorevitz,

I wrote Captain Martin about this last week and he/you would not have yet had a chance to respond.

Please find below the position of the State Highway Administration District 4 that this the single family residence used as a commercial venue at 12231 Harford Road should not be allowed to operate since they have not even applied for a State Highway Access permit.

I wrote Captain Martin that they have heavily promoted a multi state event to be held there July 29 Aug 3. It is expected to be larger and create more problems than last year's fund raiser which attracted between 500 and 1000 participants (depends upon which of their statements you read).

Mr. Clark,

It is my understanding that the county has not approved this site for the proposed use (Temple). The SHA has not approved the existing entrance for this use. From the SHA perspective this site should not be operating at all. Will the county be shutting them down?

Subject: Follow up
Mr. Zeller

This is in reference to the matter about which I wrote on June 21 2018. This concerns the use of a single property residence at 12231 Harford Rd. Glen Arm, MD as a commercial without a State Highway Access Permit and their internet advertising for a major fund raiser July 29-Aug 30, 2018.
It is important to note that our concerns are about community health (disposal of human waste), degradation of the watershed and major traffic problems they testified they created at last year's even.
In order to relieve alleviate any doubt about the situation regarding 12231 Harford Rd, Glen Arm MD, 21057, I have include the direct testimony of the NACCB,Inc. at the hearing January 17, 2018.
Included are the statements about traffic and infrastructure made under oath by the property owners and their expert witnesses. As you will see, the owners testified there is no water onsite (fire sprinklers for commercial venue) and they testify about the problems they caused on Harford Road at the fund raiser last year. The one to be held on July 29-Aug 3 2018 is advertised as even larger.
I included the pages that identify the hearing, date and the speakers. Mr. Kotroco represented the owners of 12231 Harford Rd, I am the representative for those opposed to this use of the property, Mr. Ghimire (misspelled Gimory) is the resident agent for the owner and Mr. Motsco is the Civil Engineer acting as the expert witness for the owner.
Pages 31-33 are the testimony about projected use
Pages 35-55 are the testimony of existing infrastructure
Pages 68 -70 are Mr. Ghimire's description of the fundraiser of July 2017 which resulted in the Cease and Desist order
Pages 71-73 are Mr. Ghimire's direct testimony about the lack of any sanitation facilities; no well and unusable septic.
For your convenience, I highlighted the relevant portions of testimony.
Please feel free to call me at 410.592.9998 if there is anything else you need.
This will be followed by a letter with a paper copy of the attached transcript.

We are preparing a mailing list to all the households in the Fork/Baldwin/Glen Arm area to attend a community meeting at Long Green Valley Fire Co. on the evening of Feb 28. Is there something you want us to do to work with the Precinct? We may get more people than the hall can hold. There is enough concern within the community and all will want to be able to participate. So crowd control may be an issue. I honestly do not know.

The purpose of the meeting is to inform the community of the state of the appeals and what we need to do as a community. Our attorney will be present as well. But I just don't want you or us to be surprised. The meeting will be centered on their questions after we present what happened to date and what needs to happen going forward.

Re: Complaints

Sir or Madam,

Please be advised that this office continues to receive complaints about the property located at 12231 Harford Road, Glen Arm, MD 21057.

Neighbors are forwarding photos and commentary on the use of the property for events, and such use may not be legal. A public hearing will be scheduled, or has been, on your petition for special exception. This hearing will be heard by an Administrative Law Judge, who will decide based on the facts presented, witnesses heard, by both the Petitioner and Protestants. A decision will then be issued based on the evidence presented and pursuant to the particular burden of proof required by law for the special exception to be granted. As a result of the continual disruption to the neighborhood as viewed by your neighbors, these neighbors most likely will appear at the hearing in opposition. Whether your request for a special exception is for a religious institution or for a community building, various factors must be considered by law. This includes resultant traffic, noise, environmental and other factors, which could influence any such decision. Mr. Jablon had suggested to you that you meet with the community and attempt to reach a consensus. It would appear, however, that this was not done. Further, it would appear that events of a social nature have been held; which would fit into the zoning category of a community building. It is not our intent to determine what your proposed use of the property is or would be, just to alert you to the situation.

However, the purpose of this letter is to notify you that should any further social, recreational, educational or cultural use of the property occur, a citation will be issued.

Sincerely,

Lionel van Dommelen, Chief

(ON THE RECORD AT 1:20 PM)

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. So, good afternoon again everybody. We're here for a zoning hearing in case number 2018-122. This is a Petition for Special Exception. The property is located at 12231 Harford Road. And the request is for a special exception for a building for religious worship. This is an RC-2 zoned property so special exceptions apply. The Petitioner is listed as Nepali American Cultural Center. And I believe that accurately states the relief sought. Is that right?

MR. KOTROCO: It does Your Honor. Timothy Kotroco, 305 Washington Avenue, here in Towson. I'm here on behalf of the Applicant/Petitioner. We filed the application as you say, for this thirty acre piece of property on Harford Road. The former Bonaparte Mansion, as it was constructed by a descendent of Napoleon Bonaparte on the property.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: The Applicant is hoping to be able to use the mansion for religious worship.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. So who, who all is here? Is, are, are you folks from the community or what? I'm trying to get a sense of who, who's in attendance?

MR. CLARK: Your Honor, my name is DeWitt Clark.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. CLARK: 12150 Harford Road.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I am the President of the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association. I am here to assist the Protestants.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. And so, I mean, are we sitting like at a, at a wedding? Is everybody over here-- (laughs)--

MR. CLARK: It almost seems that way. Yes sir.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: It's hard to tell. The people that are here on behalf and in the support of the Nepali Center, would you raise your hand please? Anybody over here? So, that it is a wedding then.

MR. KOTROCO: Yeah, yeah. It does. It does.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Well, that's that.

MR. KOTROCO: And we don't need my, my definition to do the Protestants.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: All right. So, what we'll do then is the Petitioners will go first, as they do in every zoning hearing. We'll let them. They'll have witnesses or experts that will tell us what's proposed. And when they're done that I'll give you folks a chance to, to tell me what you want to tell me, all right? So, it's pretty informal, but we do need to kind of observe you know, some protocol so that the witnesses can speak and that the testimony can be recorded.

MR. KOTROCO: Thank you Your Honor. I've only got a handful of witnesses. John Motsco is my first witness. He's with Little and Associates. The Engineers that prepared the site plan.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay Mr. Motsco. Come on, come on up here. Okay. You're gonna, there's no chair over here. You might need to bring him a chair. This is all new to me.

MR. KOTROCO: We were stealing everything we could I guess to try to get people a place to sit.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. And the green light is on there. All right. Good afternoon. So, raise your right hand and remain standing. Do you swear or affirm under the penalties of perjury the testimony you'll provide today will be the truth?

MR. MOTSCO: I do.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Take a seat. Tell us your name and business address and then the attorney will ask you some questions. Everybody, witnesses, attorney's, parties, try to keep yourself-- as I said, because we're recording things. Okay, Mr. Kotroco?

QUALIFYING BY MR. KOTROCO FOR EXPERT:

MR. KOTROCO: Your name and address please?

MR. MOTSCO: John Motsco. I'm a Professional

Engineer with Little & Associates. (Inaudible) the address, the business address is 1055 Taylor Avenue, Suite 307, Towson, Maryland.

MR. KOTROCO: Sir, your educational background?

MR. MOTSCO: I have a Bachelors of Science in Civil Engineering from Pennsylvania (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: And are you a Licensed Professional Engineer?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes sir.

MR. KOTROCO: Have you testified in these hearings before?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes, I have.

MR. KOTROCO: Have you always been accepted as an expert in these proceedings?

MR. MOTSCO: I have.

MR. KOTROCO: You were here yesterday, as a matter of fact?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: In another, in another hearing?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Your Honor, I'm going to offer Mr. Motsco. He's testified a number of times. He's an expert in these cases.

MR. MOTSCO QUALIFIED AS EXPERT:

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Yeah. He's a Licensed Engineer. He has a degree from Penn State. So, yeah, he can express engineering opinions and in his, in those areas.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. KOTROCO:

MR. KOTROCO: Mr. Motsco, your role relative to this project was what?

MR. MOTSCO: I oversaw the preparation of the plan itself. The (inaudible) of relief necessary or (inaudible) itself and --

MR. KOTROCO: All right. Is the site plan that you've prepared, is that the site plan on the board there?

MR. MOTSCO: That is.

MR. KOTROCO: Is it bear your professional seal on it?

MR. MOTSCO: It does.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. The same site plan that's in the file with Judge Beverungen?

MR. MOTSCO: There have been no changes to it since it was filed.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. The same one I shared with Mr. Clark earlier, right?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: The plan next to it is just a color rendering of the initial plan that you prepared? The initial plan, just highlighting the buildings on the property?

MR. MOTSCO: That is correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. All right. Your Honor, I'd offer both of those as 1 and 2.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: All right. Are you going to label them and mark them?

MR. KOTROCO: I can. They all have labels except for this one he just brought today.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: Are you familiar with the property Mr. Motsco?

MR. MOTSCO: I am.

MR. KOTROCO: Have you visited the site?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. As recently as last week.

MR. KOTROCO: And you were there with me that day?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And what's the size of the property we're talking about here?

MR. MOTSCO: The size of the acre-- the property is 30.8, .8 acres.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And it's zoned?

MR. MOTSCO: It is zoned RC-2.

MR. KOTROCO: Do you have an idea of its general location in Baltimore County? Where is it located?

MR. MOTSCO: It's, located east of Harford Road.

In the north, the northern end of Harford Road in Baltimore County.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: The nearest intersection would be Mount Vista Road. And the major intersection would be Mount Vista Road and Harford Road.

MR. KOTROCO: How do we, how do we provide access to the property? Or how is access provided?

MR. MOTSCO: There is, the current access to the property is through the main driveway entrance. It is (inaudible) on the property for some time.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And you're not making any changes or, or suggesting any changes to that?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: I see on your access there there's a circle there as you come out to Harford Road. What's that circle?

MR. MOTSCO: There's a divider in the, within the driveway entrance. (Inaudible) two clear lanes.

MR. KOTROCO: So, it's kind of a split (inaudible) entrance then?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: One driveway, but it splits at the Harford Road?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And that's the traditional access? We're not making any changes, correct?...Are we making any changes to the driveway configuration as it comes into the property?

MR. MOTSCO: The mean-- the access of the property, no. We are proposing to install some parking (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: And I'll get to that. Yep. I'll get to that in a minute. So, that circular configuration right in front of the mansion, that's all existing? No change to that?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. All right. And to talk about the parking then. You did add some parking? Now, this is a change now. So, if you could explain. What, what do I see up there on the board as far as parking spaces?

MR. MOTSCO: The parking spaces, the parking spaces are both using existing paving as a means of access to the property. We propose angled parking here, on the main access. And there was a existing (inaudible) or driveway here that we have, have the turnaround and more parking spaces.

MR. KOTROCO: So, the angled parking is on the right hand side as you're coming in? You can just pull in, is that right?

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: On an angle? And then

(inaudible) you can loop around and come and park in one of the spots on the opposite side as you're leaving?

MR. MOTSCO: That's also correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And if they're all full then you have some overflow parking down at the end?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And would it be possible to install that parking without having to get a grading permit? Are we disturbing less than 5,000 feet? Do you know?

MR. MOTSCO: I do not know at this time.

MR. KOTROCO: You haven't done those calculations?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: But the object was to keep as minimal impact to the land as possible?

MR. MOTSCO: To minimize the (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Now, let me ask you about the parking calculation. How many spaces are you showing on that?

MR. MOTSCO: We are showing 38 parking spaces.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And how did you come up with 38 parking spaces?

MR. MOTSCO: Typically for a religious worship youth the parking is 1 per 4 seats. In the case of this comm-- this religious community the facility would not have seats in a traditional sense for a church. Instead of that we base it on inspected size of the congregation, of 150 people and applied the 1 slot per 4 to that number.

MR. KOTROCO: So, you would be, at 38 spaces, according to the Zoning Regulations would be able to account, accommodate at one time at the property 152 if you multiply it by (inaudible)?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And how was it explained to you how the worship will occur over the course of the seven day a week?

MR. MOTSCO: That there is, there's no set worship time or meeting.

MR. KOTROCO: There's no set mass?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: There's no set church time like, like we might be used to?

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible)-- Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Right. How, how is the worship--

MR. MOTSCO: It's the, the way it was explained to me is that it is more of a personal thing. That the families and members will arrive and park on their own schedule throughout the day, throughout the week. And that the, their worship would be varying in length with depending on, I guess their (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: The twenty minutes (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, if the 38 parking spaces are not enough for any particular occasion, is there areas elsewhere on the property, in that vicinity where people could park temporarily?

MR. MOTSCO: There is. The general area in front of the house and where the parking is now is on a flat top of a hill. That there is a significant (inaudible) area that would be suitable temporary parking.

MR. KOTROCO: But the client has told you that 38 spaces should be more than enough to accommodate their needs?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. That, that number was arrived at providing the practical use of the property (inaudible) the congregation.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Does it make a lot of sense to put in giant parking lots when they're not necessary to be parked on? That it's just more disturbance and run off to the land?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct. (Inaudible) --don't believe we need additional (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. The buildings and structures that you show on the property, are, first of all, are we proposing to build any new buildings on the property?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: And the Applicant is just simply going to use what's there, is that right?

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: No additions or anything of that nature?

MR. MOTSCO: That is correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And the religious activity, the worshiping will occur in the mansion part, which is the former estate home of the property?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. If you are able to, if you would, you drew distance lines from the mansion and the other buildings. I want to go over the buildings that you located on the property. So, can you start with the, with the former homes that I'll call it, the mansion? What are the distances from that to the edges of the property sir?

MR. MOTSCO: The existing house is right here. And in the direction of Harford Road, at the driveway entrance it is 650 feet from the property line. And Harford Road to the west is 340 feet away. And to the rear of the property line, down in the hill is the excess of 1,000 feet. And that's just to a stream and a neighbor. And then more to the east, the property is a little oddly shaped there, but it is around 400 feet to the property line.

MR. KOTROCO: So, as far as R.T.A. requirements, Residential Transition Areas, none apply here because of the distances?

MR. MOTSCO: Right. It's well beyond the distances required.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. How about the other, the other structures on the property? You mentioned the mansion, the former home. What other types of improvements are there on the property?

MR. MOTSCO: What we have, what is (inaudible) on the plan is the, of course the driveway we discussed is, this is a tennis court, pool, it's a shed, a pool-house. There's an existing caretaker's house. And then there is a, it's marked (inaudible) property.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Did you walk the property and see all that?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes, I have.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Aside from the entrance on Harford Road at the northern part of the property there's also an entrance or a former entrance I guess down on the lower part, is that right?

MR. MOTSCO: There is a, there is a, this used driveway that accesses Harford Road. (Inaudible) the plan shows a clearing through the trees, but the driveway snakes up the hill, past the barn. And based on my site visit it continues up the property and terminates in the vicinity of the pool.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. We're not proposing to use that in any shape or form, is that right? And that's kind of access to the old historic barn that's down on the lower end of the property?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And, but it continues all the way up to, by the swimming pool?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes, it does.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. The, is the property well buffered with existing vegetation?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. There, at the, currently and with no proposed changes there is a wooded buffer along the entirety, with the exception of the two driveway entrances. Along the entirety of the road (inaudible). And then the southern and eastern (inaudible) property line are (inaudible). A stream runs in the vicinity in there very well buffered by an additional patch of woods.

MR. KOTROCO: And that might be better reflected on the colored plan over there?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: The green area, that, that mimics the tree line or the woods line that you have shown on your plan?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. That is, the green is the existing (inaudible) on site.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. You can have a seat.

MR. MOTSCO: Thank you sir.

MR. KOTROCO: This is another exhibit from the county. It's my neighborhood. It kind of shows that, the buildings that you've just testified about. Are, is that a fair and accurate representation of the buildings you just talked about?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes, it is.

MR. KOTROCO: And the outline of our property is highlighted in black there. And so, we see the mansion, the tennis courts, the swimming pool, the caretaker's house and the barn, right?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Does the exhibit also show the extensive treeline around the perimeters of the property?

MR. MOTSCO: It does.

MR. KOTROCO: That looks like it was taken in the wintertime. I have another, or one with the, where the trees are in bloom more so which provide I guess an even more extensive buffer when they're in bloom. Take a look at that exhibit. The vegetative buffer that's around there, that ones taken when the trees have leaves on them, is that right?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And it shows the mansion in the middle there?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: You went on top of that mansion the other day, didn't you?

MR. MOTSCO: I did.

MR. KOTROCO: I was there with you, right?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: You looked all around the property? Tell us what you saw.

MR. MOTSCO: A lot of trees.

MR. KOTROCO: And could you--

MR. MOTSCO: The only visible structures were some distance away, is the farms that were the immediate neighbors (inaudible) appeared to be quite a distance away. (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: So, your opinion then as, as an Engineer as based on the exhibits and your observations very well buffered, which was--

MR. MOTSCO: It is.

MR. KOTROCO: It's all the way on top of a hill though? So, your views across the valley's are extensive?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And you can see the building from distances as well because it sits on top of a hill?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. It sits on top of a hill in a clearing, surrounded by trees.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. When you went up to the property you came up Harford Road to access the property?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. I'm going to show you another exhibit here. This is a series of photographs Mr. Motsco. And it takes you up Harford Road (inaudible). And it has some photographs that are attached to this Legend Sheet. And it's photos 1 through 9. Photo 1 is kind off the bottom of the sheet because it's a photograph looking up Harford Road. And you see the mansion on top of that hill up there as you mentioned?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. It's more or less in line with the road. There's, you see the couple of evergreen trees there (inaudible) right. (NOISE IN BACKGROUND)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. All right. If you would, just kind of flip through photo #2. It's taken further up. Almost as you're approaching the curve at the top of the hill. What do you see in that, in that photo?

MR. MOTSCO: Photo 2 is the property that's on the right. And we're on Harford Road. And in this photo you see the road, trees and power poles.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. I see a sign for Bonaparte

Avenue, which is --

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: That's, yeah. That's the street?

MR. MOTSCO: Here. The street that's adjacent from the entrance.

MR. KOTROCO: Pretty much across the street from our entrance is Bonaparte Avenue. I guess named after the property owner at the time?

MR. MOTSCO: I guess.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. What's the significance of that speed limit sign on the right hand side there, in your mind?

MR. MOTSCO: It indicates that there's a curve which requires you to reduce speed (inaudible) miles an hour.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And then the arrow. And then we have a traffic expert who can also embellish on this. But it shows an arrow at ninety degree, two ninety degree angles there?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, that's the top of the hill. The next photograph #3, coming into the turn?

MR. MOTSCO: This is in the turn that was (inaudible) the previous picture.

MR. KOTROCO: Right.

MR. MOTSCO: Again, the property is to the right.

We're on Harford Road. And --

MR. KOTROCO: It looks like storm-drains in the road there I see?

MR. MOTSCO: There is a storm-drain right there in the road.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And, and there's other--

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible) part of the hill to the right coming on to the property.

MR. KOTROCO: And there's other signs. The State Highway puts those signs up? The arrows?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. The arrows indicate (inaudible) --

MR. KOTROCO: That you'd better turn right or you're going to have a problem, right?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And then okay, you come around the turn then and you make the turn and up ahead is the entrance there?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. That is the entrance on the right. You can see that there is a small green shrub there. The, that is, in the middle, that's the island. In the middle, the entrance that we discussed earlier.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: And the Harford Road then turns to the left. And that's the second part of that zig-zag.

MR. KOTROCO: Also, some other signs up there telling you--

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. Indicating the left, the property (inaudible) the right. You see the hill.

MR. KOTROCO: Also, you see the, an existing vegetation on the right hand side, right?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: It's a rather large it looks like oak tree over there in that picture? Do you see that?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible) large tree and (inaudible) of vegetation (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Photo 5? Just what? Another close up of the entrance?

MR. MOTSCO: A very similar shot. Just closer to the entrance, showing the entrance and the existing condition there, how wide it is (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: I see another storm-drain It looks like another storm-drain inlet there.

MR. MOTSCO: There is another inlet there.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, 6, you're turning into the property. What do we see there?

MR. MOTSCO: This, in this photo you're just past the island and the driveway. And you're looking into the site.

And all, again, all you see is the hill of vegetation. There's still no view of the house.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. It's an incline? You're going up a small incline there?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And #7, a little further up the driveway?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: What do you see there?

MR. MOTSCO: Yeah. This is still further into the property. There's a, you're in, part of area, an area that was maintained as lawn, as lawn. There's also some trees. And the house is up to the, it's off to the left of this photo.

MR. KOTROCO: Right. So, we're going to see that in another photo or two?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Number 8 there, is you're making the turn on the driveway?

MR. MOTSCO: Through, well, you're turning through the vegetation that's shown in the previous photo in the, generally lawn area, but there's some vegetation in the turn that's matured trees.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And then, then you come out of that and you're looking straight into the mansion, is that correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. And we went in that mansion the other day, right?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: You went up on the roof. The worship part, on the right hand side I see two big glass windows. Actually, you can see straight through that side. That side of the house. Is that right?

MR. MOTSCO: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And that's where the, the actual worship will take place?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Are there any, any benches or seating or anything in that room?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: It's just an open room?

MR. MOTSCO: It's an open room. Two stories. That's an access through the main door building and also access the adjacent patio.

MR. KOTROCO: And off to the side patio on the side of it. Okay. Your Honor, I'm going to offer that series of photos as an exhibit, as well as the two previous photos. Mr. Motsco, we're asking for a Special Exception, to allow the owners of the property, the Nepali American folks to be able to use that building as a place of worship. And you have assisted in filing the Special Exception for that?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And are you familiar with Section 502.1 of the Baltimore County Zoning Regulations?

MR. MOTSCO: I am.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. Now, based on your observations, your visits to the property and talking with the client, do you believe the use of the property for religious worship would be detrimental to the health, safety and general welfare of the surrounding community?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Do you think it's going to create congestion in roads, streets or alley's?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Would it create a potential hazard in fire, panic or other danger?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Is it going to overcrowd the land or cause undo concentration of population on the property?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Is it going to interfere with adequate provisions for schools, parks, water, sewer, transportation or other public requirement?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Is it going to interfere with the adequate light and air?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Is it inconsistent with the property zoning classification or anyway inconsistent with the spirit and intend of the Zoning Regulations?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Does the RC-2 Zone allow this type of use by a special exception?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes, it does.

MR. KOTROCO: It's the purpose of the hearing today?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Is it in anyway inconsistent with the impermeable surface and vegetative retention provisions of the regulations?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Would it be detrimental to Environmental and Natural Resources of the site, including any forest or stream or wetlands or aqua (inaudible) on the property?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: We're not cutting any trees? We're not doing anything to the property, other than using what's there, is that right?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Is the property being farmed now?

MR. MOTSCO: No. It is not.

MR. KOTROCO: And what, so would this proposed use be anyway detrimental to farming activity on the property?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Is there any reason that requested relief here would have a greater detrimental impact at this property than it would at another RC-2 Zoned property?

MR. MOTSCO: No, it would not.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. It's a pretty clean site as far as you're concerned? No variances needed or anything?

MR. MOTSCO: No. Yes, just special exemption.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. You saw the comments that have been issued in this case?

MR. MOTSCO: I have.

MR. KOTROCO: Did you see the one from the Planning Office? Let me show you that. I have a copy for --

MR. CLARK: Thank you sir.

MR. KOTROCO: Here. The Planning Office went out and made a site visit to the property. Does it say on there what day the Planning Office went out and looked at the property?

MR. MOTSCO: November 17th of 2017.

MR. KOTROCO: I see November 7th on mine.

MR. MOTSCO: I'm sorry. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. I have my glasses on.

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible)-- (laughs)--

MR. KOTROCO: Right. I got ya. Okay. What was the opinion of the Planning Office after their site visit?

MR. MOTSCO: They had no objection to granting the proposed--

MR. KOTROCO: All right. Another set of comments came out from the Environmental Department of the County. A copy of that for you all.

MR. CLARK: Uh-hum.

MR. KOTROCO: Did you have a chance to take a look at the environmental comments that came out?

MR. MOTSCO: I have.

MR. KOTROCO: Is that a standard comment that usually comes out from the Environmental Department?

MR. MOTSCO: They are standard comments.

MR. KOTROCO: And what's it require us to do?

MR. MOTSCO: It requires us to provide, to comply with the applicable laws regarding forest conservation, protection of waterfall (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, not having, other than the parking, we're not making any disturbance to the land?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: There isn't any problem with complying with their request then?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And then the other comment I wanted to ask you about was Ms. Visnew, Mr. Visnew DeSingh (phonetic) from Development Plans Review. And this indicates that, that if should be granted we have to do a landscaping plan and a lighting plan. Is that what that says?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. That is correct.

MR. KOTROCO: It also says you've got to comply with the State Highways because Harford Road is a state road at this location, right?

MR. MOTSCO: It's a state road.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Not a county road?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: We've got to deal with Mr. Zeller (phonetic) and the State Highway Administration?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And Mr. Caloggero from the Traffic Group is going to talk about that when he testifies?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Any problem with doing the landscaping and the lighting plan?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And I don't have any further questions of Mr. Mostsco.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Your Honor, I do have some questions.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Go ahead.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. CLARK:

MR. CLARK: Okay. Mr. Motsco, you testified that your plan is based on the assumption of about 150 people visiting this site at a time?

MR. MOTSCO: A congregation of 150.

MR. CLARK: Yeah. About, about 150 people--

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. CLARK: --showing up at, at a time? Okay. Would your, would--

MR. MOTSCO: What I said was that our plan is based on 150 people in the congregation (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: I understand that you want to use that word, but that's not, --

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: --that's, that's not the word I'm using.

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: I'm asking a very direct question. Your plan was based on 150 people visiting the property at a time? Is that correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. CLARK: All right. Would your assump-- would your plan change if you learned that there were 500 to 1,000 people attending events at that property?

MR. MOTSCO: Attending events or (inaudible)?

MR. CLARK: Events? At that prop-- no. I'm just using the words. The words I use are the words I use. Would, would your opinion change if there were in fact 500 to 1,000 people attending events on that property?

MR. MOTSCO: A temp-- a regular occurring event? Or a--

MR. CLARK: It doesn't matter. I just asked.

MR. MOTSCO: It could.

MR. CLARK: It, your plans could change?...Okay. You said that the, the driveway can handle 40 cars, and the property could handle 40 cars. Would, would your opinion change if there were three to 400 cars?

MR. MOTSCO: What I said was that we, that we--

MR. CLARK: No. No, I know what you assumed on.

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: I know what your assumptions were for your plan.

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible) 40 cars.

MR. CLARK: Right. But if there were three to 400 cars showing up, would your plan be adequate?

MR. MOTSCO: I can't say without (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Well, but you're, you're a Civil Engineer. Would, would that plan suit 300 to 400 cars?

MR. MOTSCO: Without having a chance to look at it, you know, I (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Fine. Non-responsive Your Honor.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Well, he gave the answer (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Right. Okay. Now, your site plan, well, first of all you, you said you visited the, you testified you visited the site?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. CLARK: And you visited the worship room?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Do they currently, do they currently have, is, is, use, but is a house of worship permitted under, under the land use as it currently sits?

MR. MOTSCO: We visited the room that will be used --

MR. CLARK: No. No, no, no. You testified you saw the worship room?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. CLARK: So, is, so, do they have a special exemption at this time for a house of worship there?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. CLARK: So, they are currently operating a house of worship without the benefit of, of proper permission?

MR. KOTROCO: Objection Your Honor. He's assuming facts not in evidence. As a matter of fact, there's no heat, no water, nobody using that building at this time.

MR. CLARK: Your Honor, he testified that he saw the, he saw the house of worship.

MR. KOTROCO: The area, what's going to be the area that they worship--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Hold on a second. I, I, people aren't going to be yelling back and forth.

MR. CLARK: Right.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: We're not going to do that. The witness said, he observed an open two story space that would be used for worship I thought is, is what he said. You now want to ask him if worship is taking place?

MR. CLARK: No. He, I, if it is zoned for worship? If it is currently zoned for worship?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Well, we know that it's because we're here today (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: That's right. That's, that's my point Your Honor.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Yes sir. Yes sir.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Now, you, you were in the building, right?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes sir.

MR. CLARK: You, you examined the building head to toe?

MR. MOTSCO: I examined the majority of the rooms (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Okay. Do they have adequate toilet facilities for 150 people?

MR. MOTSCO: I do not know. That was not (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: You do not know that? Okay. Fine.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: He wouldn't be able to to know that.

MR. CLARK: When you visited the property, and on your site plan I don't see the location of the septic system. Do you know where the septic system is?

MR. MOTSCO: It will be--

MR. CLARK: No. Do you know where the septic system is now?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. CLARK: No. For all we know the, the prop-- now, I do know, behind the house Your Honor is a wetland. So, I know the septic systems not back there. For all we know, the proposed parking is right over the septic system, okay.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Is that a question?

MR. CLARK: That's a statement, you know.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Well, you need to just ask him a question.

MR. CLARK: Okay. What, is it possible-- thank you Your Honor. Is it possible that that parking spaces are over the existing septic system?

MR. MOTSCO: There--

MR. CLARK: Is it possible?

MR. MOTSCO: There's no record of where the septic--

MR. CLARK: Is it possible?

MR. MOTSCO: Can I finish the statement?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Yeah. Go ahead.

MR. MOTSCO: There's no record of the septic system. And if this Special Exception is granted the Petitioners intend to replace the septic system with a current system and to install a new (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: So, why is that not on the, on the site plan?

MR. MOTSCO: Because that work has not been initiated (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: So, so, in fact, there are other plans for this site other than the parking lot?

MR. MOTSCO: There's a replacement of a well and septic.

MR. CLARK: There are other, there are other plans for development other than this parking lot?

MR. MOTSCO: Replacing the well and septic for an existing structure (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Okay. Another question. You testified that there are, there are no ecological or habitat disturbance. Are you qualified to answer that question? Do you have a degree in Forestry?

MR. MOTSCO: I'm qualified to observe (inaudible). (Inaudible) is the area that will be disturbed.

MR. CLARK: Do you, do you, do you, no, but you testified that the, the forest and the other areas will not, will not be impacted. Do you have a degree in Forestry?

MR. MOTSCO: I can (inaudible) the limits of the disturbance (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: That is not what you testified to.

MR. MOTSCO: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: That is not what you testified to.

MR. MOTSCO: We have no proposed impacts (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: That is not what you testified to. You testified that there was no impact to the forest. Do you have, do you have a, do you have a degree in, in Forestry?

MR. MOTSCO: No. I do not.

MR. CLARK: Thank you. Okay. And I understand that we're going to have a witness to testify about the, the highway. Based on your experience and based on your observations what do you think Harford Road and coming in and out of that driveway can handle four or five hundred cars in a, in a half hour period?

MR. MOTSCO: I would (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Okay. I think I, I think I've asked my questions Your Honor.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Mr. Kotroco, do you have anything else?

REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. KOTROCO:

MR. KOTROCO: Did you observe any wetlands on the property when you walked it?

MR. MOTSCO: I did not. Not in the top of the hill. There is a stream at the bottom of the hill that (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Oh, I have one more question.

MR. MOTSCO: It was far away from any proposed use of the property (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And it's your understanding a brand new septic system and a brand new well will be installed in the event this application is approved?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: Those locations and design will be determined (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Your Honor, I, I do have two--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Hold on. --

MR. CLARK: Okay. Thank you. I'm sorry.

MR. KOTROCO: Nothing.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Are you (inaudible). Okay. (Inaudible)--

RECROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. CLARK:

MR. CLARK: Okay. All right. Do you, now, do you know what assumptions are going to be used in the design of that septic system? Is it for 150 people? Is it for--

MR. MOTSCO: I, I can't say with the-- nothing is progressed on that point (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: So, so, so all, all of that is unresolved at this point?...Now, you said you were at the top of the building with Mr. Kotroco?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Can you describe what you saw at the top of that building looking south?

MR. MOTSCO: I saw the valley. And in the distance I saw, it's a larger building from here to the farm use.

And there were a couple houses in the distance on the Harford Road (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: As an Engineer, you are skilled, you have some knowledge of Physics. And you have some, some knowledge of sound propagation. Would you say that the, the, that loud activities, events and loud music can be heard all the way down that valley? Would you say that that's possible?

MR. MOTSCO: I, sound propagation is a specialty that I'm not capable of answering questions (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Even, even with your background of Physics?

MR. MOTSCO: That's, that's not something that I (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Okay. Okay. Okay. I, I think I'm done this time for real.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: (Inaudible)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Thank you Mr. Mostsco. Okay. Who's next?

MR. KOTROCO: Chris Gimory (phonetic).

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Gimory. Okay. Good, good afternoon sir. Remain standing and raise your hand please. Do you swear or affirm under the penalties of perjury the testimony you'll provide today will be the truth?

MR. GIMORY: Yes sir.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Please keep your voice up. Take a seat and tell us your name and address please.

MR. GIMORY: My name is Chris Gimory. I live in 5048 Springhouse Circle (phonetic) (inaudible) Maryland. Very close to (inaudible)--

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. KOTROCO:

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Mr. Gimory, where, where are you employed?

MR. GIMORY: I run a real estate company called, (Inaudible) Homes, right out of Perry Hall.

MR. KOTROCO: What, what's the address of that?

MR. GIMORY: It's 8030 Belair Road, Nottingham, Maryland.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Are you married?

MR. GIMORY: I'm married. My wife is right here with with a few of our friends.

MR. KOTROCO: With a few other friends, I guess?

MR. GIMORY: A lot of friends.

MR. KOTROCO: Yes. I see that. How many, do you have children?

MR. GIMORY: Three boys.

MR. KOTROCO: And are they in school?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Where do they go to school?

MR. GIMORY: The oldest goes to John Carroll, up in Harford County. Two goes to St. Joseph right on Belair Road. It's another county school.

MR. KOTROCO: Belair Road and Perry Hall?

MR. GIMORY: And the oldest, we've looked at going, Redeemer is right next to--

MR. KOTROCO: I'm going to get to that in a minute. You're a little ahead of me.

MR. GIMORY: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: Hang on second, okay. All right. So, are you a member of a church in your community now?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. My wife belongs to St. Joseph. We go, go there.

MR. KOTROCO: So, I guess that kind of means you belong there too, right?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. But you also, in addition to being a member at St. Joseph's on Belair Road in Perry Hall, you also on occasion go to a temp-- you go to a temple, is that right?

MR. GIMORY: We'd love to, but it is kind of, a bit far.

MR. KOTROCO: Well, there's not one in Baltimore County?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: This is the first request for one?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: For your community?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. This is a, this has been the first of its kind. (Inaudible) the (inaudible) American, coming to America and establishing (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: So, this is the first Nepali American.

MR. GIMORY: First Nepali American (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: But you do go to, that I'm, I'm familiar because I live in Finksburg, but you're, you do go to the temple in Finksburg on--

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: You have been there?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And a lot of your members, of your congregate go out to Finksburg in order to worship?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. I mentioned already, but you are from Nepal, is that right?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And how long have you been in the United States?

MR. GIMORY: I've been here since 1998. Right here in Baltimore County.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And you've been a resident and a businessman since that time, in Baltimore County?

MR. GIMORY: I have a (inaudible) jobs, including a federal contracting job, but I started my business back (inaudible), yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Now, were you involved in the creation of the Nepali American Cultural Center of Baltimore?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. I was one of the corp member who (inaudible) yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Tell us how that got started.

MR. GIMORY: We, we realized this, this, (inaudible) the temple. A place of worship of, of (inaudible) today. There's none right in, here in Baltimore County today. And we were watching football game (inaudible) house this year as well. And we said, what if we you know started looking for a place we can call it a home, call it, you know, a temple. And I, I stood up and say you know, I would like to start this project, would you help me? And we, we raised $35,000.00 that night. And that's how it started. Everyone you see here today has donated (inaudible) of this group.

MR. KOTROCO: So, you're using your personal funds to buy the property and fix it up?

MR. GIMORY: Absolutely.

MR. KOTROCO: Every one in this room?

MR. GIMORY: Every one (inaudible), yes.

MR. KOTROCO: How much did it cost to be a founding member of the, of the Nepali religious group that you--?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible) it's a $5,000.00. And it's a, you know, and you can donate any amount of money. You know, (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: So, the initial contribution, yourself and how many others put in the five-thousand?

MR. GIMORY: I think like five, can recall correctly, probably twenty-five families (inaudible) of Trustees (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And that's (inaudible) group?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Do you have an I.R.S. approval to be able to just--

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. We have (inaudible) approved entity. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Who, who was in charge then? I think you might, since you're a realtor you took it upon yourself to try to find a location for, for your group? They, they charged you with that responsibility?

MR. GIMORY: That, that is correct. (Inaudible)--most of them are tasked with this, you know, with this job. So, we were looking around. Couldn't find a suitable property for what we're trying to do. Especially I can't, if I, if I may give you a little bit of background?

MR. KOTROCO: Go ahead.

MR. GIMORY: A temple in Nepal, and, and also in India, (inaudible) is above the hill, like in kind of quiet place. You know, it's like a (inaudible) style. It doesn't really have a lot of seatings. People could come and go and visit and go back. You know, but it's not like you have a mass (inaudible). So, when we saw this property sitting on top of hill with thirty acres, not having any, anybody in near proximity, and we thought this is the perfect location (inaudible) we could, we could find.

MR. KOTROCO: Well, how did you find it? Were you just driving by one day and saw --

MR. GIMORY: Oh, no. We, you know, (inaudible) on a multiple listing in--

MR. KOTROCO: On your computer in your office you--

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. In my office.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Okay.

MR. GIMORY: And it came on the market. The very next day we put an offer. We put a package together. We called the bank and you know, everything. So we--

MR. KOTROCO: So, you bought it from the bank?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: It was in foreclosure?

MR. GIMORY: It was in foreclosure. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, when did you actually buy the property?

MR. GIMORY: That's, in March of 2017.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, you own it then?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Not you, but your group owns it?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: As a group? All those families that put that money up?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. But now, we filed a special exception request to allow you to use that building for religious worship. What type of religion does your group actually practice? Because there's a lot of us in here that aren't familiar with what you guys do.

MR. GIMORY: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: So, why don't you go ahead and tell us.

MR. GIMORY: So (inaudible) what we're going to do is how the Catholic masses and Christian masses run because (inaudible) mainly this is like when you have two-hundred people go (inaudible) come out at the same time. And you have, you need to have parking lot (inaudible) understand. And I would understand the concern of the neighbors as well. But the Hinduism, the Hindu Buddha, they pray very differently. Yeah. There's no set times. There's no set events. There's no priest standing and giving a one hour lecture or speeches, presiding over the mass. It is, you know, people, you know, family of, you know, their friends come to the temple on their birthday, a baby name, naming ceremony, a rice planting. You know, any kind of family events. They come with their family. They come, pray and leave. So, it's like you, at maximum I would say you would have a five or six car, fifteen to twenty people if any (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, walk me through then. In the course of a week, I'm, I'm a Catholic. And on Christmas Eve there were five-thousand of us at the fairgrounds (inaudible) a nativity and the traffic was horrendous. That's not the way you do things?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: So, tell us, in the course of a week, on a Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, how many people are going to be coming over to this property?

MR. GIMORY: On a, on an average day I would say between fifteen to twenty cars. Not all there at the same time. On an average day. They will come. Go. Pray. There may be a priest, may not be a priest. In our religion it's not really required that you have a have a priest to preside over something. So, people will come and go as they choose at various (inaudible) fits into their schedule.

MR. KOTROCO: At your convenience?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: You go whenever it's convenient to you?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Not that you have to be there at 12:00 mass on a, on a Sunday?

MR. GIMORY: That's, that's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: It could be in the morning, the middle of the day or evening? And that happens through the weekdays?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And people come on the weekends as well?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: So, how many might come on a weekend?

MR. GIMORY: I mean, this, unlike the Sunday masses that tend to be popular and people (inaudible) Sunday masses, that we don't have that you know, Saturday mass or Sunday mass. People just come. You know, if my birthday falls on a Wednesday then that's when I'm going to go and, and pay my respect (inaudible) to temple. So, it's not, it's not a set day (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Do you usually go once a week?

MR. GIMORY: I love to. I'm not as religious as I would like to be. (laughs)-- I, the last time I was (inaudible) ago.

MR. KOTROCO: And I'm a Christmas and Easter kind of guy myself. But I understand. So, it's not, it's not a requirement that you go every week? You go as needed?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. When's the last time you've been out to Finksburg?

MR. GIMORY: It was two years ago when, when my cousin was getting married. So--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. You haven't been out there for two years? But you, you do go to Saint-- Do you attend at St. Joseph's?

MR. GIMORY: My two boys go there. So, (inaudible) --(BACKGROUND TALKING -INAUDIBLE)--

MR. KOTROCO: Do they have parking problems at St. Joseph's there at the church and the school?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Big problems? What, what kind of problems?

MR. GIMORY: So, every morning I drop my two boys off. So, we have a line all the way (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Out in the state highway there? Belair Road?

MR. GIMORY: Out on the state highway, yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Blocking the lane of traffic?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. So, when you leave and when you pick them up the same, the same thing (inaudible) traffic light (inaudible)-- (BACKGROUND TALKING - INAUDIBLE)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And then on Sunday, church day, the same thing?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Do they have the police there sometimes directing traffic?

MR. GIMORY: I have not seen a police officer there, but--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. You're just (inaudible) your chance sitting out there in the middle of the highway? And that seems to be okay?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible) thing.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Do you think you're going to be back in traffic out there onto Harford Road here?

MR. GIMORY: Not onto Harford Road.

MR. KOTROCO: No? You're not going to have enough cars coming?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible) as you can see the distance from Harford Road to the, to the building.

MR. KOTROCO: Plenty of driveway length? Plenty of parking?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--have to have a, you know, I don't know, maybe eighty cars to line up from the property to the Harford Road which I -- I, I, I don't know the exact amount, but, that's (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Tell us, now, when you get to the property, well, just be a little bit clearer. How long does it take you? You come in. You maybe you have another friend or another car of some family members. You go inside. How long does it take to get through your worship session or whatever?

MR. GIMORY: Well, it depends. If you, you run into your friend (inaudible) you know. You know, more than an hour, chit-chatting. But actual you know, prayer and the visit takes this, it just could be as little of five or ten minute. It could be a half an hour.

MR. KOTROCO: So, if you're just going by yourself, five, ten minutes, a half hour? You're in and you're out?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: But if you run into some friends or whatever you may stay around and talk?

MR. GIMORY: Talk a while

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Tell us about where, we (inaudible) understand (inaudible) holidays. How about the holidays and festivals that, that is --

MR. GIMORY: So, we have a couple festivals. One mainly being September. That's called Dashain. That's the biggest, obviously that's the biggest in the festival in Nepal. In India (inaudible) that's the festival comes for ten days, twenty-- twenty-one days after that.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: So, that's, that's one of the biggest festival. And we have a few other minor festival. (Inaudible) in, right around the summertime and the spring.

MR. KOTROCO: So, one in the summer? What would that be?

MR. GIMORY: That's September. It was, it, we go by lunar calendar.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: So, it could fall like any time in September or the beginning of October.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, a total of three then is what you're telling me?

MR. GIMORY: Three major one, yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And you make it more complicated because you follow the lunar calendar, right?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. Right.

MR. KOTROCO: I got you. So, on those days then, now, are those held inside or outside? Those festivals?

MR. GIMORY: Those festival, they, I mean, it's, it's, it can be, it can be done outside.

MR. KOTROCO: Uh-huh.

MR. GIMORY: Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: Weather permitting or--

MR. GIMORY: Weather permitting.

MR. KOTROCO: --if it's raining you might go inside?

MR. GIMORY: More like a festival. (Inaudible) could have that (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Well, I guess they're concerned about noise. How much noise do you make at one of these festivals? Is there music?

MR. GIMORY: We could have music. We could you know, the music could be, the buildings, it's (inaudible). And once it's all done everything is. The microphone (inaudible) will be stationed inside the building. So it, not necessarily the mike will be stationed outside (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: Outside the (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Well, let me clear one thing up. You haven't had any religious services whatsoever at this property, is that right?

MR. GIMORY: None.

MR. KOTROCO: Nothing?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: The buildings not even occupiable at this point? It was freezing cold the other day when I was in there. You don't have heat?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Because you don't have water?

MR. GIMORY: No water.

MR. KOTROCO: And, and it's a hot water boiler system. So, if you don't have water you don't have heat?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: The water hasn't been connected up yet?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: When you bought the property the neighbors or vandals or somebody went in and they cut all the copper pipes out and stole them all?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: So, you don't have any water?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. It was in bad shape. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: In bad shape. I'm going to get to that in a minute. So, there's no heat? No air conditioning? And you haven't had any, in, in the temple room there's still damage in there? People throwing paint around and expletives,--

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: --swastikas?

MR. GIMORY: You have a swastika sign--

MR. KOTROCO: Racial slurs?

MR. GIMORY: --up from top to bottom.

MR. KOTROCO: There's everything you can think of in there?

MR. GIMORY: Absolutely.

MR. KOTROCO: Busted out windows?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Drugs, alcohol?

MR. GIMORY: Needles. You could find-- we have, literally have to have the gloves on. Some of my friends here are volunteers. But we put gloves on. Clean all the needles and, and the bottles. We have like, literally have like three, four trash bags full of like beer bottles.

MR. KOTROCO: What type of graffiti were you finding inside the property?

MR. GIMORY: The most visible ones like swastikas, you know, plastered all over the building inside and, and the outside.

MR. KOTROCO: People riding four wheelers, motorcycles on the property.

MR. GIMORY: That's true.

MR. KOTROCO: Even after you took it over you were still having problems?

MR. GIMORY: We, in the early few weeks of the thing, we, we had a building broken into a few times. Then we, we secured that with a, with a new door. We changed the locks. We posted some sign. And recently we installed cameras. So, now it's, you know, we can see.

MR. KOTROCO: And you have, you have it? And you put a chain across the entrance to keep people from coming in?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: People were coming in with pick-up trucks and stuff? Even when you were there fixing it up?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: All the work that you're doing now has been done by the volunteers that we see in the room?

MR. GIMORY: It's all volunteer work. We, the only money we had to spend from the donation that came in, buying materials. Paying for legals and registrant fees, but all the work has been done by our volunteers (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: So, who's coming around and, and spray painting all this graffiti and all this trash and busting your pipes, stealing out, busting out your windows, leaving drugs, doing drugs, drinking alcohol? Who's doing all that on the property?

MR. GIMORY: No idea.

MR. KOTROCO: They're not coming out of Baltimore City doing that?

MR. GIMORY: I don't know.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. The four wheelers are from the neighborhood?

MR. GIMORY: I would assume so.

MR. KOTROCO: This is a picture of the property when you bought it? The front? That's the front entrance, right?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And did you put the plywood up?

MR. GIMORY: That was there. The bank did that.

MR. KOTROCO: The bank secured it as best they could? And somebody, J.D. and W.L. spray painted their initials on there, right?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: Yeah. I see that. And busted up everything?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: The windows, beautiful windows, these are individual glass windows, aren't they? They're all, they're all busted?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Who busted those out?

MR. GIMORY: We didn't do it.

MR. KOTROCO: No, I know. But you're fixing them, right? You've got them all fixed?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. So--

MR. KOTROCO: You had to-- that's not like an Anderson window? You just pop it out and replace it?

MR. GIMORY: That's right.

MR. KOTROCO: You've got to replace those individual panes?

MR. GIMORY: And then I guess you're going to ask the question about the (inaudible) Association. When we met with some of the neighbors and, and when they had a concern about conservation we said, we're going to do everything possible to preserve the building the way it is today. And knowing the history of the Bonaparte, knowing the history of where it came from and you know, and (inaudible) government (inaudible) lived there for a long time (inaudible) Attorney General. So, we, (inaudible) the history of the building. And we ordered glass. And the person who will help us do that is standing right here.

MR. KOTROCO: A friend. Vic Rhom (phonetic), Vic Rhom did all that?

MR. GIMORY: So, we contact, we, and a piece of glass, do (inaudible) as much as we could. We (inaudible) destroying, you know, not even a window or changing anything to the building.

MR. KOTROCO: So, the front of the building, going from all that graffiti and busted up looks now, and this was taken some time ago (inaudible). You've gotten it pretty well cleaned up, at least at this point?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: That's what it looks like most recently?

MR. GIMORY: Okay. So, we, the last thing we did we fixed the roof. There was a leaking from all over the place. We you know, you know, obviously (inaudible) all the graphics. The graffiti that was painted all over the place. Fixed the windows. Fixed the doors. Secured locks. All the steps outside were, the cements and everything was you know, was not safe to say the least. So, we fixed all that.

MR. KOTROCO: So, the back of the house, the back of the mansion also. You've gotten all the glass fixed? Cleaned it up? Painted it up, right?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: All done with your own private money and the hard work of these people in the room?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Anymore vandalism going on?

MR. GIMORY: Not at this point.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Got your security camera in place and you've chained off the, the driveway?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. How about, how close, well, you still don't, you still can't occupy the property and you haven't been able to occu-- you've been in there working?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: But you're not using it for any religious work?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. We have--

MR. KOTROCO: The people--

MR. GIMORY: You know, the summer time and this (inaudible) we, we go in there maybe twice, even three times a week just to cut the grass, clean up the mess all around the building because the tennis court, it was in a bad (inaudible) found safe. (Inaudible) volunteer not only in a, in a, you know, raise money, but they literally (inaudible). We would (inaudible) fix up the tennis court, all the retaining walls and then just--

MR. KOTROCO: Well, I saw the tennis court and you told me the story that your children raised money too, too?

MR. GIMORY: Absolutely.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Tell the Judge what happened there. When the kids got involved with the ten-- it was so overgrown you didn't even know you had a tennis court there?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. It was, (inaudible) the property we didn't really look through everything. We discover as we went through the property. And one of the things a good, surprise was there was a tennis court to the building. (laughs)-- And, and all the bushes were so overgrown. It was really blocking the view. And the retaining, big lumbers were just like giving away. So they were literally on the, on, on top, on the tennis court. So, we have volunteer, a youth group, not the corp group, the youth group. Children's and kids in high school. They literally raised $9,000.00 you know. They collected dollar, ten dollar, fifteen dollar from their families and friends. And they bought in a secondhand lumber from somewhere. I didn't even know the name of the place. And they, $9,000.00 they spend on the material. And they spend out of, you know, a few weeks of their time to, to fix it up and make it nice. And today they, you know, when they go there and cut the grass. They could make, play volleyball. In some cases, play basketball.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, it's a volleyball court, a basketball court? They put a brand new, I'm sorry, they put a brand new sport court on top of the old--

MR. GIMORY: Yes. On top of, yeah. So, we've got--

MR. KOTROCO: Right. And now you can use it as a, what it was intended to be?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. How about the other, other things that are on the property? There's a caretakers house on the property?

MR. GIMORY: There's a care--

MR. KOTROCO: In addition to the mansion?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. That's, it's in pretty decent shape. We (inaudible) fifteen, twenty-thousand dollars investment into that (inaudible). I think that's where we plan to have a (inaudible) live in (inaudible). (TALKING IN BACKGROUND)--

MR. KOTROCO: And it would be someone to keep an eye out on the property?

MR. GIMORY: Keep an eye on the property.

MR. KOTROCO: And be a caretaker?

MR. GIMORY: And a caretaker. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: That didn't look like it had all the damage that I saw in the mansion. Was it not-- was it spared? I mean, are the vandals just like busting up the beautiful mansion or --

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. I think they, they were probably too occupied or too busy.

MR. KOTROCO: Too busy busting that place up?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. Yeah. That's (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: It's hard to explain. And nobody can really understand it unless they went in and saw it like I did and you all did at the beginning. But there, I mean, there was paint splattered all over the pine woodwork in there?

MR. GIMORY: Even in the basement. Even in all the (inaudible) nice (inaudible) you know, that it has in the main, the main hall (inaudible). (Inaudible)-- (TALKING IN BACKGROUND)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And you're, you're bringing all that back slowly --

MR. GIMORY: And we taking painstaking you know, the time and energy. Our contractor involving (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: I know you're speaking for Vic Rhom back there because he's heading all that up.

MR. GIMORY: Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: Because I met him on the property because the-- but that's okay. How much longer do you think it's going to take before you're going to have it in a condition that you, assuming this is a (inaudible) that you might even be able to occupy it?

MR. GIMORY: We are, I, I'm going to guess here.

A good guess. I mean, it's probably another four to five month before we get everything done, done.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, even if we're approved here today, that the Judge approves us, you're still months away from being able to --

MR. GIMORY: That's, that's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. Well, let's move on. Well, let me just cover a couple other items. There's, tell me about that historic barn. I was there with you and the Kingsville folks.

MR. GIMORY: Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: And we walked down to that barn and took a look at that. That's an old, historic barn?

MR. GIMORY: That was another surprise. And we kind of saw it on the Google Map. And we didn't go in until, until a month later after we bought the property. And we came to find out about the, the history that's associated with the barn. And some of Robin Beers, I think I saw him there and Tom. And a couple other folks came to meet us. And they also, (inaudible) well, you know, it was such an honor to know what, what took place there. And they wanted to preserve that. I was like I would be the first one to contribute or sign up for any, any kind of, you know, (inaudible) that you would like to do and preserve that building for, for what it is.

MR. KOTROCO: You're willing to donate it for purposes of preservation?

MR. GIMORY: Abs-- absolutely. Absolutely.

MR. KOTROCO: It's a two-hundred, maybe older barn that, that Mr. Bonaparte kept his stabled horses in--

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: --as he would ride back and forth to Baltimore because he didn't like a car. He would ride back and forth (inaudible) those lawns using the horses and that farm?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. And I posted that in our Facebook group page once I found out about the (inaudible). I posted that. And, and not only from our community member, but it was from, from Kingsville area. They were very, very, you know taken back. I mean, very appreciative of what, you know (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Of an opportunity maybe to restore that barn and bring it back to the way you're bringing the mansion back? Nobody seemed to be stepping up to take care of this property? Nobody even cared about it?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. I was a little surprised that a building was sitting there vacant and in, in that shape for such a long time.

MR. KOTROCO: Right.

MR. GIMORY: And, and then one we, we (inaudible) we bought it and, and started doing some of the maintenance outside then I think it, it, the attention was given to it.

MR. KOTROCO: It was coming back to life? You're bringing it back to--

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. The last part is the swimming pool and the pavilion. What are you going to do with that? There's a beautiful swimming pool and pavilion now. What, what are you going to do with that?

MR. GIMORY: We quite, don't have the exact plan for that. It, for, for safety and liability we need to kind of create a little garden. But I, I think that can be (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Down the road?

MR. GIMORY: Down the road.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, just to reiterate, the people coming and going here daily or whatever, week, on weekends, they're your volunteers? They're the people coming in and fixing the place up?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. Half of the people you see here, these are the volunteer who have come and gone and help us. Help us. And just cutting the grass. Just imagine, cutting the grass on thirty acre property. You're going to need twenty people-- (laugh)--

MR. KOTROCO: Or a big lawn mower.

MR. GIMORY: --a week or more.

MR. KOTROCO: Yes.

MR. GIMORY: And, and that we didn't have this, I take big (inaudible). So, we were just using you know, a small John Deere lawn mower. So, right. It would take, take a long time.

MR. KOTROCO: Let me talk about, and this is a touch, a touching point with the community because I know Mr. Clark already brought this up. You had a fundraiser on the property in the summertime where you invited a lot of people to come and contribute money for your, for your (inaudible). Tell us, tell us what happened there, because I know they want to know about that.

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. Absolutely. Anybody that was involved in the (inaudible), really just organizers and any kind of volunteer work you know how much, how difficult it is to raise money. It is difficult. Telling people to open up their wallet and give you, write you a $1,000.00 check or $500.00 check, not knowing the cause. What we're trying to do and what, what are you trying to achieve? So, we thought that we had a, this, this beautiful piece of property that we're trying to establish a (inaudible) temple. First time in the history in Baltimore County for this population that have never had a home, they haven't had a place to call, at their temple. And inviting people and, and inviting all this family to come and see that place. What it would be in the future. It was important to us. And, and it was very important for us. And to, to raise that money that we needed. So, once we, we didn't even like you know, (inaudible) Facebook page. And we, people are so excited. People traveled from Virginia, D.C. You know, people came from New York just to see it. You know, and, and if I may expand that into that? There was a traffic, there was a traffic circle that was being constructed that week. I don't know how it, how long it took but probably a couple of years. And a lot of people are getting lost because the Google Map, the property is so big Google Map pointed the property in the wrong place. So, a lot of our members couldn't find the place. That they you know, accidentally moved, you know, drove into somebodies driveway and the neighbor were probably not very pleased with that. And, and later we fix all of that now. The Google Map point to our entrance. The (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: You don't really have a sign out there or anything?

MR. GIMORY: We didn't even have a sign right there.

MR. KOTROCO: Right. Right. So, what happened? How many people showed up? How much money did you raise? How long did it go on for? Tell, tell us what happened.

MR. GIMORY: So, we had two days event. I think between those two days we may have, have three to five-hundred people show up in, in two days. So, they were come, coming in and going out. And some of the people that we didn't know from you know, Virginia and D.C. So, we didn't have exact count. But people we knew. I would, a rough estimate been three to five hundred.

MR. KOTROCO: Mostly Nepali people?

MR. GIMORY: No. We had you know, people from our other ethnic group. A lot of our good friends from, from Baltimore County, Perry Hall. They were excited as well for us. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Do you have any plans to do any more of those types of fundraisers?

MR. GIMORY: No. Because we, it, we met our initial target of raising a half a million dollar.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: To, -- That's not one of our regular event or you know, future plans.

MR. KOTROCO: Well, if you're getting a half a mill out of it you might want to have a couple more. I don't know. (laughs)--

MR. GIMORY: Let me correct that. I mean, we didn't raise a half a million dollar on that day, but we raise (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Oh, okay. I got you. Okay.

Let's go over the water and sewer, because I know Mr. Clark brought up some very good points. This property is so old you were not able to find a well on this property?

MR. GIMORY: So, we have, I'm, this, I have, our contractor (inaudible) septic and (inaudible). And Vic Rhom, our contractor is here. He met with (inaudible) around the Baltimore area a long time. He's, you know, (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: It's the Preston Whiteford Company, which is an odd name for--

MR. GIMORY: Right. It's Preston White.

MR. KOTROCO: -- Whiteford, Preston Well Company, because I used to work for (inaudible) Preston.

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. Highly recommended by Baltimore County. And so he's on the list. So, (inaudible) but he cannot three or four times. We have an estimate to replace the septic. I think it's right around twenty some thousand. So yeah, we have, one (inaudible) of--

MR. KOTROCO: Let me back up a minute. You never found the well? Is that right?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: You could not find it?

MR. GIMORY: Could not find it.

MR. KOTROCO: And we think maybe in the old days they, they would, took the water out of the stream, do you think?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. That's what we (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: That's what he thought though? Because he couldn't find any well on the property where there was a well? Okay. But there is a well because there's water coming from somewhere, right? Or there's a water source?

MR. GIMORY: Was, it was just, we were told there was a spring water (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, you're going to put a brand new well in?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: You haven't done it yet? You're going to go to Baltimore County and get a permit and then go through Baltimore County and put in a proper well for this property?

MR. GIMORY: That's right.

MR. KOTROCO: And the well will work for the, the temple and the mansion, as well as the caretaker's house because that needs water too.

MR. GIMORY: That's right. Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Were they able to find a septic system? Or no?

MR. GIMORY: Septic system?

MR. KOTROCO: We, are we saying yes or no? The ground--

MR. GIMORY: There was one.

MR. KOTROCO: They found one?

MR. GIMORY: It's not (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: It's no good? Okay. So, you're gonna, well, what are you gonna do? You want to put a brand new system in?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. So we, so, his recommendation to put a brand new system. We have an estimate for that. So--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: And then this is going to tie in all (inaudible) places. Like the caretaker house, (inaudible) and the main (inaudible)-- (TALKING IN BACKGROUND)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, when you go through Baltimore County and, and in Environmental Department in the County, they inspect. They come out and they oversee the installation of this entire system?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And they make sure it's done properly and the right size?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible) yeah. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. But you haven't done that yet?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. You're not that far? You're still three or four months away from even using the property?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Discussions with your neighbors. I know I was there and you, you've always been open and invited anybody that wants to come out there to come out there?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. So, what have you done with talking with the neighbors?

MR. GIMORY: We, we met, I think some of the Kingsville Associates. And (inaudible). We met with them twice, right at the property. We shared our plan. We even shared the plan that (inaudible) you see here today. They had that months ago. We had a good feedback from them. They shared some of their concern. And we always, we (inaudible) very truthful and, and (inaudible). And always had intentions to be a good neighbor and we will be a very awesome neighbor. We, we hope so. And we also met with Pastor Daniel (phonetic) is here.

MR. KOTROCO: Pastor Daniel Montague (phonetic), right?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: And with the United Methodist Church. They were so gracious to invite us to the church on Sunday. We met with a lot of members of the church. And I shared my plan and some of the folks stood up and say, you saved my trip to Towson Courthouse, you know. (laughs)--

MR. KOTROCO: Go ahead.

MR. GIMORY: You know, some of the fear that we had was unfounded. And we had you know some misinformation about your group and what your plans are. Now you shared with what you're going to do and what's about to happen and there's no need for us to go there at that place. So, that's (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: They, they're, they're in support of you?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And the Pastor's here today in support?

MR. GIMORY: The Pastor to, to support us. And you know, as I said in the beginning it's, it's very, you know, I get a good smile when I say it. It's, it's a big deal for our, for our community. It's, it's a, it's (inaudible) and all of his friends. It is a, it's a defining moment for us, you know.

MR. KOTROCO: Uh-hum.

MR. GIMORY: And you know just, we have (inaudible) day and, Pastor was talking about being inclusive. Being able to listen to. And that message is so (inaudible) on that day when (inaudible) on, on there on Sunday. Now, I hope the proximate community neighbors would find us and would listen to us and we would sit down and listen to you. Give us a chance. I know this country is welcoming place. I know you will welcome us open heartily. We'll do everything to be a good neighbor. I'm sure we can abide by every code and laws out there on, on the books. And that's exactly what we, we are here for. (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: And, and you're willing to have meetings on the property and invite, invite anybody here in the room to come out?

MR. GIMORY: I'm self employed. I have time, all the time in the world. So, call me up any day from 9:00 AM to 9:00 PM. I can meet you any day and answer any question you have.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: Any day.

MR. KOTROCO: Yeah, I know. I've attended a couple of those myself. This one, your property is not only religious use in that vicinity right there, is it?

MR. GIMORY: No. No.

MR. KOTROCO: There are, there a couple other religious institutions right next to you or just a couple of properties over, is that right?

MR. GIMORY: Redeemer Church and, and the schools. It's just, because I think, don't quote me on it, but I think it's literally only four houses between our site and the Redeemer Church. And--

MR. KOTROCO: And the Hutschenreuter property in the back? I mean, you're, you're only one farmer's property--

MR. GIMORY: Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: One big piece of property between the two of them?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. And I have been to that (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: You looked to put your son in there, right?

MR. GIMORY: I (inaudible), my wife and I were contemplating putting my son to high school and he ended up going somewhere else. But you know, I've been there a few times. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And you've walked the campus? And you walked with property?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: You've met with the Headmaster or whatever the--

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. I can't remember the name now, but I met with the counselor and the student, the registration folks and yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And that's, that has a grade school, a high school as well?

MR. GIMORY: I think it have 250 students that go there every day.

MR. KOTROCO: Uh-huh.

MR. GIMORY: It's, it's a high, you know, a grade through high school. Our neighbor goes there too. That's how we found out. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And next, next door to that is the Beachmont Christian Camp, is that right?

MR. GIMORY: I think they're related. I, I don't know how they are set up. I think you can put the one entity, I mean, you know, legally two entities, but you know, one management. I'm not sure how that's set up. But I know there's a church, a school and a pretty big summer camp I think there because it's pretty well known.

MR. KOTROCO: Yes. So, it's, and there's soccer fields, football fields, ball fields, baseball fields?

MR. GIMORY: That's right.

MR. KOTROCO: Swimming pools, tennis courts? Everything on there?

MR. GIMORY: Everything in there. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Everything you need?

MR. GIMORY: Everything you need.

MR. KOTROCO: I was shocked on the one. I've never seen a corn maze at a Christian School before. But it looks like a big, giant corn maze in there. Did you see that?

MR. GIMORY: No. It's, right in the corner, it looked like it.

MR. KOTROCO: It does. I've, I've never seen that. Only, what, I don't know what relation that has to Christianity or whatever, but there's a big, giant corn maze there. And I guess that attracts a thousand people or so to come and go to that?

MR. GIMORY: I, I wouldn't know (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Do you see it in the photo? It's quite elaborate.

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: It even says something on there. I was trying to make out the word. And maybe there's some folks from Redeemer here that knows what it says. I think it says, Super Heroes or something like that. I couldn't tell. Those things amaze me that they're able to cut-- Here's a better picture of it. That's the corn maze at the Redeemer School. Have you ever gone through that?

MR. GIMORY: Not the corn maze.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Was it there when you toured the school? It's fairly new, isn't it?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: You don't know?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: It's okay if you don't know.

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: That's the last thing about that Redeemer, Redeemer School. And I'm, listen, I'm fan of the Redeemer School. I think I approved part of it and the Beachmont as well when I used to work with the County. But it's a great use. And I'm not knocking it, but it's a, it's a pretty well, established Christian School there, right? I mean, it's--

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. It is.

MR. KOTROCO: --got a Logic and Rheteric School. I see a Grammar School, Redeemer Classical Christian School, a field house and a bunch of other buildings?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: All shown on this?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. That's--

MR. KOTROCO: (Inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: Quite a few buildings out there. Yeah. Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And you're not looking to do any of that stuff? You just want to go in there for your half hour to an hour?

MR. GIMORY: No. We met morning (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: More so than every two years? You're going to go a little bit more than once every two years, right?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. (laughs)-- Got some catching up to do. A couple more questions and I'll be finished (inaudible).

MR. GIMORY: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: The Special Exception Request. You know how you're going to use the property? You know it better than anybody and maybe some of the others in your, in your congregation. You believe your use of this property and the buildings that are on there for your purposes, do you think that's going to be detrimental to the health, safety or general welfare of the surrounding neighborhood?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Are you going to create congestion in roads, streets or alleys coming and going to the site?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Are you going to create a potential hazard and fire, panic or other danger?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Are you going to overcrowd the land or cause an undue conservation of population?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Are you going to interfere with adequate provisions of school or parks or water or transportation or other public environments?

MR. GIMORY: No sir.

MR. KOTROCO: Are you going to interfere with adequate light and air?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: And are you inconsistent with the purpose of the properties zoning classification?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: They're RC-2. Redeemer and Beachmont, a couple doors down, they're on RC-5. Both rural conservation zones, right?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And do you think there's any reason why you setting up a religious worship on this property is anyway going to be more detrimental here than it would somewhere else?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And the property is not being farmed at this time though, is it?

MR. GIMORY: No. It's, yeah, it's not being used (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: Maybe horses I guess when Mr. Bonaparte had it?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. All right. I don't have anything further of Mr. Gimory.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Any questions?

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. CLARK:

MR. CLARK: Yeah. Can I approach the, the exhibit?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Mr., is it Gimory?

MR. GIMORY: Gimory.

MR. CLARK: What, you know, I-- this is the first you and I have met, right?

MR. GIMORY: I think so, right?

MR. CLARK: Yes. It is.

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible).

MR. CLARK: You don't remember me? I don't remember you? I live right across the street from you.

MR. GIMORY: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And we have never met. Have you ever come down into these properties and introduced yourself?...Have you ever sent circulars to these properties, including Mr. (inaudible)?

MR. GIMORY: No. I have not.

MR. CLARK: And you have not. So, your outreach has been very limited, correct?

MR. GIMORY: Um--

MR. CLARK: You haven't, you haven't approached the people in the immediate area? Is that correct?

MR. GIMORY: We met with the Kingsville Association--

MR. CLARK: The Kingsville Civic Association is about five, three miles away. All right. You did not meet or attempt to meet with the people in the immediate area, is that correct?

MR. GIMORY: That would be correct.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Now, you described the damage to the, to the property. Your Honor, I've got to work off nervousness. So, is it okay if I, I walk around?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible)-- oh, sure.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Thank you. Would it surprise you to, to, to learn that the old caretaker's house down by me, at the bottom of Mark Lane (phonetic), okay, down here, that that had been abandoned and was also in the same, exact condition as yours? Would that surprise you? And that was thirty years ago? Forty years ago?

MR. GIMORY: Are you saying the caretaker house?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: What, yeah, what property? I'm not sure I follow that question.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Where is it?

MR. CLARK: (Inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: No, I don't think (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: It, it's, it's down here. They got the tag on barn, but anyway it was, it was the original farmers house for the Bonaparte's, okay? And that property was in exactly the same condition? In fact, the kids were using it as a roller skating rink, okay? You know, I mean the, the things you found in there are offensive to any reasonable human being?

MR. GIMORY: That would be my assumption. Yes.

MR. CLARK: Yes. And but it, do you think it was targeted at you?

MR. GIMORY: They didn't even know that we bought it (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Correct. Thank you.

MR. GIMORY: Before that. But after we bought it I (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Right. But, but the swastika was there when you bought the property?

MR. GIMORY: Some were there. And some were painted even after we bought--

MR. CLARK: Okay. That, that's your testimony. Okay. Now, I looked at the, the signing list for the Protestants. I didn't see anybody, and if I'm wrong please raise your hand. I didn't see anybody with the initials J.D. or W.L. Is it, is there anybody here with those initials?... Okay. So, it wasn't anybody in this room that defaced that property, is that correct? If their initials are not J.D. or W.L.?

MR. GIMORY: I don't know that.

MR. CLARK: All right. Well, but there is, you agree there is nobody here that has stood up and said they are, they are J.D. or W.L.?

MR. GIMORY: I, I (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: I'm going to look at the list.

MR. CLARK: Yeah. Please do.

MR. KOTROCO: Maybe it's their kids.

MR. CLARK: Well, it could be.

MR. KOTROCO: It could be.

MR. CLARK: All right.

MR. KOTROCO: It's not any of them, but, but--

MR. CLARK: But, but right. Now, would it surprise you to learn that I have chased kids in wheel ATV's off my property?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. CLARK: Okay. It's not just directed at you I don't think.

MR. GIMORY: I hope not.

MR. CLARK: Now, we, we have never met before. And I'd better go back to my questions. You, you testified that there have been as many as eighty cars already going down the driveway, right?

MR. GIMORY: Sir, can you, can you--

MR. CLARK: You said something in your testimony about eighty cars going down the driveway at one time.

MR. GIMORY: I, I think what I said was, I don't know the exact length and how many cars that would fit in, but you know, at the wild guess I would say if you line up from Harford Road all the way to the building you could probably--

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: --fit in sixty to eighty cars easily from.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: That's what I said.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Because and I'm sorry, (inaudible) getting distracted by (inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: No problem. No problem.

MR. CLARK: And I really am sorry if I come across strident. I'm just--

MR. GIMORY: No. No problem.

MR. CLARK: You know, I know (inaudible) well.

MR. GIMORY: You're good. You're good. You're good.

MR. CLARK: All right. Now, you said you're a

501 (inaudible)?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Did you apply for 501-C status?

MR. GIMORY: It's already approved.

MR. CLARK: No, no. That wasn't my question. Did you apply? (TELEPHONE RINGING IN BACKGROUND)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Jess?

MR. GIMORY: I don't-- well, how would you get that without apply it?

MR. CLARK: Well the, well, the I.R.S. gives special exemptions for certain categories, all right? Did you apply--

MR. GIMORY: Okay, okay--

MR. CLARK: Did you actively apply--

MR. GIMORY: So, now I understand. But yes, we did apply. Yes.

MR. CLARK: You did apply?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Now, you also said something that led me to, to wonder about the actual ownership. You said that people, that people that gave money have a stake in the property. Was that a, what, what, am I misunderstanding or, or is that--

MR. GIMORY: No. I don't think I said that. But it's a 501-C Corp-- a 501-C Entity.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. GIMORY: So, when you donate that money to a 501-C that becomes your donation. That's a 501-C property.

MR. CLARK: Right. Right. Right. I understand that part. But do people actually have a share of the property? You know, and a lot of this is --

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. CLARK: I took Comparative Culture forty years ago.

MR. GIMORY: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Right? So, okay. It actually belongs to the, the--

MR. GIMORY: To the entity body.

MR. CLARK: To the Cultural Center?

MR. GIMORY: Yes. That's correct. Yes.

MR. CLARK: All right. To, to the entity. Okay. You, all right, let's, let, I'm just going to cut to the chase Mr. Kotroco.

MR. KOTROCO: Go ahead. I like that. (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: I'm just going to cut to the chase. (laughs)--

MR. KOTROCO: That sounds good.

MR. CLARK: All right. I think I've got a copy for you. Can, can you get out copy, copy one or two of the Code Enforcement? You knew this was coming up.

MR. KOTROCO: I didn't. But I'll take it down to the Department of Justice the next time I'm (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: There, yeah, yeah, yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: Let me have it. Let me have it.

MR. CLARK: All right.

MR. KOTROCO: Thank you very much. Were you the one that complained sir?

MR. CLARK: No, I was not. Well, I was one of them ultimately.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. CLARK: But, should I give this to the, to the witness Your Honor or should I --

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Sure. If you want him to review something.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Are you familiar with these?

MR. KOTROCO: Look at my (inaudible) shake.

MR. CLARK: All right. Are, are you familiar with it? With these actions?

MR. GIMORY: Oh, yes.

MR. CLARK: Yes. I think in April. Can I, can I have a copy? Yeah. I think in April the Department of Permits and Approvals investigated you. And the complaint was converting the property into a temple with no permits. Please see pictures, etcetera. That was, oh, no. That was in August. I'm sorry. August 4th, okay? Now, since you didn't have a Special Exception Permit, right, at that point the description is not pejorative, it's factual? Is that right?

MR. GIMORY: I'm sorry? I was looking at --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, no, no, no, no. No.

MR. GIMORY: Can you--

MR. CLARK: I'm trying to fact, to say that the way that this was, that the way the, the code action was written it --

MR. GIMORY: Yeah.

MR. CLARK: --wasn't pejorative? It was in fact--

MR. GIMORY: May, may you say that in a simple English? I'm, this is my second language. So, I--

MR. CLARK: No, no. And I, I was told by French to speak in English. (laughs)--

MR. GIMORY: Okay.

MR. CLARK: All right. The, yeah, what, the, the term used in this complaint was not an insult, right that you're converting it to a temple--

MR. GIMORY: Well, you gave me about twenty pages (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: No. I'm talking about the top one (inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: Okay. All right.

MR. CLARK: All right. We're going to work, we're going to go through them all.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Sir, what's your question? You're asking him if the use of the term temple is a (inaudible) term?

MR. CLARK: No. Yeah. No, no, it's not pejorative. It's descriptive.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: And do, do you mean because that it's, it's not a common place to be at a temple? Or what, I mean (inaudible)?

MR. CLARK: No, I mean, yeah, Your Honor, here, here is--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Yeah. I'm in the dark too. I don't have a copy of what you're asking.

MR. CLARK: Do we have another? All right. Well, here's this one.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Well--

MR. CLARK: Here's that one.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. So, the question to him is a what?

MR. CLARK: Is that that in fact is descriptive, not pejorative? That it's not insulting?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Did, well, you, you (inaudible) insult him sir? That somebody charged you with operating a temple without a permit? Did that offend you? Using the word temple or --

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Good.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Thank you again.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: If that's your point I, I--

MR. CLARK: That, that is (inaudible).

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Good.

MR. CLARK: Now, later on you, the, the organization received several enforcement notices from the county, right? Including a Cease and Desist Order? Okay? Did you seek legal advice on how to handle those?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. CLARK: And presumably your, your adviser told you to deal with the, to, to meet with them head on? To do the right thing and a legal thing?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Now, I have it from Mr. VanDommelen and Mr. Jablon that they asked you repeatedly to meet with them. In fact, they sent the ecumenical (inaudible) liaison. Oh, my mouth is dry. (laughs)-- To, to talk with you, but you were unresponsive to them, is that correct?

MR. GIMORY: That's not correct.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Can you tell me what happened?

MR. GIMORY: All right. So, I'm going to go back a little bit you know. So, to these incidents and how some of them are so. I would say somewhere, this was back-- and my wife is sitting right here. The County Office Enforcement guy comes and put a note on my door.

MR. CLARK: At your home?

MR. GIMORY: At my home.

MR. CLARK: At your house?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. They know where my office is. They know where the property is.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. GIMORY: And my middle son goes, daddy, are we been foreclosed on? And that (inaudible) you know, and my wife was screaming (inaudible). And that's what's very, the effort on some of the, I don't know, I don't know the names, but there were like marching into the zoning office every day and telling some of the things, weren't true. One of them was the building was used as a place of worship, which was a false. Number one, there's one, one time the Baltimore County and personnel showed up at the property. And of the members here. And he said, you guys cook in here or something. You're serving some food and you don't have food. You got to be kidding me. There's no water. There's no, no heat. We're not cooking. We're not selling food. We're (inaudible) none of this. This is harassment. And, and this, and he obviously gave a whole bunch of papers over here. And as soon as we met, met we even went out of our way to meet with Mr. Jablon at his office. We were, three or four people who are here today we went, met with him. We discussed what was some of the concerns. He told us that he had a large event like the, the fundraiser. Yes. Even your personal property you could have a picnic. You could have fundraiser. You know, you (inaudible) invite thirty people in my back yard to have a fundraiser (inaudible) to do that. But is it just to be nice with the neighbor what (inaudible) next event, why don't you get a permit. And that's exactly what we did. The next time we had a fundraiser I forwarded a copy to permit, a copy of the permit to you. I think people who are, maybe we wish we knew everybodies name and the e-mail address and phone number, which is not possible. And we (inaudible) rude and knock on somebodies door. But people we had contact with, like the Kingsville Associates and folks, we were in contact with them. I think that we had a couple phone, phone call conversation. We had e-mail exchanges. I still have e-mails I think Tim was copied on.

MR. KOTROCO: And Councilman Marks sent you --

MR. GIMORY: Councilman David Marks we, all along we, we were in contact with him from the day one. I, just like you, we are good citizen, good neighbor. And anything goes on, and we wanted to, as much as you like to preserve that land I think I would like to do the same too.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: Absolutely.

MR. CLARK: That, that's very nice to hear. I'm glad you brought up Councilman Marks and the Kingsville Association and Mr. Jablon. You said that you know, you can have thirty people there.

MR. GIMORY: And--

MR. CLARK: There was a but to that, wasn't there? There was a but if you're having a hundred or more you need a special event permit, right?

MR. GIMORY: A special event permit. But that's not exactly, we had, we had--

MR. CLARK: No. No, but you said he said that you can have thirty people there. But for, but for that, to be nice to the neighbors you would need-- he actually gave you a number that triggers a special event permit, did he not?

MR. GIMORY: I can't recall that.

MR. CLARK: Okay. That's fine. Now, let's go to the Kingsville Civic Association and Mr. Marks and Outreach, okay? You're aware of the Kingsville Civic Association community meetings that were held about the property, right?...You were invited. In fact, Mr. Marks told me personally, he was annoyed that you didn't show up at one of the meetings.

MR. GIMORY: I, I have no knowledge of that.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: I tried to reach out to (inaudible) if I can remember and --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: --asking when the next meeting would be.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: From privately a couple of the members that (inaudible) you know, some of the attending could be hostile and then it would be probably not a good idea to come. Those, those (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Who said it would be hostile? (Inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: That was coming from --

MR. CLARK: Doesn't that occur to you that that's pre-judging us?

MR. GIMORY: That was in my judgment.

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, no, no, but--

MR. GIMORY: But I think--

MR. CLARK: (Inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: I don't know if that was the reason that (inaudible) I wasn't you know, given that notice for the meeting, but I did not know about the (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: All right. But what you just said strikes me as fairly (inaudible) to tell you the truth. You know--

MR. GIMORY: That didn't come from me.

MR. CLARK: I, I understand that. I understand that.

MR. GIMORY: I'm, I'm just stating what (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Now, let me tell you something all right? I have some, I actually had somebody that came up to me and said that they don't pray like that. That they don't pray, they don't pray like us, okay? I told him that was a hateful and spiteful thing to say.

MR. GIMORY: I'm very (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: And that I didn't want to hear anymore of that. And, and you can figure, I, I just bowl, and what comes out of a bowl.

MR. GIMORY: I'm very proud of you. (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: All right. What we are concerned here is with proper (inaudible), okay? And what, now, do you recognize that all of this area and all down the valley can, can you accept that they are pretty upset and annoyed about the disturbance to their quiet enjoyment of their property?

MR. GIMORY: So, the Beachmont of the school and the (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Beachmont is, we don't hear Beachmont. We hear you.

MR. GIMORY: Okay. You're probably not going to hear us much. (laughs)-- I don't think how can you really hear? Well, one festival maybe you could have heard some noises. But on a regular day, a regular prayer day, a regular you know, meeting I don't know how you're going to hear that.

MR. CLARK: Trust me, the, the regular comings and goings as you describe them aren't the communities concern, okay? That is not what we're worried about. We're, we are, we are in fact annoyed that several times, not just once, but several times we have to endure days of noise, all right? And we had no choice. Now, I have a recording from, from my deck, all right? And like said, I'm there. I'm about a, a half a mile (inaudible) entrance, okay? I have a recording that I will offer into evidence that, of the noise that was coming off. And it was, and it went until 9:00, 10:00, okay? So, can you get how your neighbors that you want to be in partnership with aren't necessarily looking at you as a effective partner? I do a lot of partnerships, okay? And an effective partner is a two way street.

MR. GIMORY: And I'm a little, so, I'm surprised I didn't, had a chance to meet you to (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Oh, I'm very surprised. (laughter in background)--

MR. GIMORY: And I--

MR. KOTROCO: No, I think you should apologize. You should.

MR. CLARK: No. I said, I'm very surprised.

MR. KOTROCO: No, you should apologize.

MR. GIMORY: I mean, I, you know, the three meetings we had at the building if you were a next door neighbor I don't know how you missed that or some of folks from the Kingsville Association. I don't know. Do you know any of them?

MR. CLARK: We were, we were at three meetings that they held about the, the--

MR. GIMORY: No, no. At, at the property?

MR. CLARK: No. At Kingsville, to which your group was invited?

MR. GIMORY: Did, did they mention that they had, they had a meeting with us?

MR. CLARK: Yes, they did. But that wasn't, like I said, that's people who have a whole different point of view of, of how the property, of the property, all right? We, as I said, as Mr. Mostco, Motsco, right?

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Correct.

MR. CLARK: Testified, you are at the top. Well, my property is at 300. You're probably at 500 feet. Is that fairly correct? Substantially, more or less?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: No. That's too small. (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: But you know, you're at about 500 feet in elevation. And then it goes, it drops down to the valley, which goes down to Gunpowder Falls Park. That sound travels all the way down that valley. And you see how people would be upset about that? Did you give any consideration to those people?

MR. GIMORY: If that's what, if the noise is a, is a factor that's something we can discuss. And once, as I stated earlier--

MR. CLARK: But--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Hold on.

MR. CLARK: (Inaudible) I'm sorry. I'm sorry.

MR. GIMORY: As I stated earlier, once the building gets (inaudible) and occupied all the activity will take place inside the building. And (inaudible) I said that's a one in you know many years in fundraiser event.

MR. CLARK: Understood.

MR. GIMORY: So, I (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: But, but my question is did you give consideration to the, to the immediate neighbors, and I mean a mile away how they would be impacted by the noise? Did you give any consider-- did anybody say, oh, we ought to think about how the people who live here are, are going to, to respond to this. If not just to avoid problems like now.

MR. GIMORY: They consider what they're given. And that's, that's (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: No, no, no. But it wasn't at the time, right?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Now, your, your profession is you're a developer, right?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. CLARK: Okay. What, what is your profession? I'm sorry.

MR. GIMORY: I'm in real estate sales.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Real estate. You're in real estate. How long have you been in business in Baltimore County?

MR. GIMORY: About ten years.

MR. CLARK: Ten years. Okay. So, number one, you understand the difference between RC-2 and RC-5?

MR. GIMORY: I know what the RC-2 is, with the exception--

MR. CLARK: Yeah. And you know what RC-5 is?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: And you know RC-5, the comparison between Beachmont and this property isn't really germane?

RC-5 is a lot more liberal than RC-2, right?

MR. GIMORY: I would have to, you know (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: It's not. You can say no.

MR. GIMORY: Okay. No.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Okay. Now, and I want to be clear on something. Is your testimony that you never served food for large crowds up there? You, you said that earlier. I just want to be clear.

MR. GIMORY: No. We never cooked food inside the building or serve, but we had a festival, We had food that was prepared and brought to the place. So, it was--

MR. CLARK: So, it was catered?

MR. GIMORY: The, so, the food was not-- it's the Baltimore County Court Enforcement Officer, even he was, his face was like a stun, like I was just sent here for nothing, you know. (laughs)--

MR. CLARK: (Inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: And when he, when he went to the property. What I was told isn't what I see here. It's two different things.

MR. KOTROCO: It was just harassment? You were told bad information?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. It was like in a--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: It isn't right to characterize it as harassment.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: He, he called me on the phone and said, sorry sir, I'm, I (inaudible) wasting your time, but I, I have to make this call. And one of the gentleman handed me, handed the phone to me and I said, look, I mean, you see what you see. I didn't have to tell you anything. Do you see the kitchen being used? The kitchen is not even usable. The building is not usable. We, we don't even have a permit to use the building. We haven't even got into that second phase of the permitting, for the building and the fire and safety and septic and water and all this.

MR. CLARK: Do you have a (inaudible) of harassment?

MR. GIMORY: I'm not accusing of that.

MR. CLARK: You used the term. It's a pejorative term.

MR. GIMORY: No.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Mr. Kotroco mentioned it when he (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: I did.

MR. CLARK: Okay. I'm sorry.

MR. KOTROCO: I did. I'm involved with a lot of them right now.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible) he says is-- I really don't listen to what, I listen (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Okay. Okay. Thank you Your Honor. I mean, I'm try, I'm trying to pay attention to a whole lot of --

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: That's okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Now, now, you said you're putting in a new septic system?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. CLARK: What have you sized it for?

MR. GIMORY: So, the detail, I would have to look at it because we have them you know--

MR. CLARK: No. But, but you know, every septic system is--

MR. KOTROCO: Your Honor, can the witness at least have a chance to answer the question before he cuts him off?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. So, go ahead. Do you know, do you know anything about it?

MR. KOTROCO: Do you know who's sizing it?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Do you know any of the details or size or cost or anything you can share?

MR. GIMORY: We, we, we told him what the uses, the uses is going to be to (inaudible) map. The number of people who would be coming and going. So, based on that his recommen-- he was, recommend a system that he's going to put in. So, I'm not a septic expert. So, you, don't quote me for that.

MR. CLARK: (Inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: So, as a, as a property owner I tell him what I need and he's, he coded for that. And--

MR. CLARK: My question is, how many people did you tell him to size it for?

MR. GIMORY: We, we have a congregation of about one-fifty. And we'll have on, on an average day (inaudible) people who come and go. On a special event we might have a hundred or a hundred and fifty people. So, that's, that's the number I gave him.

MR. CLARK: All right. So, if he's sizing it for one-hundred-fifty people. I, I, I'm just, you know, because you, you go with your maximum load, right?...Okay. Which is about what the parking lot is and (inaudible)?

MR. GIMORY: That's, that's--

MR. CLARK: I mean, it, it, I, I look for (inaudible), right? So, now, we've already covered the RC-2. You understand that RC-2 is the most (inaudible) zone (inaudible)? Did you know, again, this goes to (inaudible). Did, did you know that in this, in that area of the county you know, we actively engage in hunting and recreational shooting? Did you know that?

MR. GIMORY: Kind of, yes.

MR. CLARK: Kind of.

MR. GIMORY: And my son goes to, is in Boy Scout. We go to that, you know--

MR. CLARK: Yeah. Yeah.

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)-- I mean, it's not like, I'm not (inaudible) it, but I know. But I'm not expert.

MR. CLARK: But you know, for example Mr. Hoochenruter, Hutchenreuter, (inaudible) all around here, he hunts, all right?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible) point (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: These are, people are responsible hunters, all right? In the, in the state you only need one-hundred and fifty, which I think is stupid, because I work up in Pennsylvania a lot. In the state the safety zone is you only have to be one-hundred and fifty yards from a structure, okay? And, and I personally think that's stupid, but that, that's reality, okay?

MR. KOTROCO: I think-- Judge, I'm trying to give some leeway here. I don't know if somebody's going to shoot our guys our there or what's going to happen when the hunters (inaudible)-- (laughter in background)-- I'm not sure it's germane.

MR. CLARK: It is, because it goes, it goes with their peace and enjoyment of the property and what their expectations are.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: So, your, your point was to find out whether this gentleman knew there was hunting before he bought the property? Whether--

MR. CLARK: Yes. Yes. Yeah. Due diligence. And I think, he said kind of.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Yeah. That's what he said.

MR. CLARK: And that's fine. Now, did you also in your due diligence, did you discover the Nike Missile Base? (Inaudible) the Nike Missile Base about a mile east of you?

MR. GIMORY: No.

MR. CLARK: No. And it's (inaudible) Super (inaudible) site. Now, can, can you tell me, where do you personally live? Oh, you said. You said you live over in Rosedale?

MR. GIMORY: I live right close to White Marsh Mall.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: And I, I have a few properties in Perry Hall.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: And my cousins and my brothers, my relatives who live right across from the Gunpowder and that's a creek that separate Kingsville from Perry Hall. Probably you'll see fifty to twenty people right here, right on that border. They have a gentleman sitting right in the front (inaudible) state. That's like less than a mile away from, from Bonaparte Mansion. And he does go to Kingsville Association meetings and--

MR. CLARK: Uh-hum.

MR. GIMORY: --you know (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: He, he missed, he missed the, the ones where Kingsville discussed this issue. Yeah, yeah. Hang on.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Actually, I (inaudible)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Hold on sir. No, no, no. You can't do that.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Okay. I'm sorry Your Honor.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: That's all right.

MR. CLARK: I, I would like to hear what he has to say, but -- And if I'm wrong I'm wrong. And you're saying I'm wrong? Now, so, so, but, and actually, that goes to my next question. You don't live in the environments that are impacted by (inaudible) property, right?

MR. GIMORY: I don't live close by there. Yes, that's correct.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah. And I don't know if this is appropriate Your Honor, but I would like to ask for a show of hands of those who live within say a mile and a half of the property.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Why am I going (inaudible)?

MR. CLARK: Arbitrary.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: It seems that, it seems like it might (inaudible), but go ahead then.

MR. CLARK: All right.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Because we know we have one who lives within a mile. So, I didn't want, no, you don't live within a mile.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Okay. But can, can I ask that?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Go ahead.

MR. CLARK: How many of the, of your group, and I'm using my words (inaudible) the way I use them, sorry. How many people live within a mile and a half (inaudible)?

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible) five mile maybe.

MR. CLARK: No, no. Well, no. My only--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible) a mile.

MR. CLARK: Right.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: So, go ahead.

MR. CLARK: How many people, how many people who are part of the property, who are part of the Association live within a mile and a half of the Bonaparte property? And you're in, you're in a Cultural Association?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Okay. But how many others? Just one, okay?

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKERS: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Okay. Three. Thank you. Thank you. Now, how many people here, on this side of the room live within a mile and a half? Okay. So, virtually unanimous of the Protestants. Three of, of, of the Applicants. Right. (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: If you want to call them that?

MR. CLARK: Okay. So, the vast majority of that, of the members are not impacted by these such events that are held, okay? There's no cost to them. And it's no surprise.

MR. KOTROCO: Judge, I'm going to object. I don't see any questions. I mean, these are your--

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: --(inaudible) alone.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: I mean, these are arguments he can make. But now you need to (inaudible) questions.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Yeah.

MR. CLARK: And, and you're not, you're not, (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: I'm trying to give you as much leeway as I can Mr. Clark.

MR. CLARK: I know, and I appreciate it.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. No problem.

MR. CLARK: So, so, you didn't really understand how people used their property out there? You didn't understand about the Nike Missile Base? Oh, why thirty acres? You know, you've got thirty acres as the site you're asking for a Special Exception. Why thirty acres?

MR. GIMORY: I, we found a thirty acre lot (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Oh, no. Why thirty acres as the Special Exception? Why isn't that just maybe the immed--

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: --the area immediate to the building?

MR. GIMORY: It's one piece of property.

MR. CLARK: Yeah. But you could also, you would also request-- I'm sorry. I cut him off.

MR. GIMORY: Uh-hum.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: That's all right.

MR. CLARK: Okay. You could also request the proposed temple itself. So, why the thirty acres?

MR. GIMORY: It's one lot. One sale. Who's going to take care-- I mean, we (inaudible) take care of the whole, the whole (inaudible), not just the building.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: So, that's--

MR. CLARK: All right. Now, now, I told you I took Comparative Cultures years ago. And my understanding of Tibetan and Nepali is not all that fresh. And it's not, it's not right here.

MR. GIMORY: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Now--

MR. GIMORY: We'll offer free classes of, of (inaudible) and other things. (laughter in background)--

MR. CLARK: I need them. And you can tell I need them.

MR. GIMORY: Then, then, well, what's (inaudible)? (laughter)--

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, you can't do inducements. The, the, the thirty acres, all right. Well, you just brought up the (inaudible) for classes. Where are you going to hold those classes?

MR. GIMORY: A prayer, part of life, part of religion.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: So, it doesn't have to be-- meditation, it's not instructive (inaudible) meditation, you know.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: You could go in a, in a solitude and then pray and meditate and (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: It doesn't have to be you know, a group of fifty people going in class and then say, you know--

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: --singing and dancing. So--

MR. CLARK: Now, so, you do not have any, any, you do not have any plans to build an education complex up there?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. CLARK: That, that's absolutely correct?

MR. GIMORY: Absolutely correct.

MR. CLARK: Okay. First of all, that's a big relief for a lot of people.

MR. GIMORY: Okay. That's absolutely, that's a, I think the more we talk I think you're going to like us, what we have (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Well, and I think you'll like me, but you know, I'm sorry, it, it's an adversarial position that we've got to get to know each other. (laughter)--

MR. GIMORY: Absolutely.

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry. By the way, I'm the, I'm the guy who posted the sign up there.

MR. GIMORY: Okay.

MR. CLARK: All right. (laughs)-- I'll take ownership of that. And--

MR. GIMORY: (Inaudible) like it. (laughter in background)--

MR. CLARK: All right. So I, I covered-- Oh, one more question. And I'm not doing this for (inaudible). You testified that you met with Pastor Daniel?

MR. GIMORY: That's correct.

MR. CLARK: And how did that come about?

MR. GIMORY: That was a wonderful meeting. It was a very, you know, short time window. One of our member was (inaudible) to Pastor Daniel. And he said, we have a mass on Sunday if you'd like to come and share your plans. And we, me, along with a few other friends who are here today went to the church. We sat through the mass. Then after he was done he just told the member they can stick around if they wanted to hear our plans. He left the room. And I, I stood up and with my friend become, we, we talked about the plan. And people had questions. We answered their questions. The (inaudible) just like what you had about, about the festival. (Inaudible) thing, you know, is that going to happen more often? I said, no. And (inaudible) other things (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Okay. Now, my only question is did you share with him the enforcement actions taken by the County against the property?

MR. GIMORY: That, you know, we went there to share our plan.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: There are.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: And that, if that came up if anybody asks I'll be more than happy to share everything that I know (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: But, but you didn't volunteer (inaudible)?

MR. GIMORY: I would, (inaudible) was, was more of a you know, even for us, letting us know what, you know, what was the next step more like it. And that's what, when we met with (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: I know. See-- Okay. I'm sorry.

MR. GIMORY: So, the building. It was related to building. And we, we haven't even got into the building part yet because you know, we're working through the exception, the zoning exception.

MR. CLARK: Okay. But, but a cease and desist is not just a random zoning action, correct? That's a, in a, in a zoning, that, that's a big, red flag?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah, I mean, we didn't even have exception for religious use of the property yet. So, we couldn't really do (inaudible)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible) cease and desist

MR. CLARK: No. Because he's being asked to cease and desist something he wasn't doing. That's what Mr. Whitelock (phonetic), the inspector said.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Well, no, no. (Inaudible) no, that's--

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry sir. I'm being sent out here under false pretenses.

MR. GIMORY: No, no, no, no. No, no.

MR. CLARK: You're not doing anything. You don't even have a kitchen. You don't have water. You're not even (inaudible) your building.

MR. KOTROCO: No, that is not, that is not for --

MR. CLARK: But he cited him anyway, at his house.

MR. KOTROCO: That is one piece of the --

MR. CLARK: And thank you for that information. I've been wanting to get that because I'm going right to the Department of Justice with it.

MR. KOTROCO: (Inaudible)-- Yeah. Okay. In fact, here is the photograph of the delivery of the (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Yeah. Taped it on the front door of his house.

MR. KOTROCO: Right. Right. Would it, now, now--

MR. CLARK: How's that?

MR. KOTROCO: And this is slightly embarrassing.

MR. CLARK: It should be.

MR. KOTROCO: I've been served by, by the sheriff, you know.

MR. CLARK: It's not fun, right?

MR. KOTROCO: No. But you know, they come to your door.

MR. CLARK: Under false pretenses?

MR. KOTROCO: No. I don't think it's false pretenses.

MR. CLARK: No. He was told bad information, on the record.

MR. KOTROCO: No.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Gentlemen, we're not (inaudible) the witness questions.

MR. CLARK: Thank you Your Honor.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: That's what he's here for.

MR. CLARK: Okay. (Inaudible)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: If you all want to argue you argue maybe when I'm not here. (laughter)-- I'm going to finish this hearing. We're going to finish listening to what people have to say, and that's how we're going to do it. You and Mr. Kotroco can stand maybe out in this hall. I'll go home. So, let's go.

MR. CLARK: Okay. So, so, Pastor Daniel didn't know about that? About the enforcement district?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah, I, it's a, as our attorney said, cease and desist, I, it wasn't, we weren't doing anything from the building or improving or having a prayer, having a worship. That, that's, that's according to (inaudible) the officer was told or led to believe. That wasn't, that wasn't happening.

MR. CLARK: Which, which leads me to another question. I'm sorry. But why didn't you contest that? You know, you have the opportunity? Am I right?

MR. GIMORY: Yeah. We went right to meet Mr. Jablon.

MR. CLARK: (Inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: And that's what, you know we, we met with him. And --

MR. CLARK: And then did you withdraw it?

MR. GIMORY: And he, he, he, I'm going to quote exactly what he said. Look, you, your next step is to go apply for exceptions from it. We, we was already in the process. And just move on from there. That's what he said.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. GIMORY: There's no penalty. No, no. No. I'm not going to (inaudible) of those. That's, you know, this, that's it.

MR. CLARK: All right.

MR. GIMORY: So you--

MR. CLARK: But, but you, you did not contest the cease and desist?

MR. GIMORY: No. It was, I don't think it was necessary because--

MR. CLARK: All right.

MR. GIMORY: --he was, wasn't stopping us from (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: No. And I understand how it works there. If he gets put on hold until the Special Exception hearing and all that.

MR. GIMORY: Yeah, yeah. I (inaudible) that was (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: I understand. I, I just want to (inaudible)--

MR. GIMORY: Look, we are not (inaudible). I mean I'm not having worked in the County system for twenty, you know, you know. I'm just normal citizen. So, we, we, you know. I do what, what the, the best of my knowledge what tells me that you know, had to be done and we you know, ask for counsel.

MR. CLARK: I only play an attorney on one (inaudible). (laughter)-- All right. No. Thank you Mr. Gimory.

MR. GIMORY: Yes. Yes.

MR. CLARK: You know, and I do hope we can get together and you can meet with the, the watershed preservation.

MR. GIMORY: I would love to.

MR. CLARK: Yeah. So, all right. That's it. And thank you for your patience.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Sure. Mr. Kotroco, anything else?

MR. KOTROCO: No.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Is that enough?

MR. KOTROCO: That's it.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Thank you sir.

MR. KOTROCO: Joe Caloggero, our traffic expert.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Mr. Caloggero? Good afternoon.

MR. CALOGGERO: Good afternoon.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Remain standing and raise your hand. Do you swear or affirm under the penalties of perjury the testimony you'll provide (inaudible)?

MR. CALOGGERO: (Inaudible)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Take a seat. And tell us your name and business address and then you'll get some questions.

QUALIFYING BY MR. KOTROCO AS EXPERT:

MR. CALOGGERO: Joe Caloggero, Vice President of Traffic Group, 9900 Franklin Square Drive, Suite H, Baltimore, 21236.

MR. KOTROCO: Your, your educational degree is in what?

MR. CALOGGERO: Civil Engineering.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And you have been accepted as a traffic expert many times in this Court and in others?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And the (inaudible) project you and I worked with?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Now, I'm going to offer him as an expert in Traffic Engineering.

MR. CALOGGERO QUALIFIED AS EXPERT IN TRAFFIC ENGINEERING:

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Yeah. He's, he's a Civil Engineer and he can express opinions in those areas.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. KOTROCO:

MR. KOTROCO: You're familiar with this property?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes, I am.

MR. KOTROCO: And you know where it's located and you visited the property?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes, I do.

MR. KOTROCO: And you're familiar, based on what you've heard here today and even prior to today how the property is proposed to be used?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: You know how many members are going to come and go on different days and so forth?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And could you tell us and it's been testified to about access to the property? Can you describe the entrance to the property and what road it's going to be on?

MR. CALOGGERO: Sure. Absolutely. Access is on Harford Road. It's located, well, I guess in this instance with north just being straight up it's on the south side of Harford Road, even though Harford Road travels in a north, south direction.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. Harford Road is a State road, is that right?

MR. CALOGGERO: That's right.

MR. KOTROCO: So, we're subject to the State Highway Administration, not necessarily Baltimore County?

MR. CALOGGERO: Absolutely.

MR. KOTROCO: We need to get an access permit through the State Highway Administration?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And Rich Zeller is our contact person? Is that right?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And we haven't had to meet with him yet, is that right?

MR. CALOGGERO: That is right.

MR. KOTROCO: By that point if this thing gets approved we've got to go meet with him?

MR. CALOGGERO: Right.

MR. KOTROCO: So, the second, the second means of access to the property that came up earlier, I don't know if you were here. Do you know about a second, a second driveway that comes into the property?

MR. CALOGGERO: I should based on, just on today (inaudible) their back access. But it's still my understanding that it was not to be used.

MR. KOTROCO: That's right. We're not going to use it. So, your focus was on the access that comes off of Harford Road, is that right?

MR. CALOGGERO: That is correct.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. So, I'm going to ask you what we got you here for was to talk about the sight distance and the stopping distance. Can you, can you tell the Judge and those in the courtroom the difference between the sight distance and a stop, a stopping distance?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes. Absolutely. I'm glad most of the people here are from (inaudible) Road. It may make it a little bit easier for me to testify and those people to understand. So, this area is, is located in an area of a reverse turn. So, basically two ninety degree turns. And this access is located basically in the middle of it. The State Highway is recommending, it's called an advisory speed. The State Highway recommends that, that drivers travel this portion of the road at thirty miles per hour. Advisory. Can you take it at faster speeds? Yes. The speed limit is forty-five, but when you encounter situations of sharp turns they do recommend and warn the, warn the motorist to, to slow down so they can traverse it properly. So, from a sight distance perspective we reviewed or I, I personally reviewed as people would be leaving the site. When you're looking to the left you can see approximately 355 feet.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. Let me, before you get that far let me just say. Now, sight distance is something we worried about when you're leaving the property and getting ready to pull out onto Harford Road?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: You want to be able to know how far you can see to the south and how far you can see up to the north?

MR. CALOGGERO: Absolutely correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Your sight distance. In case a car is coming you don't want to pull out in front of it?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Stopping distance is how far can this guy coming down the road seeing you pull out, so he has a chance to stop?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: The same with this guy coming up the hill here and around that turn (inaudible) stop too?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Sight distance. Stopping distance. So, I want to go over some sight distance with me first, okay?

MR. CALOGGERO: Okay. Sight--

MR. KOTROCO: I've got some photographs here that will help us along. (TALKING IN BACKGROUND)-- And so, on the legend (phonetic) did I give you one? Right?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: So, on the legend that you see underneath there's a series of photographs that were taken as you're exiting the property. Photographs 10 through 15. Do you see that?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: So, the first photograph, #10 is as you're leaving the property and you're driving down the rest, the end of the driveway and you see that round circular planter box and split entrance there, that's our entrance and exit from the property, is that right?

MR. CALOGGERO: That is correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, you have a choice to go to the right if you're leaving? And if you're coming in you're coming in on the left side of that, is that right?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, the next picture then is as you're sitting there. Now, just explain here. You saw in the previous picture there's a barrel and a cable going across the road to keep people from coming in. You see that? So, it was not, you know, you weren't able--

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes. I encountered that as well.

MR. KOTROCO: Wasn't able to drive out that side. So, if you go out the left side, the photograph as you're sitting there looking up the highway to the right. Looking to (inaudible)?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: That's the sight distance looking up that way? And you're sitting in your car and you've got to pull out and you've got to make a determination, is somebody coming around that turn or coming down that hill there can you safely pull out. What was the measured distance looking to the right of that?

MR. CALOGGERO: So, looking to the right we could see approximately 420 feet.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. You can see a street sign there. That looks like Bonaparte Avenue there, right, right across from (inaudible)?

MR. CALOGGERO: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Look to the next picture. Now, on the left side of the circular planter, looking down towards the curb, looking left as you're leaving the property how far was the sight distance looking that way?

MR. CALOGGERO: 355 feet.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Look to the next picture. I want you to --

MR. CALOGGERO: Before we, we approach--

MR. KOTROCO: I'm sorry. Go ahead.

MR. CALOGGERO: These two pictures are a little bit further. These pictures are just general pictures from the driveway. So, they wouldn't be from the perspective of the car into proper lane as to proper location.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. CALOGGERO: So, I don't want, I don't want them misinterpreted. They're, they're just --

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible) on that? Or no?

MR. CALOGGERO: --pictures from (inaudible)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible) just linear?

MR. CALOGGERO: No. Well, sight distance is based on how far you can pull up to the side of the road.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Right.

MR. CALOGGERO: And we measure it based on what, how we measure it is three and a half feet in the air, which is your typical distance from sitting in your car. And what we like to do is measure three and a half feet to three and a half feet so both drivers can see each other.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: At some stance down the road? Is that what you had?

MR. CALOGGERO: I did it. I parked my car. The, the access was closed. I, I parked my car accordingly, where I would sit pulling out and walked up and down the road and --

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. CALOGGERO: --took these measurements.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: All right.

MR. CALOGGERO: I'm sorry. Go ahead.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, the next picture in line. I thought I had them marked, but (inaudible). It's #13 there. It shows the turn and, and those signs. You and I had a conversation about those particular signs?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Go ahead and explain to the Judge why they're used and what's the purpose of those particular signs.

MR. CALOGGERO: Well, well, these are Chevrons (phonetic) and a, and another warning sign. It's, it's to signify that the larger arrow sign is, is, you basically have to make a left hand turn in the middle of the road. And it gives the drivers advance warning to be able to help navigate around this turn. And they're in the other direction as well. And even before that there's the advisory speed that shows these turns in the road.

MR. KOTROCO: Mr. Motsco had (inaudible)?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes. Correct. And, and with the advisory speed plate.

MR. KOTROCO: Right.

MR. CALOGGERO: It's not, it's not a legal term. It's advisory. We advise you to travel at this safe speed.

MR. KOTROCO: Right. So, you mentioned that these sign signify a turn versus curve. There's a difference in,

in highway technology between a curve and a turn?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct. And what, what is the difference then?

MR. KOTROCO: Well, the curve sign has a, it's more of, the curve. Not these signs we're looking at right now.

MR. CALOGGERO: These Chevrons and just direct arrows. And they are probably not a lot of people who would understand this.

MR. KOTROCO: I didn't. Right.

MR. CALOGGERO: But, but there's, there's a curve sign, which has a smooth turn. You know, you can take at a little bit of a higher speed.

MR. KOTROCO: Right.

MR. CALOGGERO: The ones with the ninety degree signify more of a turn, almost to ninety degrees.

MR. KOTROCO: Right.

MR. CALOGGERO: There's specific studies that, that when I worked for the State Highway in one of my (inaudible) I had to go and actually measure these curves to determine how, what proper speeds you should post these to give the driver more of a (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: So, and whether it gets a squiggly curve or whether it gets one of these Chevrons?

MR. CALOGGERO: Absolutely.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Okay. The next sign? Just a more closer up view of that? That's a, basically a pretty sharp ninety degree turn then?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes. Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Look to the next photograph. This one is, it looks like #14 in the direction of the entrance now on the left hand side, right?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct. I mean, correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And again, you mentioned already those Chevrons, right?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Interesting. The picture also shows that the front entrance is pretty heavily wooded and vegetated as far as a buffer goes for seeing into the property?

MR. CALOGGERO: Absolutely.

MR. KOTROCO: And, and maybe even help, although it must not be doing a good job of blocking the sound if you can hear it a mile away or whatever it was, right? But still, heavily vegetated?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And, and you see the entrance? It's on the left hand side. And our zoning sign posted?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Look to the next photo. I highlighted, it looks like a mercury vapor type of street light on that telephone pole there at Bonaparte that illuminate that entrance-way?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yeah. I'm not too familiar but I know it's a street light.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. You know a streetlight when you see one?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes. (laughs)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. All right. On the last two photos Mr. Caloggero just very simply, you mentioned those squiggly signs. So, I just happen to, got a couple pictures there to show you. Those are the ones that tell you there's a, a windey ahead, a windey curve?

MR. CALOGGERO: That's a windey, a windey curve. Those are windey curves. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. That's all I'll go there for. They're not of the property (inaudible)?

MR. CALOGGERO: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: They're just of the signs. Okay. So, based on your measurements then Mr. Caloggero, do you have an opinion about the sight distance? Whether it's appropriate and whether it's safe for people to pull out this entrance?

MR. CALOGGERO: So, again, this is my opinion. And as we mentioned before, we're going to have to meet with State Highway Administration.

MR. KOTROCO: Right.

MR. CALOGGERO: And the State Highway Administration will make that final determination. It's not up to me.

MR. KOTROCO: Right.

MR. CALOGGERO: I provide the measurements. I will meet with Mr. Zeller or one other traffic experts or representatives to determine whether they feel this is a safe access or not.

MR. KOTROCO: He may tell you cut a couple of those trees down.

MR. CALOGGERO: Absolutely.

MR. KOTROCO: It could help if you cut a couple of the trees down?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct. Absolutely. It happens numerous times.

MR. KOTROCO: Right.

MR. CALOGGERO: But based on, on, one of the minimum, the bare minimum requirement we have to meet, and I say that as when you're traveling on the road yourself, when you're on, you're traveling on Route one (inaudible) seven, Harford Road whether north or south, if you're traveling at 50 miles per hour you need four-hundred and-- you need, at 50 miles an hour you need 425 feet to come to complete stop. And this is from AASHTO, is the National Work Requirements for State Highway. Not just this state highway, but state highway's across the United State's. And these conditions are based on a pour driver (phonetic), a poor Preception-Reaction time. Poor conditions--

MR. KOTROCO: Uh-hum.

MR. CALOGGERO: --and bad weather, bald tires.

MR. KOTROCO: Uh-hum.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Say like today I guess probably, right?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct. Maybe not as much as (inaudible) you would have a lot of, you know slip and slide. But hopefully people aren't trying to traversing to 50 miles an hour down a hill.

MR. KOTROCO: On a day like today?

MR. CALOGGERO: A day like today. Right. And coming from the opposite direction when you're coming around the turn again, we can see 355 feet or 355 feet of sight distance. And that is good for 45 miles an hour for a vehicle coming around that turn to stop if someone were to make a, an improper decision.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And so, to illustrate your point for stopping distance I've got two photos here.

MR. CLARK: Yeah. Thank you.

MR. KOTROCO: One from the north and one from the south coming from Google Earth. So, take a look at those and, and go ahead and finish up on your testimony about the stopping distance in coming around the turn and coming from the other direction.

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct. So, Exhibit T is you know, the, the, as you're coming around the turn you'll be able to see what is happening in front of you for again 355 feet. I'm sure (inaudible) you know. Make this maneuver at 45 miles per hour. Again, it's not recommended. It would be hard to do I believe. But again, they'll have opportunity to stop. And the same goes for, for nineteen. As you're coming down the hill you'll be able to see cars at the driveway and have an opportunity to stop if someone were to pull out in front of (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. So, in your opinion then there, in your expert opinion that the stopping distances are safe in this location?

MR. CALOGGERO: Absolutely. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: If, we talked before. And I didn't think about this. It was brought up by members of the congregation about if for some reason you're leaving and exiting the property and you need to go south on Harford Road and you don't feel safe and you don't feel, you feel there's too much traffic coming you can make a right turn and go up around the traffic circle and just double back around and go south?

MR. CALOGGERO: That is correct.

MR. KOTROCO: That's a possibility? In the event there's heavy traffic or whatever you don't have to try to go across Harford? You can just move around the traffic circle?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And in the event Rick Zeller, at the State Highway Administration who has to give an access program for that (inaudible) well we want you to go out this way and come in this way or vice versa, there's still an opportunity through this exit now that Mr. Motsco said, there is a driveway that comes all the way up to the pool house from down there?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes. That's my understanding from the testimony.

MR. KOTROCO: I'm trying to stay away from that, but that's also something that Mr. Zeller might want to explore?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct. Correct. And even moving this access if need be a little bit left or right.

MR. KOTROCO: So, you can, you can widen the driveway a little bit and remove some embankment or (inaudible)--

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: --to improve this situation?

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And did you prepare a traffic study in this particular case?

MR. CALOGGERO: The, yes, we did.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. What did you do?

MR. CALOGGERO: Well, basically we looked at the Basic Services Map of 2017, prepared by Baltimore County Department of Public Works. This area is, it's not in a deficient area. It's located north of the urban, the urban area. The urban area aligns. So, by that estimation or by, by those maps there is adequate and available (inaudible) services in the area. And this is a, it, since this is a different site, with respect to trip generation. And when you study intersections with trip generation the State particularly asks to analyze situations during the highest hour in the morning, the highest hour in the evening. Now, it's understanding based on these types of trips for this use that we could get 20 people coming in on an average day during the evening. That could be from four to ten or whatever hours of operation may be. So, it's really hard to depict how many cars are actually going to come in or out. But again, we'll, we'll work with the State Highway. If they want some, some data; if they want to look at some worse case conditions; if they would like to see some additional traffic counts. However, day to day basis, during the week I, I don't see this having (inaudible).

MR. KOTROCO: I guess the State Highway is probably not-- maybe they've had more exposure to temples and the Hindu practice or Buddhist practice or religion. I guess maybe they might be more familiar, but in Baltimore County this is the first one --

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: --according the Nepali American.

MR. CALOGGERO: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And the exhibit that I just handed you, that is your report and your conclusion? That is of the access at this point. In your opinion is safe subject to State Highway approval?

MR. CALOGGERO: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Nothing further of Mr. Caloggero.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. CLARK:

MR. CLARK: I, I do have a couple questions. I thought I didn't, but I do.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Go ahead.

MR. CLARK: Have you done a, is it your job or have you done an analysis of the morbidity and mortality on that stretch of Harford Road?

MR. CALOGGERO: No.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Thank you. And your assumption, yeah, I mean, let me make it clear. We're not concerned about 20, 30 cars at a time. That's noise, okay? But your assumption, but your assumptions would change if there were several hundred cars at a time?

MR. CALOGGERO: It depends on which day, how many hours.

MR. CLARK: But, but you would have to redo this?

MR. CALOGGERO: Not necessarily.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Okay. All right. Thank you. And one last question. (laughs)-- Since you're a technical expert. Personal. How do we get to get the State to put batons up the center line up that stretch of road?

MR. CALOGGERO: Well, I mean, it, it can be a request. I don't know why you would do that.

MR. CLARK: Because far, and, and this is serious folks. Far too many times people are crossing the road. I've had people when I'm making a left in my property I've had people try to, try to beat me to the left. I, I kid you not. You know, people are idiots on that road. So, you know, I, I mean--

MR. CALOGGERO: It's (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Batons, batons would be wonderful.

MR. CALOGGERO: Yeah. It's a challenge we face--

MR. CLARK: I, I know.

MR. CALOGGERO: --every day because we're not (inaudible) designed for--

MR. CLARK: Idiots.

MR. CALOGGERO: --the improper driving. (laughter in background)-- And, and a lot of times we'll come here and have to make proffers to design for that one person who may make an illegal--

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. CALOGGERO: --u-turn and come in to make a, a, you know, a left turn in a right hand, where they have to drive 100 feet to do.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. CALOGGERO: I mean, we have to do some crazy designs to accommodate people who just are not going to obey the law.

MR. CLARK: Mr. Kotroco, could I ask you a question? Would a morbidity and mortality analysis be done as part of the State?

MR. KOTROCO: I'm not, I'm not aware of that Mr. Clark.

MR. CALOGGERO: It would not.

MR. KOTROCO: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. CALOGGERO: It would not (inaudible)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: It would not?

MR. CLARK: Okay. They would not?

MR. CALOGGERO: No.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Thank you.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Anything else?

MR. CLARK: No sir. (laughs)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Thank you Mr. Caloggero. Anyone else?

MR. KOTROCO: Mr. Martin, did you want to be, say a few things?

MR. MARTIN: (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Go ahead. I know you waited all day to be able to do that. So, go ahead and take the stand and give your name and address.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay sir. Raise your right hand please. Do you swear and affirm under the penalties (inaudible)-- Okay. Take a seat. And tell us your name and address and (inaudible) and Mr. Kotroco will ask you questions.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. KOTROCO:

MR. MARTIN: Okay. Peter Martin. My address is 14-- I'm sorry, 1443--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. MARTIN: -- Manor Road, Phoenix, Maryland, 21131.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: Thank you for coming Mr. Martin. What did you want to tell us? What do you want to share with us here today?

MR. MARTIN: I wanted to share just a couple of things. I'm a business owner. I'm down (inaudible). And what I've seen with this whole project, I've been involved since we first got involved. In talking with them. Talking about planned work. But I'm part of a national men's Christian Group. (BACKGROUND TALKING)-- And we do a bible study at my house every week. (Inaudible) regular attending. And it's kind of interesting being Christian having somebody who is in a Hindu Buddhist religion come join us. And I have learned so much about these people. These people from Nepal and their beliefs. And they're not very dissimilar to ours, you know. Treating people right. Living good. Being fair. But we have had such good interactions and learning. And that's why there's a lot of concerns when people don't know about other religions. I didn't know a lot about the Buddhist religion. I've learned a lot about it. And from a Christian standpoint these are some of the nicest people I've known. And it's been very beneficial from my standpoint to learn more about them. But what I've seen in my life being a Christian and being involved in religion there's a lot of people that make assumptions and they make decisions without knowing all the facts. And this is a perfect example today, because there are a lot of people here because there's concerns. And there is a lot of misconceptions with what's going on and what the choices are here. So, my thought and my feelings are there needs to be like we're doing today, more communication because that what they do is very similar to what we do. Their beliefs. And they're very good people. And part of the problem I feel today was there's just been a lot of misconceptions. And it seems like I think a lot of your questions sitting next to you, listening to you have been answered. And that was one of the positive things I find I guess. But I simply want to share this. Even myself, not knowing a lot about the Buddhist religion and Hinduism, I've changed a lot of my preconceptions, you know, because I'm not just Christian, should we have this like, you know preconception of other religions? Or are religions better than others? And it's been very enlightening and it's been very beneficial for me.

MR. KOTROCO: What, what church do you belong to?

MR. MARTIN: I belong to Mount Christian.

MR. KOTROCO: And that is in Harford County?

MR. MARTIN: It's on Mountain Road.

MR. KOTROCO: On Mountain Road. And that is in Harford County?

MR. MARTIN: It's on Mountain Road.

MR. KOTROCO: On Mountain Road.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: And, and your address again was where?

MR. MARTIN: Manor Road.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Anything else you want to add?

MR. MARTIN: No sir.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Thank you for staying all day to testify.

MR. CLARK: I have a couple questions.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Go ahead.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. CLARK:

MR. CLARK: Why, why, why do you think the issue is about understanding rather than land use? What, who gave you that impression?

MR. MARTIN: You, very, very clearly.

MR. CLARK: I did?

MR. MARTIN: There was a lot of your questions where you were very aggressive, asking questions that clearly were directed, and especially in your cross examination where you were trying to change some of the words around. And it was really not, maybe you weren't listening or you weren't hearing, but you were making assumptions that were not true.

MR. CLARK: Are, are you sure?

MR. MARTIN: Yes. Exactly. There was one time when you said, tried to make it, seem like they were going to have 80 cars coming out. The gentleman's testimony was the distance from the road, the property you could probably fit 80 cars.

MR. CLARK: Did I not concede I made a mistake?

MR. MARTIN: (Inaudible)-- After you were corrected, yes.

MR. CLARK: Yes. I did. Isn't that human?

MR. MARTIN: Yes, it is.

MR. CLARK: Okay. But is, is that me being bigoted?

MR. MARTIN: I never said you were bigoted.

MR. CLARK: Okay. But you said you, you have, you have testified that spiritual communication and miscommunication is at the heart of this. And I'm asking what makes you able to state that as fact?

MR. MARTIN: Because as a Christian I'm used to church. We get up. We go to church. We are there for several hours sometimes. And we leave. It's a big thing. The Hindu religion is different in that sense, where they're coming to church throughout the day. They do their, their praying as I call it, their worshiping on their own. It's a lot different than what we're doing.

MR. CLARK: That's been, that--

MR. MARTIN: So, the traffic pattern situation is dramatically different.

MR. CLARK: That's, that's stipulated, okay? That they, that, and, and as I said to Mr. Gimory, right?

MR. GIMORY: Yes.

MR. CLARK: You know, I had someone tell me that they don't pray like that. Like, like us. And I told him to, basically that, to, well, I won't, you know, I won't repeat that Your Honor. All right. So, I'm asking again, other than your limited world view, what makes you think these people here are here because they don't understand the religion? They are against the religion? What, what made you bring religion into this? We have been talking all about land use.

MR. MARTIN: Why did I do, bring religion involved?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. MARTIN: Because I thought it would be very important to clear up the fact that, well, you're talking about land use?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. (BACKGROUND TALKING)--

MR. MARTIN: You're talking about traffic patterns and this and all those different pieces. It's important to understand that the way that they worship is very different than the way a Christian worships.

MR. CLARK: What makes you think we don't understand that?

MR. MARTIN: That was just my opinion based upon a lot of your (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Okay. Thank you. Now, you said you live on Manor Road, and yet when you were over here you raised your hand as being within a mile and a half of the property?

MR. MARTIN: Uh-hum.

MR. CLARK: Where exactly, you know, and, and my, I don't, on Manor Road what intersection are you near?

MR. MARTIN: I'm right by four corners. That's the best way (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: So, you're down by Baldwin?

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: That's several miles away.

MR. CLARK: You're down, you're down by Baldwin?

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yes. No. (Inaudible)--

MR. MARTIN: I'm not familiar with Baldwin. I just (inaudible) there--

MR. CLARK: The Baldwin Post Office?

MR. MARTIN: I'm not familiar with (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Okay. So, so, what four corners? There's lots of four corners in the County.

MR. MARTIN: Four corners. I've only lived there for less than a year.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. MARTIN: Okay.

MR. CLARK: That's, that's fair.

MR. MARTIN: I'm not that familiar with that area.

MR. CLARK: But, but I'm asking for the cross streets?

MR. MARTIN: The cross streets?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. Manor Road and what?... Okay. That's fine. But yet, you testified you were within a mile and a half. I think people in the community will, would actively disagree that Manor Road is within a mile and a half of the property, all right? Yet you, you, you testified by raising your hand that you were within a mile and a half. That's all I have Your Honor.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Anything else?

MR. KOTROCO: Nothing further.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Thank you very much sir.

MR. MARTIN: Thank you.

MR. KOTROCO: And Mr. Doug Burgess was the last witness.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Mr. Burgess? Good afternoon. Would you raise your right hand please? Do you swear or affirm under the penalties of perjury the testimony you will provide today will be the truth?

MR. BURGESS: I do.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Take a seat. Tell us your name and business address and that whatever you'd like to say or (inaudible)--

MR. BURGESS: Doug Burgess. My business address is 8640 Ridgley's Choice Drive. And that's Nottingham, Maryland 21236.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Great. Okay.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. KOTROCO:

MR. KOTROCO: Mr. Burgess, you're, you're also an attorney?

MR. BURGESS: I am.

MR. KOTROCO: And you have your law practice in Perry Hall, is that right?

MR. BURGESS: That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And you are on Belair Road, in Perry Hall, your law practice? Your residence is in Kingsville?

MR. BURGESS: It's in Fallston, Maryland.

MR. KOTROCO: Fallston.

MR. BURGESS: Or 15 Cabernet Court (phonetic).

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Are you, I should say that your specialty in the practice of law recently, the thirty years

I've known you Mr. Burgess has been in land use and zoning work, is that right?

MR. BURGESS: One of my concentrations is that. That's correct.

MR. KOTROCO: You appeared in this Court many, many times?

MR. BURGESS: I have.

MR. KOTROCO: Are you familiar with this particular piece of property?

MR. BURGESS: I am.

MR. KOTROCO: Are you familiar with the Nepali American Applicants that are requesting this Special Exception?

MR. BURGESS: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Now, how are you familiar with, with their group? Let's start with that.

MR. BURGESS: In the office building I and Chris Gimory, who testified here today was a, a tenant in the building for a real estate company. And I got to know him just from being a tenant. And I became, to get to know some of his friends that he worked with. I've played golf with him. I've had, had transactions with, with him. I've been to some of their events. And I've been very impressed, like the gentleman who spoke earlier about their, their demeanor and their willingness (inaudible) people, people.

MR. KOTROCO: Have you been out to the property?

MR. BURGESS: I have. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: And are you familiar with that property and Redeemer and Beachmont and those properties?

MR. BURGESS: Yes. I'd have to tell you if I was going to find the neighborhood I would start with the little town of Fork. And that's Fork Road and Harford Road. There's a post office there. There's a veterinarian there. There's a little farm store that's not open anymore. There's a gentleman who has a, at the end of the little strip center there's a gentleman who has a car repair. Across the street there's a dentist. There's a furniture (inaudible). There's a gas station. There's a, a small restaurant there (inaudible). There was a (Inaudible) Methodist Church which is not far from that corner. Fork Christian Church (phonetic) is not far from that corner. It was also mentioned about Redeemer, which is a church and a school you know, which is farther south on Harford Road. Not far from the corner. And so, I define the neighborhood as several miles from that intersection (inaudible) property.

MR. KOTROCO: There's many religious uses within that area?

MR. BURGESS: Yes. There's the Fork Christian Church, Fork United Methodist Church, the Redeemer School and the church as well as Beachmont Christian Camp. And I've been to all of those locations except for, I've not attended a service at Fork Christian Church, but I've been to the other locations to attend various functions.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Do you believe this particular application is compatible with those other religious uses in that neighborhood?

MR. BURGESS: It is because of the nature of zoning in Baltimore County and also, including zoning throughout the nation. The legislature's, has made it's decision already that certain uses are permitted and certain uses are prohibited. The uses that are in the middle are special exceptions. And with the, what the statute says and what Judge Harold (phonetic) has told us from the higher court that these uses are (inaudible) permittable. In other words they, it's presumed that they're compatible. It's prima facie compatible. So, your question is, are they compatible? Yes (inaudible) a religious use in the RC-2 is prima facie compatible. As far as my view of the area and my look of the area, because of the size of the property all the testimony we hear today which I (inaudible) repeat, I believe it is, it meets fully the definition of the statute, what the, and, and also what Judge Harold has decided about the compatibility.

MR. KOTROCO: Do you draw a distinction between the RC-2 zone and the RC-5 zone?

MR. BURGESS: I do not. Both are Rural Conservation Zones. And with regard to this particular Special Exception, for religious use there's no difference. The RC- (inaudible) and that has to do with housing (inaudible). That's not the issue before this tribunal today.

MR. KOTROCO: So, you're familiar with Section 502.1 of the Baltimore County Zoning Regulations? And you believe this application meets those requirements?

MR. BURGESS: That's correct. I, can I, that testimony is already in evidence and I won't repeat it, but I just say, I agree with that evidence that's already come in by Mr. Motsco I believe.

MR. KOTROCO: Right. And so the, this particular use is not going to have any greater detrimental impact here than it would in another RC-2 zone around the County?

MR. BURGESS: That's correct. And the, that's what the Court of Appeals asked us to look for, and that's what we looked for in this particular location. I believe it would not have a further detrimental use.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Anything else you want to add?

MR. BURGESS: I want to thank everybody. Both the Protestants and the people in favor of this site. Coming out here, this is how this works. We get to speak openly and candidly. And I want to congratulate both sides for (inaudible) this tribunal.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. Thank you Mr. Burgess. I'm going to see if there's any questions --

MR. CLARK: No. I'm not going to ask a lawyer questions. (laughter in background)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Thank you. We have no further, we have no further witnesses.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. So, that's it for the Petitioner's case?

MR. KOTROCO: It is.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. It's 4:00. I'll stay as late as I need to. Whoever wants to be heard can, can do that.

MR. CLARK: All right. We, we, as a group are, have decided that as the Gunpowder, as the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association we have decided not to present testimony.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay. I would like to, to offer into evidence the sound recording I mentioned.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. CLARK: All right. But that I know that there are some Protestant's that would like to, to say their peace.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Sure.

MR. CLARK: And--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: All right. Well, they can do that. Who, who wants to do that? Come on up.

MR. CLARK: Come on down.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: All right. Ma'am, good afternoon. Yeah. Come on over here. You can just take a seat there and tell us whatever you'd like to tell us. Give us your name first please.

STATEMENTS MADE BY ROSEMARY BRONZERT:

MS. BRONZERT: My name is Rosemary Bronzert. I live at--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Could you spell your last? I'm sorry.

MS. BRONZERT: B-R-O-N-Z-E-R-T.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Thank you ma'am. Go ahead.

MS. BRONZERT: I live on Regwood Road, just off Harford Road.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: How far is that from this site?

MS. BRONZERT: My house is half a mile up Regwood. And the Bonaparte property is probably half a mile down Harford Road.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. About a half a mile, give or take?

MS. BRONZERT: Right. Yeah. Sort of.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. All right. Go ahead.

MS. BRONZERT: When I first heard of the Nepali Center I thought, oh, that's kind of neat because many Catholics have an infinity for Buddhist preachings. And I am a Muslim. I studied Comparative Religions years ago. So, the tenants are admirable. And I have no objection to a Religious Center on the Bonaparte property. It's private property. Pretty much you can do what you want in this country. My concerns, the biggest concern is traffic. Harford Road is a pass through between Harford County and people going into Towson and south to the beltway. So, it's heavily traveled Those turns at the property are extremely dangerous. We approach them with great caution because cut across the curve or there's a big ditch right near the, the driveway, coming out of the property. So, I'm always very careful. I don't want to go over to that ditch. So, the, the turns are a great concern. And if there are large numbers of people coming out it would be very interesting to say the least. If cars were backed up, going down the hill because nobody mentioned, but this is a steep hill, in addition to the turns. So, maybe if it were right turn only coming out of the property. I can't imagine left turns--

MR. CLARK: No.

MS. BRONZERT:--of any numbers of cars coming out of that property. You'd be taking your life in your hands, because of the number of the cars and because of carelessness on the part of some drivers. And there were times last summer when we heard what we thought were kids having big parties because at my house the music was easily discernible. It was loud. And I understand from what you're saying, that that was an exceptional occurrence. It probably would have been a good idea to let the neighbors know. (laughs)-- When we have parties we let the neighbors know, you know, there are going to be cars because we're a little, one lane road. And it makes for a problem. So, really, the idea of large gatherings is a problem, which would have to be worked out. And the other thing, the biggest thing though is, is the road and the traffic and safety. That's all.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Very good.

MR. KOTROCO: No questions. (CLAPPING IN BACKGROUND)--

MR. CLARK: Wait. Before she comes out of the stand. I, I have on question. And, and I'm going to poke at the obvious, all right? (laughs)-- Are you insulted when someone characterizes you as not understanding the religions and that's why you're here?

MS. BRONZERT: I try to avoid ad hominem statements. (CLAPPING IN BACKGROUND)-- (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Yah. Right. So, so, you vehemently disagree with, with one of the witnesses who said that you're here because you don't understand the differences in the religions?

MS. BRONZERT: People have misunderstandings sometimes. I'm not going to--

MR. CLARK: Okay. Well, okay. That's fine.

MS. BRONZERT: --get upset one way or the another.

MR. CLARK: That's fair. That's fair.

MR. KOTROCO: Thank you ma'am.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay ma'am. Come on up. Tell us, and tell us your name and address and then whatever you'd like to say.

STATEMENTS MADE BY BERNADETTE POEHLER:

MS. POEHLER: My name is Bernadette Poehler.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Spell your last name please.

MS. POEHLER: That's P-as in Paul, O-E-H-L-E-R. My address is 12241 Harford Road. So, my husband and I have the property adjacent to the property that we're discussing right now. So, when I look out my front door I can see the house because it's winter. I can see people on the driveway. I can see, at times this past summer hundreds of cars parked on the property. I'm not sure what date this event was that you referred to, but on June the 3rd I can clearly remember waking up to music, hearing music all day, seeing hundreds of cars parked on the property. So, not just on the driveway, if you could line up 80 cars. All over the, every, just about every blade of grass that wasn't in a ditch either had cars or spot-a-pots that had been brought in. And then my husband went to a concert in Virginia that evening. And when he came home at 1:00 AM I could still hear the music very loudly being played. And, and we have the concert ticket from when my husband went out. It, it is a shame that what I'm basing my concerns about this exception is based on my experience of living next door to this property that when it first was sold in March my husband went right over and introduced himself. And I think it was the gentleman that was talking about being a contractor, and that made reference to the septic. So, my husband introduced himself and said, we live next door. If you need anything, if you have any questions you can just come right over. Our properties touch. So, throughout this summer I would be coming and going out of my driveway, which wasn't mentioned, but when the fellow was mentioning about if we had to expand your entrance we could go a little to the right or a little to the left, it wasn't mentioned that my driveway is (inaudible) your entrance. And my driveway is a single lane. Just enough for one car. So, sometimes I'd be coming around that sharp turn and there would be cars in my driveway coming out because they were trying to find your property and they're in my driveway. So, I can't pull into my driveway because there's only one way to get in. So, I have to go past that, turn around to get into my home. So, other times I'm leaving my house and there's a car driving up my driveway. And it's unusual that I've lived there for four and a half years, had never seen a taxicab. And now I have multiple taxicabs driving up my driveway. When they drive up my driveway they turn around in my grass. And my husband is so dedicated to mowing and treating and you don't want to over treat it because we raise bees and we care about our environment. We try to take care of our property. But there's cars circling around in our driveway, tearing up the grass to go to the next door neighbor. So, that's been my experience. My experience with Nepalese people has been 100% positive. My brother was recently written up in the Baltimore Sun as giving tens of Nepalese individuals employment at gas stations. We've gone to Ashland Cafe (phonetic). We know the owners very well. We love our country. We love the Earth. We love to thank any creator that made, acknowledge for all the blessings in our lives. We also value our property that we have dedicated so much to taking care of. And we feel like it's been torn up since our neighbors moved in, and had given us no consideration like it was mentioned today. Oh, we're having a large party. We're not talking 20, 30 cars. We're talking hundreds of cars and spot-a-pots being brought in to the property, and remaining there all day. That's quite different than let's have a youth group come in and restore our tennis courts. So, I'm concerned that based on my experience this is what I'm going to expect in the future. And then when it's mentioned, well, you were so successful in that fundraiser maybe you ought to do it a few more times. That was, that was a joke this afternoon. And I don't think it's funny. I can't imagine what anyone in this room would think if the property next door to them was sold to a group of 800 people that brought in spot-a-pots in their front yard and partied all day and all night. I can't imagine how you would feel. I just know how I feel. And I'm very concerned if this exception is granted that I'm going to have hundreds of people drive up and down my driveway without any recourse for them tearing up my lawn. Terrorizing me and my husband. For us not to be able to gain access to our own home. Thank you. (CLAPPING IN BACKGROUND)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: A couple questions?

MR. CLARK: Yes. And I have--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Is this your house, right here? In fact is that (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Yes. Just north. Just north.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: That's you?

MS. POEHLER: Yeah.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Is the entrance? And that's your house? No problem with the corn maze and the hundreds of people coming to the corn maze?

MS. POEHLER: Oh wow. (Inaudible) turned out not once have they driven up and down our driveway.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: There's a big Redeemer sign out there.

MS. POEHLER: You're right. And they've been established in our neighborhood for a long time. (TALKING IN BACKGROUND)-- (Inaudible) pull in there to that school. I'm so well aware. Actually, I was born and raised in Baltimore County, 100% familiar with it and I tell you, in the four and a half years I've lived in that house I had never seen a cab go up and down my driveway before. And I've lived within a five mile zone of this area for 52 years.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: They are well signed though. Everybody knows where the Redeemer School is.

MS. POEHLER: And I am not familiar with cars going up and down and spin around in people's driveways. No.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: So, no problem with Redeemer or Beachmont Camps and all that stuff? (TALKING IN BACKGROUND)--

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: No, no problem.

MS. POEHLER: No. And another thing about their activities is they post them for the public. And I was not aware of this party or any of the parties that took place next door to me.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Ms. Poehler, before you sit down. So, so, so the activities at Beachmont are very, are very different than the activities--

MS. POEHLER: They're advertised on the news.

MR. CLARK: That's right.

MS. POEHLER: The local news. See the dates.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Open to the public.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Now, now--

MS. POEHLER: I didn't see the date of the parties going on next door to me.

MR. CLARK: All right. And the other, the other question I have for you is how do you feel when someone characterizes your presence here as out of misunderstanding and just not being open minded?

MS. POEHLER: I think everyone knows that I'm here because I live next door to this property. (laughter in background)--

MR. CLARK: But, but, but, but, but seriously, I, you know--

MS. POEHLER: Seriously, I think everybody --

MR. CLARK: No, no--

MS. POEHLER: --here understands. I'm here today because I live next door to this property and I would like to live in the safety of my own home, without getting hit head on in a car accident--

MR. CLARK: But--

MS. POEHLER: --while I'm pulling in and out of my driveway.

MR. CLARK: I would, I would appreciate an answer to the --

MS. POEHLER: I would appreciate that.

MR. CLARK: --to the question asked.

MS. POEHLER: That's my answer.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: That's her answer.

MR. CLARK: Okay. All right.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Just let it go. Very good-- (CLAPPING IN BACKGROUND)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Sir, did you want to say something? Come on up please. Good afternoon.

STATEMENTS MADE BY SCOTT STRIEBINGER:

MR. STRIEBINGER: Good afternoon.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Take a seat there or stand, at your pleasure. Tell us your name and where you live though.

MR. STRIEBINGER: My name is Scott Striebinger. I'm President of the Greater Mount Vista Association.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Greater Mount Vista Association? (BACKGROUND TALKING - INAUDIBLE)--

MR. STRIEBINGER: Mount Vista Association.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible) keep, keep your talking down. I can't hear what, what the gentleman's saying. It's Greater Mount Vista Association? Is that a recognized group?

MR. STRIEBINGER: Yes sir.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Go ahead.

MR. STRIEBINGER: Which is more in, in proximity to this facility. We have, most of our people, Mount Vista Road. I live on Vista View Court. We have everybody at Vista View Court (inaudible). So, it's a community that is more directly in proximity to this facility.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. STRIEBINGER: Now, everybody (inaudible) to discuss as (inaudible) some kind of personal degeneration of anybody. No. Everybody here that I've seen thus far is good people. So, nobody is inferring in the least that somebody is better grade of person than the other people. So, we respect you. Just understand, we do live in that neighborhood. So, we pay a lot of taxes, a lot of investment. So, it's nothing personal. And we've got to look out for our investment. Now, people have brought up Beachmont, which was kind (inaudible) because if we had any partiality, because I sent my two boys, well, I think even my daughter, two sons and daughter to Beachmont for summer camp. However, when they wanted to far too far with a property Special Exception we had to step up. So, a matter of fact, we had a final court decision in 1987 that reversed the Special Exception that Beachmont had received. The final decision was by the Appeals Court of Maryland. It was the Superior Court of the State. So, nothing goes higher than Superior Court of the State. So, that decision was December 9 of 1997, and it was regarding Beachmont. The essence is, Beachmont wanted to expand tremendously overnight stay, unlimited persons and, and things of that nature. We had a traffic engineer who spoke very different than the traffic engineer that I heard today who talked about Mount Vista Road and Harford Road, because I'm sure a lot of people will be coming off Belair Road and across Mount Vista Road also to this, to Harford Road. He spoke very different as to what the roads really can safely contain, so far as (inaudible) cars. Another issue, we had a Geologist expert talk about these ground conditions in our general area. Our ground conditions are very poor for septic and well water usage. Eventually Beachmont proposed setting up a above ground facility for treating their sewage. Now, we don't know exactly how many people are going to be at your facility. And just like you said, you had a estimate from a septic tank person as to what he would charge to put in a new septic system and then (inaudible) and so forth and so on. With all due respect, you didn't quantify, you gave him a specific number. What I'm trying to say is that area cannot sustain a lot of sewage. Our well water, even my well water, people in my whole development, the well water quality has went down in the last twenty years. Where it used to be just clear as a bell now it (inaudible) has to have all kinds of treatment systems. So, we live in a sensitive area. It isn't like there's, you know, that's one thing everybody's missing here. They're acting like it's public sewer and water, which is a whole another world. When our life sustaining capabilities depends on sewage from our holding tanks and well reserves and our well water because the County ain't gonna spend millions and millions of dollars to run sewage (inaudible) and the, and water lines up to our community, nor would we really want it because there's added benefits of, of not having that kind of service. Now, you also discussed that your zoning of RC-2 is less restrictive than RC-5. However, when the Appeals Court of Maryland sided with our organization their again, now is again Beachmont. And it's nothing personal. It's simply, we got to live there. So, we're looking out for our interest, but not stepping on their interest, because why would I (inaudible) to Beachmont and, and I enjoy Beachmont as long as we have some understanding. So, it eventually there was a understanding so far as by the people that (inaudible) the property. (Inaudible) system that would adequately handle the (inaudible) of people. A matter of fact, the Court eventually told them they've even got to have a traffic guider if they have something where they feel there's 50 people or more showing up at one time. They, they have to hire some kind of local entity to flag traffic. Now, we've got to real too. Those sharp turns you downplay, that is all kinds of activities, but don't downplay them. I don't want to hear a site distance, that you know, it doesn't take a Rocket Scientist to see that's not good entrance, but that's no reason to pound you into the ground. Don't take it wrong. If something could be done, if hillsides could be moved and the State's going to be that generous to move some of the hillsides so some of those turns aren't as radical yeah, it would be nice, but I doubt the State's going to do that. So, we're not here persecuting you people. You're all good people. I haven't seen anybody who's a bad people. We're not bad people. We just got to deal with reality. And there again, there is a big difference between public water and sewer and people that rely on septic and well water. And I'm sick and tired of seeing my well water get, go downhill constantly because it's over taxed. Now, Beachmont has a cap on it as far as volume of people. Guess what? We've never enforced that cap. But if you look at the legal record, there's a lot to be learned if you'll look at that legal record as to the decisions of the Appeals Court, what Beachmont was mandated to do. Now, as good people, we haven't held a gun to Beachmont's head. But now, we're over inundating the area. And as long as you can cap volume of people and do certain caps, it is much more apt to get along with the community than have all these open doors. Beachmont even has time limits and various things. You're saying people can come to your facility at any time. We don't want that. If I see somebody in our neighborhood late at night I want to (inaudible) them you know, because you shouldn't be there. (laughter in background)-- I mean, we're old I guess country mentality or however you want to paraphrase it. But if we see vehicles that should not be around at a certain time at night something, you know, I'm not saying it will happen, but you know, we're, we're just, you know, that kind of entity that is, doesn't take fond to seeing strange vehicles at strange hours. We, you know, so, that's the essence here, is you know, you really got to understand the area. It is not about view. It is about what you're proposing to do. It's about what works with the area as an entirety. And Beachmont even was promised, they were going to put an above ground waste water plant in because of the possibility of a certain volume of people when they have special occasions. That works with us. But if you have to live somewhere and you have to worry every day, I have well water to live with and a septic system and if those two things are gone all the money I have invested in my house, all the time, money and effort becomes worthless. That's all I have to say.

MR. KOTROCO: No questions. (CLAPPING IN BACKGROUND) --

MR. CLARK: Very well stated.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Any, anyone else though? Ma'am, do you want to-- Okay. So, what's your name and address please?

STATEMENTS MADE BY JOYCE MASON:

MS. MASON: My name is Joyce Mason, M-A-S-O-N. And I live at 11813 Harford Road.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MS. MASON: And before I heard the gentleman before us I want to talk about well water. Okay. Our, our well currently only produces at 2.5 gallons per minute. That is with a lot of the folks of that area. We don't have big volumes of well water. And I don't, I haven't heard anything about a study of the Aquifer, Aquifers in that area. What can they support? How many people can they support at one time. How many events can they support? I haven't heard anything about (inaudible) support to justify having these events with a lot of people. We don't all have parties every week at our house and have 50, 60, 70 people. The second item is, the last line on that Special Exception, it just is open ended.

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MS. MASON: Whenever it, whatever we require it exact-- is, I'm paraphrasing because I don't know the exact word. But it's so open ended that they could do anything. And I'm, I'm concerned about again the well water. And a third thing is has anybody done a traffic study of how many accidents are within one mile each way of that property? I live right by Hartley Mill Road. People coming out of Hartley Mill Road cannot see. And they constantly pull out and get hit by the people going south because they can't see the traffic going south because there's a guardrail there and a bridge. In the summer there was a gentleman on a motorcycle. Him and his girlfriend got killed because somebody came down there at 50 miles an hour because it is 50 mile (inaudible) there. Didn't see them and they got thrown. That, there needs to be a traffic study there before there's more traffic put in that area. And that's kind of all I have to say.

MR. KOTROCO: No questions.

MR. CLARK: All right.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Poke the bear. Do you, how do you feel about being characterized as being here for, for religious reasons? (BACKGROUND TALKING - INAUDIBLE)--

MS. MASON: As I stated, it has nothing to do with anybody's religion. It has to do with the well water of the people, myself, our family and the people in the area and the safety of everyone in the area.

MR. CLARK: Thank you. (BACKGROUND TALKING)

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Good afternoon. Tell us your name and (inaudible) where you live.

STATEMENTS MADE BY PASTOR STANDIFORD:

PASTOR STANDIFORD: My name is Ron Standiford. I'm Pastor of (inaudible) Presbyterian Church.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Standiford?

PASTOR STANDIFORD: Yes.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

PASTOR STANDIFORD: S-T-A-N-D-I-F-O-R-D.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Got you. Okay. Very good.

PASTOR STANDIFORD: I live on the main house with Beachmont Farm, which is my families farm. And I'm here, and not because of the religious issue, but because I, there was a couple of things I wanted to straighten out. One is, with regards to the RC-2 zone versus the RC-5 zone. I know Mr. Striebinger. I remember him well because I was on the Board of the Camp when our family donated property to start it. And the community did want to put numbers on it because they didn't want it open ended, and that was very understandable. And so, we did have, not only a time frame that everything had to be finished at 10:00 at night, but then also as far as the numbers of people who would be involved at certain times. And, and the camp certainly abided by that. And I'm not on the Camp Board now so I can't attest. But I do know that there was a difference in the Maryland Court of Appeals, as he says, Special Appeals I think it was that basically gave a ruling that said we had to go back and to get a separate zoning to RC-5 because RC-2 was insufficient, even though a Special Exception was allowed to have a community building it was insufficient because of the ministry that was projected on the property. So, in summary of that point RC-2 is one in which you, if you did research it as Mr. Striebinger said which does not contemplate significant about, of, of numbers, and that was why the RC-5 zone was pursued (inaudible). But there are a necessity of numbers on the property which I think is just being plain respectful. I also drove past on that one Saturday when there were, the whole of Obrecht's (phonetic), I know it as the Obrecht's property because Bonaparte of course didn't live in that house. It burned and Mr. Obrecht built back the house that, out of concrete and metal because he didn't want it to burn. And anyway, I think that I did see cars all over the fields and the noise, we could hear it over at our place. And we heard it more than once. And not, and, and so, I do think there needs to be some kind of a, a respect that comes, which I'm sure your religion would put forward that needs to be incorporated into whatever activity that you want to do for the neighbors. And, and lastly, if you look on the property tax map you'd see that Redeemer Presbyterian Church and Beachmont Christian Camp are two different entities. The church does not run the camp and the camp has really nothing to do with the church or the school. And so, the, when you entered into evidence about why does the school have a corn maze, we don't. That's, that's a completely different entity. It's by the camp. It's something that they do. And we have nothing to do with it. So, just that is a correction that you, that I wanted on the record just in case it was needed that the school is separate from the camp and we do not have a corn maze. We have a K through 12 class--(inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: He's good.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: You live on that Redeemer property?

PASTOR STANDIFORD: I live at the main house. Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. The well, septic, everything works fine?

PASTOR STANDIFORD: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. And how many students do you have in the school?

PASTOR STANDIFORD: 220.

MR. KOTROCO: Come every day?

PASTOR STANDIFORD: Yes.

MR. KOTROCO: Use the bathroom every day?

PASTOR STANDIFORD: Well, absolutely.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Right. A, a field house?

PASTOR STANDIFORD: It's all within, it, all of our things have been within the County code.

MR. KOTROCO: Yes.

PASTOR STANDIFORD: And they have come out and so forth.

MR. KOTROCO: Exactly right. And I, I can appreciate that. A field house, where they have sporting events and --

PASTOR STANDIFORD: That belongs to the camp.

MR. KOTROCO: Oh, okay. I wasn't sure whether-- so then the corn maze is the camp, not you all?

PASTOR STANDIFORD: Absolutely.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. No further questions.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Thank you sir. Ma'am?

STATEMENTS MADE BY PATTI THOORN:

MS. THOORN: Hi.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. What's your name and where do you live?

MS. THOORN: Hi, everyone. I'm Pat Thoorn. And I live at 6316 Hutschenreuter Road.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MS. THOORN: And I know that a lot of you have seen my posts on Facebook, because you've guys have been responding to them. And I want to make it very clear that this is not a religious vendetta, okay? It's not. I'm Christian. My son is Buddha. I don't, yeah. Who cares. We all love each other. So, I want to get that out in the open first. I also want to make mention that my property does back to the woods that backs to your property. It is extremely loud when you hold your affairs and your festivals. I will, our main concern, not they have a temple. But our concern is this, you haven't been respectful with keeping your cars to a minimum or your invites to a minimum or too private. You've left it open to the people that, for your research and for your fund-raising I stopped by that weekend. There is no parking lot. There is a driveway with a circle, okay? So, a parking lot would have to be put in. Let's just be very clear about that. You keep talking about a parking lot. It's not a parking lot. It's grass. It is a field. It is a very steep hill where people were parking. When we talked with the people at the festival they were very thrilled that they had over 1,000 people come that weekend. They were bragging about it. And I think that's awesome for fund-raising

I'm sure they made a lot of money. Our concern is they're not diligent with the County Ordinances. It's absolutely, well, we're going to do it anyway. We're not supposed to be here. We're going to do it anyway. In the beginning you had a, you had people living there, at the caretaker residence, which was informed to us at the Kingsville Association meeting. According to page 4 of your contract, you cannot have anyone living there, according to the deed because it is a commercial loan. So, you violated that, okay? There are many things that you have violated--

MR. CLARK: She's good.

MS. THOORN: --that you just keep saying, oh well. You just want to push this through. Let's just hypothetically say this does get pushed through. What's to stop you from having those festivals every weekend? Absolutely nothing, because it will be yours. What is to stop you from taking that last line of the Special Exception to say we can do what needs to be done, and you don't expand that mansion twelve times the size? Because like it's been stated, this Special Exception is not geared at the mansion. It's geared at 30 acres. Well, if it's not geared for the 30 acres, why not change it to just gear it to the mansion? Why not say, and I've been in the mansion. I was friends with Kelly DeCheeko (phonetic). I know how many people can fit into that mansion, okay? To have one of your festivals in the third of the house that is the ballroom is not conducive. To say that you can come and pray at any given time, well, that's wonderful. Absolutely. I'm all for it. You know, I pray when I'm driving down the street. I pray when I'm in the bathroom. I pray all the time. Okay. But what we cannot say and what you cannot guarantee and what you cannot say for certain is that throughout the course of 9:00 in the morning or 8:00 in the morning or 7:00 in the morning till 10:00 at night you're not going to have a continuous stream of people running through that area. I would like to just make mention, this is just something that happened last night, because I have a good contact in the Kingsville Volunteer Fire Department. Is that there was a car turned over, flipped over, on its side at the circle last night. Half of the sign in the circle before this accident was taken out. Now, this was supposed to make us safer, am I right? It hasn't. There have been five accidents since this circle has opened. Please check into that. I encourage you. Five accidents since this circle has been finished. At the bottom of Hutschenreuter Road we had a young couple, 18 years old. A boy in the front, a boy in the back, a girl in the front, a girl in the back. A car came around that turn. They pull out. Boom. All four of them dead. Okay. Wouldn't it be great to say, oh, yeah. It's 30 miles an hour and we're going to gonna do the speed limit? How many of you have teenagers? Come on. Somebody's gotta have a teenager in here. Don't tell me they drive the speed limit because they don't. They are reckless. It is scary. It is about the sight distance. When you look, according to the Transportation Department and Zoning because I'm a realtor. (Inaudible)-- You have to be 10 feet back before you take those pictures. So, when you took those pictures of the sight line, did you stand 10 feet back from the road and take your pictures? No. You probably stood at the front of the road, didn't you? But County law says you have to be 10 feet back before you take those pictures. When you are 10 feet back what do you see? You see that giant circle in the middle that you already stated you weren't going to remove. You look to the right, and what do you see? You see trees. The sight distance is not compatible or conducive to this area. It's not. I mean, we're not trying to be mean. We're trying to save lives. My kids go up and down that road constantly. I drive up and down that road constantly. The sight lines are awful. We would love for you to have a wonderful church, absolutely, but you can't guarantee that there's only going to be 30 people there in a day or on Sunday. You said you were going to have the caretaker's home for a Pastor, but you don't have one. And you can't have one legally living there because of the way your contract is written on page 4 of your deed that says, no one will occupy this property. Am I correct? So, you're breaking all of these variances and laws, and you don't understand why we're upset. You're playing loud music and having parties when you say you're only going to have 10 (inaudible) people there, but you're not. There were over 1,000 people there. So, are you good people? Absolutely. But I'm not thinking that your people love your (inaudible). And I think that if this goes through, and I pray and I pray that it does not. I pray it does not. It will only create more traffic. The intersection from Mount Vista Road and Harford Road was deemed the (inaudible) worst intersection in the country. The circle hasn't fixed it. What makes you think that when you have 50, 60, 100 cars pulling out on a sight line that you can't see it's going to be any better? People are going to lose their lives. And it's not worth it. The other concern is the well, because I have lived there and I will tell you that in that long time the well has gone dry five times. Five times. My brother's well has gone dry. He lives right next to me, on Hutchenreuter has gone dry ten times. What is this going to do to impact those that live the closest? I realize you all don't live near it, and that's cool. If I lived in (inaudible) it would effect me either. But you guys are talking about my well, my septic, my area and my home. And so, I ask that this all be taken into account, and that it not be passed because they cannot regulate the amount of people for the buildings that they're going to put up. And they will. The other thing I would like to state is someone had mentioned earlier that (inaudible) this house was in foreclosure for so long. How come nobody bought it? That is not true. Okay. Yes, the bank did own it. So did Mr. DeCheeko?. But I will tell you that as a realtor we know what's coming up thirty days ahead of anyone else. So, say it went on the market and the next day was gone, well, that's a little stretched because the property was known that it was going to go up. The other thing is, how many other offers were made? I will tell you that there were five. How many offers were turned in and accepted to the realtor? None. Absolutely none. And by law, you have to submit all valid contracts. None were submitted. And if you don't believe me you can-- well, (inaudible)-- So, things are gone about the wrong way. And that's what we're upset about mainly. Yes sir?

MR. CLARK: No. It's, it's Mr. Kotroco's turn.

MR. KOTROCO: Yeah. I'm going to ask, I'm going to ask. You seem to know a lot about the property. You live next door, is that right? On Hutchenreuter? Who's busting it up?

MS. THOORN: You know what? If I had the answer to that I would be God.

MR. KOTROCO: God?

MS. THOORN: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: Who do you think is busting it?

MS. THOORN: Probably the same people that vandalized (inaudible) our store. Maybe it's the same group that vandalizes the other church. Maybe it's the ones that write graffiti on the Hartley Mill Bridge.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: Local, local people?

MS. THOORN: Maybe.

UNIDENTIDIED SPEAKER: Maybe not.

MS. THOORN: Or maybe just people who know that --

MR. KOTROCO: Do you hear them up there busting it up? Breaking windows?

MS. THOORN: Oh, I can't hear windows breaking.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MS. THOORN: I mean, that--

MR. KOTROCO: You don't hear them partying?

MS. THOORN: --would, I don't have good hearing that way.

MR. KOTROCO: All right. These are your posts on Facebook here? Take a look at them.

MS. THOORN: (Inaudible) my glasses.

MR. KOTROCO: That's your name at the top, right?

MS. THOORN: I don't have my glasses.

MR. CLARK: Uh-oh.

MR. KOTROCO: I'll read it if you want. I'm not going to read them into the record. I'm going to give them to the Judge. But that's your name on it?

MS. THOORN: (Inaudible) is it?

MR. KOTROCO: That's why I asked you. It says right here, Patti Griswald Thoorn. Is that you?

MS. THOORN: And yes, I (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: That's you.

MS. THOORN: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: (Inaudible)--

MS. THOORN: Uh-hum.

MR. KOTROCO: I'd offer these into evidence Judge. (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Can, can I have a copy of it?

MR. KOTROCO: That's the only one I have.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: We can get them from the, in the case.

MS. THOORN: And, and what were my posts?

MR. KOTROCO: What do you post? Let's, let me ask you that?

MS. THOORN: Did I say that we were concerned about the water? About the water run off? About the traffic? About the noise?

MR. KOTROCO: No. How about people coming here from other countries and they should be locked (inaudible) and crossed the border in North Korea you get locked up. You get twelve years. How about that?

MS. THOORN: Oh, I didn't post that.

MR. KOTROCO: Oh, it's got your name on it.

MS. THOORN: No. That was sent to me.

MR. KOTROCO: Uh-huh. And what did you do with it? Why is it your name on the top of it?

MS. THOORN: Because it was sent to me.

MR. KOTROCO: It was sent to you? Did you repost it?

MS. THOORN: Uh-hum.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MS. THOORN: And I'd agree wholeheartedly. And if you want to throw that back at me I believe that any person can come to the United States-- if we're going to go down immigration law absolutely. But let's do it legally. Let's do it legally. Let's do it on the up and up.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Everybody here is legal (inaudible)--

MS. THOORN: Well, thank you for sharing. So am I.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Any other questions from this lady?

MR. KOTROCO: No questions.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Do you have questions?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Go ahead.

MR. CLARK: So, if you heard people breaking up the property would you have called the police?

MS. THOORN: Absolutely.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I did.

MS. THOORN: I called the police when I see strange cars on my road because they come back to the end of Hutchenreuter to see where it goes. And if they're lingering around I call the police.

MR. CLARK: Okay. While I may disagree with your political views, would you say that your political views are present in, in America?

MS. THOORN: I believe that everybody has the right to become a United States Citizen, absolutely. And I do believe that it should be done legally.

MR. CLARK: Okay. That's it Your Honor.

MR. KOTROCO: Nothing else.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Thank you ma'am.

MS. THOORN: Wait.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Short and sweet.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Very good.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Just your name and (inaudible) and whatever you want (inaudible)--

STATEMENTS MADE BY KEITH REULING:

MR. REULING: My name is Keith Reuling. I live in--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Would you spell your last name?

MR. REULING: R-E-U-L-I-N-G.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. REULING: I heard enough testimony. It sounds like there's going to be more than a thirty (inaudible) parking spots needed.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. REULING: It looks to me like there's no inlets or you know, storm water runoff, which means that's just going to run off into the groundwater too. Oil, all that good stuff. I would think the County would want to take a look at the, the amount of parking spots that may be required on this project and the proper storm-water management facilities that would be attached to it.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. Is that it?

MR. REULING: Yes.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. KOTROCO: No, no questions.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Short and sweet. Thank you sir. Okay. Come on up ma'am. Okay. So, what's your name and where do you live?

STATEMENTS MADE BY JOANNE FOXWORTHY:

MS. FOXWORTHY: My name is Joanne Foxworthy. And I live at 6229 Bonaparte Avenue.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Bingo.

MS. FOXWORTHY: Right at your driveway. But just to let your attorney know, this is all I'm going to say. I'm the one that watched that property and called the police when the kids were up there. I chased, took pictures of their tags. Called the police and then called the realtor, whoever that was and he told me to call the police. So, it's not like I like that. So, I kept an eye on that. I shouldn't have to do that, but I did. But that's what I want to tell you right now.

MR. KOTROCO: Thank you.

MS. FOXWORTHY: So, it's not like we're not looking out for everybody, okay?

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Thank you.

MR. KOTROCO: Thank you very much. (CLAPPING IN BACKGROUND)-- You're right across on Bonaparte, right?

MS. FOXWORTHY: Oh, baby. Yeah. I get all the noise. (laughs)-- (Inaudible) nice (inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: Stop while you're behind. Stop while you're behind. (laughs)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible)--

MS. FOXWORTHY: Oh, yeah.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Anyone else? Sir, come on up. Just your name and where you live sir.

STATEMENTS MADE BY DOUG HONBARRIER:

MR. HONBARRIER: My name is Doug Honbarrier. And I live --

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Spell your last.

MR. HONBARRIER: I'm sorry. H-O-N--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MR. HONBARRIER: --B-A-R-R-I-E-R.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Gotcha. Okay. And where do you live?

MR. HONBARRIER: I live on Bonaparte Avenue. Just three houses in --

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible) --

MR. HONBARRIER: Right. The, yeah. Right across.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Gotcha.

MR. HONBARRIER: And I have concerns like some of the others. Mainly the well is a big, big issue for me. Traffic has always been a problem on that road. Just that curve, there's single car accidents in the, the s-curve all the time. We're sitting outside on our deck and we hear it and we're like oh, there's another one. Probably one a month or one every other month or so. But I guess it's one of the bigger concerns that hasn't been raised for me is living on Bonaparte is trying to turn onto Harford Road off of Bonaparte is horrible. And when you directly across the street have all these other cars coming that will be discharged onto Harford Road is going to make it even harder to, to turn. So, I would just ask that somehow there be some kind of, whether there's a second entrance or something because right now, with no cars coming out of the driveway it's horrendous to try to get out. And if there's 50, 60, 70 cars, whatever it is it's just going to be a nightmare.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: How many homes are on your street?

MR. HONBARRIER: One, two, three, four-- I think there's nine. Nine or ten or something--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Is it a cul-de-sac?

MR. HONBARRIER: Yeah. It's a dead end. Yes.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. All right.

MR. HONBARRIER: And that's all I have.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: All right. Okay. Thank you very much.

MR. KOTROCO: Thank you. No questions.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Anyone else?

MR. CLARK: Shall I give you this now?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Sure, you can. That is --

MR. CLARK: The sound recording.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: The recording?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. On a computer disk?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. When, when was that made? Do you know?

MR. CLARK: When--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Did you make it sir?

MR. CLARK: My, my wife did.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Oh.

MR. CLARK: And she, and she has a copy to attest to that.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Do you tell, is it, do you announce that on this here? Or is it, was it--

MR. CLARK: No, no. She'll give you a signed copy.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: The date of the recording Your Honor was September 10th, 2017.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: September 10, 2017?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Correct.

MR. KOTROCO: And the time, time of day?

MR. CLARK: It will be, it will be time stamped on, from the recording --

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: It, approximately 8:30 PM.

MR. CLARK: You know how that (inaudible) works.

MR. KOTROCO: 8:30 AM.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay. I'll take it. I'll take it. And this can be heard. (Inaudible) on a computer (inaudible)?

MR. CLARK: Yes. Yes.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: (Inaudible)--

MR. CLARK: And Mary, you have your signed statement, right?

MR. KOTROCO: Mr. Clark, just one more thing? Your address is 12150 Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah. Yeah. Yeah.

MR. KOTROCO: Is it on?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. And we're (inaudible) forever.

MR. KOTROCO: Okay. Okay. So, a very long road?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. (Inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: Okay.

MR. CLARK: (Inaudible)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: I got ya.

MR. CLARK: No. Come on.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Good afternoon. All right. So, tell me your name and address and then whatever you'd like.

STATEMENTS MADE BY JILL BRDYSSE:

MS. BRDYSSE: My name is Jill Brdysse. The last name is B-R-D-Y-S-S-E. I live at 11963 Harford Road.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Jeal or Jill?

MS. BRYDSSE: Jill, J-I-L-L.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MS. BRYDSSE: So, I just want to say a couple things. I have not been deeply involved in this issue. I, in talking about the traffic. And I've lived on Harford Road for 24 years. I live just south of Hutchenreuter. It's not an easy place to turn on a lot of places on Harford Road. I'd be interested in knowing how much this particular church is going to contribute to the overall traffic that's already on Harford Road? I just wonder if proportionally is really is not going to be a whole lot. I understand it's going to be a big concern for the folks on Bonaparte and stuff, but for those of us who live up and down from it I don't, (inaudible) expect to see a whole lot of impact. I also just want to say, I'm also not here for religious reasons. But I'm not necess-- I'm not here as a Protestant either. And when the, I don't know his name, the lawyer over here asked everybody who lived within a mile and a half to raise their hands, you know, I raised my hand, but that did not necess-- that did not mean that I am a Protestant, because I'm not. I'm just here to get more information. And I don't really like being categorized necessarily as somebody who's on one side or the other.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay.

MS. BRYDSSE: So, I, I resented that.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: That's all right. That's fair enough.

MS. BRYDSSE: All right. Thank you.

MR. KOTROCO: Thank you. (CLAPPING IN BACKGROUND)--

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: Okay folks, anyone else? All right. Well, I do thank everybody for-- it was a big crowd to be accommodated in a room like this, and I think all in all it's a good job. We got, we got done what we needed to get done. And everybody, everybody said what they wanted to say. (Inaudible)-- Please make sure if you want to receive a copy of the Order which I imagine will be in a week to ten days. My secretary will use the sheets here.

MR. KOTROCO: Did everybody get to sign in? The citizens sign in?

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: And get their name and address. If you haven't done so, do that or else there's no way to know (inaudible)--

MR. KOTROCO: (Inaudible) want a copy of the Order.

JUDGE BEVERUNGEN: So, that's that. If your names on that list you'll get a copy of the Order I'd say within (inaudible). Thanks.

AFFIDAVIT OF Carol N Shaw

I, Carol N Shaw do hereby make oath in due form of law and state as follows:

1. I am over 18 years of age and competent to testify in this matter.

2. On September 20, 2017 I observed the following:

   I attended the Greater Kingsville Civic Association semi-annual meeting on 9/20/2017 in the gymnasium of the Kingsville Elementary School which was attended by over 100 people.

   David Marks, 5th district County Councilman was in attendance at the meeting. Several people addressed Councilman Marks with regard to the problems they were experiencing with the activities that were being conducted by the new owners of the 'Bonaparte' property (12231 Harford Road). They asked him why he did not insert himself and get involved on behalf of the surrounding community since the owners were causing disruptions to the lives of so many people.

   Councilman Marks several times said that he could not involve himself since this was not a legislative issue and that he could even be brought up before the Ethics Board.

   I personally actually tried to explain to the group that there is a separation of powers between the judicial, legislative and executive functions of the County government just like the Federal and State governments.

I HEREBY SWEAR AND AFFIRM UNDER THE PENALTIES OF PERJURY THAT THE AFOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT UPON MY PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE.

Christopher Jakubiak has 27 years of professional experience preparing zoning ordinances, comprehensive plans, master plans, land use studies, and negotiating development agreements. He founded Jakubiak & Associates, Inc. in 2000. Prior to that he served as Principal Planner for Calvert County, Maryland where he managed programs in transportation, land use, and town center master planning. He directed the work of the County's Board of Zoning Appeals and wrote the County's first transportation plan.

Immediately following graduate school, Mr. Jakubiak began his career as Principal Planner for the Southeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission. He headed a special projects division at the Commission and authored the "Prospectus for the Study of the Impacts of Development on Bio-diversity in Environmental Corridors", which contributed to the then emerging concept of "green infrastructure". He updated the Commission's zoning guide, conducted land use planning and comprehensive rezoning for two rural townships, and wrote the 2010 Regional Transportation Plan.

While leading Jakubiak & Associates, Mr. Jakubiak has served as an instructor in the School of Architecture and Planning at The Catholic University of America and taught citizen planning commissioners and real estate professionals through the University of Maryland Urban Studies and Planning Program. He served four years as a member of the City of Annapolis Board of Appeals. He has advised municipal officials, and testified before House and Senate committees, on multiple bills that have shaped Maryland's planning statutes.

Mr. Jakubiak has provided testimony as an expert in planning and zoning in Baltimore County, Baltimore City, Anne Arundel County, Montgomery County and the City of Annapolis.

No futher record of the organization has been found, and it must be assumed that the society disbanded at about that time. Certainly, if there were further meetings or other activities the county newspapers would have reported them.

The fate of the historical society is best described in Dr. Morris's own words:

In January, 1886, a few of us founded a Baltimore County Historical Society at Towson, Md, of which I was chosen President. It was composed of very few members, and no interest whatever could be excited in the subject, and the Society soon became extinct.

NOTES:

1. This biographical data about Dr. Morris is found in the Baltimore County Union, Towson, October 12,1895 Maryland History Notes, Vol. 5, No.4 (February 1948); and his autobiography, Life Reminiscences of an Old Lutheran Minister (Philadelphia: Lutheran Publication Society, 1896).

Mr. Bonaparte's Farm

Such historians as have written of Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte have depicted him as a lawyer, statesman and reformer. They have also dwelt upon his relationship to the great Napoleon, or Napoleon the Great, which is a different way of expressing the same thing. While much has been published about Mr. Bonaparte in the connection mentioned, little or nothing has been said of him as a "farmer." This may or may not have been gratifying to him, for modesty is one of his virtues, and perhaps he preferred that one feature of his busy life should be withheld from the lime light. Through Mr. Bonaparte is modest, he has never been acredited with being especially thin skinned, and he has not gotten "sore" with persons who have differed with him. He criticizes whenever he gets good and ready, and is broad enough to realize that the same privilege he enjoys should be accorded to others. He smiles satirically, and bobs his head with satisfaction when his political opponents get after him, for he likes a "Scrap' of that kind. He rubs his hands in glee at the prosepect of a tilt with other legal talent in a court of law. He listens with delight to the shafts that are thrust at him as a reformer in anticipation of the pleasure of hitting back. He resents none of these things, but to reflect upon him as a "farmer" would really hurt his feelings.

Mr. Bonaparte owns more farms in different parts of the State than the proverbial poor man has children, but there is on that is his special joy, and pride. It is in what is called Long Green Valley, and is a part of the original Lambert Gittings estate. It is Mr. Bonaparte's summer home. In fact, he lives there seven months of the year, going out in May and returning to his town house at Park Avenue and Centre Street, the first of December. The name of Mr. Bonaparte's place is Bella Vista (beautiful view). That it is appropriately called every visitor will admit. For some years, Mr. Bonaparte had a country home at Roland Park called Chestnut Wood. It was a nice place, but he finally disposed of it because of that part of the country was building up too rapidly. He wanted to get away from the trolley and other signs of ths city, so he bought 360 acres of fertile land in Long Green Valley. The purchase was made from Mr. William H. Bosley, who, in turn, had secured the property from the Lambert Gittings estate. The place is on the Harford Road, and is midway between Towson and Belair, and about 10 miles from each town and 15 miles from Baltimore. In selecting his site, Mr. Bonaparte was anxious for an unobstructed view, and he got it. His house stands on an eminence and from the porches the country can be seen for miles around on every side.

Glen Arm on the Maryland and Pennsylvania Railroad (old Narrow Gauge) is Mr. Bonaparte's station, and from there the drive to the house is about two and one half miles. The route is over country roads until the Harford pike is reached. A fine view of the place is to be had from the pike. One notices white washed fences that divide all the fields and a general air of trimness prevails. The house is on the crest of a hill, with a small expanse of lawn around it and a field of growing corn nearby. In this respect Mr. Bonaparte's summer abode is unlike the country places of most men of means. The latter go in usually for the ornamental, and like velvety lawns, trees and shrubbery, but not a corn field. Such a view destroys their idea of the aesthetic, but not so with Mr. Bonaparte. He is a "farmer," and he doesn't care who knows it. He is surrounded by all the things that stamp him a as tiller of the soil and an advocate of agricultural pursuits.

Mr. Bonaparte's house is built of Virginia shingles and is in Colonial Style, with white porches in circular form nearly the entire distance around it. Hand carving is a feature of the scroll and ornamental work. A great attraction of the interior is the reception hall, which runs the entire width of the house from north to south. The flooring is of hardwood, highly polished, and the walls are paneled in oak. The ceiling is supported in the centre by columns, and to each side are the doors to other apartments, with the circular effect observed on the inside as well as exterior of the mansion. The reception hall is funished with sofas and divans upholstered in tapestry, and ther are easy chairs, standing lamps. a piano and an old fashioned spinning wheel, besides several coffee tables. The reception room and dining room are on the left and the library and "study" on the right of the entrance, and to one side is an oaken stairway. The second floor has an interior balcony in the form of an alcove. Some of the furniture in the bedrooms is of mahogany and in Colonial designs, and the rest is modern. Among the guests apartments a "green" a "pink," a "yellow" and a "violet" room, the decorations and furnishings corresponding.

Pictures of the Bonaparte family are to be found in all the apartments. There are several of the orignial Napoleon, as well as one or two busts of him. Among the pictures in the alcove is one of Napoleon III and his wife, the Empress Eugenie, who is still living and is one of the grande dames of France. In the "study" there is a photograph of Col. Jerome Bonaparte at West Point, where Colonel Bonaparte received his early military training, though he later entered the French army for a while. In fact, one cannot go to Bella Vista without realizing that Mr. Bonaparte is fond of having the pictures of those in whom he is or has been interested around him. Among the photographs given prominent places are those of Cardinal Gibbons, Dr. Daniel C. Gilman and Whittier, the poet.

While Mr. Bonaparte's friends who visit him usually go from Baltimore by train, he rarely travels by that method himself. every week day, with the occasional exception of Saturday, he drives the 15 miles to and from his law office in this city. He makes an early start in the morning, but he rises with the lark. He is up every morning at 5:30 o'clock, takes a look over the place and writes down his orders for the day, breakfasts, and is ready to leave for Baltimore by 7:45 A.M. With his star team, composed of Ticoe and Trottle, he can make the distance at the rate of a mile in five minutes up hill and down. With the other teams, he requires six minutes to the mile,and when the roads are heavy, a little more. His favorite vehicle is a yellow surrey, and he is always driven by his colored coachman. While he is fond of blooded stock and keeps only good horses, he rarely handles the ribbons himself. In return for rising with the lark, Mr. Boanparte retires with the chickens. He turns in every night at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Bonaparte has surrounded himself at Bella Vista with every modern convenience for up to date "farming." He has a capable manager for his place and he keeps a large force of "hands." Everything indicates perfect system and order. His residence is supplied with running water and gas, and his cattle, his horses, his fine flock of Southdown sheep, his hogs, his poultry, and even his dogs, are all provided with shelter of uniform architecture. In the stable near the mansion for the pleasure and light draft horses there are rooms for the grooms and men employed about the house and grounds. There is also a dairy with all of the latest appliances. Mr. Bonaparte's manager lives in the original Lambert Gittings house, which is at the foot of the hill upon which Bella Vista is erected.

Although Mr. Bonaparte has the blood of kings in his veins, his grandfather having been Jerome Bonaparte, King of Westphalia, there is no man with a greater dread of snobbishness than himself, and in order to spare his feelings no further reference to his distinguished ancestry will be made in this brief description of the "Farm." Mr. and Mrs. Bonaparte live quietly at Bella Vista, and frequently, they are without house guests at all, but visitors are always cordially received.

Our first president recorded several stops in Baltimore County at inns known as Cheyne's, Skerritt's, or Websters. These three names are shown as one and the same tavern on Plate 30 of The George Washington Atlas issued by the U.S. George Washington Bicentennial Commission in 1932. However, Griffith's 1795 map showed Webster's on the east side of present Philadelphia Road (Md. 7), just south of Bird River; an unnamed hostelry, actually the Red Lion Inn, was also shown a mile or so farther north on the west side of present Red Lion Road, which then served as the main Post Road.

The future president recorded in his diary for 1787: "May 11, Set off before breakfast -- rid 12 miles to Skerretts for it--baited there and proceeded without halting (weather threatening) to the Ferry at Havre De gras where I dined but could not cross the winds being turbulent and squally--lodged there."

"September 2---Sett of after early breakfast--crossed the Susquehanna and dined at Havre de gras at the House of one Rogers and lodged at Skirrets Tavern 12 miles short of Baltimore."

Later, as President, Washington noted in 1795. "Aug. 8. Breakfasted at Baltimore--and dined and lodged at Websters." The memorandum book noted, "August 9. Bill at Websters 1.10.6 Servants at Do. 2.0"

"Sept. 10....lodged at Webster's."

"October 16....Lodged at Websters."

Finally, as a former President, he breakfasted at Webster's on March 12, 1797, and dined there on November 7 and December 17, 1798.

The atlas of Washington's travels can be seen at the Maryland Historical Society as well as Itinerary of George Washington and Washington After the Revolution, two volumes by William Sphon Baker that trace every day spent in transit by the General in war and peace.

Captain Clement Skerett called the place "Stone House Tavern, formerly Legitts" in a stray horse advertisement in the Maryland Journal of November 1,1785. An ad offering the place for sale. (Md. Journal, February 12, 1789) called it Red House Tavern. Scharf's history of this county (p. 924) called it the "largest and best appointed in Maryland. It was a large building, constructed of stone and brick. In the center, under the second story, a spacious archway broke the wall, allowing passage of wagons to the stables beyond." Scharf recorded the tradition that "it was once kept by the celebrated Moll Roe" but feigned not to know the cause of Ms. Roe's celebration. The Red Lion Inn site is now occupied by the Silver Top Manufacturing Company.

The Washington Atlas also shows stops at Sutton's at Shane in the Seventh District and at Slade's Tavern that stood on Manor Road at Hess Road until the early years of this century across from the Manor Store. The pre-Revolutionary Washington diaries show that the Vriginia planter lodged at Sutton's on June 5, 1773 and on June 6, he left host Thomas Sutton, rode down the old York Road and "Breakfast as Slades 10 m. from Suttons." The account in St. James of My Lady's Manor (p.16 f) records the legend that Washington enjoyed a game of bowling with cannon balls and rolled the ball off the green into a field. The same June 5 date is claimed for a Washington stop by a highway marker in front of Black Horse Tavern near Norrisville, Harford County. Can any other dates be authenticated?

An "intrepid aeronaut" made an ascension from Baltimore on Thursday evening about 4 o'clock. His balloon passed in full view of Towsontown, and descended near the line of the N.C. Railway, a short distance below Rider's Switch. — Baltimore County Advocate, Towson, Nov. 24, 1860

The Baltimore County Historical Society of 1886

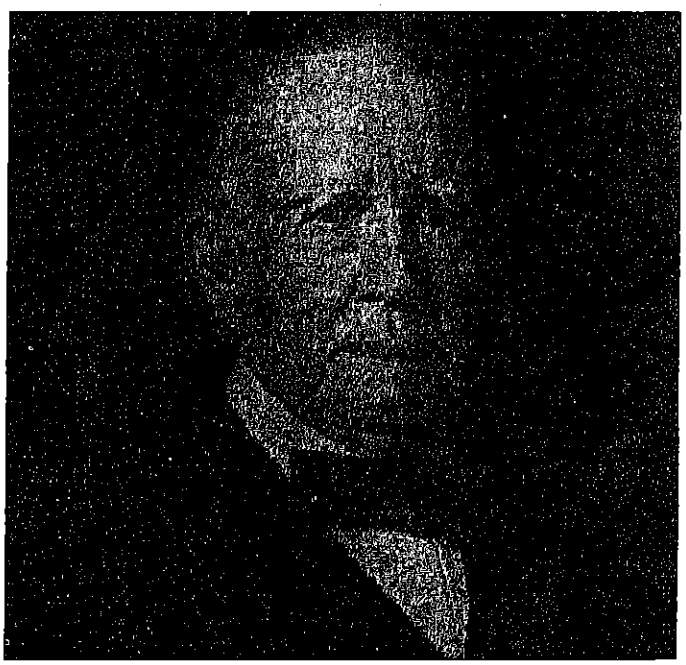
by William Hollifield

The Baltimore County Historical Society was founded in 1959 and since then has grown to an organization of over 700 members. There was an earlier historical society in the county with which the present society has no connection. This earlier, short lived organization is, itself, an object of historic interest.

The first Baltimore County Historical Society was organized in 1886 by the Rev. Dr. John G. Morris (1803-1895), the founder of Lutherville. Early in the year he wrote to the Baltimore County Union, a Towson newspaper, suggesting a historical society. He said that historical societies had already been established in other counties-Harford and Talbott had set a good example and societies were being organized in Frederick, Anne Arundel, and Somerset Counties and the people of Baltimore County should not let all the others get ahead of them. The objectives of a historical society in Baltimore County would be as follows he said:

1. To collect and preserve all old records of historic value which are now lying in obscurity and liable to be exterminated by conflagration, mildew, the depredations of vermin or natural decay. There must be a number of old families in our county who doubtless have such old papers stowed away in antiquated trunks and barrels, or neglected cupboards, which have not been disturbed for years. They would be glad to have them saved from destruction by presenting them to a historical society which would carefully keep and properly value them.
2. To perpetuate the history of persons of the olden time, who have distinguished themselves in any position of life, and whose deeds should not be suffered to be forgotten or unrecorded.
3. There are not a few places in our county associated with interesting historical events, which are as yet indistinctly known, and which should be thoroughly investigated and brought to light.
4. There is a multitude of isolated historical facts of deep historical interest which are floating about as traditionary stories and many of which are founded on truth. These could be identified from the old church records, and many facts could be gathered from some of our oldest inhabitants, but especially from the newspapers of the olden time, which are rich sources of local information.

He went on to suggest that the historical society could be organized right away if enough enterprising gentlemen were interested. And not only gentlemen; even "ladies and the more advanced pupils of our schools" would be invited to join. A constitution could be drawn up prior to the organizational meeting to avoid delay. Expenses would be minimal, he said, because no building had to be rented or erected and there would be no salaries to pay. The only expenses anticipated would be for things such as stationery and advertising. Meetings could be held about once a month at different locations in the county so that they would be convenient to all members. Meeting times would have to be during the daytime. however, because he thought that members who lived at a distance would want to get home before dark. Papers on topics relating to Baltimore County history would be read at meetings and, with the consent of their authors, copies would be preserved by the society in a central location for the use of future scholars.



Dr. John G. Morris founded an unsuccessful historical society in 1886.

Dr. Morris' full name was not given; instead, his initials J.G.M. appeared at the bottom of his letter.

Dr. Morris was quite active throughout his long life. He was well acquainted with scholarly affairs and with the organization of libraries and historical societies. He was a member of many scientific and historical societies and he had written an impressive number of books, pamphlets, and articles, chiefly on religious history. George Peabody had appointed him a trustee of what was to become the Peabody Library and he spent three years buying books, organizing the library, and bringing it into active operation. In 1860 he resigned his pastorate of the First English

AFFIDAVIT OF Ila Christenbury

I, Ila Christenbury, do hereby make oath in due form of law and state as follows:

- I am over 18 years of age and competent to testify in this matter.
- On September 20, 2017, I observed the following:
- General Membership Meeting of Greater Kingsville Civic Association (GKCA)
- The following motion was made by a GKCA member and passed by the members:
- "To oppose the Bonaparte property being used for large scale, excessive use such as a cultural center and/or a religious facility which would create unsafe traffic conditions, excessive noise, unsafe run-off, and would threaten public health, safety and welfare through over taxation of our well and septic resources as well as negatively impacting the rural character of the area."
- Motion was passed with 28 "for" (not including the GKCA Board which voted 12 "for" and 0 opposed). Quorum rule for members is 5% and 28 members with a membership of 216 is adequate. Quorum for the Board is 50%; 12 Board members voted--100%.
- On April 4, 2018, I observed the Special GKCA Board Meeting which met to authorize our Rule 8 Members. By a vote of 7 to 0, the board voted that the Members of the Zoning Committee should be authorized to testify for GKCA before the County Board of Appeals or other duly constituted zoning agency, commission, or body. The members selected were Doug Behr, Ila Christenbury, Dorothy Foos, Pat Garner, Pat Schmidt and Tom Kneeshaw.
- The position of GKCA was adopted by the Board of Directors and Zoning Committee on Case No. 2018-0122-X "Bonaparte property to vote affirmatively to endorse the Motions passed at the General meeting on September 20, 2017. The vote was 11 in favor and none against. Seven members present and 4 proxies affirmative votes from absent Board Members.

I HEREBY SWEAR AND AFFIRM UNDER THE PENALTIES OF PERJURY THAT THE AFOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT UPON MY PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE.

County Executive Don Mohler

Historic Courthouse, Mezzanine
Towson, Maryland 21204

Dear Mr. Mohler:

As you may know, on July 1, 2018 Mr. Arnold Jablon issued an enforcement order prohibiting the owner of 12231 Harford Rd., Glen Arm MD, 21057 (NACCB ,Inc.) from continuing to hold group events. They have failed to comply with any of the requirements specified in the Special Exception granted by ALJ Beverungen in January 2018. Subsequent to Mr. Jablon's order, on the evening of July 10 the owner accessed the property to hold a volleyball tournament in open defiance of that enforcement order.

The GFWPA has always had two concerns about the use of that property. The first is the threat to community health and watershed degradation presented by the apparent lack of sanitation facilities to handle human waste.

The second issue is that the entrance used to gain access to the property is inadequate for such use. The sight distances and narrowness of the road preclude the owner's ability to acquire the needed Highway Access Permit from the State Highway Administration. Mr. Zeller of District 4 SHA has written that this use of the property given the dangerous location of the entrance should not be permitted.

We are deeply grateful that Mr. Jablon, Mr. Gardina and Mr. Zeller have stood up to correct this situation.

However, NACCB, Inc. has heavily promoted via internet and social media an event to be held during the period July 28-August 3, 2018. They hoped to attract the more than 500-1000 (their estimates) participants at a similar event held last year. That event resulted in the initial Cease and Desist order issued in 2017 by Mr. Jablon.

It is highly likely that the NACCB, Inc. will be unable to communicate their change in plans to all the guests they invited. Further, Mr. Jablon and Mr. Gardina are well aware of the lack of impact enforcement orders have had with the NACCB, Inc. in the past.

I am writing to you as the community leader representing over 100 landowners in the immediate area. I have two concerns to express about July28-August 3 and a request.

The first concern is about uncontrolled traffic. In his testimony before Judge Beverungen, Mr. Ghimire, the Resident Agent for the Corporation, testified that the many out of state visitors had difficulty navigating Harford Road, caused backups and trespassed on private driveways when they tried to find the property. Given the extent of the promotion for this year's event, we can expect even more disruption on this rural road which is already heavily used as a commuter route to I-695.

The second issue is the reasonable anticipation of possible civil conflict. Those out of state visitors who come to the closed property will be understandably disappointed and frustrated. It is even understandable that members of NACCB, Inc. may be frustrated and perhaps angry at what they consider to be a denial of an absolute right. Then we can have members of the community who have been patient and trusting in both the GFWPA and the County authorities who get annoyed by the disturbance of unpermitted traffic and perhaps even use of the property at 12231 Harford Road.

My request is that the County plan a response to any disturbance in Glen Arm during the period of July 28 to August 3. This plan could be communicated to all parties so they know the expectations and the response to violations of those expectations.

As President of GFWPA, I will work with the Baltimore County Police and the County Fire Marshall to inform the community of what is expected of them and what we can expect from the County.

Mr. Mohler, I will point out with pride that despite the community's feelings about the improper use of land by NACCB, Inc., not one person has taken it upon themselves to vandalize the unpermitted sign erected at the property entrance.

The community has respected the rights of all and values that the competing rights will be decided in the judicial process.

All they are asking is to know the County plan for avoiding disturbance in our rural community.

Respectfully,

Dewey Clark, President

RE: 12231 Harford Road

Dear Mr. Jablon:

The community desires to inform you that on the evening of July 10, 2018 the NACCB, Inc., in defiance of your order dated July 1, 2018, and in disregard of requirements of the State Highway Administration and Maryland Department of the Environment, and concerns of the community, once again accessed the property and held a volleyball tournament on the subject site.

It is apparent that the NACCB, Inc. has no regard for your order, and the various County and State departments who have registered concern about the use of this property for the coming event of July 28 to August 3, 2018.

As such, it appears to the community that the County, the State, and the County Executive must exercise greater attention to this problem, which is quickly escalating to a potentially bad situation.

Within the confines of the County and State requirements, the Long Green Valley community and the 100+ landowners belonging to the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association would request that you take immediate and prompt action to avoid any threats to public health and safety arising from activities of the NACCB, Inc.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Dewey Clark

It has come to our attention that there have been advertisements for an event at your property located at 12231 Harford Rd. to be held from July 29 to August 3. There have also been allegations of health code violations, including photos, submitted to us by concerned neighbors.

I am aware of the hearing before the Administrative Law Judge, and notwithstanding the approval Judge Beverungen granted, there has been no compliance with the terms and conditions as set out in that decision. Because these terms have not been met, any event such as that which is being advertised will constitute a violation of that order and a violation of the zoning regulations, as well as possible violations of the health code. If your organization holds this scheduled event, an immediate citation will be issued.

Email to Jablon (cc Gardina, Bcc Weis and Zeller)

Mr. Jablon,

Today is now July 10. On the Evening of July 9th, the day I first crafted the email below, the NACC,Inc. once again used the property as a recreation center. I have the recordings of their volley ball tournament.

Mr. Kotroco's client apparently views your enforcement orders with mockery and contempt. I am now even more convinced than indicated below that we need to be prepared for their open defiance of your order concerning the event July 28 to Aug 3. Please not that somewhere along the way the event was change to be July 29 to July 28. You may want to revise your order to reflect this.

Text of original email.

On July 9, 2018 I received an email from Mr. Gardina to the effect that you had transmitted an order to the NACCB, Inc., owner of the property located at 12231 Harford Road, prohibiting them from hosting group events since they have not complied with the conditions of the Special Exception granted by ALJ Beverungen.

Thank you. Can you please provide a copy of that order to me and to our attorney, Carroll Holzer, Esq.

We can then apprise the community of the action.

As you know, the NACCB, Inc. heavily promoted an event to be held on July 28-Aug 3, 2018. They apparently hoped to attract a large crowd from the Eastern Seaboard. This event last year (which resulted in your Cease and Desist order) attracted between 500 and 1,000 people (their statements vary) from at least 4 states.

It is very likely that not all intending to attend that event will receive NACCB, Inc.'s notification of their change in plans. The time for them to get the word out is very short.

We know that controlling the possible disturbance in the community requires County resources beyond your control.

We hope you will support our request to County Executive Mohler for coordinated plan to respond to any disturbance that may arise.

A copy of the order can be sent to Mr. Holzer and myself via email.

Once again, thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Judge Beverungen,

I just finished a conversation with Sherry of your Office. Earlier today I dropped off a complete copy of the preliminary motion Carroll Holzer, Esq. entered into the record during the proceedings on 19 July 2018.

As I explained in the note I left with her earlier, Larry read what is purported to be a letter from you into the record sans evidentiary copies. This meant we could not test the veracity of his interpretation. However, he interpreted it to mean you approved of the 1,000 person fundraiser scheduled for 28 July to 3 August at the property located at 12231 Harford Rd. This is in spite of the record of NACCB Inc.'s open defiance of the seven conditions set forth in your 22 Jan. 2018 decision granting a Special Exception to NACCB, Inc. (see copy of Protestant's Exhibit No. 1 left with Sherry).

I was informed by Sherry that you kept no file copy and that we will have to wait on Mr. Kotroco's leisure to get our copy and even that will not be provided to me, the primary protestant of standing or as President of the Association represented by Mr. Carroll Holzer, Esq.

I was further informed that Mr. Kotroco in fact prepared that letter for your signature and that upon review you signed it as some kind of letter of intent. I am very unclear about what that means or in fact how you intended for your letter to be used.

If I any of my understandings are imperfect, please correct them. Thank you for your time.

Sirs

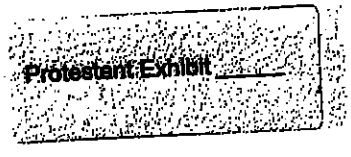
I am writing to inform you that the Corporate owner of the single residence property located at 12231 Harford Rd. Glen Arm, MD 21057 has publicized a very large fundraiser to take place July 29 to August 3, 2018. According to their own estimates, last year this fundraising event drew about 1,000 participants from several states. It resulted in the issuance of a Baltimore County Cease and Desist Order that, according to Arnold Jablon, is still in effect.

They have no sanitation facilities on site, no parking facilities for this event, and no SHA Highway Access permit. In addition, their own publicity photographs and videos reveal they have completed electrical installations without the benefit of a permit as verified by phone calls to Baltimore County Permits office on June 18, 2018. A licensed contractor observed what is in his opinion to be friable asbestos.

Mr. Jablon was adamant that we should notify the responsible officials if we were to become aware of just such a large event or if we became aware of violations of County Permit regulations.

The health, safety and ecological threats are obvious. Harford Road is a State road with no modern shoulders; at many points only 2 feet wide with guard rails directly on the shoulder on the other side. A traffic circle intended to control traffic in the immediate area was also recently installed. The entrance in question has very short sight distances due to blind curves in both directions. The property access is on the most dangerous 190 turn. This narrow rural road has become overburdened as a result of commuters driving to I-695 from Baltimore and Harford counties.

The July 29-Aug 3 fundraising event will create an unwarranted and unnecessary hazard not only for commuters. Out-of-area event participants unfamiliar with the nature of this rural road and the dangers it presents will also be trying to find an obscure address, stopping quickly, getting lost and causing backups on this route which, because this road traverses a valley, has no effective alternatives between Mt. Vista Rd. and Long Green Valley Rd., a distance of some 4 miles.



The owner of 12231 Harford Road is, as you know, well aware of the requirements for an SHA Access permit and that the current situation does not meet the criteria for that permit. In fact, there is no documentation that the owner has even started the SHA permitting process.

The owner and the attorneys handling this matter have been fully informed by you of the requirements to be met to change this property from its current single family use into a commercial venue.

The lack of sanitation facilities (they have a history of not seeking the required special events permits that would ensure health and safety factors are resolved) is a major threat to the community and the surrounding Gunpowder Falls watershed.

For your convenience I have included below the contact information for their attorney, Timothy Kotroco, and the Resident agent for the corporation, Kris Ghimire, who has an established real estate business in Baltimore County over the last 20 years.

I affirm that these photos are unmanipulated and were taken by me on the night of 10 September 2017 between the times of 8:30 PM and 8:45 PM as indicated by the EXIF data contained within the photo files. I was positioned in front of the power pole at the corner of Bonaparte Ave and Harford Rd.

I apologize for the quality, I was having problems with my flash. But it is easily seen that a number of different vehicles were observed leaving the Bonaparte property.

At the same time, my wife made the included sound recording from our porch using her cell phone. We are approximately 150 feet west of Harford Rd. across from the Bonaparte property.

I have included on the USB drive the photos, sound recording, a screen shot of Mr. Ghimire's Real Estate web site and a copy of the signage we propose to install on properties adjacent to the Bonaparte property.

From the Facebook pictures posted by this group, they appear to be respectful, kind, educated and affluent people. We find it hard to believe they would knowingly step on the rights of their neighbors and flout county laws, regulations and orders.

It is unfortunate the leaders/developers of this property have chosen the path they are taking. They certainly lost the goodwill of virtually every affected property owner.

Thanks you for all you are doing.

Regards,

Dewey Clark

Re: Nepali American Cultural Center
Request for Police Protection

Dear County Executive Mohler,

I write to you out of great concern for the safety and welfare of a group of Baltimore County citizens. I have been working with the Nepali American community for over the past year. These families have become an integral part of Baltimore County having established themselves as successful business owners, doctors, engineers and otherwise productive members of our Baltimore County community.

Not long ago, these families gathered together and purchased an abandoned 20 acre estate formerly owned by Towson attorney, Robert DiCicco. The property is located at 12231 Harford Road in Glen Arm, Maryland. This estate property was dilapidated and was severely vandalized by local residents. It was foreclosed upon by the bank who held the mortgage and was heading to auction. The Nepali community pooled together their resources and purchased the subject property.

Over the past year, these Baltimore County families have been investing their money, time and energy rebuilding the damage that the neighbors did to this property and today, the property is more valuable a showpiece. I have witnessed this transformation myself and this property now stands as one of the nicest estates in Baltimore County.

The goal of our Nepalese community is to utilize the subject property as a Temple for the purpose of exercising their religious freedoms. I represented the Nepali community at a hearing before the Honorable John E. Beverungen who approved the use of the property for that purpose. This will be the very first Buddhist Temple in Baltimore County. As the present time, these Baltimore County residents must travel to Hyattsburg, Carroll County to practice their religion.

The case is now on appeal before the Board of Appeals and I am confident that we will prevail at that level. We have plans to restore the building for religious worship as our building is not yet served by well and septic. The new owners have decided to abandon the old well and septic systems and install brand new state of the art systems, which will be designed and approved by Baltimore County. This project should be completed in the very near future.

A great deal of misinformation has been spread and I wanted to share some factual information with you before I get to the purpose of this letter. The reason I'm writing to you is to request police protection for an event that we have scheduled to occur this Saturday, July 25 at 10 am. (Set up will begin at 9 am). The event is an open house picnic fundraiser which will occur on the grounds of our 30 acre estate. Our gathering will occur within a tent that is being provided by Lewis Brothers and portable toilets will be used for the convenience of our guests and families. Tours will be given of our newly renovated building. Our picnic will continue throughout the day on Saturday until 8pm and will continue until day until concluding on Sunday, August 2nd. We hope to have as many as 200 people visit over the course of a 10 hour day. My wife Laura and I will be attending. The events of October will include over the ensuing days.

It is of paramount importance that our Nepali residents have police protection at this event on Saturday and Sunday and maybe over the week depending on how the picnic progresses. I make this request because of statements that were made at our hearing before Judge Beauregard and recent social media posts that cause me great concern. There are examples of events that have occurred across our country where tragedies have occurred that could have been avoided, and local governments were proven negligent. On behalf of the Nepalese community in Baltimore County, I ask that of your administration.

State Senator James Brochin and Councilman David Marks have been actively involved with our Baltimore County Nepalese community. Senator Brochin has spoken with Captain Lawson Myers of our Police Department, Precinct 8. Captain Myers indicated that he would have police protection available for our picnic.

Lastly, there have been allegations that our scheduled picnic violates the conditions of Judge Beauregard's decision. Judge Beauregard recently issued a written statement indicating that the picnic scheduled for this upcoming week in no way violates the terms and conditions of the Order and that the Nepali community is free to have a picnic gathering on their property just like any other Baltimore County citizen could do. I am sure Judge Beauregard would share that opinion with you from you to give him a call.

I am available and would welcome an opportunity to meet with you to discuss this matter in more detail. Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

Timothy M. Maloney

RE: Letter for Timothy Kotroco Dated July 25 2018

Mr. Mohler,

I am in receipt of Mr. Kotroco's request for "police protection" for a "picnic" on a 31 acre tract located at 12231 Harford Rd. Glen Arm, Md 21057 that is subject to the conditions set forth in Judge Beverungen's January 22, 2018 decision. Please note, this decision and the attending conditions are imposed on the ENTIRE 31 acres of the property. I have attached a copy of that decision for your convenience.

It seems Mr. Kotroco finds himself in the surprising position of supporting my request of June 16 to you and your cabinet for a proactive plan to manage this event. I welcome his support to that request.

There are some facts which Mr. Kotroco fails to mention.

On July 23 I met for 30 minutes with Lt. Franzoni of the Parkville Precinct to discuss this very matter. This was the first the Precinct had heard of this. I could only approach the precinct AFTER NACCB,Inc. publicly announced this event which has been promoted regionally and internationally for the last 4 months at least.

I talked with Capt. Martin the following day.

The Nepali American Cultural Center of Baltimore, Inc.'s (NACCB, Inc.) public disclosure of this long planned July 28 event came only after intense community requests for information. This outcry was the result of public disclosure of documentary evidence including videos published by NACCB, Inc. These videos and our letters to you and other officials asking for proactive planning are located on a public folder on Google Drive (USB of contents enclosed).

The letter from Judge Beverungen to which Mr. Kotroco refers is of some interest to us. It was read into the record at the July 19th Hearing but no copies were made available. As a result, Mr. Holzer (opposing Counsel) was unable to test the veracity of what was read or the interpretation of the letter as explained by Mr. Schmidt.

I was instructed by Mr. Holzer to get a copy of that letter. When I contacted Judge Beverungen's Office, it was explained to me that that letter was prepared to go out over the Judge's signature by Mr. Kotroco himself. More disturbing was that I was informed I could not be provided a copy since Judge Beverungen did not keep a file copy.

Protestant Exhibit _____

I have included a copy of an email (followed by certified letter) to the Judge relating my understandings and asking him to correct me if I misunderstood anything. To date, there has been no response.

This "picnic" would appear to be an understatement of what is to take place. Mr. Holzer introduced into evidence some 50 pages of documentation (videos, social media and record of unapproved/uninspected improvements) including the NAACB, Inc. testimony before Judge Beverungen that there was no well or septic on the property and that the plumbing had even been removed from the main building.

Mr. Kotroco is absolutely correct. 110 landowners have joined the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Association (GFWPA) in action to oppose the overuse of this land. You are aware that SHA has gone on record saying that this property should NOT be used to for the purpose to which it has been put since January 2018. It DOES NOT have the required State Highway Access Permit because it does not meet the safety requirements. This was a very specific condition of Judge Beverungen's decision.

You are also aware that Mr. Kevin Wels, Chief, Baltimore Compliance Division, MDE is watching how the County acts to fulfill its statutory requirements to protect the watershed resources within the County.

Mr. Jablon, Judge Beverungen and Mr. Gardina have complete copies of the evidence introduced at the July 19 Hearing. The appellant did not contest this evidence. I am sure you can get those data from one of them.

The videos alone of the NACCB, Inc.'s defiance of County orders and disregard for the required permits for approved and inspected improvements such as well, septic, plumbing, asbestos abatement, wiring, etc. should cause any and all County officials concern. Further, upon last conversation, there is no record the building itself has been approve for public use by the Baltimore County Fire Marshall.

As for Mr. Kotroco's concerns about safety and public order. Seems a little late, but I concur. That was the focus of my conversations with the Commanders at the Parkville Precinct.

As for my community, I have attached a copy of the notice I sent to them about how to behave this weekend. I also gave Capt. Martin my cell phone number to help if any conflicts arise.

Mr. Kotroco should advise his clients that the community will be taking photographs and videos from public or private places, as is their right. Any interference with that right will be treated as an assault.

He should also advise his clients that any trespass on adjoining properties will be treated as such.

If they insist on violating Judge Beverungen's conditions for the ENTIRE property (and Mr. Ghimire made it clear in the ALJ Hearing that it was an intentional act to include the entire 31 acre property in the Special Exception), then they MUST remain on that property.

On multiple documented occasions, Mr. Holzer and the GFWPA have offered to sit down with Mr. Kotroco, the NACCB, Inc. Mr. Marks, Mr. Kach, Sen. Brochin and someone by the name of Bhandari (STILL no idea who he is and why he is involved) only to have met a lack of interest or even failure to meet appointments with excuses sent at later time.

As always, I am available to speak with County Officials about our concerns.

Respectfully,

DeWitt S. Clark, Ph.D.
President
Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association

Proposed List of Conditions for the Operation of a House of Worship at 12231 Harford Road

Include language similar to the following regarding continuation of monitoring the conditions: The Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association (GFWPA), its successors and assigns, to hand off to another community group if necessary in the future, as well as the Nepali American Cultural Center, Inc. (NACCB) or any reincorporations or successors to NACCB, Inc. for the property at 12231 Harford Road.

- A place where 10-15 people a day can come to worship. Maximum 20 visitors per day with controlled entrance and verifiable count.
- No outdoor events, services, festivals, receptions, or fund raisers of any kind; no outdoor concerts or carnivals permitted on the grounds covered by this request. There shall be no outdoor loudspeakers, outdoor microphones, or outdoor pavilions (permanent or temporary, i.e. tents).
- No amplified sound from inside any building that can be heard from outside any building. No sound greater than 55 dB shall emanate from any boundary of the property except that associated with grounds maintenance.
- Use of the property for worship limited from dawn to dusk (or 8AM to 8PM).
- No food kitchen for use by visitors or for providing community assistance.
- No daycare or educational facility for yoga, language, cultural or other classes.

- Well/septic for a maximum of 50 people.
- Petitioner agrees to take corrective action up to and including the drilling of a new well on the Poehler property [12241 Harford Road] who (a) has a well meeting current well standards and (b) prior to construction of the development of 12231 Harford Road [NACCB, Inc. project] undertakes to establish a baseline of well usage and recharge through independent analysis and (c) gives NACCB, Inc. a copy of same and (d) can demonstrate a measurable degradation of that well due to the usage of the NACCB, Inc. well.

- Restrict all improvements to the existing footprint and purpose. Reclaimed buildings to be used only for their original purpose, other than the mansion. No other structures to be converted to a new use. Main building shall house only offices and areas required for worship; no classrooms or kitchen.
- No changes allowed to the exterior of the building such as erecting spires or towers. No changes to existing roof line, columns, or other exterior structures. Exterior features of the building must be maintained as is, except for code requirements and maintenance.

- No recreational facilities. Remove pool and remove volleyball/tennis/basketball court.
- Petitioner agrees to install an on-site water storage tank located underground or inside the building for on-site fire protection, as may be required by Baltimore County as part of its permit review.

- No architectural or landscape outdoor lighting. All lighting required by code to be approved will be limited to light standards limited to 20 feet in height, utilizing cut-off vs. flood lighting. Lighting will be turned off no later than 8 PM.
- Existing stone planter in existing entrance driveway to be retained as part of historic nature of the property and locale.
- Signage consistent with rural and historic nature of the property and locale (e.g. carved wood).
- No structure added to the property (e.g. windmills, cellphone towers, antennas, etc.) that will degrade the historic contribution of the property to the National Historic District.

- No LEFT EXIT out of the property; right turns ONLY. Vehicles shall travel northbound on Harford Road to the traffic circle to access MD 147 south. The driveway will consist of two lanes: one entrance lane; one exit lane directing traffic northbound ONLY.
- Headlight screening for Poehler property [12241 Harford Road] and Foxworthy property [6229 Bonaparte Avenue].
- No improvement to or use of the long-abandoned second entrance to the property, which is located south of the entrance on Harford Road. No additional entrances to be constructed anywhere on the property.
- Parking for 10 vehicles. No vehicle parking on grassy areas.
- All driveway/parking to be constructed as PERMEABLE surfaces.

- All new landscaping to be comprised of native plants as recommended by the Maryland Department of Natural Resources/Wildlife Heritage Services. This proscribes any use of non-native species (plants or animals).
- Regrading to control runoff onto Foxworthy Property [6229 Bonaparte Avenue].

- SHA Access Permit prior to any use of the property.

- Prior to allowing individuals into the building for any reason, Fire Department inspection, and remediation of all identified defects.

- Certificate of Occupancy prior to any use of the property.

- Protestants and their representatives can enter the property for inspection and verification purposes twice per year accompanied by the Resident Agent.
- Petitioners to place money in escrow or obtain a performance bond to execute equitable relief by Protestants.

- Provide a Certificate of Liability Insurance of $1 million per injury to protect members and guests.

I'd also like a refresher on what this is. I don't know exactly where the house is located but I believe a group of Buddhists are trying to build a temple somewhere in LGV that would increase traffic and obviously be more development. I hate to see any further building in that area, any current green space should be preserved in my opinion.

Rebecca - The Villager, February 2018, has an article. Tried to find it on a webpage/FB but didn't find any links. The Villager is sent in the mail but sometimes local stores have copies of local papers; or maybe the local library.

The new owners have been operating an unzoned and unpermitted mid-Atlantic regional community center since they took posession, holding noise amplified events hosting hundreds of cars parked on the grass (leaking into the water table we drink) and over a thousand people at some events. This in spite of verbal and written warnings from zoning that the property was zoned RC2 for one family, one farm.

The noise from their many events could be heard at my property nearly a mile away multiple times. Their attendees were turning around in my driveway. They were finally issued a cease and desist. The noise, traffic and water impact and sewage use of this group - which operated in violation of zoning- has already been of major adverse impact to local residents. It's my experience that past behavior is an indicator of future behavior.

Having failed to respect the community, the zoning laws, the rights of neighbors to enjoy the peaceful use of their own property, and the environment, by operating what amounted to a noisy fairgrounds in known violation of zoning warnings, and with no regard for the existing community, these owners have incurred no trust that they will respect the same in the future.

If you want to preserve the Long Green Valley from further noise, traffic and development and respect its rural conservation, then this zoning exception needs to be opposed.

Rebecca,

If you are opposed to the proposed use of the Bonaparte Property, you are welcome to attend. The owners have wasted the opportunities to hold hands with the community. This CLOSED meeting will only be open to those in the area opposed to the planned usage of the Bonaparte tract.

Dewey Clark, President,

Dewey,

I'm curious what the watershed concerns are of the "Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association" for the Bonaparte Property. I can't seem to find a website or mission statement for the Association. It seems highly inappropriate to send solicitations in the mail to send money to an attorney, when it's not clear what the end goal or legitimacy of this group is.

Furthermore while I appreciate the desire to not have more development or traffic in the area. I think we need to weigh the alternatives of a church versus having a developer come in and build on the property.

Finally I don't understand what a closed door meeting for only those opposed to this group hopes to solve. I've seen nothing but attacks against this group on here and imagine the meeting will be the same. Has anyone actually tried to have an open dialog with the group to voice the concerns of the community. Maybe instead of wasting time and money working against each other we can work together to improve the property and give the group a safe peaceful place for worship.

Thank you for the opportunity to address this.

It is ok if you have your views. I am very accepting of divergent viewpoints.
Why are those of us who are opposed not be allowed the same consideration?

Those I have had the pleasure to discuss this issue with have focused on the issues of traffic, WATER, amplified noise and destruction of the rural nature of the community so many have protected over the last 50 years. If those are attacks, then so be it. To reasonable people they sound like real concerns of consequence.

We invited the Bonaparte property owners to meet with us a number of times last year and even the County Ecumenical Liaison was asked to make contact. They were unresponsive to those invitations. I know for a fact Mr. Kotroco was instructed by the owners to contact our Attorney, Mr. Holzer. Since they were again unresponsive, we had no option but to file the APPEAL today.

And as the Hearing Transcript records. Kris Ghimire lamented that his group squandered the opportunity to engage with the community.

This meeting is to discuss the future of OUR case.

Kris Ghimire happens to agree with me and he has instructed Mr. Kotroco (the Bonaparte Tract Attorney) that it would be highly inappropriate for him to attend this meeting as was his intention. Mr. Kotroco had the decency to inform me that someone had invited him to our closed meeting. Whoever did so had no authority to issue such an invitation and only created an embarrassing situation.

Mr. Ghimire is also going to instruct his members that this is a private meeting held in a private venue paid for by private funds. They are not invited and I have every reason to believe our privacy will be respected.

And Ben, a watershed is the landscape that provides everything that flows into the streams, rivers and ultimately the Bay. It is the very rural nature of this valley that PROTECTS the Gunpowder Falls Watershed. While I would love to take the time to provide you with the opportunity to learn the damage done to once-native trout streams by development and chemical runoff from roads, parking lots and developments, I have other things that need my time. I would suggest you look into the Maryland Master Naturalist program if you are serious about understanding these things.

Have a great weekend. For me I am heading to PA for trail work!

1 Thank

Hi Dewey,

Thank you for taking the time to respond. I actually hadn't made my mind about where I stood on the Bonaparte property yet. I'm not sure why you assume that asking questions equates to being an opposing viewpoint. I don't know about you but when I receive something in the mail asking for money, I'd like to have some idea what it is before just blindly sending in a check.

I'm glad you have found reasonable people to discuss this issue with and I agree these concerns hearing and thus can only follow what's going on through venues like Nextdoor. To be honest much of what I've seen on here hasn't been reasonable.

The concerns I've seen stated here are loud noise, parking of cars, septic, and large events. I live over a mile from a place that I can hear every summer inside my home and out. They host large gatherings of hundreds of people, with countless cars parked on the grass. It's called Boordy Vineyards. Yet I don't see many people, myself included, that would consider Boordy anything but an asset to the community. I fail to see why when given the chance this can't be the same.

It is my understanding from reading the decision of the judge, Mr Ghirmire and his group have no plans to develop the property other than fixing the mansion. Which I think we can all agree that needs to be done. Before putting in a well or septic system they need approval of the County which will require a review of the site and plans to make sure it is feasible. A review from SHA about any traffic issues that may arise. And finally a requirement that they have no amplified noise at any event. It seems to me all of these requirements put forth are reasonable and address many of the concerns of the community.

As for the meeting, I have no problem with anyone getting together to discuss their views. I wish many in the community would get more involved in what is going on around them. However the letter I received in the mail clearly stated that this is a community meeting. It didn't say anything about it being a private event only for those oppose this property. I'm curious why this detail was left out. It also seem unreasonable to me to expect privacy when you send an invitation to seemingly every household in the area.

I agree with Mr Ghirmire that it is unfortunate his group didn't do more to meet with the community before the hearing. However it seems from what you have posted here, that you have an open dialog with him. To me that seems like a good start to have both sides start a dialog to come to a conclusion that everyone can agree to. It's not at all clear to me why the door is shut on talking to Mr Ghirmire and his group just because the hearing has already taken place. You say they have wasted countless opportunities to hold hands with the community. Yet it seems the opportunity that you are organizing has purposely turned them away.

As watersheds go I'm quite familiar with what they are and why they are important. In fact my brother in law works for one of the country's leading non profits working to preserve the Gulf of Mexico watershed and the Mississippi river delta. I've heard more about watersheds in my life time than many would care to. There are quite a few groups in this area looking to preserve property and ensure the security of our agricultural lands and watersheds. I fully support their efforts and care deeply about the environment and our watersheds. What I don't care for is people hiding behind environmental preservation for other motives. So I ask again what are the watershed concerns of the "Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association" and what is it's mission?

☺ 6 Thanks

Dear neighbors and friends,

We have not had an opportunity to meet all of you in person. We are your new neighbors. We met some of you at our property last year. The Greater Kingsville Civic Association helped us with two of these meetings last fall. This is the only civic organization we knew in the area at that time.

We also came to find out about the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association led by phone calls.

Search Nextdoor

We think it is only appropriate to speak with our neighbors directly as some of the misinformation about of our temple (Nepali American Cultural Center) and our future plans are spreading in this and other forums. We have been respectful of people's comments and opinions however some of the comments here are very disheartening and not factual. We have always welcomed an opportunity to discuss some of the concerns raised in this discussion forum and we like to do more so, preferably in person to person. Some of you, we have not met have reached out to us with your love and support, we can't thank you enough. It means the world to us, specially knowing that we're welcome in your neighborhood. We will be a great neighbor and will preserve and protect the area as you would.

The vast majority of our members live only 5 to 10 miles away, right here in Perry Hall. Some of our children go to the same schools and many of us in the area know each other either through a church, local businesses or from workplaces, so we are not strangers. Our temple will be open not only to Hindus and Buddhists but also to people from all faiths or even to people with no religious affiliations to join us in some of our community activities like meditation and yoga. Once we get a chance to speak with you and share our future plans for this site, we are quite sure, you will appreciate our plans for what once a vacant/abandoned mansion soon to become a place of worship.

Knowing this home with a historic importance to our nation, former residence of the US Attorney General and Secretary of the Navy, will be used for a religious purpose instead of other possible commercial usages or even potential developments, the neighbors, we hope, will take comfort in it. We'll separately post how the day to day operations will run once it opens or we can share it with you in person.

We would like to invite you to our "Meeting the Neighbors" event on Sunday, February 25th, at 10 am. We have done quite a bit of cleaning up and maintenance of the property and would love to give you a tour. Please come and visit us next Sunday. We look forward to your love and support in the coming days.

Thank you,

Thank you to the the poster form NACCB. Please read this because it clarifes who is invited to our meeting on Feb 28 and why other parties are excluded. The GFWPA appreciate your willingness to respect our privacy.

bothering to learn "the rest of the story" as Paul Harvey used to say. I reviewed the email account and my PMs very carefully and I find no inquiries from you.

So to whom did you talk to learn the issues of those opposed?

You are correct on one point though. We did omit two words in one line. It should read "The GFWPA has arranged to hold a community meeting for THOSE OPPOSED to update the community....."

Thank you for giving me the opportunity clarify and I believe the intended meaning is consistent with everything that has been written here. We are just volunteers.

I beg you forgiveness.

Of course, no one is stopping YOU from organizing your own meeting. We act on our words.

It is a shame you did not step up 6 months ago to apply your skills at reconciliation. Perhaps you would have saved us all from the current situation. Water under the bridge.

I am very heartened that you are pleased Kris Ghimirie and I have worked hard to keep a line of communications open. You give me another opportunity to remind readers that just because you oppose someone, you do not need to demonize them.

In fact, anyone in business will tell you that such behavior is bad for business.

I know it is popular today to demonize those who think or value differently, but I am too old to play by the new rules. I am old school.

And while we are at it, what do you know about my life and how I have spent it? And yet you appear very willing to prejudge me and my colleagues. Shame on you.

OK. For readers of the Village.

I can understand your confusion. Think it through, who did Michael interview for that article but Kris? And the strategic victory for us was that he could not find fault with our behavior during the hearing despite the best efforts of Mr. Ghimire to ascribe the Sawstikas on the walls as specifically targeting them. On cross he had to admit that this is quite common to abandoned real estate (he is an agent) and he had no reason to believe anyone even knew that his group was buying the property.

Ben, you obviously have chosen your side. Since this is NOT a meeting to air public opinion, there is no point in you trying to attend. I expect you to follow the examples of Mr. Ghimire, Mr. Kotorco and Mr. Montgue (???).

Since you are a fair minded person, I am sure you can our point. Besides, no specific details of our case will be discussed so it would be a waste of anyone's time to think that attending will provide "intelligence". Only embarrassment can result.

Dewey,

As mentioned in my previous post I only recently became aware of this situation through Nextdoor. I took a greater interest upon receiving your flier in the mail. You are correct that I didn't reach out to you privately. I felt that since you were posting on here this was the appropriate forum for discussion with you. It appears that I was mistaken.

For the sake of transparency I haven't reached out to anyone privately on this issue. The Nepali American group sent me a message on here after my initial comment with more information about their cause. I appreciate their willingness to reach out. And in my response I asked them to share their side of the story regarding the noise/permit complaints from last summer. I like you and I assume many others are given pause by those allegations. I hope they take me up on that ask and clear the air with their future neighbors.

I'm not sure why you are insistent on ascribing me to a "side" for asking questions. You ask who I've asked about the concerns of those opposed, well I've come here twice now to ask you directly for that information. What your side represents. It's clear from your response that you have no willingness to have that discussion. I find that regrettable and unfortunate. I wish you the best of luck.

You are correct the weather doesn't look good for this weekend. I hope you have safe and enjoyable weekend regardless.

Scott,

RC-2, the most restricted zoning in the County. The previous owner tried several times to subdivide and rezone to no avail. And there lies the rub.

Last year the current owners hosted events with 1000 with cars from at least four states. There is a long record of County enforcement actions which were ignored. While Kris and I have agreed that it is "water under the bridge" and the only real question is "where do we go from here", we have yet to see meaningful action that would preclude such in the future.

We have no idea what the full strategic plan for the 30 acre site is. And we have no reason to be privy to it.

The problem is I am old enough to know that past behavior is the best predictor of future behavior. And the area probably cannot even support the water and sewer load that they have said would be needed for the 150 people they are planning for at any one time. There was testimony that people 1/2 mile from the tract already have well yields of only 2.5 GPM. And those wells are over 200 feet deep.

So no matter who owned the property we would oppose any use for other than what it is, as for a single residence.

Personally, I think the current owners were ill served. They did not know the history and backbone of this community when it comes to defending the rural nature of this region, they did not due any due diligence with the County and they did not even know about how permissive the hunting regs are out here.

I have NO idea who advised them to ignore the County requirements and enforcement actions. That was just silly.

No idea how they will react to the NG firing range that was recently a topic on this board.

But our position would be the same whether it is the YMCA, BSA, GSA or any other large organization with over 1000 members who intend to use it as they wish. And yes, their membership number does not comport with the design parameters for their infrastructure (150 people).

They are highly unlikely to "pull out". You would have to ask them how they are funding this.

It is just to bad that they squandered the many opportunities with which they were presented to engage the community until now. Better late than never.

In my call with Kris Ghimirie (and yes, we are on first name) yesterday, he was disappointed that his attorney did not call Mr. Holzer. I told Kris that lack of communication left us no option but to file the Appeal. He was saddened but understood. So it goes.

But, the missed opportunities for engagement are NOT on us.

BUT, Kris and I will continue to talk to each other and look for common ground.

(OOPS, wife is coming down the stairs, gotta go!)

John,

I had a similar question/concern it's nearly impossible to find any information on the county website. But what I could find said the exception is granted to the owner of the property not to the property itself. So I would assume that means it's not transferable. Hopefully if someone knows for sure they could answer that question.

Also as far as I could tell from the judgement the exception is only for having religious gatherings on the property, I believe if a developer wanted to change the property they would need a different exception or rezoning. Again not an expert on this so hopefully someone who knows more could come provide a definitive answer but that's what I could find.

Regina,

We are not invited to this meeting as Dewey mentioned that it is for those who are against our temple. But we would like to welcome you to our property on 25th Feb, at 10 am. We have meet and greet with neighbors.

(/profile/26074831/), Long Green Valley · 17 Feb

Thanks for helping Regina. BTW, I do not discourage anyone for visiting the Bonaparte Tract. (sorry, I did parse my words there) (Is this Kris writing?)

I hope people are paying attention to how the NACC and I talk with each other. There is no need for animus. It is simply a disagreement on land use.

Regina, the GFWPA meeting will be held at 7PM on Feb 28 at Long green Valley Volunteer Fire Company. There will be an agenda handed out at the meeting. We will use 5 speakers of no more than 5 minutes each to explain different aspects of where we are. After the presentations there will be time for questions. But please understand, this is not about airing complaints or seeking instruction on neighborly relations. The GFWPA are adults and do not need such counsel.

At the end of the meeting we hope to understand what those opposed to the planned use of the Bonaparte tract consider negotiable, non negotiable and non issues. What are deal breakers and deal makers is of real importance to us. We do not expect a consensus on these; but we need to have a sense of where the community opposition stands.

Nuts. I am not working again!

(/profile/26426801/), Long Green Valley · 17 Feb

As a property owner just down the road it would not matter what GROUP wanted to set up shop there it is not an appropriate location. We currently only pump 2.5 gallons of water from our well which is over 200 ft deep and it has gone dry 3 times over the past 5 years. Fortunately it recovered within 8 hours. We can only run 1 water using item at a time. You either do laundry or shower. No one can flush the toilet when you shower. Now until you live under those conditions you won't understand this opposition. We already have 2 churches, a camp, a school, the Perennial Farm, Boordy Vineyards and Cavanos pulling from the already limited resources in this valley. We don't need an additional 100 to 1000 people pulling from the limited aquifers in the area. This property is zoned for one family.

I am unfamiliar with Long Green Valley or your water system but it sounds like even without additional building in the area, you have some real problems. Shouldn't the county make sure your water system is functioning appropriately?

Anna, its well water, each property has its own well. The county does nothing to protect our well water.

(/profile/4033307/), Long Green Valley · 17 Feb

Anna, residents in this area have wells for water and septic systems for waste. Gas lines are not available to all who live here so if we prefer to cook and heat with gas, it is up to us to procure propane. These items are individual expenses we are willing to pay for to live in the area in addition to the state and federal taxes that we all pay regardless of where we live.
For these reasons, building and developing has been limited. We are, in effect, attempting to protect the resources we have in order to maintain our ability to live here.
It is a sensitive issue because we are dealing with a faith based group of people who have unknown intentions to the community. The issue is not with their faith, culture or skin pigment. It is purely a matter of numbers. Will they host so many people on their property at one time, that it will cause the rest of the community to suffer for lack of water? In times of ample rainfall and snowfall, the aquifers become amply filled. In times of drought, we must all limit our usage to what is essential only.
I hope you now have a better understanding of the concern we have.

3 Thanks

(/profile/26074831/), Long Green Valley · 17 Feb

Anna,

The only time for us to be heard is before permits are issued. After that we have none, zero zilch input into the process. This is why we need to ensure the Court is fully aware of the circumstances. In most cases, the Court has no mental picture at all of the region before them and WE have to paint it for them. There are no fairness police who are going to step in; no one in the County or State is paid to look after these issues. It is and always has been up to the local community to make its case about available resources to the Courts. And the last thing most of us want is for the County to have to run sewer and water out here like they did at Jacksonville as a result of the old Nike base there. Then there were WILL be tract housing development.

Good questions. Keep them up.

Would be polite to have a name to correspond with.

But no, we do not have a website. We are old school.. We have spent all of our resources on things directly related to our case.

Now, would you be willing to share the 5-year strategic plan for your site and group? Could you describe precisely where your membership lives, specifically how many live directly in the impacted area and how many come from Crofton, Rosedale and Parkville? The sign-in sheet for the property owners at the Hearing had NO ONE from your group living in the area and members all the way down to Crofton. Just Peter Martin who could not find his way home and had to admit he did not live within the impacted area, and Daniel Montague from Fork United Methodist.

And thank you for giving me the opportunity to emphasize to our readers that since all our expenses to this point (in excess of $6k) have been covered by our board, and since we will handle NO outside money (all donations are mailed directly to the Escrow account set up in Carroll's office) we have no need to waste money on incorporation. We will continue to fund all printing and mailing costs out of our own pockets. All donated funds (and thank you to those who have been sending checks to Carroll) will go directly to the legal expenses.

Dewey

See below this is one of many messages in our support we are receiving... who are you representing?

Hello,
I am a neighbor who is happy to have you join our community. I have lived under the shadow of the mansion most of my life and am thrilled to see the mansion be restored. A center with meditation and yoga and peaceful worshippers only adds to the quality of life in Glen Arm. Many of my friends and family are also your supporters and look forward to meeting you and touring the mansion on the 25th.
My son and his friend are AP honors students at Perry Hall High School. They have a business designing websites and would like to design one for the Nepali American Cultural Center as a gift to you.

Just got this through PM. ?????? Kris, are we still meeting this week?

"Mr Dewey,

You know we tried to contact you from the day of hearing... even after the decision... you ignored our calls... now you are blaming our attorney who emailed you at least 5 times and you didn't respond? Sir you know we are there to STAY and will go upto supreme court if need for our rights. Again... we are trying to be nice and want to work things work out with neighbors.... but if you want to take it all the way we are ready too.... We will talk to our neighbors and not necessarily need you to talk with them.

NACC

*we can talk to neighbors and don't necessarily need your help to talk to them...."

Does anyone remember me saying that the Bonaparte property owners needed my permission to talk to anyone?

FWIW, Kris and I talked twice. Once when we agreed to keep a line of communication open and that he would instruct his attorney (Mr. Kotroco) to contact our attorney so the "grown ups" could figure out if there was common ground. I later called Kris to say I appreciated his professionalism.

The second call was when I called Kris to let him know Mr. Kotroco informed me someone without authority had invited him to the the Feb 28 meeting. And Kris agreed it was inappropriate for Mr. Kotroco or any of his members to attend that meeting. All these calls are logged on my Comcast account.

Kris expressed dismay that Mr. Kotroco did NOT contact Mr. Holzer as instructed. It was also odd that Mr. Kotroco contacted me on the final day the appeal could be filed. No idea why this is so, but it is a shame.

FWIW, I suspect their reference to the Supreme Court has to do with a recent federal law that allows religious organizations to file suit alleging the state has discriminated against them in zoning. This is why at the Special Exception Hearing they tried to introduce the notion that there was religious or cultural intolerance related to their purchase of the property.

In your contacts with this group, PLEASE do not do ANYTHING that they can use as a "claim" of intolerance. Even at their open house. I know some of you are upset, but you must not play into their hand. Walk away rather than get into an altercation.

As already noted, our cross forced Mr. Ghimire to acknowledge he had no basis in fact for such a claim. And our entire objection is based on nothing other than proper land use.

I am thankful to the owners for providing the opportunity for me to bring this to the attention of

Also looking at addresses of those here, there are a few that have been complaining that don't live as close to the Bonaparte address as many others do that this will affect. There was an earlier "supporter" on another thread that lives past Greenwoods, and this will not affect his groundwater; and like the current hot discussion on the board now, it is likely that your well won't be impacted living more than 1/4 mile away. When Cavano expanded and both nearby activities on Mt Vista road expanded, MY well yield went down along with those on my street because I live closer.

This will not impact Kris Ghimire's water because he has public water in Perry Hall. In fact the people using the property don't live here (many out of state license plates) will not be supporting the local merchant community, local farms, or adding any benefit to the local economy. This effort will not be adding any local jobs. In short, they intend to drain the local community and resources and not give anything back.

(/profile/14041557/), Long Green Valley · 18 Feb

And to add... this is not an issue of intolerance. This is an issue of the law, legal use of a property, community impact, ignoring a cease and desist letter- while Ghimire (letter recipient) a commercial real estate developer licensed in MD- should have known better. If they know the law and chose to ignore it, we have every basis to be concerned that any future use will also ignore the law.

Folks, This has nothing to do with religion or beliefs. This has to do with resources such as water. The aquifers in this area are already stretched with supporting Baltimore County Maintenance facility (the old Grumnan plant), Ulla popkin, Sun Automation (the previous 4 locations have 7 wells to support their needs), Glen Meadows (have 2 wells to support their needs), Cavanos Nursery, The Perennial Farm, 3 churches, Reedemer School, Beachmont Camp, Richardson Farm, etc. We do not need any additional strain on the water resources in this area. Go read some of the reports that MDE has put out on the piedmont region(our water supply). Wise up before you have no water!

Dr. Karki, if NextDoor is anything like Facebook, it possibly viewed the account as a business or organization account, and therefore removed it, since there were no personal names attached and the person using it was acting as an organization, using a personal account. The person who owned the account should have received an email from NextDoor in regards to the action take... It might be better to for you to post it, as you are a resident in this area and part of the group, as that should prevent it from being removed. I'm still seeing the actual event invite however.

I'm re-posting Kris Ghimire's post from this morning since it was removed. Please see below...

Dewey,
This is Kris Ghimire posting this time. Due to the restrictions on Next Door for number of accounts for a property we share account with other board members. It seems like you have been in communication with other board members of NACC. It looks like you have been very active on this forum ...all good :) I am catching up on some of the posts as I am new to it and reading some of your the comments for the first time. I am shocked to read your post about "NACC wasted time to work with you before deciding to file an appeal". I called you and spoke with you --had a very cordial conversation as I can remember. One of my board members, Dr. Karki wrote to you on Jan 24th and Mr. Krotoco wrote to you and other neighbors on Jan 22. You never got back to Dr. Karki and you replied to Mr. Krotoco saying you will be get back to him after speaking with your team which was never followed up. These communications took place well before the judge even approved our request.

As I said from the day one we are looking for common grounds and looking to work with you and neighbors. I don't want to engage in the war of words as Anna said in the thread. As reasonable people we can discuss things that are important to each of us. I came to this country knowing it's the best place in the planet and truly believe in it and ...my wife and I have lived the true American dream. My wife is a devout catholic and our 3 sons go to catholic schools. My next door neighbors sent their daughters to Redeemer who I am good friend with. So fittingly - I hope not a coincidence, one of the leading institutions in MD recently recognized me and my wife with a "Good Neighbor Award". Not to boast anything about the award but it does speaks a volume about the neighbor you are going to see in coming days. I promise we will answer all your questions on Sunday. Please come and join us on Sunday at 3pm.

When I was speaking with one of my good friends who is a pastor at one of the Catholic churches in Bel Air about our temple, he quoted Pope Francis " Love of neighbors begin with love of God" . I felt like I never heard more beautiful sentence that describes our hope and faith in one GOD, does not matter what name you call it by. With this ...would love to see you on Sunday.
With Love,
Kris

Footnote #2. A special exception has been granted by Baltimore County for the Bonaparte property to be legally used as a place of religious worship. A change of occupancy has not yet been issued by Baltimore County because the years of vandalism done to the Bonaparte mansion have not yet been repaired. Once the repairs are completed, Baltimore County will issue an occupancy permit.

Footnote #3. There have been no unpermitted illegal multi-day large gatherings on the property. There was a fundraising event held one day last summer where many hundreds of benefactors joined the owners on the property on site to raise money for the needed repairs to the buildings on the property. All attendees parked on the property. Some of the attendees, not sure of the property's location, may have turned down the wrong driveway when trying to find the Bonaparte mansion. That is because there is no proper sign marking the property. Before opening up for religious worship, the owners intend to place a sign at the entrance to mark the driveway.

It is a residential property located on 30 acres. It is improved with a mansion home, a caretaker's residence, a swimming pool complex, a tennis court area and a large historic horse barn. The Redeemer Christian School is located near or nearly adjacent to the Bonaparte property where 250 school children commute to the school in the morning and then leave in the afternoon. It is a K-12 school with many employees, a field house for sporting events and other school buildings and parking lots. The Beachmont Christian Camp is located next to the Redeemer Christian school. Beachmont is a commercial venture offering camps for children across Maryland. They offer swimming lessons and a large corn maze which attracts thousands of people each summer. Our religious use is very minimal compared to the large commercial Christian ventures located nearby.

Footnote #6. The Bonaparte mansion does sit atop a hill. It is very well buffered with existing vegetation around its perimeter and cannot be seen or may hardly be seen from Harford road or surrounding properties. Religious activities, consisting of meditation and/or prayers will occur within the mansion, once the building is renovated and opens for services. There will be no outside noise relating to religious worship. There are four religious festivals, similar to Christmas & Easter celebrations in the Christian faith, spread out over the course of the year where some outside activities may take place, weather permitting. These occasional festivals may be attended by several hundred people, far less than what one finds at Christian services during holidays. There will be no "disruption to the lives of the people throughout the valley time and time again" as suggested by Mr. Clark in his letter.

Footnote #7. Code enforcement issued a citation against the owners of the property for operating a church when no church or religious worship was actually occurring on the property. Once the code inspector was invited to tour the house and grounds, he quickly realized that he was wrong in prematurely issuing the citation because the house and grounds were not even able to be occupied. The code inspector apologized to the owners for issuing the citation without first investigating the complaint. The inspector relied on inaccurate information supplied to his office by neighbors. As of this date, the property is still not ready for use as repairs are still ongoing. As of this date, the owners have not been able to use the mansion. There is no active cease and desist Order.

Footnote #7. No religious events are taking place on the property as of yet. Baltimore County, after a very lengthy hearing attended by many members and neighbors, has approved the property for religious worship and as soon as all repairs are completed and our occupancy permit is issued, services may begin. The Bonaparte owners and their attorney have reached out to Mr. Clark on many occasions to address the neighborhood concerns, but Mr. Clark has refused to reply or set up a meeting with the ownership group.

Footnote #8. The entrance to Bonaparte is located between twisting turns on Harford Road. This is beneficial as traffic slows down along this stretch of Harford Road, affording an opportunity to safely enter and exit the property. The entrance has been there for many years and no changes are proposed unless Baltimore County or the SHA require upgrades.

Footnote #9. The 38 parking spaces shown along the existing driveway are more than sufficient to meet the owner's parking demands. On weekdays, it is estimated that 5 to 10 cars will visit the property and up to 20 cars will visit on the weekend. (Hence the 20 spaces provided) These cars will come at the same time. This is far less than the 500 cars per day dropping off and picking up students at he Redeemer Christian school and the hundreds of people visiting the corn maze at Beachmont on a daily basis during the summer.

Footnote #10. The owners of the Bonaparte property have hired well and septic experts to assist them in installing a brand new septic system and a new well. The owners are not relying on the existing septic or well. All new services will be installed, inspected and approved by Baltimore County. The owners have 30 acres of land to work with so the well and septic will be no issue whatsoever to surrounding properties. In addition, the property will be used in a very limited fashion and the water and septic usage will be minimal. Certainly, the well and septic use will be miniscule compared to the 250 school children attending all day classes each day at the neighboring Redeemer Christian School and the Beachmont Christian Camp where campers come from across Maryland to attend day camps.

Conclusion: The Owners of The Bonaparte property continue to request an opportunity to meet with our neighbors. Our requests to meet are rejected by Mr. Clark, in fact we were told to stay away. Any neighbors who are interested to meet with the owners may reply to this email and a meeting will be set up with you. The owners look forward to becoming a part of this community.

Bonaparte Property - Meet and greet with our new neighbors

Dear neighbors and friends,

We have not had an opportunity to meet all of you in person. We are your new neighbors. We met some of you at our property last year. The Greater Kingsville Civic Association helped us with two of these meetings last fall. This is the only civic organization we knew in the area at that time. We also came to find out about the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association led by Mr. Dewey Clark at the hearing. We have then spoken with Mr. Clark a few times via e-mail and phone calls.

We think it is only appropriate to speak with our neighbors directly as some of the misinformation about of our temple (Nepali American Cultural Center) and our future plans are spreading in this and other forums. We have been respectful of people's comments and opinions however some of the comments here are very disheartening and not factual. We have always welcomed an opportunity to discuss some of the concerns raised in this discussion forum and we like to do more so, preferably in person to person. Some of you, we have not met have reached out to us with your love and support, we can't thank you enough. It means the world to us, specially knowing that we're welcome in your neighborhood. We will be a great neighbor and will preserve and protect the area as you would.

The vast majority of our members live only 5 to 10 miles away, right here in Perry Hall. Some of our children go to the same schools and many of us in the area know each other either through a church, local businesses or from workplaces, so we are not strangers. Our temple will be open not only to Hindus and Buddhists but also to people from all faiths or even to people with no religious affiliations to join us in some of our community activities like meditation and yoga. Once we get a chance to speak with you and share our future plans for this site, we are quite sure, you will appreciate our plans for what once a vacant/abandoned mansion soon to become a place of worship.

Knowing this home with a historic importance to our nation, former residence of the US Attorney General and Secretary of the Navy, will be used for a religious purpose instead of other possible commercial usages or even potential developments, the neighbors, we hope, will take comfort in it. We'll separately post how the day to day operations will run once it opens or we can share it with you in person.

We would like to invite you to our "Meeting the Neighbors" event on Sunday, February 25th, at 3 pm. Address is 12231 Harford rd. We have done quite a bit of cleaning up and maintenance of the property and would love to give you a tour. Please come and visit us next Sunday. We look forward to your love and support in the coming days.

Thank you,

Nepali American Cultural Center (NACC)

I think this temple is a great addition to the community. We have many many churches in the area and they are perfect for this rural setting, providing similar help and support to all faiths. I look forward to their continued good works and admire their efforts to preserve the Bonaparte property

Thank 19 Thanks Kris Ghimire, Long Green Valley · 17 Feb

Walter,
Thank you for your kind words. Yes we have no plans to add any development. We are planning to renovate the building and use it as a place of worship where anyone and everyone are welcome

Thank 4 Thanks Mike Rollins, Long Green Valley · 17 Feb

Residential area, not commercial, well and septic up here, also between two rivers, have to see what the EPA says about it as well

Thank 4 Thanks Thomas Stehr, Carroll Manor · 17 Feb

What is the address of the location? I'm not familiar with the Bonaparte property location. Just curious. Good luck with your future endeavors.

Thank 2 Thanks Jennifer Pecora, Carroll Manor · 17 Feb

Did Not mean to Thank, as I strongly disagree with this view!

Thank Keith Merrill, Redcoat · 17 Feb

Namaste, will be looking forward to it in the near future !

Thank 2 Thanks Pete Smith, Long Green Valley · 17 Feb

It's hard for me to imagine easier, more compatible neighbors than a Buddhist temple and community center. Good luck with your project, and with persuading some others.

Thank 19 Thanks Kris Ghimire, Long Green Valley · Edited 17 Feb

Jennifer, We respect your view and would like to welcome you to the property on 25th Feb, at 10 am should you have any questions. We know few people are spreading wrong information about our plans. We would love to clarify any confusion and listen your concerns.
Keith, Thank you and Namaste. We can't wait...
Pete, Thank you for your kind words.

Thank 3 Thanks Anna Kirkley, Blenfield · 17 Feb

I feel this is a gracious invitation by the NACC to reach out to the surroundings communities. If you are not interested, or have oppositions to their zoning request, I find it a bit rude to use a good faith invitation to complain. There are several other topics already posted here for that conversation. Whether you agree or disagree with the zoning request or whether it is upheld or not, the NACC owns the property and has every right to be there. It would behoove everyone to remain civil, neighborly, inclusive, and work together to create an environment that is, at the very least, not antagonistic. Let the NACC extend their invite without creating undue tension.

Thank 25 Thanks Kris Ghimire, Long Green Valley · 17 Feb

Anna, Thank you for your kind words, really appreciate it!!!

Thank 5 Thanks Richard Liddick, Long Green Valley · 17 Feb

What's the big deal? There is already a large church school complex just around the corner. This group had repaired a run down eyesore and is now maintaining the property. Live and let live. I think it a nice gesture that they are attempting to reach out to the people in the community.

Thank 18 Thanks Jennifer Pecora, Carroll Manor · 17 Feb
I usually do not post, so was confused and "Thanked" Mike Rollins, whose opinions I strongly disagree with. Just clarifying that point.

Thank 4 Thanks Anna Kirkley, Blenfield · 17 Feb
@jennifer You can just re-click where it says "thanked" and it will remove it.

Thanks, Anna. I figured that out, but only after posting.

I only posted, as I did not want anyone to think I shared that opinion.

As a property owner just down the road it would not matter what GROUP wanted to set up shop there it is not an appropriate location. We currently only pump 2.5 gallons of water from our well which is over 200 ft deep and it has gone dry 3 times over the past 5 years. Fortunately it recovered within 8 hours. We can only run 1 water using item at a time. You either do laundry or shower. No one can flush the toilet when you shower. Now until you live under those conditions you won't understand this opposition. We already have 2 churches, a camp, a school, the Perennial Farm, Boordy Vineyards and Cavanos pulling from the already limited resources in this valley. We don't need an additional 100 to 1000 people pulling from the limited aquifers in the area. This property is zoned for one family.

Thank Susan Hammond, Kingsville · 17 Feb
Are you able to share this invitation to the Kingsville, MD FB page?

Thanked! 1 Thank Dew Clark, Long Green Valley · 17 Feb
Joyce, as crass is it is, there is an advantage to being first.

While people point to Beachmont, they do not know the legal fight that ensued and the resulting restrictions (covenants and deed). Also, as you point out, in the 50 years since that fight, this area has filled in a great deal and the aquifer is a serious concern. Not to mention what happens when an additional load starts drawing the polluted water form the old Nike base on Stockdale Rd. This issue is not about words, it is about impacts.

And not doing thorough research on the capacity of the area to support such a infrastructure as well as not understanding the long history of resolve and commitment of this community to preserve the rural nature of our region is on whoever was advising the NACC. While I feel they were ill served, it is my job to stand for the community. Just as it is Kris's job to stand for his. I just think he is holding a bad hand.

This is why a Court will likely decide. And emotion has no impact on them.

If anyone REALLY thinks Beachmont got a free pass, you are not doing your homework.

This community is tough; and I mean in the sense of properly annealed piece of steel tough. We are understanding, but we will defend what has been long defended. So that future generations can enjoy this region..

Kris and I are searching for that common ground. But as I said, after Mr. Kotroco failed to call Mr. Holzer by Friday this week, , we had no choice but to file the appeal. Maybe Mr Kotroco's failure was a tactic in the hopes we would let the deadline pass, but we waited to hear from him until the last possible minute.

Regards,

Dewey

"BYKOTA" Senior Center in Towson. BYKOTA means "Be ye kind one to another". Just something to keep in mind during discussions of the Bonaparte property. I don't mean to be "preachy", I have to remind myself of this all the time. I wish nothing other than the best resolution for everyone involved. Jesus said "Love one another as I have loved you".

Mr Dewey,
We are still looking for an answer to this question:
Is the whole association (Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association) opposed to our plans or are the comments posted here your personal opinion? you should clarify this to members of YOUR Association?

Thank Dew Clark, Long Green Valley · 18 Feb

Just got this through PM. ?????? Kris, are we still meeting this week?

"Mr Dewey,

You know we tried to contact you from the day of hearing... even after the decision... you ignored our calls... now you are blaming our attorney who emailed you at least 5 times and you didn't respond? Sir you know we are there to STAY and will go upto supreme court if need for our rights. Again... we are trying to be nice and want to work things work out with neighbors.... but if you want to take it all the way we are ready too.... We will talk to our neighbors and not necessarily need you to talk with them.

NACC
*we can talk to neighbors and don't necessarily need your help to talk to them...."
Does anyone remember me saying that the Bonaparte property owners needed my permission to talk to anyone?

FWIW, I suspect their reference to the Supreme Court has to do with a recent federal law that allows religious organizations to file suit alleging the state has discriminated against them in zoning. This is why at the Special Exception Hearing they tried to introduce the notion that there was religious or cultural intolerance related to their purchase of the property.

In your contacts with this group, PLEASE do not do ANYTHING that they can use as a "claim" of intolerance. Even at their open house. I know some of you are upset, but you must not play into their hand. Walk away rather than get into an altercation.

As already noted, our cross forced Mr. Ghimire to acknowledge he had no basis in fact for such a claim. And our entire objection is based on nothing other than proper land use.

I am thankful to the owners for providing the opportunity for me to bring this to the attention of our readers.

I am truly shocked at some of the disrespect being shown here. The NACC is part of our community and while I understand you have fundamental differences and are in a tense situation, which is understandable, please try to act civil. It's embarrassing.

Anna,

Please be specific.

Joyce Mason, Long Green Valley · 18 Feb
Anna, this has nothing to do with "fundamental differences", it has to do with land use and the protecting our ability to continue to have water at our homes. When you have to rely on well water it's not guaranteed like public water. When the aquifers become over used and dry up there is no more water. I live just down Harford Rd from this property. I went to the hearing back in January and no one there I talked with identified being there because of "fundamental differences".

I have been there many times before all this comotion on doing something to it. Its a home not a church. I am against what is being planned for i we do not need a place like that in the country. The Mansion should be more of a Museum Bed and Breakfast. The house should remain the way it looks inside and out. Your going to ruin the History of the mansion besides bringing too much traffic to the area. I have lived in Kingsville 60 years I have many memories of the Mansion

Thanked! 6 Thanks Mike Habersack, Long Green Valley · 18 Feb

And if Beachmont planned expansion, I would be contrary to it as well. No more expansion.

Thanked! 7 Thanks Anna Kirkley, Blenfield · 18 Feb

Dew, I am not getting drawn into a war of words with you. It solves nothing and only perpetuates more argument. People know how to read and can see your comments for themselves. As you said yourself, "Walk away rather than get into an altercation."

Thank 5 Thanks Dew Clark, Long Green Valley · 18 Feb

Anna,

I agree with everything you just said. Thank you.

Anna Kirkley, Blenfield · Edited 18 Feb

Dew, I was not living here at the time. In fact, I was only 18. But I'm not disagreeing with your points, nor do I wish for anything other than an amicable outcome. The zoning board made their decision, and as with any other decision of that matter, there is an avenue for you to appeal--which you are doing.

To be clear, I have no dog in this fight. But whatever the outcome of the appeal, you will be neighbors regardless and unless you want tension indefinitely, maybe everyone should just handle this in accordance with the county's process and work together from there.

Thank 4 Thanks Ida Thompson, Long Green Valley · 18 Feb

Unlike many of these folks here, we live right down Harford Rd from your new place of meditation and community and we welcome you. Contrary to the rumors that are circulating, we haven't heard any loud music and cavorting into the late evening nor have we been any more inconvenienced by traffic jams than we are when Redeemer kids are going to and leaving school or when St. John is having church, school or other functions. We are excited to come up and visit and meet our new neighbors. We will be at your open house and hope to come to future events. This is a simple case of NIMBY.

Thank 16 Thanks Mike Habersack, Long Green Valley · 18 Feb

Dew- boards like this tend to devolve into lobbing shots and are all heat with no light. Tom, Morgan, myself were the first locals at the initial meeting in August as were David M and Chris M. The Bonaparte folks and their lawyer were there and focused solely on renovations to the old building and paint. We toured the building and I left wondering how 500+ visitors used the one jon I saw. They wanted to reach out to the community back then and it appears they will be doing that next week. They even discussed signing a covenant with the neighbors that no more than 20 people would be there a ever. A few weeks later, they had an event with more than 200 guests.

Odd timing for a warm and fuzzy open house- they would have been smarter to do it last fall, but now see that there is considerable opposition and are late with any olive branch. After the first meeting, their Facebook went dark (so much for openness) but we have all archived images online prior to going dark that prove they have no intention on staying small. I have their donor list and amounts, and they're not as poor as the GoFundMe they offer for public consumption.

Also- research FB to see who supports whom, follow the money,and you will learn who supports this and who does not. Focus on events, dinners, donors, who is there. We're watching, and the internet never forgets.

Thanked! 6 Thanks Dew Clark, Long Green Valley · 18 Feb

Mike,

It is all ok with me. This is America and everyone is entitled to their views until it conflicts with someone else's rights. And that is what the Courts are for. It is a shame someone seems to have removed Kris Ghimirie from the equation. We were really trying to find common ground. To quote Kurt Vonnegut "So it goes".

As do you, we require more than fine words. And the Court will force that issue. Please introduce yourself on the 28th!

What it comes down to is that we live where we live because we want to live a rural lifestyle. Ours wells and septic cannot take the potential stress from another large facility. Though it has been stated they will have only small groups at the facility, the laws in place have been disregarded when hundreds of people came to the facility on numerous occasions, blaring music. How can we believe anything going forward with this facility will comply with the law? I do not appreciate being told "we are here to stay and will take this to the Supreme Court." The zoning was residential when the property was purchased. Don't pretend to be peacefully trying to integrate in the community,while using words that reflect bullying.

Thanked! 10 Thanks Carla Flaim, Carroll Manor · 18 Feb

Jane Shipley. Why start a new post with your feelings rather than hijack an open invitation for a meet and greet. Everyone has important point of views and valid concerns to share but no need to usurp this thread. I am so disappointed in the community as a whole that there has been so much negativity and 'NIMBY'.

Dewey, This is Kris Ghimire posting this time. Due to the restrictions on Next Door for number of accounts for a property we share account with other board members. It seems like you have been in communication with other board members of NACC. It looks like you have been very active on this forum ...all good :) I am catching up on some of the posts as I am new to it and reading some of your the comments for the first time. I am shocked to read your post about "NACC wasted time to work with you before deciding to file an appeal". I called you and spoke with you --had a very cordial conversation as I can remember. One of my board members, Dr. Karki wrote to you on Jan 24th and Mr. Krotoco wrote to you and other neighbors on Jan 22. You never got back to Dr. Karki and you replied to Mr. Krotoco saying you will be get back to him after speaking with your team which was never followed up. These communications took place well before the judge even approved our request.

As I said from the day one we are looking for common grounds and looking to work with you and neighbors. I don't want to engage in the war of words as Anna said in the thread. As reasonable people we can discuss things that are important to each of us. I came to this country knowing it's the best place in the planet and truly believe in it and ...my wife and I have lived the true American dream. My wife is devout catholic and our 3 sons go to catholic schools. My next door neighbors sent their daughters to Redeemer who I am good friend with. So fittingly - I hope not a coincidence, one of the leading institutions in MD recently recognized me and my wife with a "Good Neighbor Award". Not to boast anything about the award but it does speaks a volume about the neighbor you are going to see in coming days. I promise we will answer all your questions on Sunday. Please come and join us on Sunday at 3pm.

When I was speaking with one of my good friends who is a pastor at one of the Catholic churches in Bel Air about our temple, he quoted Pope Francis " Love of neighbors begin with love of God" . I felt like I never heard more beautiful sentence that describes our hope and faith in one GOD, does not matter what you call it. With this ...would love to see you on Sunday.

With Love,
Kris

Once we complete renovations, fulfill the county requirements by taking care of sewage, water and traffic issues, we will start the Mandir and then we will make plans to start Meditation and Yoga classes and they will be offered to everyone interested, specially our neighbors as we highly value our neighbors and neighborhood.

I am thrilled that you are a part of our community. I can't come Sunday but look forward to a future visit and to attending classes!

Thank 2 Thanks Patricia Sier, Sunshine/New Cut · 1d ago

I am happy to welcome all faiths and nationalities to my community. However the main issue is according to your website that that is currently under construction it is stated that it will be one of the largest Hindu Buddah temples in the United States and will be welcoming hundreds of visitors a day. How do you expect to handle traffic coming and going from that address that is at one of the worst sections of Harford Rd.? Not to mention septic and well water. I thought is was zoned residential. What a negative impact on the community who live nearby, and I live within one mile of the site unlike the others who are posting who do not!!!!

Thank 9 Thanks John Sottile Jackson, Carroll Manor · 1d ago

Please direct me to the website you are referring to where they will be welcoming hundreds of visitors a day. BTW - if you didn't want posts from people not directly affected then this post should have been limited. Instead it is wide spread which invites everyone to have an opinion.

Thank 1 Thank Patricia Sier, Sunshine/New Cut · 1d ago

Here is the link : http://webcache.googleusercontent.com/search?q=cache:HCAs2ZVyTUoJ:greatdesignllc.com/index.php/component/spsimpleportfolio/item/5-hindu-buddha-temple+&cd=11&hl=en&ct=clnk&gl=us

The project is referred to by two names: Nepali American Cultural Center but also as Hindu Buddha Mandir. This link is to the web design company that is putting together the page for the temple. You can click on View Project and it will take you to the property. It clearly states what I previously posted.

Thank 5 Thanks Linda Eminizer, Long Green Valley · 1d ago

You're right Patricia Sier. Here is the verbiage from that site... "Hindu Buddha Mandir is one of the largest Hindu temples in the U.S. and is widely known for welcoming hundreds of visitors every day, regardless of their backgrounds, to its religious services, family festivals, and devotional retreats. Located at Baltimore, Hindu Buddha Mandir is an integral member of the local interfaith community, working with other faith-based institutions to provide charitable works and strengthen the common bonds between all religions."

Thank 3 Thanks John Sottile Jackson, Carroll Manor · 1d ago

Patricia - thank you. That is something concerning and hope it can be explained further. If true that would affect all of us because most of us travel that road.

Thank 3 Thanks Joyce Carpenter, Harford Rd · 1d ago

I wonder if the people who are supportive of this endeavor live nearby and will be affected by the above mentioned concerns of the people who do. As the owner of a property next to one that was recently purchased for the purpose of building an assisted living facility, I can assure you that all who live nearby are opposed to the idea for similar reasons. Those who aren't opposed don't live nearby and don't have a clue.

Thank 7 Thanks Jane Shipley, Long Green Valley · 1d ago

I am more upset than ever now that I visited the link listed above. We have been told they will only have 20 or so people a day, but their website, now under construction says they intend to be one of THE LARGEST HINDU TEMPLES IN THE COUNTRY, HOSTING HUNDREDS OF VISITORS A DAY! Where is the truth, honesty and good neighborliness these developers claim???Will they replace my well when it runs dry from all these visitors?

Thank 4 Thanks Joyce Mason, Long Green Valley · 1d ago

If the aquifers go dry there won't be any replacing your well, there won't be any water!

Thank 1 Thank Kris Ghimire, Long Green Valley · 1d ago

Patricia, NACC does not yet have a website. Some of our volunteers are working on creating one which is at least a month away. We will be happy to share the website once it is created. I don't know the information you are referring to. Anyone can put anything they want on the internet. Again, we don't have a website.

Thank 1 Thank Dee Car, Sunshine/New Cut · 1d ago

Kris,

The website is archived as if someone started it, then removed it. Google is able to store this information. However, in addition to the archived one, I found www.baltimoremandir.org "Official Page of Hindu Buddah Temple" just by googling NACC Baltimore (page created in 2016). It even features a picture of the mansion and lists the Harford Road address. So, Kris, I am confused, do you have a website or not? And if not, then you have imposter(s).

I live within a mile of the property and will be attending the meet and greet tomorrow. I, like a lot of my neighbors, are concerned about this property due to the infrastructure concerns. As someone else mentioned, it could be any persons or group coming in to develop the property and I would be concerned.

Here are some things that I have found by looking around on social media. These raise further questions of my concerns in regards to the use of the property as just a temple and place of worship. In addition, I feel like some of your posts on here and Facebook have been misleading to the public.

Dr. Shyam Karki posts on his Facebook page on December 21, 2017 in what appears to be an effort to fundraise, states that "After the Mandir is initiated, it will have a regular source of income which can meet routine expenses." And further, "Second we need to look beyond Pujas and initiate programs and services like HEALTH CAMPS, YOGA, INTERFAITH COLLABORATION IN THE AREA, SOUP KITCHEN and contribute to the overall being of the neighborhood."

Can you please elaborate on the plans to grow from just a Mandir where perhaps two dozen persons will be gathered (your words), to a place that generates income through other services and programs? I appreciate Mr. Karki's willingness to contribute to the community, but feel like this contradicts what the community wants.

WE DO NOT WANT MORE STREET TRAFFIC, A TAX ON THE LOCAL WATERSHED, OR ANY OTHER NEGATIVE ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACTS ON THE AREA.

I encourage my neighbors to do more research and come to your own conclusions. There are videos on youtube, posts on social media such as Facebook, and other public records. And of course, please visit the property tomorrow.

Intriguing, different and most likely enlightening. Everything this ultra conservative community fears. Best of luck! Love the forthcoming and outreaching attitude but in this neighborhood your fighting an uphill battle not only because of the underlying racism alone but the constant and insane resistance to any type of change.

Thank 5 Thanks Tom Miner, Long Green Valley · 1d ago
Wow Michael Davis that is amazingly offensive. I haven't heard a single racist comment yet that would elude to your assumption. Saying this community even on a small part judges others in that way is just ignorant.

Hence the "underlying" statement Tom.

The reaction to a non Christian house of worship is over the top.

Thank 1 Thank Mike Habersack, Long Green Valley · 1d ago

Sorry- I live less than 1/2 mile away, therefore this impacts me in this rural area directly. I don't care it was another evangelical or catholic church, it would impact me the same and drain local resources and add traffic that the already unpopular circle wasn't designed for. How much tax will this add to the base? None as it is a non-profit. How many jobs? None for locals if any at all.

To another point- there are posts here from those saying "why not" and "I can't hear them", and when I look further, these comments are coming from people more than a mile away. Of course YOU cannot hear it. Doesn't affect YOUR traffic either. I would support their activity were it in Monkton or Jarrettsville. Wouldn't impact me at all there.

If a 1000+ person organization bought the single family home next to you and decided to hold multi day events on a regular basis without even obtaining permits prior commencing, I think you have a right to be displeased. All I'm saying is the comment is offensive to those concerned and that shouting NIMBY is all fine until it is next door.

As a property owner just down the road it would not matter what GROUP wanted to set up shop there it is not an appropriate location. We currently only pump 2.5 gallons of water from our well which is over 200 ft deep and it has gone dry 3 times over the past 5 years. Fortunately it recovered within 8 hours. We can only run 1 water using item at a time. You either do laundry or shower. No one can flush the toilet when you shower. Now until you live under those conditions you won't understand this opposition. We already have 2 churches, a camp, a school, the Perennial Farm, Boordy Vineyards and Cavanos pulling from the already limited resources in this valley. We don't need an additional 100 to 1000 people pulling from the limited aquifers in the area. This property is zoned for one family.

Up till now I've kept silent except for sharing verbiage from a website that I felt was important to see. I've read every post concerning this feed. I was so happy to see that everyone was expressing their opinion based on the fact that they either support or oppose the addition of this church due to the concerns for added traffic or, more importantly, concerns of water consumption. I live on a well so I understand that. First of all, a religion is not a race, so that negates the racist card, which I expected someone to play at some point. How sad that it had to be introduced by anyone, especially at this late stage of conversation. I'm going today to see what this is truly about and I hope this guy doesn't show up to make an unrelated spectacle. How sad there is someone who had to throw in his own prejudices.

Final thought. It has been an interesting exercise to see how quickly "social media" can become unsociable. There are opinions on both sides of this issue,and you need to separate what is in discussion.

Unlike many of you here, I met Kris Ghimire and a number of the folks at the Harford Road address in August. I found them to be very kind, friendly, and welcoming to the very small handful of people that visited that day. They would not dream of bring rude based on the quality of people I met. You can also be assured that based on their faith system, you will never have drunken revelry or other carousing from the Nepali group. Those that charge faith-bashing or race baiting are ignorant and have not met this group - and lobbing uninformed assaults at those in opposition to the anticipated property use is wrong.

Additionally, those that are living more than a mile away are not affected and should consider the more the reasons behind the comments made by those living close by. YOUR well won't pump less. YOUR ability to navigate traffic won't be impacted. YOUR rural setting won't be disturbed.

You are immature if you cannot separate the issue from the people involved, which has become the world we now live in, and many of you should be old enough to have grown out of childish behavior like name calling. Adults can dialogue and take the high road.

Done.

Mike and Mike,

These things will be argued in Court and are for a Judge to decide. That is how things work in a democracy. Two parties have a dispute, so it goes before a Judge. I have no idea why some are so concerned about the use of our Constitutional systems. One of the most embarrassing situations in life is when one suddenly is faced with taking a hard line without knowing all the facts.

We are going to litigate our case in a Court of law with all the rules of evidence. The facts will be determined by the Court and a judgment will be rendered. Civics 101.

We are very concerned about how people are acting towards each other. I would recommend watching this You Tube short on lessons learned from WWII put out by the US Govt for use in civics classes. !7 minutes and well worth watching.

Dew, it sounds like you are supportive of the community. Just out of curiosity, is this the first hearing? Who is representing the community in this case when it goes before the judge? Was that person able to gather data supporting the community's concerns and will he/she be effective in presenting the data before the judge? Is the district's councilman involved and has he provided any help? Also, will the public be notified of the next hearing date, and is the public invited to attend? I imagine the Nepali American Cultural Center has a slew of lawyers to aid them in this case. It would be helpful to have some answers to these questions.

Thank 1 Thank Dew Clark, Long Green Valley · 14h ago

Joyce,

What seems to be lost is that this has been actively worked for over a year. After the two GKCA meetings last year to hear the community concerns about this topic, a group of us decided to prepare for the possible ensuing litigation. We decided to litigate this after all other avenues were exhausted.

PLEASE come to the meeting Wednesday night. It will be a factual presentation of the history of this situation. Our attorney will be making a short presentation.

Regards,

Dewey

Mike no one is "faith bashing," by voicing concerns. Also just because most of us don't live within one mile does not mean it doesn't effect us all and we shouldn't be concerned. Next time it could be YOUR neighbor trying to set up a business where it does not belong.

I attended the meet and greet today. I must say, I was very impressed by the folks of NACC. What struck me most important is the fact that this temple does not hold a service as we currently see in our churches. The temple will be open and it's members will come and pray and leave. The intent, and I believe it to be true, is that the property will be maintained with it's surrounding nature and resources in mind. 1 wasn't sure how I felt about it and have been trying to read every post to listen to the concerns or support from our community. At this point, I will say that they have my support. I'll be interested in attending future hearings to have a full picture.

Thank 6 Thanks

Administrative Law Judge for Baltimore County

Towson, Maryland 21204

Re: Case No. 2018-0122-X, Petition for Special Exception
Request for Clarification of Your Order Dated January 22, 2018

Dear Judge Beverungen:

I write to you on behalf of my clients, the Nepali American Cultural Center and the zoning Order that you wrote approving the use of a building on their property for religious worship. The decision you wrote was dated the 22nd day of January, 2018 and a copy of that decision is attached hereto.

As you may know, some of the protestants who appeared at the hearing before you filed an appeal to the Board of Appeals and the case is currently pending before that agency. In the meantime, my clients have continued to repair the damage that has been done to the property by the local residents and continue to maintain the grounds, as they should.

At issue at this time is the language contained within your Order, specifically the seven restrictions located at the end of your approval. My clients have scheduled a fundraising event which is proposed to occur on the grounds of the subject property. These fundraising events are very important to the owners of the property as the repairs to fix the damage done to the property over the years has been extensive. This fundraising event is scheduled for July 29th to August 3rd, 2018.

I have attached to this letter a post that was taken from Facebook which advertises this event. As you are aware, social media, such as Facebook is an effective way to inform people of an event such as this fundraiser. Baltimore County Code Enforcement was provided a copy of that Facebook post by one of the protestants. Code Enforcement is attempting to assert that we cannot gather on our property because of the language of your restrictions contained within your Order. The fundraiser will be held outside on the property and not within the building. In fact, the building is not occupiable at this time as it still is not connected to water or sewer. It is however, anticipated that my clients will provide walking tours of the building to show the extensive improvements they have made to the property, of which they are very proud.

Based upon this letter and the attachments hereto, I respectfully request your interpretation of your Order, specifically the restrictions contained therein as to whether it is appropriate for my clients to host this gathering event on the grounds of their property or whether such actions would violate the restriction you imposed upon them.

I have included a simple statement at the bottom of this letter for you to sign, should you deem it appropriate. Thank you for your time and consideration of this matter.

Very truly yours,

Timothy Kotroco

Timothy M. Kotroco

I understand the owners are proposing to host a gathering on the property July 29th through August 3rd, 2018. I also understand the Code Enforcement Bureau contends that the gathering would violate the terms and conditions of my January 22, 2018 Order granting special exception relief. I respectfully disagree and would note those conditions (as envisioned by BCZR section 502.2) related solely to the operations of a building for religious worship, which was the relief granted in the special exception case.

The owners are free to gather on their property so long as no religious activities are occurring within the subject building and all other permit requirements, if any, are satisfied. If this is the case, there is no violation of my Order. This owner should be treated no differently than any other citizen who wishes to host a party, a picnic or any other social event on their property.

IN RE: PETITION FOR SPECIAL EXCEPTION (12231 Harford Road) 11th Election District 5th Council District Nepali American Cultural Center Legal Owner	*	BEFORE THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
	*	FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY
Petitioner	*	Case No. 2018-0122-X

* * * * * * * * * * *

OPINION AND ORDER

This matter comes before the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) for consideration of a Petition for Special Exception filed on behalf of Nepali American Cultural Center, legal owner ("Petitioner"). The Special Exception was filed pursuant to the Baltimore County Zoning Regulations ("B.C.Z.R.") to allow a church or other building for religious worship on property zoned RC-2.

Professional engineers John Motsco and Joe Caloggeri appeared in support of the petition. Timothy M. Kotroco, Esq. represented the Petitioner. Numerous citizens attended the hearing and objected to the request. Substantive Zoning Advisory Committee (ZAC) comments were received from the Department of Planning (DOP), the Bureau of Development Plans Review (DPR), State Highway Administration (SHA) and the Department of Environmental Protection and Sustainability (DEPS). None of the reviewing agencies objected to the request.

The subject property is approximately 30.8 acres and is zoned RC-2. The property is improved with an historic single-family dwelling and several outbuildings. Petitioner purchased the property last year, at which time it was rundown and abandoned. Photographs submitted at the hearing reveal extensive vandalism to the property which occurred both before and after Petitioner purchased the property. Petitioner is in the process of renovating the property, and estimates that

ORDER RECEIVED FOR FILING
Date 1/22/18
By

at least 4-5 months of additional restoration work needs to be done before the property can be used by the congregation.

Special Exception

Doug Burgess, an attorney with a law office in the area, testified a special exception use enjoys a presumption that it is in the interest of the general welfare, and therefore, valid. Schultz v. Pritts, 291 Md. 1 (1981). The Schultz standard was revisited in Attar v. DMS Tollgate, LLC, 451 Md. 272 (2017), wherein Maryland's highest court discussed the nature of the evidentiary presumption in special exception cases. The court again emphasized a special exception is properly denied only when there are facts and circumstances showing that the adverse impacts of the use at the particular location in question would be above and beyond those inherently associated with the special exception use.

Mr. Motsco, a professional engineer accepted as an expert, explained the site plan in detail and said he has visited the property on several occasions. He testified the property is approximately 30.8 acres in size and is zoned RC-2. The witness noted the site has mature wooded buffers along all road frontages, and he testified Petitioner is not at this time proposing any new construction on the site. In conclusion, Mr. Motsco opined Petitioner satisfied each of the requirements set forth at B.C.Z.R. §502.1.

Several citizens testified in opposition to the proposal. Though each witness expressed concern with how the project may impact them individually, there were common themes in the testimony. Traffic conditions and roadway safety, and a concern for water wells and private sewage disposal, were the most frequently cited concerns. Many neighbors also complained about several events or gatherings at the site which generated a significant amount of noise. With the exception of the complaints about noise (which will be addressed in a condition included in the final order), these concerns are inherent in the operation of a church or building for worship located in a rural area. In other words, most uses for which a special exception is required are regarded as "potentially troublesome because of noise, traffic, congestion...." Montgomery County v. Butler, 417 Md. 271, 297 (2010).

Date 1/22/18
By lsln

In rural zones especially roadways are often antiquated and overburdened, and water/sewer services are not provided by the County. Harford Road will be used to access the site, and as a state highway it is under the control and jurisdiction of the State Highway Administration (SHA). As Mr. Caloggeri (a professional engineer accepted as an expert) testified, the SHA, not Baltimore County, will examine the proposed access and determine whether improvements or other measures are necessary to ensure safe ingress/egress from the site.

As noted in the conditions below, Petitioner must obtain approval from Baltimore County for installation of well and septic systems for this property. Ronald Standiford, pastor of the adjacent Redeemer church, noted that the Christian school affiliated with the church has approximately 220 students and the well and septic system are sufficient. According to witnesses in Petitioner's case, far fewer people will visit this site on a daily basis, and thus there is no reason to believe the water supply and sewerage system would not be adequate.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED this 22nd day of January, 2018, by this Administrative Law Judge, that the Petition for Special Exception to allow a church or other building for religious worship on property zoned RC-2, be and is hereby GRANTED.

The relief granted herein shall be subject to the following:

1. Petitioner may apply for necessary permits and/or licenses upon receipt of this Order. However, Petitioner is hereby made aware that proceeding at this time is at its own risk until 30 days from the date hereof, during which time an appeal can be filed by any party. If for whatever reason this Order is reversed, Petitioner would be required to return the subject property to its original condition.

ORDER RECEIVED FOR FILING
Date 1/22/18
By ASL

2. Petitioner must submit for approval by Baltimore County landscape and lighting plans for the site.
3. Prior to operating a religious facility at the site Petitioner must install a sign at the Harford Road access point (in compliance with the B.C.Z.R. §450) containing the name of the facility and street address.
4. Prior to issuance of occupancy permits, Petitioner must demonstrate to DEPS that the well and septic system proposed will be sufficient to serve the facility.
5. Prior to issuance of permits Petitioner must comply with the ZAC comment of DEPS, a copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated herein.
6. Prior to issuance of permits Petitioner must obtain from SHA an access permit authorizing ingress and egress from the site via Harford Road.
7. Special events held at the site shall be limited to the hours of 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., and outdoor amplification of music or sound shall not be permitted.

Any appeal of this decision must be made within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order.

(ON RECORD – 11:20:42 AM)

CHAIR: All right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Can we talk about that because that's more important.

CHAIR: Yeah, that's, I mean, that's obviously big news, right?

MR. HOLZER: That is big news.

CHAIR: I mean, I'm a Philadelphia Eagles fan but, you know, still he went to Delaware, I think, Delaware, so. (inaudible). Anyway, sorry. We are here today for day eleven of the Nepali matter which, from what I recall, is case number 18-122. So, just to recap. We had, let's see, I think, if I remember correctly, July 19th, September 6th, September 12th and part of October 11th was Petitioner's case, part of October 11th, October 23rd, November 1st, January 29th and 30th were Protestant's case. Protestants have now rested so now it's back to Petitioner for rebuttal, is that correct?

MR. SCHMIDT: yes, sir.

CHAIR: Any other preliminary matters before we begin?

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: So, if you have cell phones, I mean I don't, some of you have heard this now ten days in a row, I'll make it eleven. Please make sure to put them on silent or turn them off. Please do not talk loudly, gesture or otherwise nod in approval or do anything to communicate to any witness on the stand or cause any commotion or disruption in the Court. Unless there's anything further, Mr. Schmidt, the floor will be yours.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, Mr. Garber. Mr. McComas, can I see Petitioner's exhibit number one, which is a site plan? And there's also 1-A which is, it's described as a duplicate site plan on the exhibit list and it's, it's, it's down on the second page.

MR. MCCOMAS: I have one here.

MR. SCHMIDT: I might just put this on the board.

MR. MCCOMAS: They may just say, mine just says site plan, Exhibit 1, there's nothing about an A. Probably, maybe it's indicated on there.

MR. SCHMIDT: But then there's another --

CHAIR: There's a 1-A.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- ex, there's another exhibit --

CHAIR: There's a 1-A.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- that was introduced the second day called 1-A.

MR. MCCOMAS: There is one?

CHAIR: Yeah, there should be one.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

CHAIR: I recall that. So, it may not have been done that day because it was done, I think, a day or two later.

MR. MCCOMAS: You think there's another site plan in there?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. WILKINS: Yeah, it was on day two.

MR. SCHMIDT: It came in after, on day two.

MR. MCCOMAS: Oh, I see.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah. I just, I'm not sure which one.

CHAIR: Oh, so I've already introduced Mr. Schmidt for the record. Will all counsel introduce themselves for the record? So, Mr. Schmidt, you're good?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes. For the record, --

MR. WILKINS: Zachary Wilkins.

CHAIR: Thank you. For Petitioner.

MR. HOLZER: Carroll Holzer.

CHAIR: Thank you. For Protestants.

MR. SCHMIDT: I can return this as 1-A. Thank you, Mr. McComas.

MR. MCCOMAS: That's the one, that's 1-A?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Yes, it is.

MR. MCCOMAS: It says here in the listing area it's a duplicate but I heard you say it's not a duplicate, is that --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, it is, yeah, it is a duplicate. I, I wasn't sure --

MR. MCCOMAS: All right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- and I didn't --

MR. MCCOMAS: All right, so we're good.

CHAIR: Yeah.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, we're good.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. With that, Mr. Garber, I would call John Motsco to the stand, please.

MS. DOPKIN: Mr. Motsco, do you swear and affirm under the penalties of perjury, that the testimony you are about to give is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief?

MR. MOTSCO: I do.

MS. DOPKIN: And would you state your name and address for the record, and spell your last name?

MR. MOTSCO: My name is John Motsco, M-O-T-S-C-O, and I'm employed at Little & Associates at 1055 Taylor Avenue, Suite 307, Towson, Maryland 21286.

CHAIR: And you're a professional engineer, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

CHAIR: And Mr. Schmidt, I, I don't have the exact terminology we used in terms of the expertise previously accepted.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes. I think, Mr. Garber, and I was going to ask Mr. Motsco, you test, you previously testified on this, in this case, I think on the second day, which I believe was September the 6th, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And at that time, you were accepted as an expert civil engineer?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you're a licensed engineer by the State of Maryland?

MR. MOTSCO: That is correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you prepared or had prepared under your supervision and direction the site plan that's been submitted in this case as Petitioner's exhibit number one, which is on the board, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: That is correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, that's your work product, Mr. Motsco?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And Mr. Motsco, I think you were accepted, not only as an engineer, but also with expertise in the County zoning and, zoning regulations and other regulations as they may relate to the preparation of the site plan and the issues generated by this case?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and the record will speak for itself.

CHAIR: Yes, it was just basically to refresh us where we are, but also for the record purposes as to why Mr., Mr. Motsco is on the stand now.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: And obviously, we do know that he testified before and --

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure, sure and I'm not going to be repetitive. I know Mr. McComas has the transcript as well. But Mr. Motsco, I'm going to maybe ask you to go to the board, if I can, because I'm going to ask you some questions about the site plan.

CHAIR: And before you do that, Mr. Motsco, when you give your testimony, please turn and face this direction. The reason being is we need to capture your testimony obviously by the microphones here. So, now that you're further away to also amplify your voice. Probably no different than the last time though we were in the County Council the last time you testified.

MS. DOPKIN: Does he need the pointer? There's a pointer --

CHAIR: Would you like a pointer?

MR. MOTSCO: Sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Geez.

MR. MOTSCO: Doesn't hurt.

CHAIR: We're getting fancy. Straight, straight out of the 1970's.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's a, the Board's got an, apparently quite a budget, huh? To afford such high tech equipment.

CHAIR: We found a TV on the side of the road and took off the antenna.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: It actually says it came from Prince George's County government.

CHAIR: They donated to us. All right, sorry.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Please proceed.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, it's been a long hearing. Mr. Motsco, you were here for also, were you not, for the testimony of the Protestant witness who the Protestants called, Mr. Jakubiak?

MR. MOTSCO: I was.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you heard his testimony as well. I'm going to ask you some questions about some of the things that he asked you about, and first the parking arrangement for the property. Can you tell us, Mr. Motsco, just to kind of refresh the Board's recollection, how many parking spaces are proposed for this site?

MR. MOTSCO: A total of thirty-eight spaces are proposed.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and how did you calculate or come up with that number?

MR. MOTSCO: A, as this is not a traditional church, as would be reflected in the zoning regulations, the closest applicable regulation, or requirement is that there's one space for every four seats.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's what's required for a church?

MR. MOTSCO: For a church or synagogue, something with pews or seating. This case, we had a discussion with the zoning office, as well as with our client to determine that the zoning office would accept this ratio based on an expected attendance, even though there's no seating because zero seats would be zero parking spaces. And then additional coordination with the client to determine what the maximum attendance they anticipated on regular holidays and days of greater importance that would generate a large turnout. And based on that, we had a hundred and fifty peop, hundred and fifty people as the expected attendance and arrived at thirty-eight parking spaces being necessary.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and what, and you indicated that the County ratio requires one space for every four seats for a church, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know, you've been to the property, have you not?

MR. MOTSCO: I have.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you've seen the area of the building, the room where services would occur?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know, when you were there, did you see the number of seats or can you give us an estimate of the capacity of that room in terms of number of chairs that could get in there?

MR. MOTSCO: During one of my visits, there were chairs set up, appeared to be for a meeting or, and a rough count was in the eighty to ninety chair range.

MR. SCHMIDT: And was that pretty much the capacity of the room?

MR. MOTSCO: That was pretty full.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Where, can you show the Board on the plan where is the parking proposed?

MR. MOTSCO: The parking prop, is proposed north of the existing building, along --

CHAIR: If I may, Mr. Motsco, just, I understand what you're referring to but just for the people in the room and the Board, show us which direction is north on the map.

MR. MOTSCO: Okay. North would be to the upper right hand corner of the page.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. MOTSCO: In the generally north to northeasterly direction from the existing home or building, there's an existing driveway extending to Harford Road. There are parking spaces proposed along the main access close to the home before you get to the turnaround, or the circle. And then there is also an existing piece of paving that seems, that just turns off into the yard, which will additionally be used for parking in the maneuvering turnaround.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, that's a hundred and thirty-eight actual spaces on paved parking, correct?

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, --

MR. MOTSCO: Thirty-eight.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry, thirty-eight. Thirty-eight, I'm sorry. I was thinking of a hundred and fifty-two. It's thirty-eight parking spaces on, on paved surface, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And those, that paving, that would meet the County requirements in terms of the durable and dustless requirement for the parking spaces?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct. The, the intention is to use asphalt paving.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and are they adequately sized under the County zoning regulation as well?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes, they meet all the minimum size spacing and (inaudible) all requirements.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, in addition to the paved parking that you've discussed, is there other areas of the site that are available for parking in your judgment in the event there would be a larger crowd than expected for a festival or for whatever it might, for whatever reason?

MR. MOTSCO: The, the site in the general vicinity of the home and the circle driveway and the pieces of driveway, we've discussed that in parking too. Is generally on top of the hill, on the flatter portion. Beyond where we've proposed the additional parking, especially in the area beyond the paving to nowhere and the turnaround, there's flat, or generally flat areas that are currently lawn and would remain lawn but could be used in the event of a large, in the occasion of a large event that required overflow parking.

MR. SCHMIDT: And have you seen that type of use for other institutional or park like settings where lawn is used in the event there's an overflow or a, a crowd?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And do you believe it would be a practical and workable solution here?

MR. MOTSCO: Given the alternative of paving a significant additional portion of the property, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and I assume you did not want to do additional paving if you could avoid it?

MR. MOTSCO: No, the goal was to provide a number of spaces that accommodated the typical use and but, but I've also provided some overflow in the, you know, (inaudible) parking or overflow extra people that, in general, the lawn would be protected from driving on, but with the knowledge that there is ample space that could be used in the event that there was a need.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, Mr. Motsco, do you believe that there will be sufficient onsite parking to accommodate this proposed use?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You, you talked about the grade a little bit. Let me, let me next move to another topic, if I can. You're an engineer you indicated, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And as part of your responsibilities in preparing or shepherding a project such as this, will you be require to address storm water management requirements?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Can you tell us how that works at the County, generally the process and the procedure?

MR. MOTSCO: Yeah, assuming that the special exception is confirmed by this Board, the next step would be to file a DRC, or design review committee, application and in that, we would seek guidance from Baltimore County review agencies as to the particulars of our, what our further requirements will be and the, one of those requirements that is required, will be required to add, be addresses is the prov, to provide storm water management for any proposed impervious areas and to address the, any negative impacts the runoff may have on adjoining properties.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and have, have you done, first of all, can you tell us a little bit about the topography of the site and where the impervious areas are in terms of the slopes and the things that will, will go into actually preparing a storm water management plan for submittal?

MR. MOTSCO: The proposed improvements and most of the existing improvements exist on the flatter portion of the site at the top of the hill. Surrounding that, the ground falls in every direction and more significantly towards Harford Road, but additionally it falls towards the southeast, towards an existing stream that is on site.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Let me ask you, Mr. Motsco, although you haven't submitted a plan, storm water management plan, to Baltimore County at this stage, can you tell us some of the factors or, or have you done an analysis, I guess I should ask, of some of the factors that you would look at in terms of storm water management and whether you believe it's workable and appropriate for this site, how it would generally work?

MR. MOTSCO: We haven't done any detailed calculations but obviously we're aware that that requirement would be coming and as part of our due diligence for providing a service to the client, we've examined roughly some areas on site that would be suitable for the installation of a storm water treatment facility that is, would be acceptable in Baltimore County and additionally, we've looked at scenarios where we would be able to provide a suitable outfall that would not be detrimental to the neighbors. And primarily that would be to the southeast where there is the existing stream on site.

MR. SCHMIDT: What's a, what is a suitable outfall? What's that mean under the storm water management terminology?

MR. MOTSCO: Suitable outfall is one where you have a legal right to discharge the water and also that it could be done safely without causing erosion or damage to downstream properties.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and where, what do you anticipate the suitable outfall to be here?

MR. MOTSCO: For the type of facility that would be installed, the, it would be a small drain outlet that would be allowed to run across the property through the existing wooded areas and given time, it would arrive in the stream onsite.

MR. SCHMIDT: And then water would be discharged into that stream?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Would it be controlled, in terms of the volume of the flow or the, the, the extent of the water?

MR. MOTSCO: If it, if the calculations require that it would be, we would have to provide that control.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is there a requirement in terms of the quality of the water?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes, the, the primary concern would be to provide quality, water quality treatment, or environmental site design and those measures, just by their very nature of detaining the water, do provide a level of runoff reduction and --

CHAIR: Runoff what?

MR. MOTSCO: Reduction.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. MOTSCO: And reduce the peak flow as well.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: The goal with the micro-facility is what they're, the terminology is, that the peak outflow from the site in which in this case would only be the proposed impervious areas, the peak outflow, if your facility is designed correctly, will mimic an existing condition of woods in good condition, which is, in engineering terms, is the best case as far as runoff and has the highest absorption. So, if the storm water is designed correctly and meets the criteria, it would actually, theoretically, result in a runoff from the property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you're looking at con, --

MR. MOTSCO: I'm sorry, reduction of runoff on the property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Re, reduction of runoff. So, you're looking at managing the quantity of the water that's coming off the site and also the quality of the water, is that correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Primarily the quality with the quantity as a beneficial side effect.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and Mr. Motsco, I mean, in terms of the special exception criteria, do, are you able to express an opinion as to whether there would be negative downstream impacts or flooding on adjacent properties due to this proposal?

MR. MOTSCO: No, there will not be. And I believe the regulations that would be applicable further down the road would serve to prevent that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. All right. I guess moving on. Mr. Motsco, let me ask you about, about, there was some testimony from Mr. Jakubiak about sound. Now, you're not an acoustical engineer, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: I am not.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, I'm not offering the witness as such. Can you tell us a little bit, just about the size of the property and sort of the features of the property, the topography of the property as it may impact sound, just generally as an engineer?

MR. MOTSCO: The property is 30.8 acres and the, the area of propose use is generally situated in the center of the site and the neighboring properties, at their closest, are about four hundred feet away.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: So, there's a significant distance as well as the change, significant change in topography from this building to the surrounding dwellings.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. How about the Harford Road, where is that located? Maybe you can show it with your pointer, your high tech equipment.

MR. MOTSCO: Harford Road is located along the northern and western sides of the property and separates the majority of neighboring homes from the property.

MR. SCHMIDT: And obviously, there will be sound associated with traffic on Harford Road that we've heard about, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, that that sound from the traffic on Harford Road will be much closer, at least to the homes that are on the other side of Harford Road, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. How about is the property wooded along its perimeter in any areas?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes, there are, the, there's a significant stand of trees that surrounds the property adjacent to Harford Road, as well as along the stream on the southeastern side of the property. It's a --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: -- developed stand of older trees.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you would expect that most of the events here, if they're outside, would likely occur in good weather when the trees were in bloom and had leaves on them.

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: If you think --

CHAIR: I mean, does he --

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: No, that's okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you have an opinion?

CHAIR: Well, let's ask this. Do you have information regarding that one way or the other, as to when the events may, whatever events they are, may occur in terms of the time of year?

MR. MOTSCO: I've been told by our client that they would primarily be in the summer, of course, better weathered months to accommodate the outside --

CHAIR: As long as we have an outstanding as to where he has that information, you may answer the question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. He, he just did, I think.

CHAIR: Sorry, if you don't mind just doing it again?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, just, when do you expect that most of the folks will be out, out of doors, if at all, on the property?

MR. MOTSCO: Based on the information I've been given from our client, I would expect that to be during the warmer months of the year.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Let me ask you, Mr., Mr. Motsco, does Baltimore County have any subjective standards or requirements as it relates to sound, as far as you know, as an engineer?

MR. MOTSCO: There is one requirement I'm aware of as it relates to sound generation and --

MR. SCHMIDT: And what is that?

MR. MOTSCO: There's a requirement that in a new, in a subdivision, or a project creating new lots for home construction, if it's located within a, five hundred feet of the paving of a regulated highway, which in this case would apply to interstates and other limited access highways, there's a requirement that a sound study be performed.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and can you, is, is Harford Road a quote, regulated highway under that definition?

MR. MOTSCO: It is not.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, that sound requirement that you're aware of would not apply here?

MR. MOTSCO: No, there is, it would not apply to the property in question or the surrounding roads.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, the County has no objective or established regulation or law which would prohibit or impact the development of this property?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Tell us though, just for comparison sake if you can, about how the County does regulate sound in that instance, as it relates to the interstates, the beltway and the like?

MR. HOLZER: Objection, objection. That's not relevant since he already testified it's, it doesn't fit this property. So, why do we need to know what would happen at some other road?

CHAIR: I understand.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I, I think it's instructive to the Board that the, since the witness has testified that there is no, what I would call, sound regulation here. It would, it, I think it's instructive to the Board to know what steps the County has made and what they do require when they are regulating sound because the Board can, I think, take notice, I think some of it will be in argument, but I think the witness can opine that the regulations, as they relate to sound, in those instances, have some application here.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, I'm, I'm missing the point. So, he, he has explained that this, whatever express sound regulation that there is does not apply to this property?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: And you're looking for to get testimony from him to form an opinion as to what the County would require or?

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I think it's in, I guess what I'm saying, Mr. Garber, is that I think it's, it, it may be helpful for the Board to understand what the requirements of the County sound policy are in that instance because --

CHAIR: In what instance?

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I think the, in the instance where the County does do the regulation.

CHAIR: Right, but if it doesn't apply here, then we're going to go down a road of here's what applies in other places and here's what they could have done here but chose not to do, some of that, I imagine, is going to be part of your argument.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Right. But the fact of the matter is, it doesn't apply here so as to what they could do or not do or whatever the case may be in other instances, I don't know how far we have to go down that road to, for you to be able to have your argument.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'll, I'll, I'll argue it in, in my memorandum.

CHAIR: All right. So, I will sustain your objection, Mr. Holzer.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: And we, you certainly are free to argue in memos as to whatever you feel is necessary from testimony.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. I thank you, Mr. Motsco. Let me ask you finally, if I can, in terms of the use of the property, is the subject property in any kind of agricultural use at the present time?

MR. MOTSCO: It is not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know when it, do, do you know, Mr. Motsco, you may not know, when it was last used for any agricultural purposes?

MR. MOTSCO: I have looked at aerial photographs going back to the fifties and as far as I can tell, it was maintained in roughly this condition with no farming and the, the same existing features as far back as the fifties.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. All right and do you know where the nearest, or I think you heard Mr. Jakubiak's testimony as well, do you know where the nearest agricultural use is in this, to the, in proximity to this property?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes. Roughly speaking, it is south, south east of the property on the other side of the stream, roughly a quarter mile from our property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you believe that this proposed use will have any adverse impact on any of the agricultural operations in the general locale?

MR. MOTSCO: I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Why not?

MR. MOTSCO: There, it's, maintaining a roughly existing condition and the, the significant distance from the nearest farm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Board's indulgence for just a minute.

CHAIR: Um hm. And just so I understood that last testimony was, you said the nearest agricultural use is about a quarter mile to the south of the stream?

MR. MOTSCO: To the south of the property line.

CHAIR: South of the property line. But you're not pointing to the south though, you're pointing to the east.

MR. MOTSCO: South, southeast.

CHAIR: Southeast. So, a quarter mile to the southeast and then it is your opinion that there are no impacts on any ag, agricultural uses in the area because it's been used in, it's going to be used in a similar condition as before and the distance to the nearest agricultural use?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, that would be all the questions I have of Mr. Motsco.

CHAIR: All right. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Mr. Motsco, you're a civil engineer that you testified the second day, first or second day of this hearing, is that correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes, I am a civil engineer.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah. You are not a land planner per se, are you?

MR. MOTSCO: I serve, I serve a land planning function in my office and in my course of business. The State of Maryland does not recognize any land planning certification.

MR. HOLZER: Right, and does Baltimore County recognize any land planning certification either?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, I believe you testified, let me, let me make sure I've got this correct. Did you attend any courses and obtain any degrees in, just in land planning?

MR. MOTSCO: That was part of my course work in obtaining my civil engineering degree.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Do you need to return to your seat or do you need to be up at the board?

MR. MOTSCO: I, I guess it's more of a question for Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I'll let him stay there. I'll try to jump around.

CHAIR: I, I will defer to you, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I'll try to jump around. I, I can't really see, but do you show on the exhibit that you had on the board there and was introduced earlier, do you show the tennis courts being located on site?

MR. MOTSCO: I do.

MR. HOLZER: Do you show the land, volleyball court being shown?

MR. MOTSCO: The volleyball court and the tennis court are the same facility.

MR. HOLZER: Correct, correct. So, that's shown on the site and did you --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, would you like him to point out where that is for you?

MR. HOLZER: I, I think we can see it.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I, I'm familiar with it.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And do you recall Mr. Ghimire, when he testified in reply to Mrs. Murphy's question that, that they would eliminate the, the tennis court or the, the volleyball court, whichever way you want to call it?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I, I think that's a mischaracterization of the test, of the testimony but.

CHAIR: Well, number one, he can speak to what he recalls as to the testimony. Two, the record will reflect what the actual testimony is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: So, the relevance of the question, obviously will hinge upon what the actual testimony was and what his answer is.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: So, I will overrule the objection and you may answer.

MR. MOTSCO: I can't say that I recall that in detail.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, right now, even though he testified that to this Board, it's still being shown on the site plan that you proposed to have the Board accept in the special exception, is that correct?

MR. MOTSCO: The tennis and volleyball court is shown on the plan.

MR. HOLZER: Right. Any other buildings shown on the plan?

MR. MOTSCO: There are some smaller outbuildings. There's a dwelling shed and a pool that are east and southeast of the main structure and then there is a large existing barn at very south, towards the very southern portion of the property.

MR. HOLZER: And are any of those buildings proposed to be removed under your site plan?

MR. MOTSCO: They are not.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, as it stands now, regardless of the testimony of, of Mr. Ghimire and others from the Petitioner's side, all of those existing facilities are going to stay according to this plan?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. And just, Ms. Garber, it exceeds the scope of the direct examination. I didn't talk about what buildings are coming and going. Obviously, the record will reflect what Mr. Ghimire said and what the church, I'm sorry, what the temple may do or not do, but it's beyond the scope of what this witness was called for today.

CHAIR: He is called as a rebuttal witness. Can you tie it to something with the rebuttal testimony?

MR. HOLZER: No, I'm not going to make an issue out of it. If, it, it, the record says what it says.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: The record says, agreed.

MR. HOLZER: And we've got the transcript if the Board reads them.

CHAIR: And I'm sure that you're going to certainly argue that whatever points you want to elicit anyway. And you have the record for that purpose.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay. So, we can sustain the objection.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. You are not an acoustical engineer, are you?

MR. MOTSCO: I am not.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Let me see. Do you happen to know how many congregants does NACCB have? Did they ever tell you that?

MR. MOTSCO: My understanding some time ago when this started was that it was in the neighborhood of a hundred. I do not know what that number would be currently.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Do you know how many members that they have?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, if it was a thousand would that cause you to alter your analysis of this site?

MR. MOTSCO: With regard to what portion?

MR. HOLZER: All of it. Sound, traffic, well, you didn't talk about traffic, but sound, storm water management, etcetera.

MR. MOTSCO: Based on what I've been told from our client that the maximum expected attend, regular attendance would be a hundred and fifty people, based on that, I would have no reason to change my testimony.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, if they've testified that there's a thousand people in their congregation, or if that's not, probably not right word, but as a member of NA, whatever, I'm --

CHAIR: Petitioner?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, of the Petitioner.

CHAIR: Sure.

MR. HOLZER: That wouldn't affect your testimony or opinion in regard to whether this site is satisfactory?

MR. MOTSCO: Say the first part again, please?

MR. HOLZER: If they had told you that they have a thousand people, a thousand members or people who have signed up, however you want to characterize them, would that impact your opinion that you've just rendered?

MR. MOTSCO: I don't know that I would believe that membership is directly tied to regular attendance.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: I think my experience as a church goer myself is most people don't go every week.

MR. HOLZER: Well, let me ask you this question then. I, when you testified previously, you said that you had personally visited the site two times.

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Is that right?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend a meeting or an event that was held as an open house on the site on February 25th, 2018?

MR. MOTSCO: I did not.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend an event held there on April 30th, 2018?

MR. MOTSCO: I did not.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend an event held there on June 10th, 2018?

MR. MOTSCO: I did not.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend June 19th, 2018, an event held onsite?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend a July 4th, 2018 event held on the site?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend a July 11th, 2018 event held on the site?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend a July 25th, 2018 event held on the site?

MR. MOTSCO: I did not.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend October 6th, 2018 event held on the site?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend July 28th through August 3rd event held on the site?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend a November 4th, 2018 event held on the site?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, Mr. Holzer, just real quick, just so I have all those dates that you just identified.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: What was the February date, 25th?

MR. HOLZER: February, February 25th, 2018.

CHAIR: And April?

MR. HOLZER: April 30th, these are all 2018.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: April 30th, June 10, June 19, July 4, July 11, July 25, October 6, July 28 through August 3rd, and November 4th.

CHAIR: Right. And you identified the February one as an open house and the rest as events?

MR. HOLZER: Events.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, I would just say that's assuming there's evidence that there were, indeed, quote, events on those days.

CHAIR: I, I don't know what that refers to necessarily other then they're being characterized as events.

MR. SCHMIDT: Um hm, yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: And were you invited to observe any of the events that, or, or meetings, or parties or open houses, whatever they be characterized, were you invited to attend any of them by your client?

MR. MOTSCO: I was aware of some of the dates prior to them occurring.

MR. HOLZER: But you didn't go?

MR. MOTSCO: No.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, all right. Okay. You just testified that you were in attendance at, at the site though inside of the building. I assume that's the large house, is that correct?

MR. MOTSCO: I've actually been in, I believe all the, unless there's something hiding in the woods, I believe I've been in all the buildings.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. What building did you see chairs of eighty to ninety?

MR. MOTSCO: That would be in the main house.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. MOTSCO: Main building.

MR. HOLZER: And do you recall when that was, what date that was?

MR. MOTSCO: That was the date that Mr. Schmidt and I visited the site and that is in the record. We submitted photos taken that day.

CHAIR: I was about to say, Mr. Holzer, I recall --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I know, I do.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I do.

CHAIR: And I know there's an exhibit too, if it helps.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, they put in photos.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think there's a visit actually shows the folding chairs all set up.

CHAIR: Yes, that's what I'm thinking.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Looking at the storm water management, you said that you haven't done any plans at this time, you haven't done any detailed analysis of storm water management. So, your testimony today, can that be characterized as hypothetical or in theory only and not, not documented by any analysis, proper study?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. That's just argumentative to the witness. He testified that he will be required to do a storm water management plan, but had done an analysis of part, as part of his due diligence and I just think it's mischaracterizing his testimony.

CHAIR: It is cross examination. He's allowed to certainly ask questions and have the witness provide testimony. I do, I will say I do recall the same as Mr. Schmidt, but it is up to the witness to then answer Mr. Holzer's questions. So, I will overrule the objection.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: You can answer, you can answer.

CHAIR: And you want the question again, don't you?

MR. MOTSCO: Yeah, please. I want to make sure I answer it correctly, or hear it correctly.

CHAIR: Well, both really.

MR. HOLZER: Is it, is it fair to say that your testimony here today was not based on any plan that was, has been prepared, not, not based upon any detailed analysis of the storm water management aspects of, of the property and of the water runoff, but just hypothetical or a general analysis by you?

MR. MOTSCO: I wouldn't call it detailed or hypothetical. I drew on my extensive experience preparing many storm water management plans, looked at the site for the existing topography and land cover and based on the size of the site and the grades that exist on site, combined with the relatively small scope of improvements compared to the size of the site, I'm comfortable in saying that based on my experience providing storm water, there's plenty of room to provide adequate storm water management on this property.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, you said, you testified that the DRC would have to review that aspect of it, is that correct?

MR. MOTSCO: They would review the property to provide guidance for the remainder of the development process.

MR. HOLZER: Right, and part of that would be the storm water management aspect?

MR. MOTSCO: DRC wouldn't review storm water management, DEPS, environ, and Department of Environmental Protection and Sustainability's Storm Water Management Section would provide the detailed review following the DRC Committee, DRC meeting.

MR. HOLZER: Now, you mentioned DRC applications, so that's why I asked you the question. So, does the DRC analyze the impacts of the storm water management plan?

MR. MOTSCO: No, they do not. They provide guidance as to which departments will need to review the plan further as part of your approval process.

MR. HOLZER: And, okay, so they provide, the DRC provides guidance and ultimately you're saying the final determination would be the Environmental Department?

MR. MOTSCO: The Storm Water Management Section of the Environmental Department.

MR. HOLZER: Right, okay. And all this proposed storm water management, any outfall would have to go to a suitable outfall, as you've described it, as most of us know what that means, is that correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and that suitable outfall, it, you're suggesting would be the stream that flows through the property?

MR. MOTSCO: That is one suitable outfall.

MR. HOLZER: Are there other suitable outfalls?

MR. MOTSCO: There's an existing storm drain in Harford Road close to the entrance. And depending on the type of facility we end up with, we may have other options that would --

MR. HOLZER: So, so what kind, what kind of other facility could you end up with? And why haven't you done it up till now so that the Board could understand this issue?

MR. MOTSCO: The facilities would all be environmental site design practices. There's as a number that are acceptable for use in Baltimore County. As far as structural, or micro-scale practices, you could use a micro-bioretention, level spreaders, submerged gravel wetland, bio swales, grass swales, enhanced filters. There's additional non-structural practices, such as roof top disconnects, non-roof top disconnects, sheet flow to buffer and when we get into our detailed analysis, if the approval to go forward is granted, that's when we would make a determination about what is best suitable for the site when we get into the details of it.

MR. HOLZER: Would the, would the neighboring properties have a right to have an impact on that decision or is it solely up to your client and the County to approve what you're proposing?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. That's a legal question, I mean, will the neighbors --

CHAIR: Please stand up.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry, I'm sorry, Mr. Garber. But that's a legal determination as to what the role, what role the neighbors may have as to the approval of the storm water management plan. As the witness has said, I mean, the way it works is assuming there's zoning approval, one, we would go to the Development Review Committee and they would determine what development process we would follow, which would include storm water management and then that's approved by the Department of Environmental Protection.

CHAIR: Well, I think the question is fine for cross examination.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: That is his under, it's basically, perhaps better worded at the moment, step by step, as in what his familiarity is with the process and whether then the Protestants, or neighboring properties, would be able to participate in that process --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- to provide their opinions and voice to that process.

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, as Mr. Holzer knows, and the Board knows, the Board gets appeals of the DRC decisions all the time.

CHAIR: Yes, and but I think he's directing the question though to Mr. Motsco to see his familiarity with the process. So, I'm going to allow that and see where that takes us.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Yes, so overruled for now.

MR. MOTSCO: The storm water management plans, the facilities would be privately owned and maintained for this facility, but the plans themselves would be public record, it would be available to anybody in the community.

MR. HOLZER: To your knowledge, I, my question related to is there any place in the process where depending on which option you use to resolve the issue, whether they would have an, an ability to participate in that? Or register their concerns or register approvals?

MR. MOTSCO: I can't answer from a legal standpoint because I don't know how it occurred. But I know from a personal experience that I provided a review of a subdivision storm water management (inaudible) community that was adjacent to the proposed subdivision. So, there, I don't know what mechanism had that occur, but I know that it has occurred in the past.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. To sum it up, the neighbors and this Board do not know what option you end up recommending or asking the County to approve in regard to getting rid of storm water management and how it might affect neighboring properties, is that correct?

MR. MOTSCO: I would not say getting rid of, I would say addressing storm water management, not getting rid of storm water management.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I didn't mean getting rid of the, the issue, I meant getting rid of the water.

MR. MOTSCO: I don't know that I can answer that question.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. In your prior testimony, do you recall testifying that you should not be testifying about sound? Do you remember that statement in the record?

MR. MOTSCO: I recall that I stated that I was not qualified as an expert in sound engineering.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and your client has not done a sound study of any sort, have they?

MR. MOTSCO: They have not, to my knowledge.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. When you were asked questions about what's the closest agricultural farming, you said a quarter mile in a south dir, direction. Could you show us where that is on the, on the site plan that you have? And if it's not on the large part of it, can you look up in the right hand corner and sort of give us an indication of where that is?

MR. MOTSCO: It is, if you, it's too far away to appear on the main plan. It's, on the vicinity map, it is in an area to the south of Mount Vista Road. And I'm going to do my best to describe this with some stuff that's not labeled. There is a squiggly line representing a stream coming from the lower right hand corner of the vicinity map and there is an area at the end of that, before you get to the streams that are closer to the property, that is currently in agricultural use.

CHAIR: Would it be beneficial to look at Exhibit 2?

MR. HOLZER: Well, I just, --

CHAIR: Since he's now identified where it would be, that Exhibit 2 may be able to show specifically?

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

MS. DOPKIN: I think that Mr. McComas has the large, Petitioner's Exhibit 2.

CHAIR: Mr. McComas, do you have the actual exhibit? This is Ms. Dopkin's.

MS. DOPKIN: Petitioner's Exhibit 2.

MR. HOLZER: Why don't you, just for the record though, since you're here, why don't you just mark with a circle the area that you just described up there? Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. McComas, I think there were a couple of aerials that Mr. Garber is referring, aerial photographs.

MR. MCCOMAS: You got it (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

CHAIR: Yeah, there was a large one that was presented and then there were hand sized ones for the Board's own use.

MR. HOLZER: This is marked as Petitioner's CBA Exhibit 2.

CHAIR: Yes, there was, again, a, a larger size one and then the more handheld size.

MR. HOLZER: If, --

CHAIR: And show Mr. Schmidt real quick, just so we--

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, I'm familiar with it. Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay, thank you. Sorry. You may proceed.

MR. HOLZER: Looking at that, could you describe the area of agriculture farming a quarter mile from the subject site that you just testified to? And that you indicated on the upper right hand corner of Petitioner's Exhibit 1?

MR. MOTSCO: Again, it's, there's not really a whole lot in the vicinity to identify it. It's located on the, we're looking at Petitioner's Exhibit 2, the eleven by seventeen size. It's located on the right half of the page, close to the center. It's towards the southern end of it, to the southern portion of this exhibit and there's a, sort of rectangular, you can see a parcel outline around part of it, and there's a, can't tell from this scale if it is a barn or a house, but it has a white roof and a row of evergreens next to it that's on the same property.

MR. HOLZER: If I may --

CHAIR: I know what you're, where you're going with it.

MR. HOLZER: Could you use my pen and circle the area that you just described?

CHAIR: Put your initials there, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Put your initials in it.

CHAIR: And if you didn't do that on the board, on, on one, please do so so, and also can you write 2/13/19, so we know the date that you did that? Same on Exhibit 2.

MR. MCCOMAS: Do you also want to do it on the larger photo?

MR. HOLZER: No, I think this is more than enough.

CHAIR: I think that's sufficient.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you, appreciate it.

CHAIR: And show Mr. Schmidt. Did he see where it was marked?

MR. SCHMIDT: I saw it, yes, sir. I was able to see it when he was hold it.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Thank you.
CHAIR: Thank you.
MR. HOLZER: Let's see.
CHAIR: Again, if you want to sit down, you certainly can.
MR. HOLZER: I'm searching.
CHAIR: No, it's quite all right. Take your time. I mean, Mr. Holzer, if you're doing that, I, I may have a question or two to ask during this time.
MR. HOLZER: Sure, go ahead. I just want to --
CHAIR: Just so I understand, I understood generally from your testimony that the storm water management, I guess, I don't want to call them plans, because there's no plan at the moment. But what your opinion is as to what may occur in the future and how, and what direction it may go is to the east of the property, where the main house is, correct?
MR. MOTSCO: More southeast from the main house but east, southeast, there's a portion there where the stream is onsite, we would direct it towards that.
CHAIR: Okay. So, where in relation to where your expectation as to storm water management area would be, would be the overflow parking on the lawn, that you would expect?
MR. MOTSCO: Where the storm water would be in relation to the parking, to the overflow parking -- CHAIR: Where would the overflow parking be in relation to where the storm water management, I guess, I don't know, it's hard for me to call it (inaudible) when we don't know exactly, but using what your expectation would be as to where things would be located for storm water management, where would the overflow parking area be?

MR. MOTSCO: They would be near each other. They would, ideally they're, they'd both have the same restrictions that would drive them to be located on the same, similar topography, the flatter portions of the site and we would locate the storm water management in a way to be near or adjacent to the overflow parking, but at the same time, not interfere with its use.

CHAIR: Is there any concern about pollution or contamination from using the lawn for overflow parking as it relates to storm water management pond or if it drains into a stream?

MR. MOTSCO: The storm water management facilities that are currently required by State and local law are designed to remove pollutants from runoff to help protect the health and general condition of receiving waters.

CHAIR: Would it, would the expected location of any storm water management area or into the stream itself, would that have any impact on the ground water for well usage for the next door neighbor?

MR. MOTSCO: There are requirements in COMAR and COBAR as to the setbacks from wells for the various types of proposed facilities, depending on the facility, the setback is greater or smaller and so --

CHAIR: Just so I understood what you just said, you said there would be, that there's a regulation for wells or for, is it for the storm water management?

MR. MOTSCO: For storm water management.

CHAIR: Right, because the well presumably is pre-existing?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

CHAIR: Right. Okay.

MR. MOTSCO: So, there are minimum distances that we are allowed to site storm water practices from any existing well.

CHAIR: What is your understanding, if there is any perceived conflict between the ground water for well water usage and storm water drainage runoff area? Is that something that, that gets addressed at a later date or is it something that should be addressed before it gets submitted for future review, if it gets past the zoning process?

MR. MOTSCO: If I was preparing a storm water plan, that initial portion of my analysis would be what, what area of the site is suitable for installing a storm water practice and in a site like this that is served by well and septic, that's one of the primary concerns, is that you're meeting the required setbacks and hopefully exceeding them from both the septic and the well.

CHAIR: If it's subsequently, and this is a hypothetical, subsequently determined that there is a change in the water quality for the neighbor, is there anything that can be done to remedy the change in quality that it, it, we'll assume is attributed to the storm water management from the adjacent site?

MR. MOTSCO: I don't know that I'm, have any experience with remediating a well contamination that I would be able to say.

CHAIR: And again, I recognize these are all assumptions, so. And that is something though that would be addressed, you would think, to whatever extent it can be in advance to, by DEPS or another agency?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct and I've, I've, I have the opinion that the setbacks, as determined by the State and the County for these types of facilities, the intention there is to be cautious with the goal of protecting the well versus all other scenarios.

CHAIR: If it's drained into the storm drain in the front, there would not necessarily be as, a conflict if it drains to the east, is that fair to say?

MR. MOTSCO: I feel that they're both suitable, as the draining to the east to the stream is significant distance from any adjoining wells. Draining towards the storm water, the storm drain on Harford Road is actually putting things closer to the adjoining wells.

CHAIR: Oh, okay. Thank you. Sorry for that.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. If I could follow-up with one question after what you just said. If you were going, going to the west, if you decided to go that route, would it impact the Foxworthy property, their septic system, septic field? Have you had an opportunity to examine that?

MR. MOTSCO: Can you point me to Foxworthy?

MR. HOLZER: It's at the entrance, I believe.

MR. SCHMIDT: It's right across, just, just, I believe it's right across the street next to Bonaparte.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: At the north, right, at the north end of the property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, at the north, yeah, just so the witness can see.

MR. MOTSCO: That's north and it's located right across Harford Road from the existing entrance.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, and her septic area, would there be impacted, any potential impact that, if you chose that route?

MR. MOTSCO: If we were to discharge in that direction, the facility would be located outside of the required setback from the existing septic and it would have to be designed in a way that it did not discharge into the existing septic system.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I have no further questions.

CHAIR: I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: I was waiting for you to finish.

CHAIR: I appreciate that. Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Just a couple. Just, Mr. Motsco, just so I'm clear and because you're the engineer and all the rest of us are laymen, you would anticipate that a storm water management plan will ultimately be required by Department of Environmental Protection and Sustainability, assuming we get zoning approval to move ahead, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you also indicated, I think, that there are a variety of, I guess, tools or mechanisms which you would use or consider in consultation with that department in terms of achieving the requirements of the storm water management regulations that the County enforces, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: That's correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And there would be level, possibly level spreaders and bio retention facilities and all different kinds of things, I think you identified a long list of things that could potentially be used, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you've also testified that as part of that analysis, the County and the State, through the Code of Maryland regulations, requires that you maintain certain setbacks, i.e., the required distance from septic systems and also existing wells, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: That is correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And those setbacks that are required --

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: One second, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. HOLZER: Isn't this a repeat of what he has already said on direct (inaudible) I mean, --

CHAIR: I would, I would agree that there is some repetition, but I do think that these are important points because I had some of these questions myself as to what that all meant. And I do think it, it would be helpful to hear just to make sure the understanding from his testimony as received is well understood.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, and I was ask, mainly in response to your questions, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: And, and, I, I, I got that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

CHAIR: And, and certainly it's not going to impact anything in terms of any arguments on behalf of Protestants in that regard. So, for that, those reasons I'll overrule for now and I, and I don't want to go too far afield with it either.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

CHAIR: But overrule it.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I think I was asking, Mr. Motsco, that these required buff, setbacks that, that are required are designed so that the storm water management facility will not adversely impact adjacent wells and setbacks, correct?

MR. MOTSCO: That is the goal, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And although you haven't done a plan, I believe you have opined that --

MR. HOLZER: Objection. I mean, you know, come on. This is a little ri, now he's, how he's testifying. I mean, one word answers, yes, no.

CHAIR: Is your, is your objection to the leading nature of the questions?

MR. HOLZER: Of course.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'll strike the, I'll strike the question.

CHAIR: Okay. So, you just say objection, leading and then or if it's a foundation question so this way we know what the objection is so Mr. Schmidt can cure his question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr., Mr. Motsco, do you have an opinion, sir, as to whether a storm water management plan can be developed for this property and this use, which will meet all the State, applicable State and County requirements?

MR. MOTSCO: I'm confident that a, an approval plan is able to be created for this property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you. I have no other questions.

CHAIR: Any --

MR. HOLZER: No questions.

CHAIR: All right. Thank you, Mr. Motsco, for your time.

MR. MOTSCO: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, that will be the Petitioner's case on rebuttal.

CHAIR: All right. So, with that in mind then, there is nothing further to come into the record, do I understand that correctly?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I think that's correct. I think, I guess just in terms of where we are, I know you've indicated before that you would want a memorandum submitted and we have a time deadline on that.

CHAIR: Well, we're, we're going to get into that in a second.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And the only other thing that I guess I would ask that I think is somewhat open is, I thought there was something that we had not definitively decided about the appeal that Mr. Holzer had filed --

CHAIR: I was about to address that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, so I'm just trying to think of what else we need to do while we're here.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, is there anything before the record in this case closes out --

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: Okay. So, with that in mind, we can close the record on 18-122. We now have the appeal in CBA-19-004, which is also scheduled for today. Which again, concerns the same property and same Petitioner and same Protestants. That is obviously directly related to what was, correct me if I'm wrong, it was Petitioner's Exhibit 34.

MR. HOLZER: Thirty, thirty-four.

CHAIR: Previously, there has been a ruling in that that establishes that one, the ALJ had no jurisdiction at the time. Without the, without having jurisdiction, I'd say basically a non-event and, therefore, it's not an appealable event. It should never have happened in the first place to the extent it was intended to have any effect.

MR. HOLZER: Well, --

CHAIR: Go ahead.

MR. HOLZER: -- I'd like to, what I did over the hiatus that we had, I have the, basically, what's the same Motion to Strike Exhibit 34, but I've recharacterized it. But it's pretty much the exact same thing and I'd like to --

CHAIR: (inaudible) into this case?

MR. HOLZER: Exactly. And then I have, in addition to that, a second Motion to Strike after, after the Petitioner's filed their reply to it, I (inaudible) reply to that. So, I've got these two documents. I have no argument, I have nothing else.

CHAIR: Well, hold on. So, the sur reply that you have, should that be incorporated into the case 18-122?

MR. HOLZER: No, no.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Because that's already in.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: It's already in.

CHAIR: Because you're, I'm talking about, I understood you --

MR. HOLZER: This is, this is case 19-004.

CHAIR: Yes, right. I, sorry, I mis, I misunderstood what you had said about the other exhibit, the second one.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: But that does not need to be made a part of the record of 18-122?

MR. HOLZER: I want it, I want it in this, 19-004 case.

CHAIR: That I understand.

MR. HOLZER: Because I anticipated maybe there would be a response to this and if there isn't, it's still arg, its jurisdiction.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And, and other, and you know.

CHAIR: Yes, so have you provided it to Mr. Schmidt, the copies? And then to the Board?

MR. HOLZER: Got them, got them all here. I'll give you the, give the Board the, that's the original, one, two, three, four.

CHAIR: This will be Protestant's exhibit number one, which is identified as Protestant's Motion to Strike the, the letter from Mr. Kotroco dated July 2nd, 2018 as ex parte and not in the ALJ jurisdiction to opine.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And then this is the reply. There's the original and four.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: And it just, I basically, it's the same memo as in the other, the first case.

CHAIR: I understand. Yeah, I had understood that maybe you were doing something new, which is why I asked did that need to be included in the other.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: But it already is there, I got you.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Isn't, isn't this the same thing you just gave me, Mr. Holzer?

CHAIR: It does appear to be the same.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I'm sorry. It shouldn't, it shouldn't --

MR. SCHMIDT: No, no, I'm sorry.

MS. DOPKIN: One's a reply.

MR. SCHMIDT: One's a reply and one --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, one says reply one was --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- the second one should be --

CHAIR: Sorry, I had multiple copies in front of me too, so, which made it worse. Well, so, for purposes of an evidentiary record for 19-004, they're received as Motions, but as to them being exhibits for substantive evidence, Mr. Schmidt, do you have a position? Ordinarily, Motions are not substantive evidence by themselves.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I would agree. I mean, I, I, I don't know that I, I don't know that there's any basis that I can object to someone filing a Motion. Certainly, it's not substantive.

CHAIR: It's not the filing, it's not the filing of the Motion.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: That's been received. It's made part of the record for 19-004 for that purpose.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: But it's also now being introduced into evidence in that case, so does it, in your mind, warrant an objection for being evidence?

MR. SCHMIDT: The Motion is evidence?

CHAIR: That's what it's being offered for. It certainly wasn't received as a Motion.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: But, I know in this case, we've --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, then I would, I mean, --

CHAIR: -- we've marked certain Motions as, as evidence but I don't believe that they've been received as substantive evidence in any, in the other case.

MR. SCHMIDT: I don't, I guess, for the record, yes, then I would object. I don't know how a Motion can be substantive evidence in a case, if, if I'm understanding it correctly. I mean, my position all along has been that the appeal that was filed from what I'm going to call the Kotroco letter, is an improper appeal because it's a moot issue and we've covered this ground, I think, in its interlocutory and I think I've made my objections known in the, in, in the, in the context of the proceedings that have been conducted over the past ten days on 2018-122-X. So, I would just, if I can, maybe I will incorporate them for the purposes in this matter.

CHAIR: Well, and that's what I want to make sure we have an agreement as to how this record for 19-004 is going to appear. It would make sense to me that we have the Motion. It would make sense to me that we have the reply in that record. So, that (inaudible) received for the Motion, as Motions. As to the substantive evidence of it, certainly, you know, the exhibit attaches thirty-four for 18-122, would be made part of the record for 19-004.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Right. So, that is understood too. But the Motion itself, do you understand where I was going with it in terms of substantive evidence?

MR. HOLZER: I, I understand where you are going that way. I just want the Board to decide this issue, this case, however you want to do it.

CHAIR: I just want to make sure the record is clear and everyone is on the same page. That's all, really what I care about because, you know, I want to make sure that there's nothing left behind for anybody and no one is under a different impression as to what is, what has happened here.

So, what we'll do is we will receive the Motion, we will receive the reply. I don't know, necessarily know they need to be received as substantive evidence in it. However, what, to be fair to everybody in this, the July 2nd letter with the July 3rd signature by Mr., by Mr. Beverungen, or excuse me, ALJ Beverungen, we will make that Petitioner's Exhibit 3, or Protestant's Exhibit 3.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay. You want to separate it.

MS. DOPKIN: So, you're still making them exhibits?

CHAIR: We're going to label them as exhibits for i.d. only. But the, the letter from Mr. Kotroco, July 2nd, plus ALJ's signature on July 3rd, that will be made as a separate exhibit.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Protestant's Exhibit 3. So, that record, so that letter is in the record as an evidentiary matter.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: So that I understand it, the letter that Mr. Kotroco wrote that Judge Beverungen signed, is an exhibit in --

CHAIR: 19-004.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- 19-004, submitted by Mr. Holzer, but yet in case 18-0122-X, he has moved to strike that as evidence?

CHAIR: Well, it's evidence for purposes of the record so we can understand what is being referred to.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, this way, if it, if it goes separate tracts, we know what, it has, there has to be something in the 19-004 record that would go up on an appeal if it's to be appealed. There needs to be something there.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay. I'm overthinking this, just to, to try to be clearer and make this better, but apparently I'm only making it worse. So, I will defer to the wise counsel of Mr. McComas and Ms. Dopkin on that, as well as to hopefully remove any confusion for Mr. Schmidt and Mr. Holzer. Since it's already part of it, I just wanted to make sure that it was, --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: We're already there, so we don't need to make it, do it any further. You were correct, Mr. Schmidt, as to the absurdity of the situation. Thank you for illustrating that for the Board because otherwise we would make it even more absurd. So, Mr. Holzer, are you comfortable with that as an outcome?

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: Okay. What would you like, because it's your appeal here, what would you like?

MR. HOLZER: I want the, I want the Board to decide what to do with this appeal.

CHAIR: We're getting to that point.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: I just need to know what the record is before we get there.

MR. HOLZER: The letter is an exhibit of, of the Motion. So, it is, in that respect, it is evidence that, that is in the case. However you want to parse it. And I think the Chairman was parsing it in the way that I understood it was to be. That's why I was, found it acceptable last time.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: So, I don't know --

CHAIR: As long as it's in the record for you is, is what --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- I'm trying to make sure occurs in this case.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

CHAIR: That's, because I realize what you're trying to --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- I know that you're appealing this for that. So, as long as --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- it's within the record for you for whatever subsequent use you may have for it. So, to that to that end, since it's already part of, it is the subject matter of your appeal, it is attached as an exhibit to your Protestant's Motion Exhibit 1 now.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, I think that that should probably satisfy it. We don't need to do anything further with it.

MR. HOLZER: I hope.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I would --

CHAIR: That would be the intent of the Board.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: And just, I'm going to say for the record, --

CHAIR: And we'll incorporate, by the way, your response filed in 18-122 to the record.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's fine.

CHAIR: In response to the original Motion to which Mr. Holzer responded with his reply, because that's only fair. And also, the discussion we previously had in resolving that Motion in 18-122.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right. And I would just also say for the record, Mr. Garber, that in addition to the letter, also attached to Mr. Holzer's Motions is a copy of Judge Beverungen's initial Order in case 2018-0122-X, which I think in order --

CHAIR: Yes, you need to have bot.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- the letter has to, has to, since the letter refers to the original Order, the original Order is also an exhibit to the Motion.

CHAIR: Are we all on the same page? I would agree with that, that makes the most sense.

MR. HOLZER: I think, I think that's why I spent all my time getting this ready.

CHAIR: I know and I'm, I'm, I'm glad that I wasted the last ten minutes of everyone's time trying to figure out how to get this done for all of you, which you already figured out and I could have just remained client the whole time and you would have been ahead of the game.

MR. HOLZER: No problem.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. MCCOMAS: Jason, so, so we're going to admit in as Exhibit 1 --

CHAIR: We're, we're just, everything is i.d. only because it's already going to be in the record for purposes of the Motion being received, and also it is the subject of the appeal. Bless you, bless you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: And Mr. Holzer, that works for you?

MR. HOLZER: I've heard so many different options now, it works, it, it works. Whether it works for me or not, is another story, but.

CHAIR: Right. But for purposes of the appeal, as long as that's covered.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, are you satisfied for the record in 19-004? Bless you, bless you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Excuse me, yes, sir. I apologize.

CHAIR: All right. So, the record in 19-004 we do not need anything further, is that correct?

MR. HOLZER: That's correct from my side.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right. So, the record in 19-004 will be closed, no matter how much I comment further or not. All right. So, with that in mind, we can then go to the matters of scheduling both the memos and deliberation for, because both will be decided, both matters will be decided at the deliberation. So, we'll do both the same day, for those who did not understand what I just said.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I assume that you would like our memos to address both, both cases?

CHAIR: Yes. Yes, well, --

MR. HOLZER: Separate memos.

CHAIR: -- it would be better to do them separately because they are separate cases still.

MR. SCHMIDT: Cases.

CHAIR: And again, who knows what happens going forward. So, yes, it would be better to have separate memos on them.

MR. SCHMIDT: On each case?

CHAIR: On each case.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: I'm assuming the record in 19-004 will be easier to get through.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, yes.

CHAIR: So, with that in mind, I had warned everyone previously that we're going to have a shorter schedule. All right. Sorry, the discussion up here was concerning your original Motion from day one. What was entitled the preliminary Motion.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: As to whether, where that stands in terms of its resolution. I had understood that, this is my recollection, because again, it was nine months ago or thereabouts, that it had been resolved because obviously we proceeded with the next eleven days of hearings.

MR. HOLZER: You ruled and --

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: -- and denied my, my Motion.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: So it was one.

CHAIR: And that's what we're just clarifying, so that matter is, and that's on case 18-122.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: That's been resolved.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: And if you needed it to be addressed any further, it could be addressed at the deliberation if it did. But I don't --

MR. HOLZER: I don't believe it does because you --

CHAIR: -- I don't believe it does either.

MR. HOLZER: -- we were asking for a postponement literally. That's what it, --

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: -- the Motion was about. And since it was denied and we went ahead, we've had eleven other days since then.

CHAIR: I assume right. The postponement request would be a little fruitless at the present time.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: All right. So, with that in mind, I warned everyone in advance that we're going to have abbreviated memo schedules, that is abbreviated from what we are generally accustomed too in light of various backend pressures on the Board's schedule. So, with that in mind, frankly the way, and I understand, Mr. Holzer, you have a vacation coming up too?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes. March the 6th, I believe, was the date. March the 6th through March the 21st, it was two weeks.

CHAIR: All right. I can tell you also that there's a Board member that has a, will also be out of town for anticipated two weeks from the 15th through the 30th of March. With that in mind, it seems to me that we should have the memos in, I would say by March 1st.

MR. HOLZER: That's two weeks.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Two weeks and two days.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Is that something --

MR. HOLZER: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- that can be accomplished?

MR. HOLZER: No. No, not for me.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, I'm, I'm, I'm inclined to try to work with you on it.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: At the same time, I, it is my position we absolutely need it before you leave because it's going to be tough enough to schedule everything and get an opinion done in the timeframe it has to be done. So, I realize it's a sacrifice on your part. I'm not trying to belittle that or, or to otherwise give you a hard time about it.

MS. DOPKIN: This was discussed at our last hearing.

MR. HOLZER: Could you put on the, could you put on the record why, why the Board, after eleven days of hearing, and going from July to February, that it has to be done, you know, normally we have three weeks --

CHAIR: We've, we have put it on the record already. Ms. Dopkin's term expires at the end of April, which means the opinion has to be out by the end of April.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, writing that, writing the opinion in this case is going to obviously take some significant time. And it has to be, then be approved by all Board members, depending on whatever, you know, the outcome is.

MR. HOLZER: Well, could, I mean, I'm going away but that doesn't mean that if we could have like to March the 15th, or something like that, I'm, I'm going to be available to either work on it, modify it, re, refine it. So, I mean, I would request at least till March the 15th.

CHAIR: I would, well, again, let's take this back, because if you make it March 15th, for the sake of argument, then one of the Board members is not going to be around until the beginning of April.

MR. HOLZER: Oh.

CHAIR: Which means that pushes the deliberation back into April at some point.

MS. DOPKIN: That's not going to work.

CHAIR: And that's going to be, again, it'll give us three to four weeks to try to get the opinion in order, which in cases that have been similar to this in the past, it has taken a lot, a lot longer than thirty days, twenty-one days, whatever the case may be here, to write the, the opinion and have it out in time. So, we're, I'm, we're, we're going to be on a condensed scheduled in terms of coming up with whatever opinion. So, how about this? What if we make it March 4th? That'll give you the extra weekend to get it done.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: This way you get the extra weekend to get it done so, I mean, even if --

MR. HOLZER: Well, Monday is, is Monday the 5th?

CHAIR: The 4th.

MR. HOLZER: Or 4th?

MR. SCHMIDT: Monday is the 4th.

CHAIR: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Fourth.

CHAIR: So, it would be two days before you leave for --

MR. HOLZER: Can, can we do the 5th?

CHAIR: I don't, I don't have a problem with the 5th. Do you have a problem?

MS. DOPKIN: I don't care.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, I don't care.

CHAIR: So, March 5th.

MR. HOLZER: Thanks.

CHAIR: Yeah.

MS. DOPKIN: Three p.m. is what --

CHAIR: Three p.m. is the, right, the normal, we'll have it in in the normal course. If you believe that there are exhibits that are important to your Motion, please attach them to the Motions.

MS. DOPKIN: Memos.

CHAIR: Or excuse me, memos, sorry.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, one question about that. Obviously, we'll submit, I think Ms. Cannington always tells us to submit an original and three copies of our Motion.

MS. DOPKIN: Memo.

CHAIR: Memo.

MR. HOLZER: The memo.

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, of the memo, and I can, I mean, I can also submit it electronically and hard, is that, it's up, I mean, does that make it easier for the Board?

CHAIR: As long as there's confirmation of receipt and Ms. Cannington's okay with it, I don't have a problem with it. Mr. Holzer, would you have a problem if that was, if it was done that way?

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll, I'll give you both a hard copy and an electronic copy that you can have e-mailed to you if you want.

MR. HOLZER: I don't care.

CHAIR: Would that work for you?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: Okay. So, yeah, so that's fine and it's fine obviously for Mr. Holzer, if you choose to avail yourself of the same.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Now, with that in mind, in terms of deliberation then, the 15th through the 30th is out, so either we could do it sometime, well, obviously if the memos are coming in the 5th, we're not going to do it for the rest of that week for sure. Then we have the following week up until the, which leaves 11th through the 14th. Or that means we wait till April. It would seem to me it would be better to do between 11th and 14th, but I want to hear from Mr. Holzer on that since he's the one who has vacation, or is not going to be around.

MR. HOLZER: Go ahead and have the deliberation while I'm in Florida.

CHAIR: Well, that's what I'm asking.

MS. DOPKIN: You'll be back, you'll be back.

MR. HOLZER: Pardon?

CHAIR: That's what I'm asking you.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, go ahead.

CHAIR: Is, how, how do you feel about that?

MR. HOLZER: You can go ahead and do it. That's fine.

CHAIR: All right. So, we'll look to some time, well, we'll try to maximize our time there, give us at least a week, sometime between 12th, 13th, 14th we'll look to schedule the deliberation. I will inform my wife of my absence for the weekends that precede it. And then it'll give us five, six weeks, whatever it is to finalize an opinion. Because again, it has to be done before April 30th.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, and I would just say, Mr. Garber, I mean, I'm looking at my calendar and I've got commitments that week too, but Mr. Kotroco is around, Mr. Wilkins is around and as long as one of us will attend the deliberation, so I'm just deferring to whatever works for you all.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Because we don't participate, obviously.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: And we just, as long as one of us is here to listen, that's all we need.

CHAIR: And I should say specifically to the Clarks, because I know that you have been the primary people on behalf of Protestants who have been here, in case you haven't been through the deliberation process, the, we sit around and we talk about how the case is going to resolve. You know, we talk about what we think and those kind of things. No one is allowed to participate other than the Board members. It is open to the public, so everyone here or even not here conceivably can attend, this applies, by the way, to both sides, sorry.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: But because Mr. Holzer is not going to be there, that's the reason why I'm directing it to this side. So, certainly, it's a public matter so that you can attend but there are no questions, no participation from counsel, there's no participation from any party or witness or anyone else. It's just the three Board members discussing it. And I, right, --

MS. DOPKIN: (inaudible).

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: And those as, as the Board normally does, she keeps a record of the --

MR. SCHMIDT: Minutes.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Minutes of it and those are available to the public.

CHAIR: And then they're posted --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- shortly after, when I say shortly, it's not like within minutes, no pun intended. It's within a couple days, thereabouts.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right.

CHAIR: So, it then, for those who do not attend, they can see what was discussed. It is not done verbatim, it is basically a highlights.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: And then, the opinion will follow, which will be obviously a bit more detailed. Just to explain the process, if you're not --

MR. HOLZER: Right, I will.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: I'll talk to them.

CHAIR: Well, no, not that you wouldn't, but just so they know sitting here so there's not the confusion as to that, what happens next part of it.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Is there anything further that needs to be said or done with respect to either matter, 18-122 and 19-004?

MR. HOLZER: Not on behalf of the Protestants.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: All right. So, why don't we then say, assuming Court schedule works out for that, we'll make deliberation March 13th. And then March 5th was for the memos. Now, the good news about that is we already have transcripts too, so I, do both parties have the transcripts or whatever it is you need for your memos?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I, yeah, and I, I was asking Mr.

Holzer about this and I was going to ask Ms. Cannington, I believe we have, essentially, transcripts for the Petitioner's case. I, I don't know, I, I'll ask Mr. Garber if you know, have transcripts been, been prepared of the tapes when we've not had a court reporter here?

CHAIR: Some. For Mr. McComas' benefit primarily.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, all right.

CHAIR: And the, obviously the days that he sat here, the answer would be no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Are those available to, for us to come over and make copies?

CHAIR: I will discuss that with Ms. Cannington. I will look to make them available.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: As, as per last time, there's always the copying issue, which becomes a, a matter for the County. So, that is something that will have to be considered.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, we can --

MR. HOLZER: Downstairs they, or, you know, some of the departments, they just give it to me and (inaudible) --

CHAIR: I, I will discuss it with Ms. Cannington as to how that, but the answer to your direct question is yes, they will be made available to you. The only question is, how will they be made available.

MR. HOLZER: Sure, yeah.

CHAIR: And Mr. Holzer, do you have a copy of the transcripts that were done for Petitioner's case?

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: Okay. I don't know how that will resolve but I understood that those copies would be provided to everyone. Was I wrong on that?

MR. SCHMIDT: I think what I said, I have to look at the transcript, I believe what, and this is just kind of typical, that our typical Motion at the beginning is that I will have it transcribed, I will provide a copy to the Board and obviously anyone who wants to talk to the court reporter because the court reporters are a little funny about --

CHAIR: Copying.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- copying stuff and giving it to people because they don't get their cut. So, I gave a copy, I know, I think what I said is I would give a copy to the Board, which I think we've, I think my office has done.

CHAIR: Yes, we do have, we do have copies and I don't know where it was left with Mr. Holzer with those copies because all we have --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, he can certainly, I can give him, it's Irwin Reporting and he can talk to them and get a copy from them.

CHAIR: So, just because I want to give you an expectation as to those transcripts, there are only three that we have that were done independent of the court reporter retained by Mr. Schmidt.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And one of them is of the November 29th evidentiary hearing, so no testimony in there.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, there's only two days that we would have otherwise.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: I know that, for example, Dr. Mary Clark's testimony is one of those days and Ms. Mason's testimony is one of those days and maybe Mr. Poehler, if I remember correctly, for example. I'm sure Dr. Dewey Clark, on the other hand, because his testimony was spread over three days, --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- only part of his testimony is going to be reflected --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- within.

MR. SCHMIDT: Because then Mr. McComas joined us for the last two days of that.

CHAIR: Right, the last two.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right.

CHAIR: All right. To give you an expectation, so the first four days of Petitioner's case --

MR. SCHMIDT: Lucky Mr. McComas only had two days.

CHAIR: -- that's a different matter, because the Board does not have them from the Board's own election to have the transcription for those days.

MR. HOLZER: That's okay.

CHAIR: Okay?

MR. HOLZER: I can take care of it.

CHAIR: All right. I just wanted to give you an expectation as to what there was.

MR. HOLZER: Right, how much, what there is.

CHAIR: And how to go about it, obtaining it.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, thank you.

CHAIR: Yep.

MR. HOLZER: No, appreciate that.

CHAIR: Yeah. And it, so I take it that there's nothing further. So, I want to thank everyone here for all your attendance and, and patience. I know this case has not been easy for anybody or everybody for that matter. We managed to get through it. I do appreciate, though, the fact that, I know there were times that may have seemed that, you know, the parties and counsel and the Board may have had some moments that needed to be addressed. But in the end, you were all well served by your counsel. (inaudible) I can assure you that it, there is a lot, obviously, to go on and think about in this matter.

So, thank you all for attending. Thank you all for your patience and thank you all for your participation because this is the time for public participation and, you know, the County gets better when there are more people involved and there are more people participating. And so, thank you all for attending for any or all of these days.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you and I appreciate the Board's indulgence and particularly Mr. McComas. I appreciate his challenge of having to get caught up to speed. So, I know it's difficult, but. Thank you, all.

CHAIR: We also appreciate the efforts of whatever airline flew you back here from Lake Tahoe.

MS. DOPKIN: We are off the record.

(ON RECORD – 09:12:17 AM)

MS. DOPKIN: We are recording.

CHAIR: Thank you. All right. Good morning. We are here today on the matter of Nepali American Cultural Center, case number 18-122-X. I'm at a loss at the moment as to what number day we're at.

MS. DOPKIN: Ten I believe.

MR. HOLZER: Ten.

CHAIR: Ten? Thank you, all. Sorry, I'm trying to get through all my paperwork here. There it is. I would have figured out ten, thank you. All right. First thing to go through real quick, as best as I can, I had indicated to all parties last time about reviewing the record to go see what questions remains about the status as to certain exhibits. That is, as we went on throughout the case, there would be times when we would, we would talk about exhibits and, I don't know if you guys remember this, but sometimes we would get sidetracked. And so, we have then some of these exhibits left in limbo. So, I want to make sure that we have everything in evidence that's supposed to be in evidence and we have marked clearly for the, the record that's going to be reduced to a transcript, what is in and what is not in. So, in my brief review and, and I see, Mr. Holzer, you, you must have done the same exercise.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Chairman, I have a copy for each member of the Board and for counsel so it's easier to follow through this.

CHAIR: Sure, and again, the purpose here is to match our records, to make sure the transcript matches what we all have.

MR. HOLZER: Right. And we tried to, to do that yesterday, we had some, I don't know that you need to, it's up to the Board if you want to mark these as exhibits or just want to use them.

CHAIR: I think let's just use them because it's not an exhibit by itself, but thank you --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- for the extra copy and thank you for doing that work too. Because actually, it, it will be very helpful to go on.

MR. HOLZER: I, I think it will.

CHAIR: Because the, a lot of the questions are particular to the Protestant's side of things, not as much Petitioner's, that's pretty clear for the most part, other than me confirming on the record I found was it, make sure I have the right, oh, yes. Okay. One, 1-A, two, three, four, eight, eleven and fourteen for Petitioner, there were, I don't know if it ever said in the record, in the transcripts, that it was admitted or received specifically. But it was certainly understood all were admitted and at the end of your case, you said the same thing. That is, all my exhibits, I believe, are in.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: And I think that's what probably the records here, Mr. McComas, show and Mr. Holzer agreed that they were. So, to the extent that there's any ambiguity, they're all admitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, that --

CHAIR: Because I went back to see what objections you had at the time too and there were none that I saw that were not otherwise resolved or whatever the case may be.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, Mr. Garber, I, I re, recall pretty clearly that at the end of my case --

CHAIR: You did.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- which is kind of my usual practice, I just, before I rest my case, I wanted to indicate that all the exhibits were in. I think Ms. Murphy was sitting in the chair at that time.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: But, but all, that was my understanding that the response from the Board was yes, they are all in.

CHAIR: Right. And, and this is just to make sure that there's not any ambiguity --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: -- between the two thing, that, and that is, certainly my recollection, that is confirmed by the transcript, that is you did, in fact, ask for that. But also during the course of the exhibits as they were introduced, there either were no objections or there were, objections were resolved or whatever the case may be. So, there may have been a spot where we said nothing about it being admitted or received formally speaking, but it was certainly understood by our records, whether it be Ms. Murphy or Mr. McComas.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, and I think what happened, as I recall, just because of the order of witnesses, --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- like for example, when Mr. Ghimire may have testified, he may have referred to a plan that Mr. Mosco, the engineer, may not have already testified so that was the source of that discussion.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: That when Mr. Motsco testifies, this will be moved, --

CHAIR: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- and then it was moved.

CHAIR: In addition, some exhibits, and I think equally applicable, were identified during the course of the openings and then when it came to full, time to actually be identified for the record during the course of evidence, it may not have been addressed in that manner, but it was understood.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right. And Mr. Holzer had the initial memo, motion that he filed in this case, that there, I think we were referring possibly to an exhibit or a plan, you know, that kind of thing.

CHAIR: Right, that's why, right. So, that's why I'm saying.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: So, I think Petitioner is squared away. As to Protestants, so I, I had understood that starting with the Motion part of it, there, there was a prior ruling, and this is just to clarify, just so we're on the same page, that the exhibits attached to the motion are not substantive evidence in the case and that during the course of the case, whatever you felt you needed from that Motion, for part of your evidence, you would then go along the way. I then have identified, particularly, and I see, you can sit down for this for the moment.

MR. HOLZER: I think I can, once you're finished explaining what you've got, I think it would be helpful if I went through this because it's a, quite an extensive list of documents and I can articulate which ones have to be verified and which ones are proffers, etcetera.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: So, I mean, it's up to you obviously.

CHAIR: No, I, I, I am inclined to do it the fastest, the most efficient way possible. And if you believe that that is the case, I will, I will certainly adopt what you're, you're suggesting.

MR. HOLZER: Well, you, thank you very much. If you start at the top of this document that I provided to the Board, you can see we have the day listed up till nine, we have the exhibit number and then a description of what it was and then the word in, and if, if it's an x, that means it was in. If it was marked for identification, it's in that column and then the notes will explain what, if anything, is involved. So, therefore, you can see Exhibits 1 and 2 are in, 3 is in, 4 is aerial photo, it was a drone photo --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- and we have an affidavit and a, and a photo specs in an affidavit to, at whatever point you want to get this done, that's when we would present it to move, to move it in.

CHAIR: So, and for those, and it seems to be photos are the --

MR. HOLZER: A lot of them.

CHAIR: -- I'm going to say the least controversial aspect, that perhaps Mr. Schmidt, you can show them to Mr. Schmidt, whatever it is you feel that you need to complete the record on those to make them admissible or whatever the case is. Then if there's an agreement, then we can move on from there.

MR. HOLZER: Do you want to do it now?

CHAIR: I would suggest during a break maybe to do that, because I know that we have some other things to get to today, of course. I just, the reason why I'm bringing this up now is because next week we have our scheduled last day for the hearing and so for any evidentiary questions I want them to try to be as, resolved as much as possible today so people can prepare for the last day.

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

CHAIR: That, that's the purpose of why I'm trying to do it like this and just to introduce what is going on and --

MR. HOLZER: So, if I could just run through this very briefly.

CHAIR: Sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Holzer, can I ask a question?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: What's fix i.d. mean in the one column? I.d. and then fix i.d.?

MR. HOLZER: That means we want to try to get it in.

MR. SCHMIDT: You want to fix it?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

MR. HOLZER: We want to get it introduced.

MR. SCHMIDT: I just didn't know, I want to make sure

I'm --

CHAIR: Just to be clear, I, the, the column that says i.d., I understand to be i.d. only at the moment, that is we have a --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- obviously designated as a particular exhibit.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: And then the fix i.d. is that you are coming back to it to address?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, and that would be, for instance, through affidavits or exhibits that would identify the photos four, fourteen and twenty-one and you'll see as we go down the list six is in, seven is --

CHAIR: Well, let me read this, so that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Yeah. I mean, I appreciate the fact that you did this and then we'll, we'll match it up and then we'll figure out where we stand after a break.

MR. HOLZER: That's fine with me.

CHAIR: As to that.

MR. HOLZER: Save time.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Absolutely.

CHAIR: Because I don't want, I want to make sure the record is complete to whatever it needs to be because I realize that there were a bunch of objections during the course of presentation of certain evidence and, and later you would say, well, we're going to bring someone in to authenticate or whatever the case is.

MR. HOLZER: And just so that the Board knows, we tried to explain under the notes exactly what has to be done or sometimes one exhibit is later identified and marked as in in, with another number, and that's all straightened out too.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: So, --

CHAIR: So.

MR. MCCOMAS: I did a quick little check based off this. The only thing that I see that we have a discrepancy on is number seventeen, the Mary Clark dash cam. He has it indicated as i.d. only and I have it on the, on the chart here as in.

CHAIR: So, yes, if you went by the transcript, you would only have it as i.d. only. But last week I believe it was admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, okay.

CHAIR: That's what I have in my notes. That it was admitted on January 30th.

MR. MCCOMAS: Well, it was originally identified as i.d. then I have a strike through it.

CHAIR: Right, so that one you've already cured, or resolved.

MR. HOLZER: Great.

CHAIR: One last thing.

MR. HOLZER: Actually the Board just straightened it out.

CHAIR: Well, we, --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: -- we, we all did it as a team.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, with that in mind, now I know that there were several Motions that were filed yesterday. Leaving that aside at the moment, we also have the Motion, Exhibit 34, which has been identified as an ex parte communication. I know we discussed this the last time as to when the timing for all the, to deal with it. I think it's best to deal with it now so this way we can, again, recognizing next week may be the last day for hearing, people can adjust whatever they need to for that purpose. If they feel they need to.

MR. HOLZER: You, you'll recall I suggested we put Mr. Jakubiak on first.

CHAIR: I don't think he's going to take too long.

MR. HOLZER: Pardon?

CHAIR: I'm, I'm assuming he's not going to take too long. I'm going to give some introductory remarks and see where we stand and then if that means it's going to be longer, then we're going to take Mr. Jakubiak.

MR. HOLZER: I, I can tell you. I have another witness on the Greater Kingsville as, as requested. I, I, I have about four or five different things, including those Motions and the response to the Motions. Mr. Jakubiak is here. I could put him on and have him crossed and he could be finished before lunch.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And then we can do a lot of this miscellaneous, because we're going to be jumping around, I think.

CHAIR: I, I just want to make sure that whatever rulings are not going to impact Mr. Jakubiak, right?

MR. HOLZER: No, I don't think so.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I really don't.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, are you, is that how you wish to proceed too?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I'm comfortable with whatever you determine is best, that's fine with me.

CHAIR: I'll defer to Mr. Holzer and we'll call Mr. Jakubiak.

MR. HOLZER: Call Mr. Jakubiak.

CHAIR: So, now that, I should have done this first obviously. We have here today Mr. Holzer on behalf of Protestants and Mr. Schmidt here on behalf of Petitioners as per every other day. Please everyone turn your cell phones off, keep talking and other things to an absolute quiet. No gesturing, no nodding in approval, no, you know, gesticulations or hands, you know, up in the air or anything else that would signal anything to this Board or to the witnesses. And again, try to make sure we keep our behavior in accordance with the fact that we are within a courtroom and should behave accordingly. So, with that in mind, --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. I'd call Mr. Jakubiak.

MR. SCHMIDT: And while he's approaching, Mr. Wilkins, who is an associate of my office and a member of the Bar is also seated at trial table.

CHAIR: I apologize, Mr. Wilkins. Right, you were here the last day.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: And I apologize.

MS. DOPKIN: Mr. Jaku --

CHAIR: GO ahead.

MS. DOPKIN: -- biak, do you swear and affirm under the penalties of perjury, that the testimony you are about to give is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I do.

MS. DOPKIN: And would you please state your name and address for the record, spelling your last name for us?

MR. JAKUBIAK: My name is Christopher Jakubiak, J-A-K-U-B-I-A-K, my address at Jakubiak & Associates, Incorporated is 115 Yorkley Road, Towson 21204.

CHAIR: And what is your position at Jakubiak & Associates?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I am the President.

CHAIR: You may have a seat.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'll, just to move things along, I'll stipulate. I assume Mr. Holder is going to offer him as a land planner. I see Mr. --

MR. HOLZER: Land planner and zoning expert.

CHAIR: So, the tendered areas of expertise are land planner and zoning expert?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, that's correct. And I would, I think you probably already have it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And I would provide four copies of his resume and ask that that be marked as the next exhibit.

MR. MCCOMAS: Number ninety-nine.

MR. HOLZER: And I would just very briefly, Mr. Jakubiak, can you just give the Board some background about your experience, how long, where'd you graduate from, what, what clients have you been representing, etcetera?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay.

CHAIR: Well, I (inaudible) when you graduate, that we can easily take from the c.v.

MR. HOLZER: Oh.

CHAIR: But I understand what you're trying to do so.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I just want a few, few words, that's all.

CHAIR: Yeah, that's fine.

MR. JAKUBIAK: In 1992 I graduated from the University of Illinois, Department of Urban Regional Planning with a Master's degree. I've practiced since then. Beginning in 2000, I've been working as the President of Jakubiak & Associates where I provide town planning, urban planning services to communities, mostly in Maryland. I work almost exclusively in the public sector but have worked in the private sector from time to time. I provide zoning administration services for a number of communities through retainers that our firm has obtained with local jurisdictions and --

MR. HOLZER: Could you just give us like the counties or the towns that you represent, or are involved in?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Sure. Well, the City of Annapolis, for example, the City of Westminster, the Town of Centreville on Maryland's Eastern Shore, the Town of Churchill, another rural county, community in, in Queen Anne's County. That's just a handful but I've worked in other communities as well.

MR. HOLZER: And have you appeared and testified before the Administrative Law Judge of Baltimore County, the Board of Appeals for Baltimore County?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I have, both the Administrative Law Judge and this Board.

MR. HOLZER: And you, this Board has qualified you as both a planning and a zoning expert?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I think that's enough.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, you said you'd stipulate to the areas of expertise?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Do you have any questions for Mr. Jakubiak based on what was just elicited by Mr. Holzer?

MR. SCHMIDT: Not on voir dire.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: All right. So, admitted and Exhibit 99 will be admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Mr. Jakubiak, who retained you for purposes of being involved in this case?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The Greater Kingsville Community Association.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and, and I notice, and you, I think everybody noticed, that you were here the other day, the last day of the hearing --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- previous. And how did you become familiar with what, what the, this case is all about?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, of course, I sat in the hearing the past two days, past two hearings.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I read parts of the, the record from those hearings that preceded my arrival. I reviewed the, the landscape, looked at mapping. I've looked at the site plan that was proposed for the special exception. I visited the site on two occasions. I'm generally familiar with the, the area as well.

MR. HOLZER: How, how, how did you generally become familiar with the area? I mean, --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Having lived in the region for all my life, except for a few years as I began my career. I've traveled from Baltimore City to Harford County along Harford Road quite extensively.

MR. HOLZER: All right. You would, he's smiling because he told me a story about his travels up Harford Road and I think that's why he, he's very familiar with the, with the road system.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Many a late evening, my dad has driven us from Baltimore City up to our home in Harford County using Harford Road so I remember the twisty, turny road and the winding nature of that road as a small child.

MR. HOLZER: Right. What is your understanding of the Petition before us today, Mr. Jakubiak?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The Petition is for a special exception for a church or other building for religious worship. The proposal, as I understand it, is to rehabilitate the existing building and to create within that building a temple or some other building for religious worship. But also to, to, to improve the site with thirty-eight parking spaces. At the County's parking standards, those thirty-eight spaces, you know, can accommodate an occupancy in a church of a hundred and fifty seats. So, that's just sort of the scale and magnitude that I'm considering it.

But another element of this is, it goes beyond the, the building itself and that's the, the festivals and other activities that I understand, based on the record, will occur on the site, multiple day festivals, three or four over the course of the year.

MR. HOLZER: What about the, the, the lawn area? Was there any discussion in the documents that you reviewed about that?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, the testimony of the engineer indicated that the lawn area would be used as overflow parking for events when the thirty-eight parking spaces would not be sufficient.

MR. HOLZER: To, just to give us some background, what is your understanding of the standard of Maryland concerning approval and denial of special exceptions?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay. Well, the special exception requires an individualized assessment, obviously. And there are two focal points that I'd like to stress and one is the, it's the particular use at the particular location.

If the particular use at this particular location causes impacts to adjoining properties or to the neighborhood that are more adverse than what you might find inherent with that proposed use, the Board can deny the application. And it's the, the applicant, or the Petitioner, that has the, the burden of proof in insuring that, demonstrating that the various requirements of the code would be complied with. So, what I'd like to do today is talk a little bit about that particular location and particular use and how the impacts raise concerns certainly for the adjoining property owners.

CHAIR: Here's someone coming the door.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Sorry?

CHAIR: I just hear someone coming in, that's all. All right. (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: What, what standard must be met that relates to particular use of the, of the particular location? Can you explain that?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I'm going to explain what the, an example, I guess. If the noise is a, noise is an impact inherent in any, almost any use candidly, certainly within a church or religious building. If there's something particular about that location, of the site or circumstances concerning how the use would be occupied that raise questions about whether the noise would be worse than typically associated with a church, that then makes this whole question relevant and certainly provides the Board of Appeals with the, the opportunity, perhaps the obligation, to deny an applicant, a Petition for Special Exception.

MR. HOLZER: So, is a special exception sort of a way to require the Board to consider individualized assessments, is that what you're saying?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yeah, absolutely. A church and religious institution is not a, a fixed use, right? Churches, institutions or any use has a particular, or may be different in the given location. It's not a question of denomination. Certainly, a Christian church can be used quite differently than another Christian church. The activities on the property can be such that they're unique. So, the individ, individualized assessment is about what is being proposed on that particular use.

For instance, a, a, a small church that requires windows to be open because there's no air conditioning and the music is so loud that the adjoining properties are affected during the course of the day, Sunday or Wednesday, that's an offsite impact that requires an individ, individualized assessment. It's not enough to simply say a church has impacts so be it. An individualized assessment is required.

MR. HOLZER: And does the, the County code, zoning regulations, provide a way to analyze those by certain criteria?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. Fortunately, there are some, a pathway to get to that individualized assessment, and that is the 502.1 standards and the, that would, I certainly would hope to get to that analysis before my testimony is completed.

MR. HOLZER: Is there a presumption of validity that's involved and is there a standard upon which that must be rebutted or overcome?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. So, the, a special exception is presumed to be valid. And it, but it certainly places the Board of Appeals in a decision making role to make a determination and that standard is the one that I discussed before, are the impacts there, at that location, more adverse or, or more impactful than is inherit in the use. If that, those, that standard is not met, the, the, the application is deniable.

MR. HOLZER: Is it, is, is it appropriate to say that the way an institution intends or a facility of whatever is being asked as a special exception, intends to use the land, is that relevant to the special exception assessment?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it certainly is. If the parking required for an institution is expansive to a degree that storm water management is impacted, that's an individualized impact on a site that, you know, raises concerns about whether the impacts there are more adverse than inherent. If the uses proposed raise questions as to whether it's even consistent with the spirit and intent of the zoning category, that's certainly a, something that ought to be considered in the adverse analysis.

MR. HOLZER: So, in, in your answer to that question, would the, would one, only just one of the factors that is involved here in regard to the three or four multi day festivals that are being proposed, would that come under the, the answer that you just gave or, or articulated? The fact that there are festivals, do they become relevant?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, and in this case, particularly relevant. I think that this is perhaps the most significant relevancy that I can gather from my analysis so far of this case.

MR. HOLZER: And will you get into that, that a little bit later in your testimony?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Can you provide an overview of the vicinity where this property is located?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. So, this, this site is located, as the Board knows by now, on Harford Road, in a section of Harford Road that is very rural. Harford Road itself is a, is an interesting transition from very urban to very rural. And it, you can read Harford Road as a, as a, an example of the success of the County's planning framework, if you will. It travels from Baltimore City heads north, as you cross 695, it's still urban but a bit suburban as you pass Carney heading, heading north.

It's not long before the road begins to become a two lane highway, very rural in appearance. By the time you cross Hartley Mill Road, where the, the branch of the Long Green Creek crosses there, it's completely rural. The fields and forest are very evident and one aspect of this site, this, especially relevant in this, to this discussion is that the geology of the land comes into focus. The road conforms itself now to the landscape and to the geology, both vertically, there are hills going up and down, and horizontally. It winds its way up to Mount Vista.

That's an important kind of aspect of a, of a cultural landscape that has maintained its relevance over centuries on this property, or this area. Interesting is the view that you have from the, the valley floor before Harford Road starts making its way up to Mount Vista. You have the view of the, the prominent view of Bella Vista, the, the old Bonaparte Estate and the house is, exists there now and the second house on that location, as I gather, but it's very much a focal point for a short period of time as you travel at speed on, on the highway.

That relationship between the house up on the prominent part, overlooking what is a very narrow valley is quite a unique cultural landscape. And by cultural landscape I mean it's an area that, or it's, it's, you can see the history on the landscape. You can see the interrelationship between the valley floor, farming, how it's been carved out by water over the course of millennia and the improvements that have been made by humans on the property. And it's not a far stretch to imagine how this area factored into the lives of native Americans, which I gather from reading the Long Green Historic District application, was an active hunting area as far back as ten thousand years ago. The, the archeologist that found quite a few, you know, artifacts from that time, arrows and other, arrow points and other things, within the area. So, this particular site has to be a major archeological element of this cultural landscape because of its geology and its prominence.

Certainly, Mr. Bonaparte, when that house was built, he was a, the attorney general under Theodore Roosevelt. He selected that site and while other property he owned within the Long Green Historic District, he selected that site because of its prominence and farmed it, so it's been in that use for quite a while and that relationship speaks to the enduring qualities of the master plan, that seeks to preserve rural landscapes, rural legacy areas.

MR. HOLZER: Excuse me, Mr. Chairman, could I just hand him his water?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: He seems to be --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Oh.

MR. HOLZER: You might need to take a swallow every once in a while.

CHAIR: You want to just take a one minute break, two minute break just to, so that is accomplished or --

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. HOLZER: He says he's okay.

CHAIR: You're fine? Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I'm fine.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you for the offer.

CHAIR: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: I, I interrupted you --

CHAIR: He was, master plan seeks to preserve --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I, I interrupted you at the time where you began a discussion on the County's master plan.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. JAKUBIAK: So, I, I guess I was, perhaps concluding that, wrapping that up. But the general question about the, the vicinity of the, the area, the, the area also includes houses. Low density houses on well and septic, one to two, two and a half acre lots on Harford Road in close proximity to this particular site.

So, the, the relationship between this historic landscape and this emerging pattern of residents or development can't be dismissed. It's very much a factor that has happened over time.

CHAIR: Well, and is that your point about the master plan? I was in the middle of writing that down when I guess we got the water. You were saying something about the master plan seeks to preserve, and I don't know if there was a point that you were going with that.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Oh. Those historic landscapes, the cultural landscapes, by preserving rural lands not only do you preserve agricultural resources and the, the general agricultural land mass, and of course, preserving agriculture means not just preserving properties and agricultural use, it's about preserving a larger district, so that farming can operate without interference from urban development. In fact, I'd like to at some point talk a little bit about the master plan and it speaks to that very, very question through its designation of this area and through the text in the report.

MR. HOLZER: Can you describe the, I think you testified that you've been out in the area at least twice on this particular, looking at this particular property, but also you have traversed Harford Road. Could you just define Harford Road when it gets in the area of the subject site?

MR. JAKUBIAK: When you say define it? Do you mean characterize it?

MR. HOLZER: Well, yeah, characterize it.

MR. JAKUBIAK: In the area of the subject site it's a, it's a two lane highway, no shoulders. Perhaps the, the striping allows a bit of hard surface just beyond the, the travel lane, so we --

CHAIR: Well, just so I understand what, because you're describing it as a two lane highway, no shoulders, etcetera. What are the starting points, what are the boundaries --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- for that, what you are describing? Because obviously we know the further south you go, it's not necessarily that way.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay.

CHAIR: So, just for the record, when you're describing what the road is, --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Allow me to describe it from Hartley Mill Road --

CHAIR: There you go.

MR. JAKUBIAK: -- to Mount Vista, to the roundabout.

CHAIR: Yes, thank you.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Very much rural in character. It's, and its function is primarily through there to carry traffic north and south, not so much to provide direct access to any individual property. In fact, most, most properties are accessed from a side road or, or something similar to that. So, you don't see a pattern of houses or businesses or institutions fronting onto the street, onto the road at all.

MR. HOLZER: Would you also describe what you understand is the subject site?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. The subject site is a 30.86 acres, accessed by Harford Road. Its, as I mentioned earlier, it sits at a very prominent point. At the top of a very narrow valley through which Harford Road runs. There's a building on the property at its highest point with an elevation of four hundred and two feet above sea level. That building sits about two hundred feet above the valley floor and that's why you have such a prominent relationship. It's visible, a scenic view along that road.

But only a small part of that total property, thirty acres, is usable. And even its use is constrained by the, the sloping terrain. So, the, the building itself sits on the southern promontory or the southern part of the, the, the cleared area and from that four hundred and two foot elevation, the land slopes on either side of the access drive coming in but it slopes particularly steeply to the west. In fact, the tennis courts that have been discussed before, are about a hundred and thirty feet from the side of the house, on the west side of the house.

Beyond that, the land drops in a very steep way. About a hundred and forty feet, hundred and twenty feet of that is, is wooded. And but the, is wooded. But the, the woods are below the elevation of the, the house and the elevation of the, the land that's usable.

The driveway from Harford Road traverses up to the building, generally within the, the, the contours of the land, so it doesn't take the most direct approach. It works its way up in a gradual way and on either side of the, the driveway, the land is relatively flat but sloping until it drops off directly. I had some exhibits that I'd like to show.

MR. HOLZER: Can you identify what the first document is?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: You don't have to describe what it shows, just, it's a map, is that correct? Or is it, just tell me physically what it is.

CHAIR: So, you're about to show an exhibit, can you just, can you just identify what the exhibit is?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

CHAIR: Before you, don't testify, don't provide testimony, I just, just for identification, just for the record.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

CHAIR: And then make sure Mr. Schmidt has his copy before we get to any testimony.

MR. JAKUBIAK: The first exhibit that I'd like to show is Baltimore County MyNeighborhood topographic map.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I need all of them.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I only have one.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: And there's four.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: I don't get one.

CHAIR: Would you like to use a copy?

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Yeah, no problem.

MR. HOLZER: And this is?

CHAIR: Protestant's Exhibit 100. Right, Mr. McComas? Mr. Schmidt, are you ready?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Mr. Jakubiak, you described this Protestant's Exhibit 100 as a caption by Baltimore County – MyNeighborhood. What, what relevance does this document have in your testimony?

MR. JAKUBIAK: This document visually shows what I've been explaining about the, the contours and the topography of the land. So, you might see in the center of this exhibit, the existing house on the property and you'll see that there's a dot there in the middle of the house that designates the elevation at four hundred and two feet. And you can notice the contour lines, which are the gray lines that connect points of equal elevation on the landscape and if you head towards Harford Road from the house, in that very direct line, you'll see that there's another contour line at three hundred feet. So, between that three hundred feet and roughly the four hundred feet, we've dropped in elevation by one hundred feet down to Harford Road.

You drop another twenty feet to the, the contour line that, you know, runs, or runs along the houses there and one of those houses is the Clark residence, with the detached garage. So, that you see a, a, quite a drop in elevation of a hundred and twenty-two feet really over the course of that distance. I'd like to provide another --

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

MR. JAKUBIAK: -- exhibit that shows the same thing in more detail.

CHAIR: Well, before, before, before we get there, Mr. Schmidt, any objection to one hundred?

MR. SCHMIDT: I guess my only question is I'm familiar with looking at contour lines and I, I don't know whether to ask this to Mr. Jakubiak later or just raise it but is, is there a scale or any indication on the document as to what each line is? Do you understand what I'm asking?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I think that's usually on --

CHAIR: The, the first line --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- the, that's usually on most of the contour maps that I've seen where it shows what each line is, or it says the scale is ten feet between lines or something and this doesn't, so.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, can you answer that?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I can.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yeah, contour interval is twenty feet.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: So, there's twenty feet between each line.

CHAIR: So, with that in mind, do you have any objection to Exhibit 100?

MR. SCHMIDT: And Mr., Mr. Jakubiak, this was taken from MyNeighborhood?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it was, exactly.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Have you produced another document?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The, the, no, the other document is a more detailed view of it.

CHAIR: Before you start testimony, make sure Mr. Schmidt has an opportunity to review. Okay. Mr. Schmidt, are you ready?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Thank you.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, this Exhibit 101, is this also from Baltimore County MyNeighborhood?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it is.

MR. HOLZER: And that's where you obtained it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I did.

MR. HOLZER: All right. You heard Mr. Schmidt's question about the difference between the lines. You testified in the previous document that it was twenty feet?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Is that the same as on this document?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. What, why did you produce this document for purposes of your testimony?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I produced it just to aid the Board in, in seeing the difference in elevations. This is just a, a greater detailed exhibit.

CHAIR: Basically, it's like a zoom in of the one hundred?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yeah, a zoom, thank you. Yes, yes, it is.

MR. HOLZER: So, that, that your testimony in regard to Exhibit 100 with the 402 feet and then across Harford Road, Route 147, shows the Clark residence?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it's also visible in that, that exhibit as well.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: In that exhibit, you mean 101?

MR. JAKUBIAK: 101.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, sorry.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: I would offer 101.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, no objection with that explanation, thank you.

CHAIR: So, so admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Now, do you have another document?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I do. And this document is an aerial photograph from Google Earth.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, you should just keep one.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And, and hand me the rest.

CHAIR: So, Protestant's Exhibit 102 and what are we identifying this as for the record?

MR. HOLZER: I was waiting for Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: Yeah, I just meant for identification.

MR. HOLZER: Oh.

CHAIR: Not necessarily the test, the substance of the testimony.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, this is an aerial photo of which I believe shows re, a reflection of Exhibit 100 and 101.

MR. SCHMIDT: No objection. It's from Google Earth, I think, I assume.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, that's what it says.

CHAIR: That, and I believe that's how we started when it was first --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- pointed out, so.

MR. HOLZER: Mr., Mr. Jakubiak, --

CHAIR: Just for the record, it's admitted then, if you, no objection.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Mr. Jakubiak, on one, photo 102, is there anything you would like to explain in regard to that photo now that we've seen the first two, which were nothing more than different height lines, I'm sorry, I had a moment. Go ahead.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, and this is a, kind of the same geography, without the contour lines. But the, the, perhaps the Board can visualize the land sloping to the south, away from the site, which would be in the direction from the building, the main building on the property, towards the words Google Earth. And see the substantial slope as well on the west side of the building, which is in, in the direction of Harford Road.

I wanted the Board to see the, the land that's, that's cleared on the property at the entrance, or from the, along the entrance drive, toward the building. And I wanted the Board to see the, the forested slope working its way down to Harford Road and the adjoining houses.

MR. HOLZER: Could I ask you two questions. One question is, does, can, can you identify where the tennis courts are?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. The tennis courts are just about a hundred and twenty feet to the west of the building. There's a, there's a paved area, I guess I would be apt to describe it that way.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: That's between the tree line and the, the building.

MR. HOLZER: All right and I'm really confused in regard to where the existing entrance is now. Can you describe where that is? Because it certainly doesn't show up very clearly in these pictures.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, the, the existing entrance is, is not shown on this particular exhibit. It's just too focused of an image. I do have a photograph that shows the existing entrance if that would help.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I'd like, I'd like, so the Board can have a perspective of it. Can I offer 102?

CHAIR: It was already admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: This would be 103.

CHAIR: And for the record, how are we identifying 103?

MR. HOLZER: Can you identify this picture and how you got it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: This is a Google Earth image focused on the intersection of the existing driveway and Harford Road.

MR. HOLZER: Can, can you point out, I think there is a circle in the middle of the driveway. Do you see that on this picture?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it's a landscape circle.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and is it, I just want to make sure, is it sort of in the center of the photo?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. If you look at the, the driveway surface, it appears to form a triangle essentially in the, the, the island that you're referring to is in the center of that triangle.

MR. HOLZER: All right, thank you. Any objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: No objection.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. HOLZER: 103. Do you have any other exhibits related to this specific question?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Before I would leave this exhibit, exhibit number --

MS. DOPKIN: 103.

MR. HOLZER: 103.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Thank you. Exhibit 103, it is worth mentioning that any traffic that uses, particularly leaving this site, but uses this entrance at this location, would impact the, the house across the road considerably with, particularly with traffic, headlights and even noise. This site in its present or previous use has been a single family residence. The, the conversion of it into an institutional use certainly adds a great deal of traffic that will impact the landowners across the road.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. Just to the extent that the witness is not testifying as a traffic expert. So, I just note that for the record.

CHAIR: Well, I would say that some of the items that Mr. Jakubiak had testified about there, I don't think require expertise.

MR. SCHMIDT: Um hm.

CHAIR: Such as lights or sounds. I, as to whether, what reaches the house, obviously, that's a bit more uncertain. But the fact that lights would be directed in that manner and that sound could be directed in that manner, I don't think we need an expert on those --

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: -- points, those common experiences.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, thank you.

CHAIR: So, technically overruled.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, are there, is there any, are there any more exhibits that you would like to show the Board?

MR. JAKUBIAK: And so, on this question I'd like to show the Board one more exhibit.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And 103 is admitted, just to make sure.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. JAKUBIAK: On this exhibit, just to describe it, it says distance to nearby houses.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Sorry.

CHAIR: That's okay. First time (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: This would be 104?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

CHAIR: Just so you know, Mr. Jakubiak, when the next time you come, if you possibly remember to have one copy for counsel, both your counsel, opposing counsel, then we need four for the Board.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Four.

CHAIR: Because one would be the exhibit to the file and then three for the Board members so they all have copies. I appreciate your efforts in trying to meet that but just so you know for future reference.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Got it, thank you. I appreciate that.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Sure.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, this appears to be another Google Earth photo, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it is, with some notations that I've made.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and the notations would be reflected at the top of the picture?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And I see there appears to be some lines drawn. Could you articul, or explain that?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, there is one line drawn and it's a line that I drew using Google Earth, Google Earth Pro, Professional actually. There was a yellow line that just ex, essentially, from the rear yard close to the Clark residence, to the side yard close to the main building on the subject site. And that line measures four hundred and sixty feet long.

CHAIR: Four hundred sixty?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Four hundred sixty-five feet long.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. JAKUBIAK: The, the sites differ in elevation. I wrote there one hundred and twelve feet. I prepared this thinking I was going to testify a couple days ago --

CHAIR: Just when you reference to a hundred twelve feet, you're talking about the difference in elevation from one structure to the next, as to Clark's house?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, from the ground where the structures sit, yes.

CHAIR: Only because you used one hundred twelve feet in isolation, so for the transcript that's why I'm tying this back, that's all.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Thank you. But the actual elevation is a hundred and twenty-two feet, not one hundred and twelve feet.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: That's a mistake I made and I noticed it last night in reviewing this for this case so, when we're talking about the difference between two hundred and eighty feet at the low end and four hundred and two feet at the high end.

CHAIR: So, on Protestant's Exhibit 104, the reference to one hundred twelve should read one twenty-two?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Therefore, the grade between the building, main building on the property, to the Clark residence is twenty-six percent. Over the course of that four hundred and sixty-five feet.

CHAIR: Can, so on the exhibit Mr. McComas has marked that's supposed to read one twenty-two. Can you put your initials next to the changes on the, on the Court exhibit?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. And what about the twenty-four percent?

CHAIR: Sorry.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, I changed that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Yeah, please initial all the, whatever corrections were needed and then make Mr. Schmidt is tracking the changes.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, it's one twenty-two instead of one twelve and twenty-six percent instead of twenty-four?

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: That makes sense.

MR. HOLZER: Now, --

CHAIR: Sorry, just to make sure that's clear as to what's going on for the actual exhibit.

MR. HOLZER: Now, Mr. Jakubiak, what, what was the purpose in going through that exercise?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The purpose is twofold, because later I'm going to testify about the grades and how water flows downhill and certainly water flows downhill faster when the land is steeper. I'm going to testify to the impact of sound at this location.

Effectively, there's very little buffer that could prevent noise from traveling off this site. And we know that sounds travels in waves. It's not as if the, a sound will travel and go right over the Clark residence, because the Clark residence is lower. When we deal with buffers, we think about the distances and the, the type of buffer and here the buffer is not adequate to address the sound impacts.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, I didn't want to interrupt the witness but I would object and move to strike. Mr. Jakubiak is not an acoustical engineer, or at least he's not been presented as such. And expert testimony regarding sound, how it travels and how it may be impacted by buffer, I've certainly been before this Board on other cases where acoustical engineers have testified about those conclusions. Mr. Jakubiak is a land planner and although I, I mean, he, he can speak as a land planner, but the conclusions that he is expressing, I believe, are those more properly from an acoustical engineer.

CHAIR: I would say to start, just to follow-up there, some of the concepts, again, he testified to, I don't think require expertise. I agree that this can bleed into that expertise, I don't know that we're there yet. It, it, I certainly, in my experience, I'm aware that sound travels in waves. I'm certainly aware that distance and types of buffers can help insulate from sound. I agree that we're walking a tightrope at some point on this. I don't think we're there yet. So I'm going to overrule the objection for now. Obviously, you're aware of the tightrope, --

MR. HOLZER: We're not going on the tightrope any further.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, and, and I would just point out in addition, and just so the record is clear, Mr. Garber, I don't believe the witness has testified that he's been on the subject property, which to me would almost be a requisite foundation to do a sound analysis in terms of determining what, you know, I think you would have to go to where the source of the sound would be, which would be on the subject property. Obviously to do an analysis of how it may travel and the impact of the buffer and I don't want to go on and on but I don't think there's a foundation for the question, I don't think the witness has (inaudible).

CHAIR: I, I would say that I don't think we have had, and correct me if I'm wrong, but I didn't think we heard testimony yet as to any particular impact as of yet.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, he testified, I believe he said that there's, what he described, I think he used the word an inadequate buffer or that there was very little buffer. And since, just looking at Protestant's exhibit number 104, there is certainly a line of trees and a line of woods on the subject property next to Harford Road. The effectiveness of that buffer and his conclusions, if he hasn't been on the subject property, I don't know how he can testify about it. But I've made my point.

CHAIR: Okay. So, --

MR. SCHMIDT: I didn't want to belabor it.

CHAIR: -- let's, let's do this. Mr. Holzer, if you could address whether or not he's been on site, let's start with that as part of it, see if we can resolve the objections to whatever --

MR. HOLZER: Well, I can ask him, but --

CHAIR: That's what I'm saying.

MR. HOLZER: -- the fact of the matter is, it's not our property to go on and, anyone, so. Mr. Jakubiak, have you been on the site?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Only within the driveway turnaround.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, fine.

CHAIR: Okay. I would say that the, those matters are for cross examination. It's understood he's not an expert. It's understood that whatever opinions he may have or, or come from his expertise as a, as a land planner and zoning expert and not from any type of engineering background.

MR. HOLZER: Agree.

CHAIR: And so, with that in mind, you may proceed and of course you may cross, as necessary.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, Mr. Garber.

MR. HOLZER: Have, have you finished talking about the particular property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: One thing I didn't mention was the, the size of the existing house. It's sixty-five hundred, or six thousand five hundred seventeen square feet.

CHAIR: On the subject property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: On, on the subject property, that's (inaudible) source of that information is SDAT. So that's the square footage above grade. And I guess perhaps I didn't mention but there are tennis courts and a swimming pool and several outbuildings on the site, including a historic barn on the lower part of the, the site.

MR. HOLZER: When you say a historic barn, and how, how did you characterize the barn as opposed to the house?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, the barn is on the Maryland Inventory of Historic Places. It's a designated historic structure. The house was built after the 1933 fire that destroyed the previous house, which was built in 1895 and certainly if that house remained I would imagine it would, too would be a historic structure. The site itself is a, is on the Maryland Inventory of Historic Places. So, the site, you know, it certainly encompasses the house, but the, the site itself speaks to the, the historic, or the, speaks to the, the objective of preserving historic locations and locales and sites.

MR. HOLZER: Now, how does that, your testimony just now, how does that fit in with your definition of cultural that you gave earlier in your testimony? Is that a, a factor which fits into the cultural approach that you've talked about already?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. It certainly demonstrates that other entities beyond me recognize the historic significance of this property and its location. It, in terms of culture, this person that occupied and developed this building was a famous person and developed a house that has a, a, its, even in its replacement house, it still has an important visual, cultural connection with the landscape.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Can, if we can, I'd like to move on now for your discussion about what the zoning of the property is and, and ancillary questions related to the zoning and its, its purpose, etcetera.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: So, you understand what area I'm asking you about?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, could you describe what the zone is and where the zone goes, if that's an appropriate way to characterize it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The property is zoned resource conservation two. The focus of this particular resource conversation district is ag preservation, protecting the landscape for the agricultural uses and for rural preservation generally. I have an exhibit, Mr. Holzer.

CHAIR: 104, just so are we wrapped up with that?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I thought we introduced it?

CHAIR: Yeah, I just wanted to make sure.

MR. HOLZER: That was the last photo.

CHAIR: Right. There's no objection to 104, correct?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: Right. So, just to be clear, it's admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: And understood it's been amended here in Court.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: For purposes for the record, the witness has corrected in terms of the hundred and twelve --

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: -- figure to a hundred and twenty-two and twenty-four percent to twenty-six percent.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And the Board has requested that he admit, initial --

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: -- the change, which he has done, I believe.

CHAIR: Yes. It was handed to him, I assume that's what he did with it.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, um hm. I'm sorry.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I would like to apologize first to the Board. I only made one copy of this particular ten page exhibit, so, but I'm not going to refer to it any specific detail.

CHAIR: Well, let's identify what it is first without testimony yet, because then we have to give it to Mr. Schmidt to read.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I understand. It's a set of Baltimore County MyNeighborhood zoning maps printed on eight and a half by eleven. There are ten maps, ten pages.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And you don't have copies of those, of all ten pages?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Correct.

CHAIR: Is that, is it necessary to track the photos during the course of your testimony, the maps?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

CHAIR: Only because I want Mr. Schmidt to be able to follow along. So, why don't we do this, if Mr. Schmidt doesn't have a problem with this, I can go make a copy of it, you'll have black and whites, but at least you'll be able to follow.

MR. SCHMIDT: That'd be helpful, I'm sure.

CHAIR: Right. So, why don't we just take --

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you want to take a break and, and do that?

CHAIR: -- ten minute break. I should ask before we do that, are there other exhibits to come that where we don't have sufficient copies? (inaudible) resolve all that all at once.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, are there any other exhibits that you think you don't have enough copies of?

CHAIR: And take, take your time, whatever time you need to, to find that out because we, I think it's more efficient to do it like this at the moment.

MR. HOLZER: I agree. I agree.

CHAIR: So.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Two copies, two exhibits.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Two exhibits?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Two possible exhibits, in addition.

MR. HOLZER: Could we just identify those exhibits for the, a number right now?

CHAIR: I, I, I think that's a good idea. So, 105 are the ten pages of maps from MyNeighborhood, 106 will be, what are, what are we identifying 106 as?

MR. HOLZER: And it's a, a, looks like a history trails 1977 document called Mr. Bonaparte's Farm.

CHAIR: Okay, that will be 106.

MR. HOLZER: And I think it includes a picture, was that part of it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's separate.

CHAIR: Is that going to be made part of that exhibit?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's a separate exhibit.

CHAIR: So that will be three? So you need that, okay. So, 107 would be the photo that's related to 106.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: Understood. Oh, that's eleven pages.

MS. DOPKIN: How many pages is 106?

CHAIR: I don't know yet. How many, how, do you have 106 in?

MR. HOLZER: 106 is (inaudible).

CHAIR: Okay. So, 106 is two pages, 107 is one and then Mr. McComas, when you're ready for 106 and 107, (inaudible).

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: I wrote it down. No, I got it.

CHAIR: All right. Now that we have all that sorted out, we can go on our little break.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, thank you.

CHAIR: And then photocopy them.

MR. HOLZER: And will, will the Board's secretary be able to do it or?

CHAIR: Yeah, I'm just going to do it now.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I just wanted to know whether I had to impose on Mr. Zimmerman's office.

CHAIR: No, we'll just take care of it, so we just want to keep it moving.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: That'll be fine.

MR. HOLZER: Right. All right, thank you.

CHAIR: So, here, I'll take them, that's fine. Thanks.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, are we taking a, a break?

CHAIR: We're taking a break and if you guys have extra time during the course of that break, and you want to start resolving some of those other --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- exhibits with the authentication or whatever else is needed, that'd be ideal.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: We are off the record.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 10:18:14 AM)

(ON RECORD – 10:29:42 AM)

CHAIR: Everyone can be seated. So, I've been told to say normally we charge fifty cents per copy, so next time please have these ready and available for the copy. But obviously we're just needed to move through this today.

MS. DOPKIN: Do we take cash or checks?

CHAIR: We, yes.

MR. HOLZER: I was going to say, will you accept free labor.

CHAIR: Well, I would say, just to be clear for the record. Checks only, no cash, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Or free labor?

CHAIR: Free labor, okay. I mean, that's not terrible, right? So here we go. Now, when walking, I did splash a little drop of coffee on the top but outside of that, there should be no other alteration.

MS. DOPKIN: You can give that one to Mr. Garber.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Well, that's the file copy, luckily enough. I'll do that to my own copy.

MR. HOLZER: All right, all right. I'm just going to give this to him. Could, --

CHAIR: Do you want to just hand out, hand out a copy to everybody now with everything? Because this way we already know what 105, 106 and 107 are.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: It's all sorted.

CHAIR: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: I'll try, I'll try to do that.

CHAIR: I think it's sorted out so it's easy to do.

MR. HOLZER: Can I use your table?

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: No, I think it's actually in order. If you, if you look down it's a stack of 105, 106 and 107 in order.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: So, here, I'll show you what I mean.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I'm not, I don't want to mess up what you've already done.

CHAIR: All right, no problem. So, I understood this to be, this should be, since you've given the witness the one copy there, hold on.

MS. DOPKIN: Does Mr. Schmidt have copies?

ATTORNEY: That's what we're doing now.

MR. MCCOMAS: Mr. Schmidt, do you have three exhibits there?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: Here you go. That's for Mr. Schmidt.

MR. HOLZER: This is his whole packet?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: Then you probably want to give us back what you have (inaudible).

CHAIR: This is for the witness, these two. That's for the witness. This is for Mr. McComas, that's for Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. MCCOMAS: He needs the one page or (inaudible).

CHAIR: He has that.

MR. MCCOMAS: Oh, he's got it in his hands.

MS. DOPKIN: I don't have 105.

CHAIR: (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: So, the picture is 107, the other documents are 105.

CHAIR: So we're all on the same page now, everyone has their copies?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't have, I don't have (inaudible).

CHAIR: All right.

MR. JAKUBIAK: (inaudible).

MR. MCCOMAS: This is 105, this is 106 and 107.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yeah, I have, I have not gotten 106 back yet (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Okay, hold on. These are copies, I don't know where the originals, I thought I handed, handed back the originals. You got that? Okay. The ones with the sticker tabs that is. And Mr. Schmidt, whenever you're ready, please let us know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Whatever time you need.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I'll, I mean, I'll, I'll follow along, I, I see, I mean, I see what it is, so we can go forward.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer, then back to you.

MR. HOLZER: I'm ready. All right. Mr. Jakubiak, you, before the break, you mentioned that you had a number of documents that you would like to refer to. The first one was Protestant's Exhibit 105-A through K, everyone has received a copy of that. It, it, it appears to be a Baltimore County MyNeighborhood map that also has about nine or, total ten, I think it's around ten pages, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: And before, before you start testimony, one last point. Mr. Jakubiak, you have the only color copy of Exhibit 105. So, if you're going to refer to something as if you look at the green area or something like that, that's going to mean nothing to the rest of us. So, just in keep in mind that little, little tidbit and away we go.

MR. HOLZER: I, for the record, I would think that the County could afford a color copier for the Board.

MS. DOPKIN: At fifty cents a page, we could.

MR. HOLZER: I'll work it off. All right. Mr. Jakubiak, we're back. And 105-A through K, Baltimore County MyNeighborhood, why did you produce this document now?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I, I'm producing this document for the Board to convey the sense, and the fact that the RC-2 district is substantially large. I, I would, my, I think that it covers more territory than any other zoning district in, outside the URDL, the rural side of the URDL.

Just these ten exhibits show how the very same district extends. It's never closed off, it's continuous. It extends south of the current site, all the way north and west, well beyond Jarrettsville Pike, Manor Road, up Old York Road, past Monkton Road. I stopped at some point, just because it didn't make sense. But I just simply want to convey how much land is available in RC-2 for special exceptions, for religious and other buildings of worship. And that within this vast array of the County, there are lands that are not so constrained and conflicted and impacted by the geology and the steep slopes that you find on this particular site.

MS. DOPKIN: Can you distinguish for me between your pages D and E, because they look identical?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: After you answer the question, I'm going to suggest that the colored documents be given to the Board.

CHAIR: Yes, they're the ones, I believe, with the stickers on them. So, yes, they would have to be given back because they're going to be the record.

MR. HOLZER: Right, yeah.

CHAIR: That's correct.

MR. HOLZER: I mean, the Board, they're of no value if the Board can't see what he's talking about.

CHAIR: Right. But also for the record, so it can, yeah, whatever is needed for that.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, right.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Your Honor, I believe they are identical. So, --

MR. SCHMIDT: So, so, D, D and E are the same? That's what it looked like to me.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I just have one other question, just may help. Is, is the subject property on any of these maps?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, that was a question. I don't object to him asking a question.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm just trying to orient myself, that's all. It might be helpful for the Board.

MR. JAKUBIAK: The subject property is on Item C, page C. You can see the hairpin turn at Harford Road, just south of Mount Vista.

CHAIR: Yes, and where, I see the, where it says, I want to say Glen Arm Road and Bonaparte Road?

MR. SCHMIDT: Ah.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: C.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, just south of there.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's actually just to the right of the words Harford Road on that map.

MR. HOLZER: Could you put them back in order, Mr. Jakubiak?

MR. JAKUBIAK: They are.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Could you give them to me? Because I want to show them to Mr. Schmidt so he can understand what was just said.

MR. SCHMIDT: Ah, okay. Let me just look at C.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, C, I'm sorry. My, my copy quality just is, I can't --

CHAIR: It, it's quite all right.

MR. SCHMIDT: It's really hard to see.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, it's quite all right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I'm just trying to figure out where we are. Okay, I see. So, it's, there it is, which is, doesn't show up on this. Okay, okay. Thank you, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Two more pages.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh.

MR. HOLZER: Right there.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, okay. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: I want to give these back to the Board so you got them.

CHAIR: Thank you. We received 105 back. Mr. Schmidt, any objection to 105?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, no, sir.

CHAIR: It is admitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: And just so that I understand, this is just RC-2 all around? Well, it speaks for itself in to, terms of where it is?

CHAIR: I would say it speaks for itself.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: But I also understood the testimony to be consistent with that representation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right, okay.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, if we can move on, --

CHAIR: One point, before you, before you get to your question. We attached the front page as the third page for Exhibit 106.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, this would ordinarily have been the front page but the reason why we attach it as the third, we obviously knew what Mr. Jakubiak wanted to get to, but we still needed to know where it came from.

MR. HOLZER: I, well, I, when I was produced with that, I came back and asked your secretary if, if you wanted it.

CHAIR: I was wondering how that came up, but there you go.

MR. HOLZER: It came up because I was diligent.

CHAIR: Yes, and I, thank you. And I, and I do believe it makes more sense to have the source attached to it, so.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right. Now, Mr. Jakubiak, 106 originally was just a one page document, captioned Mr. Bonaparte's Farm. However, upon reflection we found that the history trails, the first page, made more sense to include that with 106. So, would you like to explain why you produced this document for us?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. I found this article to be very interesting and informative about the, the landscape and the, the, the history of the, the, this narrow vall, valley along Harford Road and the particular property.

Of special interest is a, is just a section that I'd like to read to the Board --

CHAIR: Before you do, could you please identify it for Mr. Schmidt?

MR. HOLZER: Tell us where you're reading from.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Oh. The left column, beginning with the words, the purchase was made by, which is about a third of the way up from the bottom.

CHAIR: Third of the way up.

MS. DOPKIN: Purchase was made from.

MR. JAKUBIAK: The purchase was made from, yes, William (inaudible).

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, have you found that yet?

MR. HOLZER: I haven't found it.

VOICE: Are we on the first page?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Oh, I'm --

CHAIR: Hold on. Just wait, wait one second. Can you just point to where, roughly about where it is?

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I see it, I see it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, got it, got it. Thank you.

CHAIR: All right. Are we all on the same page?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Ms. Dopkin, you're good? Mr. McComas, you're good?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. You wanted to start with the purchase at the, on the second major paragraph on the left side of the page?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: GO ahead.

MR. JAKUBIAK: The purchase was made from William H. Bosley, who in turn had secured the property from the Lambert Giddings Estate. The plan is on the Harford Road --

CHAIR: Place.

MR. HOLZER: Place.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Sorry, the place is on the Harford Road and is midway between Towson and Belair and about ten miles from each town and fifteen miles from Baltimore. In selecting his site, Mr. Bonaparte was anxious for an un, unobstructed view and he got it. His house stands on an eminence and from the porches, the County, the country can be seen from, for miles around on every side. I'll just stop there.

It continues to discuss the house being on a crest of the hill. I wanted to say this because, or, or bring this to your attention. It shows that this site has been in this condition for a long time. Even in, in 1977, they were describing his decision making and, locating his estate at that particular location, its prominence. So there's a, dating from 1895 till today, this landscape is largely unaffected by any incompatible intrusions into, into it. So, I just wanted to highlight that to you to show the, the, the legacy that is attached to this property and this landscape.

MS. DOPKIN: At the end of the article, it indicates it's from September 1904, not actually originally from 1977. Is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Oh, I was referring to the, the, the journal itself or the, the piece, it's summer of 1977 is the date.

CHAIR: But if you turn to page two, at the conclusion, I'm assuming that, where it says Mr. Bonaparte's Farm, if you follow the second column on the first page it goes into another page because it is sequential in terms of pages twenty-one and twenty-two, that, and it obviously identifies General Bonaparte's barn in the photos, that that's a continuation and then it's attributed to the Baltimore County Union, September 10th, 1904, page three.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I understand, I understand what Your Honor is saying.

MS. DOPKIN: So, it was reprinted in 1977 as part of this historic journal?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, that's how I understand it.

MR. HOLZER: But that, the amendment in terms of the date, that doesn't affect what you previously just testified to, does it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, not at all. I, I, reenforces it, actually, in my view.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and that was the purpose for Protestant's Exhibit 106. Could we talk about 107 and then move of them? Protestant's Exhibit 107 is a picture of a house, with the caption being the country house Bella Vista. Is that a document that you prepared or brought to the hearing this morning?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I only brought it to the hearing. It's a black and white image of the, the, the house we've been discussing. Before its, the original house on the site, and I, (inaudible) from the architecture, which is attractive, I wanted to, you to see what I see in terms of the landscape and the prominence of this location and how it overlooks this valley and how it overlooks the trees surrounding the site.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Is that the only --

MR. JAKUBIAK: yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- testimony about that? I --

CHAIR: Was one, 107 part of 106? That's how I understood it initially. Is that the case or no?

MR. HOLZER: I don't believe it is.

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, no.

CHAIR: Okay. So, they're separate.

MR. HOLZER: Two, but they relate to the same part of the testimony, so I'd move 106 and 107.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, I don't have any objection to 106.

CHAIR: So that'll be admitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: One, 107, just from a foundational standpoint, do, and I don't want to ask the witness questions, but do, do we know when, where this is from, when it was taken? As I understand it, this was the original house, which was burned down in 1933, I believe. So, I think it, there should be some, I, I think that's the case, but I think there should be a little more foundation. I just don't know what it is.

MR. HOLZER: I'll be glad to ask him the question.

MS. DOPKIN: Was 105 admitted?

CHAIR: 105 was admitted, 106 is admitted, 107 is where the question is as to --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- I guess the source --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- information (inaudible) --

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and to confirm what it actually is.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, I mean, I think Mr. Schmidt and I share the same question. Is this a picture of the original house that was burned in 1933 and if so, why did you introduce that or, or comment upon that as opposed to the current house?

CHAIR: Sorry, if I can, I believe we got that testimony. Because he's, he wanted to show the house in relation to the surrounding land.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Right. It is, where did you get it from, I think is, was Mr. Schmidt's question. So that we know for a fact that it's the property at issue.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I was provided with this image from, this photograph, from Ms. Robin Beards (phonetic), who is a resident in the community, who's done quite a bit of research on her own about the history of the area. And I thought when I saw it, this is something I, I thought the Board would appreciate seeing to understand the lay of the land.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, I understand you're going to have questions on cross examination, I'm going to reserve a ruling to admissibility and I'll leave it for now where it is.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you, that's fine.

CHAIR: Leaving this as i.d. only, I guess, at the moment, pending further examination.

MR. HOLZER: Well, before we got a little sidetracked on all these last documents and exhibits, you were talking about the zoning of the property as RC-2. And in fact, you were talking about, and one of the exhibits shows, that RC-2 is a very extensive zoning district in, in Baltimore County. Can you then discuss the RC-2 zoning and how it might relate to this case?

MR. JAKUBIAK: When the R-2 zone, RC-2 zone is a resource conservation zone. It's intent is to fost, foster conditions favorable for the continuation of agricultural within the area. And to prevent incompatible uses and, more specifically, to prevent dense commercial, residential or institutional uses. So, that's the, the purpose. And then the RC districts were established in the, with the general intent as laid out in the zoning ordinance, to minimize the outward and scattering of low density development into the rural areas.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, in terms of that, laying of that foundation, is the County master plan relevant in the present case?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I believe it is.

MR. HOLZER: Can you explain why?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The County master plan is the, the guidance document for development and growth and conservation, and for decision making concerning special exceptions. It is not the standard, it's not a 502.1 standard but it is a guidance document that cannot be dismissed when reviewing applications for special exceptions or for any development, in my view.

The, the master plan 2020 provides for land preservation outside of the, the URDL as a general policy.

Within the Harford Road corridor, and the, we've been discussing today from roughly Hartley Mill up to and beyond actually, Mount Vista, the road, Harford Road, is a Baltimore County scenic route. It's map twenty-six in the Baltimore County master plan.

And scenic routes are to be, as a matter of policy, protected through sparing, sparingly use, through sparingly using the special exception authority. The, in fact, the, the, the Board must, well, excuse me, the master plans says that special exceptions should be granted sparingly when along a rural road or scenic vista, scenic route, like, like Harford Road. So, it raises the level of importance in review because of its location on this road.

The, the property is also within the Long Green Valley Rural Legacy Area. And there are, of course, a number of rural legacy areas within the County and that is a, a program that the County has embraced, which is a State program, that seeks to preserve intact, these rural areas that are characteristic of the heritage of, of Maryland. So, the Long Green Valley Rural Legacy Area includes the, the subject site and the, I'd like to read a couple things that are relevant from the, the master plan.

CHAIR: Do, do you have copies of that?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

CHAIR: Okay. I think he needs to show Mr. Schmidt what he's about to read before he reads it.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and Mr. Garber, I do have a copy of the master plan, so at the least, if he could us what page he's on that might be helpful.

CHAIR: So, before you start reading, if you could direct Mr. Schmidt to the particular section you want to read from.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Page one sixty-nine.

CHAIR: All right. Before you start, wait till Mr. Schmidt has the opportunity to get there and then review it first. And then we'll deal with everything else after that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Yes, sir, I, I have the page.

CHAIR: Are you ready?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right. So, Mr. Jakubiak, you may begin. I'm assuming your question will be to him, and what does it say?

MR. HOLZER: That's my question. I've got it right here.

CHAIR: Okay. You're good to begin.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Oh. The Maryland General Assembly adopted the Rural Legacy Program to address the continuing loss of natural resources and productive agricultural lands to development. The goals of the program are to protect and maintain the rural character, rural character, permanently preserved land through easement programs and limit new residential growth in these areas.

The, one of the, the policy that's attached to that statement of recommendation is to manage growth within designated rural legacy areas and seek permanent preservation of undeveloped properties through easement programs.

CHAIR: Well, let me stop you there. I would say if you can think about this at some point to provide copies of whatever it is you testified to, I'm assuming it's going to be important to your case?

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: That's, I, I have page one sixty-nine here so we can make copies --

CHAIR: Yeah, or, and you can provide it at a later date but just, it doesn't have to be in evidence, it's, it's part of the County record generally speaking, so.

MR. HOLZER: I might just attach it to my memo, that would make more sense.

CHAIR: I, right, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, thank you. In looking at this one sixty, page one sixty-nine, at the end of the paragraph that you just read from, does it indicate for five rural legacy areas in the County?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it does.

MR. HOLZER: And which, which, which are they?
MR. JAKUBIAK: Coastal.
MR. HOLZER: Right.
MR. JAKUBIAK: The Piney Run, the Gunpowder, Long Green and Manor.
MR. HOLZER: And which one does this property fall under?
MR. JAKUBIAK: Long Green Rural Legacy Area.
MR. HOLZER: Okay. All right, thank you. And I will make sure that we attach that. Now, having finished those, those documents, are there any other documents we need at this point before I move on to the next topic?
MR. JAKUBIAK: There are no other documents on this topic but there's another point I want to make about the --
MR. HOLZER: Okay. Would you go ahead --
MR. JAKUBIAK: -- master plan.
MR. HOLZER: Yeah, we're talking about the master plan. You've discussed rural legacy, you've discussed scenic route. Do you have another point that is necessary to fill out your testimony?
MR. JAKUBIAK: The master plan contains a, a map and a section of text that discusses land management areas. These are, the intent of this is to designate in the very generalized way the intent and purpose of large tracts of land or sections of the County.

So, the subject property is within the agricultural preservation area, which is a land management area, and it calls for lands to be agricultural, agricultural primarily, and it specifically says that it's not suitable for dense residential commercial or, or institutional uses.

CHAIR: And you're saying, you're referring to the master plan. Are you referring to a particular page of the master plan?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The, what I just quoted is on a page in the master plan.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't know what page.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: But I, in preparation for the case, I wrote down that quote to remind myself. The --

CHAIR: So, when you say land management areas, just, to, just to follow-up real quick, are there designated land management areas?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Oh, yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

CHAIR: And then, just so I understand how this relates to this case, you're saying that this is within a designated land management area?

MR. JAKUBIAK: And, and it's in a particular land management area.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: That's relevant to the zoning category that's been applied to the property.

CHAIR: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: You referenced a map. Does that map, is that map identified in any particular way in the master plan?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, thank you. It's called the land management areas and it's within the Baltimore County master plan.

MS. DOPKIN: Page? Do you have a page?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I'm sorry, I don't have the page with me.

MR. SCHMIDT: For the benefit of the Board, it's on page forty of the master plan.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is the land management areas map.

MR. HOLZER: I'm waiting for you.

CHAIR: I'm sorry. He was, he was looking down, I didn't know if he was, Mr. Jakubiak was looking for something and so --

MR. HOLZER: No, he, he testified he didn't have it.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: And Mr. Schmidt gave him the page, gave the page to him.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I was just telling the Board where it is.

CHAIR: Right, page forty.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: And, I mean, I thought he was looking for something else, so, my --

MR. HOLZER: No, I was, and I was waiting for you.

CHAIR: Okay, sorry. Yes, please proceed, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: No problem. Mr. Jakubiak, can you tell us about the particular circumstances and facts about the use and location and how the impacts of the use will be more adverse at the location here than are inherently associate, associated with it, within an RC-2 zone? You understand my question?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Good, if you would like to state it in a more succinct way, you're certainly welcome, as a preface.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't know that I need to. I, but I, I'll get around to that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: So, we're looking, essentially this is where the rubber hits the road, right? Special exceptions, essentially. Are there any circumstances or facts about the use of the location that make the impacts more adverse here than they are inherent in a, in a church or a building for religious worship?

I mentioned the, the narrow valley and the location of this site at a promontory. I mention that because, and because the noise related to any outdoor religious or cultural or institutional uses will travel off the site and will travel off the site without the benefit of barriers or buffers that will prevent the sound from impacting adjoining residents.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection and move to strike. That, that is a conclusion that an acoustical engineer would need to make when he talks about barriers and buffers.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: No, this, this is an expert in land planning. He does that all the time in regard to multiple municipalities, multiple counties, in this State, where --

CHAIR: When you say that, you're referring to buffers and barriers or whatnot?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. It's, he's not technically providing how many decibels will, will be there, which would be under an acoustical engineer and I've handled acoustical engineers. What he's saying is from a general land planning, zoning way in preparation of not only writing zoning, zoning laws but doing planning, it's certainly, he's already testified that it's relative in regard to sound, sound waves. He's testified in regard to relationship of, of homes in the vicinity and why they would be, would hear noise. We've already heard from the, from the owners of property that they could hear thumping, banging, --

CHAIR: We heard audio and --

MR. HOLZER: -- audio --

CHAIR: -- whatnot.

MR. HOLZER: -- so what he's doing is summarizing, obviously, the adjacent property's testimony in, in the terms of a land planner who has to take all that into account when he creates certain zones, when he, when he develops a plan for any community. So, it's not that he's an expert on acoustical engineering. It's not that. He's, he's looking at it from the, from the way of a land planner.

CHAIR: From land planning.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Right, okay.

MR. HOLZER: I mean, I could go on but --

CHAIR: So, with, with that understanding, it'll be received. It will not be received, again, as bearing any expertise when it relates to sound.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Or acoustical engineering.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: And those kind of things. It is understood that it is for solely, as it relates to land planning, and however sound mitigation impacts the land planning and vice versa, okay.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: So, overruled on that basis. Of course, you may cross examine on these points and you may proceed.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Do I need to ask you a question or can you pick up where you left off?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I can pick up where we left off.

MR. HOLZER: Good, thank you.

MR. JAKUBIAK: The, the valley wall is, is very steep. So, the, the ability to install sound barriers on the property is limited. The noise will leave the site as, as been testified by the adjoining property owners.

This particular use is, is more than the use of the building for religious worship. And I gathered from the testimony that if they, as I said, three or four multiple day festivals will happen at this location. Those festivals introduce noise beyond the building. So, they, there are no walls to contain the sounds of any activities that happen on the property.

These festivals will naturally occur during the times that residents can be expected to be at home. The plan, as I've seen it, provides thirty-eight parking spaces. Those parking spaces are diagonal, designed to be diagonally, diagonal parking spaces off of the main drive. Any special events that introduce or, or create a demand for more than thirty-eight parked cars will require that cars be parked in an overflow situation.

In reviewing the engineer's testimony, the, the, the grounds, the lawn would be used for overflow. Overflow parking is certainly a reasonable use of land for special events. It certainly minimizes the amount of permanent paved surface on a site. But it comes at real risk too.

In the present case, the land slopes away from the, the top and particularly to the west, it slopes and as I said before, on a twenty-six percent grade. That means that parked vehicles that compact, the compaction of the ground that may result from parking of vehicles, will, will certainly not, would, would reduce the ability for the land to, the ability of the rain to permeate into the ground.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. If I can be heard, Mr. Garber?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, this is an --

CHAIR: Well, let me ask you this. What's the nature of your objection first?

MR. SCHMIDT: The nature of the objection is that this witness does not have the level of expertise to be able to discuss this. And if I could be heard very briefly?

CHAIR: I would say I'm inclined to agree with you at the moment. So, I will --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: -- if you want to stop there, I'll let Mr. Holzer respond.

MR. SCHMIDT: Quit while I'm ahead.

CHAIR: So, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I mean, as a land planner, he has experience with parking requirements, impervious surface. He's familiar with land in terms of the soil and so forth, lawns and so forth. All he said was, it could, parking three or four times a year on, three or four times during these festivals, whether they're three or four times a year or just whenever, it will, will create a potential for impervious, to allow water to runoff faster. It, it will, as the previous testimony of Mr. Clark, it certainly can impact the, the grass, the ground and so forth. He's not, he's not an environmental ground expert that we're talking about and again, it's a situation where, as a land planner, as a person who creates land planning and zoning laws, he got, he's got to take into account this kind of a situation. I'm not asking him the percentage of --

CHAIR: I, I'll cut you off there only --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- to, sensing yes, I don't disagree with what you're saying in that regard.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: It, what got my attention was the compaction of the ground without knowing, of course, soils and whatever else that comes with it and then its contribution to any water runoff. I think, I can understand in the general sense of maybe the water runoff but you have to get to the first point of the compaction of the soil that would be permanent, that would influence and change what is going on presently.

MR. HOLZER: It's, it's a simple answer. My answer is simple. Cars are heavy, they weigh heavy. If they park on grass or they park on dirt, they're going to compact whatever kind of soil it is.

CHAIR: And its impact on storm, on the, excuse me, on the water, on the water drainage from that area.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: I think we're, we're, I think we're starting to get to areas that maybe beyond, and I'm not disputing he, whether or not he could have opinions as to parking on grass surfaces, generally speaking. I get that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Well, --

CHAIR: But it's as to, when we talk, start talking about compaction of the ground and then how it changes the water drainage, is where we start running afoul that --

MR. HOLZER: I'll ask another question.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: So, Mr., --

CHAIR: So, I'm going to sustain it on that basis, you may continue.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, first of all, is parking on grass a, a preferred method of accommodating vehicles in, in regard from a planning activity, or from a planning perspective?

CHAIR: He did testify to that.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I'm asking him to get it, do it again so he --

CHAIR: For foundation, okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- can lead into his answer.

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's, it's not preferred when a hard surface is feasible and, and can be accommodated.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and why, from a planning standpoint, if you were to design and planning, or zoning laws or whatever, what, how would you interpret that concept that it's not favored? Because of what?

MR. JAKUBIAK: A couple factors that bear on the particular cir, circumstance and that is the slope of the land. While it may appear that the land is flat on the top, it's not flat, it, it, you know, the, the house is at the four hundred foot elevation and it slopes down twenty feet before you get to the next contour. So, it slopes in all directions. So, we know --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: Hold on, sir.

MR. SCHMIDT: We're trying to get back to this and, and Mr. Garber, this is an area that I would classify as, what is called storm water management under the Baltimore County Code. That the, the County has regulations, as you well know I'm sure from other cases, that relate to storm water management which governs the discharge of water and how water will be disposed of when it runs off of a property. A storm water management plan, which is required for much development, is by definition required to be prepared by an engineer. In other words, in order to even prepare and to submit a storm water management plan or a storm drain plan, you need to be an engineer because the plan has to be sealed. The fact of the matter is, I respect Mr. Jakubiak's planning and his zoning expertise, but he's not an engineer and he's not a storm water management expert, which is what these questions are coming to.

CHAIR: I, except, I'm sorry --

MR. SCHMIDT: I understand that we can all say that water runs downhill, and we can all say that cars weigh more than people and I understand all that. But the conclusions that the witness is attempting to offer is that from a storm water management perspective, this proposed use will be detrimental on surrounding properties. That's the criteria and that's what he is trying to say, I think obviously that's where he's going.

CHAIR: You'll have your chance --

MR. SCHMIDT: He's simply, he's simply, does not have the expertise and he's never even been on the property, but he's not an engineer and he's not a storm water management expert or that the County requires in order to do this. This isn't something where when you submit a plan to the County, I, as an attorney or someone else who's not an expert, can get the County to approve a storm water management plan or a storm water management concept. It has to be prepared by an engineer. The man is not an engineer.

CHAIR: I, I, I understand the objection. Mr. Holzer, do you wish to respond?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. The purpose of him testifying to this is not as an expert engineer, not as a ground water, not as County code requirements for a land, land use and so forth. The purpose is to show his opinion why this project has more of an impact on the neighborhood than, than that elsewhere. And you're not letting him articulate that and I think he has a right to do that.

CHAIR: Yes, to, to the extent that it goes to land planning as to factors that he would consider for, for land planning and its impact, I understand that. But when we start getting into how present drainage can change and compactions of soils and whatnot, I think those do go to the points Mr. Schmidt is saying. So, there is some testimony that you can elicit on this basis and there is some that we can, you will be crossing a line. So, yes, I do agree that you can ask questions about what factors in to land planning analysis when it comes to off, parking on, I guess, pervious surface, non-perv, or non, --

MR. HOLZER: Non-pervious.

CHAIR: Whatever the appropriate way to phrase that, non-paved surfaces.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: What impacts do you evaluate for purposes of land planning.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: I would agree with that, that that is not objectionable. But when we start talking about the specific potential storm water management issues on this particular property, I think we are starting to get into an area that is beyond what Mr. Jakubiak may be able to testify about.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Yes, so overruled in part, sustained in part.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, you've heard the Chairman.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Obviously, you can testify as a land planner and a zoning expert as to why you believe the impacts of this proj, proposed project will be greater here than elsewhere. You have testified to one basis for that. Now you're testifying in the area of parking on the grass. Without saying what is obvious to everyone, that a car can compact the grass and soil below it, without getting into the fact that water runs downhill, which everybody understands, can you explain why the impact of this project with the parking on the grass can have a greater impact at this location than elsewhere?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. Same objection. How can he reach a conclusion since he's not an expert?

CHAIR: Well, again, hold on. We have general understanding as to certain points. The specific application to this property is, again, where we would run afoul. However, the question that was asked, actually, I don't believe to be objectionable based on the prior rulings.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, Mr. Jakubiak, can you please answer the question?

MR. JAKUBIAK: This is the way I'd like to answer it. I put my planner cap on and explain how I would approach this off the review development plans frequently, weekly. I would look at this project and its description and I'd say is thirty-eight parking spaces adequate to support the use? And I'd say, well, the use, if it's a temple, you know, has an occupancy of a hundred and fifty, and that's sort of what the design standards are for parking in the code. But the use is more than that building. The use is a series of multiple day festivals, which is fine. But it, the use is something broader. So, I would look at this plan and I'd say, thirty-eight parking spaces, surely not adequate to support the likely attendance at multiple day events. So where would folks park? They'd likely park in an overflow situation on the grass --

CHAIR: Okay. If I can, so then do I understand the testimony to be as a land planner, you would suggest that you don't simply go by the, the minimum standard set by the County, that you would actually have more, more paved parking if this were to go forward? That is, from a land planning perspective only?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I, that, I would review it as something broader than just that use within that building. But, you know, I'm not applying the code, I'm not working for the County, I'm not making that determination.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. JAKUBIAK: But that's how I would approach it. In other words, I would have a reasonable conclusion that onsite parking would take the form of overflow on grass for a considerable amount of the site's use.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay? I would say that it's likely that, in fact, the, the parking would take place off of the designated parking area in the grass. In fact, the engineer said as much and explained that, in addition to a couple spots behind the building, parking would be on the grass. And Mr. Holzer, on cross, cross examination inquired about how much and where and the, the engineer didn't explain as far as I, I read, didn't give any context to that.

So, for large events, I would imagine there'd be a lot of land devoted to parking the, the, the cars, for the attendees.

My next conclusion would be is the grounds generally suitable? Is the land suitable to accommodate, without an evaluation of the quality of storm water or the, the, the, the flow of water, the quantity, is it suitable? And I would say well, I'm concerned because the land slopes. I'm concerned with multiple, multiple day events, cars parking there and having impact and making it less permeable.

I know enough about storm water management to have a conclusion about the impaction that takes place over time when something is used, when something is placed on grass or other types of surfaces.

I'd, then I'd be concerned about multiple day events, particularly when the weather is adverse, creating a muddy situation. Certainly, I'm not concerned about mud impacting the users of the site but the, the distribution of soils off the site, or at least off of the place where cars are parked. That you would, can imagine and we've all, I've been to many outdoor events where the grass parking area turns to mud. On a slope that is, you know, adverse. It's not something that you would experience on a flat field.

So, that's, from a planning standpoint what I, how I would approach this. And my reservations about approving it as is, if I was sitting as the decision maker, and I am in some locations, would be the lack of parking for the proposed use. And necessity, therefore, to park in a less than ideal location on a sloping terrain.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: And just for the record, objection, move to strike. And I just say that for the, for the record.

CHAIR: Yes, and you, you, and you obviously can get into some of these matters on cross examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Thank you. I just wanted to put that on the record.

MR. HOLZER: Should I object also on the basis of the Board's ruling that he's been limited by your comments, so he can't get into what he wants, or just for the record.

CHAIR: You may absolutely object to, to, it is your record as much as Mr. Schmidt's.

MR. HOLZER: Right, thank you.

CHAIR: Sure.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Let's, let's move on, if we can. Now, the, the original question was, what circumstances and facts will be more adverse in this location than elsewhere in the zone. And you've already, you've already mentioned noise, you've already mentioned what we just went through. Are there any other areas that you think make this have an impact, more adverse here than elsewhere?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. And the road is winding, there's no question about that. They're very sharp, might call them hairpin turns at the approach to this location from the south. The speed limit is fifty miles an hour headed north, forty-five headed south. And while there are caution signs in both directions, should, should suggest to a driver to, that, to moderate speeds, is the fact that the, the, the, the road system is not adequate or I'm sorry, the road system has a substandard quality to it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. Move to strike. Now we're a traffic engineer.

CHAIR: I didn't get the sense that we're talking about traffic engineering matters. I, yet. What I understood is the common observations, as everyone else has already testified to in this case.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, on that basis, I'll overrule the objection. But again, as before, there are limits to this.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just let me know my objection, continuing, Mr. Garber. I don't mean to keep popping up, but.

CHAIR: No, I, I would actually at the moment, I would still prefer that, only because I don't know if we're going to go down a road where there's specific testimony that would trigger perhaps a more, an expert who would be an expert in traffic engineering. So, if we don't get there, then there's no need to have a continuing objection and guess at what is being objected to and what is not. But if, certainly if they, if there is testimony you believe to run afoul of that, you can object and then ask for it at that time.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I, and for the record, I believe the testimony already given is objectionable as to the roads, but I understand your ruling. Thank you.

CHAIR: You may proceed.

MR. HOLZER: I can?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, as a planner, somebody involved in zoning, but particularly planning, are roads relative to a planner trying to evaluate a project or development? Is that something that a planner would normally look at, the road system?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. Yes, we would.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and in this particular case, you're not holding yourself out as a traffic engineer, are you?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, I'm not.

MR. HOLZER: But you are holding yourself out as a planner who has to deal with the nature of roads, the speed on the roads, the amount of traffic on the roads for purposes of planning, is that not correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I am.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, let's go back and what is your opinion as a planner dealing with the road system at the subject site.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Go ahead.

MR. JAKUBIAK: And I, I will say as a, that my opinion is also based on doing transportation planning. I had mentioned in my resume that I, I did the transportation plan for Calvert County. It's a very rural community. So, I, I have dealt with roads that turn and hills and how land use has to be balanced with the available facilities.

CHAIR: So, just to follow-up on that point, just because I think this needs to be then clarified, you're saying that transportation planning then is part of your land planning expertise?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

CHAIR: Or is a separate, separate area of expertise?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, I think it's part and parcel. Throughout my career, we've done land use planning and transportation planning in combination.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I'm not suggesting I'm an engineer, but I factor in transportation planning and the planning of roads, adequacy of roads to serve land use.

CHAIR: So, if I were to refer to it as adequate public facilities, that is, you would look at, you know, in that, in that kind of vein as it relates to transportation? That is, are these roads capable of handling the development?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Sure, yes.

CHAIR: All right. Let's see where that, where that goes.

MR. JAKUBIAK: So, in order to your question, I, --

MR. HOLZER: Go ahead and answer the question, please.

MR. JAKUBIAK: The road at the approach to this site is not flat, it is not straight, it doesn't afford long site distances. In fact, the intersection of this driveway at Harford Road is just askew from Bonaparte Lane, which is generally a situation we like to avoid. Particularly when we expect higher traffic volumes at a, at an intersection. For a residential single family use, there's something at a lower scale use, having intersections askew provides really great, very little hazard. Introducing a lot of traffic, leaving or entering a site, on a curve, certainly introduces the risk for accidents that is greater than you would find on a straight, free and clear approach. So, that's, that's my testimony regarding the, the road situation.

There, this is not a straight, wide open expansive road like many roads are in the RC-2 district. This is a, a road that covers two hundred feet of elevation in a relatively short time, riding along the ridge to bypass an extreme promontory. And as that road passes and, and heads up that promontory, there's a side driveway that leads into this particular site.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. Move to strike.

CHAIR: I'm going to overrule. We'll, I guess we can speak to that on cross examination.

MR. HOLZER: Now, Mr. Jakubiak, from the, from your review of the proposed use at this location, do you, what do you believe, do you believe will there be determine, to the general welfare of the locality due to the nature of its use and the risk of, of all of the things that you've said, under 502.1(A)?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, that, 502.1(A) is the first in the standards for evaluating a special exception. I think the project, as proposed, and I stress as proposed, particularly given the, the, the outdoor events and festivals, I, is adverse or is a detriment to the general welfare.

MR. HOLZER: Could you explain why?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The previous explanation I've offered on the road conditions, on the overflow parking, on the, the grade differences between the residential at the low end and the proposed use up high, over a hundred and twenty-two feet above, all speak to the risk for adverse impacts extending beyond the property. And general welfare as applied to a, a rural area, in my view, speaks to tranquility, the quietness, those elements of the historic and sort of cultural landscape that has evolved over time. This is a very rural area and there's an expectation for a certain amount of tranquility and the extent to which festivals and other activities impact, send the noise and send traffic into this area, the general welfare will be negatively impacted.

MR. HOLZER: And do you have an opinion as to the proposed use in the RC-2 district as to whether it is inconsistent with the spirit and intent of the zoning regulations under 502.1(G)?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I, the proposed use would impact the, the community in a way, as I've described, and I find that to be counter to the spirit and intent of the, the zoning ordinance. Not just the zoning ordinance looked discreetly but the zoning plan or the, the, the combination of zoning and master planning that seeks to preserve these natural and rural landscapes and minimize the intrusion of dense, or intense, development into them.

MR. HOLZER: Do you have any other points that you care to make in regard to this issue that I've missed?

CHAIR: Which issue?

MR. HOLZER: As to whether or not the special exception should be granted?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, no further points.

MR. HOLZER: No further questions.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, would you like a couple minutes to organize?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: Or anything? You're ready to go?

MR. SCHMIDT: What I might suggest, I'm not sure how long I'll be with Mr. Jakubiak because it's 11:30 right now, but I do have, I know certain sort of topics that I can cover. So, maybe --

CHAIR: Start and see where it takes us?

MR. SCHMIDT: Start, and when I get to a point where I'm going to move on to another topic, if the Board wants to take a lunch hour at that point, I'll leave it up to you.

CHAIR: My, my inclination would be to get through the cross in its entirety --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: -- if, if, I mean, --

MR. SCHMIDT: We'll try.

CHAIR: Yeah, right. I mean, if you have (inaudible)

three hours of cross, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: -- maybe that's not as feasible. But --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: -- so.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: Sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I think I'm ready to go, but just give me one minute or so. Okay. Okay. Okay, Mr. Jakubiak, Mr., were you here for Mr. Clark's testimony?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I, the last one and a half days.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I believe you've talked about the property's location in the, in a rural legacy area, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark testified that the property is located within the Long Green Valley Historic District. Were you here for that testimony?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you agree with that, that the subject property is within the Long Green Valley Historic District?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't agree with him?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't.

MR. SCHMIDT: In fact, it's not in the Long Green Valley Historic District, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, if I answer with a, a bit of a caveat. It is not within, it's very close to, but I think, although I can't confirm and I, I had sought to confirm it before this meeting that the Bona, Bonaparte Farm, the original farm, actually part of it was within that. But this subject property is not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, when you look at the exhibit, how big is the subject property?

CHAIR: Hold on, which exhibit are you referring to?

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I'm not quite there yet, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: Sorry.

MR. SCHMIDT: How big is the subject property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Thirty point eight six acres.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. How big was the original Bonaparte Farm?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Two hundred thirty-five, I believe.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, let me draw your attention to Protestant's exhibit number thirty-six.

MR. HOLZER: Objection. You know, that's why you, your --

CHAIR: Hold on, what's your objection?

MR. HOLZER: That's why the witness should have been told what the exhibit was rather than defer till this point. I'm sorry, but what's good for the goose is good for the gander.

CHAIR: I'm not following what, what the problem is.

MR. HOLZER: He didn't identify the document so the witness could look at it and, and not be mistaken as far as the acreage.

CHAIR: Okay. If he needed to use a document for that, he certainly could testify to that. That I can't tell you the answer unless I see a document. And you can always rehabilitate him on re-direct to the extent you need to do so.

MR. HOLZER: I'd rather him not be misled in the beginning.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm not misleading --

CHAIR: Hold on. Let me just respond to that. It, it, this is cross examination. He's asking him if he wants to test his memory. He also could test his memory and if he, and if Mr. Jakubiak needs to refer to a document, Mr. Jakubiak can certainly refer to a document, he can certainly answer I don't know the answer, or whatever the case may be. This is not misleading and I will overrule the objection. You may continue.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, Mr. Garber.

MR. MCCOMAS: You may want to correct just the exhibit reference, because I think I heard you as thirty-six.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I apologize, I did mis, misspeak. Mr. Jakubiak, I'm going to show you Protestant's exhibit number thirty-six. And for the record, this is the exhibit that was introduced through your direct examination, which contained several articles from I think the Baltimore County Historical Society Publication, is that correct?

CHAIR: Wait, hold on. I'm not following your question. You said Protestant's Exhibit 36 --

MR. SCHMIDT: I keep saying thirty-six, I mean 106.

CHAIR: 106, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: I apologize.

CHAIR: So, Protestant's Exhibit 106, now you may continue.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sorry, let me start again. I'm going to show you Protestant's exhibit number 106, and I apologize, Mr. Jakubiak, I didn't mean to confuse you. And that is, I believe, portions of publications that you obtained through or by the Baltimore County Historical Society, is that a fair statement?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'm going to draw your attention to page one of Exhibit 106 and if you go down under the column of Mr. Bonaparte's Farm, probably about sixty percent of the way down, and I'll show it to you if I can, and maybe you can pick up on it.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

CHAIR: Can you please show Mr. Holzer the section you're referring to before --

MR. HOLZER: I understand what section he's dealing with.

MR. SCHMIDT: I will.

MR. HOLZER: I don't need to see it.

MR. SCHMIDT: It ind, it indicates, does it not in that section, how big Mr. Bonaparte's farm was, at least as of September the 10th of 1904 when this article was written, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It says he purchased three hundred and sixty acres fertile land in the Long Green Valley.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, at least at some point in time, Mr. Bonaparte had three hundred and sixty acres, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, according to this.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. The subject property is --

CHAIR: I'm sorry, I couldn't hear your answer.

MR. JAKUBIAK: According to this document, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: The subject property is now, you've testified, about thirty acres, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, the subject property, if my math is correct, is about one-twelfth of the farm holdings, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I accept that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, when you indicated before that a part of a farm may be within the historic district, do you know where the three hundred and sixty acres encompassed? Do you know where that was? Could you draw it on a map?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, I can't draw it on a map.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I, I have a very vague idea but not sufficient to (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you have a vague idea of where the three hundred and sixty acres is, but is it fair to say that the thirty acres, which is the subject of this hearing, is not in the Long Green Valley Historic District?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and I'll return this to Mr. McComas. As a matter of fact, I'm going to show you --

CHAIR: Sorry, just, what we're just talking about is that there's a line that runs down the side of the first page on Exhibit 106, page twenty-one at the top. And that the original copy has a blue line and we're questioning as to when that was put on there, but it's on every copy, so obviously before it was copied. So, everyone will be familiar with that line and just, that's what we were just trying to get to the bottom of.

MR. HOLZER: I don't have it on mine.

CHAIR: You don't have it on your, well, was that made back here? Because it was on mine.

MR. HOLZER: I don't know.

MR. MCCOMAS: I didn't think I had it on one of mine, so I may have had one (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: That's what I gave the, the Board's secretary.

MS. DOPKIN: Do you see, mine has it?

CHAIR: Yeah, mine had it too. Plus, see yours doesn't --

MR. SCHMIDT: Mine has it as well.

CHAIR: Your, this is not, this was not given to the Board because it doesn't have the --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, it was.

CHAIR: -- hold on.

MR. MCCOMAS: You gave me one, I think I have his, I think I had yours.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Only, only because it doesn't have the exhibit tab, where ours are all photocopied on.

MR. HOLZER: I gave it to the Board's secretary for page one.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Not to, not for the whole document, just for page one.

CHAIR: Right, well, the exhibit that was given to us has the black line running down the front page. The third page is, of Exhibit 106, you provided in addition to Ms. Cannington.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: But it would have already been copied with the first two.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay.

CHAIR: Right, just to, so we're all on the same page as to how this came about so there's no question or confusion.

MR. HOLZER: Is that relevant?

CHAIR: No.

MR. MCCOMAS: No.

CHAIR: But that's what we were just discussing up here, just so counsel is aware.

MR. HOLZER: I under, I'm sorry, I understand.

CHAIR: And I'm sorry, Mr. Schmidt, to interrupt your cross examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: No problem, no problem.

CHAIR: But I wanted to, in case the microphones were picking up what we were saying, that's what we were talking about.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Can I proceed?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'm going to mark, I'm going to give to Mr. McComas, if I can, I believe it's Exhibit 44?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, for the Petitioner. If you can mark that for identification purposes. And I'm going to ask --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, do you have a copy?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: I did give a copy to Mr. Holzer. Mr. Jakubiak, I assume you recognize the form of this document as a planner, that it would be an application for a designation on the National Register of Historic Places, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Have you seen this document before?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and is this the document that was submitted when the Long Green Valley Historic District was designated as a national historic district?

MR. JAKUBIAK: That was my conclusion when I read it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you've seen the document?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: At the rear of the document, on the last two pages of the document, is a map, or I believe maps, indicating the historic district, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, that's, it's copied on to two pages so you'd have to put them together to see the entire district.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, and I've got another map that I've done that, just so it's a little easier to read. And does this confirm that, in fact, the subject property is outside the area of the historic district?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, close but outside.

MR. SCHMIDT: Close but outside. Additionally, there are a number of circles with numbers written inside them on these two pages of maps. Do you know what those are?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I can't remember what, what they are but my --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Would they be the identification or list of contributing structures, which would support the designation of this area as an historic --

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- district, if you know?

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: He already said he didn't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm just refresh, I'm asking him if that refreshes his --

CHAIR: He's asking does he know that that's where that's derived from or not?

MR. HOLZER: He already said he did not know. So, shouldn't that end it.

CHAIR: Hold on. This is --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'll strike the question. Mr. Jakubiak, if I can, --

CHAIR: So, it's withdrawn, the question is withdrawn?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Mr. Jakubiak, I am going to, you've seen this document before, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I have.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you work with, as an expert land planner and expert in zoning, I assume you're pretty familiar with applications such as this, and this one in specific, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I've prepared one myself.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'm going to direct your attention to what is labeled on the bottom as see continuation sheet number thirteen, which is about in the middle of the document, I think that means it's actually page twelve continuation --

CHAIR: I'll note there is a page twelve (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Up at the top right hand corner.

CHAIR: Top right hand corner, more or less.

MR. SCHMIDT: It's just a little easier to --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- see it at the bottom, so I want to get the witness, you, you under --

MR. JAKUBIAK: I'm there.
MR. SCHMIDT: -- stand what I'm saying?
MR. JAKUBIAK: I'm, I'm with you.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.
CHAIR: Hold on. Mr. Holzer, are you there yet?
MR. HOLZER: I see it, thank you.
CHAIR: All right.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, that lists, beginning on page twelve, does it not, non-contributing structures and objections, correct?
MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.
MR. SCHMIDT: And then it continues on in the lower half of that page a list of continuing structures, correct?
CHAIR: Contributing.
MR. SCHMIDT: Contributing structures, excuse me. Is that correct?
MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.
MR. SCHMIDT: And that continues on for several pages. Do you know if the Bonaparte mansion is listed as a contributing structure?
MR. JAKUBIAK: No, it's not.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and if you know, sir, that the, the contributing structures which are referenced on pages twelve, thirteen, fourteen and fifteen with certain numbers, would that refer, if you know, sir, to the numbers which are on the two maps at the end of the report?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's not unusual to present it that way with these applications, say that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I would, I would mark that, or ask that be submitted as Petitioner's exhibit number forty-four.

MR. HOLZER: No objection.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Jakubiak, similarly, I'm going to ask Mr. McComas to mark this as Petitioner's exhibit number forty-five. And I would represent to the witness and to the Board that his is simply a consolidation of the, of the two maps in the previous exhibit. Mr. Jakubiak, I'll ask you, can you identify this? Would this be the Long Green Valley District on a single page, as opposed to the two pages that we had before?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it is. I can attest to that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. And sir, can you tell us, and you might reference in the lower right hand corner, where it says in green letters, DISTR and then below that NO, which I believe is district number. Is the subject property in that area of any of those green letters, if you know? Just for the Board's ed, edification.

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's between the letters I and S. You can see the red line, how it makes a sharp turn.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that's Harford Road, is the red line?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, that's, that's, that's, that is the subject property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. All right. I would offer that then as Petitioner's exhibit number forty-five.

MR. HOLZER: No objection.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: Insofar as the, you indicated it's not in the historic district, you did indicate, however, it's on a scenic route, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is there any, where are, in Baltimore County law or regulation, the regulations as they relate to the protection of scenic routes?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I've not found specific regulations protecting scenic routes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So you do not know if there is any section of the County law that relates to the protection or preservation of scenic routes?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Not within the zoning framework, as I understand it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. In any other document, the Zoning Commissioner's Policy Manual, the Comprehensive Manual, Development Policies, any of the other various manual, policies or regulations of Baltimore County?

CHAIR: If I can, you're, you're asking multiple questions right now.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, --

CHAIR: Is it just one general question? Is there any other source? Yes. But you're asking individual items.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is there any other source of regulation as it relates to scenic routes? I think you've said there is not?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yeah, there's not. There's, I think there's reference to it but there's not a specific standard as you might find within the zoning code.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. Since there is no regulation that you are aware of, then I assume there is no regulation that prohibits or in any way limits a church use adjacent to a scenic highway or a scenic route?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, there's not.

MR. SCHMIDT: There's not. Similarly, you indicated that the property is within a rural legacy area as discussed in the County master plan, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you specifically, I think, drew us, our attention to page one sixty-nine of the master plan, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is there any language or any re, was there any language in that discussion, within the master plan, related to church uses in rural legacy programs?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The only reference that I was able to gather would be the institutional uses.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, it does talk about institutional uses on page one sixty-nine?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, I'll have to have one sixty-nine in front of me, but I, I thought it was the section --

CHAIR: Well, hold on. Then get it, then get it out in front of you.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay, okay. I may be mistaken but that's (inaudible) one sixty-nine in front of me, please, if you could?

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: Can you please show Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: I, I'm familiar with it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'm going to show the witness just page one sixty-nine of the County master plan. Mr. Jakubiak, I believe, this was the page in your direct examination that you discussed, that you discussed, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, speak up.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, that's correct.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and so there is a section of page one sixty-nine which bears the title rural legacy program, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Right, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And what I'm asking for, to you if you can point us to a section or language within this section of the master plan which talks about churches or even institutional uses if you can tell me where it is?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Right, I, when I mentioned that earlier, I got mixed up. I was referencing in my mind another standard, so it's not specifically referenced in churches or institutional uses in this paragraph.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, your, your testimony before about the rural legacy program providing or inferring or indicating that it somehow restricted, impacted, prohibited churches or institutional program, churches or institutions is, you're taking that testimony back?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't think I said that the rural legacy program would prevent that. I, it was referencing the rural legacy program as part of the planning framework that speaks to the, the intensity of development within the rural areas and --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, is, isn't the rural legacy program --

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, again, just to remind you. Let him finish his answer before you start your question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, I thought he did. I apologize. Mr. Jakubiak, would you disagree with me if I said isn't the intent of the rural legacy program for there to be a mechanism by which either a public or a private entity can purchase properties, or if not purchase, pay for easements on properties that would thereafter prohibit development? Isn't that what the rural legacy program does?

MR. JAKUBIAK: That's an element. That's an implementation aspect of the program.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. In other words, like the, the, the, the Maryland Preservation Trust may very well give money or pay money to a landowner in exchange for that landowner placing a perpetual easement on his or her property, which would limit or prohibit development in the future, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, and it wouldn't apply County wide, it just applies in the area where the rural legacy is sought to be preserved.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Such as this location.

MR. SCHMIDT: And there is no easement or preservation program or preservation document as it relates to this subject property, is there?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: This property has never been encumbered with an easement which would prohibit the development of the property with the proposed use, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It has not been.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Well, is that correct was the question.

MR. JAKUBIAK: It is correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay. While we're on the master plan, do you know what a transect designation is?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I do.

MR. SCHMIDT: What is that?

MR. JAKUBIAK: That's a land use designation that's applied within the Baltimore County land use framework. That seeks to characterize the County, the County's land use, within various character areas. So, there's a, on a transect, meaning most rural, wide open, sparsely populated to the most developed at the higher end so --

MR. SCHMIDT: It's a, oh, I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry, didn't mean to interrupt. I thought he was done. Go ahead, sir.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I was only going to finish by saying that, that each property, not, without any specific, you know, zoning or land use evaluation, but each property falls within a, a transect.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know what the transect is for this property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I think it's T-2, I believe it's T-2, the rural preservation or rural, some kind of, or natural rural preservation area.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did you evaluate or look to ascertain what the transect designation is in this case in preparation for your testimony?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, I did not.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, is it, since you didn't look at that, I assume then it was not important for the purposes of formulating your testimony, what the transect designation is in this case?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, no, it wasn't.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, you also indicated that the property is within a land management area designation, and specifically you, it is within what you called an agricultural priority preservation area, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that's the map, to be fair to you, I'll show it to you and I --

CHAIR: Please show Mr. Holzer first.

MR. HOLZER: I've, I've seen it.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's the map that appears on page forty of the master plan, does it not?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, you testified, let me see if I can find my note, that there was language in the master plan about the significance of this property being in a agricultural priority preservation area. But I think when you were attempting to explain that, I think as a result of an objection I made, you, you could not identify where that language is, is that correct? Did, did I misunderstand that during your direct? Is there some, to, to make the question simple and I'm not trying to trick you, is there some language in the master plan somewhere that talks about what it means for a property to be in an agricultural priority preservation area, particularly as it relates to this case?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, there's language that speaks to the, the intent of the land management area.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Where's that?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't have the, the master plan in front of me. It might take a minute or two.

MR. SCHMIDT: (inaudible).

CHAIR: Do you need to see it first, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: No, I, --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: To be fair to you. And I've given the witness the master plan.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I haven't read it to confirm, but my memory takes me to page ninety-two.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: And there's a heading that says agriculture priority preservation areas.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. That's my only copy, so I'm going to look over your shoulder, if I can.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay, sure, yeah.

CHAIR: Hold on one second. Mr. Holzer is standing up.

MR. HOLZER: I would like him to have the opportunity just to read.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure, sure.

MR. HOLZER: Before any questions --

CHAIR: I, I would agree with Mr. Holzer.

MR. SCHMIDT: Absolutely.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just let me know when you've had a chance to read that section. Have you had a chance to read it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is there any language on page ninety-two, which you referred us to, which discusses institutional uses or churches?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is there any language on page ninety-two which prohibits or restricts churches in an agricultural preservation priority area, if I said that correctly?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, there's not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. In fact, is this property in agriculture at the present time?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know when it was last used for agricultural purposes?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, the use of this property as a church will not be taking the property out of agricultural use at the present time, will it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Not out of active agriculture use.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know where the closest agriculture, prop, the closest property to the subject property is that is being used for agricultural purposes?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, not specifically.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, is it fair to say, Mr. Jakubiak, since this property is not being used for agricultural purposes and you don't even know where the nearest property is that is used for agriculture, that the use of this property for, as a church will not impactly, will not adversely impact agriculture?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The only impact that's potential to the production, or the use of land for agriculture is potentially on the adjoining road system and perhaps interfering with farm implements that are actually on the road too. This is a, a property in the midst of land that's in agriculture use. I can't pinpoint any specific location from here, but it's in an agricultural area.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, it could impact the traffic generated by, by a farm nearby?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It, it could impact, yes, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Some farmer driving his tractor up the road?

CHAIR: Well, again, Mr. Schmidt, please let him finish his answer.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: That's right.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's the only impact from an agricultural standpoint?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, that's the direct potential impact. But there's, the broader incursion of development within farming communities, does work against the land preservation strategies to keep intact large agricultural areas.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, doesn't, --

MR. JAKUBIAK: So, as a matter of policy, there's the, there's the planning policy that's at stake, as well as the specific impact.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. All right. Now, Mr. Jakubiak, I think you indicated on your direct examination that the County master plan is a, I think you called it a visionary document?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't think I said that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, how would you characterize the master plan?

MR. JAKUBIAK: As a guide to decision making.

MR. SCHMIDT: A guide. Published every ten years?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Updated every ten years, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and the relevant master plan at the present time is master plan 2020, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Which was adopted in when, if you know?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Two thousand nine, I believe, two, 2011, I, right about that period.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. To cover the period of what, the, the year period of what?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Going out from that point to 2020.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. In addition to the County master plan which you've discussed, are there also area plans that the County Planning Department has published?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, there are area plans that cover, a large handful, let's say of specific communities, small area plans.

MR. SCHMIDT: And are those area plans, do they, when adopted, properly adopted by the County, do they then become part of the master plan?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, they do.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is it fair to describe the area plans as focusing or identifying a specific community within the County where, unlike the master plan which broadly covers the entire area of Baltimore County, these area plans focus on a specific neighborhood or community?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, that's fair to say.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is the subject property within the area of any community plan or area plan?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and what area plan is that?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's the Kingsville area plan.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have you reviewed the Kingsville area plan in contemplation of your testimony today?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I reviewed sections of it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and I noted that you did not refer to any sections of it within your direct examination, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'm going to ask that Mr. McComas mark as Petitioner's exhibit, I believe we're at number forty-six.

MR. MCCOMAS: Forty-six.

MR. SCHMIDT: And this is in the interest of completeness, the entire King, greater Kingsville area community plan. Mr. Jakubiak, I have a copy. Do you need it or do you have it with you?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't have the entire copy with me.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, then I will give you a copy.

CHAIR: Before you, I mean, if you're going to ask him a particular question, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, I am.

CHAIR: I note that the ones handed up here have a yellow tab. I see the same thing on --

MR. SCHMIDT: All of them.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- the exhibit for, for Mr. Holzer as well.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you may, yes, and you may remove that tag but I just did that for the ease of the witness. Mr. Jakubiak, I'm going to refer you to page twenty-seven of the greater Kingsville area community plan. Do you have that in front of you, sir?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I do.

MR. SCHMIDT: And on that page, there is a recommendation, which is identified in number twenty-four and I would ask that you would read that into the record for us.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay. Would you like only the capitalized paragraph?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, well, let's, yeah, let's, let's start with that, yeah.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay. Twenty-four, that special forms of development such as, such as churches and recreational facilities, while beneficial to the residents, should be located in close proximity to major roadways, such as Harford and Belair Roads, and provide a suitable buffer commensurate with size and usage from neighboring properties.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, unlike the rural legacy language that you referred us to, and the agricultural preservation priority areas that you referred us to in the master plan, here in this document, this document being Petitioner's exhibit number forty-five, forty-six, excuse me, there is specific reference to churches in the Kingsville plan, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that language encourages or recommends, does it not, that churches be located quote, in close proximity to major roadways, such as Harford Road and Belair Road, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It does.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, would you agree, sir, that this document is telling us that unlike locating a church say on a neighborhood street or a smaller residential street, that churches in the greater Kingsville area should be located on one of the two major roadways, which bisect that area, namely either Belair Road or Harford Road, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: With some caveats, but generally yes, and I could explain those in more detail.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sure Mr. Holzer can get you to explain whatever he would like. But in answer to my question, this is what that's telling us, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Provided the offsite conditions are addressed and particularly the adverse impacts to neighboring properties from its use and size.

MR. SCHMIDT: And where did, and where does it say provided that the offsite impacts are addressed and there's no detrimental impact to neighboring properties?

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: Hold on, sir, hold on.

MR. HOLZER: Objection. The basis is, he's trying to explain that it doesn't, it doesn't have to be in the plan. It, it, it's implicit in why we're here.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, Mr. Holzer, for --

CHAIR: Well, certainly you can ask that on re-direct.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I will.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: I will.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, this is, this is cross examination so --

MR. SCHMIDT: It, it is.

CHAIR: -- with that in mind, overruled. But I expect we'll hear from it again.

MR. HOLZER: I think so.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay. But there's nothing that talks about the language that you just used about considering adverse impacts, at least in the body of this language, is there?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I, there is, I disagree with your, your statement that (inaudible) --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, where is the word adverse impact?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Adverse impact is, is my word but it's a reasonable way to interpret this language. That says to the, to the fragility of the rural environment and to the characteristics of the rural community, special consideration should be given to the access to the development and the protection of the adjacent environmental features and neighboring properties.

CHAIR: So, we're going to stop here for one second. Only because now we're reading a separate paragraph than what was read into the record before. Just to note that for purposes of this record that's being recorded here, that that is a separate paragraph that has not yet been read into the record. But obviously, Mr. Jakubiak has an interpretation of that that impacts his testimony.

MR. HOLZER: No, I object to that characterization. It is the paragraph directly under paragraph number twenty-four.

CHAIR: We're saying the same thing.

MR. HOLZER: I, I, I know we are, but in a slightly different tone.

CHAIR: Okay, I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: And, and so when he read paragraph twenty-four in bold and it was five lines, if you go down and read the analysis of that, those five lines --

CHAIR: In italics, in the, right, right, --

MR. HOLZER: -- in italics, it, it explains and that's consistent with his answer previously, that it's subject to the terms and conditions of special exception.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are we, Mr. Garber, are we offering argument at this point or are we addressing an objection?

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, --

MR. HOLZER: I'm doing what you do all the time.

CHAIR: -- I'm only putting, I'm putting into the record where it was read from so it's understood where that information is coming from.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, if you have questions you wish to ask on re-direct about that section, obviously you will have that opportunity. So now we can proceed.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Mr. Jakubiak, wouldn't you agree, sir, from a general planning principal, that it would, and consistent with the greater Kingsville area community plan, that generally speaking, it would be preferable to have a church within the area encompassed, within the greater Kingsville area community plan, to be located and accessed from Harford Road and, or Belair Road, as opposed to a comm, smaller community road?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, I would generally agree with that but the conditions of Harford Road are such that there's a, there's a caveat to that. Mount Vista Road might be a better road, for instance, to accommodate those types of institutions.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Because of its better design, or more modern design.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you. I would offer exhibit number forty-six --

CHAIR: Six.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- I believe, and we'll certainly --

MR. HOLZER: No objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- argue about what it means in our memorandum.

CHAIR: So admitted, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Mr. Jakubiak, the subject property is not proposed for any new building, is it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, the existing improvements that are located on the property other than some that are going to be removed, which I think there was previous testimony about which ones will be removed, will be how the property will be used in connection with the church, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, and the main building, the mansion, the old Bonaparte dwelling, is located in the center of the property, correct? Essentially the center of the property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's at the focal point of the property, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have you done any analysis of the distance from, well, I think you did in one of your exhibits, but the distance between the subject property and the nearest property line?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I did. I, I reviewed the, the plan that was submitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: The site plan?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Petition's Exhibit 1.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: And I saw that there were quite a few measurements on it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Um hm.

MR. JAKUBIAK: That, that showed that and, of course, you saw the exhibit that I introduced this afternoon, or this morning.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: That had a measurement as well.

CHAIR: With the yellow line?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

CHAIR: So, just for purposes of that, for the record, that would be Exhibit 104. Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you. And Mr. Jakubiak, were you here for Mr. Clark's testimony? I think you said most of it or parts of it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yeah, I would imagine at least the half or a third of it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. How about Dr. Clark's testimony, his wife?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, I was not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know if you can see the Bonaparte mansion from Mr. Clark, Dr. Clark's house? Is it visible?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't know that.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't know?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I have not been on that property to, to, to, to look in that direction.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You haven't been on their property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you haven't been on the subject property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Except for the driveway.

MR. SCHMIDT: Driveway. Okay. So, you don't, do, do you know one way or the other, if the Bonaparte mansion is visible from any of the dwellings which surround it, which are located on the surrounding properties? Have you looked at that at all?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I have not looked at the, at that, so I don't know that answer.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is, is the visual impact of a use important in considering the 502.1 criteria?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I guess it could be.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, you've spent time this morning discussing about how the Bonaparte mansion is visible from section, I think you said sections of Harford Road, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you indicated, I thought the import of that testimony was that the Bonaparte mansion is a visual feature, which is important in this locale or neighborhood, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. With that being said, wouldn't it be important to know if you can see the Bonaparte mansion from any of the houses which surround it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: That seemed less important to me than what happens on the grounds and the, the impact of noise and the other factors that I brought to the Board's attention.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, did you do, have you been to any of the other adjacent properties? Dr. Clark's property, Mr. Poehler's property, any of the other neighbors who have test, testified?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, I testified that I have not been on their properties.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know if you can see the area surrounding, the lawn area surrounding the Bonaparte neighborhood, the Bonaparte mansion from any of those properties?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Like I said, I've not been there, so I've not had the benefit of that vantage point.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you don't know what you can see either the mansion or the lawn, from any of the adjacent neighbors or nearby neighbors?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, I don't have a very good feel for that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay and you've never been on the subject property?

MR. HOLZER: Objection, asked and answered.

CHAIR: I think we, Mr., Mr. Holzer, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Asked and answered, I'm sorry. Thank you, thank you.

CHAIR: I heard the same thing.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, while you're sitting there looking through things, you indicated that on Exhibit 17 you wanted to ask questions on cross examination. 107 would be the photo of that, of what's been represented as the house prior to the fire in 1933.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure, I'll, I'll cover that now.

CHAIR: Yeah, I'm just reminding you of it. Whether you do it now or --

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: -- I just saw you looking through things and figured I'd bring that to your attention. So we can get a resolution on that perhaps.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and Mr. Jakubiak, thanks to the Chairman's prompting, I'll ask you about Exhibit 107. And for your reference, that is the photograph that you got, I think, from one of the other Protestants, which is a, I believe, a photograph of the original Bonaparte mansion, correct?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. JAKUBIAK: It is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. And I think you said you got that from, I don't know if it was Ms. Shaw or someone else you mentioned.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I mentioned Robin Behrs.

MR. SCHMIDT: Robin Behrs, excuse me, I apologize. Do, do you, other than you having gotten this from Ms. Behrs, do you know where this is from or what source, the source of this photograph?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, I don't know the source.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know what year it was taken?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I, I, there's no citation on it for me to, to approximate that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, I know you haven't been on the property, but I assume you've looked at photographs of the subject property, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I have.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is the condition in terms of number of trees and vegetation in the area of the property, which is shown on Protestant's Exhibit 107, the same as the conditions are today?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, there are a number of trees, as you might expect on sort of an estate lot that are positioned near and around the driveway and some of the open spaces.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right. This, if it's fair to say, this exhibit shows but one tree immediately in front of the house, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And at the present time, the driveway area, which is shown in this photograph as well as the area immediately around the house is significantly more treed and buffered than it was at this time, is that correct?

CHAIR: At the time of the, what, what --

MR. SCHMIDT: At the time of the photograph. At least since we know it had to be taken in 1933 or before --

CHAIR: Before.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- because the house burned down then, so even though we don't know when the photograph was taken, is it fair to say that at the time this photograph was taken and the conditions today, there are significantly more trees and buffer then there are at the time this photograph was taken?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, I, I'm looking at exhibit number 104 to answer that question. And I, that is a Google Earth image and there's a 2018 copyright. I, the image may have been from 2017, but it's obviously recent. There's a scattering of, of trees on this site. I wouldn't characterize that as a significant, and I wouldn't characterize it as a buffer either.

But I would say there's certainly more trees on the property than existed there.

CHAIR: In 107?

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, it's more than --

MR. JAKUBIAK: In 107.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- it's more than one, isn't it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's considerably more than one.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and is it fair to say also that the perimeter of the site, of the property, is also wooded?

MR. HOLZER: Object. Asked and answered repeatedly.

MR. SCHMIDT: He didn't answer this.

MR. HOLZER: Are you referring to the wooded along Harford Road or are you referring to wooded in the picture? Which doesn't show --

CHAIR: I think that that's a fair question as to which, where, what are you referring to in terms of what it, are you talking about --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'll, I'll re-ask the --

CHAIR: -- 104 or 107?

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll re-ask the question for the witness. Let me, let me draw your attention, if I can, Mr. Jakubiak, to, and you can use either Exhibit 102 or Exhibit 104. And let's start at 102, if I can. Do you have that in front of you? And to be fair to you, that's the one that's taken from Google Earth and it shows the subject property, superimposed on there the address of, of 12231 Harford Road, is superimposed. And there are also three buildings which are offsite and I believe in the center page is Harford Road, is that, is that correct?

CHAIR: Do, do you have that in front of you?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Just to confirm, because mine, mine is not marked, but is this the exhibit we're referring to?

CHAIR: I have this as 104, it has all your corrections on it with the, right?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, 102 is what he's --

CHAIR: Or 102, excuse me. I apologize, 102. Yes, 102, that one would be 102.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. You got the right one.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Let me ask you about 102. Okay. Now, do you know which one of the houses that's offsite is Mr. Clark's?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I do.

MR. SCHMIDT: Which is it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's the, it would be the second house from the bottom of this image. It's gray, it has a detached garage.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know who owns, it appear to be, well, how many other houses are shown on this property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Three, three other houses are shown on the west side of Harford Road.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you have not been on any of those lots?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, I have not.

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Asked and answered just ten minutes ago.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, it clarifies which lots it, so I'm going to overrule the objection. I understand your frustration. It's cross examination.

MR. HOLZER: (inaudible) frustrated.

CHAIR: Before it was a general term, now we have specificity.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Jakubiak, between Harford Road and the Nepali mansion, the Bonaparte mansion, there is, is there not, sir, a stand of trees or woods, which is on the subject property, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I've referred to this as the, the, the valley wall, the wooded valley wall and it's roughly a hundred and twenty feet wide, maybe a hundred and forty.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, all right. So, there is a, a, I don't, a valley wall that's a hundred and forty feet or so wide on the subject property, is that what I understand you to say?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and the subject property, do you know how tall the trees are that are in the valley wall?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I do not know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you, do you have any estimation? I mean, are they over ten feet, are they mature? Maybe I can ask it that way.

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are they mature or are they --

CHAIR: Hold, hold on, Mr. Schmidt, --

MR. HOLZER: He said he doesn't --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- have they recently been planted?

CHAIR: I will sustain the objection. He said he didn't know. I don't think he's going to be able to get more specific. If you have another question that's related to it, then --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do the trees in the valley wall appear to be mature trees?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't think they've reached their maturity yet. They, I believe they're a second cut, second growth trees or, or began growing sooner than that. The answer to the specific question they generally range probably from twenty to thirty, forty feet tall.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Thank you, sir. And the ground, the land upon which the valley wall, as you've described it, sits, is higher in elevation then the dwellings owned by Mr.

Clark and his neighbors across Harford Road, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, from a visual standpoint, is it fair to say that the trees in the valley wall, if they were thirty feet, you said twenty, thirty, forty, would actually visually appear to be much taller from the Clark and other residences because they would be sitting on the upside of a hill, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: That's a reasonable assessment.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I think I referenced this in some of my objections, but just for the record, Mr. Jakubiak,--

CHAIR: Hold on, Mr. Schmidt. I think I know where Mr. Holzer is going about 107, right?

MR. HOLZER: Exactly.

CHAIR: As to where, where do we stand --

MR. HOLZER: Is it in or out?

CHAIR: -- as to 107?

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Are you objecting or no?

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll object to it.

CHAIR: Okay. What is the basis for the objection?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't think there's any foundation for it. He doesn't know when it was taken, he doesn't know he got it other than somebody gave it to him.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: The purpose of the document was --

CHAIR: I, the purpose is one thing, he's objecting because he doesn't know the source information as to how it came to be and, therefore, there's a question as to whether or not this would depict the actual property, even back between 1895 and 1933.

MR. HOLZER: Of course it doesn't depict the property at, from the stand, that standpoint. It's an historical picture to show that there was an existing building there before the current one occupied this spot. It's, it's obviously relevant.

CHAIR: No, again, he, he's questioning the source of the information, that is how do we know that this shows --

MR. HOLZER: I can put another witness on. If you want to continue this --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, I'm not the one who's objecting. There's an objection on the table. It is what it is.

MR. HOLZER: It came from the Baltimore County Historic Society Library. I can produce a witness who will testify to that. If it's that important to know that it's from the Baltimore County Historic Society.

CHAIR: There is an objection as, as to that. Mr. Schmidt, with that representation, does that resolve your objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: Then it is admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I hate to be so prickly about trying to observe the rules of evidence, I apologize.

CHAIR: And Mr. Schmidt, it's, it's, Mr. Schmidt, we don't need comment. It is admitted, we can move on.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Jakubiak, are you a civil engineer?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are you a surveyor?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are you a sanitarian?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are you a traffic engineer?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I am not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are you an acoustical engineer?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I am not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Can you seal or prepare a site plan or zoning plan in Baltimore County?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Can you seal or prepare a zoning plan in Baltimore County?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I can't seal any plans that are submitted for development approval.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Including a development plan or a plan to accompany a Petition for Special Exception, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Correct.

CHAIR: And that, just because you asked it in the disjunctive, that would apply to both.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I understand.

CHAIR: That, that did not change your answer, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Jakubiak, where are the parking regulations in Baltimore County found?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I can't recall the, the zoning section, but they're in the Baltimore County zoning regulations.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You don't know what zoning section they are?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I can't recall right now.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know what the requirement is for a church?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: What is it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's one parking space for every four seats.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. And Mr. Garber, I apologize, I'm just trying to go through my notes.

CHAIR: It's nothing to apologize for.

MR. SCHMIDT: As, as a matter of fact, Mr. Garber, and it might make the rest of my cross examination a little bit shorter if, if, if the Board would like to take a, a break here, it may be appropriate.

CHAIR: I will defer to counsel as to what your wishes are in terms of a break.

MR. HOLZER: I don't object to anything.

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, it just might help me organize my thoughts a little bit and get through it a little quicker.

CHAIR: Well, apparently there's no objection to breaking now.

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: So, with, Mr. Schmidt, if that, if you feel that that would be best for your case and best to make this more efficient, then I'm sure from this Board's perspective, that we wouldn't have any problem with that. So, with that said, why don't we come back forty-five minutes from now.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: At 1:15 and, again, to the extent you guys, the two of you can resolve any type of issue as to, thank you, you knew where I was going with it, the exhibits and any type of authentication or other issues that would help resolve where these exhibits are in relation to this record.

MR. HOLZER: I, I've had a conversation with Mr. Schmidt, provided this information to him, he is to get back to me and tell me if he's having any problem. And I don't think he's had time to, to --

MR. SCHMIDT: No, and with that said, --

CHAIR: And I understand that, you haven't, you haven't had --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- no, but we did resolve --

CHAIR: -- you haven't had sufficient time necessarily.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, and we did resolve, let me just say this, I think Mr. Holzer, page three of that document had a number of exhibits on it, which are identified as the proffer exhibit.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I would continue to object to them and I think they would be marked as a proffer. The only exhibit on page three which is not a proff, which is not designated as a proffer, is the transcript of the ALJ's hearing, which is sort of down towards the bottom of the page.

MR. HOLZER: Third from the bottom.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark actually delivered to me a copy of that transcript yesterday at my office and in view of that, since it's complete, I would, I do not object to the transcript being submitted.

CHAIR: Well, I would only add to it that we need to receive the entire transcript, of course.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'd be, I'd be happy, I got it from Mr. Clark yesterday.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I haven't made a bunch of copies, but I'd be happy to give the Board a copy of it.

CHAIR: Well, I think it's incumbent upon Protestants to provide, since it's their exhibit, but obviously, for this record, if it's going to be agreed upon as an exhibit, then we need to receive the whole thing.

MR. HOLZER: ALJ four copies, one copy already delivered to Mr. Schmidt in here. Can I hand it to the Board now so I don't have to lug it back?

CHAIR: Yes, you may.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: And I assume, Mr. Schmidt, you've already--

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, I got it from Mr. Clark yesterday.

CHAIR: -- (inaudible) with it? Very well. So, that will be admitted. So ninety --

MR. SCHMIDT: So page three is resolved.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: Well, you and I have to talk --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

MR. JAKUBIAK: -- after, after lunch.

CHAIR: So, ninety-six is, --

MR. HOLZER: That is --

CHAIR: -- resolved. And you still object to the affidavits that were identified for the proffer, Facebook postings proffer, yeah, okay. Exhibits 91 and 93, that, they are all still proffer. I will note that ninety-three, is that, was that the separate exhibit? Isn't that 46-B and C, just to be clear? It does reference Exhibit 46, 46-A was in, 46-B and C were not. So, that goes to number ninety-three.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry, I, I missed what you --

CHAIR: I'm just clarifying the sheet here.

MR. HOLZER: Because I, I'm not ready to go through all this.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Yes. I was just, the representation that that whole page --

MR. HOLZER: Oh.

CHAIR: -- has been now resolved, I don't know that we're there yet.

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: But I saw something here, or a couple things here, but these are just your notes, these, this isn't evidence anyway.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: But B and C for forty-six, which I believe is included for ninety-three, that is, that is i.d. only at the moment. But 46-A, which is referenced, is already admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MS. DOPKIN: Off the record?

CHAIR: We will go off the record now?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 12:30:26 PM)

(ON RECORD – 01:32:08 PM)

MS. DOPKIN: Ready? We're recording.

CHAIR: Yes. And we're back on the record. Everyone please make sure your cell phones are on mute or off. Same instructions as the beginning of the day. Please minimize any type of talking, gesturing, etcetera, from those who are here in attendance. I believe we last left off, Mr. Schmidt was still in the middle of his cross examination. And Mr. Schmidt, are you ready to proceed?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Jakubiak, you have given some testimony about noise and the impact, the potential impact of noise caused by the subject use on the surrounding locale. And you also have talked about generally special exceptions. Is it fair to say that all special exception uses have inherent impacts associated with them?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is it fair to say that because special exceptions have inherent uses associated with them, the mere fact that there are these impacts does not warrant a denial of the special exception?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and noise can be such an impact of a special exception, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It can be.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are there any regulations in Baltimore County regulating noise and levels of noise which are permissible as they may impact other properties?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I'm not aware of any.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay and to the best of your knowledge, your client has not commissioned or undertaken any noise analysis from an acoustical engineer related to this proposed property or proposed use?

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: If you know.

MR. HOLZER: He doesn't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, if he doesn't know, he says I don't know.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, you, I understand the purpose of your question --

MR. HOLZER: It's an irrelevant question anyway.

CHAIR: Well, if he consulted with somebody to come to any, to con, contribute to any type of opinions, that, I'm sure he would have elicited that.

MR. HOLZER: That's a better question.

CHAIR: May, we're not grading the questions in that regard. But Mr. Jakubiak still has to provide the answer that you have offered up if that is the case. Mr. Jakubiak, can you answer the question?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I can answer the question.

CHAIR: And what is your answer, sir?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, very good. Mr. Jakubiak, are there other religious institutions or uses near the subject site?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Which ones are those?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Those are Redeemer Church and Beachwood Christian Camp.

MR. SCHMIDT: Anything else?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Those, so those are the only two churches or religious uses that are nearby in your view?

MR. JAKUBIAK: In, in my view, that's right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Nearby.

MR. SCHMIDT: Does the existence of those uses nearby, did that impact or did that form any basis of any of the conclusions that you've reached in this case?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, no, it didn't.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Wouldn't that be a relevant consideration to, in determining the potential impacts of this property on the surrounding locale to know if there were similar uses in the locale?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Do you mean in evaluating a cumulative impact or something like that?

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, the, I guess my question is, wouldn't the existence of similar uses in the locale be a factor which you, as a land planner, would consider relevant in considering the subject request? Or you don't think it's important?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't think it's particularly relevant in reviewing the special exception, so.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, the mere fact that there are similar uses around doesn't have any bearing on the proposed special exception? In formulating your opinions?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It didn't in this case.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Fair enough. You had indicated that special exceptions, I think you said in the RC-2 zone, and along a scenic route, should be, I wrote down, quote, sparingly granted, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: That's essentially correct, that's right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. What, if I haven't stated that accurately, can you tell me why I haven't stated it accurately? You said it's essentially correct, I'm, you sound like you're qualifying your answer.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I think the statement includes variances and other types of relief, should be granted sparingly.

MR. SCHMIDT: Were there any variances proposed in this case?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, I go back to my original question, which, which was, I think you indicated that special exceptions in the RC-2 zone should be sparingly granted, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I believe my, my comment was more focused on the, the locale along a scenic road, not so much within an RC-2 zone.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, special exceptions that are located along an RC-2, I'm sorry, located along a scenic road should be sparingly granted?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You said previously, I believe, that you, you were unaware of any regulation as it relates to scenic routes in Baltimore County. You didn't know that there was any regulation governing scenic routes in Baltimore County, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Correct, yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: If I can then, what's, what's the basis of your decision, or your opinion, excuse me, that they should be sparingly granted. Does it say that somewhere?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I was quoting, or attempting to quote a section from the master plan. As part of the description of the scenic roads, and scenic vistas, the master plan alludes to that sparingly comment.

MR. SCHMIDT: Can, can you tell us where, where it says that?

CHAIR: Do you have the, pardon me, do you have the master plan in front of you, sir?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I, I believe I have the section that references that --

CHAIR: Take whatever time you need to find it, whatever you need. You ready to go?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And sir, if you could just direct me to the page?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I will. Let's try master plan 2020, pages ninety-nine and one hundred and one.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, do you need to see?

MR. HOLZER: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. JAKUBIAK: There is a, a list there of multiple points and, or I guess we'd call them enumerated paragraphs. And number nine says for purposes, or for properties along scenic routes or within scenic view sheds, variances, amendments and special exceptions should be granted sparingly.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, very good. Okay. Thank you, sir. As one of the Protestant's exhibits, I think Mr. Clark submitted a copy of the decision for the nearby Grace Fellowship Church. Are you familiar with that case at all?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Not really, no.

CHAIR: Can you please keep your voice up?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, no, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. In, in, whether in that case or not, that, that case specifically referenced the fact that that particular church was going to have a gymnasium as part of its facility. If you know, is that typical of churches or do churches frequently have gymnasiums or other recreational components associated with their buildings or missions?

CHAIR: Before you answer.

MR. HOLZER: Objection. It's irrelevant to this issue. He had already discussed what was being proposed here and there's no gymnasium being proposed here.

CHAIR: What's your response, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: My response is I asked him if other churches have gymnasiums or other recreational components as a part of their missions, what, what I would call the mission. And I think it has some relevance as it relates to the volleyball court.

CHAIR: Okay. (inaudible) for now. Overruled. You may answer it.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay. Well, it strikes me that a gymnasium or other recreational entity is certainly an accessory to a religious use. The question is whether it's an integral accessory, whether it's integral to the mission of, the practice of religion or not. In Hunt Valley Baptist Church, that case the additional proposed a gymnasium and the Board of Appeals didn't grant the special exception on account of this use being above and beyond what the, was a house of worship.

CHAIR: I would just note that none of these Board members up here, including myself, were a part of that case. My understanding is what you're referring to is specific to the gymnasium, as opposed to the special exception or whatever else was requested there. Is that your understanding?

MR. JAKUBIAK: My understanding is the special exception was not approved.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, but, and that's, following up on what Mr. Garber said, obviously there's no gymnasium proposed, proposed here, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, that's correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. But there is a volleyball court which is in existence, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It, the volleyball court that's on the tennis courts?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and that's used by the church members and could arguably, or properly be considered part of their program, if they minister to youth and bring kids in to play, to get them, to get them to come to church sometimes, I know that's what some churches do.

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: Hold on, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Objection. Mr. Ghimire testified the volleyball court was not needed and they could remove it in his testimony.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: So, I don't think it's appropriate to ask a hypothetical question based on his own client's testimony that they don't need it and that they're going to remove it, so.

CHAIR: I, I recall the same testimony as what you just said. At the same time, this is cross examination of an expert witness in land planning and, therefore, given the requested special exception for religious institution in this case, it's okay to ask the hypothetical but as it relates to, as it relates back to the specifics of this case, obviously there may be other facts in this case that will determine how this plays out in the end.

MR. HOLZER: I, I think it's only fair that the witness knows that the, that the Petitioners, who he's testifying about, have already indicated that they didn't want a volleyball court.

CHAIR: I don't know the significance of the question necessarily to Mr. Schmidt. Understanding where we are with the testimony and everything to that degree, I will overrule the objection. You may answer the question.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I'll need to have that question presented again. Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think the question is, Mr. Jakubiak, I'll try to ask the same question if I can remember it. Is that, I think what I was trying to get you to address is the fact that there's a volleyball/tennis court on the property now. Is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and there's been some testimony that that is used, and I know you weren't here for the entire case, but by members of the congregation, or of the church at times. And I'm just asking you to confirm, and I think you've said already that such a facility, and I'm not going to a gymnasium, but such a facility might, might in some circumstances, be considered properly accessory to the use of the overall property for religious purposes? I think that's what you said.

MR. JAKUBIAK: And you're, we're speaking hypothetically as a, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. JAKUBIAK: -- yes, not in this particular location.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Were you here for any of Mr. Collagero's testimony?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Harford Road is a State highway, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: As a land planner, do you know which agency of government has jurisdiction over State highways?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Over the design and the access to State highways, the State Highway Administration.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Maryland Department of Transportation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Mr. Jakubiak, I want to refer to you, refer you, if I can, sir, to Protestant's Exhibit 105, just so you know which number it is. It's the exhibit with a series of maps that were taken from MyNeighborhood, which all show areas of Baltimore County zoning, zoned RC-2. And I, I'm trying to understand the significance of acreage in Baltimore, of, of substantial acreage in Baltimore County zoned RC-2 is relevant as to this case how?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The, it's relevant because it shows the full extent of this particular zoning category and how there are ample opportunities to locate religious institutions that don't have the similar site characteristics as this one. In other words, there are locations where the impacts associated with a church or other building of religious worship would not impact adjoining property owners.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, for example, I assume what your conclusion is then if there was an RT, R2, RC-2 zoned property say in Monkton or in the Monkton area, because I think one of your maps is actually from that area, --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- that would be relevant for the Board to consider the existence of that property in considering that special exception?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's, it's, it's relevant, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and how far is Monkton from the subject property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I think about six miles, five, six miles.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Would you consider Monkton to be in the neighborhood of this subject property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. In the, in the criteria listed in 502.1 of the Baltimore County regulations, is there any reference to, specific reference to his, historical considerations?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, you also talked about parking and I think you indicated that the parking calculation here requires four parking spaces for, I'm sorry, requires one parking space for each four seats in the, in, in what would be called, commonly called a sanctuary, correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know what the capacity is of the subject building in terms of seating?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, I don't.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you, do you have an opinion as a land planner, are the hundred and thirty-eight parking spaces sufficient for this property?

CHAIR: You said a hundred and thirty-eight space, parking spaces.

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, thirty-eight parking, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Yes. I understood, yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm looking at my numbers. The thirty-eight parking spaces which are proposed sufficient for the subject property in terms of its use as a building for religious worship?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's not clear to me that it is because I, I, I know from the testimony that the application is more than just the church building, or more than just the temple building. And so, to the extent that festivals are an integral part of the practice of religion on this site, the project may need more parking.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, you do agree that the festivals, the religious festivals, are integral to the practice of religion on this site?

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: Under the Hindu and Buddhist religion?

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: If you know.

MR. HOLZER: That's not what he testified --

CHAIR: Hold on, hold on. Please state your objection. No, no, state your objection, I, everyone was talking over so I want you to state your objection.

MR. HOLZER: The question, that was not an appropriate question for him to ask in terms of the, the issue that he's trying to, trying to address.

CHAIR: I will say, Mr. Schmidt, I would agree with Mr. Holzer, though he did use specific words about it being integral to religious practice, or something to that effect, so I understand that's probably where you got those words from.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: However, he's not here to give opinions as to festivals and their relationship to the religious practices, unless you can establish with him that he would otherwise know that one way or the other, other than, or how he knows that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, Mr. Garber, I don't think that makes the question objectionable. I think the answer of the witness is then I don't know, if he doesn't know. What I'm, what I'm asking him is if he knows if, under this proposal, festivals which may, may occur out of doors or may have an out of doors component, are integral to the religious practices proposed for this site.

CHAIR: And I think, okay, --

MR. SCHMIDT: And if the answer is I don't know, then that's fine.

CHAIR: Yes. I think we're actually kind of saying the same thing.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, but it's not an objectionable question.

CHAIR: Well, I would say it, I would have otherwise sustained it, however, he used those exact words.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right, and that's why I'm asking him about it.

CHAIR: So, that's what I'm saying is be careful here as to where we're going in terms of is he going to be giving any type of opinions as to religious practices? Because he's not being, obviously, that was not his direct, that was not otherwise, that's not otherwise why he's up on the stand is where I'm going with it. But if you want to ask the question you just asked, I would agree with you, it is not an objectionable question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you. Mr. Jakubiak, you can answer.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Some may, some may not. Some parts of some pay, some may not. I don't know enough about the, the festivals to make a reasonable opinion.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, given that, do you have any opinion as to the amount of paved parking which ought to be provided for this prop, for this proposal?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't think the Board has been presented with enough information to judge what the impact of the festivals would be. So, I can't, without evidence in the record, make a determination. If we're just looking at the, the building itself and it's limited to an occupancy of a hundred and fifty, I think thirty-eight parking spaces is adequate, at least the zoning ordinance says so. But even the, the engineer didn't review the 502.1 standards in the context of the entire use of the site. His analysis, from my read of the testimony, was focused on the building, just like I've described to you.

So, there is this other aspect of the site that's relevant to our evaluation here. And I don't have enough information on it, except to raise questions about risk and concern of adverse impacts. I can't tell you how many parking spaces it would require, for instance.

MR. SCHMIDT: Board's indulgence for just a second.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, just a minute. I'm just reviewing my notes.

CHAIR: Take whatever time you need.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: To collect your thoughts.

MR. SCHMIDT: There is something else I wanted to ask you, Mr. Jakubiak. You talked about the special exception criteria. Does that, in considering the special exception, is there an analysis of the impact of the use on the subject property required?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, there's not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I don't have any other questions. Thank you.

CHAIR: Re-direct, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, would you pull out your Petition's Exhibit 46, greater Kingsville plan? Do you have it in front of you?

CHAIR: You said forty-six?

MR. HOLZER: I think that's what I --

CHAIR: Petitioner's Exhibit 46, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: I hope it's the right one.

CHAIR: I, it could very well be, that I just didn't pick up on that.

MR. HOLZER: You got it? Okay.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: And you were, your attention was directed to page twenty-seven.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it was.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and you read a, your, your attention was directed to paragraph twenty-four, do you recall that?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I do recall that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and you qualified the, it being on major roadways such as Harford and Belair Road. And then we started to get into the italics subpart of that doc, of that, paragraph twenty-four. And you started with the word due to the, the fragility of the rural environment, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: So, it, that's where you combined your answer in regard to protection of adjacent environmental features and on neighboring properties, is that right?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Could you explain that again, just briefly?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Recommendation number twenty-four there in all caps is described, or yeah, describe, characterized, by the italics, the smaller font underneath.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. JAKUBIAK: And so, I was familiar with the recommendation and I answered with familiarity with the recommendation to, to offer the qualification and even the recommendation itself has an, a final fragment that says and provide a suitable buffer commensurate with, you know, the size and usage. So, I, I thought it was important to make that distinction.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I would direct your attention to the paragraph above the, paragraph twenty-four where it talks about special development. And take a section to take a look at that, if you would.

CHAIR: Take whatever time you need.

MR. HOLZER: Have you had an opportunity?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, this paragraph, in effect, goes above and before paragraph twenty-four, and then the subpart of the italics and my question was, is it appears that the Kingsville, greater Kingsville community plan, went to great lengths to single out churches, community centers and recreational facilities, did it not? Because it's specifically labeled in that paragraph?

MR. JAKUBIAK: And described as special.

MR. HOLZER: And described as special.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and further on, could you tell us what it says in regard to adequate, adequate roads and tracts of land sufficient to yield ade, adequate water without endangering wells? Does that specifically represent or suggest limitations?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. It suggests a balancing act with respect to the existing facilities and, in this case, the reference to water, potable water and wells.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: So, just because it said it should be located on major roadways such as Harford and Belair Road, it qualifies those two designation routes, does it not?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It certainly does, yes.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Look at the, look at what the community plan thinks about residential, or residences, versus these types of, of activities, or construction of new, new construction, or old construction. Does it say something?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. It, it refers, well, it says because of the more intensive usage of the land compared to dwellings, --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. JAKUBIAK: -- so it states the obvious that churches, community centers, etcetera, are far more intense on the landscape than houses.

MR. HOLZER: So that, doesn't that sort of fit with your testimony on a prior basis insofar as the, as the subject site and the need to comply with five, specific issues related to the site?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I, I think it provides the policy basis for the answers I gave about why this site, at its, at this location, has adverse offsite impacts.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. One last thing about that is that no one talked about, nor did I notice it at the time, but take a look at Appendix E, which is in the same document. It's at the rear. Can you, it's on page E-1. Did you find it?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: It says scenic vistas and significant structures. And I ask you, looking down the list of significant structures, do you find one that fits the subject property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, the, the first on the list is Bella Vista site.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Which is the, the site that's at issue in this case.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, in effect, the Kingsville community plan is calling that a significant structure for purposes of the Kingsville community plan.

MR. JAKUBIAK: At a significant vista, I'm sure it's in that list, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thanks. That's all I have for that document. I, I'm, I'm a little unclear as to where you are after the cross examination questions dealing with the RC_2 and the significance of agriculture, because you've testified that agriculture, you don't have any knowledge of whether it's still being conducted on the subject site or not, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Correct, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, can you explain to me why or why you commented on that, on the direct examination when you said, even though it's an agricultural RC-2 purpose, how does it affect this case, in your opinion?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Are you asking how the RC-2 designation affects this case?

MR. HOLZER: And how, and why you felt that even though it talked about agriculture, how the issue was broader than that when you testified on direct? If you understand my question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection, I mean, objection. I just don't understand the question. Maybe the witness does.

CHAIR: I'm, I'm not sure I'm following either and I want to make sure we get it right.

MR. HOLZER: In, in the, if I can try --

CHAIR: Yes, yes.

MR. HOLZER: In your direct examination, dealing with the RC-2 zone, you talked about the agricultural aspect of the RC-2 zone. But you also testified that agriculture was not being, it wasn't being used as a farm.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Right.

CHAIR: This property is not used as a farm, right.

MR. HOLZER: Right. So, how does that fact that it's not being used as a farm currently, impact your testimony about why it's not consistent with the RC-2 zone, as you testified under 502.1?

CHAIR: That the proposed use is not consistent with the five, with the RC-2 zone?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. JAKUBIAK: The RC-2 zone does seek to preserve land for agricultural use. But it's not intended entirely to preserve individual parcels in their use, rather the objective is to preserve an area in agricultural use. So, it's, it's not necessarily just the active farming operations, but it's the farming area and I think it's a relevant factor because when the farming area is fragmented by development activities, or any uses that potentially, you know, are incompatible, it works against the land preservation goals of the master plan.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So you're not limiting your testimony, your focus is simply on agriculture and the fact that there's no farming on the subject, subject property but it's beyond that, is that right?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, that's right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: That's right.

MR. HOLZER: And just, just two, one, two more questions.

CHAIR: Whatever time you need.

MR. HOLZER: In terms of the master plan, the RC zone, the historic district, all of those different documents, the Kingsville plan, all of those different documents that have been addressed either separately or combined, do all of those documents and, and master plans, do they form this, what you called quote, cultural analysis, and explain just briefly, because you've already, I think, addressed it in, in your direct, but just briefly so there's no misunderstanding after cross.

CHAIR: Well, if I can, split up your question. You asked a foundational question but then asked him to explain as if he already had, gave the answer to your foundational question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I would object. I think that's been asked and answered. He covered this on direct.

CHAIR: Well, I, let's hear it, him just split it up and then we can figure out if there's still an objection to it or not. But I mean, I, I didn't want the, the answer suggested already to get to, I understand where you were going with that.

MR. HOLZER: I (inaudible) --

CHAIR: I just want to make it clear for the record what's going on with that question.

MR. HOLZER: Take the master plan, the RC zone, the historic district, the Kingsville community plan, taking all of those documents separately, when you combine them all in terms of their purpose, you're familiar. Let me just stop there. When you combine all those as to their purpose, do you understand or draw part of your opinion from all of those documents?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. Asked and answered. Mr. Holzer is just testifying. He, he can argue this, he's testifying.

MR. HOLZER: I'm not testifying --

CHAIR: No, no, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Geez.

CHAIR: -- stop with the back and forth. I'm going to overrule the objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: You may answer the question.

MR. JAKUBIAK: The, the, all of these documents and policies form the, the, the framework, or the, they provide the, the basis for guiding a special exception decision, zoning decision, a development decision. They are, in total, the policy framework for considering development activities within an area. They work together, it's the, the zoning scheme, or the zoning planning scheme that we often talk about when we talk about planning and zoning. I only mention that, the historic site and historic building are obviously present and available. The historic district is adjoining the site and that is a national register district.

MR. HOLZER: Right. But, and, and so, based on your answer just now, when you used the word cultural analysis, does that define what you just testified to as the documents that support that approach?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, my description early, early in the testimony about the cultural landscape, and that's where I used the word cultural, was to, to describe the existing conditions. What I've, the items that you've listed and that I've reviewed, help define how that ought to be preserved and protected in light of development activities moving forward.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. JAKUBIAK: So, it, those policies are made in reaction to the existing conditions with an effort to protect and preserve.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thank you. That answers my question. You have acknowledged on cross examination that there are no new proposed buildings on the site, is that correct?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Is it true that future development is not precluded by the Board granting this special exception?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. That's a, that's a legal conclusion beyond this witness' scope of expertise.

CHAIR: Well, the objection you just said, I think is certainly well within his ability to at least given an opinion as to the effect of, if the special exception is granted, what would that mean for the property. He is an expert in land planning and zoning. That's, so I think that that question is proper but I think it'd be better, I think you would be better served asking it not for a yes or no answer, as much as a broader question for him to tell us what it means. So, I will sustain the object, or excuse me, overrule the objection but--

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Do you understand the question? Because if you don't, I'll just ask it another way.

MR. JAKUBIAK: I thought I did for a second, then focusing on Mr. Garber's analysis --

CHAIR: Then I start talking, yeah.

MR. JAKUBIAK: -- I lost my train of thought.

MR. HOLZER: The, the simple question I have is the only request now in the special exception request is no new buildings. In the future, could they, Petitioners come back and ask for a new, new gymnasium or a new building of some sort?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The way that I, in my practice, we handle those as an amendment to the special exception and the submittal of a development plan for review. So that it would go through a similar proceeding as we've had here for the past ten sessions.

CHAIR: Hold on. Those are two different things that I just heard. I don't know if you want to follow-up with him but or we need to do that?

MR. HOLZER: No, I, I, basically, I just, I just wanted him to establish that there could be development in the future, that's all.

CHAIR: What I heard was that there's a, that it would be treated as an amendment to a special exception and we go through the same process, development review, in that which we have here. This isn't a development review process necessarily, we're here on the special exception so that's why I'm, we're talking about two different things so, if you could (inaudible) --

MR. JAKUBIAK: I was just explaining in my, in my experience, how I would approach it. It would be an amendment to the special exception and it would require, in laymen's terms, a site plan review. It's different than the development review procedures established here in Baltimore County. But I'm saying, it would have required a review of the project, along with an amendment to the special exception, if this were an approved special exception.

CHAIR: And I think the question is, what is the review, I think that's what Mr. Holzer was getting at. That wasn't his direct question, but it's the implication of his question is what review are you talking about?

MR. JAKUBIAK: What review of --

CHAIR: You used the word review. I'm trying to understand review.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Oh, oh, someone would have to provide a technical analysis of the proposed development plan, the submittal, the, the, the site plan that showed the building or the additional parking or the grading that would be necessary or the change in figuration of the lot. Someone would have to provide a technical review of that and provide that information to the decision maker to evaluate. That's what I meant.

MR. HOLZER: He answered my question, thank you.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I have no further questions.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just two --

CHAIR: Do you need any follow-up on, based on that?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, just two, two short questions. Mr. Jakubiak, let me draw your attention, again, to page twenty-seven of the Kingsville plan. And you, you have it in front of you?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Let me know when you do.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay, I do.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You specifically referred, and I think in answer to one of Mr. Holzer's questions, referred to the paragraph under special develop, under the title saying special development, which is above the recommendation. And specifically, the third paragraph, I'm sorry, the third sentence in that paragraph. And that reads, and I quote, new construction of these forms of development should be directed to areas served by adequate roads and be located on tracts of land sufficient to yield adequate water without endangering the wells of neighborhood residents, correct? See that?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, I see that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is there any, is there any new construction proposed here?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Well, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Let me ask, let me ask you the question, Mr. Jakubiak.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is there any new construction proposed on this site under this proposal?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Rehabilitation of the existing site to make it usable, livable. So, the construction is inside, the site, the construction on the outside is limited to removing existing buildings and building parking.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay. It says what it says, all right. Thank you.

CHAIR: Any follow-up based on that?

MR. HOLZER: I was going to but I don't think I need to.

CHAIR: Okay. (inaudible) before he gets off the stand, I do have a question. You indicated prior, sorry, you have a question actually, so why don't you go first?

MS. DOPKIN: You talked about the RC-2 zone being an agri, agricultural preservation zone and protecting the landscape for agricultural uses.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: And I think you also testified that you know of no adjoining agricultural uses?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yeah, I, I, I, nothing comes to mind in terms of the, the property that adjoins the, whether it's in agricultural use.

MR. SCHMIDT: Ms. Dopkin, I think he actually said he doesn't know where the nearest farm is.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is what I asked him directly.

MR. HOLZER: But he also testified --

CHAIR: Hold on. I, I know, --

MS. DOPKIN: I was asking the question, please.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: But that's, --

CHAIR: Ms. Dopkin, you want to ask, I understand, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: But Ms., Ms. Dopkin will ask the questions, Mr. Schmidt. And then --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- based on her recollection and her notes.

MS. DOPKIN: And I believe on cross examination you said that the rural legacy program was also one of the implementation devices is the imposition of easements?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, that's right.

MS. DOPKIN: Is this property adjacent to any land subject to easements that the, that there would be any benefit in having continuous blocks, do you know?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I will say that I, I can't say specifically but I have seen the, the, the mapping that shows these deed restricted conservation areas in the vicinity. I don't know precisely --

MS. DOPKIN: But they don't adjoin the property?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It's something worth looking into but I can't help you with that.

MS. DOPKIN: You don't (inaudible), okay. You also said that you thought a larger paved area would be less detrimental than parking on the grass. Am I to, for these events, where there's overflow parking?

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, no, that's, that's, that's not what I said.

MS. DOPKIN: I think it's pretty much what you said. That it would require a larger paved area, I wrote it down. So, maybe I misheard you.

MR. JAKUBIAK: That, --

MS. DOPKIN: Are there other areas on the high elevation, the flat part of the site, where parking could be accommodated?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I believe parking could be accommodated within the, the traffic circle, in front of the, the building. If you can remember how the, the lane heads up and then --

MS. DOPKIN: I do.

MR. JAKUBIAK: -- there's a circle around it, yes, within that area. Outside of that, I, I, I've, I would believe that the, the opportunities are rather limited.

MS. DOPKIN: Well, if you look at your, the top, whatever it was, the topographical maps?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: It looks like there's a large flat sort of tabletop up there.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yeah, it, it looks like it's flat --

MS. DOPKIN: Unimproved.

MR. JAKUBIAK: That's right. But, but actually it, it slopes. So, over the length of it, you'll see that the --

MS. DOPKIN: Are you saying between the contour line there's actually --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes, it's a twenty foot distance.

MS. DOPKIN: But it looks like it's a lot of land between lines, is all I'm saying. It looks like there's a large expanse that's, if sloping, very gentle and all I was asking is if that would be an area that could be used suitably for overflow parking.

MR. JAKUBIAK: No, in fact, that's what the applicant is proposing to do and it probably could be used suitably for that purpose. But with the concerns that I raise about the, the disruption of the, the, the lawn and the overflow of water off the site.

MS. DOPKIN: As a land planner, what uses are typically accessory to church uses? I've seen lots of things approved as part of a religious facility --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Sure.

MS. DOPKIN: -- without much questioning.

MR. HOLZER: Objection. Is this related to the site itself or --

MS. DOPKIN: Well, he testified to accessory uses.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MS. DOPKIN: That, at religious facilities and he, he was limited to recreational uses.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MS. DOPKIN: And I was interested in knowing what other accessory uses he would consider typical and you're objecting to my question?

MR. HOLZER: No, I'm asking that it, Ms. Dopkin, I never object to you.

MS. DOPKIN: Uh huh.

MR. HOLZER: What I'm asking, --

MS. DOPKIN: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- for you is to quantify, if you're talking about the subject site or if you're talking about churches in general all over the RC-2 zone. That's, that's all.

MS. DOPKIN: Well, I'll take your second choice. Churches all over the RC-2 zone.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Well, that, that makes me feel better.

MS. DOPKIN: Just generally accessory to church uses in the RC-2 zone?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Religious education. You can imagine that an accessory use within an existing building so you have an accessory use without an accessory structure. But the basement is being used for religious education. You can imagine a, a, a fellowship hall on a site, where meals are provided and, and the community gathers to discuss their ministry. There are food banks and other aspects of churches where the practice of religion can be advanced. So, there's a, three that come to mind right away. Certainly, there are others as well.

MS. DOPKIN: In discussing the 502.1 criteria, you said that the intrusion of intense development was inconsistent with the spirit and intent of the zoning --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: -- of that classification.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: And I'm having a problem with your use of the word development, which you used a lot in your discussion of the master plan and some of its goals. So, I guess, as a planner, is there a definition of development that you're relying on that's in the Baltimore County code or regulations?

MR. JAKUBIAK: The definition I'm relying on is one that I'm familiar with in my practice as a planner.

MS. DOPKIN: Well, --

MR. JAKUBIAK: Which is the conversion of land, for the improvement of land typically resulting in more intense use.

MS. DOPKIN: And do you know if that comports with whatever definition there is in the Baltimore County Code?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I don't think it differs in any meaningful way. I, but I just can't recall the specific definition if, in fact, there is one.

MS. DOPKIN: I asked you about easements. You said the original purchase back in, whatever was over three hundred acres. Do you know what the current use of any of the three hundred and thirty acres that have been divided off are? Have they gone to farms, housing, institutions? Do you know?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I, I'd, I'd only be speculating. I, no.

MS. DOPKIN: And you mentioned schools, community halls, whatever, are any of those facilities, to your knowledge, in existence at either of the nearby religious facilities?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yes. So, there's a, when I was mentioning religious education, I was actually referring to simply religious education, rather than a parochial school, which is, of course, more than religious education. But yes, there is a school at the Redeemer Church.

MS. DOPKIN: I think those are all my questions. Thank you.

CHAIR: Do you have any follow-up, Mr. Holder, based on that?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes. I just want to ask, in terms of Redeemer Church that he just use, utilized, I believe that's in an RC-5 zone, is it not?

MR. JAKUBIAK: It is.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, it's a different zone.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: You're welcome. Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, any follow-up?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: Mr. McComas has follow-up.

MR. MCCOMAS: Just one question. As a land planner, what tools would you have available if somebody says hey, I want to reduce the noise coming off of my (inaudible)?

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yeah. Good question. There are a couple. Ideally, the, the buffer or any type of tool that's being used is positioned as close as possible to the source of the noise. And between the source of the noise and the impacted properties. So, examples are berms, walls or distance, substantial distance. And it all depends on, of course, the extent of the, the anticipated noise impact.

MS. DOPKIN: That raises one more question. I'm sorry.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Sure.

MS. DOPKIN: Talking about noise, and this is just sort of trying to reconcile my experience with your testimony, my experience is the noise travels up and out, such as in a concert hall and amphitheater, a stadium, an arena, not up and down. How do you reconcile your testimony that the noise will travel that way and not that way to be more intrusive?

MR. JAKUBIAK: I understand that noise travels in all directions from the source. In most, the way that we experience noise, just me projecting my voice to you, it's being compelled this way. Even though the noise is going behind me too, but my head is blocking it. So, someone can hear it behind me but not as loud. Noise can travel around a corner as well. Just like the flow of water or most waves. So, noise would, would not travel over a ground based receiver.

The wave will, fills up the space that's allocated to it. And that doesn't make sense, I guess, but the, it travels in all directions and if it, if it goes over something, the wave drops down and, and you'll hear it from the source. It's, it's, it doesn't drive, or it doesn't continue in a linear fashion, it fills up the space allocated. If you could imagine noise --

MS. DOPKIN: Oh, I can imagine.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Yeah.

MS. DOPKIN: I remember my high school physics so, thank you.

MR. JAKUBIAK: Okay, okay.

CHAIR: Are you done?

MS. DOPKIN: Yes, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Any follow-up, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: No, I appreciate that.

CHAIR: Mr., Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: No.

CHAIR: Okay. I have one housekeeping matter to, before this gentleman leaves the stand. Before break, you indicated, you put on the record an objection that you were not able to get into certain testimony with Mr. Jakubiak.

MR. HOLZER: I don't --

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: I don't either.

CHAIR: Okay. Well, maybe I was hearing things or I don't know.

MR. HOLZER: I apolo, I apologize but I don't really recall. I mean, this has been such a long --

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- time frame, I, I really just don't remember.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: The fact that I'm getting older.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I don't recall it either.

CHAIR: Okay. Again, --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: -- maybe I'm wrong. Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, with that in mind, I guess there's nothing further.

MR. HOLZER: Can Mr. Jakubiak be excused?

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Jakubiak.

MR. JAKUBIAK: You're welcome. Thank you.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: All right, thank you.

CHAIR: All right. So, now that we're done Mr. Jakubiak, what, well, I guess we'll address a road map as to what we're doing for the rest of today and then what will happen, what's that? Yes, and then, I'm putting this on the record. And then what we'll do with, maybe on the 13th to the extent whatever is necessary. So, Mr. Holzer, the floor is yours.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. I'm not so sure I really want to take it but I must.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. HOLZER: I have one witness here that will be very brief. And you will recall that the Kingsville Community Association document, and I don't remember which one it was here, --

CHAIR: Number forty-eight or thereabouts?

VOICE: It is forty-eight, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Forty-eight. Was not permitted because questions were asked by Mr. Schmidt, and I have Ila Christianberry (phonetic) here as a witness. She has also produced affidavits to try to cover as many questions as he has as possible. And she must leave in a few minutes, so.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: If, if we can, if you show me the affidavit, maybe we --

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- can stipulate to it.

MR. HOLZER: Why don't I just show it to the Board at the same --

CHAIR: I would agree. Show it to Mr. Schmidt, show it to the Board and perhaps we can have this witness go on her merry way without the need of taking the stand and --

MR. SCHMIDT: As I recall, and I'm trying to remember, I, I think the affidavit that was sub, or the exhibit that was previously submitted, did not have a --

CHAIR: A map or, there was that aspect. Mr. Clark provided some testimony.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- discussion of some of the rule eight things.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: If this covers it, then --

MR. HOLZER: See, see if it does.

CHAIR: So, even, I, I recall it as the number of, of, sorry?

MS. DOPKIN: Members?

CHAIR: Right, well, number of members and then the map issue. I believe that Mr. Clark, Dr. Clark, testified to some of those boundaries for that, to resolve that part as to the map, or boundaries, and then as to the number of members, I don't, I, I seem to recall there was an additional question or two.

MR. HOLZER: Something like that, and I think it might all be in here, if you take a look at, at it and let me know.

CHAIR: So, we will mark this --

MR. HOLZER: Protestant's 108?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

CHAIR: So, I have an original here.

MR. MCCOMAS: So do I.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I gave you two.

CHAIR: There are multiple originals, okay.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. This, this, Mr. Garber, this, this looks appropriate to me upon quick inspection, so.

CHAIR: I will note that apparently Ms. Cristenberry (phonetic) is also present here in Court.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: And she's waving to me hello. Thank you for coming. So, therefore, do we have a stipulation as to the admission, then, of forty-eight and now 108?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, I think it's, yes, yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay, very well. It will be received as a stipulation, both Exhibits 48 and 108 are hereby admitted. Now, Mr. Holzer, if you need Ms. Cristenberry for anything else?

MR. HOLZER: No, no, I believe, --

CHAIR: I leave it to you then to excuse her if you believe that's necessary or appropriate.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. She, she had a doctor's appointment earlier, I couldn't put her on then but you may be excused, ma'am.

VOICE: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: You're welcome.

CHAIR: Thank you very much for attending.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Holzer, did you have that other thing that you talked to me about during the break?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did you, did you want to approach or go off the record or?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes, I'd like to approach the bench, if I could. Just, let me find it.

CHAIR: What, okay, so, how about this? Because it sounded like you were saying something about a break. Why don't we just then take a break. If counsel then wants to address the Board, I'm assuming this is something that's not supposed to be on the record --

MR. HOLZER: I've already talked to, yeah, and I'd prefer it not be on the record.

CHAIR: Okay. So, with that, we'll just take a brief break of five minutes.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 02:31:46 PM)

(ON RECORD – 02:40:12 PM)

CHAIR: -- counsel are ready, then I'm ready. And if you guys are ready, of course.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah.

MS. DOPKIN: We're recording.

CHAIR: And we're back on the record. So, again, please check your cell phones. So, now that we've heard from, I'm sorry, if I say her name wrong, Ms. Cristenberry, with respect to her affidavit and the stipulations, where does that leave us?

MR. HOLZER: We have a number of documents that I, you already have at the Board, were delivered yesterday. And Mr. Schmidt also was sent them. The one thing is the new disc, which was referred to in the testimony on January 29th. And Mr. Schmidt already had received this so he could listen to it and I'd like to offer that as the next exhibit.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. McComas?

MR. MCCOMAS: Didn't we already identify that disc?

MR. HOLZER: We may have, we may --

CHAIR: There was a disc that was handed up last week.

MR. MCCOMAS: I think it's seventy-three. I think I have a placeholder for it. Let me just go double check.

MS. DOPKIN: Yep.

MR. MCCOMAS: Or I may already have it.

MR. HOLZER: I don't think you have it.

CHAIR: Was it moved into evidence though? I guess that would be the next question.

MR. MCCOMAS: Here, here's seventy-three and I have it admitted as evidence. And it says here new, --

MR. HOLZER: New disc?

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible) take another one.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I thought, I thought it was in, but I, --

CHAIR: Well, it, it would seem to me since there is a question, and I'm going on your representation here that --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- this is the exact same stuff that we reviewed in Court last week.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Is embodied on one disc.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Then just to make sure that we're not accidentally omitting evidence that should be in, why don't we admit this as another exhibit just to be on the safe side, though recognizing it may be the exact same as seventy-three.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: If there are matters on this disc that are not supposed to be there, and not supposed to be in evidence, I'm sure Mr. Schmidt will bring it to our attention the next time we are here.

MR. HOLZER: Well, and it was, as I say, he had gotten a copy of it but I just didn't know whether it was admitted as the new disc.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: So, I'll put it in.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: You guys have a copy of, of seventy-three?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I did get a copy last time, or whenever that was. Yes, sir.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, if you, somebody does a comparison of the two discs, that would be a solution.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: I can --

MR. MCCOMAS: So, this is Exhibit 109.

MR. HOLZER: Mr., one of my, one of my clients says it's exactly the same.

CHAIR: So, as seventy-three?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: All right. Well, since we've already put that on the record, I'm not going to change it because that's only going to lead to a change in other exhibits to follow and, on the list and we already have enough things to get through with the evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Right. Now, the next thing is --

CHAIR: We're going to, so that's admitted, even though it's understood now to be a, basically, the exact same.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right. You recall during the presentation of the case, that there were certain documents, letters, from the County, etcetera, that were not going to be admitted but for purposes of exhausting administrative remedies, you suggested that I put a packet together and that packet, I have here. I've also delivered to the Board. We probably should mark that as a proffer exhibit, the next exhibit.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, I know that you would probably only receive this yesterday, because we received it yesterday.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes, he did.

CHAIR: Have you had the opportunity to review those documents?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I have not. I mean, if you want to mark it as proffer exhibit, which as I understand, the way you're using the --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- term, would mean that it's part, it's within the record of the case for appellate purposes, but it is not evidence that the Board is going to consider.

CHAIR: It is not substantive evidence for the Board's consideration.

MR. SCHMIDT: I don't have an objection to doing that and I'll take a look at it.

MR. MCCOMAS: We'll call it i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: I.d. only.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, one ten --

MR. SCHMIDT: I think he's using the term proffer and identification only --

MR. MCCOMAS: Right, I was just using that because that's what (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: That's what I use. I, I'm with you, Mr. McComas.

MR. MCCOMAS: One ten i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: One ten i.d.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Fine, that takes care of that.

MR. MCCOMAS: Can, can you give us, can you give me, is that a copy of the complete set? I have one here but I printed it out, just want to make sure I got (inaudible) --

MR. HOLZER: Well, actually I've got two that I can share with the Board.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Holzer, that's what I got by e-mail yesterday, right?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Exactly.

MR. SCHMIDT: Same thing?

MR. HOLZER: Same thing.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And so, that's one ten.

MR. MCCOMAS: One ten.

MR. HOLZER: Let's see. One, two, we already took care of the ALJ transcript, right?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's in.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, that's --

MR. SCHMIDT: And I have a copy.

MR. HOLZER: We already have put in the proposed conditions, which you, the Board, requested.

CHAIR: I'm sorry?

MR. MCCOMAS: I think (inaudible), I mean, I don't think we have it in. Do we, we don't have it in?

MS. DOPKIN: That's not in the record.

CHAIR: Hold on. I'm sorry, what are we talking about? I, I missed it.

MR. HOLZER: We're talking about I forwarded, you'll recall Mr. Clark testified about conditions that he wanted.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And then we, I put together a list of the proposals that you --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- at your request.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And we submitted that to the Board a couple days ago.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: So, that perhaps should be marked as an exhibit. It wasn't at that time.

CHAIR: Mr., well, I think the, the purpose was just to accurately record --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- what Dr. Clark requested so that there's not a confusion as to what was being requested.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Because there were --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- numerous ones and then trying to write down exactly what he was requesting leads to transcription errors.

MR. HOLZER: Correct. And I also forwarded those to Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I mean, I got that two days ago, Mr. Garber. I'll leave that up to you. I mean, it's not really evidence, it was, it would be something that I would typically say would come in attached to a memorandum as argument. If you want to mark it as an exhibit just that it is what it is.

CHAIR: Well, there was testimony.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, but what I'm saying is it's, it's a list of the desired conditions, is not really evid, I don't, in my --

CHAIR: I understand what you're saying.

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, it's, it's not evidence of anything other than conditions that they want, I guess. But I don't have an objection to putting it in. I mean, my intention was I was probably going to respond to that in my memorandum.

CHAIR: That's --

MR. SCHMIDT: Which is where I think it would normally come, but if you want to put it in, put it in.

CHAIR: I would, I would say that yes, I will call it evidence to the extent that it was testimony --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: -- therefore, otherwise it wouldn't be in, I asked it be reduced to writing so that's why it's being presented in this form. Mr. Holzer has asked to use that as an exhibit.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Since there was already a matter of cross examination and everything I feel that there's not, it's not inappropriate so therefore, we will receive it as an, as an exhibit, I guess, that's one eleven.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'll, I'll address those conditions, obviously, in my memorandum.

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: You may or may not agree with (inaudible).

MR. MCCOMAS: Do you have an original there?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I have to check.

CHAIR: And yes, Mr. Schmidt, please do so.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I mean, that, that to, to me, I think, would be the appropriate place to address it.

CHAIR: Ordinarily, I would say yes. But again, given the specific requests I had last week, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: -- I can understand why the --

MR. SCHMIDT: Since you, since you re, since you, as the Chair, requested it, that's fine.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: Do you want it with the e-mail or without it (inaudible)?

MR. HOLZER: I'll just give you a list.

CHAIR: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: That makes sense. Other than going through this chart and figuring out which are, ones are in or which ones are not in, there were two Motions that I forwarded to the Board.

CHAIR: Yes, we're going to get to those now.

MR. HOLZER: One, okay. Would you rather get to those --

CHAIR: I'd rather go, start with them before we get to the other --

MR. HOLZER: I agree.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: I agree.

CHAIR: And so, I'm going to start with thirty, the one concerning thirty-four.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: And that --

CHAIR: When you're ready with that. You have yours (inaudible)?

MS. DOPKIN: I have, I'm okay.

CHAIR: Okay. So, we have the Motion to Strike Petitioner's Exhibit 34 as ex parte, we have Petitioner's Response to the Motion to Strike and we have Protestant's Reply to the Response.

MR. HOLZER: That's right.

CHAIR: Everyone on the same page?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: All right. So, I'll start with this. All right. Number one, I, to suggest that this is an odd duck would be an understatement. However, not so odd that I haven't seen it before. This is actually in another case recently, within the last six to nine months, I've seen something very similar to this executed in more or less the same manner. And I, I'm alerting you to that because I'm going to be consistent with, I believe, what I said, my comments in that matter here.

I would find that the July 2nd letter, but more particularly, the July 3rd signed portion by ALJ Beverungen to actually have zero effect. And what I mean by that is, it seems to me that it's modifying the earlier Order and it was done with a lack of public hearing, public notice, notice to counsel, all those things. So, to me it would be a complete non-event, as it never happened and it should not have been used for any reason.

I don't know what, what, if any, reason it may have been used for in connection with this property and I don't believe we even need to go down that road. When received into evidence into this case, I, frankly, had the same thoughts. That it would have no impact here whatsoever.

As to whether or not this needs to be considered as an ex parte communication for purposes of how we address this Motion, I don't believe we need to go down that road at all because, again, I believe that this has no effect in any substantive manner whatsoever. I understood the use of it was for rebuttal in conjunction with testimony regarding, I know this has been talked about as the code enforcement issues that have been the undercurrent to much of this case. Having said my piece on that, it was received in evidence solely to be rebuttal for whether or not to see if any of my colleagues up here had any ideas as to how they wanted to use that letter and response from Judge Beverungen.

So, I've given my piece. I, I believe this to be consistent with what I commented on earlier in another case.

MR. SCHMIDT: Which case is that, Mr. Garber?

CHAIR: I don't recall specifically off the top of my head. I could say I have, I have an idea as to which one it may be, but you know, I'm not positive as to which one. But I have seen it before, Mr. Kotroco was involved, so I'll leave it there. So, with that in mind, Ms. Dopkin, do you have any thoughts as to what to do about the July 2nd, July 3rd letter and its impact, if any, in this matter?

MS. DOPKIN: Well, I would agree with you --

MR. SCHMIDT: So, Mr. Garber, before you get to Ms. Dopkin, I just, I'm, I'm, I apologize but, just to understand what you're saying. Are you saying you're going to strike it or not strike it?

CHAIR: I'm waiting to hear from my colleagues at this point.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, I'm sorry, okay. Thank you.

CHAIR: Because I had an idea when I received it, I'm like wait a minute, I've seen this sometimes before, I don't feel comfortable with what occurred, how this came to be. Not saying anything was done with any type of, you know, anything was done necessarily to be underhanded or whatever the case may be, I don't want to give that implication. I'm going to say that to me, it just had no effect.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: I would agree with you that it has no effect. To that extent, I don't think it matters whether it's in or not.

CHAIR: Mr. McComas?

MR. MCCOMAS: I have not seen this before and, and I, I, (inaudible) had any effect on me and for me, I, I would let it come in, in this matter.

CHAIR: So, with that in mind, I'm going to leave the ruling as is, that it'll be in for rebuttal but you have an understanding as to where we stand as to its impact in this case. Because it's already been accepted and I realize at the time that you did it, you indicated that you had a Motion coming along the way. Because I went over the testimony before today. With that in mind I think you understand as to what it means to this case in particular, because I don't know what other relief there can be other than to say sitting here in the moment this is no effect. So, in terms of where this property is today, the July 3rd, 2018 clarification, modification, whatever it is, has no bearing on this property whatsoever and no one should be using it for any reason for the, for the property.

MR. HOLZER: Members of the Board, I take exception to that ruling for the simple reason that it shows, it was a document that was not only ex parte, forget that for a moment. It was, according to the response, and according to the facts, it was a document that was created when Administrative Law Judge had no jurisdiction to even --

CHAIR: Absolutely agree with what you just said.

MR. HOLZER: Right. And so, therefore, it should be stricken from the record. If it is not stricken from the record, it is still there. I would also say that this document was read but not introduced on the first day of the hearing and it was read to oppose the granting of a Motion for Postponement until the subject matter of that first Motion was addressed. And that's how it was used. And it was also used in regard to the case in chief of the Petitioners when they relied upon the, the narrowing by the Administrative Law Judge to the point where it, it, where he said it could only be used as a, as a church, or it could not be used as a church until this, the Board or the case decided. And yet, it was used. So it did have an effect on this Board at the time it was utilized.

CHAIR: Other, I mean, I'm glad you brought that to my attention. I did not put two and two together with the beginning of the case in terms of the postponement.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, leaving that part aside with it, you know, I don't know what else happened as a result of that letter. I don't believe it's necessary for this Board, for purposes of the special exception hearing. Now, as to that particular point on the postponement aspect of it, probably need to at least take another look to see about that. So, before I, before there's an official ruling, I will go back and I will review that part. I'm anticipating it'll be done today before we, before we adjourn today.

MR. HOLZER: I would also say that on the basis of the Petitioners own memo in this matter, that, and on the facts, that that letter, Exhibit 34, was issued after the Administrative Law Judge did not have jurisdiction. The appeal was already filed.

CHAIR: I would agree, and --

MR. HOLZER: And, and so the --

CHAIR: -- just for the record, I agree with you--

MR. HOLZER: -- so then to have --

CHAIR: -- on that, a hundred percent.

MR. HOLZER: -- that document, and that opinion, of the ALJ in the record when it goes beyond this Board I think is prejudicial that it's there.

CHAIR: Well, I, we can't, as you know by now, unfortunately, that we can't just remove it from the record. It's either in for i.d. or it's in, it's in evidence as it was received for rebuttal use. Now, we've given, this Board has told you what it considers in terms of its substantive effect.

MR. HOLZER: I understand that, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: But if it's, if it's in the record, then have it marked as i.d.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: At least.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Not that I want it, that I want to totally delete it. I do want it totally deleted, but if you're not going to do that, then at least it should not be a substantive document that you consider.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Sorry, bless you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: And Mr. Schmidt, whenever you're ready to respond to Mr. Holzer on that.

MR. SCHMIDT: I respectfully submit this is much ado about nothing in view of what you've said, Mr. Garber. But it has been admitted, I think it should be admitted. I would agree with Mr. McComas. It, I mean, it, it was, I think the context of why it was offered was, at least my recollection is, that at, at the time there was a lot of back and forth between the parties about the code enforcement proceeding and whether my client had acted properly and so on and so forth. And I took the position that that was irrelevant but the Board allowed some of the testimony in. And I, I understand the Board's ruling.

And because I found myself in a position of having to respond to the evidence that the Board had accepted, I felt like it was appropriate rebuttal evidence. And so, I offered it for that purpose, not for the truth of the matter asserted to the extent, it's not hearsay, but I didn't offer it, I don't think, sub, substantively, substantively as a, for a prime facie proof or, I don't know how else to say it. But it was done because of the context of the, of the testimony that Protestants were putting in at that time.

So, I think it's a property exhibit but you've said you're going to give it the weight, essentially, you're going to give it the weight that you think it deserves and I'm hearing you say we're not going to give it very much weight. So, I, I'm okay with that and I'll argue whatever it means or doesn't mean, but I know where you're coming from.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think it should be in the record.

CHAIR: Okay. I, I, and again, understanding, I agree with you what the representation was, or at least your recollection as to the record, but that's, in fact, what it shows.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: That that's how it was introduced. Now, as to the original point though, as it was used like for the sake of argument day one for the postponement, I do think I need to go back and take a look at that.

MR. HOLZER: You, you should also --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, Mr. Garber, why don't you do that and, I'm sorry, Mr. Holzer. I mean, why don't you do that? I think we're going to come back here for one more day next week and, I mean, why don't you take a look at the record on the first day and make your decision based on that.

CHAIR: Well, I am, --

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'm fine with that.

CHAIR: -- I'm giving the benefit of the doubt --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: -- because that is not something that was brought to our attention before.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: And perhaps has some other impact so we should take another look.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, yes.

MR. HOLZER: It was also used by Mr. Kotroco and Baltimore County to permit the July --

CHAIR: I, I understand there could have been other uses for it outside of this hearing. We can't do anything about it. Whether its effects, or how it was used, if it was used, or anything else, --

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: -- they're not part of this case. We indicated what we think about it and our position as to how this came about and everything else under the sun. I take it that you guys have your own ideas as to what that would ultimately mean.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah. Yeah, I'm, I'm personally offended by what took place.

CHAIR: You, you've, you've heard our comments.

MR. HOLZER: Now, you haven't heard the situation that the Board is in. I took an appropriate appeal within thirty days of that letter to this Board.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: As a separate case from, from this case. So, I don't know how the Board plans to deal with that and you may want to consider that at the time you're considering this because nothing has been acknowledged by the Board in terms of whether it was given the same number as this or a new number, new Board number.

CHAIR: I will follow up in the back on that point. I understood the last time we were here there was some request, perhaps, to consolidate the two matters?

MR. HOLZER: I was going to file a Motion to Consolidate and I did not because under the circumstances, I didn't know how this Board was going to handle just the document itself and my Motion to Strike the exhibit. So, I'm open to suggestions as to how to deal with that. But I'm, I'm going to be using that no matter how the Board postures it. I, I am offended by what happened.

CHAIR: Well, again, I, we're not making any specific finding as to intent, as, as much as there is, again, it should not have happened, in terms of having any effect.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Because and for the reasons already stated, there is no jurisdiction, no public hearing, no public notice, no notice to counsel, etcetera. And it has the effect of what appears to be modifying the earlier Order.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Even if whatever the intent was in terms of it, the effect of it is it would modify, it would seem to me it would modify the Order.

MR. HOLZER: I, I agree, I agree with the Board.

CHAIR: So, with that in mind, we will reserve again on thirty-four, to go back to take a look at day one of the request, but also as to the impact as to the second related appeal.

MR. HOLZER: I appreciate that, members of the Board. I, I do. I --

CHAIR: Just so you know, when you write Motion to Strike, I literally had interpreted as you wanted it out of the record. It can't possibly be out of the record in its entirety. It's either in for i.d. or it's admitted into evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right.

CHAIR: But as Mr. Schmidt has pointed out, we've already indicated where each of us now, well, I guess we deliberated on that.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: That we now know where each of us stand as to its substantive effect in this case.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thank you. The, the last Motion that I have to deal with was the Motion to Reconsider the Board's decision and re-admit Protestant's Exhibit 22 and 23, which were the police report. And I'll make it very brief. And the document, the SDAT document, I believe, my clients believe, establishes the relationship between Ghimire Homes and also Mr. Ghimire, as President, and it was signed under oath and it lists the number of pages in the, in the document set forth, I think, the connection between what you saw in the, in the police report, what you saw in the subsequent pictures that we produced last time and then this new document. Having said that, I would move to --

CHAIR: I would, okay, thank you. I will note Mr. Schmidt has not had the opportunity to respond. Having said that, I believe we can certainly dispose with at least part of this. I'm going to have to ask my colleagues where they stand on the issue. But we've already ruled twice on Exhibits 22 and 23. And I want to make sure it's clear, because I don't, I'm getting a sense here that it was not made clear the last time we were here on this Motion.

There was a question as to why the police reports were being directed to Mr. Ghimire. I went through the testimony over the weekend to figure out the entire course of events as to what went on then and, and everything else under the sun.

So, there was the open question as to why is this being directed to Mr. Ghimire? There were a series of questions directed to Mr. Ghimire about his potential relationship or the organization, Petitioner that is, relationship to whatever events are in the police report.

The resolution of that question is not dispositive of whether or not it's admissible. The police reports themselves can only ever be used for a purpose that, from what I see, can only ever be used for a purpose that is not appropriate. And particularly, it can only ever be construed as there's something that happened offsite, we can expect that to happen onsite because some of the people who have attended these hearings, were also in attendance or had some role in relation to that event where there was some offsite problem.

I don't think that can be used in this case in any way, shape or form to speak to what these Petitioners, what Petitioner would do, what the individuals here will do. All we know is that there was a, an altercation between a couple of individuals who are not present in Court who, to, I guess, from your own Motion and the Motion for Reconsideration, there's no indication even that they're affiliated with Petitioner, the people who were involved in that altercation. Whether or not they were involved with the event, but the people involved in the altercation and I'm not going to use that altercation to come to some type of conclusion where, even if it's an inference, but ultimately, at a conclusion that there's going to be ultimate, there will be additional problems on site because of that event and the, whatever happened at the restaurant afterwards.

So, it would not be admissible for those reasons. If you have another purpose that you want to use any of the information that's in your Motion for Reconsideration, I'm willing to listen to what you have to say about it. But as to the police reports themselves, I, there is no way in my mind this will ever be admissible because it could only ever be used for an inappropriate purpose. Ms. Dopkin, your thoughts?

MS. DOPKIN: I would not disturb our earlier ruling.

MR. MCCOMAS: I, I agree with what (inaudible).

CHAIR: All right. So, Mr. Holzer, I will give you another opportunity to say anything else you want to say on the record as to the Motion to Reconsider and those police reports. There's no other purpose you want to use any of the information that's attached?

MR. HOLZER: No, no. Members of the Board, police reports, having say what they say, and the people involved are involved so I have nothing else to say. I understand your ruling, so, let's, can we move on?

CHAIR: We can. I assume, Mr. Schmidt, you would now, not have a need to file a written response.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right. So, the Motion to Reconsider then is denied.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, twenty-two and twenty-three remain as i.d. only?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: That's correct.

CHAIR: Yes. So, where does that leave us? We're back to the exhibit list?

MR. HOLZER: Leads us back to this. If we can, I think I've got everything else done.

CHAIR: Okay and just for purposes of (inaudible), are you done with your case now that we've had the last witness that we resolved these Motions? Was there anything else further that you needed to do other than this list?

MR. HOLZER: Other than this list, no.

CHAIR: Okay. Now, Mr. Schmidt, I intend, I, I expect that you're going to have some type of rebuttal or, or some other evidence that's coming forward?

MR. SCHMIDT: Probably.

CHAIR: Okay. Without trying to reveal too much, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Most, most likely. Let me say this, Mr. Garber, just by way of suggestion. Since I got Mr. Holzer's list of exhibits that are questionable today, if, what I would suggest, I think we resolved the third page with the transcript and the ones in proffer, we've resolved forty-eight, which was the Kingsville thing. I'd be happy to take a look at that further and I'll deal, I'll call or e-mail Mr. Holzer and if we can resolve some of those, we can certainly try to do that between now and next week when we come back.

CHAIR: Well, I, I understood from Mr. Holzer that we're ready to some degree to get a lot of those resolved today. Is it, was I, did I misread that situation?

MR. HOLZER: No, you, you were, that's what you wanted to do. I have no problem if Mr. Schmidt --

CHAIR: And you're, you're ready --

MR. HOLZER: -- wants to sit down or take a look at it and just tell me which ones we have to resolve now. I mean, I can, I can do it now but it's up to you.

CHAIR: I'm asking for purposes of, how long do you think you may be? I understand it's, I'm asking --

MR. SCHMIDT: No, --

CHAIR: -- just for an estimate on that.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- let me ask, let me say, here's what my preference would be. We've resolved some of the exhibits, the other ones I haven't looked at because I just got his list, I, I got his summary table this morning. I would be more than happy to take a look at them, call Mr. Holzer between now and next week and see which ones we can resolve. If there are any that are unresolved, we can take that up at the first order of business and get it resolved next week. I think we can probably, possibly get, we got some resolved today. Maybe we can get the rest of them resolved, but I'd like to take the time to look at it instead of trying to argue about it.

I would anticipate that my rebuttal, my rebuttal evidence will be fairly short. I am absolutely, totally confident that we will finish this hearing next week. As a matter of fact, I believe we'll finish it before lunch time.

CHAIR: Well, that all depends on how we resolve all the exhibits, because it still may need additional work on Mr. Holzer's part and I would like for him to know that as much as possible going into that day, as opposed to reacting that day so I'm going to say for the next, why don't we take twenty minutes, if you could start narrowing it down. I, if you could come to a full resolution today, that'd be great. And if you can't, let's see where we stand at the end of that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: I realize, if you want to, I'm not going to force you to come to agreements on things. At the same time, you do need to review it, you do need to see where there is agreement so we have less things to do for the 13th. Because I don't want to run a risk that we need another day when I already know, based on other people's schedules, that it is going to be impossible to schedule a day in March.

MR. SCHMIDT: I can assure you that we will be done next week. I don't know how to say it any other --

CHAIR: No, I --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- any plainly, any more plainly.

CHAIR: -- I, I hear you, I hear you, Mr. Schmidt, but I'm also, we have to be sensitive to what Mr. Holzer's needs are with respect to the evidence and that's still an uncertainty.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Chairman, I, I wish we would have done this for yours, but see all these yellow markers? They indicate to fix i.d. These, and Larry if you can see it, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: -- these mean that we either have to have an affidavit to resolve the, the exhibit to get it in and so forth. So, on page one, very few, on page two and then I marked all the ones that are a proffer in orange and I think we've covered the last page.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: So, other than basically these yellow things there, they're the ones that we might need an affidavit to come in or something like that.

CHAIR: They're, from what I recall, from my review, that there were certain photographs, whether they be the aerial drone photographs, whether they be photographs of driving up and down Harford Road.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Whatever the case may be, it seems like some of those things can be resolved. You may not need an affidavit because they show what they show.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: And, --

MR. HOLZER: I've just given the form to Mr. Schmidt and he can take a look at it now. If the Board wants to take a break --

CHAIR: We're taking a, well, that's where I'm going with it. That, that it seems to me that we may be able to narrow this down --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- more so, so there's less to resolve the next time.

MR. HOLZER: I agree. I don't have any problem with that.

CHAIR: So, why don't we take a twenty minute break with that in mind and see where that leaves us?

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And then, we will go back and take care of some other things.

MR. MCCOMAS: Mr. Holzer, just keep in mind number seventeen is actually on my record here as already being in, I think you have it as i.d. only.

CHAIR: Seventeen, from what I recall, was moved into evidence on January 30th.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I have it marked.

MR. MCCOMAS: You do?

MR. HOLZER: You told us that earlier, so I have that marked.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: And Mr. Schmidt has my stuff.

MR. MCCOMAS: And the same with the transcript.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 03:13:37 PM)

(ON RECORD – 03:35:22 PM)

MS. DOPKIN: Are we ready?

CHAIR: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, I've had an, an opportunity and I've gotten some documents from Mr. Holzer and his clients. And in view of the documentation which completed some exhibits and authenticated some exhibits, I think where we are is as follows. And Mr., we are okay with the admission of Exhibits 4, 10, 14, 19 and 21. So, that's four, ten, fourteen, nineteen and twenty-one. Exhibits 22 and 23 continue to be --

MR. MCCOMAS: You said fourteen, right?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. MCCOMAS: And nineteen and twenty-one?

MR. SCHMIDT: Four, ten, fourteen, nineteen and twenty-one.

MR. MCCOMAS: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Do you have those exhibits?

CHAIR: I mean, when you ask do we have them --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: -- do you mean does Mr. McComas have them?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: They're in here.

CHAIR: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, because I (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Exhibits, Exhibits, --

CHAIR: I was going to say I hope we have them here.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, Exhibits 22 and 23 remain for identification only, okay? Then going over to the second page of Mr. Holzer's list that he gave us this morning. He, he gave us several affidavits which authenticate a number of these photographs, etcetera, which I have and I think he's going to give to you, but. With, with the submission of that, we're okay with forty-five, forty-eight is already in because that's been cured by the affidavit --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- from the lady from Kingsville who was here today and fifty. So, forty-five and fifty are okay. Forty-eight was previously designated as okay. Forty, --

CHAIR: So, go ahead.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- forty-seven and then, which is a proffer exhibit, as well as sixty-six, sixty-seven, sixty-eight, sixty-nine --

MR. MCCOMAS: Wait a minute, Mr. Schmidt. So, is forty-seven i.d. only?

MR. SCHMIDT: Forty-seven is i.d. only.

MR. MCCOMAS: And 46-B and C is i.d. only?

CHAIR: Hold on, sorry. Forty-seven is i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: 46-B and C, i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is i.d. only, right.

MR. MCCOMAS: All right, go ahead.

MR. SCHMIDT: Forty-eight is already in.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Fifty is okay.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: And then all the ones on the last page, which are indicated by proffer, I can read those to you if you want.

CHAIR: Sixty-six through sixty-nine, seventy-one, seventy-two.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: Right?

MR. SCHMIDT: Seventy-seven.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, seventy-seven.

MR. SCHMIDT: Ninety-one.

MR. MCCOMAS: Okay. You, I'm not looking at that list, you have to give me the number. So, sixty-six is okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, no, these are, these are all i.d. only.

MR. MCCOMAS: Sorry, sorry. Okay, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sixty-six, sixty-seven, sixty-eight, sixty-nine, seventy-one, seventy-two, seventy-seven, ninety-one and ninety-three are all what Mr. Holzer has called proffer exhibits, which remain proffer exhibits. And then ninety-six is in now.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: And we've resolved that. So, I think that resolves all of the exhibits.

MR. HOLZER: Other than me putting these in.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Holzer is going to put --

CHAIR: One second, one second. There's a question.

MS. DOPKIN: Sixty-three?

CHAIR: Okay. So, sixty-three is still i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: Picture (inaudible), right.

MR. MCCOMAS: And what about 7-A and C, which I think is exactly the same as 36-A through C? I have that as i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: If thirty-six is in, which I believe it's in, --

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Then 7-A should likewise be in, 7-A through C.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And, --

MR. MCCOMAS: You guys want me to go, I'll read down what I have here, if you want.

CHAIR: Oh, I was going to do the same, yeah.

MR. MCCOMAS: All right. So, so on mine I have, the first i.d. only is twelve. I'm only going to read the i.d. only.

CHAIR: Hold on, well, let, let's do this. Let's make sure everyone is caught up here. Let's, let's get, let's receive the evidence on the affidavits, because that's going to be part of the record too. So, make sure that's cleared. Then we figure out what is i.d. only at that point.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and this is, Larry, Mr. Schmidt, --

MR. SCHMIDT: I got that.

MR. HOLZER: -- has copies, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: I was given that.

MR. HOLZER: So, here's an affidavit for number four, fourteen and twenty-one.

CHAIR: So, this, by my understanding is Exhibit 112.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, that's what was I was going to do.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, so this is basically Exhibit 112.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: A through, so it's how many, how many of them are here?

MR. HOLZER: Should be four.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, it's 112-A through --

MR. SCHMIDT: D.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, thanks.

CHAIR: And it speaks to exhibit numbers?

MR. HOLZER: Four, four, fourteen and twenty-one.

MR. MCCOMAS: Affidavits.

MR. HOLZER: And this next pile of four is number nineteen.

CHAIR: So, Exhibit 113 will speak to Exhibit 19?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: Twelve?

CHAIR: No, we're, he's handing up another one now.

MS. DOPKIN: Ah, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: What's the next one?

MR. SCHMIDT: Then another, the next one goes, I think, to fifty.

MR. HOLZER: Fifty part one --

CHAIR: There's forty-five, forty-eight and fifty. Oh, and, if I --

MR. SCHMIDT: Forty eight is already in.

CHAIR: Sorry, you're right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Forty-five there is no affidavit for but I'm satisfied with that based on an explanation.

CHAIR: No, that's, that's, thank you for that.

MR. SCHMIDT: And then fifty is the complete exhibit. I had objection because the exhibit was not complete. That's the complete set.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. HOLZER: And the, this is for fifty part one and part two, there's four for each part.

CHAIR: Okay and so this is one fourteen.

MR. HOLZER: Did you get that, Mary? It's the whole, they're, they're labeled part one and part two.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, so the, the rest of its copies?

MR. HOLZER: No, they're all yours.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: It's just four copies.

CHAIR: The ones (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: There's four.

MR. MCCOMAS: That's what I'm getting at, so it's, so here, this is part one and part two and then these are all copies?

MR. HOLZER: Right, exactly.

MR. MCCOMAS: Okay.

CHAIR: All right. Now, what about Exhibit 10? Was there any affidavit needed for Exhibit 10?

MR. MCCOMAS: Can we just call it one fourteen and one fifteen here?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: Whatever works for you.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, because it's all stapled here. So, it's one fourteen --

CHAIR: Did you hear that, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, Mr. --

CHAIR: One fourteen and one fifteen. That'll be part one and part two.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And you asked about Exhibit 10, traffic crashes Baltimore County, January of '16 to April '18, authenticate sources, Baltimore County Police. Apparently Mr. Schmidt has seen this and is satisfied.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: Right, there's nothing else further needed.

MR. SCHMIDT: There's a, there's a note on the bottom of the page that they've added --

CHAIR: That identifies the source.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. What's next? Okay. The next would be Carol Shaw's corrected affidavit as to the date, and it goes to Exhibit 72 and 98. And there's four copies.

CHAIR: All right. Having heard no objection to the original exhibit, the last time --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right, those, those are, those are in.

CHAIR: Well, that's what I'm saying. The, there's a correction here so we're making this a separate, are we substituting or are we using it as a new exhibit?

MR. HOLZER: I don't care how you, what do you think, Larry?

CHAIR: I just want to make sure it's clear for the record.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just make it a new exhibit.

MR. HOLZER: New exhibit.

CHAIR: So, there's no objection on that for the reasons stated so, therefore, that's admitted too. So, one twelve, one thirteen, one fourteen, one fifteen and one sixteen are now all admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and I, is that it? I don't have any more documents in front of me.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think that's, I think that's it with, with my statement going through that I, that I --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- think Mr. McComas wrote down.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, right.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And then whenever you're ready you let me know so we can identify those --

MR. MCCOMAS: Mr. Holzer, did you give me three affidavits here? A copy, are these copies, is this one page, is that what this is?

MR. HOLZER: Copies of one page.

MR. MCCOMAS: Is that what it is?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, they're copies, and so this is for, do you have Exhibit 72 and seventy, and ninety-eight, is that what it is?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, um hm. I, I believe that covers everything on my (inaudible) and I'm ready to rest.

CHAIR: One second. I'm, I'm marking down just again, just to reiterate which ones then are i.d.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Slash proffer only.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, that would be fine. Because that, okay.

CHAIR: And then wait for Mr. McComas, whenever he's ready for that.

MR. MCCOMAS: Right. Well, first I'm going to start with the Petitioners. There's forty-six exhibits, all of them are in, no i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: All right. On the Protestants, I have a hundred and sixteen exhibits, and I'm just going to read the i.d. only ones starting with number one, --

CHAIR: One second.

MR. MCCOMAS: -- I'm sorry, i.d., I'll just read i.d. only.

CHAIR: Hold on. Let me, I'm updating my chart provided by Mr. Holzer on that to make sure we match. All right.

MR. MCCOMAS: First i.d. only I have is, is Exhibit 12, looks like the State Highway Administration access management submission checklist. The next one I have is the Baltimore County Police report, twenty-two, Baltimore County Police report, twenty-three.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: The next one that I have is 46-B and C.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: Information on 2906 Taylor Avenue.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: Forty-seven, website naccbaltimore.org is i.d. only, that's number forty-seven. The next one I have is 63-A through G.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: Picture of lens and text, is what I, is what I (inaudible) that one.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sixty-six.

MR. MCCOMAS: The next one I have, and this is the one that I, I think I was, I was, is, I was, is sixty-six I have as i.d. only?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: Sixty-seven I have as i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: Sixty-eight I have i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: Sixty-nine I have i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: Seventy-one I have i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: Seventy-two I have i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: Except for one caveat to seventy-two, because seventy-two later becomes ninety-eight and then it's one sixteen.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: We're okay with it being i.d. only though, right?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: Seventy-two was marked as i.d. only.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah.

CHAIR: But ninety-eight and one sixteen were put into evidence.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, then 77-A through D i.d. only, Facebook postings.

MR. SCHMIDT: Ninety-one and ninety-three.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes, ninety-one is the, is a letter dated 10/12, appreciation and then ninety-three looks like a listing for 2906 Taylor Avenue, that's i.d. only, that's Exhibit 93. And then the last one is the proffer of materials to, to the (inaudible).

MS. DOPKIN: (inaudible).

CHAIR: Good call.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry, I didn't hear that last one?

CHAIR: One ten, what was done today, what --

MR. MCCOMAS: For proffer.

CHAIR: For the exhaustion of administrative remedies.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, sorry.

CHAIR: Is that your understanding, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: Is that your understanding, Mr. Holzer? And I'll wait for, if you, if you need a minute there.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, may I be excused? I'm going to let (inaudible) to wrap that up. I, unfortunately, have a call I have --

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- a call I have to be on. I believe that is my understanding.

CHAIR: I'm, the one thing, just, we are going to address the record from, concerning Exhibit 34, what was on day one, so just so you know that. But then, number two, just so you know also, keep in mind that in light of where we are with the schedule and the balancing of that schedule, when it comes to doing memo there may be a shorter schedule than normal.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's fine. I've been working on mine already.

CHAIR: And I wanted to make sure you were aware of that and certainly Mr. Holzer be aware of it.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I didn't, I didn't hear what you said, memos?

CHAIR: That there's going to be a, probably a shorter memo, or a shorter time frame to come up with your closing memo, shorter than normal.

MR. HOLZER: What's, what's shorter?

CHAIR: Well, we can discuss that too --

MR. HOLZER: Normally I'd ask for, are four weeks.

CHAIR: Right. So, so I don't know that yet but I'm just alerting Mr. Schmidt now because he's on the way out the door.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, we can discuss that but I wanted to make sure that he was aware that that is the intent --

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: -- going forward at the, which I've already alluded to in hearings before.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: But this way, sitting here February 5th, he's aware that that's a possibility, there, there you go. So, there's no time set, you know, we haven't figured that out certainly, because we don't, the record isn't even closed.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: But that's where we're at, okay?

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm aware of everything you said and Mr. Wilkins has been working with me on these exhibits if there's any questions.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, there is a question --

MR. SCHMIDT: If I, if I may be excused?

CHAIR: One second. Mr. Holzer said he has a question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Zach can handle it if that's okay.

MR. WILKINS: Yeah, that's fine.

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Ms. Clark indicates to me that if ninety-eight and one sixteen are in, then her exhibit of seventy-two and ninety-eight should be in.

CHAIR: It really doesn't matter. It was just, that was the way it read in the transcripts, so that was just in the interest of harmony for that, but it really, if you would prefer that it just be designated as admitted, I, I, I don't think it makes a difference one way or the other because the substance is in.

MR. WILKINS: That's fine.

CHAIR: Mr. Wilkins?

MR. WILKINS: Yeah, that's fine.

CHAIR: So, seventy-two will be changed to admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Very good and, and also ninety-eight.

CHAIR: Oh, no, ninety-eight was admitted.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, ninety-eight was already admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Ninety-eight was --

CHAIR: There was, well, yes. There was no objection to it on the record when we went through it so, therefore, it was admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Gotcha.

CHAIR: And then the only, the one thing I caught was the change in the date.

MR. HOLZER: And ninety-seven was also in? Yes, it's marked in.

CHAIR: Did I say ninety-eight?

MR. MCCOMAS: Ninety-seven and ninety-eight are both in.

MR. HOLZER: Ninety-seven and ninety-eight are both in.

CHAIR: All my prior references there to ninety-eight was actually ninety-seven, because it concerned Ms. Shaw's affidavit.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: Well, there are two Ms. Shaws and both ninety-seven and ninety-eight.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: You're right.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Stand corrected on that too. Thank you, Mr. McComas.

MR. HOLZER: I think, members of the Board, I think this chart has helped greatly. I believe we're all in accord with what's in and what's out and with that, I have nothing further.

CHAIR: Well, I will add one thing before you close out your case and that is all remaining exhibits for Protestants, to whatever extent that, whatever was said in the record previously, all records here today agreed by both sides would indicate that they're all admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, to the extent that if it was absent in the record that it says admitted or so received, they are all admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Great.

CHAIR: With the exceptions of the ones specifically delineated today.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: As i.d. only or proffer.

MR. HOLZER: I call them proffers.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. McComas calls them --

CHAIR: Mr. Wilkins, is that your understanding?

MR. WILKINS: That's correct.

CHAIR: And Mr. Holzer, that's your understanding?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, um hm.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Perfect.

CHAIR: So, now, you, you are done with your end of the case, is that correct?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Very well. Mr. Wilkins, that leads us to rebuttal for Petitioner.

MR. WILKINS: Yes, I mean, we're going to reserve some time for next week.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. WILKINS: But nothing for today.

CHAIR: I figured that that was going to be the case.

MR. WILKINS: Yeah, yeah.

MS. DOPKIN: How many witnesses, do we know?

CHAIR: Do you, well, is there any way you can shed some light as to the number of witnesses?

MR. WILKINS: I think at this time we either have one or two.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. WILKINS: Yes.

CHAIR: Very well. And I know Mr. Schmidt indicated that he thinks we could be wrapped up in its entirety before--

MR. WILKINS: Noon.

CHAIR: -- before noon, right.

MR. WILKINS: Yeah.

MS. DOPKIN: Before lunch.

CHAIR: Before lunch.

MR. WILKINS: Yeah, lunch. That's true.

MR. HOLZER: Lunch here lately has been --

CHAIR: Well, I'm, I'm going to stick to noon. I'm going to stick to noon as someone who eats lunch later.

MR. HOLZER: I was going to say, lunch here lately has been later than noon.

CHAIR: Yes. So, you guys can be seated, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay. Thank you.

CHAIR: So, going back now to Exhibit 34. During the break, we reviewed the testimony or, testimony, reviewed the hearing transcript, thank you very much, regarding this issue. The way I understand upon review how everything unfolded was there was a request made for a postponement. There was back and forth about code enforcement matter, code enforcement proceeding, whatever. The event to be held and then Mr. Schmidt brought up the, what ultimately became Exhibit 34, identifying the content or summarizing the content for the record but there was no letter put forward to the Board at that time. It was indicated that there would be copies put forward at some point in the future.

As we went through everything, there were some other things that were interspersed within, but ultimately, the takeaway from the testimony, or the hearing transcript, not testimony, was that, and I am going to turn to page thirty, because that's where I think this begins. That the bottom line is, whatever happens with the code enforcement proceeding hearing, we do not have original jurisdiction.

So, I'm going to read it into the record starting at page twenty-nine. Number one, it seems to me some of these issues being raised are code enforcement issues and they are not in front of us today as code enforcement violations. We don't have original jurisdiction over those matters. It is not much that we sitting here today or in the scheduled six days to follow and just to clarify what that meant, references is, the next hearing date after the transcript from which I'm reading occurred six days later, to, to follow can do anything about.

Visited by the ALJ first, guessing there's a transcription error, and then property appealed before we continue on those matters. In other words, the understanding it seems from the Board at the time was, there was a request for a postponement because there would be future code, potential code matters that could come up and the request was denied because we can only deal with what was in front of us at that time.

Therefore, it does not change my opinions as to my previous, what I previously stated before our break, as to where we stand with thirty-four. I, I will say during the break, I have thought of this, and I'm going to voice it here for the first time because I didn't voice it earlier, that I believe it has to be in evidence because we have now all given our opinions as to the substantive effect of it. Because we are, if it was not going to be in evidence, we would not have to have our, what we believe are the substantive effect to be, to be in the record.

So, because it's now in the record, I believe it has to be made part of the evidence though, Mr. Holzer, as you are well aware, of what it means to us for purposes of this case. But, that's my take as to why I think it now needs to be, to remain in evidence, even with all those things I said previously about it. Ms. Dopkin?

MS. DOPKIN: I would agree. And just to clarify, you had raised the issue, Mr. Holzer, of whether it was relied on in our not postponing the continuation of these hearings. And my recollection is, based on the transcript, we did not make the decision to go forward, it was not affected by that piece of correspondence.

CHAIR: Whether the letter was identified or not had no bearing as to our --

MS. DOPKIN: Correct.

CHAIR: -- denial of that requested postponement.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. McComas, I know you weren't there for this day but I know you read the transcript.

MR. MCCOMAS: Read the transcript and, and I agree with, with both of your position on it. I believe that Mrs. Dopkin's, from looking at it, that it appears from the, from the, in the transcript that it wasn't relied on.

CHAIR: Okay. So, with that in mind, we will leave it in evidence. We will not, there's no further action to be taken on it. But you also do not need to argue it in your Motion, or your closing memo.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I wasn't planning to argue it.

CHAIR: Right, or anything that comes from it.

MR. HOLZER: It's going to be argued later.

CHAIR: I'm sure that you will have some further commentary on this point.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, indeed.

CHAIR: But as to these proceedings, it's not, --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: -- it has no affect and will not move the Board, the fact that it's in, we've already stated our opinions, where we stand on that. So, with that in mind, is there anything further for today?

MR. HOLZER: No.

MR. WILKINS: No.

CHAIR: Oh, sorry, yes. The other appeal. There is something else. The second appeal. So, each of us individually reviewed the file --

MR. HOLZER: I would suggest you not make any decision on that today because I wouldn't have thirty days to file an appeal from that so I would appreciate it if you're going to --

CHAIR: I'll do, I'll do you one better.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: I'll do you one better right now. So, reviewed the file. In light of the fact that the appeal is premised upon Exhibit 34 having an effect, you've heard our opinions on that subject. What is it that you, Mr. Holzer, wish for us to do today with respect to it?

MR. HOLZER: Nothing, because I would, if you're going to do something, I want, would like you to do it when you render a decision in this case, because I don't want to have two appeals going up to the Circuit Court.

CHAIR: Do I hear an oral motion to consolidate that appeal with the other matter?

MR. HOLZER: No, I'm not making a motion, I'm saying there is an outstanding appeal. If you want to deal with it based on how you want to deal with it, --

CHAIR: I need, I need to know because for purposes of a notice that goes, a public notice that we have to generate, --

MR. HOLZER: What do you mean, a notice for what?

CHAIR: For a deliberation, whether or not it's going to be the subject as part of that deliberation.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I would, I would, if, if the Board is required to make a decision and whatever your decision is, I would like it to be made at the time your other, your deliberation is made and, and then subsequently, when the Board Issues its decision.

CHAIR: So, we are not issuing a decision today, to be clear. It is merely a matter as to when it should be disposed of.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And, therefore, you're asking for us to join it with the case that we did for ten days so that it can be deliberated at the same, on the same date.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: Why can't we deliberate it now and not reduce it to writing because if we deliberate now and reduce it to writing as, as of the same date as our decision on this case?

CHAIR: I'm going, I'm going to say we can't do that because there's no public notice that we have, we're having a deliberation.

MS. DOPKIN: Having a deliberation, okay.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: So, I think we need to have that first.

MS. DOPKIN: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Right, I agree.

CHAIR: And so, case, --

MR. HOLZER: I'm not, not moving to consolidate the cases, I'm moving to consolidate the Board's analysis, deliberation and --

MS. DOPKIN: Keep them in sync.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay and, and, and maybe consolidate was a poor choice of words on my part.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: But just so that they can be resolved the same day, same time kind of thing.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

CHAIR: It's CBA-19-004 for purposes of the record.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, I guess, you know, the question is, whether or not we need to know if there's anything else to be, that's, should be received further on that case.

MR. HOLZER: Not to my knowledge. I mean, basically, what you've already seen in Exhibit 34, 34, is it, I'm getting lost in the, thirty-four, would be applicable to, to that.

CHAIR: So, it would seem to --

MR. HOLZER: I'm not going to, I'm not going to say that the Board didn't hold a hearing on it.

CHAIR: I, I, I know but I never want to cut those corners because it is, well, especially, especially considering the, how this comes to be.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: I mean, leaving that aside, I would otherwise always say that no, we need to make sure those I's are dotted and those T's are crossed. So, in this instance, it would seem to me that there should be some type of identification or incorporation of the arguments relating to thirty-four into this matter.

MR. HOLZER: Well, to be honest with you, I wasn't prepared to think about that today. If I could do it next week, that would be --

MR. WILKINS: That would be preferred.

CHAIR: And here's where I'm going with that. Is that there should be a notice generated regarding that.

MS. DOPKIN: From our office.

CHAIR: From our office to say that the, the case number 19-004, there will also be a hearing held in connection with that matter, so we can discuss this as, as to its record.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: For the next time, so that it may proceed to deliberation.

MR. HOLZER: I, I agree.

MR. WILKINS: Yeah, I agree.

CHAIR: Mr. Wilkins, okay?

MR. WILKINS: I agree.

CHAIR: As long as we're all on the same page on that at how this has to unfold without getting to decision making at this time.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MS. DOPKIN: Is there a time, how much notice do we have to give of the hearing?

CHAIR: Well, they can waive that because it goes, they're the parties. So, you would have to, well, we can address this the next time but in terms of a waiver on the notice issue as to timing, because if you need ten days for the sake of argument, you obviously will have less.

MR. WILKINS: Um hm.

MR. HOLZER: Right. No, I'm willing to work with the Board in terms of that because I don't see the value in having two separate --

CHAIR: Tracts.

MR. HOLZER: -- tracts and they probably should be, at some point, done together.

CHAIR: You want to exhaust all your administrative remedies.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I'm laying the foundation for them.

CHAIR: I understand. All right. So, with that in mind, since we're all, we're all of the same understanding as we leave here today, is there, unless there's anything further, we can adjourn.

MR. HOLZER: No, I have nothing further.

MR. WILKINS: Nothing further.

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Wilkins. Thank you, Mr.

Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. WILKINS: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. I appreciate the Board's (inaudible).

CHAIR: I thank you everyone who has attended here today.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

(ON RECORD – 09:16:33 AM)

CHAIR: Please be seated.

MS. DOPKIN: We are recording.

CHAIR: All right. We are back again today for day nine of Nepali American Cultural Center, case number 18-122-X. As you all may be able to tell, I've been losing my voice. So, so for today, obviously I'll still be doing the same things I normally do, but Ms. Dopkin will be aiding me in certain respects because I'm not able to consistently amplify my voice. Ms. Dopkin, is there anything you want to say?

MS. DOPKIN: I do. As Mr. Garber has repeatedly stated, this is a quasi-judicial body. We take our job seriously. We expect a modicum of decorum from the lawyers and the parties and the witness. We would like you to respect that for us. With that in mind, we want to proceed today efficiently, in a business like and professional manner so that there is a minimum of extraneous back and forth. We want to hear what our witnesses have to say so we can move forward. Mr. Garber is a font of patience. I am not.

So, if you have an objection, stand up so we and the witness know that you have an objection, state the basis for it. We don't want your argument per extended or testimony, we want to know why you're objecting. We'll deal with it. If we have questions, we'll ask you. We'd like to move forward a little more efficiently than we did yesterday without eclipsing anyone's right to speak and be heard. We're much more interested in hearing the case then all the rumble underneath. So, with that in mind, I hope you will not force Mr. Garber to lose his voice any further. And conduct yourselves accordingly.

CHAIR: Thank you. All right. So, the next two days beyond today, February 5th, February 13th, when the notices went out, the time listed was 10:00. We have an amended notice that it will be, the times will be moved to 9:00. Mr. Kotroco is not here, Mr. Schmidt, this is your copy.

MR. SCHMIDT: May I approach?

CHAIR: Yes, of course. Mr. Ghimire is not here. Do you expect him?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I will give it to him. Yes, he sends his regrets but because of the school delay he's (inaudible).

CHAIR: It's quite all right, it, it's quite all right. Mr. Holzer, this is your copy.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Hold on. I'm going to give you the copy for the Clarks, since Dr. Clark is at your table. And others will be mailed because those individuals are not here. That is, who are on the notice, particularly Mr. Kotroco, David Hartman, David Poehler, Morgan Minor and Carol Shaw. Oh, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Ms. Shaw is here.

CHAIR: Ms. Shaw? Good news, I have one with your name on it. So, Ms. Shaw is here and has received, so the ones that have not received it are Mr. Hartman, Mr. Poehler, Ms. Minor and Mr. Kotroco.

MR. HOLZER: If the Board would like, I certainly can deliver those to my clients. I don't know whether you have to mail them or whatever. But I can accept service for them.

CHAIR: If you're affirmatively representing on the record that you are accepting service for those individuals.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Other than Mr. Kotroco, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- I assume, then that's fine and they will not be mailed.

MR. HOLZER: I understand. That's why I'm trying to save the Board some extra work.

CHAIR: I appreciate it.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I can likewise do the same for Mr. Kotroco.

CHAIR: Very well. You have helped, both of you. This is Mr. Kotroco's. And I'm handing Mr. Holzer, excuse me, I think we have one for Motsco too.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, and I can do the same for him.

CHAIR: I apologize. And then, so this is for Ms. Minor, this is for Mr. Poehler.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: And Mr. Hartman. And again, the only change is the time being moved from 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. start. The only change.

MS. DOPKIN: And before we start, we would ask again that you silence all your devices.

CHAIR: Yes. Is there any other preliminary matter that needs to be discussed at the start?

MR. SCHMIDT: Just very briefly. During the course of the proceedings this morning, a young man from my office, who is a member of the Maryland Bar, Zachary Wilkins, may be joining me at the trial table. I don't want to disrupt the proceedings then, but if you see a young man come in and sit next to me, it's Mr. Wilkins and he may be assisting me. He is a member of the Bar and a member of my firm.

CHAIR: Thank you for, for letting us know in advance.

MR. HOLZER: Is Tim still going to be in the case or is he --

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Kotroco is still in the case but he's just not here, at least yesterday and today, obviously.

MR. HOLZER: So, I still have to, if I need to copy you guys, I still have to copy him?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, you should still copy him. Yes.

MR. HOLZER: That's all I needed to know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: All right. Anything else?

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: All right. Where we last left off was the conclusion of the 502.1 factors. Is that everyone's understanding?

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: All right. So, Mr. Holzer, it is your witness.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you, Dr. Clark.

MS. DOPKIN: Do you want to re-swear the witness?

CHAIR: Mine as well just do it because we're here and --

MS. DOPKIN: Mr. Clark, do you swear and affirm under the penalties of perjury, that the testimony you are about to give is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief?

MR. CLARK: I do.

MS. DOPKIN: And if you'd state your name for the record?

MR. CLARK: Oh, yeah. DeWitt S. Clark.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yes?

CHAIR: Your witness.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, now we are at the end of the 502.1 conditions and you've been testifying on behalf of the community association, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, that testimony in regard to the 502.1 conditions have been as the representative of the association from late yes, or yesterday afternoon.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. The, and when we ended last night at approximately 6:30, there was one other section left and that was inconsistent with the purs, purpose of the property zoning classification.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, there, as I understand it, your desire, your association desires to introduce one document which would be the Beachmont decision. Could you, and, and RC, and Grace Church. Are you familiar with that?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I am.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, just for purposes of the record.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: It may be a good idea to have Dr. Clark identify the zoning classification, because if he's going to testify to matters that are going to be inconsistent, just by foundational, he would have to establish what his understanding of the zoning classification is.

MR. HOLZER: Do you know what the classification is of the, well, let's say Grace Church?

MR. CLARK: Yes, RC-5.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and you know the zoning classification for the subject property?

MR. CLARK: RC-2.

MR. HOLZER: All right. I'm going to provide this document to, now, if Mr. Kotroco --

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: -- was here, he would be very familiar with this document.

MR. MCCOMAS: Exhibit 78.

MR. HOLZER: All right, that's Exhibit 78. And are you, do you have it front of you?

MR. CLARK: No, I do not.

MR. HOLZER: Sorry.

CHAIR: Here's another copy here if you need it. Let's mark it --

MR. MCCOMAS: Seventy-eight.

CHAIR: The formal exhibit, Mr. McComas has, but just so you have the copy that says seventy-eight on it.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Okay.

CHAIR: And I see Mr. Schmidt has his copy.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Okay. So, this is the Grace Church decision --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: -- I have here.

MR. HOLZER: And now, could you tell me why you believe this is relevant to the proceedings that we're here to, today on?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. This is a house of worship in the general area.

MR. HOLZER: And when, when you say general area, I want you to be more specific.

MR. CLARK: Okay. It's on, it's on Belair Road, it's within the Kingsville Civic Association cacheman area.

MR. HOLZER: When you say it's on Belair Road, is it in a residential area or more, when, when you say Belair Road I think of commercial.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, no. It, it, it's in, it's past the URDL, it is at 11611 Belair Road.

CHAIR: I, I missed the part, you said it was in with, with the what, cacheman zone?

MR. CLARK: The Greater Kingsville Civic Association cacheman zone.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Okay?

CHAIR: Sorry about that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, just for the record, I've looked at the decision quickly and I have an objection.

CHAIR: Okay. What's the nature of the objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: The nature of the objection is, first of all, I don't believe it's appropriate for this witness to be giving a legal interpretation of this decision. I think it's more properly argument.

CHAIR: I think that objection is premature at this time. I don't know where we're going with this exhibit with this witness. That may be an objection on a future question, I don't know. But, so for now, I'll overrule that objection.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, and there's one other basis, if I may be heard?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: I notice that the property is zoned RC-5, which is not the same zoning classification as is the issue in this case. And I also think as importantly, as I'm looking at the first page of the decision that we've been provided in the actual middle of the first paragraph it indicates that the matter is before, was before the zoning commissioner on a development plan. And it indicates further the use of the subject property is a church, is a use permitted in the RC-5 zone, therefore, no special zoning relief is necessary. And then it continues. So, I believe that the standard that would have been applied in this case, as it relates to whether the development plan should be granted or approved, is a different legal standard than the special exception.

CHAIR: I understand the difference between the RC-5, RC-2 zones, I understand this may be a development decision, but I don't know what use or purpose we have for this exhibit as of yet. And so, Mr. Holzer, --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: -- I'll, I'll overrule it for now but you may, of course, object again when appropriate.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you for hearing from me.

MR. HOLZER: Mr., Mr. Clark, I want to direct your attention to page twenty-four, and twenty-five and twenty-six, of that document.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. HOLZER: Which is signed by Timothy Kotroco.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. HOLZER: The hearing officer at the time and currently one of the attorneys involved in this, in this case. Directing your attention specifically to his imposing certain terms and conditions. Are you familiar with those terms and conditions?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I do not want you to opine in regard to any legal zoning questions. But I want you to define where the, is the Grace Church in an area similar to the proposed site here on Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: It is on a State highway. It is in a, a similar residential, rural residential area. It is in with, it is within the locale.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, all right. Now, in looking, this will, this will lead us into the next questions that I have for you, the next area. But did you review the terms of the conditions imposed by Mr. Kotroco?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Did you find those conditions consistent or relative to the same kinds of concerns your association would have in regards to the proposed project?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: And can you just explain instead of saying yeah. Just a little bit.

MR. CLARK: Okay, yeah.

MR. HOLZER: I don’t want a long diatribe, a little bit. Go ahead.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Well, no, it, it has to do with the size capacity of, of the house of worship, it has to do with traffic management, it has to do with recreational facilities, it has to do with kitchens, has to do with noise, it has to do with outdoor activities, no outdoor concerns, carnivals permitted on the grounds, landscaping, so on and so forth. I mean, I mean, the, the Board can read it for themselves. I, I don't need to --

MR. HOLZER: And --

CHAIR: Do I understand correctly here that you're identifying these conditions as ones that could have some influence on --

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- this matter in the event there's an approval?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right. And you're using this by way of example?

MR. CLARK: And, and Petitioner, or Protestant's counsel was involved with this, their legal team, right.

CHAIR: Well, that aside, --

MR. CLARK: Right, yeah.

CHAIR: -- that's the purpose for this exhibit is to say hey --

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, sir, yes, sir, yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- look, here's an example, the way this, something similar has been treated, even if there are differences in the way it unfolds. But there are conditions imposed here, ones that you think could be --

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- applied here?

MR. HOLZER: Absolutely.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: That's the sole purpose of putting it in. I think the added value is the fact that Mr. Kotroco was the one that, that imposed those conditions. So, it shows that he --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- is sympathetic to those kinds of, of issues or arguments by the neighbors. I, that's all it's put, put in for.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, any objection to seventy-eight?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir. Although I obviously point out that Mr. Kotroco, at the time, was deputy zoning commissioner and not private counsel.

CHAIR: It, it's understood.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: The difference in position and in no way does that influence anything up, you know, for purposes of this hearing. So, yes, it's admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. The next document, which I sort of thought of out of order, would be the Beachmont approval and it's also, excuse me, so I can get this right. It's also authored by the deputy zoning commissioner, Mr. Kotroco. And I'm going to make sure everybody has a copy first before, one, two, --

CHAIR: And sir, if you could hand back the exhibit?

MR. CLARK: Oh, that wasn't mine, yeah.

CHAIR: Seventy-eight. So, Mr. McComas would have his own.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. MCCOMAS: I already got one. Oh, for my, for my --

CHAIR: Right, for your, for your personal file.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: That was yours.

MR. MCCOMAS: It was.

MR. HOLZER: That will be seventy-nine.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MS. DOPKIN: This is case number 94-50-SPH, a Petition for Special Hearing?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: For Beachmont Inc.?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. And, well, I'll let Mr. Schmidt have an opportunity.

MR. SCHMIDT: I note at, at the beginning, just of the decision, and I have not read the decision, that this case apparently was an approval of an amendment of orders in two prior cases, 75-83-X and 89-489-SPH. Mr. Holzer, just out of a matter of completeness, are we going to get all three of the dec, zoning decisions as they relate to Beachmont?

MR. HOLZER: No, I didn't, the only one that I have for now is this one.

CHAIR: Let me ask, are you using seventy-nine in a similar fashion to seventy-eight as it relates to conditions imposed on the Beachmont property, that is, something that Dr. Clark would feel --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- would be perhaps something to be considered in this case, should there be approval?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. And those, and those restrictions were found on page nine of this document, seventy-nine, nine and ten. And if the Board looks at that, you, you can see that it follows pretty much his testimony on exhibit number seventy-eight. But I'll ask him --

CHAIR: Well, the purpose of my asking that question is it resolves the issue --

MR. HOLZER: Exactly.

CHAIR: -- that Mr. Schmidt has raised as to the two prior case numbers.

MR. HOLZER: Exactly.

CHAIR: At least, it would seem on its face. Do you have any objection to seventy-nine then, other than the issue as to case numbers 75-83-X and 89-499-SPH in light of the proffered relevance of this document?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I, I think, I'm sure you're going to have a consistent ruling with the prior exhibit, so I don't object. Maybe the way to handle it is I may have my office see if they can pull those cases and --

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- offer them just so that you have all the cases related.

CHAIR: I appreciate that.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think that's appropriate.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: I have no objection if he does that.

CHAIR: Okay. So, seventy-nine will be admitted, you may ask your questions to Dr. Clark.

MR. CLARK: May I have a copy?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. I keep forgetting that you don't have one. And Mr. Clark, would you look at the last couple pages? Because I've --

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: -- suggested to the Board that that's the reason that we're introducing them. Could you address the, first of all, where is Beachmont?

MR. CLARK: Beachmont is located, as the crow flies, about a half a mile from the subject property. It is not on a State highway, it is on a County road.

MR. HOLZER: What's the County road? Mount Vista?

MR. CLARK: Mount Vista, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: I was going to say, it was already read into the record.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It was a trick question.

CHAIR: That's okay.

MR. CLARK: All right. And it adjoins another property from which it was split off, owned by the Standifer's, I believe, and that has operated as Redeemer School. There's been some confusion about this Redeemer/Beachmont complex. But as these decisions will show, they are two separate entities. And Mr. Kotroco, I think, was well aware of that. But the, the, the conditions are, again, appropriate for, we feel, we feel, the board feeds, that the GFWPA board feels, that these conditions are very similar to what we would like, that would satisfy our concerns on the subject property.

CHAIR: Before we go down another road, because I don't know if this is yet to come, as an individual, because you're here testifying in both capacities, that is, on behalf of the association and yourself --

MR. CLARK: No, I, I think we can pretty much say that --

CHAIR: You're not going to offer any other testimony as an individual as it relates to seventy-eight or seventy-nine?

MR. CLARK: Oh, I see what, I see what you're asking. Other than some rebuttal to testimony, to prior testimony.

CHAIR: Sorry, as it relates to these two exhibits?

MR. CLARK: Well, this exhibit may be brought in as a rebuttal. I would, I --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, do you understand my question?

MR. HOLZER: I understand your question.

CHAIR: Could you --

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I'm sorry, I don't, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: We've had testimony, Dr. Clark as an individual, we have testimony from Dr. Clark on behalf of the association. I don't want to go, talk about his testimony as the association and then find out two hours from now as an individual he also has opinions --

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: -- about the same exhibits.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, I'm sorry. I just didn't follow you at first.

CHAIR: I, I want, yeah, so right, so I apologize for not being clear.

MR. SCHMIDT: I got it.

CHAIR: I want to see if the testimony is coextensive.

MR. CLARK: Now, --

MR. HOLZER: I, I can answer the question. In regard to some prior testimony by various witness Petitioners and so forth, there was confusion or an attempt to combine these properties and even though Mr. Clark is testifying right now for the conditions that could be attached, if the Board so chose, he also subsequently wants to go back when I go back to his personal testimony and explain the confusion that was generated by the Petitioners as to these two properties. That's all he wants to do. He's not going to re-address the decisions or anything.

MS. DOPKIN: Is he speaking for himself individually or still as the spokesperson for the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preser --

MR. HOLZER: He would speaking, at that time, for himself, trying to clarify some of the misunderstandings that occurred in the Petitioner's case.

MR. MCCOMAS: And, and why is that relevant to this case?

MR. HOLZER: Why is?

MR. MCCOMAS: That he --

MR. HOLZER: That they made mistakes testifying, they made mis --

MR. MCCOMAS: No, no, the issue of, of the property that's in this case, why is that relevant to this case?

MR. HOLZER: Oh, it's not relevant. It's not --

CHAIR: He's addressing points made earlier by other witnesses, I believe is what Mr. Holzer is saying.

MR. MCCOMAS: Oh, okay. I thought he was talking about the case in here where they're talking about there was some confusion (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: I'm, no, but I'm sorry, I misunderstood what your confusion was.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, yeah, no, I got the past testimony. What I was talking about is I thought he was going to testify about that there's some confusion in the prior case over --

MR. HOLZER: No.

MR. MCCOMAS: -- the division of land.

MR. HOLZER: No. All he's, all he's doing at this purpose, for the, for the association, is to say many of these conditions also would apply and be acceptable to us in this case. He will then, I will then take him back to go into the testimony as an individual of why there was previous testimony that may have confused the Board in regard to these two properties, that's all.

CHAIR: So, and just to put a, a, an exclamation point at the end of all this discussion, what I'm hearing is he has something separate to say about Beachmont and Redeemer.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: That relates to Exhibit 79. But does he hold an opinion as an individual as to the conditions reflected in seventy-eight and/or seventy-nine --

MR. HOLZER: He just says he did.

CHAIR: -- as an individual?

MR. HOLZER: (inaudible) yes.

CHAIR: And we're, that's what I want to elicit now.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Because the stuff later to come is for impeachment or rebuttal purposes.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, while we have this out, if he has separate opinions about it, as an individual or whatever, that's what, all I'm trying to get onto the record.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Chairman, he just answered your question by saying it's my personal opinion as well as the association.

CHAIR: I, thank you. I, that's why I'm saying, I want to put an exclamation point at the end of that --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- so we can all move on.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Thank you. Okay.

MR. HOLZER: So, I would offer this seventy-nine also, like I offered --

CHAIR: It's already been admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, it has, okay. I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Yes. Because Mr. Schmidt did not have any objections other than the one we discussed. And since he said the ruling for seventy-eight would be applicable to seventy-nine he understood.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: So, it is admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Thank you. In regard to, continuing under the inconsistence with the purpose of the property zoning classification, are there any other points that you want to make on behalf of the association or have we completed that part?

MR. CLARK: Can, can I just re-echo the, you know, the use of the recreation, as a recreational facility --

CHAIR: I think you should answer Mr. Holzer's question.

MR. CLARK: Okay. So, I want to say yes. Ask the question again. I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Are there any other evidence in that relates to the association's concern about the inconsistency of the property's zoning classification?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And what are they?

MR. CLARK: They are the, the string of volleyball events that have been held there and there are the multiple events above and beyond the, the July 29, August 3, including while this proceeding was taking place, the use of it for a community political activism where some seventy-five people attended and we have the video of that in there. And --

MR. HOLZER: Has that video been shown?

MR. CLARK: I don't think completely.

CHAIR: It has not been paid during the course of any hearing --

MR. CLARK: We, we showed parts of it.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: It has not been played during the course of any hearing because it's, that's news to me.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay and the November 4th of use of the property by a group called Belmont Volleyball Group, for a volleyball game. And again, they posted on Facebook for us.

MR. HOLZER: Do we need to show a video of that at this point or would --

CHAIR: Well, please bear in mind Mr. Schmidt, if, I'm assuming these are not on the disc previously because you called them new.

MR. CLARK: And they were given last night.

CHAIR: Okay. So, I'm going to give Mr. Schmidt the benefit of the doubt, as hard working as an individual as he is, and last night we ran a bit late, so he may not have had the opportunity to view them. So, with that in mind, do you have still photos?

MR. CLARK: I think we, yeah, yes.

CHAIR: I want, in other words, I'm trying to give you the opportunity to see the video ahead of time, to, to the maximum extent possible, but of course, our time is limited.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you. I, I seem to recall a video where there was someone from the governor's office who was at the property and we did see a video of that. I assume this is something different than that?

CHAIR: I would, I would say that my rec --

MR. SCHMIDT: When he said, used the word political, that's what I was thinking.

CHAIR: And my understanding was consistent with yours, that is, it does not refer to that, that one.

MR. SCHMIDT: That event, okay.

MR. CLARK: The Belmont Volleyball Group does not.

CHAIR: No, the pol, the one that, --

MR. CLARK: The one on October 6, --

CHAIR: The political activism one.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, where there were about seventy-five people in attendance.

CHAIR: Well, so, we'll stop there. Mr. Holzer, trying to clarify the video. Mr. Schmidt has asked a question. Is this the one that concerned a representative from the governor's office or was it even the lieutenant governor?

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe, as I recall, I think it was someone from the governor's office and I remember there was a video about six or seven people sitting at a table --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- outside and there was some question and answer. I just didn't know if that was what we were talking about or if it was something else.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, so the question --

MR. HOLZER: It was not shown yet.

CHAIR: It was not shown yet.

MR. HOLZER: It's, it's on the document that you have, that you have already, what was shown and what was not. And it was not.

CHAIR: Okay. So, then it's a new one. Just to establish that for the record, that that would be a new video.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Different than what Mr. Schmidt is referring to. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: It was on the original disc.

CHAIR: Oh, okay. We're back to square one.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, apparently you did receive whatever it is before. So, it's --

MR. HOLZER: It's listed on the, on the list sheet.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: As having been on the old documents that were submitted to Mr. Schmidt.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: But for right now, I'd like --

CHAIR: But go, please, please move ahead. I will search for the list and we will untangle that.

MR. HOLZER: These are the photographs of --

MR. CLARK: No, you have to give them to them.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I've got some to give to them.

CHAIR: As long as Mr. Schmidt has it, we have it and there's no question pending, it's fine.

MR. CLARK: Okay, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yep.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just trying, maybe make this earlier, Mr. Garber, --

CHAIR: Go for it.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- this is exactly what I think we were talking about and if you look at page two --

CHAIR: Hold on. We have to mark it first. Mr. McComas?

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, I'm sorry.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible) B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J. So, it's going to be A through J.

CHAIR: What, what number?

MR. MCCOMAS: Eighty.

CHAIR: So, Petitioner's Exhibit 80-A through K are photographs, or excuse me, Protestant's Exhibit 80-A through K. Now, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe, I guess it's B, the second page.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is, I know we've seen the video of that already.

CHAIR: Yes. That, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Because it's, I mentioned the governor's office but appar, I, --

CHAIR: Secretary of State.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- apologize, it was the deputy secretary of state.

CHAIR: Yeah, right, understood.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'm assuming, and again, to be consistent with your rulings yesterday, this is not about a code violation or an illegal event, but it, I don't think --

CHAIR: I don't know why we're discussing it right now.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: I'm going to leave that to Mr. Holzer to ask Dr. Clark.

MR. HOLZER: Dr. Clark, you've seen Exhibit 80. What is the purpose for showing this?

MR. CLARK: Well, if you look at, I guess it would be C, page C.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Okay. It shows a large crowd and it is being used for a purpose other than what the special exception is asking.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, I would offer --

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, any objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe the video is in and to the extent that this is still photos taken from the video, it's already in evidence so I don't have any objection.

CHAIR: Well, let's, let's separate the two. The photos alone, do you have any objection without reference to the video? And I ask that, because I don't know off the top of my head with all the videos that are identified, what was in and what was out. So, of the photos alone, do you have any objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I'll make this easy. I do not have any objection.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank, thank you.

CHAIR: A through K.

MR. HOLZER: And I'm not going to worry about the video. It is what it is.

CHAIR: Yeah, and I, just off the top of my head, because there's so many I don't know what was specifically ruled upon or not. That's the reason why I asked for a separate consideration from Mr. Schmidt.

MR. HOLZER: Now, I'd like to go to one, oh, I'm sorry. You've already had an opportunity to make a, a comment about Exhibit 80 that we just entered into evidence, is that --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Is there anything further you need to say about that? Can we move on?

MR. CLARK: About this exhibit?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. HOLZER: No?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIR: We can move on.

MR. CLARK: We can move on.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Now, let's go to what the, your association board concluded in terms of the special exception.

MR. CLARK: I would like to introduce one more thing, the Belmont Video Group. We did, we, we, we mentioned that and we didn't introduce the pictures from that.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay.

CHAIR: That was on November 4, 2018, while, while these proceedings were going on.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry --

MR. CLARK: And that will also be introduced for rebuttal purposes, I should say, Your Honor, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: Deal with it one step at a time.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, let's do one thing at a time. This, has this, has there, these are photographs from a video, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: From a new video that is on the discs that were distributed last night.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, so they're new.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I did not watch the, the new disc last night.

CHAIR: Right, and it's understandable. Let's start with the photos and see where that takes us.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I haven't seen those, but I'll be happy to look at them.

CHAIR: And this is Exhibit 81.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, obviously not having seen these, I, I guess I would have a technical objection just in terms of the foundation of what this is and where, where it came from, etcetera, because it appears to be a photograph of a computer screen, I am surmising. I guess the other, and I can address this in cross examination, but just to the extent it goes to relevance and I'll try to be very, very brief. I'm not quite sure what I understand the relevance is of people playing volleyball.

CHAIR: Well, if I can, if I could jump in real quick. Mr. Holzer hasn't had the opportunity to try to lay a foundation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, at the time the objections are premature, I would say so they're overruled at this moment.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, if you want to lay a foundation?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Mr. Clark, do we have a video from which these pictures were taken?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Have we shown that video at this point?

MR. CLARK: No, sir.

MR. HOLZER: We have?

MR. CLARK: Not.

MR. HOLZER: We have not shown that video. That video is on the, the disc that was created as a quote, new disc, that was provided to the parties last night?

MR. CLARK: Well, as you can from the date --

CHAIR: The ans, hold on, answer his question.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, answer --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And as you can see from the date, the reason for that is the video was posted on November 4.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and does that, does the date show on the, Protestant's eighty-one, of November 4th?

MR. CLARK: Yes, it is, --

MR. HOLZER: Where is it?

MR. CLARK: -- it is on their video screen under Belmont Volleyball Park was live at Hindu Temple Mandere November 4 at 8:58.

CHAIR: If you go above the center photo, you'll see it says Belmont --

MR. HOLZER: I see.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I see. Thank you.

CHAIR: Yep.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Does, what is your purpose for showing, or discussing Protestant's Exhibit 81 and do we need, in your opinion, the video to show this document?

MR. CLARK: Not unless we need it during cross, but the, the purpose of it is, again, it's a use other than applied for in the special exception.

MR. HOLZER: The, could, could we, in order to avoid Mr. Schmidt's objection, could we show the video now?

MR. CLARK: It is on the USB drive, it's ready to go.

CHAIR: Well, if I could just ask the question. Is what we're about to watch basically what you just said, that is, people were playing volleyball? How long of a video is it?

MR. CLARK: Well, there's, there's two different ones. One is the full thing of twelve minutes and the other is two minutes and eleven seconds.

CHAIR: Okay. So, Mr. Schmidt, you've heard the proffer as what's to be shown on the video. I will leave it to you to decide whether you would like to see that before any further examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I, I really don't need to see people playing video, I, if I could, --

CHAIR: You mean volleyball, the video of the volleyball?

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, I'm sorry, playing volleyball.

And I don't want to ask anything improper. I note that it was apparently posted on November the 4th, according to the date on the document. But I'm looking, for example, at the, the second page and, at least there's one participant who's in a pair of shorts and they look like most of them are in short sleeves and it is November. So, this may have been posted in November. I'm wondering if Mr. Clark knows when this actually happened, whether it was then or whether it was just a video from the summer.

CHAIR: I would say you'll have to wait till cross examination for that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. And then the other, the other point and I, and if I should wait till cross examination please tell me. But from a relevance standpoint, they were playing volleyball. Is, is there an allegation that that's illegal or immoral or improper somehow?

CHAIR: No, I think, okay, so I understand the objection. I'm going to overrule the objection. We've heard from Dr. Clark, why he, he thinks that this is relevant to this case. So, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- as, as for the other question, you can ask that on cross examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: And certainly you can explore whatever you need on cross examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: So, Exhibit 81 then will be admitted.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: And Mr. Schmidt has indicated he did not need to see the video of people playing volleyball.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you, members of the Board. Now, sorry, I, I jumped to the board's 502.1 conclusions and as a result of the board having these opinions, could you tell me in terms of what the board considered, if they have at all, as to what kind of conditions could be imposed by the Board?

CHAIR: Before you answer, you're referencing the board, just to be clear, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- because he's providing testimony on behalf of an association, the board you're referring to is the Board of Appeals. And you're asking --

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: -- the board for the association's opinion as to what the Board of Appeals should be doing as to conditions, is that correct?

MR. HOLZER: That's correct, that's correct. I apologize.

CHAIR: That's okay. We're using the board --

MR. HOLZER: But, in two different fashions.
CHAIR: Right.
MR. CLARK: I am testifying for the Gunpowder Falls Watershed --
CHAIR: Yes.
MR. CLARK: -- Preservation Association.
MR. HOLZER: Yes.
MR. CLARK: That these were authorized by, by the board.
CHAIR: That's undisputed.
MR. CLARK: Okay.
CHAIR: It was just to clarify Mr. Holzer's double use of the --
MR. CLARK: I, I know.
MR. HOLZER: Yeah.
CHAIR: -- board referencing both boards.
MR. CLARK: Right.
MR. HOLZER: Right. Go ahead.
MR. CLARK: I don't know if this would be a good place to talk about how, how this whole thing started, or if you want me to go right into our conclusions.
CHAIR: I want you to answer his question directly.
MR. HOLZER: Answer, answer the question.
MR. CLARK: Okay, okay, okay.
MR. HOLZER: And go into the, the, --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, we have, we have, we have a number, we, we, we, I'm just going to read it, Your Honor.

CHAIR: Read?

MR. SCHMIDT: Is, is there a question pending?

CHAIR: Hold on. He has something he wants to read. Mr. Holzer, do you know what he's ready to read?

MR. HOLZER: I hope it's the same thing I have here, which are some possible conditions that the Board could impose.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Just like the other two exhibits that we submitted.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: All right. The, so this, this is the position of the board.

CHAIR: Go ahead.

MR. CLARK: Okay? We understand it is very unusual for a special exception to be denied, okay? However, there are grounds to decline. One, this application is defective. The Petitioners clearly want to and repeatedly have used the property for purposes other than that stated in their application, okay? B, and I can provide this to you as a written statement. B, --

CHAIR: Hold, hold on. If you're to provide that as a written statement, then you need to provide Mr. Schmidt with it now, before it's going to be put into evidence.

MR. HOLZER: I, just read what you've written for the association.

MR. CLARK: Okay, so just, just read it, okay. Okay. This development provides no benefit to the surrounding community. 502.1 is not concerned about the needs of Parkville, Maryland or the Mid-Atlantic. It is concerned about the impacts of the surrounding community and the locale. Given that the zoning enforcement is non-existent and we dealt with that separately, I understand. You could stand and refute, you could take a stand and refuse to decide this, that you cannot, and refuse to decide this case until the County can guarantee a mechanism that will enforce your decisions. We understand your frustrations.

If you decline these outcomes, Protestants ask that you give the Petitioners exactly what they have testified they want, a place where to ten to fifteen people a day can come to pray. If that had been the case, we would not be here today. This means a well or septic for a maximum of fifty people, parking for ten cars, maximum twenty visitors per day with a controlled entrance and a verifiable count, restrict all improvements to the existing footprints and purpose, place money in escrow to execute equitable relief --

MR. HOLZER: Excuse me. When you, the last one, restrict all improvements to the existing --

MR. CLARK: Oh, okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- could you tell us where the community association got that kind of consideration?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I will do that for now on. Grace Church decision.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Place money in escrow, in, in escrow to execute equitable relief, no recreational facilities, Grace Church, remove the pool, remove the volleyball court. I believe Mr. Ghimire said he was amenable to that. No outdoor lighting. That again is Grace Church. Protestants and their representatives can enter the property for inspection and verification purposes. And that's in Grace Church too, by the way. No day care or educational facility. Grace Church. They had referenced they want to have yoga, language, cultural classes there. Reclaimed buildings to be used only for the original purpose, other than the mansion. Nothing is to be converted to a new use, such as the barn for a venue for a thousand people as Mr. Clarke wrote in one of his letters. That's from the Grace Church. No food kitchen. Again, that's in Grace Church.

We would strongly like you to require an SHA access permit prior to any further use. Headlight screening for the Poehler and Foxworth properties. Submit landscape, signage and road improvements to, to the community association. Signage that fits within the historic nature of the property and the community.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, what was that last one?

MR. CLARK: Signage that fits within the historic nature of the property and the community. The sign that they have put up, it does not fit either the historical context of the property or the community. Regarding to control runoff onto the Foxworth property. No outdoor services of any kind. No outdoor concerts, carnivals permitted on the grounds. There shall be no outdoor out, loudspeakers, outdoor pavilions, temporary or permanent, i.e., tents. That comes out of Grace Church.

All lighting to be approved, if it should be approved, will be limited to light standards, limited to twenty feet in height utilizing cutoff versus flood lighting. Lighting to be turned off no later than 10:00 p.m. Grace Church.

CHAIR: If I could just jump in. Mr. Holzer, I assume you'll be itemizing each condition in detail that you, that may be requested?

MR. HOLZER: You mean in a memo or some --

CHAIR: In your memo.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I can.

CHAIR: And the reason why I'm asking that is --

MR. HOLZER: Oh, sure.

CHAIR: -- because I'm trying to write down the specific, specific requirements or suggestions from Dr. Clark and I'm not going to capture every little bit of it and I don't want to go down a road that in the event it's approved and we start talking about conditions, that if we think something is appropriate, we're not actually meeting what is being specifically stated. So if you could itemize them all, and I'm not saying you can't continue to read, I just want to make sure that it's recorded --

MR. CLARK: I just have two more.

CHAIR: -- accurately and for the Board's review, that we have an accurate recitation of these itemized factors.

MR. HOLZER: I think it's a perfectly reasonable request. It makes a lot of sense and what I was going to suggest was, I can take this, put it on a separate piece of paper and make copies for you, the Board and counsel.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Because it, it seems to me, it is the thing that might provide an, a proper analysis of what the community is asking for, so.

CHAIR: But there were also a lot of specifics--

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yeah.

CHAIR: -- to it and there's both quantity, there's, we have the quantity of it.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: But also, there are very specific details

within --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, right.

CHAIR: -- some of these that I don't want to get lost trying to keep up with writing down the list.

MR. HOLZER: You're not.

CHAIR: So, I want to make sure that everything is accurate and please continue to read --

MR. CLARK: Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: -- the remainder but --

MR. HOLZER: I'm going to take care of that.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Um hm.

CHAIR: It'll just make it easier.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: All driveway parking to be constructed as permeable surfaces, not impermeable surfaces. Visitors must use the left lane to exit south and the right lane to exit north. Entrance to the property will be by a dedicated lane, not a shared lane. In both Beachmont decision and Grace Church decision, Mr. Kotroco found that uses such as this should be restricted to five, to RC-5 zones. Okay?

MR. HOLZER: Now, Mr. Clark, what, what I'm suggesting and the Chairman has suggested is that I take this list with all amplifications that you've adopted and provide a sec, a separate document that I submit to Mr. Garber and the Board and also to Mr. Schmidt. Do you agree we can do that?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, that's what we will do.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Does that complete the, the Board, the association board's request and testimony?

MR. CLARK: Those are the statement, those are statements that were approved by the board, those (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And, and I have no intention of revisiting them personally.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Hold on. Now I have to ask you, when you say you have no intention of revisiting them personally, you're saying individually, you're not going to go recap that testimony, correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, what I'd like to do --

CHAIR: Hold on. I think Ms. Dopkin has a question, please.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: Does that conclude the testimony on behalf of the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association?

MR. HOLZER: That's what I understand.

CHAIR: That's my understanding.

MS. DOPKIN: Before we leave it, I have a question regarding the association. How does one obtain membership? By just owning property within your cacheman area?

MR. CLARK: No, no, no. It's an affirmative act.

MS. DOPKIN: And what is that act?

MR. CLARK: It is either a donation or giving us your e-mail.

MS. DOPKIN: So, there are no membership fees, dues, --

MR. CLARK: No, no, ma'am.

MS. DOPKIN: It's all voluntary?

MR. CLARK: Correct, ma'am.

MS. DOPKIN: That was my question. And so you're telling me it's an unincorporated, voluntary association for anyone living within your boundaries who provides their e-mail address or gives you money?

MR. CLARK: Yes, ma'am. And, and can, can I amplify on that a little bit?

MS. DOPKIN: No, that's all I wanted to know.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Ms. Dopkin, I don't believe there's a geographic limitation. I don't think he testified about that in terms of where you have to live.

MR. HOLZER: Objection. He did.

MS. DOPKIN: Yes, he did.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did he? Okay. I missed that. I apologize.

CHAIR: (inaudible) the record. He indicated Gunpowder north and south --

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, that's right, I'm sorry. I, I apologize,

CHAIR: Glen Arm and Belair. Is that accurate?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and then Long Green Pike out to (inaudible).

CHAIR: Long, right, because I, I asked a follow-up question (inaudible). Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

CHAIR: And I want to be clear as to the conditions that you just identified and read from.

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Those are on behalf of the association?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Are, with respect to you in, individual capacity, are you going to offer any other testimony regarding conditions that you would like to see as an individual that's different in any way from what you've just identified?

MR. CLARK: I promise not.

CHAIR: Okay. So, any conditions on your individual behalf would be included within what has already been testified to?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. CLARK: I, in other words, I have no individual conditions.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Let's, let's go back, because we sort of were diverted initially by the requirement to go to 502.1 yesterday. Are there, are there reasons why you as an individual question the Petitioner's testimony in regard to what they're doing, what, what's going to happen on the property that caused concern to you individually?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I just don't understand the question.

CHAIR: And I'm sorry, Mr. Holzer, if you could repeat your question.

MR. HOLZER: Are there any, is, is there any testimony, documents from, presented by the Petitioners that cause you to question the, their, either their voracity or what their future intentions will be if this is approved?

CHAIR: Now that you've hear the question again, is there any objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. You can answer the question.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Can you take them one at a time and tell us what you're discussing first and whether there are any documents that we need to submit along with your testimony?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir. Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: The, there was testimony that there was an event held in July of 2017 that was a fundraiser. In fact, it was advertised and received as the first annual family fun day.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, I'm sorry to interrupt. I, I am going to object now that I'm hearing what he's talking about. If, trying to be consistent, I, we keep going back to these events which we can certainly argue whether they were proper or improper, or illegal or legal, but the point I think is the proposed special exception going forward and what happened in July 17th to be consistent, I, I'm just trying to avoid getting back as to whether that was a zoning violation and it sounds like where we're going.

CHAIR: Well, I would, I would put it like this. He is now providing, as I understand it, the proffer here, is to provide evidence that some of the way, some of the testimony evidence presented in Petitioner's case, the characterization may not be fully accurate, from his perspective. So, therefore, I don't believe it does go to a code violation or code enforcement matter. It goes, basically, as impeachment, I suppose, as to the testimony and evidence presented by Petitioner. And so, on that basis, I will overrule the objection.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: Now, he may, the, there may not be agreement as to Dr. Clark's perception or whatever. But you have a case in rebuttal still yet to come so.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Yes. Eighty-two?

MR. MCCOMAS: Eighty-one.

MR. HOLZER: Eighty-one?

MR. MCCOMAS: Oh, eighty-two, yeah, yeah, I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Eighty-two?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

CHAIR: Can you please identify Protestant's Exhibit 82?

MR. CLARK: Yes. It is a screenshot of, taken from Dr. Clarke's Facebook page. It was in his timeline from July 27, 2017 and it shows an advertisement for a first summer family fun festival. That they had characterized that event in testimony that it was a fundraiser. And they said this fund, these fundraisers will not be regular events.

MR. HOLZER: Do you recall who testified about the fund, that as being a fundraiser?

MR. CLARK: Mr. Ghimire, I believe.

MR. HOLZER: Ghimire. Okay. Thank you. Is that all you have to say about this?

MR. CLARK: That's it.

MR. HOLZER: I'd move to admit that document.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I would technically object.

CHAIR: And what is the basis for the objection? I don't need an, I don't need any argument, I just need to know the reason for it.

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe the witness indicated at the beginning of this line of testimony that this was being offered because the Petitioners were being untruthful about their plans. This doesn't say first annual summer --

CHAIR: If I could summarize for you, Mr. Schmidt, if I could summarize where you're going? You're going to suggest that the first summer family fun festival is equally consistent with a fundraiser or is not, or not being a fundraiser or something, somewhere in between.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, not only that, but it doesn't say this is the first in a series of annual events, which is what I thought the witness was going to.

CHAIR: So, I'm going to overrule the objection --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- because you're going to be able to put on rebuttal evidence if necessary.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: It is Dr. Clark's understanding that it is not a fundraiser.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: And so, if you believe that that is not the case, you will have an option of presenting evidence on that point.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you. And I, and, and maybe to avoid repetition, I'm just going to say, if I can, and I'll just note a continuing objection. I, I still can't, and I don't want to get into argument but a property owner can use their property for, for different things. There's nothing illegal about having a party at my house.

CHAIR: I believe --

MR. SCHMIDT: It doesn't make my house a catering hall.

CHAIR: I believe that that will be a matter that will be expressed --

MR. SCHMIDT: The memorandums, yes.

CHAIR: -- in, in full detail in your closing brief.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Can, can I --

CHAIR: No, there's no question pending.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Moving on. In terms of other errors or misrepresentations, what is next in terms of your documentation?

MR. CLARK: Well, Mr. Ghimire was adamant in his testimony that volleyball games did not occur on the property.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And certainly not on a regular basis and that they were, at best, pickup games during maintenance and yet we have a, a, I believe it's twenty-four instances between April 1st and June a volleyball, and then the --

CHAIR: Is that 2018?

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry?

CHAIR: April to June 2018?

MR. CLARK: Two thousand eighteen, yes, sir.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: And then, you know, of course we've got the now infamous solitude video that has already been played. And then we have some screenshots of a tournament that was held there.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Do you have volleyball dates and could you tell us how, how you did it? After I give you the documentation.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, thank you.

CHAIR: And this is eighty-three?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah.

CHAIR: Protestant's Exhibit 83.

MR. HOLZER: Now, after everybody has had an opportunity to look at this, Mr. Schmidt, can I go?

MR. SCHMIDT: I've, yes, sir, I've looked at it.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, I don't even know what it is but I've looked at it.

MR. HOLZER: Well, that's what I --

CHAIR: Well, I believe Mr. Holzer is about to get there.

MR. HOLZER: Right. Could you tell us, Mr. Clark, what this, what this document is, how it was constructed and how you can verify the dates or how you came to be able to list these dates?

MR. CLARK: Okay. What you're looking at is there's a function in windows that is called snippet, where you can take a picture of your computer screen. And so this is the folder, Bonaparte file history, Bonaparte audio rec center, okay? Where I had stored all of the movies I had recorded on different dates of them playing volleyball. These are very similar to the solitude movie where you don't see them but you hear them, all right? So, you, you've got the sound, you've got, you've got the traffic going by to verify that yes, this isn't a made up thing. And, and all that kind of stuff. And so what you're looking at are dates when volleyball games occurred.

CHAIR: Well, I'm going to jump in just to ask a question because it's going to, your answer will obviously affect what the questions coming forward from it. How were you able to determine that there were volleyball games being played on those dates?

MR. CLARK: By the sound.

CHAIR: Okay and you said by the sound, what makes it volleyball as opposed to some other activity?

MR. CLARK: Bump, bump, bump, yelling, screaming.

CHAIR: So, your perception is drawn from the bump, bump, bump and the yelling and screaming is that volleyball games were being played on these dates?

MR. CLARK: Correct. Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, would you have video of volleyball, other than what we've seen just prior, do you have any video of the volleyball games on these dates?

MR. CLARK: Of the players, no.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. CLARK: Because, because I didn't, yeah, I didn't trespass onto their property.

CHAIR: And I asked the question because it looks like this is in an audio folder, because it's labeled audio.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: So, these are all the, these were all the audio files?

MR. CLARK: No, they're movies so you can see that, in fact, I was, --

CHAIR: Right, to cap, you'll play the movie, you're not going to see volleyball?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIR: You will hear things that you say are indicia of volleyball?

MR. CLARK: That I, that, that I, that I represent as volleyball.

CHAIR: Sorry, I just want to clarify so we don't go down a road where we're going to start talking about the videos, I want to know what they, everything was ahead of time.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: And his perceptions.

MR. SCHMIDT: Based on the Chair's questions, I object.

CHAIR: We're, well, right now there's no question pending. I don't know what we're objecting to just quite yet so I'll, I'll, I'll --

MR. SCHMIDT: I object to the introduction of the exhibit.

CHAIR: He's explaining the exhibit. I don't know what we're using it for yet. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, would you finish your testimony in regard to what these, what this document reflects, how you developed it and how you can be sure that there was volleyball activity on the site at that time?

MR. CLARK: Pretty much what I, what I said. When, if you viewed the vid, and, and I believe most, if not all, of these are already in evidence in, on, in, in the library. But just like solitude, if you play it, to me it's self-evidence.

MR. HOLZER: No, but I think that the question was how do you know it wasn't, wasn't baseball or football but it was volleyball?

MR. CLARK: Okay. Well, --

MR. HOLZER: What makes the distinction?

MR. CLARK: All right. First, first of all, the, the, there, there, there is no baseball court up there or, or soccer field. They have testified that they can't play soccer because of, of the grade. The, the location of the volleyball court is directly across from my property. There is a berm behind the volleyball court which reflects all the sounds down onto my property. And it is that hard impact on the, hard, it is that impact on the hard surface that we, that we have seen in the videos. It is the cheering, it is there, there, there used to be, the, it's a, it's converted from an old tennis court, hard surface tennis court. We used to hear a lawyer of some repute playing tennis up there, missing the ball quite a bit, but, but we know the difference between tennis and volleyball. What else, I, I mean, that's --

MR. HOLZER: No, that's fine.

CHAIR: If, if those are the factors that form the basis for you to conclude that this was volleyball as opposed to another activity, that's fine.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: That's his, that was his question.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. So, I would now, and the number, I didn't count on this whole list there. How many --

CHAIR: And some of them have duplicative dates, so it may reflect the same event or not and --

MR. SCHMIDT: And times.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Dates and times.

MR. HOLZER: So, my, my question is, based on that list, based on the other date and the other analysis, how many times on different days do you believe volleyball was played in 2018?

MR. CLARK: I think I had counted twenty, twenty-four separate dates.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, okay and are you willing to live with that, those, that number?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: Mr. Clark, I, I just have a clarification because I, so is, you're saying volleyball dates here, so looking at this chart here, it implies that somebody was playing volleyball from 4:15 in the morning to 6:35 in the morning. Is that, --

CHAIR: Which line are you on?

MR. MCCOMAS: Number five, on May 6th. Is that, is that what you're asking us to, in terms of volleyball days?

MR. CLARK: That's probably the camera setting for the time.

CHAIR: Would the dates, to the best of your recollection and knowledge --

MR. CLARK: Yes, the, the --

CHAIR: -- be accurate, the times --

MR. CLARK: -- the dates, the dates, the dates would be accurate.

CHAIR: And the times you feel may not be?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I would offer Protestant's eighty-three.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: And the basis for your objection, please?

MR. SCHMIDT: The document is so inherently unreliable that it has no probative value. As the witness just indicated the dates, and I think as Mr. McComas indicated, the times certainly cannot be correct. I don't believe that on, I'd have to check the Almanac, but I do not believe that on May the 6th they would have been playing volleyball at 4:14 in the morning.

Additionally, these dates are dates of the camera setting and, and not necessarily the date or time of the event, or at least it hasn't been established with that.

And perhaps, also, I would indicate that the witness has indicated that he and, and this exhibit does not disclose any visual evidence of volleyball, just what his perception is and, and I guess I would say with the same objection, which I know we'll deal with in closing argument before the record. I'm still struggling with the fact that somehow people playing volleyball on their property is somehow illegal, immoral or unethical.

CHAIR: You know the argument to that, I'll say it'll be admitted, understanding, of course, the, what, you know, the testimony from Dr. Clark. As to whether or not it's volleyball, as to whether or not what times it occurred and all that stuff, I imagine you'll explore on cross examination, so.

MR. SCHMIDT: There's no way I can explore it. I, yes, sir. Yes, sir, I understand the Chair's ruling.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: And Mr. McComas, what's this number, I apologize?

CHAIR: This is eighty-three.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Eighty-three? Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: It'll be admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Now, there, there is another volleyball point which relates to the Belmont Volleyball Group. Could you explain what that is, when that occurred?

MR. CLARK: Yes. That was, that was November 4.

MR. SCHMIDT: Of what year?

MR. CLARK: Of 2018.

CHAIR: That's (inaudible) Protestant's eighty-one?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

MR. CLARK: And that --

MR. HOLZER: Do, do you want, we don't need to show that (inaudible) --

MR. CLARK: No, we don't, no, no, it's just that it rebuts testimony that there, there are no uses, you know, there's not, there's no regular volleyball up there permitted.

CHAIR: And Mr., Mr. Schmidt objected to that previously and we'll incorporate the same objection to the testimony as it relates to Protestant's Exhibit 81 just now.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Okay. There is another point of rebuttal.

MS. DOPKIN: Mr. Holzer, would you ask a question? Your witness is sort of rambling. If you would ask him about Belmont Volleyball?

MR. HOLZER: I was letting the question, the objection be finished before I asked the next question.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you. Thank you.

CHAIR: I think what Ms. Dopkin is suggesting is there was no question pending at that moment.

MR. HOLZER: I understand. I've tried to slap him on the wrist, but he doesn't realize the proper protocol, but he's learning.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you, I appreciate that.

MR. HOLZER: He's learning. Or trying to learn, let me put it that way. All right, where was I? Let me just address, have you address this last point. As I understand it, the reason why you and the last exhibit had to interpret what was going on was because you didn't trespass on their property, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Has that been an issue by the Petitioners that they told you not to get on their property?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I just don't know what the relevance of that could be.

MR. HOLZER: Well, it's because it goes to the argument that you had about the exhibit.

CHAIR: I will, I will put it like this. It was certainly understood why he would not be on the property.

MR. HOLZER: Right, okay.

CHAIR: In other words, any testimony about that point, is not going to shed any new light on anything else.

MR. HOLZER: Right, I understand.

CHAIR: And it is understood why he has the audio, for example, of the volleyball games and not a video of people playing volleyball. I call it volleyball games because that's how it's been labeled and identified.

MR. HOLZER: Sure. So, the, basically the only way that the community and you, as an individual, have to determine what's going on on the property is through presentations or videos initiated by the Petitioner themselves, is that correct?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. Isn't that the same question that you just sustained the objection?

CHAIR: No, he's, he's asking him for a framework as to why he's come to some of the conclusions he has, drawing largely upon videos that have been posted for some of these conclusions, is that, that's my understanding.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: So, overruled. You may answer the question.

MR. HOLZER: Can you answer it, Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: Can you ask it again?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Did you, since you have never trespassed on the property, is your only way of knowing what's going on is to view the videos posted by the Petitioners themselves?

MR. CLARK: There are other ways.

MR. HOLZER: What other ways?

MR. CLARK: Social media postings.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I'm sorry. Yeah, I, I lumped all that together.

MR. CLARK: Both on Nextdoor and on Facebook pages and it's, it's very difficult because, and, and I understand why, but a lot of the communication is in Nepali and there's not a good translation program for it. And, and in the, you know, as Mr., as Petitioner has pointed out, much of the audio of, of the videos are not useful because we don't know what they are saying, even though they are present in this room.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right. I just wanted to set the, the, the reason why a lot of these documents are not personal photos that you've taken on their property but are off of --

CHAIR: If it helps matters, at, at least from my perspective, it's well understood why they were not on the property.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And Dr. Clark has tried to do what he can with any other source --

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: -- with respect to the events and activities that are going on at the property.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Yeah, I, that's, that's all, because Mr. Schmidt keeps objecting to certain things and --

CHAIR: Hold, hold on, let's not comment on Mr. Schmidt's objections.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Now, could you, am I okay to ask?

CHAIR: As long as Mr. Schmidt has had the opportunity to review.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, I've reviewed the photographs, thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. MCCOMAS: And it's 84-A through D.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Now, could you tell us how you obtained these photographs and can you tell me what relationship does this have with the Belmont Volley Group, Volleyball Group?

MR. CLARK: Actually, this does not have to do with the Belmont Volleyball Group.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Why don't you identify for the record --

MR. HOLZER: Identify.

CHAIR: -- what 84-A through D is?

MR. CLARK: It is a, from a video that I believe we have introduced. And it is from July 23rd and --

CHAIR: Of what year?

MR. SCHMIDT: Of what year?

MR. CLARK: Of 2018, thank you. And it is showing an organized volleyball game on the property. And --

MR. HOLZER: How do you know it's organized?

MR. CLARK: When you go to the second page, you start to see a ceremony where people are being awarded medals and then at the very end, it looks like there is a trophy.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And its purpose, again, is to rebut testimony by Mr. Ghimire that there were no tournaments on the property.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. When, in Mr. Ghimire's testimony, did he indicate to the Board that there were, that they did not have tournaments at, on the site?

MR. CLARK: I believe so.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Holzer, are you moving 84-A through D --

CHAIR: Sorry, thank you. Thank you, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- into evidence?

MR. HOLZER: I'm going to move it when I'm ready to move it.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Well, let's just keep it for housekeeping purposes, is there a reason why you were holding off?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, because this is relative to it.

CHAIR: Okay, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. MCCOMAS: Eighty-five, one, two, three, four.

MR. HOLZER: Could you, after Mr. Schmidt's had a chance to look at it, this is eighty-four, is it?

CHAIR: Five.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, eighty-five.

MR. CLARK: Oh, --

CHAIR: Hold on. No question yet, no answer yet.

MR. MCCOMAS: We'll call it eight, 85-A through C.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: May I start?

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, you ready?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Can you identify this document and, and where you got it?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, again, this is from a Facebook post. You can see the url at top. And it belonged to someone named Hameed Nepali. And you can see again, the advertisement for first summer family fun day, you can see volleyball tournament clearly advertised, and then you can see Belmont Team A, Belmont Team B, Columbia Team A, Columbia Team B.

CHAIR: If I can jump in? We've already seen this exhibit before.

MR. HOLZER: I don't recall --

MR. CLARK: I don't think so.

CHAIR: I recall seeing those names for the teams.

MR. HOLZER: It was only page one.

CHAIR: Only page one, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, okay.

CHAIR: We already reviewed page one and that I recall seeing page one previously.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: I believe it's already in evidence.

MR. HOLZER: I, I am not sure, but --

CHAIR: But, Mr. Schmidt, do you have a recollection?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I believe we've seen it.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: Is it, do you recall if it's in evidence?

MR. SCHMIDT: I would have to look at my exhibit list, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: That's quite all right. It's fine. Please continue.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, thank you. And on page one, even if that page had been submitted, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Excuse me.

CHAIR: Bless you. Bless you.

MR. HOLZER: -- Mr. Clark, it does appear that it was July 29, 30 of 2017, is that right?

MR. CLARK: Yes, and --

MR. HOLZER: So it was a year before 2018, right?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and it does say volleyball tournament and at the bottom it appears to show --

CHAIR: Bless you.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: -- it appears to show at least nine different teams.

MR. CLARK: And it lists the address of the property and it says it's at the Hindu Buddha, Buddha Mandeer.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, page two has a discussion and some photos. But page,--

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And if you look at paragraph two.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: On page two?

MR. HOLZER: On page two.

MR. CLARK: This is a page from Kris Ghimire's timeline.

MR. HOLZER: And it appears to, in the second paragraph, describe how many attendees from across state line came to be part of this festival over two days. We had volleyball teams from New York, Pennsylvania, Columbia, Baltimore, New Jersey, Virginia. And then on page three, you can see a board which sort of lists the process of elimination of the teams from the various teams --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: -- that were listed.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: All right and what, what is the, what is your concern or why is this document being introduced?

MR. CLARK: Well, there, it, it rebuts two points in testimony. One is, again, there, there are not, there, there are no and have been no volleyball tournaments, okay? The second is, well, there's actually three points. But, but the second point is it rebuts the, the notion that this property is to just serve local needs. The third is it rebuts testimony that, that there have only been two or three hundred people in attendance on the property at any given time. And as you can see, this is Mr. Ghimire's own Facebook page.

MR. HOLZER: I would now offer the last two exhibits, because I do think they relate to each other.

CHAIR: They're tied together. Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: And basis?

MR. SCHMIDT: Same as I've voice previously.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Authentication, relevance, etcetera.

CHAIR: Overruled. It will be received.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Now, if I, if I may, hopefully we're finished with volleyball and we can go onto community events that have been held there. And again, this is just not to show that an event was held, it is, is it to rebut prior testimony of someone for the Petitioner?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And explain.

MR. CLARK: They have testified that they have only been there for maintenance and construction purposes and that they have not used the property for anything else other than what was billed as a fundraiser from July 29 to August 3rd, 2018. There are a list of events that we have that are documented by video and I believe most of them are in the record. The, go back and, and, and I, I understand, I do understand the problems with, with whatever exhibit this was.

The exhibit of my --

MR. SCHMIDT: It's been admitted though.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, but what I, I do understand the problems with that. But, --

CHAIR: I want to say eighty-three, (inaudible).

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, that's (inaudible).

CHAIR: Eighty-three.

MR. CLARK: In, in, we, in, in 2017, or actually I was referring to something else. All right. The, the, the --

CHAIR: Well, hold on. Let's do this. Mr. Holzer's question was --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, thank you.

CHAIR: -- what are you, what are you trying to rebut, or impeach --

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- right now with respect to the community events that have been held there?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: You identified certain testimony that you believe --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- illustrates some limitations as to how the property has been used.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: That's where we were --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- before we got sidetracked with some of the other points.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Do you understand the question?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I do, I got, I got sidetracked.

CHAIR: Yeah, so now let's go back to the, to Mr. Holzer's question.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Do you know who testified, can you name the, the, name of the Petitioner's side that testified?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I, I believe Mr. Ghimire testified that there was no other use for the property than maintenance and sprucing things up.

MR. HOLZER: And when you say property, do you mean thirty acres or do you mean the building or do you know what he meant?

MR. CLARK: I would assume it was everything.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, what do we have, what do you have to show that that is mistaken?

MR. CLARK: Okay. We dealt with this earlier as not appropriate for here, other than proffering. But on December 2017, I sent Mr. VanDomelin a series of pictures showing the Protestants exiting the, the property en masse at night and that's where that left hand turn nighttime shot came from. They had the open house in February. There was an event on April 30th that we, there was an event on June 10th, there was an event on June 19th, there was a Jul, event on July 4, there was an event on July 11th. I'm slowing down, I'm sorry. I realize I'm going very fast.

CHAIR: I have June 10, 19, July 4 and 11.

MR. CLARK: Right. There was an event on July 25, there was the event on October 6 and there was the event on November 4. And then they had scheduled an event for 4/19, 4/22/2018.

CHAIR: Hold on, 4/19 to 22.

MR. CLARK: Twenty eighteen.

CHAIR: Twenty eighteen.

MR. CLARK: That they canceled and we have a screenshot of that.

CHAIR: All right. So, the questions that were asked about the volleyball, that is, how you perceived it to be volleyball, I'm going to ask about the dates that you just identified because you referred to them as events.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Number one, what do you mean by event?

MR. CLARK: Where there were more than fifty people.

CHAIR: Okay and two, how did you perceive that there were more than fifty people at these, on these dates?

MR. CLARK: From videos.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: That they provided.

MR. HOLZER: Have they, have we seen those videos?

MR. CLARK: That I'm not sure of.

MR. HOLZER: Well, we don't want to repeat something if we've already --

MR. CLARK: Right, I, I get that, but we --

MR. HOLZER: Would these dates that you've just given the Board, would they be reflected on the video list or screen shots that you have of each one of them?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and they would also be reflected on, on the annotated sheet for the video control sheet.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Protestant's Exhibit 51.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Now, on Protestant's fifty-one --

CHAIR: Hold on. If we're going to, are we going to go through fifty-one in any detail right now?

MR. HOLZER: I hope not.

CHAIR: No, what I mean is, to follow along for all of us, should we have it in front of us?

MR. HOLZER: Well, let me, let me ask the witness.

I'll try to keep this simple.

CHAIR: Because I want to make sure that --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- we have the testimony clear.

MR. HOLZER: So, Mr. Clark, if all of these dates you gave the Board relate to a video of some shape or form, so are those videos in the videos that have been admitted into evidence? Do you know?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: They will be in the library.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: When you say library, you're referring to fifty-one?

MR. CLARK: No, I'm referring to that --

CHAIR: Or you're referring to the earlier hearing that we had on November 29th.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: The library is defined as the multiple, the video --

CHAIR: Four discs, whatever.

MR. HOLZER: -- which were submitted.

MR. CLARK: Well, and, and, and, and, and the appendices to it from the, where (inaudible) video.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, are you following along with that?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, I'm here.

CHAIR: I just want to make sure you're, you understood because I see you searching through your file looking for something. Are you following along?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right. Sorry, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Then, so, so these dates you've testified to, these dates are all in the library previously submitted and admitted in an earlier day, okay? Is there any, what's the matter?

MR. CLARK: Charlie horse, go ahead.

CHAIR: Okay. Do you want to take a five minute break?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. CLARK: Actually, for other reasons, that's probably good.

CHAIR: Okay. Why don't we take a ten minute break.

MR. HOLZER: Ten minute break, okay. Thank you.

CHAIR: All right. So, we'll be back here at --

(RECORDING PAUSED – 10:47:39 AM)

(ON RECORD – 11:00:31 AM)

MS. DOPKIN: Ready?

CHAIR: Please be seated. Thank you. I see Mr. Ghimire, I saw you come in earlier. There was a notice amending the time --

MR. SCHMIDT: He's received it.

CHAIR: Right. Thank you, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. HOLZER: How's your leg?

MR. CLARK: Walked it off, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Thank, thank you to the Board.

CHAIR: No problem.

MR. HOLZER: In regard to these multiple dates that, that you just gave the Board, instead of looking at any videos from them, we do have some screen pictures, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: I believe so, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. At this point, would you like me to present what we have to the Board?

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, do you want to say something?

MR. SCHMIDT: I just don't know that that's a proper question of a witness.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I'm trying to make this a lot faster --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yes?

CHAIR: I understood what you were doing.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: We don't need comment, I understand exactly what you're doing.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: So, the question is, why don't you just show him the photo and then we can just move on.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And then, --

MR. MCCOMAS: Mr. Clark, (inaudible) is how would you categorize those events?

MR. CLARK: Events. You know, --

MR. MCCOMAS: Do, or, is what the volleyball testimony, is that one of the events here?

MR. CLARK: No, that's not one of the events in here, other than the Belmont Volleyball Group on November 4. But the open house was an open house. They advertised it as an open house. And then the June 19th, July 4th, they, they advertised those as get togethers and events. July 11th, and we, we can document all that in the memorandum of law. I don't know that we need to --

CHAIR: No, I, I believe we have testimony about --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: -- (inaudible) --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: And if there's, and I'm sure you'll have cross examination and then there will be some argument, I anticipate, about some of it.

MR. CLARK: (inaudible).

CHAIR: So, all right.

MR. MCCOMAS: Eighty-six A through D.

MR. HOLZER: Can you relate Protestant's Exhibit 86--

CHAIR: Hold on, one second. Mr. Schmidt, we can hear you up here.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: And I understand you're trying to under, trying to make sense of 86-A through D. But we can hear you up here and it's --

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I apologize.

CHAIR: -- interfering with the questioning.

MR. HOLZER: All right. May I proceed?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. On this, Protestant's Exhibit 86, which has just been marked by Mr. McComas, what date does this refer to you in your list of dates that you --

MR. CLARK: July, July 4.

MR. HOLZER: July 4th.

MR. CLARK: Twenty eighteen.

MR. HOLZER: And to your knowledge, what does this depict? I mean, we can obviously see four or five pages, but just tell us what you believe it reflects?

CHAIR: For purposes of the record, I, what I have is A through D, so four.

MR. HOLZER: A through D, okay.

CHAIR: Just to make sure there's not an E, because you mentioned four to five pages.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry, A, A through D.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thanks.

MR. CLARK: Depicts a Fourth of July celebration by a group of people.

MR. HOLZER: Well, and what is that building in the background?

MR. CLARK: That's the, the mansion.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And that's on B.

MR. HOLZER: Is there, is there anything else in regard to the lighting, for instance? Was, was that one of your con, association's conditions?

MR. CLARK: Well, yeah. The, I mean, the, the, the, the use, the use of, of outdoor lighting.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Can I move on? And, and --

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: -- do you have anything else to say?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I, I, I, again, it goes to the testimony that the property is not being used for anything else other than.

CHAIR: Okay. You indicated that this is going to speak to the lighting condition that you discussed?

MR. CLARK: Well, we can strike that.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. CLARK: We, but we can strike it.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Schmidt, any objection to 86-A through D?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. For all the grounds that I've been asserting, not to be repetitious and these exhibits, I, I just don't know how one would say that these exhibits reflect the use of the property with, with a group of people.

CHAIR: If, if I can?

MR. SCHMIDT: Eighty-six, if I can just be heard, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: If your objection is relevance, I'm asking you for --

MR. SCHMIDT: No, now I'm --

CHAIR: -- what the ground for your, your objection is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, one of the grounds of my objection is relevance, yes. And whether any of it is relevant. But the, the purpose of the exhibit, as it has been explained to, by the witness, is to show a gathering of people on the property. It --

CHAIR: Please don't gesture, Dr. Clark.

MR. CLARK: Oh, sorry, sorry, sorry, sorry.

CHAIR: Please.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's what I understand the purpose of the exhibit is. And so, and I'll try to articulate this, Mr. Garber, as best as I can --

CHAIR: I understand you disagree with, as to the characterization by this witness.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, but how, I just, I don't mean to ask the rhetorical question but how does a picture of a single person with a dark background, how, how does one get from that picture, that this is evidence of a gathering on the property? So, it's, it's beyond relevance. It's, it's a picture of Dr. Clarke. This could have been taken at his house, this could have been taken anywhere.

CHAIR: Okay. If I could --

MR. SCHMIDT: And it's, so it's beyond relevance.

CHAIR: -- if I could answer your question, if I could answer your question as to that. I don't know what relevance 86-A has. B, C and D have been, I believe, Dr. Clark has testified as to what he believes the relevance to be. If there is a, a, an argument as to his perception or his conclusions drawn, those are matters for cross examination and argument. So, other than relevance, what I'm hearing, the other matters that you raised can be addressed elsewhere. On the grounds of relevance, I understand the relevance as being proffered by Dr. Clark, therefore, they'll be admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And the objection overruled.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you for allowing me to address the Board.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Sure. This is eighty-seven?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

CHAIR: We have eighty-seven and there are three pages.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible).

CHAIR: Thank you. Mr. Schmidt, you ready to proceed?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I've reviewed the documents.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Mr. Clark, could you tell us what Protestant's Exhibit 87 relates to in terms of the community events that you have given the prior list?

MR. CLARK: It is an open house. The video itself has been removed, but you can see the url in the scroll bar and on the last page, you can see the same url with sorry, this content isn't available.

CHAIR: Do you have the date?

MR. CLARK: The date of --

CHAIR: Dates, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Date, yes.

MR. CLARK: The, the date of, of the picture?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, no, I tried to authenticate it, I tried to go back and that's when I ran into this content isn't available.

CHAIR: We'll note it just says last Sunday where you expect to find a date.

MR. CLARK: Right, right, right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and so, so you cannot, other than open house ceremony, you cannot give it one of the dates that you list to the Board earlier?

MR. CLARK: No, no.

MR. HOLZER: All right. What does it depict in terms of your, your impeachment of any prior testimony?

MR. CLARK: Again, it is, I don't see any maintenance going on, I don't see any work being done on the, on the building. So, the testimony that the only thing being done on the property is, is work, I would question that.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: And I'm sorry if I didn't catch this, but the third page reflects what you would see now if you entered in the same url as --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: -- pages A and B?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: All right. Mr. Holzer, any other questions?

MR. HOLZER: In terms of the lighting on, I assume that's the building on the subject site, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: The (inaudible) house?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, okay. And the lighting, and for purposes of this particular picture, seems to show a number of people standing on the front lawn.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I would move that, eighty-seven.

CHAIR: Eighty-seven A through C, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: Same grounds as previous?

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, not only that and I, I apologize, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: That's okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm, I'm just trying to preserve the record in this case.

CHAIR: It's understandable, no need to apologize.

MR. SCHMIDT: And since the witness has admitted, or acknowledged, that there is no date of this photograph, this photograph arguable could have been taken prior to my client's ownership of the property. I mean, quite frankly, we don't know when it was taken.

CHAIR: I, I, sorry --

MR. SCHMIDT: And so, I'm not quite sure, since the purpose of the photograph is to impeach, as I understand it, testimony that members of, of the Nepali organization, Nepali Community Center of Baltimore, have illegally or unethically or improperly, or whatever the characterization is, used the property and we don't know when this photograph was taken, how do we know that these people are associated with, with my client and how do we know that they used the property at a time after they acquired it? There's no foundation for the document. Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, that's fine. It'll be received and admitted into evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Understanding that you will be able to cross examine and understanding, of course, the, whatever frailties that you point out would, of course, go to the weight or the significance of the particular exhibit.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Eighty-eight, right?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, eighty-eight (inaudible).

CHAIR: Okay. We've been handed Protestant's Exhibit

88, two pages.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt has it, copies I see.

MR. HOLZER: The witness has a copy.

CHAIR: Please identify Protestant's Exhibit 88.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Is a screenshot from the video of July 11th. And it shows the, it, it shows, I believe it was a promo, this, I believe this is from the promo of July 11th and it shows how many people, it, it shows the property being used for things other than maintenance or caretaking, which again, rebuts testimony.

MR. HOLZER: It'll, does it show the, on the first page, the purpose of that picture, is it for parking, parking on the grass, etcetera?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Second picture is an effort, I guess, and again, I am assuming the building in sight is the building that's the original home and it shows the number of people on the lawn, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes, and it shows the building in its current colors.

MR. HOLZER: What are the current colors?

MR. CLARK: A, a yellow with, with orange detailing.

MR. HOLZER: Was that the original color of the --

MR. CLARK: No, no, and a, and it shows the windows not boarded up, all right?

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It shows the building rehabilitated.

MR. HOLZER: So, would that show on the previous Exhibit 87, because the color of the building in that picture is the same, it would have had to have been under the Petitioner's --

MR. CLARK: I, I believe, I believe a reasonable person could date that picture from --

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Any other questions that, any other comments you would have on Protestant's eighty-eight? I think you've articulated --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I would offer them.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Same objection. And I just don't, Mr. Garber, maybe to save the Board time as we go through all these various exhibits, I'll just note a continuing objection and that way you don't, I don't need to bore the Board with my ramblings.

CHAIR: Not bored. I would just say, I would prefer if you just incorporate the prior objections for exhibit --

MR. SCHMIDT: Then I will do that.

CHAIR: -- because I don't know what's coming next and I don't know if there will be differences. So there may be something that you're going to want to do differently, so I would prefer if we just, you can say I incorporate my prior objections and we can move on.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: I think that's fair.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: I accept any objection he has.

CHAIR: So, this will be admitted, that is eighty-eight.

MR. HOLZER: All right. I understand the tedious nature of what's, this has been going on.

CHAIR: It's quite all right.

MR. HOLZER: I think I may have given the Board.

CHAIR: Here is an extra copy of eighty-eight. I had two (inaudible) and there's already enough for the Board. So, this is eighty-nine, and I'll give you back the two extra copies.

MR. HOLZER: And --

CHAIR: Wait one second. Mr. Schmidt is trying --

MR. HOLZER: -- oh, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: -- to make heads or tails of it. Thank you. You ready?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes, sir, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: No, it's quite, nothing to apologize for. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Are, can you identify this, this picture?

MR. CLARK: Yes, this is from a promotional film ad, advertising an April 19 to 22, 2018 event. Again, this is the, the video itself is in evidence.

MR. HOLZER: And is this the one that you'd previous, previously said you believe was canceled?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Just to clarify to, the testimony was it was in 2018, April 19th through 22nd.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: It is not reflected upon Protestant's Exhibit 89 what year.

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Twenty eighteen.

MR. CLARK: Twenty-eighteen.

CHAIR: Yes. It ties back to that testimony?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Um hm.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Same objection, doesn't show the year and just, quote honestly, I don't know what, I don't know what it shows but don't know that it has any probative value. But,

objection.

CHAIR: I, understood. It will be admitted and again, the weight of it will be given its due amount.

MR. HOLZER: I think this is the last one for this pile.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, do you want an extra copy back or no?

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

CHAIR: Sorry, I was trying to catch you before you sat down.

MR. HOLZER: That's okay. Thank you.

CHAIR: Sure thing.

MR. HOLZER: This is ninety?

CHAIR: Yes. And so, Mr., Dr. Clark, please identify what exhibit, Protestant's Exhibit 90 is?

MR. CLARK: Protestant's Exhibit 90 shows, is a screenshot from, is a photo taken from Dr. Clarke's Facebook page, which has since been removed. It shows the kitchen of, of, of the building. Those urns you see, you can see being used in a video that's in evidence and it goes back to the testimony by Mr. Ghimire that, it goes back to that whole thing about the, the, the, the temple gate being open and closed and all --

MR. HOLZER: What about the use of the kitchen?

MR. CLARK: Well, and that there was no use of the kitchen.

MR. HOLZER: And you say this, this has been removed from online?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, yes. The last time I checked, it was missing.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: As a matter of fact, almost everything from 2018 was removed.

MR. HOLZER: Do you, do you remember the date of this, because you have on, in your original testimony to the Board, July 28 through August the 3rd.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Is this during that time frame?

MR. CLARK: It is. It was, and, and as I said, you can see these, these urns being used in an opening day ceremony.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I would move that document too.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. To, to, maybe just for clarification, Mr. Clark, when you say being used?

CHAIR: I think it's a fair question, just to figure out what he means by the word used. Do you want him to do that now?

MR. SCHMIDT: What, what do you mean, what, what do you mean being, being used?

MR. CLARK: Well, first of all, they had testified the building would not be opened during the event, that the building would not be used.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm, I'm sorry, sir. But I'm just trying to ask you one direct question and if, when you said the urn --

CHAIR: Well, this is not cross examination. He just wants to get to the point of --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I don't have anything further.

CHAIR: -- hold on, what do you mean by the word used?

MR. CLARK: It's pretty self-evident. There are people in the kitchen.

CHAIR: So, any use at all?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: I have no further questions on that point.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Now, we, we want to go to potential future uses because I, I gather that because the community association, in its testimony in terms of possible conditions that they would agree to or suggest that the Board incorporate in any decision, you, there is some testimony by you as an individual as to future uses. Can we, can we address those?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Go ahead, please.

MR. CLARK: Well, --

CHAIR: I'm sorry, to, to clarify, as an individual or for the association?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, sir, as an individual.

MR. HOLZER: As individual.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: But it'll, as, as you know, it'll relate to the association as well.

CHAIR: Well, that's why I want to clarify, that I understand what the testimony that's --

MR. CLARK: Well, yeah.

CHAIR: -- what, hold on. The testimony to come on whose behalf it's being offered.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Whose behalf is it being offered? Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: No, no, it's being offered on mine. I, I'm just processing Mr. Garber's --

CHAIR: Mine, individually?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, mine, mine individually, but I'm just processing Mr. Garber's, I, I, I understand what your concern is. I think a lot of it has already been covered in,

in, in the testimony that I offered for --

CHAIR: The association?

MR. CLARK: -- the association. And I promised I wouldn't go back and deal with it again.

CHAIR: So, there was testimony regarding conditions and other such concerns for future use.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: During the course of your testimony for the association.

MR. HOLZER: Let, let me try to articulate them and he can either, and you can either say --

CHAIR: That's all right, that's fine. I prefer that you --

MR. HOLZER: -- we don't have to get into it --

CHAIR: -- I prefer that you do it. I'm just trying to figure out what he's saying.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Mr. Clark, is there any reason to go over the number of, of events and the number of people?

MR. CLARK: No, we already covered that.

MR. HOLZER: Is there any reason to go over the yoga classes?

MR. CLARK: That, I believe, is in Protestant's Exhibit 25.

MR. HOLZER: Already an exhibit?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, there's no reason to go over that?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Is there any reason to go over language classes?

MR. CLARK: That, I believe, in Protestant's Exhibit 25.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. What about the hall for rentals?

MR. CLARK: That refers to the barn. I believe that's in Exhibit 44. I don't know if we have the actual Facebook posts where Dr. Clarke talks about that in the barn.

MR. HOLZER: All right. But what is, what is your personal, individual desire in regard to --

MR. CLARK: Well, the barn is not too far from me. And Dr. Clarke has stated he would like to see it turned into a venue for a thousand people.

CHAIR: I remember this testimony, I remember the Facebook posts, I remember Mr. Schmidt's objections to that, that testimony, whatever that may be, is what you're incorporating right now?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

MR. HOLZER: And I'm looking at Protestant's Exhibit 44 and that's what it was, the barn use issue. So, there's no reason to go back into that.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. HOLZER: Kitchen, the soup kitchen and visitors. We've already seen some of your photos.

MR. CLARK: Well, and, and that was, that, that was dealt with in our asks.

CHAIR: In your --

MR. CLARK: For the Board asks.

MR. HOLZER: Requests?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Possible conditions, is that right?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes.

MR. HOLZER: You have to use a proper word.

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: And it was in Protestant's Exhibit 25. I'm looking at it. Okay. Regional and international advertising.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, we have a, a, a slick from, I'm sorry, you know, a promotional slick from 2016.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I think it's like four pages.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: That denotes intent.

MR. HOLZER: And, and what is the relevance of that? I have it, I can submit it, but before I do, what is the significance of that in relationship to your personal testimony?

MR. CLARK: There has been testimony that they intend to do nothing but have a house of worship there.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and I'll then take this document.

CHAIR: Inevitably, the question is going to come up where did you obtain this document?

MR. CLARK: I obtained it from the internet.

CHAIR: Where particularly?

MR. CLARK: I, let, let me see it and, and see if --

MR. HOLZER: Excuse me.

CHAIR: Very well. No, it's fine. I already know the --

MR. CLARK: No, I, I, I get it. I, I, I get it. Yeah.

CHAIR: -- question that will come up, so. Thank you. Ninety-one.

MR. HOLZER: And this would be number?

CHAIR: Ninety-one.

MR. MCCOMAS: Ninety-one.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: All right. I --

CHAIR: Hold on, one second, sir.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: We're waiting for Mr. Schmidt to review.

Before you start, Mr. Holzer, there's one point of clarification. I understood you said that this is from 2016. The only date I see on Exhibit 91 is October of 2014.

MR. CLARK: Right, right, right. But I, I wouldn't have obtained it before, be, before we actually got interested in this issue.

CHAIR: So, it was still available at whatever time that you became available or became interested in this issue.

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Now, now before, I honestly can't remember where I got it, when I got it, all that kind of stuff.

CHAIR: All right. Mr. Holzer, you want to ask questions?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. If you cannot remember where you got a copy of this, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend any Nepali events where they handed this thing out?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. HOLZER: Did you see it online?

MR. CLARK: I saw it online.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and when you saw it online, did you try to make a, a paper copy of what was online?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I did.

MR. HOLZER: And is that where this would have come from?

MR. CLARK: Yes, it is.

MR. HOLZER: All right. And in, in, in looking at this document, I, I just want to ask you about, and, and I'm not interested in the list of donors and the money. That's really not what I'm --

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: -- I'm interested in. But on page three, the introduction at the top of the page, Nepali in Baltimore Metro, if you look at the second paragraph, okay?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. HOLZER: it says through many community meetings, teams have been formed to further plan and initiate the building of a community center.

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. HOLZER: Is that what brought your attention to this document to begin with?

MR. CLARK: That and the, the second bullet, what are our options, buy or build?

MR. HOLZER: Okay and, and in terms of, in terms of that, what relevance does that have in relationship to the request for the special exception?

MR. CLARK: Well, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. If I may be heard?

CHAIR: Okay, hold on. Hold on. Yes, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: When Mr. Holzer has now asked what does it have --

MR. HOLZER: I'll withdraw the question. I'll withdraw the question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection anyway. If I could be heard?

CHAIR: Well, the question has been withdrawn.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: I would now offer this document.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: Sorry.

MR. SCHMIDT: The witness has indicated that he doesn't know where he got this and doesn't know how he got it, my words, not his.

CHAIR: We recall the testimony of him.

MR. SCHMIDT: So there is no foundation to this document to be evidence, even under, in my view, the relaxed administrative rules of evidence before an administrative body such as the Board of Appeals. But perhaps as importantly, this is a publication, at least if we take the document to be self-authentic, authenticating of the Baltimore Nepalese Community Center. That is not the Petitioner in this case. The Petitioner in this case is the --

CHAIR: Right, Nepali American Cultural Center of

Baltimore, Inc.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Nepali American Cultural Center of Baltimore. This would be as if you had a publication from Burger King and you have a McDonald's case before you. It's a different entity. So, how there could be any relevance to what another organization, which is not the Petitioner, may or may not publish, I do not believe it would be appropriate evidence. Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Take a look at the list of donors --

CHAIR: Please stand up to object, to address.

MR. HOLZER: I'm, I apologize. Take a look at the list of the donors. Many on the list of donors (inaudible) --

CHAIR: Okay. Thank you for bringing that up. I will say that there is indicia that this is, this document, Exhibit 91, has some relationship to this case. It's a Petitioner, though actually not the Petitioners, it is understood. It is understood it was created at a time before the Petitioner's organization was even formed, is a document that was created before the property was even on the market.

As it may reflect an intent by some to find a place for a community center for the Nepalese community. But realistically speaking, there's evidence in this case already that there was a desire to have a religious temple and community center and from others, it has whittled down to a religious temple and that is the subject matter of the Petition, therefore, October 2014 the intent reflected within whether (inaudible) sixteen or not, I, I do believe is too attenuated. The purpose for the, its inclusion is already covered by the record. Therefore, I will sustain Mr. Schmidt's objection.

MR. HOLZER: I would like to put on the record, for purposes of my taking exception to that, is that the individuals are clearly, are listed in this document, number one. Number --

CHAIR: And I will, and I echoed that, that is, I echo what you're saying. That it, there, my, my comment about there is indicia that there is a relationship to Petitioner is derived from that list.

MR. HOLZER: Number two, number two, I believe you're in error in regard to the timing, in regard to, of this particular piece of property and when this occurred and how this occurred. So, I would just take exception. I will, I will put it under the heading of proffering and we will take it further.

CHAIR: Well, Mr. Holzer, if you believe that there's an error as to the timeline, what has been established by the testimony is what I, what my understanding is is already reflected in the ruling. If there, if that's an error please, you may ask the questions of this witness. And if that clarifies the points, perhaps then there's another approach to this. But my understanding is, based on the date of October 2014, that's when this document was created and that Dr. Clark downloaded it or somehow obtained it in 2016 but that's what the testimony and evidence thus far establishes.

MR. HOLZER: In 2014, was the property on the market? Do you know?

MR. CLARK: I don't know, I never paid attention to it.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Just leave it marked as a proffer.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, ninety-one is i.d. only?

CHAIR: I.d. only.

MR. HOLZER: Pardon?

CHAIR: I.d. only.

MR. HOLZER: I.d. only, yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: You use proffer, I use i.d. only.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yeah.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: That's fine, thank you.

CHAIR: And, and, and the Board is interpreting, when you say proffer as i.d. only.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, um hm.

CHAIR: So any references to the same can be read as

that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. HOLZER: For future reference.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Now, do you have any of consistent with what we've been talking about over the last few, number of minutes, relative to reasons to question the Petitioners' voracity, so to speak, that relates to regard for common safety?

MR. SCHMIDT: For what? For compensation?

MR. HOLZER: Common safety.

MR. SCHMIDT: Common safety.

MR. CLARK: I'm trying to respect Mr. Garber's, without killing my opportunity to be heard, it's a dance.

CHAIR: I would just, I would, all I can say is please answer Mr. Holzer's question and we'll see where that takes us.

MR. CLARK: All right. Yes.

MR. HOLZER: I was going to tell him, just say yes and then you can go into the, --

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: -- next analysis.

CHAIR: Well, what's the, so what's the follow-up question then for him?

MR. HOLZER: The follow-up question is then what concerns have not, have already been raised on behalf of the community association that you as an individual want to raise that may differ from the community association's point of view? And is there anything you need to establish or show in regard to that? Do you understand my question?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, no, I do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I do and, and maybe I'm overthinking a lot of stuff, I don't know. But anyway, the, the, the, the Zeller communication about the property should not be in use, however, you know, lack, that's a lack of regard for common safety. You know, because there are no sight, there, there are no safe sight lines for that entrance.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, just to, I want to just clarify. You're incorporating your prior testimony under the association on that point as to you as an individual?

MR. CLARK: And, and the other, and, and we also introduced Zeller somewhere else and --

CHAIR: Yes, I understand.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and --

CHAIR: Do, do I understand your testimony correctly as an individual that it will be consistent or coextensive with what you previously testified as the association?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

CHAIR: On the point of safety?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Was that what you were trying to get at, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Now, is that, is, when you say safety, does that talk about the doors were opening in the wrong way, overcrowding, fire extinguishers, etcetera? I don't want to waste time going into all of that if it's already been covered with the, on behalf of the association.

MR. CLARK: Yes, but, --

MR. HOLZER: Explain the but.

MR. CLARK: Going back to safety at the entrance, all right? There's been no police support for those events and the reason that there has been no police support is because I have an e-mail from the precinct saying that if SHA has not approved the, the, the entrance, they will not be providing police support, okay?

MR. HOLZER: Now, in other, in other words --

CHAIR: I'm sorry, just so, just to clarify one point before you get to the next question. You said these events. By these events were those the ones that you specifically identified by date?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and I think particularly this one, this refers, I had been in contact with them for a ---

CHAIR: I'm just trying to clarify what you meant by these.

MR. CLARK: This, this probably refers specifically to the July 29, August 3rd event.

CHAIR: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Which precinct?

MR. CLARK: Precinct 8. Captain Martin, Lieutenant Franzoni, Officer Gorbitz.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: And I'm handing a document, which --

MR. CLARK: Parkville Precinct.

MR. HOLZER: -- to the witness, or to Mr. Schmidt, also to the Board, also to the witness.

CHAIR: Ninety-two? I'll note that perhaps one or more of the e-mails attached in Exhibit 92 have already been either put into evidence or at least proffered into evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I'm not sure, I'm not sure that what's in evidence is the complete follow-up from the witness to the police department and back. And in looking at the July 6th, 2018, to Mr. Clark from the Baltimore County Police Department declining the request for traffic control.

CHAIR: Well, right. What I was referring to were the Zeller e-mail chain.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, we had those, yes.

CHAIR: That's, that is contained within this exhibit. That was just to identify --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, that's at the bottom of the exhibit.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: But what you don't have, didn't have in that is the top two pages (inaudible).

CHAIR: Yes, good. Mr. Schmidt, did you follow that?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I did, but it sounds incomplete and, and --

CHAIR: We'll get to the objections. I'm just making sure you understand --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- where we are with this. We haven't laid the foundation yet. I'm not saying you can't object. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Mr. Clark, what does this document, which is marked as --

CHAIR: Ninety-two.

MR. HOLZER: -- as Protestant's ninety-two, what does this document, how did it get started and what was the final result? If you could lead us through that, briefly.

MR. CLARK: It was, it was all related to when I was trying to get somebody from the County to pay attention to what was going on.

MR. HOLZER: What do you mean? What do you mean?

MR. CLARK: Well, the large scale events with, with,

with no, in this particular case, at an unsafe entrance with, at an unimproved, all right? SHA does, does call a commercial access and at a, at a, and it had changed from a residential access --

CHAIR: Hold on, I'm going to stop you there.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: The question is, what did, what are these, what is this exhibit?

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: My understanding is it shows e-mails.

MR. CLARK: Right, it shows, it shows --

CHAIR: And you, you are thehistorictimekeeperss@gmail.com?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

CHAIR: And you are sending and receiving e-mails in connection with what you just testified to.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, thank you.

CHAIR: As to what the e-mails say, they say what they say. Mr. Holzer, was that what you were trying to get at? Was that what you were trying to get at?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: For identification?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Now, I understand, Mr. Schmidt, you had something to say. Now, that we've id, what, what it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I don't, I understood the witness to say this is not the full chain of e-mails. I thought I heard him say that at the beginning. Maybe I misunderstood.

CHAIR: Well, I'm going to, I'm going to take it one step back. You objected yesterday to the introduction of e-mails or documents relating to matters that could be something for code enforcement or --

MR. SCHMIDT: Which, which is --

CHAIR: -- why code enforcement did or did not do its job. There was a ruling yesterday already on that. Is, does this speak to an impeachment or rebuttal type of aspect that, that otherwise differs this chain of e-mails, whatever it may be, whether complete or not yet, to, is there a reason to treat this differently than how we treated the ones from yesterday?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: And what is that?

MR. HOLZER: It's, it's a, the Zeller comments are not relevant to whether or not the Baltimore County Police Department would provide support in terms of an event on traffic on Harford Road. And that's what this shows.

CHAIR: I'll do you one better. The Zeller stuff is already in.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay. But the remainder of the stuff it went to, whether or not more should have been done by the County is out.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, if that's the purpose for this, then ninety-two should be out, as I understand it. But I'm giving you the opportunity to identify for me what the difference is between this document and those ruled upon yesterday with respect to what code enforcement should have done or paid more attention to, to Mr. Clark's complaints.

MR. HOLZER: It has nothing to do with Baltimore County code enforcement or Baltimore County government. It has to do with the unavailability of police to protect the neighborhood and the community on Harford Road when there's an event coming. And I have, that's, that's never been discussed up until this point.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, I appreciate you asking Mr. Holzer to, in effect, rehabilitate his witness but --

CHAIR: It was more of a proffer.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- but Mr. Clark said this was all as a result of me trying to get code enforcement action. He just said that. I, I heard him say that. I mean, not only that, there were police there at this event. I mean, --

CHAIR: Well, that's a matter for cross examination and rebuttal.

MR. SCHMIDT: But the, that doesn't mean even if it's time for cross examination or rebuttal that you can submit an exhibit and mischaracterize what it's saying and what the purpose of it is and submit an incomplete exhibit that's not full.

CHAIR: Hold on. Those are two different objections. As to the completeness, we haven't discussed that. As to the first, I was asking Mr. Holzer what the proffered purpose of this document is. I'm still not quite --

MR. SCHMIDT: The witness said --

CHAIR: Hold on, Mr. Schmidt. It's still not fully clear to me what the purpose is, other than to show that police were not at, made available for a particular event.

MR. SCHMIDT: But they were there.

CHAIR: Okay. So, Mr. Schmidt, I imagine you'll be addressing that on cross examination or rebuttal. Whatever Mr. Clark, whatever his perception was as to the police presence may be right, may be not right, may be somewhere in between. I am confident your ability to try to figure out and get to the bottom of that. So, on that basis, I will overrule that objection now that I understand it's not directly related to code enforcement.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, right.

CHAIR: As to completeness, you have another argument.

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe it's not a comp, it's not the complete train of e-mails is what I believe I thought I heard. Maybe I misheard that.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, would you please clarify that?

MR. HOLZER: I'll ask the witness.

CHAIR: That's why, yes.

MR. HOLZER: If I can.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Since I'm not testifying, --

MR. CLARK: I --

CHAIR: No, there is no question pending.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, you've heard the question and the objection. Is this the full extent of the e-mails that relate to the police department of Baltimore County having nothing to do with code enforcement or Mr. Zeller?

MR. CLARK: Correct. I apologize for --

CHAIR: The answer is yes.

MR. CLARK: All right. The answer is yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Thank you. So, on that basis, that objection will be overruled.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: And you're, you're offering ninety-two?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

CHAIR: Ninety-two is admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Going back to where we were in regard to the safety in buildings, the safety at events. I want to very carefully have you review your notes, --

MR. CLARK: Sir, --

MR. HOLZER: -- so that we're not wasting time on something that has already been discussed. With that understanding, take a look at comments in regard to safety at, at, at events because I believe some of this is already been raised or discussed.

CHAIR: I can confirm that.

MR. CLARK: And I agree.

MR. HOLZER: Can you tell us what has not been raised or not discussed or that you have a different testimony, not that of the association?

MR. CLARK: I believe, no.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So we can get past that.

CHAIR: I understood that question to be rhetorical. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Now, we're getting into another area of what you choose to call misrepresentation of facts. Could, and, and one category under that is the County. Do you, do you understand what I'm asking you?

MR. CLARK: I, I know, we're going into --

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, if it has anything to do with code enforcement, with the County dealing with something prior to this hearing, I want you to skip it. But if it has anything to do with the, the Petitioner's testimony then please feel free to address it. If it differs from what you've already said on behalf of the community.

MR. CLARK: Okay. The only one on there.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Again, this goes to voracity.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay? It would be the Archia sign permit, okay? He promised the County --

CHAIR: Hold on, make sure, pay attention to Mr. Holder's question. This testimony that I'm, that we're about to here is different from you as an individual than the association that we've already discussed?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I, I believe so.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. CLARK: I believe so.

CHAIR: And you mentioned sign permit or the signage issue. What is it that you believe the, what was misrepresented --

MR. CLARK: I believe he misrepresented to the County the sign that they intended to put up. He presented to the County --

CHAIR: I'm going to stop you there. This is getting into more of a code enforcement matter because that matter is not in front of us today. We didn't hear testimony from Mr. Archia as to the sign, from what I recall. So, I, I'm straining to figure out where we're going with this as it relates to testimony that we've heard that relates to the way the property is being used, whatever, whatever is represented in the sign petition is not in front of us.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Can I, --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, do you want to ask a question to follow-up on that point?

MR. HOLZER: No.

MR. CLARK: Okay. That settled that.

MR. HOLZER: No. And I'm looking at another comment that, I don't believe is appropriate to ask this Board since it occurred at another location, another venue, which is the ALJ. Okay.

MR. CLARK: We actually covered a lot --

CHAIR: Sir, there's no question pending, please.

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: I'm, I'm looking where facts were presented to the, to this Board, I don't care about anyplace else, but to this Board. Are there areas that you would like to discuss about facts presented to this Board that are not covered by the community association comments? But these would be your personal comments.

CHAIR: Or his other testimony --

MR. HOLZER: Exactly.

CHAIR: -- as an individual throughout his time on the stand.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Here.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, correct.

MR. CLARK: Yes. The answer is yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Could you tell us what area you are answering yes to?

MR. CLARK: In testimony, Mr. Ghimire asserted he had nothing to do with the, and he had no knowledge of the event held at St. John's Church on January 28, 29. We have evidence of --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: I, I anticipated this --

MR. HOLZER: Wait a minute.

CHAIR: -- objection from Mr. Schmidt.

MR. HOLZER: If that relates to the police reports, then it --

CHAIR: It does.

MR. HOLZER: -- is not permitted.

CHAIR: I will note, and I noted this yesterday during the course of the ruling, that Mr. Ghimire did give testimony that would indicate that at first he may have had some role and then he didn't have some role.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: And then when asked questions directly, that he, neither he nor the organization, the Petitioner that is, had any, any sponsorship, leadership or management role in connection with those events. I then understand that Mr. Holzer, as part of that, produced something that showed Ghimire Homes. There is no evidence in the record whatsoever that establishes Ghimire Homes as any connection to Mr. Ghimire. On that basis, I will sustain what I anticipate, I guess, was Mr. Schmidt's objection, so.

MR. HOLZER: You did a lot and I had already said --

CHAIR: What's that?

MR. HOLZER: I'd already said it wasn't appropriate.

CHAIR: I understand. I've been trying to, I'm trying to address what Mr. Schmidt was about to say. I cut him off so we don't have to have extended argument on the point.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Mr. Clark, I, I know a lot of this is confusing in terms of what you want to present, but again, I must ask you to look at what you want to testify. If it relates to the police reports, you cannot because the Board has ruled.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: If it relates to testimony that you've already given you cannot.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: If it relates to testimony that you gave on behalf of the community association you cannot, unless it differs from what the community association position was, okay? So, the question is, is there anything else in relationship to any of the areas of issue that have been discussed, that you need to address subject to those conditions?

MR. CLARK: I, I guess the, the issue of testifying, the, the, the, the testimony of Petitioner, that events will be, that, that they plan to have events held at the new community center.

MR. HOLZER: What new community center?

MR. CLARK: The community center at Taylor Ave. I believe Mr. Ghimire referenced that in particular.

CHAIR: Okay. What about that testimony do you wish to address?

MR. CLARK: I wish, and we started to enter it and then there were problems with the, the documentation.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: But that it simply doesn't have the capacity for the kind of crowd --

CHAIR: I, Mr. Holzer, I seem to recall there was an objection by Mr. Schmidt because that property is not subject of this proceeding or the Petition. So, if there's an occupancy or any type of other issue that may exist at that community center and its capacity to hold whatever amount of events, I seem to recall that there were objections sustained on these points because it is not, it is not, it does not concern the subject property.

MR. HOLZER: Fine. And so, I want to proffer.

CHAIR: Well, I mean, I, I mean, --

MR. HOLZER: I want to proffer this document.

CHAIR: Hold on. Is that your understanding? Let's start with that.

MR. HOLZER: No, but it's your understanding so I'll abide by it and under the circumstances, instead of wasting this Board's time and everybody else's, I am just going to proffer what had previously been marked as Protestant's forty-six, which I believe is what was for identification only, and I want to add this new, this new document for purposes of --

CHAIR: All right. Let's start, can we do one at a time?

MR. MCCOMAS: Let's do one thing, Mr. Holzer. I have 46-A as being admitted, 46-B and C i.d. only and 46-A is a photo on 2906 Taylor Avenue.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry. I, I have this as the photo.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And that's in?

CHAIR: That's what this shows.

MR. MCCOMAS: That's what this shows, it shows here.

CHAIR: I, I will let everyone know, I, I do intend to go through the transcripts to confirm what is in evidence and what is not before the record closes in this matter.

MR. HOLZER: All right and pages two and --

MR. MCCOMAS: 46-B and C, I think, is what you're interested in, I suspect and --

CHAIR: I, and if I can, Mr. Holzer? I have recollection now that I've seen you hold it up, that was objected to because we didn't know the source of the information and its completeness for the record, from what I recall.

MR. HOLZER: Gotcha.

MR. MCCOMAS: And this is B here.

CHAIR: Yes, we're discussing B and C.

MR. MCCOMAS: Is that what you have, is that what you have there?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, B and C.

MR. MCCOMAS: And I have C here.

MR. HOLZER: And, and what I'm about to proffer --

CHAIR: Let me, we'll stop for a second. Do you recall what I just said as it relates to B and C? Those were the objections by Mr. Schmidt were sustained on those, on that basis?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, they were not permitted. I don't know what basis they were denied.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, is that consistent with your recollection?

MR. SCHMIDT: I have a copy of the list that I've been keeping and it shows 46-A admitted and B and C identification only.

CHAIR: Can you show Mr. Schmidt 46-B and C?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, and they are the --

CHAIR: Just so that we can follow along.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- print, printouts.

CHAIR: I'm going to let you give your proffer to be clear.

MR. HOLZER: I, I understand. But it's sort of a waste of time what took place then because --

CHAIR: I have to worry about the record too.

MR. HOLZER: I know.

CHAIR: Do you want to just show that to him? Is that B and C?

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you. May I approach, Mr. Garber?

CHAIR: Yes, of course. Mr. Schmidt, do you recall those documents? Do you recall the objections and the discussion?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I do.

CHAIR: Okay. So, my recollection is that objections were --

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, thank you.

CHAIR: -- sustained on the basis that it, we didn't know the source of the information that was contained within and its completeness. Now, Mr. Holzer has a proffer as it relates to 46-A, excuse me, B and C and is tendering here a new document.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct. This, this --

CHAIR: Have you, have you provided that to Mr. Schmidt, the new document?

MR. HOLZER: I already did.

CHAIR: Okay, just confirming.

MR. HOLZER: The new document is, could we mark this?

CHAIR: Ninety-three.

MR. HOLZER: As what?

CHAIR: This will be ninety-three.

MR. HOLZER: Ninety-three. But it actually gets consolidated with forty-six.

CHAIR: It relates to forty-six but for purposes of this record it will be ninety-three because just, they're listed sequentially by the dates of the hearing and so we can't obviously then squeeze this in between, going back.

MR. HOLZER: I understand. I understand. But I'm connecting it to forty-six.

CHAIR: And for the record, it is connected to forty-six.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Now, with respect to ninety-three, since there's no ruling on ninety-three, even if there isn't one on forty-six, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- what is it you want to ask this witness to do with ninety-three?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, you have Exhibit 93 in your hand. How did you get this document? Where did you get this document? And do you believe it complies with, with the requirement that was rejected on the two pages of the previous Exhibit 46?

MR. CLARK: This is the listing as it was on Zillow.com.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And it shows the details of the building. The, the size and all that.

CHAIR: 2906 Taylor Ave building?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Mr., sorry.

MR. HOLZER: And, and what would you like, or do you want me to offer it now or should I ask him a question?

CHAIR: I'm not, I don't want to interrupt you if you're still laying the foundation.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: If you're still laying the foundation, go, go do that.

MR. HOLZER: And, and you, you now understand that Protestant's forty-six, which is a picture of the building, and now you have Protestant's ninety-three, excuse me, which, which provides certain information, what is your testimony in regard to the use of this property as a, --

MR. CLARK: I don't have any --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: Hold on, sir, sir, sir, hold on.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, your objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I, I believe --

MR. HOLZER: As the community, look, I mean, --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, hold on.

MR. HOLZER: Having that --

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: -- before I even get --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, Mr., Mr. Holzer, you know how this process works.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I do.

CHAIR: He, hold on, he, --

MR. HOLZER: And it's not being complied with.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, please. He's objected. He's, I asked him to state his objections. I will turn to you for a response. I'm not cutting you off from, from whatever you intend to try to get (inaudible) this witness or put in the record in terms of a proffer. So, I want to hear from Mr. Schmidt because he stood up, as he is supposed to, when objecting. Mr. Schmidt, what is your objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: My understanding, Mr. Garber, is that this property is owned presently by an organization that is not the Petitioner and is not related to the Petitioner. I understand the prior Board rulings that, to a certain extent, if it's, has the char, if, if the property or exhibit relates to the interest of, of people from Nepali that it's admissible. But this case, or from Nepal, the, the Board believes it's proper evidence. But in this case, this is, this is a property that's not owned by the Petitioner and it's, this is a property that is not before the Board today on a Petition. It's on Taylor Avenue. So, I don't know what the relevance of what the condition or use of this property could be to the instant case.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, would you wish to respond to the objection?

MR. HOLZER: Test, testimony by Mr. Ghimire was that commercial or community events will be held at 2906 Taylor Avenue.

CHAIR: I have the same recollection.

MR. HOLZER: That's his testimony.

CHAIR: That it was and, just if I can add to that. The, again, my recollection of the prior objection as to why they were sustained was to establish the fact that the number of parking spaces within, when we don't have the source of information or, or in the other, for the other reasons stated and I know that there was some discussion, which Mr. Schmidt just alluded to as well, that it concerned a property other than the one that's the subject of this Petition. Having said that, it, I understand it relates to Mr. Ghimire's prior testimony that community events will be held there. What is it you seek to do with Exhibit 93?

MR. HOLZER: Introduce it to show the Board in their opinion, your opinion, whether or not the events that are being carried about or proposed to be carried out on Harford Road would be consistent with the use at this site. And if, and it, if you can't wrap your head around that, it seems that Mr. Ghimire, in order to show that we're, he, that the Harford Road site is just a religious facility and is not a place for community events, this seems to dispel that testimony.

CHAIR: I see Mr. Schmidt is standing. You wish to address a point there?

MR. SCHMIDT: So, do I understand that the relevance of this document is that if my client chooses to utilize another property or might use another property, then the Board will allow an inquiry as to the suitability of that other property? So, for example, Mr. Ghimire testified, for example, that there would not be food preparation at the subject property. And so, I think he testified that, for example, during some of the events, the rice feeding, for example, --

CHAIR: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- which is somewhat akin to a baptism in the Christian religion.

CHAIR: I recall the testimony.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, Mr. Ghimire, I think, testified in that case, in those instances, that the family may very well then go to a restaurant to host a social gathering following the rice feeding ceremony at the subject property because it would be traditional for the family to have a meal and to share fellowship after that. And so, are we then going to hear testimony akin to this, that the restaurant may not suitable, be suitable, that the kitchen facilities at the restaurant may not be suitable, I mean, that's the path --

CHAIR: Well, I think you're taking it a step too far with that. I understand your point.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, that's the path that we seem to be going down.

CHAIR: I, I understand your point. It seems to me where everything is getting lost here is the testimony, which as I indicated for, when Mr. Holzer, back and forth with him, that Mr. Ghimire did give that said that community events would be held off site at this community center at 2906 Taylor Avenue. The question then is what events? It's obvious by its size, there's only a certain number of events or types of events that could ever be held at the 2906 Taylor Avenue. Then Mr. Holzer is trying to use it to show because of its size, that means there's the potential for these other larger events to be held on the subject property site.

However, we are now so far down the speculative well, I don't think we even need this in evidence. It doesn't aid us in any way, shape or form. This property doesn't have any relevance to us. Mr. Holzer's evidence, or arg, from which he could have that same argument is already in the record. So, he's not going to suffer from a loss of being able to arg, make that point based on the other evidence. For these reasons, and in the reasons already, already stated, as to 46-B and C, it will be, your objection is sustained. It will not be admitted. You may continue with your proffer.

MR. HOLZER: I would proffer that this document goes to the voracity and, and the potential for this Board to analyze the two properties, number one. Number two, it's not, it, it, it is provided for a basis upon which the Board of Appeals can say, well, Mr. Ghimire said that many of the events that we're holding out there, and I'm putting in (inaudible) that the community objects to, the reason that he testified to that is because oh, it'll be on Taylor Avenue. So, what I'm saying is the value of these documents relates to the imposition of conditions that you could put on the Harford Road property.

For instance, you could put, you could say since Mr. Ghimire testified that the, much of the community activity will be at the community center, therefore, there could be a reduction in number of people attending. There could be a reduction in the number of parties that, big events that we're holding. Therefore, we can alleviate some of the community's concerns. That's the relevance of this. And it also puts the Board of Appeals into a position of saying well, look, you know, everything doesn't have to be at Harford Road. There are events and numbers of people, etcetera, that can be held on Taylor Avenue.

So, the purpose of his presenting that material, was precisely relevant to the Board's action in granting or denying this special exception. That's my proffer and I proffer Exhibit 46 and 93 together.

CHAIR: To be clear, --

MR. HOLZER: I know forty-three --

CHAIR: -- 46-A is in evidence.

MR. HOLZER: I understand that.

CHAIR: 46-B and C are not.

MR. HOLZER: I understand.

CHAIR: Ninety-three, we just had that ruling. But you want to make clear for the record that ninety-three is related to 46-A through C, is that?

MR. HOLZER: In my proffer, I'm connecting them so that any future analysis of it doesn't get so totally screwed up they'll never understand it. So, forty three and, and ninety, forty, forty-six and ninety-three are related in that respect. I understand forty-three was admitted --

CHAIR: Forty-six.

MR. HOLZER: Forty-six was admitted.

CHAIR: A.

MR. MCCOMAS: A.

MR. HOLZER: I do understand that, A.

CHAIR: 46-A was admitted.

MR. HOLZER: I understand and part of, part of the analysis in the future is whether or not it was correct for you to deny this, period.

CHAIR: That, understood. Thank you. All right. Next line of questions and/or exhibits?

MR. HOLZER: In regard to amplification of, on Harford Road, --

CHAIR: One second, Mr. Holzer, just wait to the, to this passes, please.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: All right. Sorry, Mr. Holzer. In relation to amplification on Harford Road.

MR. HOLZER: Right. There was testimony, as I understand it, from Mr. Ghimire in regard to the number of microphones in, during the course of his testimony. Do you recall whether there was a condition by the Administrative Law Judge on outside speakers or outside noise from a microphone at all?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. That would have been a matter of code enforcement as to whether there would be an enforcement action instituted against my client for violation of Judge Beverungen's Order.

CHAIR: Hold on, Mr. Holzer, --

MR. HOLZER: Why do you let him object at that point because --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, Mr. Holzer, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: -- I hadn't even clarified it --

CHAIR: One second. What is it that you want to establish with this question? We can eliminate this objection, because I think I know where you're trying to go. What is it you are trying to establish?

MR. HOLZER: The objection was premature because what I was simply --

CHAIR: I, I, I, I want you just to, first to answer my question.

MR. HOLZER: And this has been going on, Mr. Chairman --

CHAIR: I want you to answer my question what, where are you going with this, with, with this question to this witness?

MR. HOLZER: I was going to the point of, first of all, just trying to recall myself whether there was a condition imposed on the approval by the Administrative Law Judge. Simple, very simple. It had nothing to do with code enforcement.

CHAIR: It is foundational then.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay. That's step one. Number two, Dr. Clark here has already testified about amplification in terms of a condition. If that's where the direction you're going, perhaps to see if there's a distinction between him as an individual and an association. If that's not where you're going, I'm not quite sure the, the purpose for it. So, if you could continue with your foundation. But recognize, there's only so far we're going to go before it does cross over to the code enforcement aspect.

MR. HOLZER: I am tired, Mr. Chairman, I am tired of hearing about code enforcement. I understand, after eight days of this hearing, that you allege that you do not have authority to consider code enforcement. I am, obviously, also interested in that aspect from a legal perspective. But I am not going there. I am not going for a code enforcement --

CHAIR: What did I just say? Continue with your foundation. I just said be wary of, if you're trying to get, if it may touch on those grounds, you will hear from Mr. Schmidt again and you'll hear from me again. So, if you're not going in that direction, by all means, ask your question to the witness.

MR. HOLZER: My question was very simple.

CHAIR: I understood that, I, --

MR. HOLZER: Does he recall --

CHAIR: -- I'm sorry, I am going to, I will rehash this one last time. I understood now your question to be foundational. I was allowing you to ask your question because it was foundational. I asked you to proceed and I just said, as a caution, if you start going down the code enforcement road, you will hear from Mr. Schmidt and me. You may proceed with your next question. I'm overruling the objection to the first question now that I understand it was foundational.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Mr. Clark, my original question was, do you recall having attended the Administrative Law Judge hearing and have, and having received what his decision was, was there any discussion or condition imposed by him which related to amplification?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And do you recall what that condition was?

MR. CLARK: No outdoor amplification.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Can you please speak into the microphone?

MR. CLARK: Oh, I'm sorry, I'm sorry. No outdoor amplification.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, if, let's not get into the question of whether on an appeal whether that condition applies or doesn't apply. Do you understand that?

MR. CLARK: Oh, I do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, is amplification, outdoor amplification, a concern to you as an individual?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And why?

MR. CLARK: This section, this, this part of my testimony is about voracity and, and --

MR. HOLZER: No --

MR. CLARK: No, no --

MR. HOLZER: Objection to my own question. Answer the question.

CHAIR: Dr. Clark, we could get through this --

MR. CLARK: I would love to just testify.

CHAIR: -- a lot faster if you just answer directly to the --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: -- questions that are being posed to you.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: I understand this is a, a very big experience for you, it's frustrating, there's a lot going on. We'll get through this quicker if you just answer the question --

MR. CLARK: All right, okay, okay.

CHAIR: -- that's posed to you.

MR. CLARK: Ask me again.

MR. HOLZER: Why is amplification important to you as an individual?

MR. CLARK: Because it affects my property, it destroys my solitude.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Now, as a result of those foundational questions, during the course of the testimony by the Petitioners, was there any discussion by Mr. Ghimire about the use of outdoor microphones?

MR. SCHMIDT: Just a clarification, prospectively or in the past?

CHAIR: That's fair, --

MR. HOLZER: I don't care prospectively or what.

CHAIR: -- no, hold on, hold on. Let's just make sure we're talking about the same timeframe. That is not an unfair insertion into this because it would make it, the record clear as to what we're referring to. So, when you say amplification, are you referring to that which is, that which has already occurred, or that that may occur in the future?

MR. HOLZER: Both.

CHAIR: Well, let's take it one at a time and you may ask both questions.

MR. HOLZER: No, because the question is, did Mr. Ghimire say something about the use of a microphone. I don't need to distinguish when.

CHAIR: And, it, it's the same --

MR. HOLZER: He testified.

CHAIR: All right. Well, you know what? Dr. Clark, you've heard the question as posed.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Do you understand the question?

MR. CLARK: I --

CHAIR: Can you answer the question?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I can.

CHAIR: Please answer the question.

MR. HOLZER: And speak up so that --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: -- Ms. Dopkin can hear you and sit up straight.

MS. DOPKIN: And the recording can hear him.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Dr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: Mr. Ghimire testified that there would be no amplified, amplification of any kind.

MR. HOLZER: As, was that, to your knowledge, relative to a microphone? Did he mention anything about a microphone?

MR. CLARK: Yes, he, he said, he said no microphone, no loudspeakers.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and was that presented as a way, to your knowledge, for the Board to consider that as a condition to any approval?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: What is the basis of the, stand up, please.

MR. SCHMIDT: It, I, I believe, I did rise for that, sat down very quickly. I believe the question is asking why Mr. Ghimire testified.

CHAIR: I didn't understand it that way.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think he said, and was that presented for, and then he went on.

CHAIR: Hold on. We'll clarify that.

MR. SCHMIDT: That, and that being what Mr. Ghimire said.

CHAIR: We will clarify that. Mr. Holzer, what was your question again, please?

MR. HOLZER: Could it be repeated? We all, we don't have a stenographer here.

CHAIR: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: I don't even remember at this point.

CHAIR: What question do you, would you want to ask?

MR. HOLZER: You know, --

CHAIR: It was about microphones, loudspeakers, conditions, that's where you were going with this.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. That's got, that's off the track of what these last two questions were. But I'll go back. Did Mr. Ghimire indicate in his testimony there would be no outdoor speakers system --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- or microphones?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And in his testimony before this Board?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. What, if anything, have you reviewed, either past or future, that would address whether or not that is correct or true or not?

MR. CLARK: Well, we, and, and they're introduced as evidence, we have videos of the events --

CHAIR: We've seen the videos.

MR. CLARK: We've got that.

CHAIR: We went, counted the microphones, we did all that stuff.

MR. CLARK: Right. But I'm offering it to rebut that testimony.

CHAIR: Wasn't that already offered for that purpose? I know, I know we --

MR. CLARK: I, I, I, I don't know.

CHAIR: -- we reserved this section as rebuttal but didn't we already go through the video to count the microphones to show this is different than what was represented?

MR. CLARK: I don't, I, I --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, is that your recollection?

MR. HOLZER: No, but if it's yours, that's fine. I'm, I've had it.

CHAIR: I understood, I understood at the time, whether expressly stated or not, that this shows that there's outdoor amplification by virtue of these microphones and speaker system and we sat there, we counted the microphones, we pointed out the speakers.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, we did do, we did do that, I know.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: And there were photographs and video.

MR. HOLZER: But was that considered, at the time, going to the voracity or the witness in terms of the witness'--

CHAIR: By implication, that's how it was understood and that was to address that very point.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, fine. Then I'm going to drop, I'm, I'm going to drop this anymore. I'm tired of dealing with this. As an individual who lives across the street from this site, would, what would your request be to this Board in regard to outdoor amplification and use of either microphones, drums outside, anything else that produces noise, normal than the human voice?

CHAIR: And I, we need to split that question. When you talked about amplification, let's stick to microphones, speakers and that stuff. If you want to address music separately, address that separately.

MR. HOLZER: Well, drums and noise.

CHAIR: I'm not, I'm not disputing, I'm not disputing what you're saying. But you called it amplification. A drum without a speaker system or microphone is different than with.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: So, that's why I'm saying let's split your question in two.

MR. HOLZER: Can you handle it, two questions?

MR. CLARK: I can answer it very easily. It's already been subsumed in my testimony as a representative of the board.

CHAIR: Okay. So, you would like a condition

relating to those both, that is, one the outdoor amplification aspect and two, any outdoor music and that kind of --

MR. CLARK: And I believe they're already in there.

CHAIR: You did specify both during the course of your testimony on behalf of the association with respect to possible conditions?

MR. CLARK: I did not.

CHAIR: You did.

MR. CLARK: Oh, I did? Yes, I thought I did.

CHAIR: Yes, you did.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: At least that's how I recall it.

MR. HOLZER: Will you put that on the record?

CHAIR: No, actually I have it written down because he said no rock concerts, no outdoor events, those kind of things.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, okay.

CHAIR: It's understood that that would include playing drums outside and whatnot.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, in the Board's opinion, that would be included --

CHAIR: That, that is his testimony already covered that ground.

MR. HOLZER: Gotcha. All right. I'm finished there.

CHAIR: Thank you. All right. You said you finished?

MR. HOLZER: There.

CHAIR: Yeah. I, I, I seized upon the finished part, sorry. What else do we have to go through? Because I, I have to think we have exhausted nearly everything, nearly. I'm leaving, I'm leaving room open there for you.

MR. HOLZER: I still have comments in regard to development expertise and the entire process.

CHAIR: I, I don't know what you mean by those things.

MR. HOLZER: But I do have more testimony.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: There is more testimony.

CHAIR: I, so, --

MR. HOLZER: I will try to limit it, if I can, at lunch time, whenever that is, I don't --

CHAIR: Well, my, my inclination is to finish up his direct.

MS. DOPKIN: Now?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Before the lunch break?

CHAIR: Before the lunch break.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Because I, I want this case to be moving. I don't want to come back to hear we have another two or three hours of testimony or whatever. I'd rather just get through the testimony and then deal with cross after lunch. And if that means that lunch has to be much later than normal for some people, so be it. I see you trying to call a time out.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: And it looks like it's a full time out, so. Do you need a break?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, just a five minute, yeah.

CHAIR: Understood. Okay. We'll go on a five minute break.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, sir.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 12:22:59 PM)

(ON RECORD – 12:32:28 PM)

MS. DOPKIN: We're on the record.

CHAIR: Okay. We are back on the record, thank you. Mr. Holzer, where are we with the end of direct?

MR. HOLZER: We were diverted because of going to the 502.1 criteria, so now I have to go back where we were talking about Mr. Collagero and Mr. Motsco's testimony, I passed --

CHAIR: I, I will, I will add to that, I understand you want to introduce some things or talk about some things for impeachment purposes or rebuttal purposes or whatever the, however you want to classify it or characterize it. To the extent that that information and testimony has already been provided by this witness, that would be impeachment, we don't need to have it identified a second time as impeachment if it's already in the record. What I mean by that is, take the microphone example.

MR. HOLZER: Um hm.

CHAIR: We just had. Even if it's not specifically designated as impeachment evidence at the time given, certainly you're going to be able to argue that it is, in fact, able to be used for impeachment and whatever substantive value this witness had to say about that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: So, just to help streamline things, you don't, we don't need to designate one for one us and have a second use if the same piece of evidence can be used for both, because you're able to certainly make that argument, --

MR. HOLZER: I just wanted to make sure because the Board it, itself, made that distinction and I wanted to make sure that my questions, that was broken down that way.

CHAIR: The reason why we did is because that was what was alerted to us as to how it was organized for Dr. Clark's testimony.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: If it's going to be the same evidence that's used for one purpose, it could be used for any purpose and we don't need to hear about it a second time, third time or whatever the case may be and I use the microphone example just because that's a recent example of it.

MR. HOLZER: I'll try to, as I've been doing all day, trying to limit --

CHAIR: This is not a critique of your performance.

MR. HOLZER: I understand, I understand. So, can I get started.

MS. DOPKIN: Please.

CHAIR: Please do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Mr. Clark, before we got into the 502.1 criteria discussion, before we got into the community association analysis and their testimony, you were talking about as an individual clarification of certain facts, okay? And I want to get to the question of the NACCB, Inc. in terms of who they are, what they are and what, if anything, you've done to analyze that and present it to the Board. So, that's the topical area of --

MR. CLARK: Got it.

MR. HOLZER: -- where we are. Okay? Have you viewed the, the NAACB Articles of Incorporation?

MR. CLARK: I have.

MR. HOLZER: And where did you get that?

MR. CLARK: Well, actually, it's marked as Petitioner's Exhibit 5.

CHAIR: It has been accepted in evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and as a result of that, what comments, if any, in regard to Petitioner's Exhibit 5 do you have as an individual that has not been expressed?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and, and these have not been expressed.

CHAIR: Well, okay, I, I want to make clear, if this is argument about what they should or should not do or anything like that, that I think is better reserved for Mr. Holzer in his closing brief. If there's something more specific factual that you want to identify for us, obviously you're just laying your foundation for it, so I'm going to see where this goes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I think that's the case.

CHAIR: But if you're just reading something to say, again, here's, I like this or whatever the case may be, --

MR. CLARK: Oh.

CHAIR: -- we don't, we don't need to hear that. Because Mr. Holzer will take care of that.

MR. HOLZER: No, Mr. Chairman, I apologize, but I may not even file a brief. So, I don't think we can proceed in that fashion.

CHAIR: Well, I'm not allowing him to answer questions about his interpretation of what the Articles of Incorporation say. So, if there's something factual you want to, you want to elicit from him for the record, by all means, go for that.

MR. HOLZER: That's what I tried to do.

CHAIR: But I'm not going to stand here for, for a critique of Articles of Incorporation unless there's some other foundation laid as to why this witness would be appropriate for that fact, which you can also raise in terms of an argument as to they are supposed to do x, y, z, not a, b, c. Because we will be reading the Articles of Incorporation and have an opinion and an interpretation of the Articles of Incorporation.

MR. HOLZER: And all I'm asking for is him to be able to point out something in the Articles that he believes he's concerned about.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. HOLZER: That's it.

CHAIR: I, I was only cautioning him about the testimony. Mr. Clark, please proceed.

MR. CLARK: All right. Two things. I would like you to look at the purpose of the, of the corporation, okay?

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I would like you to look at the name of the corporation.

MR. HOLZER: Where, where would they find that in Petitioner's Exhibit, Petitioner's exhibit number five?

MR. CLARK: It would be on the second page.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It's the second article and then the third article.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay? I would like you to see on the next page, on page three, where they previously held service, that --

MR. HOLZER: Well, could you just tell us what it is? It's in the document, right?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, well, but he doesn't want me --

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: My, so I'll explain this. We can read the Articles of Incorporation.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: I'm trying to remove that from the purpose of your testimony.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Because we can read that.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: What is it about the Articles of Incorporation --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- that you feel you need to tell, tell the Board that's --

MR. CLARK: The, the fifth item.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Principal place of worship happens to be Mr. Ghimire's real estate office so that served their purposes, okay?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. Objection. This, this has no relevance at all, Mr. Garber. If he's talking about --

CHAIR: Okay. Your objection is relevance, I got that. Mr. Holzer, do you wish to respond?

MR. HOLZER: I'm not going to argue anymore.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Do what you're going to do.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, I would just ask that you reconsider your tone to this Board.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry, but that's been the way I've been treated --

CHAIR: Starting immediately, starting immediately.

MR. HOLZER: Fine, thank you.

CHAIR: Okay. The question was the principal place of worship and you've identified Mr. Ghimire's address.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: There is an objection pending as to the relevance of that. Mr. Holzer, do you wish to ask another question?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, sure. Is there anything else that you would like --

CHAIR: This is to avoid the objection. If you cannot avoid the objection, do you wish to proffer something?

MR. HOLZER: No, I don't want to do anything.

CHAIR: Okay. There is no question pending. Your objection is sustained.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. What other area of the Articles of Incorporation would you like to point out to the Board?

MR. CLARK: The leadership and also I would point out that my understanding as a layman from what I read on the website from the State, okay?

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Is that if you wish to incorporate as a house of worship, you must, you must, in purpose of the corporation, include that you will have a congregation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection, move to strike. That's a legal conclusion. I think it's best reserved for argument as to what's required under Maryland law.

CHAIR: I would agree with you. I will say though I would have sustained the objection but the answer is already out there in the record.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I move to strike it, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: I understand you're moving to strike. It's in the record now. It does not matter. I, but please caution your testimony.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, all right.

CHAIR: Because I would have sustained that from the outset.

MR. CLARK: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Do you have any other concerns about the Articles of Incorporation?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I don't want to be late on this one and I don't know where we're coming from, --

CHAIR: I understand, thank, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- but if it's discussion about the Articles of Incorporation, I don't believe Mr. Clark is a member of the Bar, which would possibly allow him to render some legal opinion about what is required under State of law. The Articles of Incorporation are what they are.

CHAIR: The, Mr. Schmidt, I, I understand your objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: What my comment was directed to was, yes, it sounded to me that he is reading the Articles of Incorporation and/or the SDAT website, coming to some conclusions and asking the Board, or telling the Board about his conclusions when the Board is going to have to do the same thing and is more ripe for the parties' counsel to argue during the course of argument.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, thank you.

CHAIR: Yes. So, on that basis, to the extent that that's where the question was going, I would sustain the objection. However, Mr. Holzer, if that was not the purpose of the question, you may ask another question about the same subject matter.

MR. HOLZER: No, I don't want to ask the same question.

CHAIR: Very well. The objection is sustained. You may move on.

MR. HOLZER: All right. In terms of that area, I am not going to ask any further questions.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Do you understand?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And to be clear, Mr. Holzer can argue that in a brief, if he chooses to do so.

MR. CLARK: I understand that, Your Honor.

MR. HOLZER: There was, there was testimony about the de, well, there was discussion about development expertise. Do you understand?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. HOLZER: What, if anything, do you want to testify to about the, the development of this project by the Petitioner?

CHAIR: Before you start, I saw Mr. Schmidt trying, starting to get up. Mr. Schmidt, just succinctly, what is your objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Primarily, relevance and when I say that, I'll try to be brief, Mr. Garber. I know there's a requirement, for example, when a development plan is being considered, and I'm sure the Board has had cases that there has to be shown as part of the proof a reasonable expectation that the development will occur. That's part of a development plan approval. There is no such requirement, to the best of my knowledge, insofar as a Petition for Special Exception. So, whether the Petitioners in this case know nothing about the development process, or whether they know how to develop property, they may very well retain experts who do. But I don't believe there's a requirement under 502.1

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's my objection, thank you.

CHAIR: I, I am going to hit the pause button on that because I have a question, just to, I understand and, and I don't know if Ms., we'll have Ms. Dopkin and Mr. McComas as well, when we're referring to development expertise, what are you referring to?

MR. CLARK: To the original purchase of the property.

CHAIR: Okay and what about the purchase, or the original purchase of the property, I, I'm trying to figure out where we're going with this --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, no, no, I know, I know.

CHAIR: -- and what this, this development expertise, I don't know what we're referring to yet.

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

MS. DOPKIN: Excuse me. Mr. Holzer, it would help me if when you frame these questions you could give us an indication of what we're trying to demonstrate, if it's, as in the last series of question, impeachment or misrepresentation. That way we might eliminate some of this back and forth, if that's not too much to ask.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay. To answer Ms. Dopkin's question, the whole issue of due diligence and where that falls, where the consequences of a lack of due diligence falls, okay? That, that, that's what I want to address with this.

CHAIR: Okay. I, I just need to know what you're, where we're about to go.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, on your objection I will overrule it for the moment.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: I'm still trying to assess what's happening here but --

MR. SCHMIDT: Can I --

CHAIR: Go ahead.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just to clarify, as I understand, at least I, where I think Mr. Clark is going on this, is he is a, he's going to assert in terms of due diligence that my clients did not do the appropriate due diligence before they purchased this property.

CHAIR: Please don't gesture when you --

MR. CLARK: No, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: As to the, the legal requirements. If that's what he is asserting, I don't think that's relevant. But then I would say that I would understand then that I would be able to argue the Board that my client's would be prejudiced since they purchased the property, the Board should grant the special exception.

CHAIR: I, I, I got to be honest. I, I have no idea where we're going with this yet. So, because of that, I will overrule your objection at the moment but I, you know, obviously you have the ability to object to further questions.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, do you wish to direct a question to --

MR. HOLZER: I'm advising my client on the basis of what's occurred not to get into anything in regard to development expertise.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: So, that takes care of that.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I believe that leaves us with one last area that you wanted to talk about?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I would.

MR. HOLZER: All right. In terms, I would, this question goes to, and his proposed testimony, goes to whether or not the entire process has been corrupted in this case.

CHAIR: By process, I'm trying to understand where --

MR. HOLZER: (inaudible) I'll, I'll make sure you understand.

CHAIR: Okay, because we have, we have the ALJ hearing plus the Board of Appeals, right? So the Petition itself, or is this going to date back to the purchase of the property, you see what I'm saying? There's, there's a lot that could be within there.

MR. HOLZER: I understand.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: All right. The, basically the area that you wanted to address relates to the, initiating with the Van Domelin letter, the Zeller letter, no response from the zoning, and, and again, it's what you've already said you're not here to do. It relates to the code enforcement issues. He feels, and this is, in effect, almost a proffer. He feels that the County has intentionally avoided reacting to the State Highway Administration letter, allowed a certain situation to occur, which all related back to the code enforcement.

That he has not received any zoning compl, response to his zoning complaints from people in the zoning office, including and all the way up to the director. That, in fact, that at the director's level he believes and wants to proffer that the director intentionally did not pursue the zoning violations and so forth.

He wants to indicate that the County Councilman had interrupted and interfered with this matter, and this case, and the process in the very beginning of this. He wants to identify the fact that there has been a political analysis and situation occurring, which created the reason why the community's efforts to ensure the neighborhood back in the very beginning were not protected.

He also wants to testify or re, or comment upon what he calls the secret letter, what I call the letter that I was not as a, as a representative of the, of the Protestants, Mr.--

CHAIR: Exhibit 34?

MR. HOLZER: -- Mr., yeah, the Motion.

CHAIR: The subject of your Motion?

MR. HOLZER: The subject of my Motion. That Mr. Kotroco addressed Mr. Beverungen without notifying me, that Mr. Beverungen made a decision without, without notifying me. I took an appeal from that decision and we heard nothing from this Board in regard to whether or not that could be consolidated with this hearing. I had a Motion to consolidate it but, as a matter of fact, I didn't file it at that, at that point because we had already gotten involved in the case.

CHAIR: Let me say, and let me, let me just jump in. As to the Motion for Exhibit 33, or 34, the testimony that you would like to elicit from Mr. Clark --

MR. HOLZER: I want to testimony, get any testimony from him. It's in the Motion.

CHAIR: There, I thought you, you were giving us a road map as to the matters that perhaps you would be going down with his testimony.

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: I was only going to suggest that why don't we have resolution of that Motion prior to exploring it because it may or may not be needed as a result of whatever happens for that Motion. But out of fairness to Mr. Schmidt, he hasn't had the ability to respond in writing as of yet.

MR. HOLZER: That's not where I was going.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I'm giving you an outline of what he would have said, his comments, so we're not going to present him --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm, I'm not objecting, Mr. Holzer. Ask your questions.

MR. HOLZER: I didn't, I didn't ask you to. I'm not intending to have him answer any of these questions. I'm doing this for purpose of a proffer of what he would have said --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, put it, put it on. Put it on. You can't, I mean, my understanding --

CHAIR: Well, no, hold on, hold on. Mr. Schmidt, I understand where you're going with it. I'm waiting for him to finish.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Let him finish.

MR. SCHMIDT: Then, then I'll be heard at that time. Thank you, Mr. Garber.

MR. HOLZER: That's fine. In regard to Mr. Ghimire's testimony and Mr. Marks being involved in day one, Ghimire's testimony bragging about Brochins, who was a candidate for County Executive at the time, interfering with County employees' performance of their duty and repeated, and repeated --

CHAIR: And correct me if I'm wrong, there is some, there's something in the record about that already?

MR. HOLZER: I know, just a little bit. It was just a comment, I think.

CHAIR: Is that your recollection too --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- is what I'm asking?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And finally, the Petitioners' repeated attempts to make this case about something other than land use, basically, racial or religious or, you know, efforts to show, to characterize the Protestants in that fashion.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. HOLZER: That's the proffer. I am not going to permit the witness to testify to any of that. At this point it's irrelevant, I don't want it ruled on and as a result, the matter will be raised, as you indicated, in some subsequent action.

CHAIR: There cannot be a proffer of, of testimony that you're not going to attempt to elicit. However, having said that, I will note as to, as it relates to the Zeller letter and SHA and the code enforcement matters that we discussed yesterday, what I recall from the rulings was no, we are not going down the road of the code enforcement or anything like that.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: However, to the extent that something ties to a special exception factor, which I believe is what the Zeller e-mails did, that came into evidence --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- whereas the code enforcement, particularly of Mr. VanDomelin and whomever else, that did not, base, so the ruling was consistent and what has been received is consistent with that ruling. As to the code enforcement matters, we covered that yesterday as to what this Board could do with respect to the non-action or inaction or disregard of any requested action. There's not much we can do sitting here about that.

As to the County Councilman stuff, I don't believe that's appropriate for us to address what the County Councilman should/should not have done or anything to that degree. Plus it doesn't speak to the Petition itself.

As to whatever political analysis that may have been done in terms of why things happened the way they did, once again, that is not something we can, accept, accepting even for the moment, all true, all accurate, that we can do anything about sitting here today and I believe I expressed yesterday I understand the frustration for Mr. Clark, Dr. Clark, based on these e-mails and everything as to the lack of what he, he is, based on your proffer, would say would be a corrupt process, in quotes. I understand that frustration but there's only so much we can do sitting here today and that's discuss the Petition filed by Petitioner plus whatever evidence Dr. Clark and the other Protestants have put in regarding the subject matter of that Petition.

So, with that in mind, do you wish to end, end, ask any questions on that basis with the, that following guardrails?

MR. HOLZER: No, because you just testified, or commented upon all, each of the issues that I touched on and said that they are improper or not to be received by the, by the Board. So, I will leave it at that. And --

CHAIR: And that's, to be clear, that's not what I said, but the record will speak for itself.

MR. HOLZER: Well, the record will show what you just said and it was various denials of, of anything I would call him to say anyway.

CHAIR: Except for, again, the Zeller letter which was admitted into evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Because it spoke to a specific --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- special exception factor. So, if you had anything in that vein, that is, something that speaks to a special exception factor, you know, that has not been ruled upon.

MR. HOLZER: This is what the witness wanted to say and based on your ruling just now, if, if he wanted to talk about the interference of the County Council or County representative, you would not permit that. If it was related to improprieties in, in regard to enforcement, that would not be permitted. So, in effect, you have, what I tried to do is to make the proffer of what he wanted to say, knowing that it would just generate another three hours' worth of discussion and, and you know, at this point I didn't see the relevance of doing that.

CHAIR: I, I don't think you mean relevance but I understand what you mean by that.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, the bottom line is this. I've asked you if there's any other evidence to present along these lines. I understand there is no more evidence to be forthcoming along those lines.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: Does that then conclude the direct testimony of Dr. Clark?

MR. HOLZER: Well, I want to ask him if there's anything else at this point. I've gone through his different lists of what he wanted to present and I have precluded him from presenting the other, and now I've precluded him from presenting this on the basis of the proffer. So, I just want to ask him a few general questions to, to close up.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'd just like the record to reflect that I raised no objection or said very little during this most recent exchange and I agree with the Chair's comment that a proffer in these circumstances is a statement to the Court, or in this case to the Board, of what the testimony would be upon the Board ruling that it will not accept the testimony. I'm not quite sure how Mr. Holzer makes a proffer when he says he doesn't want to offer the evidence. So, I'm not quite sure procedurally how he can do that. I've never, quite honestly, heard of such a thing. But if Mr. Clark wants to testify and allege all different kinds of corruption in Baltimore County and name names and so on and so forth, I have no objection to it.

CHAIR: Well, I, --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. I will accept that -=

CHAIR: -- I, I'm just going to clarify what Mr. Schmidt said.

MR. HOLZER: I understood what he said, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIR: No, I am clarifying it for the record --

MR. HOLZER: And I'll accept it.

CHAIR: -- so my, the ruling that I just elicited, given the subject matter identified by Mr. Holzer, incorporated rulings from yesterday based on objections from yesterday.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, in, in the matter of consistency and efficiency, I have identified that for the record but have asked for any other questions to follow, that Mr. Holzer, Dr. Clark believe could be made part of this record subject to the same rulings that have been applied in this case.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: With that in mind, Mr. Holzer, if there's anything further --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- you wish to say?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, you are now prepared to testify in regard to the entire process has been corrupted, so please begin, start at the beginning and say what you want to say relative to Mr. Ghimire's testimony first and then the VanDomelin letter and let the Board rule on it.

MR. CLARK: In, Mr. Ghimire has testified that Arnold Jablon connected him with Mr. Kotroco at the ALJ, okay? I don't know how to proceed here, that, that's, that's --

MR. HOLZER: Well, why do you think that was wrong?

MR. CLARK: I don't know whether it was right or wrong, it's just, it's just that Mr. Ghimire testified to that. And then we have a letter from VanDomelin dated November 2017 sometime, where he was actually advising the clients on how --

CHAIR: Advising who?

MR. CLARK: The, the, advising the Petitioner.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: How best to apply for a special exception that will get them what they want. And then I didn't understand why there was a cc to whom I have since learned is, is a politician, Bendary, okay? There was a, he, he initialed on it, cc'd Bendary.

MR. HOLZER: Do you, do you, did you obtain that document?

MR. CLARK: By a FOIA request.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and --

CHAIR: Ninety-four.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I show you a copy.

CHAIR: We have multiple, multiple extra copies, Mr. Holzer, if you'd like this back?

MR. HOLZER: Sure, thanks.

CHAIR: Yes. Okay, sir. Could you please identify the one page document that is now marked as Exhibit 94?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, this is, this is a letter to Hindu Buddha Temple complaints and you can read it for yourself.

MR. HOLZER: I want you to point out what, in the letter, that you think is, produced your comment.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: You don't have to read it, just point it out.

MR. CLARK: However, the purpose of, the, the, the last paragraph, also the, the, starting in the middle of the second paragraph, Mr. Jablon, that you meet with the community, which was never done. And then at the top, you'll see that it was also, someone wrote to the, at, at the top in pencil, and this is on the original document, also to Harry Bendary, Nepali Public Affairs Counsel and Tim Kotroco.

CHAIR: Who is also copied at the bottom.

MR. CLARK: Yes, Tim Kotroco is copied at the bottom, yes, yes.

CHAIR: And as I understand it, you don't know whose handwriting that is?

MR. CLARK: I do not.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. CLARK: It, it was on the original document --

CHAIR: In pencil.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Right, understood.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Schmidt, any objection to ninety-four?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Let's, let's move down the list then. In regard to non-response to zoning complaints.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, there was, it was prior to that letter and this is a little bit out of sequence but prior to that letter, I had met with Mr. VanDomelin and he told me that he wanted to know of any events, of any large events held on the property and he would act. So, the pictures that you saw of the nighttime from September 2017 there were about seventy-five, eighty pictures and, and that, and, and I included them in a letter that I sent to him. And in a subsequent meeting, he told me, you know, sometime later, I can't remember, well, yeah, I can't act on that, it's not enough, okay?

MR. HOLZER: Did you receive any notification in regard to that?

CHAIR: To what he just discussed?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: You used the word that, that's why --

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I'm, I'm sorry.

MR. CLARK: Well, yeah, the, the --

MR. HOLZER: Well, stop.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: Remember, we have to wait till the copies are passed out first.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, sorry.

CHAIR: Thank you. Thank you. This is ninety-five? Right, Mr. McComas?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes, yeah.

CHAIR: One, two, three, four, five pages. All right. Dr. Clark, please identify what Protestant's Exhibit 95 is.

MR. CLARK: What these are is, I call them the green cards. They're the certified receipt --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: We're familiar with what green cards --

MR. CLARK: Yes, I'm sure. These are, are the, are to document that I had sent, and it's already in the other thing, okay? The, the letter I had sent. And we got a re, from these letters we got a response from no one.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It was crickets.

CHAIR: Well, it may be helpful if you can identify the addressees because I'm having a hard time reading it.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: And perhaps that's because I don't have my reading glasses on but also because the nature of the copy.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: So, if you could just give an example, like several examples of who, where these were sent?

MR. CLARK: All right. County Ex Moeller, Robin Clarke, Baltimore County Code Enforcement, Councilman Wade Koch, Councilman David Marks, Colonel John, I was really, Colonel John Garvelis (phonetic), who's at the, at MDOT, Arnold Jablon, Richard Zeller, Lionel VanDomelin, Karen Lewis, Matt

Goelle, Vince Gardenia, Ed Reiser, Jan McCook, Tracy Davis, Donna Kilduff, Dennis Kennedy and Lieutenant Yingling of the, of the Baltimore County Fire Marshal's Office.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Not one response.

CHAIR: Okay. When, and again, I know there are stamps on these cards. Can you give just the, the rough date range when these were sent?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, they were all, June 27th it looks like they were all date stamped.

CHAIR: Well, not Bates stamp but they were stamped by post office as being --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: -- received and mailed on the 27th?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes. And while, no, now I'm seeing June 2nd, various dates, various dates, June 2nd to June 27th, the month of June 2018.

CHAIR: You got where I was going with it. I just want to make clear for the record that's the time frame --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- you're referring to when these were sent.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: Any objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Next, I believe I mentioned the secret letter. And so, the Board has the Motion, my Motion in regard to that. I think it is appropriate not to get into that until counsel has had an opportunity to replay, I've had an opportunity to reply to that and then the Board can take it up.

CHAIR: I, I would like that completed by next hearing date. So, in other words, I would like to see your response ASAP and then to give Mr. Holzer at least some adequate time for a response, for a written response.

MR. SCHMIDT: You'll have it by the end of this week.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer, so, I don't, where's the calendar?

MR. HOLZER: I don't have the calendar.

CHAIR: February 5th is Tuesday.

MR. SCHMIDT: The 1st is Friday, you'll have it by Friday if that's soon enough. If not, I'll get it to you by tomorrow.

CHAIR: I would pre, yeah, okay. So, I'll get it, so as long as Mr. Holzer can get it by the 1st, so I would request that not only do you --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll e-mail it.

CHAIR: -- serve it normal process but certainly e-mail Mr. Holzer.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So he has the opportunity to at least try to file a written response by the 5th. So that we can rule and add this, Mr. Holzer, I understood previously, based on your proffer, you did not intend to go into any questions or testimony with Dr. Clark as to the content of that Motion, however it's disposed of?

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: Okay. So, then, because otherwise, you know, we have, there'd be no need to keep him, Dr. Clark's, testimony open for that purpose.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I might say, just, I, I don't want to cause any more problem, more delay, but Mary Clark and Mr. Clark because of the first day hearing where it was referred to but it was not introduced into evidence, caused me to say what are they talking about? What doc, what letter from Mr. Kotroco? So, I asked them, both of them, to go over to Beverungen's office to get me a copy and there was some things that subsequently took place that we were not able to get it initially, but then subsequently, after being told they didn't have it, we were able to go back and get it and that's how we got the, the, the document --

CHAIR: So, you may elicit testimony as to those efforts?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

CHAIR: Depending on how the Motion goes.

MR. HOLZER: Exactly. So, the, other than that, there would be no need for them to do anything else, most of it's my, my business.

CHAIR: Do you intend then to call Dr. Clark on the stand in connection with that, depending on how this resolves?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, or Mary because I know Mary at one point --

CHAIR: I, I, the reason I'm asking is because I'm trying to get through Dr. Clark's testimony --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- be done with him.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: But obviously, if there's still a point that would remain open --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- then it will be subject to whatever that is and --

MR. HOLZER: To the very limited --

CHAIR: And that's my point is, --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- then any cross and all that would be limited to that issue.

MR. HOLZER: Absolutely.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Absolutely.

CHAIR: As long as we're all on the same playing field with that, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: We'll address it that way. But I do expect that we will go and, and discuss and deliberate the Motion on February 5th so that, again, I urge, I know you may not, maybe within where we are with the time for you guys, and I realize that we have a condensed schedule, so I'm asking to please get it to Mr. Holzer as early as possible.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, he'll have it either tomorrow or, or Friday.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I will e-mail it to him and I'll also provide it, hard copy and an e-mail copy to Ms. Cannington.

CHAIR: Of course.

MR. SCHMIDT: If she wants to e-mail, further forward that e-mail to any of the Board members.

CHAIR: In normal course, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: And the same thing for any written res, reply by yourself as well, for the Board's consideration and to address during the course of the hearing on February 5th.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Again, normal course. All right.

MR. HOLZER: Now, now, as a result of that, Mr. Clark, I believe, has some comments about the use of the secret letter that might not be relevant to the argument or my request. But it is, he does have some, some testimony he'd like to give.

CHAIR: I would prefer that be reserved to that, to that day following the written response and reply, because that may influence how that is handled.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Well, then --

CHAIR: In other words, I'm not shutting the door on what you were saying, I just think that that is the more appropriate time to address that.

MR. HOLZER: That's fine with me. I, I don't have a problem with that. There's also the use of a letter to relate to this Board and I think under your, your ruling, I will just include that at, for the time.

CHAIR: I'm going to just follow up real quick. I, just so I understand what you're referring to, and without getting into testimony --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I, I, I don't want to, to get into it.

CHAIR: Okay, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: If it, if it relates to this quote, secret letter, --

CHAIR: That's fine. We'll reserve.

MR. HOLZER: I just want to preserve it for that point.

CHAIR: We'll reserve it to the 5th.

MR. HOLZER: I, I don't think it's appropriate to get into it now.

CHAIR: No, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. All right. Mr. Clark, do you understand what I just told the Board?

MR. CLARK: I do.

MR. HOLZER: All right. So then there is comments about Mr. Ghimire's testimony (inaudible) that you wanted to talk about.

MR. CLARK: Well, in the ALJ below, he testified that Mr. Marks had been involved from day one. Mr. Marks told us at two Greater Kingsville Civic Associations that he could not be involved in any way, shape, manner or form with this whole process.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and do you have copies of the testimony below?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and is it just one, one, just one page? I think it is. I hope that's (inaudible).

CHAIR: Ninety-six?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, ninety-six, ninety-six.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Schmidt, I'll give you the opportunity to review it.

MR. SCHMIDT: I did. I mean, it, it says what it says, but it's one of these things where lines one through twenty are not in there and then the, the full answer isn't even in there.

CHAIR: Okay. So, your objection is to completeness?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I mean, I'd like to see --

CHAIR: Do you have a copy of that transcript?

MR. SCHMIDT: I do not have a copy of that transcript.

CHAIR: Do you have a full, copy of the full transcript, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, we do.

CHAIR: Okay. So, we are not going to rule on that as of yet because we are going to provide Mr. Schmidt with the full transcript so that he may review the testimony before and at the complete answer, so that, to see if that resolves whatever issue Mr. Schmidt may have. I will ask Mr. Holzer, while Dr. Mary Clark is doing that, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- to proceed to the next question or topic.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, and just, I'll just say, if, if Ms. Clark wants to just give me the transcript, I'm happy to have a copy of it made over the lunch break even and then give it right back to her.

CHAIR: I, I will leave that to --

MR. SCHMIDT: If that's easy enough.

CHAIR: -- the parties to sort out. I'm just requesting that we move on.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: Because we can't resolve that sitting here in the moment.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I mean, what I'm, and not to belabor the point, but as I read it, I mean, the rest of the answer is not there.

CHAIR: Well, I prefer to not here what's going on with it --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, yeah, I'd just like to know what it is.

CHAIR: -- other, other than I understand there's a completeness argument because the answer itself is not complete, nor are you aware of what the testimony or questions or whatever they were, the context of how it came up.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Why don't you let the witness testify what he wants to say? Because otherwise, once they get it and they read it, then I'll have to bring him back for that.

CHAIR: I, I'm more comfortable with having Mr. Schmidt have the opportunity to review it because if he needs to cross examine on it, we're going to be stuck here anyway. So, it would be just better to move on for the moment, try to resolve that during the course of a break.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, all right. All right. Well, this also relates to the question involved, that he started to answer.

CHAIR: I, I'm sorry, can you be more specific just so we have an idea?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. There are affidavits from Carol Shaw and, that she was there and heard the Councilman say that he couldn't get involved.

CHAIR: I, I will note that Ms. Shaw is present in the courtroom.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: But you want to hand up an affidavit of Ms. Shaw?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, because it certainly saves a lot of the Board's time. If you want me to call her as a witness --

CHAIR: Hold, hold on, hold on.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Mr. Schmidt, how do you wish to address this?

MR. SCHMIDT: Can I see the affidavit first?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: That's why I was getting them ready.

CHAIR: I, I, --

MR. HOLZER: And Mary Clark, --

CHAIR: -- I understand.

MR. HOLZER: -- Mary Clark is also here and has her affidavit. So, both of them are here, both of them can testify.

CHAIR: To date, there have been objections to all affidavits.

MR. HOLZER: I know.

CHAIR: Which is why I established this --

MR. HOLZER: I know, --

CHAIR: -- I am establishing this point.

MR. HOLZER: I understand. I'm not being critical. One, two, four.

MR. MCCOMAS: I'll make that ninety-seven.

CHAIR: Ninety-seven.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, ninety-six, I just did i.d. only waiting for the full transcript.

CHAIR: Right, because we're not, there's no ruling on that as of yet.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, this is ninety-seven.

MR. HOLZER: And ninety-seven, for the record, would include two affidavits, Ms. Shaw and Mary, Mary Clark.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. SCHMIDT: No objection.

CHAIR: Just to be clear, we have two pages. One says affidavit of Carol Shaw, the one underneath also says affidavit of Carol Shaw but it's actually Mary Clark's.

MR. HOLZER: You're right, you're right.

CHAIR: I, just for purposes of the record, so when someone's flipping through and they see two Carol Shaw's, if they, if you continue on it's actually from Dr. Mary Clark.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: All right. And there is no objection by Mr. Schmidt, therefore, we'll, we will admit the affidavits that are Exhibit 97.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thank you.

MR. MCCOMAS: Can, can I just get some clarification on this exhibit?

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, I have Carol Shaw's, this is Exhibit 72, on September 19, 2019 I observed the following. I attended the Greater Kingsville Civic Association --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: On September 20th, 2017, so she's attended two, this is two separate --

CHAIR: Well, hold on and wait, let me back up. Because seventy-two is not in evidence. So, all that's been received in evidence is the one about September 20th.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible) checking to make sure that they weren't (inaudible).

CHAIR: Right, no, understood.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: If there's a problem, there's got to be another way to address it.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay. This is ninety-seven so it's already in. So, Mr., Mr. Clark, you have Exhibit 97, which has not been objected to.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's the affidavits, right?

MR. HOLZER: The affidavits.

CHAIR: Well, as, as I understand it then, these are basically stipulations as to the, here's what these people would say if called to testify.

MR. HOLZER: Right, but I need him to articulate what the result of the, his discussion with the transcript --

CHAIR: You're not asking what was said in the affidavits.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right.

CHAIR: That's where I thought you were going, I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: You may proceed.

MR. HOLZER: With the testimony document that was tentatively identified and these two statements, what is your comment, what is your purpose of bringing that to the attention?

MR. CLARK: It's just, I, I can't reconcile it, I can't, --

CHAIR: You can't reconcile what?

MR. CLARK: Re, reconcile his statements to, to --

CHAIR: Whose statements --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, sorry, sorry. I can't reconcile Mr. Marks' statements with his active involvement, with his, no. I can't reconcile Mr. Marks' statements to the Greater Kingsville Civic Association with his apparent active involvement in promoting and, and, and assisting --

CHAIR: Well, we'll characterize it as this it seems. That, that is taken from testimony from Mr. Ghimire, correct? That understanding?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: So, before we classify it as attributable to Councilman Marks directly, that is your understanding based on the testimony of Mr. Ghimire?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Could you, just to be clear on this point, you don't have any other information other than what Mr. Ghimire provided in terms of his testimony as to Councilman Marks' apparent involvement one way or another? That's why, that's what --

MR. CLARK: I, I, I, I, I know.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, I just want to make sure that was clear that you are reconciling those two events.

MR. CLARK: The, yes, yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I want to leave it there.

CHAIR: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Excuse me. Mr. Clark, were you at the September 20th meeting?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I was.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you, both.

MR. CLARK: I spoke, oh, and I spoke directly with Mr. Marks.

CHAIR: To be clear, we understood that you had personal knowledge as to what was communicated with the Greater Kingsville Association.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: And then you had personal knowledge as to your, in your individual capacity as to what Mr., Councilman Marks has sent to you personally?

MR. CLARK: I spoke with him personally.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And among other things, he, he informed me that Mr. Ghimire had been invited to attend that meeting and that Mr. Ghimire declined to attend and he was, he, he seemed rather vexed by that, by that, by that non-attendance. Because that was the meeting where the, the board, where, where the association took the vote on its position.

CHAIR: Okay. That, what I'm hearing is, you're just recapping more of the --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: -- information as it relates to your personal experience and firsthand knowledge --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- as to the communications from Councilman Marks to Greater Kingsville and you personally?

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. This is not a duplicate, this in regard to October 20th, but it's the same two affidavits of the same two witnesses, rather.

MR. SCHMIDT: Once again, it says Carol Shaw.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yeah. This would be?

MR. MCCOMAS: Ninety-eight.

CHAIR: A and B, sure.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible).

CHAIR: Whatever works for everybody, I mean, we're going to be able to identify by who the person is. And we have an extra copy if you need one back, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I, I have one.

CHAIR: Oh, okay, thank you. So, Mr. Holzer, is there, I guess if you could illustrate for the record what the difference is for ninety-seven compared to ninety-eight?

MR. HOLZER: I'd rather have the witness.

CHAIR: I'm not asking you to do it, I'm asking you to ask him that.

MR. HOLZER: I, oh, right. Mr. Clark, there are, there are two different affidavits by Mary Clark and also Carol Shaw. Can you articulate the difference between them so the record is clear?

MR. CLARK: The dates?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. And, --

MR. CLARK: Okay, September, these, these relate to a meeting that I, that I did not attend, okay? On September 19th, 2018.

MR. HOLZER: And was Mr. Marks there at the same, at that meeting also?

MR. CLARK: Apparently.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I, I know you weren't there.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: But according to the affidavits, --

MR. CLARK: According to the affidavits, --

MR. HOLZER: -- it indicates that he was, was there.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Is there anything further that you wanted to articulate or express about --

MR. CLARK: Apparently, Mr. Marks said again that he could not be involved in the NAACCB matter.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: Can I just get clarification here? Because I, from the duplication, is, is there any difference between seventy-two Carol Shaw affidavit and 98-A?

MR. HOLZER: The years, is it the years?

MR. MCCOMAS: No, no, Exhibit 72, Carol --

CHAIR: Does that appear to be the exact same?

MR. MCCOMAS: Appear to be exactly the same. I'd be interested to know what the differences are.

MR. HOLZER: Oh.

CHAIR: Referencing, --

MR. MCCOMAS: Same (inaudible) if you can you're your witness tell us the difference between ninety, seventy-two and ninety-eight.

CHAIR: And by, by way of reference, just for the record, we dealt with Exhibit 72 yesterday, which was not admitted into evidence. We have Exhibit 98 in front of us now. I have another question about ninety-eight though because it states on September 19, 2018, I observed the following and it references an event that took place the following day. So, one of those two dates would appear to not be accurately recorded.

MR. HOLZER: I, I don't have either one of them --
CHAIR: I, I'm just alerting you to this --
MR. HOLZER: Can I ask him? Can I ask the witness?
CHAIR: You could ask the witness.
MR. MCCOMAS: You need Exhibit 72 as well? (inaudible).
MR. HOLZER: We don't have seventy-two here.
MR. MCCOMAS: Here's seventy-two.
MS. DOPKIN: Seventy-two and ninety-eight are the same.
CHAIR: Yeah, there is app, it appears to the Board members that seventy-two and ninety-eight may be the same.
MR. HOLZER: And was that admitted --
CHAIR: Everyone, one at a time, sorry. Mr. Holzer?
MR. HOLZER: Was seventy-two admitted?
CHAIR: It was not.
MS. DOPKIN: I.d. only.
MR. HOLZER: It was not?
CHAIR: It was not admitted into evidence. It is identified for the record.
MR. HOLZER: Okay.
CHAIR: Now, Ms. Dopkin, did you have something you wanted to add?
MS. DOPKIN: If you'll look at paragraph two, what Mr. Garber was pointing out is it is prefaced on September 19th,

2018 I observed the following. Attending a meeting of the Greater Kingsville Civic Association --

MR. HOLZER: On September the 20th.

MS. DOPKIN: On the 20th.

MR. HOLZER: I see that.

CHAIR: If, if you look at Mary Clark's affidavit, it refers to both dates as September 19th.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: I assume that, that the affidavit of Ms. Shaw would be amended to the 19th?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, for purposes of the record, Dr. Clark, did the meeting take place, the Greater Kingsville Civic Association semi-annual meeting, take place on September 19th or the 20th, if you recall?

MR. CLARK: The 19th.

CHAIR: Okay. So, understanding that there would be an amendment to the affidavit --

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: -- at 98-A, September 19th, with that in mind, Mr. Schmidt, any objection to ninety-eight?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir. I mean, along these lines, Mr. Garber, you know, none of this is really about my client. It's, it's an attack, or allegations about Baltimore County. I'm not here to defend Baltimore County. Certainly, it's up to the Board to decide. I was looking at your rules of practice and procedure, and I don't think you need to do it based on an objection, but you can exclude improper testimony if you believe it to be improper for any reason. But I'm not raising an evidentiary objection.

CHAIR: I will comment as, well, my comment to that is as follows. I had been waiting to see if you have any objection because, again, as I already, as I already stated for the record, we made rulings for the subject matter. I would make those rulings consistent, but you have not objected. Therefore, in the absence of objection, objection, I am free to receive whatever evidence or whatever, subject to whatever discretion we have in terms of a stopping point for that r whatever the case may be. Because we are this far down the road on that point, I will admit ninety-eight, but if you have a reservation or another type of objection to some of this material, I would ask that you articulate it.

MR. SCHMIDT: I will be honest, I, I think it's improper and inappropriate to besmirch the reputation of Mr. Marks and other County officials and allege that they're corrupt in this proceeding, when they are not here, nor is a County attorney here to defend themselves. I think it's inappropriate, I don't think it assists the Board in deciding the Petition for Special Exception. If Mr. Holzer and Mr. Clark believe that it furthers their case to label the County people corrupt and criminal and indifferent or whatever the allegation is, then, then again, I don't think it has any relevance to it.

Certainly, I would object to anything that's been consistent with your rulings as it relates to a violation case and I haven't seen these exhibits related to a violation case. Maybe I'm misunderstanding the nature of the exhibit. I do not think it's, I don't think it's appropriate evidence. I certainly wouldn't offer it in this Board but it's not my call.

CHAIR: Well, whether it's something, whether you would offer it, I --

MR. SCHMIDT: It's not my call.

CHAIR: Your objection, I seem to recall yesterday there was a brief objection and discussion about the propriety of going into matters as it relates to people who are not here, particularly Councilman Marks or some others. Those objections were sustained. However, in light of the questions and, and evidence that have come this afternoon, because there were no objections and Mr. Holzer, in response to, to what has been said about the proffer, was going through this, that is why we, this has unfolded the way it has unfolded.

MR. SCHMIDT: But this, Chairman Garber, with all due respect, this is your hearing and you, you are going to run this hearing the way that you think it's appropriate and decide what evidence is appropriate. It's, it's not my hearing. The distinction in terms of people here or not here is that the affidavits that have been submitted today have been signed by Ms. Shaw and Ms. Clark, who are both here. And as I understood Mr. Holzer's comments, in lieu of having them come up and testify and to save time he was going to do the affidavits.

I would continue, like I did yesterday as it relates to Ms. Foxworthy and other individuals who are not here, object to them, those affidavits. That was part of the objections that I raised this year.

CHAIR: You mean, yesterday and today?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes, sir, if I misspoke.

CHAIR: You said this year.

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, yesterday or today, if I misspoke.

CHAIR: Sorry?

MS. DOPKIN: It just seems like a year.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes. But my point being that the affidavits that have been introduced have been signed by people who are here.

CHAIR: That has been noted for the record.

MR. SCHMIDT: And Mr. Holzer, I believe, --

CHAIR: By both Mr. Holzer and, and the Boar.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- said instead of calling them, he would just give the affidavits and since they're here, I can, if I felt that was improper and wanted to cross examine them, I could do so. So, I did not object to that. But in saying that, I mean, I will tell you, I do not think it's relevant evidence but it does not relate to my client to call the officials of Baltimore County corrupt and inefficient.

CHAIR: I, and again, --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm not here to protect Baltimore County.

CHAIR: And that's understood. The purpose, as I have understood it, is in response to the argument that you can't just proffer something, you have to make an attempt and then move forward. Since we are at this point where the last several minutes have been spent introducing this evidence and eliciting testimony as part of that proffer --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- it is not up to the Board to then address that point for purposes of the proffer, proffer. I indicated that I would make rulings consistent with what has been done before. There, since there have been objections, that's why it has come in in furtherance of Mr. Holzer's proffer.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that --

CHAIR: So, we're now at a crossroads, it would seem, because you would now object going forward to continuation along these lines for the reasons you've already stated.

MR. SCHMIDT: I guess it depends on what's being offered. But Chairman Garber, let me, let me just say this. And I mean this with all --

MR. HOLZER: Could I ever get a chance?

CHAIR: Let, that's fair, Mr. Holzer. Go ahead.

MR. SCHMIDT: Obviously, I have not agreed with all your rulings on evidence.

CHAIR: What?

MR. SCHMIDT: But you are the Chair, and I respect your rulings.

MR. HOLZER: Geez.

MR. SCHMIDT: I have not, I have tried very hard today to respond to the comments that I interpreted this morning that Ms. Dopkin was directing them specifically at me regarding the nature of objections. I do not believe that the Chair, I believe that the Chair has sometimes conducted direct examination of witnesses during this case, which I do not believe to be appropriate, recognizing that the Chair can certainly ask questions, as the panel members can, but Mr. Holzer is more than capable of putting his case on and I don't believe that, that the Board has to assist him to do that, as they have. I point all those things out to just merely say that you're sitting in those seats up there and as Judge Gordon Boone told me one time when I said to Judge Boone, Judge, you can't do that. He said, Mr. Schmidt, I'm wearing the dress, meaning his robe, --

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- I can do whatever the hell I want in open court. And so, and I don't mean to be flippant, but you're running in the hearing. If there's evidence that you believe is inappropriate or improper, it doesn't take an objection by Larry Schmidt to mean that it can't come in. If you believe it to be inappropriate then the Chair, as the presiding body in this hearing, can certainly make that ruling and your rules of proper, rules of procedure say as much, that you can exclude and limit repetitive and immaterial testimony. That's exactly what it says in there.

CHAIR: I'm, I'm familiar with what the rules say.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I don't believe, I, I don't believe that, I'll say it this way. I don't believe this testimony is appropriate for this hearing --

CHAIR: I've already comm, I've already made comments --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- whether it's admissible --

CHAIR: Hold on. I've already made comments as to what I personally had thought and what the prior rulings have been. But in light of the issue as to the proffer, that's why we're at where we're at. If there's any, if there are other objections to the materials and testimony to follow, it is understood basically, number one, what you are, what you would object to because you've now stated for the record. But secondly, his proffer is already put in properly then for the record to be preserved for future use. That was the entire exercise.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right.

CHAIR: It was (inaudible) critique as to you can't put a proffer in without making attempts.

MR. SCHMIDT: Which is what you said, I believe.

CHAIR: Right, which he then went down the road. If there were objections made at that time, perhaps there would have been a different understanding. I actually don't think, some of this stuff is not going to be helpful, I would agree, as to the resolution, as to any matter within the Petition for Special Hearing.

MR. SCHMIDT: I don't think it's got anything to do with the resolution of the Petition for Special Exception.

CHAIR: It may speak to certain matters as to credibility of certain witnesses. I could be open to that argument, which as I understood, to some degree, what Mr. Holzer was trying to accomplish.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: So, --

MR. SCHMIDT: If David Marks is a liar and a thief, it doesn't matter, it doesn't bear on the issue as to whether the Petition for Special Exception should be granted.

CHAIR: I will not characterize Councilman Marks in any way, shape or form in that regard.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I'm not, I'm saying, but if that's the allegation --

MR. HOLZER: Well, I would object, I'm going to object to that.

CHAIR: Hold on, hold on, hold on.

MR. HOLZER: Come on.

CHAIR: We are, we now have an understanding of where we all are and why this is where we are at at this time.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: With that in mind, Mr. Holzer, do you have any further questions?

MR. HOLZER: There is one more area that I think he would have covered --

MR. MCCOMAS: Not to go back down the bunny hole here. The, but Exhibit 98, --

CHAIR: That was admitted.

MR. MCCOMAS: Admitted. Does that mean seventy-two is now admitted?

CHAIR: It's the same thing.

MR. MCCOMAS: It's i.d. only, it's only i.d. only at the moment.

CHAIR: Well, ninety-eight is admitted so the substance is already in so it doesn't make a difference. We'll leave the prior ruling alone so we're not disturbing the record in any more detail. But it is in the record.

MR. HOLZER: And it's in the record, Mr. McComas, it's in the record for purposes of a proffer. That's the difference between --

CHAIR: Yes, you said it far more eloquently and succinctly than I could have. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: I doubt that. I, you've, Mr. Chairman, you have expressed exactly. The only reason, if you'll recall, I didn't want to get into this but when that ruling was required that I try, --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- that's why I did it and, and --

CHAIR: And that's what was understood.

MR. HOLZER: I know. And I have, there's one more area that I could ask him a question about and then we're done. At least finish the proffer. I hope we're finished everything but --

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- the proffer. Mr. Clark, there is, in your, in my proffer, there was something about testimony of Mr. Ghimire and Mr. Brochin.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Who was, at that time, was a State Senator and he was running for County Executive. Within that context, be brief, --

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: -- and just explain what took place?

MR. CLARK: In, in, in his day five testimony, Mr. Ghimire asserted that Mr. Brochin approached a County employee in the performance of her duties and basically said, and, and I, the, the quote I have, he said to her, if I had a fundraiser at my house, I'm running for office right now, would you come to my house?

CHAIR: I'm, I recall the testimony.

MR. CLARK: Okay? So, that's the proffer.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and what's the significance of him doing that? As a result of --

MR. SCHMIDT: Of who, Mr. Brochin or Mr. Ghimire or the person who's having the fundraiser?

MR. HOLZER: Of anything that the witness has, has drawn a conclusion from that statement.

MR. CLARK: I don't know. All, all, all, alls I do know is that when, this was a County health inspector, she was responding to our request that she, she go out and insure that sanitation was, requirements were being met. And alls I know is she, she called me and said anything, anything related to this is going to have to go through somebody else's, I think it was Mueller's office.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: That's all I know.

MR. HOLZER: All right, thank you. Members of the Board, I believe in terms of the proffer, that's all that we need at this point and I have no further questions in regard to the proffer. Can I ask one or two last questions if he has anything else that he wanted to address that has not been addressed?

CHAIR: You may ask whatever question you feel appropriate at this time.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: And we'll see where that takes us.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. I hope it takes us to the end. Mr. Clark, you've testified for two, three days now. You've testified on behalf of yourself, your neighborhood and Mary insofar as the effect of this on, on your property and yourself. You have testified on behalf of the community association in terms of their objections. You testified in regard to the community association in regard to their possible request for conditions to be attached. You have acknowledged that your conditions, personally, would coincide with those conditions set forth in the, in the comm, community association. Is there anything else that you are here today to testify that has not been covered by, is it two or three days, I can't remember how many?

MR. SCHMIDT: Three.

MR. HOLZER: Three.

CHAIR: This, yes.

MR. CLARK: I think it might be worth five minutes to, to say, to, to describe how Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association got formed and --

CHAIR: Correct me if I'm wrong, did we not have that testimony yesterday?

MR. HOLZER: No, he didn't testify, he testified about what the, how the community association, what their by-laws, etcetera, were, but he didn't go into how it was formed.

CHAIR: I understand.

MR. HOLZER: And that was one of my questions that I was supposed to ask him.

CHAIR: I, I, I understand now. Okay. The difference --

MR. CLARK: Just, just, just history and background. The Greater Kingsville Association in, in the summer of 2017, hosted a couple community meetings. And it was in response to the neighbor awareness of, of events on the subject property. And what Greater Kingsville Association wanted to know is how disturbing it was to everybody and give the community a chance to come together. Now, I would point out that none, I, that I saw none of the Protest, none of the Petitioners' witnesses at those, at those meetings although they, they may, they would, I don't know if they would have been invited, you know. It was, they did a mass mailing, I don't know what they did. I don't know how I got there, okay?

At any rate, four or five of us decided that since this was in our locale, that we would be best to form our own action with the technical assistance and financial support of Greater Kingsville Civic Association, okay? So, we became an independent organization and we included members of their board on our board to do liaison. I've had some organizational work in my background.

And so, we got together in early September. I ran down and gave Mr. Holzer a retainer check and that started his involvement, September 2017, and we started to organize. We, by the end of January, we had, oh, well, or we decided, this, this goes to Ms. Dopkin's question, we decided that we were not going to handle funds. All funds would be sent directly to Mr. Holzer's office and put into --

MR. HOLZER: Escrow.

MR. CLARK: -- an escrow account, thank you, for this case. So, we, we handle absolutely no funds. And so, we didn't need to incorporate. Plus, and, and, and we didn't bother with a website. We're all fairly old school and tired of computers, you know. And we eventually wound up drawing a hundred and twenty landowners in the area. Those are people who own property in the area. There were several meetings where there was confusion about whether it was appropriate for Mr. Ghimire or Mr. Kotroco to attend. The decision was taken no, the opportunity, this is now an opposition group, there is no point in you being there.

There, there, there are, there, there was some fairly aggressive language used about not being, not being denied access to our meeting, okay? So, we, we had our meetings, we took our positions, we started to organized. We formed, we, we, we formed the board. We made --

CHAIR: Let me stop, let me stop you there, because now I think we're caught up to where the testimony was.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I think so.

CHAIR: So now we have why the group was formed.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: That's, and that was my only purpose for the question.

CHAIR: And, because now, like I said, because now we're caught up to what happened after formation --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- with respect to the rule eight papers and the positions taken by the association.

MR. CLARK: Well, --

MR. HOLZER: And I respectfully request that you not say anymore because the Board has, in effect, ruled, but they are accurate. So, enough is enough. As far as I'm concerned, that's the end (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: End of direct for Dr. Clark. Okay. I'm assuming you may have a question or two on cross examination?

MR. SCHMIDT: I might have just a question or two.

MS. DOPKIN: I have a question for Dr. --

CHAIR: Hold on, before we get to that.

MS. DOPKIN: Before we go to cross, I have one question. I was looking back to your November 1st testimony and you gave us a lot of background about yourself.

MR. CLARK: Yes, ma'am.

MS. DOPKIN: And your education, but I think I missed what you did professionally after school.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Just to fill in the gap here.

MR. CLARK: No, and, and I worked for a U.S.A. I.D. program out of Hopkins for a couple years, then I worked at, I was building a career. Then I moved to the Maryland State Department of Education where I did a couple, where I did a, actually it was a very important study, on the question of whether or not special ed students are stigmatized by being in special ed. And it turned out the, the results were no different than their other cohorts, I won't go into that with details but it shut down Bennett. And from there, I went to Harford Community College where, among other things, I served on the Affirmative Action Committee. And then --

MS. DOPKIN: Were you teaching? Were you teaching?

MR. CLARK: I, I, I was the Director of Institutional Planning.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: And yeah, I, I did teach, but the, and then I went, I had an opportunity to become involved with a $5 million grant to look at the process of undergraduate medical education, which is the four years of medical school. During the, during the course of that, that was to be my coming out party and during the course of that, the principal investigator had the nerve to die of a drop dead heart attack. A lot of the other vice presidents were very scared about what Lou and I were doing and so, and so I was told to sit in my office and read the newspaper until they figured out what to do with me. At which point, they gave me a non-disclosure agreement to sign --

CHAIR: Hold on, I feel the need to jump in at this point.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: I hope, if, if that non-disclosure agreement is in place, anything you just discussed does not --

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, no, no, no, no, it doesn't.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It doesn't. What --

MS. DOPKIN: This is Harford Community College?

MR. CLARK: No, no, this is for the Association of American Medical Colleges, I'm sorry.

MS. DOPKIN: Oh.

MR. CLARK: It, it, it involved the, the data that Lou and I had acquired.

CHAIR: That was the non-disclosure?

MR. CLARK: Right, that was the non-disclosure.

CHAIR: The data.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Okay and so, now I did publish, as, as a result of, in there and it's published, for example, in 1992, medical schools, U.S. medical schools, were drip, were dipping into their third and fourth time appliers to fill seats, okay? That was the kind of thing Lou and I were looking at.

MS. DOPKIN: Who is Lou?

MR. CLARK: Lou Kettle, he was my vice president.

CHAIR: The one who dropped dead of a heart attack?

MR. CLARK: He was the principal investigator, yeah. And so, and so they, they were fairly nerv, you know, other vice presidents were fairly nervous about what we were doing so when he died, they took the opportunity to clean out his office, had me read a newspaper, I signed a non-disclosure agreement, they, they paid up my retirement and because I was also in the middle of all those health problems that were going on at the time, I just said to heck with it, you know. And I signed a non-disclosure and I took the money and went on from there.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

CHAIR: Anything further then?

MR. HOLZER: Absolutely not.

CHAIR: All right. So, I, again, I understand there will be cross examination of this witness. It is almost 2:00. Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir?

CHAIR: How long would you like for lunch?

MR. SCHMIDT: Forty-five minutes.

CHAIR: I'm, because I'm trying to give you the benefit of the doubt to also help with whatever you need to organize for purposes of the cross examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: Without trying to stretch our schedule boundaries as best as possible.

MR. SCHMIDT: Forty-five minutes is fine with me if that's okay with, --

CHAIR: Okay. So, --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- you know, I'll defer to you.

CHAIR: For, forty-five minutes would be, hold on. Twenty of three?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Do I have that correct?

MR. SCHMIDT: That's, that's great. That's fine, thank you.

CHAIR: Is my math, does that add up?

MR. HOLZER: I, it's close enough for me.

MR. MCCOMAS: That's fine. You're rounding, you're rounding, that's all right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: You're rounding up.

CHAIR: So, all right. So, we'll do twenty of three we'll be back.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, sir.

MR. CLARK: Ms. Dopkin, do I have to eat by myself?

MS. DOPKIN: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: You're on cross examination, so you can't talk about your testimony.

MR. CLARK: So, I have to eat by myself?

MS. DOPKIN: You're still on the stand, yes.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, okay. Thank you.

MS. DOPKIN: And you're still under oath.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 01:52:06 PM)

(ON RECORD – 02:44:28 PM)

CHAIR: Everyone please double check your phones to make sure that they are off. Or any device for that matter.

MS. DOPKIN: We're on the record.

CHAIR: We're back on the record. Everyone is gesturing towards one another. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: No, I, that's okay. I believe, Mr. Schmidt and I have talked about what he's going to do. He's going to cross for a while, I don't know how long. He said it may not be that long. At 4:00, Mr. Jakubiak would have been my next witness. Unfortunately, he has to leave by 4:00. He --

CHAIR: I'll save you, I'll save you because it makes no sense to me to start Mr. Jakubiak at 4:00.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. He has to, he's an, he's the attorney for the Town of Centreville Planning Commission and they have a meeting.

MR. SCHMIDT: The planner.

CHAIR: Yes, exactly.

MR. HOLZER: A planner.

CHAIR: We know he's not an attorney, but I understood from his prior testimony he is a planner.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, right. And he has a prior commitment that he has to be in Centreville --

CHAIR: No, again, I see no reason to start him at 4:00.

MR. HOLZER: I will say this so that the Board has some comfort. I will put him on at the very beginning of February 5th, unless you choose to address some of these other issues that could, maybe could wait and then when he's finished, the only other possible witness that I have is someone from Kingsville to authenticate the, the letter that has just been marked for i.d. at this point.

CHAIR: That relate --

MR. HOLZER: That relates to their position.

CHAIR: Right. Well, if I could offer a suggestion to try to accelerate that.

MR. HOLZER: Uh huh.

CHAIR: If you come up with an affidavit or stipulation as to what may be said, perhaps you can come to an agreement with Mr. Schmidt on that, maybe you can't. But even then, that witness will be very brief.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, it'll, I was going to say, it'll be about two, two or three minutes at most.

CHAIR: Okay. As it relates to exhibits that you would use in connection with Mr. Jakubiak, to the extent that they are not in the record, to whatever you would feel comfortable sharing in advance.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: For example, his c.v. If you get agreement with Mr. Schmidt as to those things, we can blow past --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll stipulate he's an expert planner.

MR. HOLZER: Because he's used him.

MR. SCHMIDT: I've used him before.

CHAIR: Yes. Before we put that affirmatively, what we're doing with that, but I mean, I'm just giving an example as to --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- documents that you feel comfortable sharing at this point, perhaps to help streamline again that process.

MR. HOLZER: No, no problem. When I get the stuff from him on the other --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- thing that he has to deliver --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- I'll also try to get together whatever possible I can share with --

CHAIR: Yes, and I figured that there would be some agreement as to those matters --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- in advance. And lastly, to pick up on the Motion aspect of it, it would be my inclination or preference to resolve that at the top of the morning on the 5th, just to get it out of the way. And then, because there may be things that fall out from there that you're going to, or you're going to or however this plays out, you know, cause some adjustments for perhaps some people you would want present. Sorry, Ms. Dopkin?

MS. DOPKIN: Exhibit 96, the transcript excerpt.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, I was just going to ask you, did they ever pull the transcript?

CHAIR: Ah. Going back to the issue as to Exhibit 96, the tran, the ALJ transcript as well.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

CHAIR: Has that been shared with Mr. Schmidt yet?

MR. HOLZER: No, we haven't, haven't had time.

CHAIR: It, it's okay if it has not happened.

MR. HOLZER: No, it has not.

CHAIR: I, I'm just asking if it has happened.

MR. HOLZER: I, we certainly will do that by the end of the week when --

MR. SCHMIDT: They can send me a copy or --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- give me an original and I'll copy it and return it, whatever they want to do.

CHAIR: Yeah, nobody's rights will be waived as to that particular issue as well.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: In conn, in connection also as we set forth earlier, as to the Motion on Exhibit 34.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Chairman, if I could lend experience of forty-five years --

CHAIR: Yeah, please.

MR. HOLZER: I think, respectfully submit --

CHAIR: It's okay.

MR. HOLZER: That putting Mr. Jakubiak on first, letting him testify, letting him get cross examined, is going to be done, I think not well before lunch time, but maybe by 11:00, 11, whatever. And then go into the secret letter discussion because, frankly, that could be very, I don't want to say explosive but it could get us involved in all sorts of things.

CHAIR: I, I'm sorry if I was not clear. It was my, it would be my inclination, it is by no means set in stone.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And it could very well be that the, the response and reply or whatever that comes forward, makes it apparent that that is an impossibility and it would be far more efficient to have Mr. Jakubiak on first.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: So, I'm, if it's something that was, something that really did not take a long time, that's the reason why I say that. If it's apparent that it will not, it will take longer, obviously I would, I, I would probably more defer to that position.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I just think it's potentially more explosive, if that's an appropriate word --

CHAIR: Understood, okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- to use.

CHAIR: No problem. We'll, --

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: -- we'll deal with it, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: But Mr. Jakubiak has been sitting here, if he --

CHAIR: He is excused at your will.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, you're available to go, you're aware of the fifth, you're aware of, call me tomorrow.

CHAIR: We are, we are starting at 9:00 on the 5th.

VOICE: I'll be here, thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Jakubiak, before you leave, and I noticed this from my other case in which you were involved, I don't have a copy of your resume.

VOICE: Would you like a copy now?

MR. SCHMIDT: Could you send, could you e-mail it to me? Mr. Holzer, I need it for the other case.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

VOICE: There's a copy right there on the desk.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

MR. HOLZER: Glad to be of service in another case.

CHAIR: I understand.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: All right. So, now we have all those preliminary matters aside --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

CHAIR: -- for the afternoon?

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: We can, Mr. Schmidt, I'm assuming you're ready for cross examination of Mr., excuse me, Dr. Clark?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Mr. Clark, let me ask you, and let me start by asking you, do you go by Dr. Clark or Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: I actually go by Dewey, just call me Dewey.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I, the formality would require me to use your last name, but are you a Ph.D.?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I am.

MR. SCHMIDT: You are. Do you go by Dr. Clark or do you prefer Mr. Clark, you tell me?

MR. CLARK: I prefer Mr. Clark.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, that's fine, okay. I'll try not to jump around too much but, and I'll try to be as brief as I can. You introduced during the course of your direct examination exhibit number seventy-eight, which is the decision that Mr. Kotroco issued in the matter related to the Grace Community Church.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: And just so that we're clear, how far is the Grace Community Church from the subject property?

MR. CLARK: As the crow flies?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. CLARK: Well, it's not to where Mr. Clarke's property was, it's about, so if he was two miles, mile and a half?

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Would you describe it as being in Kingsville?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Would you describe it as being in the neighborhood, your neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: I would describe it as being in my locale.

MR. SCHMIDT: In your locale. How about your neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. What's your neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: My, my neighborhood community is, and this is going to sound very --

CHAIR: Just answer the question.

MR. CLARK: -- yeah, yeah, you know, I, I am emotionally focused from say Mount Vista down to, down, down into the park.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Please specify.

MR. CLARK: Gunpowder Falls Park, down Harford Road.

To me, that, that's, that's where I spend most of, most of my time when I'm at home, that's where, that's where I look, that's, all that stuff.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Mount Vista Road to Gun, Gunpowder Falls Park.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, that's what you describe as your neighborhood? But you --

MR. CLARK: I live, yeah, but, go ahead --

MR. SCHMIDT: But you would describe the Grace Church as being within the, I think you used the word locale?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Are you familiar with the Grace Church property?

MR. CLARK: No, not personally.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have you ever been there?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know, if you know, do you know if the, according to Mr. Kotroco's decision, the property is about 16.1 acres of land, is that correct to the best of your knowledge?

MR. CLARK: Do I need to --

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I just, if you know or does that sound correct based on your knowledge of it? Does that sound about --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yes, that sounds correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, about half the size of the subject property?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes?

MR. HOLZER: Do you want the document --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, why, why don't you --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I'm sorry, yeah.

MR. CLARK: -- why, why don't you? Thank you.

CHAIR: Would it be fair to say the information you have as to its size comes from that exhibit?

MR. CLARK: Correct, yes, sir. Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, Exhibit 78.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'm looking --

MR. CLARK: Seventy, yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, just to be fair to you, on page one of the decision, about the middle of the first paragraph, it indicates it's 16.1 acres.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: And it indicates that, at least at the time, was zoned RC-5.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know if that zoning has changed?

MR. CLARK: No, I, I believe it has not --

MR. SCHMIDT: You, you don't know? It has not?

MR. CLARK: I believe it has not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. It also indicates on the decision, within the decision, on page twelve, it's sort of as a result, and I'm looking at the second full paragraph on page twelve.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: After much, quote, after much opposition from the surrounding community, and it goes on to say that the project was redesigned so it was proposed to be a forty-seven thousand two hundred and fifty-seven square foot building. Is that, based on your knowledge, does that sound about right? Is that what actually was built, if you know?

MR. CLARK: I do not know.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't know. Okay. It indicates on the property as, or in the decision as well, that it is such size as to handle a five hundred seat sanctuary. And that's actually, you were talking about the, the restrictions and I'd just draw your attention to page twenty-four. I think you talked about some of those. Restriction number three indicates that the sanctuary will be no more five hundred seats.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: You see that?

MR. CLARK: I see it.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is that what, in fact, is that, is the property still in compliance with that, if you know?

Within that limitation?

MR. CLARK: Seeing as how Kingsville is the monitoring organization, I would assume yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and there's also, as part of that, a fellowship hall and a gymnasium? I'm looking at restriction number four?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and also in Petitioner's exhibit number seven, they were prop, I'm sorry, not seven, --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: In restriction number seven, I'm sorry, restriction number seven, it indicates that, as I, as I read it, that there were two hundred and forty-four parking spaces that were proposed, macadem parking spaces, or paved parking spaces it calls them, for this property, is that right?

MR. CLARK: I think that's what it was reduced to, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, it was reduced to that number.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Two forty-four. And then also, if you go down within seven as well, that restriction number seven, it further provides that the, about five lines, six lines from the bottom of that restriction, the owner/developer shall be permitted to use grassy open areas of the subject property for overflow parking, correct?

MR. CLARK: But there's a condition on that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, only during certain holidays, the, the high --

MR. CLARK: For, for, for two holidays, for two holidays.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, Christmas and Easter holidays.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, two holidays.

MR. SCHMIDT: This is, this is obviously a Christian church.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, but it's two days.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay. So, needless to say, this, this church, the Grace Church is significantly larger than, than the Nepali conversion of the building, the existing building?

MR. CLARK: To the State.

MR. SCHMIDT: Pardon me?

MR. CLARK: To the State.

MR. SCHMIDT: To the State, yes, sir. And that, okay. Were there, is there any proposal under the current Petition that you're aware of to enlarge or increase the footprint of the existing building on the, on the Bonaparte property, on the subject property?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. Now, Mr. Clark, in, I think the last question that you were asked during your cross examination was about some of the jobs that you have done and your occupation --

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- since your graduation from school and the completion of your education. And it sounds to me, is it fair to say, that many of those have involved the field of education?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and, and you're, I guess I would call it vocation, as opposed to occupation, is, at least one of them, is that you're a, you described it as quote, a naturalist, correct?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. That's not, as I understand it, that's not a paid position?

MR. CLARK: No, it is not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It's a volunteer position with the State.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you are not a civil engineer?

MR. CLARK: I am not.

MR. SCHMIDT: You are not a surveyor?

MR. CLARK: I am not.

MR. SCHMIDT: You are not a sanitarian?

MR. CLARK: I am not.

MR. SCHMIDT: You have no credentials, sir, that would allow you to prepare plans or render opinions on the adequacy of say storm water management plans?

MR. CLARK: No, I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Nor could you prepare or submit to Baltimore County for approval plans that might be required for the design or development of a septic system?

MR. CLARK: I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Nor the providing of well water or the drilling of a well?

MR. CLARK: I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, all of your opinions about any potential environmental damage are rendered as a layman and not as an ex, matter with expertise as either an engineer, surveyor, sanitarian or any of those types of occupations?

MR. CLARK: Just as a trained naturalist.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes. Does a naturalist have to be licensed by the State of Maryland?

MR. CLARK: The, the program is a certified master naturalist by the State. You take a, you go through a course and you serve an apprenticeship. The course is down at the Department of Natural Resources and it is taught by the staff at the Wildlife (inaudible) Services. You address a number of issues and my specific area of interest in that has been forest health and as an, I, I, invasive species. Invasive species is not the end all and be all of forest health, forest health is bigger than that, but that's a big part of where I spend my time.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. But you don't have any kind of seal as a naturalist, where you would seal plans? When I say seal --

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, no, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Insofar as, now, there is forest on the subject property, correct?

MR. CLARK: That's a stretch.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't believe it's a forest?

MR. CLARK: No, there, there are woods.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: A lot of them are, what we would term weed, weedy trees.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: There are a couple oaks. And there is a fair bit of ailanthus.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, there's no new --

CHAIR: What was that word you used about the trees, I'm sorry?

MR. CLARK: Oh, scrubby trees, weedy trees, weedy trees, weedy trees, you know, like black gum and, and --

CHAIR: Could you say that word again?

MR. CLARK: Weedy, W-E-E-D --

CHAIR: As in weed?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay. Sorry.

MR. CLARK: Trees that are native but are undesirable.

CHAIR: Understood. I just had not heard that before and I didn't know what that meant.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. There's no new building proposed? When I say building, unlike for example the Grace case, or other cases, where a church may be proposed and a, a structure is going to be built. You've been here for all the days of the testimony, you're aware, sir, are you not, that there's no building proposed here?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that there's no, there will be no loss of trees but for what might be required to expand the driveway, I think we heard testimony about that as well.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You, you also mentioned that this property has some historic designation.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and what is that?

MR. CLARK: It falls within the National Historic District of Long Green Valley.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know what the boundaries of that district are?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, they, they, Mount Vista Road, it intentionally, it looks like it was intentionally drawn around the property, the, the subject property.

CHAIR: Mount Vista Road was?

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, the historic district boundaries.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, okay.

MR. CLARK: All right? The meets and bounds. And then it goes down the center of Harford Road to the park and then it extends over into Glen Arm and Baldwin.

MR. SCHMIDT: How big is it, if you, if you know, in terms of the square miles or acres? If you know. If you don't know, you don't know. That's fine.

MR. CLARK: We, yeah, we, we do have the, the document was provided in evidence, but --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: Do you remember what exhibit? We can find it.

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Are there any limitations which would relate to the Petitioner's plans by virtue of the designation of within a historic district? In other words, does it say by virtue of being within the Long Green Historic District you can't have churches or you can't have Nepalese churches or you can't convert houses to churches or any similar restrictions that you're aware of?

MR. CLARK: I'm not sure of the underlying purpose of the question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, the purpose of the question is you've indicated during direct examination that the property is within Long Green Valley Historic District.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: And there is a suggestion or an inference that that somehow bears on whether this Board should grant the special exception.

MR. CLARK: I am just bringing it to the Board's attention.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, my question is, if you know, sir, and I assume you've researched this, you've done a lot of research on this project, is there any limitation or restriction or other language or requirement by virtue of this designation that would bear on this Board's ability to grant this special exception? In other words, they, the designation says you can't have Nepalese churches within the district, I know that's a ridiculous example, but I'm just trying to give you an example. Is there anything like that?

MR. CLARK: I, I don't understand why we keep going back to Nepalese.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, is there any restriction of any type or nature as it relates to the operation of a place of worship within the Long Green Valley District?

MR. CLARK: Not that I am aware of.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, being, being in the district, doesn't mean that this church can, property cannot be used for religious purposes?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: And indeed --

MR. CLARK: Or I don't, I don't believe so. I don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, you're the one who indicated that you thought it was important for the Board to understand that was in an historic district. And I'm just trying to figure out why that is if it doesn't matter whether it's in a historic district.

MR. CLARK: Well, it was of interest because Mr. Motsco did, in his endorsement, said it does not lie within any national historic districts. So, I presume there is a reason why that is required on the endorsement.

MR. SCHMIDT: What's the endorsement?

MR. CLARK: The endorsement on the plans that he submitted to the County in support of this application.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Are any other historic designations or districts affixed to this property? Not

Federal, but State or local, if you know?

MR. CLARK: The, the mile marker that was introduced.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and what is that?

MR. CLARK: That's a, that's an MHT, Maryland Historic Trust, and it's the mile marker that was introduced yesterday and has been introduced before.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, that marker, that, that actual, the physical marker that we have photographs of, that is what a historic structure, or historic object, is that what you're saying?

MR. CLARK: I, I, I think, I, I, well, in trail work, it's called a structure, anything that is man-made is a structure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. How big is it?

MR. CLARK: It's about, above ground, it's about five feet.

MR. SCHMIDT: Five feet square?

MR. CLARK: No, tall.

MR. SCHMIDT: Tall? Five feet tall, okay.

MR. CLARK: It's, it's a, it's white, I assume it's granite or marble, whatever they were using in the day, it's basically a pylon. The pylon goes down, generally pylons, you plant them as much down as you should, as you have exposed.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you indicated that it's design, it's a designated mile marker by the Maryland Historic

Trust?

MR. CLARK: It's designated by them in, as, as a, it's on their inventory for the Maryland Historic Trust.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and I'd ask you the same thing, is by virtue of being on the Maryland Historic Trust, or by virtue of the fact that this pylon or marker is on the MHT designation, does that in any way restrict or limit the development of this property as a church?

MR. CLARK: My understanding is that there can be no excavation without MHT, MHT approval within six hundred feet of that monument. And that impacts any kind of entrance made, entrance changes made to the property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and where is that authority?

MR. CLARK: That's, that's in the, that, that's in the Maryland Historic Trust. That's in the, yeah. If you're asking me to cite code and verse, no, I can't.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't know, okay. How about any local designation? Is there any local historic designation of anything on the property?

MR. CLARK: I'll leave, you know, a lot of these questions I don't know. Mr. Jakubiak will address them, I'm sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, very well. Thank you. Now, you talked a little bit about your, I guess, advocations, including being a naturalist, which I understand is a, is a volunteer position, correct?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: What is it, Mr., Mr. Clark, that you do for a living or are you employed?

MR. CLARK: I'm a watchmaker.

MR. SCHMIDT: And are you self-employed or do you work for someone else?

MR. CLARK: Self, self-employed.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and where is your business located?

MR. CLARK: It's located in my home, which is a, it's a permitted activity in an RC-2 zone and I have my business license.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and your property is zoned RC-2, is it not?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and how is your business loc, well, let me strike that. If you know, do you know what the RC-2 zone is, what type of zone it is?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: What is it?

MR. CLARK: It is a rural, it is a density designation and it's one lot, one, one house on two acres.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, if you have six acres, you can have three houses in the RC-2 zone?

MR. CLARK: No, because they can't be subdivided anymore, I believe. I, I'm not a zoning expert. I've already, I've already test, I've already been qualified as not a zoning --

CHAIR: Dr. Clark, just answer the question and if you can't answer the question, I don't know is a perfectly fine answer.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, you've rendered a number of opinions about the spirit and intent of the subject use and whether it is compatible with the spirit and intent of the zoning regulations, which is one of the criteria in 502.1. And since you've rendered those opinions, I am trying to explore the depth of your knowledge as it relates to the County zoning regulations.

MR. CLARK: I believe you already established that I am a lay witness.

CHAIR: Hold on, let me make this easy. Don't have an argument back and forth --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: Please just answer his question directly again.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: This will make things go smoother and faster.

MR. CLARK: You promise?

CHAIR: Yeah, well, I, that would be my expectation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Your, you've indicated that the RC-2 zone allows one house for every two acres of land.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: There, therefore, just by way of an example, if one owned ten acres of RC-2 land, one would be able to create five building lots, is that correct? Just on the --

MR. CLARK: I have --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- mathematical formula?

CHAIR: Let him finish, please.

MR. CLARK: Okay, sorry.

CHAIR: And sorry, Mr. Schmidt, do jump in there but before he did, if you would like to restate your question just so it's clear for the record or you think you're fine.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I'm happy to restate it. Not trying to trick you, Mr. Clark.

MR. CLARK: No, I know.

MR. SCHMIDT: You indicated, I believe, that your, your opinion is that the RC-2 zone, which is the zone of your property, allows utilization of that zone at a ratio of one house for every two acres or the, every, every house has to be on a lot that is a minimum of two acres, is that right?

MR. CLARK: I misstated that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Unless, thank you for the opportunity.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. CLARK: One, one dwelling on the property that is, that, that is in an RC-2 zone, that, that is zoned RC-2, that is my understanding.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry, can you say that again?

MR. CLARK: Well, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. One dwelling on a property that is zoned RC-2.

MR. SCHMIDT: Does, does size have anything to do with it, lot size, the acreage of the lot?

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, I misspoke. I was not focusing.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, I'm not trying to be difficult and I want to move on because it's, it doesn't relate to the subject property as much as I'm just trying to find your understanding of the zoning regulations upon which you, you provided lay opinion --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- that you understand the zoning regulations and so on and so forth. So, --

MR. CLARK: Can, can I just tell you that basically is my, my, my understanding is not a heck of a lot more than of a typical homeowner in the County.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, I would beg to differ with

Mr. Clark. After two and a half days of listening to you about the zoning regulations, I would suspect you may know more than the typical homeowner but we're not going to go there.

MR. CLARK: All right, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: If I can mark this as the next exhibit?

MR. MCCOMAS: Thirty-five.

CHAIR: Thirty-five, Petitioner thirty-five.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Thank you, Mr. McComas, and I'll hand up three copies for the Board. And Mr. Clark, I'm showing you just a printout from a, the public domain --

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Maryland business address, which identifies down at the bottom of the first page as a business, the business known as Historic Timekeepers, Inc.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is that your business?

MR. CLARK: That is my business.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that indicates that the principal office of Historic Timekeepers, Inc. is it 12150 Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and how long have you been in business at your property 125, I'm sorry, 1, 12150 Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: Since '93, '94.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and if I could mark as, as the next exhibit --

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, do you want to move for admission?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, I would offer Exhibit 35 and it's only to, I think, confirm what Mr. Clark has said, that his business is located at his home.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Contrary to my other counsel, I have no objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Well, thank you, sir. It will, it will be admitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: Keep it going, Mr. Holzer. I would give to the Board, I'll ask that they mark as exhibit, Petitioner's --

CHAIR: Thirty-six.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Exhibit 36, this is a, I think this was actually taken, maybe Mr. Clark, from your web page, does that sound right?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and I assume, I offer it because I assume, and as a matter of fact, on page, and it might be, well, I guess it's page four or five and six, maybe the famous microscope that you were looking at that plan with, I'm not sure.

MR. CLARK: Oh, yeah, yeah, okay. Yeah, yeah, yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay? But in any event, it in, indicates that I think one of the things that you do in addition, I suspect, to watch repair is that you sell all types of equipment and other information related to your business? In other words, it says watchmake, watchmaker, microscopes, microscopes for sale and so on and so forth, is that accurate? Does this accurately describe, at least, that part of your business?

MR. CLARK: Not quite. It's all mail order.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

MR. CLARK: In, in, including, including my customer base.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you mail these things to people? People don't come to the house, I'm assuming?

MR. CLARK: They do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You keep these, keep products, I assume, since you have pictures of them and all, you keep the products at your house but then they would be mailed to somebody who would buy them, is that the way it works?

MR. CLARK: Yes, and it's, and for example, with microscopes, as you can see from the sold, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. CLARK: -- it's maybe one or two at a, at a time.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It's not, it's not a massive inventory of stuff.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. But, and again, you don't have folks coming to the house to buy pro, buy this, it's mailed from your property to them?

MR. CLARK: If you, if you paid attention closely to my website --

MR. SCHMIDT: Um hm.

MR. CLARK: -- you will note that I do not have an address on it, I only have a phone number.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: That's for security reasons.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. If I would want to get my watch fixed, could I come to your house, drop it off --

MR. CLARK: No, no, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: I would mail it to you?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and just, I would offer that as thirty-six.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: No objection.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: This is again, I think this is all taken from Mr. Clark's website. I'll off, mark thirty-seven, this is the last one.

CHAIR: Do you, Mr. Schmidt, do you have copies for Mr. McComas, in addition, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Do you need it, I gave three, but I'll give you another one as well.

CHAIR: It would be better because obviously when considering this case, each Board member would like to review the exhibits.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: I mean, that would be the preferred practice.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

MR. CLARK: This is the free advertising.

MR. SCHMIDT: It's a very nice website.

MR. CLARK: Well, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. McComas, I'll approach and I, I think these are the three that I've given you and I have an extra copy as well.

MR. MCCOMAS: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: Certainly. So, okay. So, Mr. Clark, I assume these documents that I've introduced, and I would offer the, thirty-seven?

MR. MCCOMAS: It's thirty-seven.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thirty-seven as well.

CHAIR: And I'm sorry, just to be clear, what is thirty-seven?

MR. SCHMIDT: It's another page from Mr. Clark's website, generally describing some of the services and particularly, some of the goods that can be purchased as he indicated by mail that would be sent from his business as opposed to people coming there.

CHAIR: Understood. Mr. Holzer?

MR. CLARK: And were available.

MR. HOLZER: I, I would just like to know what the purpose of this is, other than to introduce the fact that he does some activity out of his house. What, what's the purpose of these three documents?

CHAIR: Hold, hold on. So, you would object to the document as for relevance?

MR. HOLZER: I don't, I don't want to object to the document. If it, if there is a stated purpose why he's introducing it. I, I, I mean, the witness has already, honestly, answered the first two. I'm just curious as to where we're going with this.

CHAIR: Okay. But as to this, as to this particular exhibit, are you objecting, awaiting a response?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay, fair enough. Mr. Schmidt, what is your response?

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure. There, the purpose is twofold. One is I think the character of the local, of, of the locale and of the neighborhood is certainly at issue. Mr. Clark testified on direct examination that the area is dominated by farms and I think dwellings. In fact, the Clark property is a business. I do recognize that Mr. Clark lives there but, in fact, is a business. So, I think an understanding of the nature of the locale and what's going on in the locale certainly would be important to the Board. That the Board should note what's, what the type of, of activities that are occurring on the lots.

The second reason is, I think from a, we heard an awful lot about credibility and voracity and things like that, and one, one would think it would be important that a witness who is testifying that this church should only operate and should be in strict compliance with the zoning regulations, would he him, he himself, his own property should be compliant with the zoning regulations.

CHAIR: Well, on the first, on the first grounds so offered, it'll be received and admitted. I'm not going to comment on the second set of grounds offered.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I haven't asked all the questions about that yet.

CHAIR: Understood. And obviously, it'll be given whatever weight this is due with this case.

MR. HOLZER: I, I just wanted to say the, obviously, in regard to all three documents, there are no customers coming

there --

CHAIR: It, it's already established in the record.

MR. HOLZER: It's all established, so.

CHAIR: All that.

MR. HOLZER: And, and there has been no showing of any zoning violations by the County.

CHAIR: We're, I would agree that the record at present doesn't show anything to the contrary.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Although, I will note that Dr. Clark has testified, in fact, to the contrary, that his house is in compliance with zoning.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Which leads me to my next question, actually. Thank you, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, you indicated that your, you believe your business, I believe, on your property to be permitted under the County zoning regulation.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: If I can, what's the basis of your belief?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. And I'm looking for my resource holder, because I anticipated this line --

CHAIR: Your?

MR. CLARK: My resource folder, because I anticipated this question.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, what is your --

MR. CLARK: Resource folder.

CHAIR: What is that?

MR. CLARK: Just some documents in, in, in anticipation of this kind of questioning.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay? You will find under permitted activities in RC-2 in the zoning code an explanation of the kinds of small businesses that are allowed in an RC-2 zone.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And mechanics and workshops are part of, are, are among them.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are you referring to the use that is known in the zoning regulations and designated as a home occupation? If you know?

MR. CLARK: No, I don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't, you don't, --

MR. CLARK: I wish, I wish I could put my hands on the document. I did anticipate this. I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Dr. Clark, if you can't find it at the present moment, it's fine. At a break, you can certainly search for it and if it, if it becomes a matter that needs to be explored further by Mr. Schmidt, I'm sure he will --

MR. CLARK: Okay, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay, all right. So, just, and I'll perhaps move on. But you do not believe you are a quote, home occupation, end of quote, under the zoning regulations? You believe you're some other use?

MR. CLARK: I don't know what that means.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, I can tell you, a, a home occupation is a use that's conducted entirely which, within a dwelling, which is incidental to the main use of the building for dwelling purposes and doesn't have any exterior evidence other than a permitted sign, which would indicate that the building is being utilized for any purpose other than a dwelling.

MR. CLARK: Okay. That fits me.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and then which goes on to say, there cannot be within the dwelling any commodity which is kept for sale on the premises, which would not fit you because you've just testified, Mr. Clark, that you, in fact, sell commodities which are stored within your house, as I under, heard your testimony by mail order.

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: The question is it's not on the premises.

CHAIR: Thank you. Sorry, --

MR. HOLZER: He read the code, which says for sale, materials for sale on the premises.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. HOLZER: They are not sold on the premises based on the testimony, they are mail ordered, both receiving and sending.

CHAIR: If I may, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: I would say that this witness does not know what the definition is and how it's interpreted --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll move on.

CHAIR: That would be a matter for any argument down the line to the extent it's necessary.

MR. SCHMIDT: I will move on.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just a couple other questions, if I can, Mr. Clark. How many employees do you have in your business?

MR. CLARK: Just me.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you do, do you have, other than the equipment that you have, that you sell from the property, the commodities, the things that you sell, which you've previously described, do you have any other mechanical equipment on the property? Lathes, ---

MR. CLARK: Yeah, in my shop.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, --

CHAIR: Again, sir, please don't jump on top of Mr. Schmidt's question.

MR. CLARK: Okay, (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. What, and can you describe what that equipment is?

MR. CLARK: They are watchmaker lathes, they are instruments for calibrating watches, they are parts washers, I do have a small floor mill and a medium size, the designation would be an eight inch toolmakers lathe.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. Is that it in terms of equipment?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, do you have something for me to respond to?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir, just, just if you --

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- have given us an exhaustive list.

MR. CLARK: Do, do, do you want all my little screwdrivers and tweezers and --

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir. No, sir, that's fine.

CHAIR: And again, as best as you can answer the question, please do.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: But you can't fire back questions to Mr.

Schmidt.

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Clark.

MR. CLARK: I mean, I've got, I've got drawers full of tools, yeah.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: And obviously, that, the equipment you've described is used in connection with the business?

MR. CLARK: Yes, it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Mr. Clark, do you know Robin Clark who works for the Code Enforcement Division of Baltimore County?

MR. CLARK: No, I don't, as a matter of fact.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. She is not related to you to the best of your knowledge?

MR. CLARK: No, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Now, Mr. Clark, you've, you indicated that you have never been on the subject property.

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Have you ever been invited to come to the subject property by, by anyone on behalf of the Petitioner? Who has asked you to come to any of the fundraising events or just to come to the property to see what the Petitioners are proposing and what they're doing?

MR. CLARK: Early on in the process --

MR. SCHMIDT: Uh huh.

MR. CLARK: -- right after the ALJ hearing, Mr. Ghimire and I decided that we would try and keep the doors of communication open. And that was during the period in which we were also had to file the appeal. In that period, I, I agreed to come up to the property. There was an incident where he attributed words to me on, on the Nextdoor site that were not mine and I asked him to correct that. And being in business, I take trust very, very seriously and once people, I, I take people at face value until I find I can't. And when Mr. Ghimire did that, and it was, also an incident at the time where, this was also the time period where they were posting that, the Protestants, apparently the Protestants --

CHAIR: Petitioner?

MR. CLARK: Petitioners, thank you. The Petition, the apparent, apparently the Petitioners were posting en masse using the property as their address for Nextdoor. That was a violation of terms of use. Someone, not me, reported that as a, as a violation and I talked to the moderator about this. Her name is Izzy Franzon, and, and, Ibby, I can't remember her last name. But, she told me somebody had pulled them down. Mr. Ghimire e-mailed me and asked me what I knew, you know, what, what I knew. I actually went to Nextdoor and posted whoever, and this is before we understood fully what happened, whoever pulled all those posts down, that is incorrect. And should not have happened. So, during that time, Mr. Ghimire had also attributed words to me. I had gone out on a limb for him and I said, you know, Kris, there, there, Mr. Ghimire, there, there's no reason for me to come up there.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is that the only time you were invited to the property, that one occasion by Mr. Ghimire?

MR. CLARK: Other than an open invitation on, in, in February, they issued to the community for an open house.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you were invited once by Mr. Ghimire to come to the property before Mr. Ghimire and for the reasons that you've described, you declined. You were also as part of the general community invited to an open house that the Petitioner was having to reach out to its neighbors and you declined that as well?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did you ever receive a, an additional invitation to come to the property from Mr. Kotroco? Do you recall receiving an e-mail from Mr. Kotroco inviting you to come up to the property?

MR. CLARK: I, I, I don't, there were several invitations from Mr. Kotroco and --

MR. SCHMIDT: To come to the property?

MR. CLARK: Well, I, I, I, I don't, you're, I, I recall, I just recall several invitations from him to meet with people like Mr. Marks and, and Senator Brochin. They, they, and they wanted me to appear without counsel and all, you know, so I, I don't know. It, it, it all blurs together.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Was that, were those extended to you by e-mail to Mr., or via an e-mail from Mr. Kotroco? If you recall?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, oh, yeah, yeah, I think, I think we have the e-mails.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I would, I would, I would have cc'd Carroll on, Mr. Holzer on them.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, the, the, the e-mail that Mr. Kotroco sent to you, and just for your reference, on January 22nd of 2018 at 9:53 a.m., which invited you and others --

CHAIR: Hold on. If, if you're reading from your phone the e-mail, I think it's only fair to show Mr. Holzer--

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: -- the e-mail.

MR. SCHMIDT: See it.

MR. HOLZER: Do we have a copy of this?

MR. SCHMIDT: I do not have a paper copy because I just got that, based on his comments this morning. But I'm, I'll, I'll print it and submit it at the next hearing.

MR. HOLZER: How, how do I, how do I know what the date was so I can check?

MR. SCHMIDT: January the 22nd of 2018 at 9:53 a.m. There's an e-mail, I believe, to Mr. DeWitt and other neighbors from Mr. Kotroco inviting them to, it might also be helpful for those concerned neighbors to be able to see the property and the improvements that have been made thus far.

MR. CLARK: I, I --

CHAIR: Hold on, hold on, sir. You, Mr. Schmidt, you are quoting directly from that e-mail --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- with your question? Thank you. Mr., Dr. Clark?

MR. HOLZER: Could --

MR. CLARK: If, if, if I recall, all right? I'm not saying that as a fudge factor, if I recall, I was advised by Carroll --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. CLARK: Mr. Holzer, that that was inappropriate at that point in time, because we were filing, we were getting ready to file --

CHAIR: Sir, without going into advice that you may have received from your counsel --

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay.

CHAIR: -- you elected to not attend?

MR. CLARK: Yes. Because we, we were in the process of filing the appeal.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Just on that point, for the record, I was an attorney of record at that point and I never received a copy of the invitation. That goes along with the secret letter type --

CHAIR: We will, we'll deal with that part separately. I understand.

MR. HOLZER: That's all.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I didn't, I didn't need any dialogue on it.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's fine.

CHAIR: Okay, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, I guess at the end of the day, Mr. Clark, you, you've been invited to the property by the Petitioners at least three times, once by Mr. Ghimire, once as part of an open invitation to the neighbors and once by Mr. Kotroco and yet as of today, you've never been to the property?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Since you've never been to the property, do you have any personal knowledge of the condition of the property at the time my client purchased the property?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You have, you are not aware, not just of the property, you are not aware, and I think there were some photographs submitted, but, which you may or may not have seen, you are not aware of the condition of the structure at the time that the, my clients purchased the property?

MR. CLARK: Other, other than the pictures that I have seen and the descriptions by board members who had visited it when it was on sale.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is it fair to --

CHAIR: When you say board, which board?

MR. CLARK: Oh, yeah, by GFWPA board members who had visited it when it, when it, when it was offered for sale.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and at the time it was offered for sale, is it, is it fair to say that the building on the property, the main building and the outbuildings as well, were in a significant state of disrepair?

MR. CLARK: That is what I am told.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is it fair to say that those buildings had been vandalized by, by some persons with, I guess we don't know who?

MR. CLARK: No, we do not know who, but yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

MR. CLARK: As was the farmhouse that was originally part of the property down by me. And when that was purchased thirty years ago, forty years ago, it was in complete, the kids had been using it as a skating rink and the windows were all broken out and --

CHAIR: Is this the barn?

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, no. This is, this is, this is another property --

CHAIR: Oh, another property, sorry.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, that sat abandon and --

MR. SCHMIDT: Not the Nepali property?

MR. CLARK: No, no, not, not the NAACB, Inc. property, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you certainly have had drones and videos and Facebooks, so you've seen the condition of the property now, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is it fair to say that my client has significantly repaired and rehabilitated the property since then?

MR. CLARK: We have a photograph of, from October 6th, of large holes in the roof with people on the roof.

MR. SCHMIDT: Repairing the roof?

MR. CLARK: No, no, having a gathering.

CHAIR: Which structure had that much holes?

MR. CLARK: The, the, the main house.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: We have photos.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry?

MR. HOLZER: Why don't you identify the year?

MR. CLARK: Oh, oh, oh, oh, October 6th, 2018, the, the meeting at, at the property with the Maryland Deputy Department of State. If you go towards the end of that, they all, they, they go through the house --

CHAIR: Hold on. The photos, if they're not in evidence or anything, we don't need a description of them unless Mr. Schmidt asks --

MR. SCHMIDT: Actually, the question that I asked, I'm sorry, I was just very, very clear and --

CHAIR: No, please, it's, it's okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- if, if we can just get an answer to the question that I've asked. Would you, I'll make it simple, Mr. Clark, would you agree or disagree, you can give us a one word answer if that works, that since the property has been acquired by my clients, it has, they, have been significant efforts to rehabilitate and repair the property, the buildings on the property? And the grounds even, in terms of --

MR. CLARK: I don't know if they're significant.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: But when I see a hole in the roof, I'm not sure that's significant.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't think they've done much, okay. Fair enough. Fair enough. There have been two fundraisers on the property since my clients have owned the property, correct? Two fundraising events that you've described, one in 2017 and one in 2018, is that right?

MR. CLARK: The one in 2017 I think we've established was a family fun day.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And a, and a, and a volleyball tournament.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and the one, there was another larger event in 2018, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Were there police at either of the occasions directing traffic or assisting with traffic at either of those occasions, to the best of your knowledge?

MR. CLARK: I believe the Blue Iris videos will show that --

CHAIR: Answer the question.

MR. CLARK: Okay. No.

MR. SCHMIDT: They were not?

MR. CLARK: No, I did not, I did not see, did not observe, did, did not photograph, did not videotape.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: No police helping with traffic on the 2017

event?

MR. CLARK: That I would not know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, you don't know about that?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIR: And no, no police helping with traffic at the 2018 event?

MR. CLARK: The videos that we took show, show that--

CHAIR: I mean, yes or no? That, that's, I just want to clarify --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: To the best of your knowledge, no?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, fair enough. Okay. I'm not trying to be silly with these questions. When one exits the Nepali property, one could turn right onto Harford Road and go north, or left onto Harford Road and go south, correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And if one would turn left onto Harford Road to go south, one would need to cross over the northbound lane of Harford Road to go south, to get to the southbound lane, correct? Pretty simple. When you come out of, onto a road, if you're going to turn left, you have to cross a lane of traffic going the other way to make your left hand turn, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: You would go, the way I execute turns is I go perpendicularly across and make my turn.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, I'm, I don't mean to cut you off, but I'm not asking what your driving habits are. If you could just please listen to my question and answer it. And my question is, would one need to cross a lane of traffic going, in this case, the northbound direction of Harford Road in order to get to the southbound lane of Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and depending on how one operates their motor vehicle, there may very well be a photo taken of that person appearing to drive down the wrong side of the street because they are turning left to get into the southbound lane, is that possible?

MR. CLARK: Do you have something for me to respond to?

CHAIR: Respond to the question.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's all I want you to do.

CHAIR: Respond to the question. He's, as I understood the question, and by all means, Mr. Schmidt, if I've said it wrong, please jump in, is, is it possible that when you're turning out there, when you're making that left hand turn, that people are going through the northbound lane and that's when you capture them on camera?

MR. CLARK: Can I answer your question?

CHAIR: I believe that was his question but in different words.

MR. SCHMIDT: Answer Mr., I'm happy for you to answer Mr. Garber's question.

MR. CLARK: Where that photograph was taken --

MR. SCHMIDT: Sir, I'm not asking you --

MR. CLARK: No, I'm asked, you asked, you said I could answer Mr. Garber's question.

CHAIR: Hold on, it's is it possible?

MR. CLARK: Is what poss, I'm sorry?

CHAIR: Is it possible that the moment the cam, the camera captures the vehicle turning, exiting the property heading left, therefore south, as it crosses over the northbound lane of traffic, is it possible that the camera captures that vehicle in the northbound lane of traffic as it's proceeding into its turn into the southbound lane?

MR. CLARK: From what I know of the circumstances in which that photograph was taken, no.

CHAIR: Okay. You may ask --

MR. SCHMIDT: Can, can we, can we, Mr. Garber, can you please ask the witness to answer the question that I've asked, asked and I believe what you've asked, which is, I believe, when one is exiting the Nepali property to go southbound on Harford Road, one would need, to access the southbound lane, one would need to cross the northbound lane of traffic on Harford Road, is that correct, Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: You would have to cross the, the northbound lane to go southbound.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right, right. And depending on the habits and the skill and the, I suppose, the amount of traffic and other conditions, the time of day, the lighting conditions, etcetera, one may cross the road as apparently you do by proceeding perpendicularly and turning in a ninety degree angle or they may cut, common, like what we would commonly say cut that angle or cross over and appear in a photograph that might be taken at that instant, to be in the wrong lane and headed in the wrong direction, is that correct? It's possible, is it not?

MR. CLARK: At what distance from the, the entrance?

CHAIR: I need to know. The question is, is it possible?

MR. HOLZER: Objection, that isn't the question.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: The question has referred to specifically a photograph, so it ought to be tied to that.

MR. SCHMIDT: It has not.

MR. HOLZER: So it ought to be tied to that.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, Mr. Holzer, he's just asking is it possible that the camera would capture it at that moment, a camera. Okay? So, we're not talking about --

MR. HOLZER: He's referring to a camera.

CHAIR: You, you and I both know that there's a photo that's been introduced --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yeah.

CHAIR: -- but he is referring to a camera that would capture a vehicle in a particular position at a particular moment. Is it possible that it reflects something different than what is understood by this witness?

MR. HOLZER: I would stipulate that he has --

CHAIR: He has said no --

MR. HOLZER: -- to cross the northbound lane to go southbound, that's not what he's driving at. He's trying to say that the photograph that's already in was taken during that time and that's why I'm --

CHAIR: I'll make this, I'll make this clear, because I understand his answer to be no, and he has an explanation as to why the answer is no.

MR. CLARK: Okay. No.

CHAIR: And why, why is that?

MR. CLARK: Where I was standing was, when that photograph was taken, was --

CHAIR: What, okay, now you're referring to the specific photograph.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: That we've seen.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: Do you have that in, handy in terms of the number?

MR. HOLZER: I don't remember what the number was but you've all been discussing it.

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe it's 35-A.

CHAIR: Let's bring the photo out to make this then easier, which I understand --

MR. SCHMIDT: Or 35-B, there are a couple of them around that time.

CHAIR: -- what, that's what you want to go, I know.

MR. HOLZER: That was my point.

CHAIR: But the question as asked did not ref, reference the specific exhibit, but now we're there.

MR. HOLZER: What is it?

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe it's Petit, is it Petitioners or Protestants? Protestants, I believe, Mr. McComas?

MR. HOLZER: 35-A.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, here it is, here's one and I think we have another one.

MR. HOLZER: There it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I think he's got a copy of it.

MR. CLARK: I do.

MR. HOLZER: I just handed him a copy.

CHAIR: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Holzer. Okay.

Have you had the opportunity --

MR. SCHMIDT: Now, Mr. Clark, you took that photo --

CHAIR: -- have you had the opportunity to review the photos?

MR. CLARK: I did.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, back to you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and Mr. Clark, you took those photos personally?

MR. CLARK: I did.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and is it your testimony that, that those vehicles were proceeding, let me make sure I get my directions correct, southbound in the northbound lane of Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: I think that's what the photo shows.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Let's try this again. Is it your testimony that when you were there observing the traffic, that there were vehicles traveling southbound in the northbound lane of Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. For what distance were they traveling?

MR. CLARK: Well, as you can see, I'm, I'm past the telephone pole at the entrance, at, at the intersection of Mark Lane and Harford Road. I am maybe seventy-five feet south of that, okay? So, that means I'm seventy-five feet south of the entrance easily. And assuming they have driven correctly, that coming out of the traffic by going, ex, exiting from the north side of, what do you call that?

CHAIR: Their entrance and exit way --

MR. CLARK: The circle, the stone, the, --

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, assuming that, that, that they were, that they exited out off of that correctly, as Mr. Collagero has testified is the correct practice, then this is probably another what, forty feet from that.

CHAIR: Where the vehicle in 35-A is depicted is thirty-five to forty feet away?

MR. CLARK: No, it would be about a hundred and ten, hundred and fifteen.

CHAIR: I'm, I'm trying to understand what you meant by this, I heard this.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, the, the, sole circle, in--

CHAIR: Take your time.

MR. CLARK: -- that divides the driveway. It has been testified that the proper way to leave there is to go, is to make a left hand turn from the north side of that stone circle. That nobody should be making a left hand turn from the south side of that circle. And so, this is, at this point in time, --

CHAIR: What is this?

MR. CLARK: At this point in time, this car --
CHAIR: You're pointing to 35-A.
MR. CLARK: 35-A.
CHAIR: And the vehicle depicted in 35-A.
MR. CLARK: And the vehicle depicted in 35-A, is probably a hundred and twenty-five feet from the entrance.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.
MR. CLARK: And the --
MR. SCHMIDT: Was there an accident as a result of that driving?
MR. CLARK: No.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. All right, thank you, Mr. Clark.
CHAIR: Are you done with that exhibit?
MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I think he gave that to, Mr. Holzer gave it to him, take it back, yes, sir.
MR. CLARK: Yeah, this goes, yeah, yeah, thank you.
CHAIR: That's why I just want to make sure it gets returned to its proper owner.
MR. HOLZER: Thank you, thank you. I'm the proper owner.
CHAIR: Thank you.
MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, I know we had some preliminary comments before we picked up this afternoon, that Mr. Jakubiak is going to testify. Who retained Mr. Jakubiak to testify in this matter?

MR. CLARK: Kingsville, Greater Kingsville Civic Association.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Did Greater Kingsville retain any other experts, to the best of your knowledge, related to this Petition for Special Exception, whether they are going to testify or not?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. That's irrelevant to the proceedings.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt? Well, first of all, please stand up.

MR. HOLZER: I apologize. I object on the basis that that's irrelevant to these proceedings.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think it's, certainly the witness has offered all types of testimony regarding the issues in this case on behalf of Kingsville, on behalf of Falls, not Falls, I say Falls Road, --

CHAIR: Gunpowder?

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Gunpowder and himself personally. And I think understanding what the basis of his knowledge and how he determined his, the opinions that he's given, is certainly appropriate. And so, if he has consulted experts and has retained or, and has retained experts, I think that's appropriate cross examination for me to determine how he got so, his self-deprecating comments that he's, doesn't know anything about zoning notwithstanding, I think he's testified that he's obviously spent a lot of time educating himself as to the issues surrounding this case.

CHAIR: The, --

MR. SCHMIDT: So, my question is, did part of that education come about from consulting expert witnesses.

CHAIR: I think it's fair to ask about the sources of information that forms the basis of the opinions expressed. The question as asked asked to disclose potential, what may be argued as matters for litigation strategy for Greater Kingsville or for Gunpowder or even for Dr. Clark. In other words, as stated, I will sustain the objection. You can explore what sources from which he got information for purposes of his testimony. Just the manner you asked it --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, I understand.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I will try to abide by Mr. Garber's dir --

MR. HOLZER: I have no objection to that.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- direction. In, you looked at traffic issues as part of your testimony. Obviously, you've taken lots of videos related to road conditions, correct?

MR. CLARK: I did.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you, as a matter of fact, along those lines, just so we're clear, the videos that you take, have taken, I believe were generally of Harford Road, Mount

Vista, there was a part where some were on Mount Vista Road.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: And Glen Arm Road.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: There were some of them that included Glen Arm Road, is that a fair statement, Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I think you characterized those roads and the videos, as sort of the typical country rural roads in this part of the County. I mean, kind of, this is what we see, one lane --

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- traffic, you don't have a median in the middle and the conditions with the topography and curves are sort of typical of what we see in this part of Kingsville and if I'm being --

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- if I'm not describing it correctly, please correct me, but I think that's what you sort of --

MR. CLARK: I agree with what you just said.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- said, this is sort of what, what we get in a rural area such as this. Okay. So, my question is, and those, these roads are pretty typical of a rural area, actually, wouldn't you say?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I mean, you get what you get --

MR. CLARK: -- yeah, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- with them, they're not speedways, or shouldn't be speedways.

MR. CLARK: Well, in, in fact, Ryan McIntyre insisted they stay this way.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure, okay.

CHAIR: Former Councilman McIntyre?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, so in, in answering that, did, in formulating your opinion, did you have any consultation or discussion with any traffic engineering experts about, about educating yourself about traffic issues relating to this case?

MR. CLARK: Well, we, we, we tried to, to --

CHAIR: Hold on. The question was directed to you, sir.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: You're answering we.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: So there is ambiguity as to whom you are answering for.

MR. CLARK: Right. I tried to engage traffic engineers, both in Baltimore County, in the State and I have a friend who ran, who, who developed a company that turned out to be a fairly major regional traffic, civil engineering company.

And I tried to engage them and what it came down to, especially the last one, was no one wanted to threaten their developer work, so --

CHAIR: I'm, I'm sorry. It doesn't answer --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- Mr. Schmidt's question as to whether or not, and I, if I get it wrong, please jump in.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: But it was whether or not you had any information from these, from any person, from traffic engineering. You then started talking about the process in attempting to --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- retain, so we're looking for the source of information and what the information was from that source. Is that a fair way to summarize it?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, it is.

CHAIR: So, we can move on from the --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, --

CHAIR: -- I understand what you're trying to get at with the attempt at retention, but that's not the question that was asked.

MR. CLARK: Okay and we, I, I did have a very short consultation with, I can't remember his name, --

MR. SCHMIDT: If you can't remember you're the one on the stand and nobody else can answer.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, okay, okay, okay. Out, out of, a, a small guy up in Pennsylvania and, in fact, we, I, I consulted with him in preparation for Mr. Collagero's testimony. In fact, he met Mr. Collagero up there at the, up at the property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know his name?

MR. CLARK: Wheels are spinning and, and I can't, I can't ask Mr. Holzer.

CHAIR: That's true.

MR. CLARK: I'm looking pleadingly but.

CHAIR: If you don't recall, no, that's fine.

MR. SCHMIDT: If you don't recall and you don't know, that's, that's an acceptable answer.

MR. CLARK: But, but, but, but, but yeah, I, I found his, his, to tell you the truth, I thought we came up with better cross examinations for Mr. Collagero then, then he gave us.

MR. SCHMIDT: He wasn't helpful?

MR. CLARK: He wasn't. A waste of money.

MR. SCHMIDT: Waste of money, okay. And, okay.

MR. CLARK: And that's on the record.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Other than in, in, in terms of your prepar, preparation, I assume you've met and discussed this matter with Mr. Jakubiak?

MR. CLARK: No, I have, I, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: You have not?

MR. CLARK: No, because the, I have been, since, since the beginning of November, I have been under an order to not discuss my testimony.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And, you know, --

CHAIR: The answer was no.

MR. SCHMIDT: The answer is no.

MR. CLARK: The answer is no.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I guess I, should I take it then that Mr. Jakubiak was retained after you took the stand in November?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Other than Mr. Jakubiak and the unknown, unnamed traffic engineer --

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- who you did consult, but --

CHAIR: That's okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- quote, wasn't worth the money, have, have you had any discussions with any other expert witnesses about issues related to this case as you were formulating your testimony?

MR. CLARK: Me personally, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have there been any discussions with any members of either the organizations which are affiliated with, namely, the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association or the Greater Kingsville Group, with expert witnesses, since you answered the last question me personally, no.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Has anybody from those groups consulted any experts to help you formulate your opinions in this case? To the best of your knowledge?

MR. CLARK: I really don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't know, okay.

MR. CLARK: I, I, I know what we, what I, what November I had asked for, before November, but I don't know what anybody did after that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Oh, the only other expert would have been the, the, the drone driver.

MR. SCHMIDT: The what driver?

MR. CLARK: The drone driver.

MR. SCHMIDT: The drone driver.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that was about taking the aerial photographs that were taken?

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Mr. Clark, let me ask you, if I can, you, your property is about two acres, correct?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: And it's improved with a single family dwelling in which you and your wife live, correct?

MR. CLARK: And a garage.

MR. SCHMIDT: And a garage. Are there any other improvements on the property?

MR. CLARK: I, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you have a tennis court?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Under the zoning regulations, if you know, could you have a tennis court?

MR. CLARK: Don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I know I couldn't have pigs.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do, okay. Is it your assertion that the Nepali property cannot have what's been called the volleyball court?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIR: Hold on. Is that your, is that your assertion, is that what you said?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, is he contending that the, the owners of the Nepali cannot have the volleyball court on their, on the property that exists there. Is that illegal?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Or somehow contrary or not compliant with some zoning or other standards?

MR. CLARK: I don't even consider it immoral.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: That wasn't the question.

MR. CLARK: I, but, but I've, I heard --

CHAIR: I, we've heard Mr. Schmidt's arguments in the past. The question asked to you was consistency with the zoning regs, basically, --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: -- it is not in conflict with the zoning regs.

MR. CLARK: As far as I know.

MR. SCHMIDT: As a matter of fact, when we look back at the Grace Church case, that I think I started my cross examination with you about, they, in fact, have a gymnasium, or at least Mr. Kotroco's decision indicates that they have a gymnasium, correct?

MR. CLARK: I, I, I agree that I remember seeing that in there, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, so is it fair, fair to say, and I, and I won't try to invade your privacy and ask if you are a church goer or what your religious faith, if any, is but is it fair to say or can you, can you say that many churches have, what I would call recreational type amenities, gymnasiums or other things that they may use as part of their missions program, that the children may play in or, I think, I'm thinking of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, those kinds of organizations, which combine a religious purpose with a recreational purpose?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. I don't understand the question.

MR. SCHMIDT: The question is, if he's --

CHAIR: Please stand when you object.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll try to rephrase it if it's confusing.

CHAIR: Well, let's see if we rephrase it, if it solves whatever issue.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is it fair to say, Mr. Clark, based on your own personal experience, and again, I don't know whether you go to church or not, or how familiar you are with churches, but based, and you may not know, but is it, do you believe it accurate to say that many churches, as part of their program of spreading the gospel or spreading the good news according to whatever the faith is, may have some recreational type of amenity or facility associated with their religious program on their property, just as Grace has a, apparently a gymnasium and Nepali has a volleyball court. Part of the, that, that being part of the church ministry as, as it were, as it would, as it were, is that a fair statement or is that inaccurate?

MR. CLARK: I really don't know what many, most do. I, I know in my experience what I have encountered.

CHAIR: Well, that's exactly what he's asking you.

MR. CLARK: Okay. I grew up Episcopalian --

CHAIR: No, hold on. We, we, without going into --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- your personal journey and background on this --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- what is your experience, what is your awareness of how oper, religious institutional operations go in terms of recreation facilities or amenities?

MR. CLARK: The, the parishes to which I belonged did not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have you ever been to a religious institution that has, that does?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Which? Any, any in Baltimore County or the Baltimore Metropolitan area?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you believe that to be, that having such a recreational facility or having such a recreational component is inappropriate or not permissible for whatever reason?

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: There's an objection. Don't answer the question quite yet.

MR. HOLZER: The objection is, he has already said what he's familiar with or whatever, the question is now speculation, is do you think it's okay in effect, to have that. And that's the very issue that we're involved in here, that the community expressed its concern about. So, I object to that question.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe the witness made it exceedingly clear on direct examination, I, and I may have the quote, I tried to write down verbatim some of which he said, that they didn't, they being Nepali, didn't ask for this or didn't request this.

CHAIR: Didn't ask, sorry, you used the word this.

MR. SCHMIDT: This being the volleyball court. And so, since he has, he has opined on direct examination about this issue related to what I would call part of the Nepali ministry, i.e., having children play volleyball there, whether, I'm just trying to see if he agrees with that proposition or not. He's expressed an opinion about it on direct.

CHAIR: Are you suggesting that --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm trying to flush that out a little bit.

CHAIR: -- in a, in a general sense or specific to the subject property --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I'm going to start off general --

CHAIR: That, I think that's maybe where one part of the confusion is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, well, I was asking him generally whether he would, I'll try to make this as succinct, if I can, whether he would agree with the proposition that many churches, and when I use the word church, I mean, I don't mean to restrict it to a Christian facility. It could be a synagogue, it could be a temple, it could be affiliated with any religion. But, if you know, Mr. Clark, are there many religious buildings and religious uses and institutions which have what I would call a recreational component or part of their ministry, or mission program?

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: He's already answered the, that question saying that --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: He said he didn't know.

CHAIR: He said he personally, the ones he's been to, do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do not.

CHAIR: But he is aware that others have.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are, okay. So, then my next question would be in this case, related to this property, is it your opinion, Mr. Clark, that the Petitioner should be allowed to have a recreational component or amenity, however, whatever you want to, however you want to style it, in association with their religious program?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. Mr. Ghimire already told a member of this Board, who used to be on there, Ms. Murphy, that they would get rid of the volleyball court. It's in the transcript, on his questioning. So, if, there's no need for the witness to answer that question because they have indicated to this Board that they would get rid of the volleyball court.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, do you wish to respond?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I, frankly, don't recall whether Mr. Ghimire testified about that and under what circumstances that he had. But even if it was not a volleyball court, my question would remain the same. Even if it was some other amenity.

CHAIR: If I --

MR. SCHMIDT: There was a swimming pool, which they, I know, are getting rid of and my question is, to the witness is, I, I don't think it's inappropriate and I think it's in line with his testimony on direct, which he spent a lot of time on, and that is does he oppose what I would call a recreational amenity, volleyball court, swimming pool, basketball court, something like that, on this property as part of the religious program, which is being proposed by my clients. I don't think that's an unfair question.

CHAIR: And for, and forgive me, I'm looking through here because I seem to recall this was covered as a potential condition that would be requested on behalf of the association. So, for that reason, the question, I'm going to overrule the objection because I believe that that was testified to as part of the conditions potentially requested. Sorry, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, so I've asked the question.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do I need to do it again?

CHAIR: The, the objection is overruled because of that.

MR. CLARK: I understand, I understand it.

CHAIR: Okay. You may answer the question.

MR. CLARK: Okay. I would have no objection if it were fairly and properly included in the request for the special exception.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, you, if, if it was within, if it was within the language on the Petition for Special Exception, then you would not object to it, is that what you're saying, Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: And it was, and it was shown on the plans.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and was shown on the plans. Okay, all right. With that caveat, then that would be acceptable to have a recreational amenity of some type?

MR. CLARK: Subject to the whole issue of noise and--

CHAIR: I, I would anticipate that's where we were going to go. We're just focusing on the existence.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: As to its operation, that would be a separate matter. So, as to the existence of one, could you answer Mr. Schmidt's question? If you had a problem with the noise and lights, that's not, that would not be considered --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, no, no, no, I, I, I, yeah, because this is me personally, yeah. Yes, I would have a problem with it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Now, wait a minute. I thought you said you wouldn't have a problem with it if it was in the Petition and on the plan, but you would have a problem with it?

MR. CLARK: Mr., Mr. Garber just helped, just helped me understand the, the question --

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: I was, sorry, I'm trying to, he started down the noise and lights. I realize that's a separate matter because that deals with operations.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: I understood Mr. Schmidt's question and maybe I should just let this go and let Mr. Schmidt re-ask his question, I understood his question to relate to the existence of any recreational facility independent of all the factors --

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, I would.

CHAIR: -- hold on, independent of all factors as it relates to its operation.

MR. CLARK: Yes, I would.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and, and you would likewise, Mr. Clark, as I understand it, I think one of the restrictions that you said would be to basically prohibit any outdoor activity associated with the temple, is that a fair statement?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do I understand you correctly? Okay. So, just by way of analogy and I just want to make sure I understand, Mr. Clark, and pardon me for, just, I'm just trying to understand when we talk about outdoor activity, that we're sort of on the same wavelength and I'll just say this as, as a very brief preamble. I'm a member of a, of a Methodist church. We have a tradition of, at Halloween time we sell pumpkins and on the front lawn of the church, are delivered pumpkins and then volunteers from the church there, and people from the neighborhood come and buy a pumpkin. It happens for about two weeks every year in October and it's sort of part of the outreach to the community, etcetera, and it's a fundraiser.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: If Nepali had some outdoor function of that nature, which would be seasonal or short term, you would be opposed to anything like that because it's outdoors, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Mr. Clark, you offered as part of your direct examination one of the zoning decisions as it relates to the Beachmont property.

MR. CLARK: I did.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Can you tell us where the Beachmont property is in terms of its proximity, let's start off, to your property and then to the Nepali property.

MR. CLARK: It is by car maybe five minutes from my property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Cutting through the woods, you know, maybe a mile, mile and a half.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Are you familiar with that property?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Have you been to the property before?

MR. CLARK: The Beachmont property?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. CLARK: Visited it briefly.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'm going to show you, thirty-eight. Mr. McComas, if I can approach? And I will give you a fourth but I just want to give one to, to be fair to the witness, and I'd like to have one in front of me as well if I can.

MR. CLARK: Cool, I like this.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr., I'm sorry, Mr. Clark, you said it's about a five minute car drive from your property, correct?

MR. CLARK: Yep, yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is the subject property closer, is the Nepali property closer to Beachmont or for, farther away than you are?

MR. CLARK: Closer.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, okay. Now, so, is, is the Beachmont property in the neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, I'm going to refer you to the last page of the exhibit that I gave you, which is page five of five, which indicates that down at the bottom, that this printout, which I would just say to you is taken again from the public domain of the Beachmont web page, is a Beachmont, it's the Beachmont Christian Ministry so this is a Christian facility, is it not?

MR. CLARK: I don't know what you mean by a Christian, and I'm not being difficult --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, it's not Jewish, it's not Hindu--

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- it's not Buddhist, --

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- it's Christian.
MR. CLARK: Right.
MR. SCHMIDT: And it's a religious facility since it uses the word Christian ministries, is that fair?
MR. CLARK: I would say, no, I would say that's not fair.
MR. SCHMIDT: It, so, so it's not a religious facility?
MR. CLARK: They do not have a pastor on the property.
MR. SCHMIDT: Do they, do they have what you and I would call a church on the property?
MR. CLARK: I don't think so.
MR. SCHMIDT: You don't think they have a church on the property?
MR. CLARK: No, they do not. The church is on Redeemer property.
MR. SCHMIDT: Which is next door?
MR. CLARK: Which is a different organization altogether and that's --
CHAIR: The, the, the question was, is it next door?
MR. CLARK: Yes.
MR. SCHMIDT: Does, does, does it --
MR. CLARK: It's an adjoining property.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, all right. So, there's a church building, we can argue whether it's on the Redeemer property or on the Beachmont property, but there's a church building on the, you believe on the Redeemer property?

MR. CLARK: No, not believe, I know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay. In, insofar, but, but the Beachmont property, or at least the Beachmont organization as identified as the Beachmont Christian Ministries, which is, would you agree with me at least to that extent, that this is a religious affiliated institution of some type?

MR. CLARK: I would say that they invite families of, of, of an identified value set.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I don't know that they, well, I know that they don't have a preacher on site, pastor and I, I have, in fact, I, I, I had the, the sad duty to, to have them resolve an out of compliance issue with, in relationship to the corn maze.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And I have, we have the letter for that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Let's, let's start at the beginning of the exhibit, if I can. So, they have a corn maze on the property?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: It draws people --

CHAIR: That's a yes, sir?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, they do.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. That's an outdoor activity?
MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, it is.
MR. SCHMIDT: And it occurs during how many months of the year?
MR. CLARK: Six weeks.
MR. SCHMIDT: Around the Halloween time or the fall season?
MR. CLARK: Yep.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have you ever been to that?
MR. CLARK: Nope.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I, it looks like in the picture on page one of the young couple holding the baby that they may be standing in the corn maze or near the corn maze?
MR. CLARK: Could be.
MR. SCHMIDT: Is that a fair representation of what the corn maze looks like to the best of your knowledge?
MR. CLARK: Could be.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. On page two, it indicates that Beachmont also has a summer camp at the Beachmont Christian Camp, is that correct?
MR. CLARK: Correct.
MR. SCHMIDT: Likewise, they have a flag football league or program or game or something, correct?
MR. CLARK: Correct.
MR. SCHMIDT: They also have dodge ball games going on at, at, at Beachmont, correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Matter of fact, they have the best dodge ball games in Kingsville going on at Beachmont --

MR. CLARK: Do they?

MR. SCHMIDT: -- according to the literature. Now, the golf tournament, I would admit to you, if you look at page three, is that at a golf course, not at Beachmont, and there is not a golf course at Beachmont, okay. Turning to page three, they have a, a, a, I mentioned the eight week program and it indicates in flag football. They have an archery program there, correct?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: They have a home school --

CHAIR: Yes?

MR. SCHMIDT: -- physical education program there?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Turning to the next page, they have a men's softball program at Beachmont, correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Swimming lessons at Beachmont?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and they have an Easter morning 6:30 a.m. --

MR. CLARK: Sunrise service.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- sunrise service. Now, that's an exterior service, correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and since it says the rising of the son and it's spelled S-O-N, I would assume that would be somewhat of a double entendre that they are celebrating not only the rising of the sun from which we get our light and heat, but under the Christian theology the rising of Jesus Christ on that morning, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: I don't know their intent.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, could, would, wouldn't you say that's fair to interpret since they say the rising of the son, S-O-N, meaning a person?

MR. CLARK: I have no opinion on that.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't know? And they have a volleyball court there?

MR. CLARK: They do.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. Do you know the zoning of the Beachmont property?

MR. CLARK: It's RC-5.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is this, in your opinion, the activities at Beachmont detrimental to the health, safety and welfare of the community?

MR. CLARK: They have been, which is why we have, why, why we had to come, why we had to have, why we had to contact code enforcement, why their director and I came to a resolution about how they were going to resolve it. Basically, I told them that they needed to work with their community, they agreed to that. How, how they and their community are going to resolve it, I don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

MR. CLARK: But they were exceeding the limit of visitors for the corn maze.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I would offer that as the next exhibit.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: I, I think I can resolve the questions by asking some additional questions of the witness when it's my time, so --

CHAIR: So, do I understand you have reservations at the present time as to the admissibility of --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- Exhibit 38?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: And that you are asking that the matter be held open --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, until I have a chance to --

CHAIR: -- until you, and so therefore, we would have to rule at that time.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, I assume that that would not pose an objection to you since you still have the opportunity to have it reviewed and made --

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure. Well, let me ask, let me ask the witness this. Mr., Mr. Clark, the exhibit that I gave you and it's, I'm not trying to trick you, but I, I believe it's a fair representation of the activities at Beachmont. And is it, you are a resident, you've been there, you worked to try to enforce them with the size of the corn maze, so I assume you have some familiarity, living in the neighborhood for thirty years, as to what goes on at Beachmont. Is the exhibit that I gave you inaccurate? Those things don't happen at Beachmont?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. I objected --

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, is that what he's saying? Is that --

MR. HOLZER: I object.

CHAIR: Hold on, Mr. Schmidt, for one second.

MR. HOLZER: I tried to make it easy for the wit, for the counsel, by saying I would like to ask some questions to fully explore the issue before it gets introduced. And instead of that, I get this feedback where he's trying to do the very same thing and force it into evidence now.

CHAIR: I, I would say we resolved that matter --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm just --

CHAIR: Hold on. But the question that was asked was a proper question, because it doesn't just speak to the exhibit itself, it goes to this witness' understanding of the activities over at Beachmont. So, with that in mind, I'll overrule the objection and you may ask.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think the question was does the exhibit fairly and accurately show the activities that are occurring at the Beachmont property?

MR. CLARK: The only, the only thing I observed was, I guess it was one of the day camp sessions, and the kids were down at, at the pond, at the pool.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. The next exhibit, I'm, I will --

MR. MCCOMAS: So, is, is this i.d. only?

CHAIR: At the moment.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: And again, Mr. Schmidt, because that's i.d. only, I'm going to address this point a little bit later. Just put a little asterisk so we know to go back to the admissibility of that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure, sure.

MR. MCCOMAS: This is thirty-nine.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thirty-nine and I'll give you a fourth copy. I'm going to give you the same kind of thing. Let me give you another one that doesn't have marks all over it, Mr.--

MR. CLARK: Clark.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Clark, I'm sorry.

MR. CLARK: That's all right.

MR. SCHMIDT: I don't want to give you one with writing all over it. And not to be duplicitous, but I believe that this is also taken from the Beachmont --

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- website and just generally describes, again, the type of activities that are occurring on the, on, on the, the Beachmont property and, you know, my question would --

MR. CLARK: No, I, I, I agree, it is what it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and that's, they say what they do and this is the kinds of things that they do?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Now, can --

CHAIR: There's no question pending.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: But, well, you do agree, just so we're clear, that the activities that are shown on Petitioner's exhibit number thirty-nine reflect the activities that are occurring at the Beachmont property?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: Move for the admission of thirty-nine then,

Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Same, same request.

CHAIR: All right. We will reserve a ruling on thirty-nine on the same basis.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And then finally, I have one more page. And Mr. Clark, sort of same drill. And this would be number forty. Thank you, Mr. McComas. And this is just their page related to --

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- to the sunrise service, except they actually give coffee, hot chocolate and donuts after the service.

MR. CLARK: (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Unlike Nepali, so if you're hungry that morning, Mr. Clark, you can go up there. Have you ever attended the sunrise service?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know if there is, indeed, a sunrise service, is that an accurate --

MR. CLARK: I, I have been told by people from Kingsville --

MR. SCHMIDT: People in the neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: -- yeah, and people from Kingsville, you know, that --

MR. SCHMIDT: That they go to the sunrise service?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: Please let him finish his answer.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: I, I know that, I know you're trying to move along.

MR. CLARK: I'm going to need a break in a minute.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. We need to take, he wants --

CHAIR: You are familiar, you have heard from other people in the, in, from Kingsville that this occurs at this site?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: And Mr. Schmidt, this is actually from a Google e-mail, looks like an e-mail (inaudible) on the website, just from, just for (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes. I'm, I apologize, it is. Although it's, yes, it came via an, my understanding was it's a link on their website where if you want additional information you e-mail this info@beachmont and this is what you get back.

CHAIR: And Mr. Kotroco is a subscriber to that service.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes. He is the one that actually obtained it.

CHAIR: Exhibit 40.

MR. HOLZER: Same, same request.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark indicated he would like a break and I'm, I'm, think I'm coming somewhat near the end, but I'd be happy to take a break, let me get my thoughts on it, organized and maybe we can be done shortly.

CHAIR: If you would like a break, then that's fine.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, thank you.

CHAIR: Why don't we do that, five minutes. Before we --

MR. CLARK: Thank you, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Mr., Mr. Clark may step out because I know he has other business to attend to. You can go --

MS. DOPKIN: Off?

CHAIR: Actually stay on for a moment. So, real quick, to Mr. Schmidt and Mr. Holzer, as we just discussed with Petitioner's Exhibits 38, 39 and 40, we have a little asterisk next to them, like I said, so we know to go back. Also, just for purposes of the record, there were numerous instances throughout Protestant's case, whether we were in Petitioner's case or during the course of your case, where certain exhibits were offered up, withdrawn, were offered up, objected to, in i.d. only. You indicated that you were going to go follow-up with one or more witnesses to establish proper authentication.

We're trying to, I asked Ms. Cannington, but I'm going to go through to identify which ones are still in this limbo status so that, pardon me, the record can be completed, we all know what is in, what is out. So, for purposes of any future proceedings, there's not going to be a question as to where we stand as to any one exhibit. Having said that, I would request the same of counsel to make sure that everyone's records match as best as possible.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Because I do not want there to be some confusion on any particular exhibit. I want us to all have the same --

MR. HOLZER: I think what you're asking is, is fair, I mean, because we went so late yesterday and because it's late today, I'm going to try to have Mary, if at all possible, to take my notes and make the same kind of list, as far as each exhibit, what is in, what, what is not in and what, if it's not in, is it part of the proffers that I made. I think that will clarify --

CHAIR: And I think yesterday was fairly clear as to where we stand with yesterday's exhibits.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: It's the earlier ones --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- where certain exhibits were identified or shown to other witnesses and then you wanted to withdraw them so that you could authenticate them through the person who may have taken the photos.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: And those kind of things. I'm just bringing that back around because you had expressed the intent to do that --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I --

CHAIR: -- and there was question as to where those exhibits stand and we need to get resolution on all that before the, the record closes.

MR. HOLZER: I agree, I understand, yes.

MS. DOPKIN: One minor question relating to that is when Mr. Morgan testified, he had presented some e-mail posts and, on --

CHAIR: Right.

MS. DOPKIN: -- Nextdoor?

CHAIR: Yes. I believe that was like Exhibit 50 or thereabouts.

MS. DOPKIN: And I had asked if he had the post that it responded to, his original post. Was he in, were you intending to provide that to us?

MR. HOLZER: Well, I, yeah, I, there's a number of things that I think that have been deferred that we need to get --

MS. DOPKIN: Would you please add that to your list of, to address?

MR. HOLZER: -- add, and we can add that to the list. So we can --

MS. DOPKIN: All right.

MR. HOLZER: -- go get all of that straight, because I do want the record straight when, when we finish. Did we --

CHAIR: We're, no, we're on, we're still on break. I just wanted to address that on the record so everybody is aware. Let's make sure that we all have an agreement as to where we stand as to some of those exhibits that are still in this limbo.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Can I take a five, --

CHAIR: No, we're taking a break. We're still, we're still (inaudible), yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I didn't want to leave.

CHAIR: No, that was not your five minute break.

MS. DOPKIN: And we're off the record.

(RECORDING PAUSED - 04:25:59 PM)

(ON RECORD - 04:40:47 PM)

CHAIR: Everyone, please be seated. And to the extent I need to say it again, make sure your cell phones are off. I'm sorry. That should be on the record. Please make sure your cell phones are off. And Mr. Schmidt, we are back to you with cross examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you. In an effort to try to move this along a little bit, Mr. Clark, I showed you some information which I believe was from the Beachmont website.

MR. CLARK: Agreed.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I just wanted to, similarly, I've got some information from the Redeemer property, which is located immediately adjacent to Beachmont?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: You indicated that Beachmont was in your neighborhood. Is Redeemer Classical Christian School in your neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You're familiar with that property? That's the one that actually in, according to your testimony, has a church on it?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and that, in addition, that has a school, does it not?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and I'm going to just give you, again, this is taken from the public domain and I'll give a copy to, four copies to Mr. McComas. But this, and I ask you to take a --

CHAIR: Forty-one?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, forty-one.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- take a look at it as, and having marked it as forty, forty-one, which generally sort of describes, I believe, the, bless you --

MR. CLARK: Bless you.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- the activity at the, at the school and apparently the school, according to the information here, was founded in, founded in 1996, is that correct? So, that, that was there --

MR. CLARK: That, that's my understanding.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, that, that started after you were a resident of the neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and has two hundred and fifty children in it?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, okay. And similarly, I got, you can see from the first page of that exhibit, there were some information about student life.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

CHAIR: Yes?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Sorry.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'll mark this as the next sequential exhibit.

CHAIR: Forty-two.

MR. SCHMIDT: Forty-two. And again, it just talks about the kind of things that they do there. Now, this is a Christian school, is it not? If you know.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, Ron, Ron, Ron is a pastor.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Who?

MR. CLARK: Ron Standifer.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: And basically, though, he, he, it's, he really focuses on rhetoric and logic and Latin. They don't, I don't believe they teach religious classes in the school.

MR. SCHMIDT: But it is, it is at least affiliated with the --

MR. CLARK: With the church there.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- with the church?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and then finally, the third page would be athletics, the athletics page, and that would generally be that they have an athletic program there, I believe, which is described on this web page.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and, and I've observed them playing volleyball there.

MR. SCHMIDT: They play volleyball?

MR. CLARK: Soccer, soccer, the soccer.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Soccer and other sports as described in there?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: And so those web pages fairly and accurately depict what's going on at the property at the present time, in terms of the activity of the school and the church?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, for, from my understanding, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and is the church an active church? And when I say that, does it conduct services on a routine basis, if you know?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yes, yes, he does.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and it's a Christian church, so I assume that the services are on, are on Sundays typically?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I believe there are.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know how many services they have on each Sunday, Sunday? One or more?

MR. CLARK: I think one. I, I know it's a very small congregation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you believe it's one?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I would offer those exhibits as well. Just, again, they say what they say and the witness has indicated they describe what's happening on that property generally.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, Exhibits 41 through 43?

MR. HOLZER: I would like them just to be marked for identification till I ask questions about them but --

CHAIR: Same as the Beachmont.

MR. HOLZER: Same as the Beachmont.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I, I don't, I'm sorry, Mr. Holzer, didn't mean to interrupt.

MR. HOLZER: No, I'm, I'm inclined to let them go in, just so that the Board knows.

CHAIR: We understand where we're at with this.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you very much.

MR. SCHMIDT: Let me ask you, if I can, kind of switching gears, Mr. Clark, have you spoken to Councilman Marks about this project? Or any, or anyone in his office?

MR. CLARK: I tried to at, at, at that civic center and he told me he can't talk to me about it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Did he attempt to broker or arrange a meeting between the parties to discuss the issues?

MR. CLARK: That, that would be, that, that was very interesting.

CHAIR: Hold on, answer the question first.

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: He did?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did the meeting occur?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Did, did the meeting occur, or do you know why the meeting didn't occur?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay. So, he called me on Friday morning, on a Friday morning, I don't remember the exact date, but it's easy enough to figure out, and requested my appearance at a meeting with him, Mr. Kotroco, Kris Ghimire and Senator Brochin. I called Carroll Holzer.

CHAIR: You called Mr. Holzer.

MR. CLARK: I called Mr. Holzer.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Mr. Holzer said well, I'm going to, I'm not going to be away and you're not going there without me present, okay? So, --

CHAIR: And just so, I don't want you to go into conversations you had --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I don't want to have any kind of attorney/client --

CHAIR: I, I know, I know, I know. I'm just letting him know in advance so he doesn't go off script or far afield here --

MR. SCHMIDT: That's, and I think we can say --

CHAIR: -- (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Mr. Clark, you didn't, you didn't attend because you were instructed not to by counsel?

MR. CLARK: No, that isn't quite the case.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, okay. I'm sorry.

MR. CLARK: So, after that, and I explained that to actually, to, to Mr., to, to Senator Brochin. He said he, he would call Mr. Marks and set something up for Monday.

CHAIR: Senator Brochin said that?

MR. CLARK: Yes. So, my, on Sunday, Senator Brochin told me that Mr. Marks was going on his vacation and he wasn't going to cancel it --

CHAIR: Mr. Marks?

MR. CLARK: Mr. Marks, okay? He, and, and I wasn't going to change it for this. So, then Senator Brochin said, well, what, why don't you, why don't you, Dewey Clark and Carroll Holzer and I think one or two other representatives?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Meet in Mr. Holzer's office on Tuesday.

We're all sitting there wait, waiting for Mr. Brochin, for Senator Brochin to show up and it wasn't until the day later that we got his regrets.

MR. SCHMIDT: From Senator Brochin?

MR. CLARK: From Senator, I think that's fair, is that accurate? I, --

CHAIR: Well, he can't, you can't ask --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, I know, I know.

CHAIR: -- questions of Mr. Holzer.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: It's the best recollection that you have of it.

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes. I believe that is accurate.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Were there any other meetings prior, prior to that or attempted meetings back at, more so kind of at the beginning of this process that you're aware of?

MR. CLARK: Well, we covered, we covered the, the, the one with Mr. Kotroco and then we covered the ones with Mr. Ghimire inviting me up to the property to, to meet and discuss.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: Correct me if I'm wrong, but you also identified one with Councilman Marks where Councilman Marks, as you put it in your words, appeared vexed by the absence of --

MR. CLARK: No, that, that, that was at the Kingsville meeting and he was vexed that Mr. Ghimire had not shown up and at the ALJ, Mr. Ghimire --

CHAIR: I, I just want to confirm.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: That's yet another example here?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Is that accurate?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

MS. DOPKIN: Just to clarify, you said Senator Brochin suggested meeting in Mr. Holzer's office?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MS. DOPKIN: Was, was that meeting supposed to include Brochin and Kotroco and Ghimire? Who was supposed to attend?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I, I, I don't think, I don't think Kotroco was, was going to be there, because he, he didn't show, yeah, no, I don't think Mr. Kotroco was supposed to be there.

MS. DOPKIN: So, it would have just been you and Mr. Holzer and Senator Brochin?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and I think Ms. Shaw was there and I, I think a representative from Kingsville was there.

MS. DOPKIN: But nobody from the Petitioner and neither the Councilman nor the Senator?

MR. CLARK: Correct. Yes, ma'am.

MS. DOPKIN: Okay, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you, Mr. Clark. Mr. Clark,

I think I'm in the home stretch so, and I would move those exhibits, if I had not formally, --

CHAIR: We have the same --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- but I know Mr. Holzer wanted to wait.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And if there's a foundational issue or something, I'll address it.

CHAIR: We will revisit, again, it's, there's no ruling at all on them at this point.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. Now, Mr. Clark, the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association, I, I just want to make sure I understand, that's not a corporation?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Not an LLC?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Not registered with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Doesn't handle any kind of money?

MR. CLARK: Nope.

MR. SCHMIDT: Doesn't file a tax return?

MR. CLARK: Nope.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is not a, a 503-C, I believe?

CHAIR: 501-C-3.

MR. CLARK: It's not a non-profit.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm not a tax lawyer. Non, it's not, it's not a non-profit?

MR. CLARK: It's not a, right, it is not a non-profit.

MR. SCHMIDT: It's, and, and I, please don't --

CHAIR: Just wait for his question.

MR. SCHMIDT: I don't mean to, to be insulting, but this is, essentially, an organization that was established by, I think you said four or five people at the beginning, to, to fight this particular project?

MR. CLARK: It was more than that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, I mean, I think you said on direct, I wrote down, there were four or five, four or five of us who decided to establish this. I understand that more people are in it now, but it was the brain, is it safe to say, it was the brainchild of you and several others who were leading the charge in opposition to this request?

MR. CLARK: No, the, the, the reason we formed was more than just this. It was a sense of community.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Has the organization taken a position on any other zoning cases?

MR. CLARK: We don't have any that are of, well, we, we probably would have, no, the answer is no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, the --

MR. CLARK: Oh, wait, no, no, no, no, I did.

CHAIR: Hold, hold on, hold on.

MR. HOLZER: I can't tell you.

CHAIR: Could we, could we, just to make --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- this abundantly clear, what is your best recollection --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: -- on that point?

MR. CLARK: We took a position on the Beachmont violation of the zoning where they were exceeding, as, as you saw on Exhibit --

MR. SCHMIDT: The corn maze attendance, I think you said.

MR. CLARK: Right, right. But if you see on the exhibit, on the exhibit related to the corn maze, there is a, a ticket thing. They are, they are required to keep a count of visitors so that they don't exceed their, their, their mail, their daily maximum of I believe five hundred. We had evidence that they were exceeding that. So, the Gunpowder Falls filed a zoning complaint and in order to remove that zoning complaint, that is when I then, the GFWPA then entered into an agreement with Beach, with, with Beachmont camp on how to resolve that issue.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is there, was there a zoning hearing on that?

MR. CLARK: Nope. No, no, no, because we withdrew it because we, we came to a --

CHAIR: A resolution.

MR. CLARK: -- a resolution, thank you, sir.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And we have that letter here.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, all right. But that was, ob, obviously that complaint about Beachmont occurred after you were involved in this particular case, or the issues surrounding this particular property? Because you were, you were formed as a result of this particular Petition for Special Exception.

MR. CLARK: We were formed in 2017.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And we filed the, the, the notice of complaint in, I believe it was June 2018, --

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: -- for the, the, --

CHAIR: Beachmont.

MR. SCHMIDT: Beachmont.

MR. CLARK: -- Beachmont Christian camp violation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. But you were, I'm not trying to beat a dead horse, the pur, when Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association was formed, it was largely in response to the instant Petition for Special Exception --

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- not Beachmont?

MR. CLARK: No, I, I, I think if you look at our purposes in, you know, that was crafted for, for very specific reasons, our purposes. We, we were very thoughtful in how we did that and --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, I under, I'm sorry, didn't mean to interrupt, thought you were finished.

MR. CLARK: -- and, and the, the main purpose was not this, it was the preservation of the watershed, it was the whole sense of community. We, among other things, what we have done, and we were just talking about it during the break, is we have a series of programs, speaker series, for the community. One was on the World's End Hill, the, the history of, of Gunpowder Road, or of Harford Road, the Harford Turnpike. I will be, guess what I'll be presenting on?

CHAIR: I have an idea.

MR. CLARK: Forest, forest health, right? You know, and so on and so forth. And it's a way of bringing the community together because that has been lost to a large extent.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and there's no, I think you indicated there's no dues?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: And actually, if I lived within the geographic confines and I give you my e-mail address I can get in, I'm in?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Insofar as the, some, one of the conditions, you, you ask as a condition, I think, for my client to put some money or equitable relief.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I just don't --

CHAIR: That's a yes?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- I just don't understand what that is.

MR. CLARK: Okay. The idea is that as this Board knows, it, the rubber hits the road with conditions when it comes time for someone to, to file and to get something done, to get something corrected. And given what we have experienced, we would like an escrow account set up so that should we have to take action it doesn't come out of our pockets.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have you ever heard of the admin, the Office of the Administrative Hearings, which includes Mr. Beverungen and Mr. Stahl's office, or this Board, ever imposing such a requirement before?

MR. CLARK: That was totally my thought as a businessman.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, the answer is no?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. You also want the Protestants to be able to enter the property?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is there anything prohibiting people from coming on to the property or accepting the invitations that have been extended to this point?

MR. CLARK: I'm not trying to think of how to answer that, I'm just trying to, I'm just trying to think of --

CHAIR: You don't need to explain your pause.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Or your --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- (inaudible) reflection.

MR. CLARK: No, no, yeah, yeah. No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Also, this came up during someone else's testimony and I apologize, there was a lady who was a resident of the area and I, and I was trying to find the name and I can't find my note, who apparently has annual maybe or regular concerts on her property, do you remember that testimony?

CHAIR: These questions were asked of Mr. Poehler.

MR. SCHMIDT: Of Poehl, of Mr. Poehler, yes. Thank you, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know who that is?

MR. CLARK: No, I don't, I, first of all, I, I have never heard that music.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And second of all, I don't think it was identified where the music was coming from.

MR. SCHMIDT: My client told me. Do you know Patty Thorn?

MR. CLARK: I've met her once?

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know where she lives?

MR. CLARK: No, actually I don't.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you don't know how far her house is from you?

MR. CLARK: She lives, I know, I know she lives adjoining the property, --

CHAIR: Which?

MR. SCHMIDT: Adjoining your property?

MR. CLARK: -- adjoining, adjoining, adjoining, adjoining the, no, adjoining the, the --

CHAIR: Subject property?

MR. CLARK: The --

CHAIR: Subject property?

MR. CLARK: -- subject property.

CHAIR: And just to close the loop, Patty Thorn is the name of the woman --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: -- whose property was asked to Mr. Poehler.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know, do, do you know how close Patty Thorn's property is to you?

MR. CLARK: I would assume it's probably no further than the, the farthest bound of their property, of, of the subject property.

CHAIR: You're going to have to explain that.

MR. CLARK: Yeah. All right. I, I, I, I since, since I know her property adjoins subject property, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MR. CLARK: -- I would assume that her property is no further than the furthest bound of their property from mine.

CHAIR: The southernmost point of their property along Harford Road, is that --

MR. CLARK: Or, or eastern, or eastern, I don't know.

CHAIR: You don't know, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. But you don't know where her property is?

MR. CLARK: No, I've never visited it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you've never heard any music come from her property before?

MR. CLARK: I have not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Suffice it to say then, if she does have concerts and you've never heard them, then at least you can't hear anything that's occurring of that nature on her property given the distance and the topography involved?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. He's already testified.

CHAIR: I'll, I'll say this, Mr. Holzer. I understand your frustration on this. You can save that part of it. Your objection is sustained because obviously it goes to various conditions that we have no idea about. So, as to --

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and I, I built those into my question, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: That's all right. I understood you said topography and what else we don't know what type of amplification --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- we don't know the volume, we don't know what instruments, we don't know a whole bunch of factors and variables that can play into it. The fact of the matter is this witness has said he has never heard it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. CLARK: I don't think it's going to aid anyone to then say well, given those other factors, if he's never heard it in the first place.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'll save it for argument. All right. Mr. Kotroco asked me about this. The t-shirts that say save our valley that everybody is wearing, which valley is that?

MR. CLARK: The, it, it is the little haystack valley, it's the valley that follows Harford Road.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. It's called the Little Haystack Valley?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: -- historic in some of the historic records. There isn't really a name for it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, so it's not the Long Green Valley?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and, and when it says save ours, our valley, Mr. Kotroco asked me to ask these, who is the our? Who is the owner of the haystack valley?

MR. CLARK: Those who own property on it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is, is the, is the Nepali property part of it?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I would say it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, okay, all right.

MR. CLARK: The, the, the haystack flows, is, is, is the, is the stream that flows on their eastern, not, and, and they don't own the stream but it is on the, on the east, it is on the eastern bound of, of their property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Thank you, sir. I have no other questions, Mr. Garber. And saved, I, I just want to make sure that all of the exhibits that I introduced through my cross examination of this witness have been marked, they've all been offered. I understand that some have not yet been, been permitted, but other than the fact that addressing those issues relating to the admission of those documents I would be complete in my cross examination.

CHAIR: Thank you. And again, I also, you, we would also have reservation for cross examination on any potential matter that may arise from other things to occur in this case, such as resolution of that Motion that's pending --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- and all the other, the testimony from the ALJ that's still pending and just to whatever other --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I'd like to --

CHAIR: -- exhibits that are still in this limbo --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: -- still yet to resolve. So you certainly would be, have the right to cross examine during that time frame as well.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you. I don't believe I have any exhibits that are identification only.

CHAIR: Other than, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Other than the ones we just put in.

CHAIR: And to be clear, it's not a question as to what's identification only, there were a whole bunch of start and stops with certain exhibits --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: -- that are left in limbo. That, those are the ones I'm more concerned about then what's been already definitively ruled upon as i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right. I, I'm, I'm going to check my--

CHAIR: Your last six fall into that category at the moment.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. But I'm, was going to say, I think my recollection is, I'll have to check again, but I think all the exhibits that I put in in my case in chief, I think were all in without any question, but I'm going to look at it again.

CHAIR: Yes, and that's, that is my recollection. I, I don't profess to have full command over it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: But that's my recollection too.

MR. SCHMIDT: We'll, we'll, we'll definitely find out the answer by next time.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: Back to you, Mr. Holzer, as I know you at least have re-direct as to the exhibits that we were just referencing.

MR. HOLZER: (inaudible).

CHAIR: And I assume you may have others.

MR. HOLZER: I'm going to be very quick.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Trust me.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I don't want to miss dinner like I did yesterday.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, and I have a, I have a meeting downtown at 6:30, so.

MR. HOLZER: Well, you can leave now, I (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I mean, if I could get out of here at 5:30, that'd be great, it's 5:05.

CHAIR: All right. So, let's get to it, this way we can help everybody.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: The first question, the first question was, by counsel, and when I say that, I mean Mr. Schmidt, was in regard to Protestant's Exhibit 78, which dealt with the Grace Church. He specifically wanted us to look at page twenty-five and in the first paragraph.

CHAIR: Do you have that in front of you, sir?

MR. CLARK: I am looking, sir.

CHAIR: Here, I have (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Oh, no, I do, I found it, I found it.

CHAIR: You do? Okay. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. On, in that, we looked at item number seven and I, the only thing I recognized was they cited, or Mr. Clark cited the statement, the owner/developer shall be permitted to use grassy open areas of the subject property for overflow parking only during Christmas and Easter services. However, in our case, there has been testimony in regard to the grassy areas that there should not be parking on those grassy areas. I just wanted to clar, have you clarify that point. Was that not something that was of a concern to the Protestants?

MR. CLARK: Yes, it is because it, because of the topography and the sheet flow and the, the stream on the eastbound, all that, car, car fluids winds up going down. This, this, this is a, yeah, that's it, that's it.

MR. HOLZER: You've exceeded my authority to go beyond that.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, now the last sentence in that paragraph is there shall be no overflow parking permitted on the open fields of this property at any other time during the year. So, in effect, while they were talking about parking in open fields, our testimony related to the grassy area and the fields that you've shown one of the last pictures of all the cars parked on the grass.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Is that right? Okay, fine. There. In here, there was a question about any proposal or any development suggestion in, in that document related to there shall be no additional buildings --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: -- in the Grace Church (inaudible). In our situation, there has been testimony by the Petitioners that there are no current proposals, and I underline current, because that would, as you understand, would allow additional potential development to come in at a later date or hearing, okay? Is that correct?

MR. CLARK: That is precisely what we're concerned about.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. So, one of the restrictions that I believe you've already covered, was that there would be no additional development. Now, there has been testimony by diff, different witnesses for the Petitioner that they were going to eliminate the swimming pool, or eliminate the tennis court, etcetera. But our position, when I say our, I mean the Protestants, would be that there would be no, not just current proposal to develop an additional building, but a limitation that there should be none on the conditions if some are given, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. The question, that takes care of number two. Question number three related to the historic district. I pulled a, a, Protestant's exhibit number thirty-nine, because there were questions raised by Mr. Schmidt about that. And, as, as to what it encompassed, how big it was, etcetera. And I'll leave it to the Board, but I would just point out, the historic district is six thousand sixty-six acres of agricultural area and would, and it describes gently rolling fields with crossroad villages such as Glen Arm and Baldwin and farm complexes.

CHAIR: Is there a question?

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, this is really argument, I mean, all this is.

CHAIR: I, I, I, I'm, I understood. I assume Mr. Holzer is getting to that.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, this is the, this is the, this is the reason that this historic district is relevant. On the last sentence of the first para, first page, approximately a hundred and twenty-five individual buildings, complexes, objects stand in the district, with the majority contributing to the significance of the district. The major intrusions or non-intrusive elements are industrial complexes around Glen Arm and groupings of post 1930 housing, so --

CHAIR: Okay. Is there a question directed to the witness about that?

MR. HOLZER: Is that, is that what you were referring to --

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: -- when you were talking about the National Historic Registry?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. SCHMIDT: The question is, did I just read that to you? I'm sorry, I don't mean to be smart but --

CHAIR: Well, I think what, I think what, hold on, hold on.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- this is all legal argument.

CHAIR: Hold on, hold, everyone --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'd be happy to address it.

MR. HOLZER: You asked the question.

CHAIR: -- everyone. Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Geez.

CHAIR: Calm down. I understand Protestant's Exhibit 39, it's already in evidence --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- as best as I recall. Is, if Mr. Holzer wants to say is this what you meant when you were discussing your testimony with the district, fine.

MR. HOLZER: That's all.

CHAIR: That, it doesn't matter what was just read, it is what it is.

MR. HOLZER: That's right, it is what it is. And I'm trying to get through it so --

CHAIR: So, overruled on the objection, although please make sure to, show him the, you can just show him the document the next time and then you could have eliminated all that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Let me directly to the point, Petitioner's Exhibit 38, 39 and 40 for i.d. This all relates to Beachmont corn maze, etcetera.

CHAIR: Just to be clear, thirty-eight, thirty-nine and forty?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: May I see that? May, may --

CHAIR: Right? Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Those three.

MR. CLARK: -- may I have a copy?

MR. HOLZER: Pardon?

MR. CLARK: May I have a copy? Thank you. I, I will return them.

CHAIR: Thank you. I've just handed my copies of thirty-eight, thirty-nine and forty and the handwriting on the bottom reflects the number.

MR. HOLZER: Would you, because they've been set up by the Petitioners as, in request of, or in an analysis of Beachmont, my question to you is, can you explain if there is a difference between the effects of Beachmont on those documents, the corn maze, etcetera, Beachmont, how it affects your property and your neighboring property as it relates to the subject site being developed in that fashion?

MR. SCHMIDT: Ob, just objection. Isn't, I don't, I don't know. A lot of this is just legal argument, which Mr. Holzer, I can certainly allow, allow him to, to say --

CHAIR: I, I, I didn't understand the question as it was.

MR. SCHMIDT: But I'm not sure what the question is.

CHAIR: I didn't understand your question.

MR. HOLZER: The question is, the question is, now that this has been introduced by the Petitioners, thirty-eight, thirty-nine and forty.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. HOLZER: How is the relationship of Beachmont affecting its neighbors different from how it affects yours?

CHAIR: Okay. I understand the question.

MR. CLARK: I, I, I would broaden that to say how it affects the communities.

CHAIR: I would answer Mr. Holzer's question.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Just answer my question first, please.

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay. But, but the Beachmont property where all, where they hold all the activities, it's down in a bowl, okay? And all the sound is contained within that bowl. There are, in fact, Reverend Standifer acts as their alarm bell for, for when things get too loud, that would disturb the, the property owners across the road.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I'm sorry, --

MR. CLARK: Okay. Yeah, and, and --

MR. HOLZER: -- you're, you're not finished, go ahead.

MR. CLARK: -- and, and the subject site is on a pinnacle that, as you could see from some of the photos, looks straight down haystack valley. And the sound just travels. So, that, that's a difference in, in, in the sites and how they impact their, their communities.

MR. HOLZER: So there's no, so there's no question that in Beachmont, and as shown in these three exhibits, there's no question that they conduct this kind of activity, is that --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: The question is, if this kind of activity were to be placed on the subject property, would that be a problem in your perspective?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I have no objection to these documents being admitted.

CHAIR: Thirty-eight through forty are admitted.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Now, let's, let's, if we can, --

CHAIR: Hold on. Are you going to do Redeemer next?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: I'm handing out my exhibits for forty-one through forty-three to the witness for that point.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, on Exhibits 41, 42 and 43 for the Petitioner, you understand what that is?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. That is in regard to what takes place at Redeemer?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Redeemer has a church on the property, is that --

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Beachmont, Beachmont has no church or other religious facility on their property?

MR. CLARK: And the two are unrelated.

MR. HOLZER: Well, that was going to be my next question. Is there any relationship between the Redeemer Classic Christian School and the Beachmont project?

MR. CLARK: Other than the fact that the land acquired for the Beachmont property came from Ron Standifer.

MR. HOLZER: Ron Standifer being, for the record, the pastor of Redeemer Christian School.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: All right. So, on, on these, on Petitioner's forty-one in regards to the activities that take place, a lot of the sporting activities, do you know whether they take place outside or inside the facility? If you know?

MR. CLARK: Well, I, I, I testified I know, I, I have seen, you know, them with the soccer, at the soccer field. I should, yes, yes, and there's, I'll wait for your next question.

MR. HOLZER: Are, are there any activities that take place inside, to your knowledge?

MR. CLARK: I don't think they, other than classroom, I don't think they have --

CHAIR: He's asking whatever your knowledge is.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, right, right, right, right.

CHAIR: So, if you don't know, you don't know.

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, I, --

MR. HOLZER: If you don't know, you don't know.

MR. CLARK: No, I, no, I, I don't think so.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. That's not a problem. In regard to exhibit number forty-three, which are the sporting activities, you've already covered that, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Well, and, and, and the, the fields are in, in a corner that are far, are far away from most, from most of the housing. They went through the process of dealing with the community in setting those things up.

MR. HOLZER: When you say the community, do you mean an organized community?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, there was Mount Vista Civic Association was very involved in setting the, the parameters for, for Redeemer and I don't know who decided that case.

MR. HOLZER: But for, but for, it, we don't really need to know any of that information.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: But otherwise, they resolved the issue, the fields --

MR. CLARK: And the fields were located where they, where, where, and I believe he's got a berm there.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: To, to, to deflect some of the sound.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, there were conditions that were attached to Redeemer and their facility also?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: And we're not saying how it was attached or whether there was a case or not.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: I have no objection to Petitioner's one, forty-one, forty-two --

CHAIR: Forty-one, forty-two, forty-three.

MR. HOLZER: -- or forty-three.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you. They are admitted.

MR. HOLZER: And one thing that has been brought up in regard to the efforts to meet with you, all the questions related to, you know, were you invited here, were you invited there, do you understand where I am?

MR. CLARK: I do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Do you recall me advising you for the last thirty, forty years, I tell every Protestant group that I represent that I desire that they meet with the other side to determine whether there's any way to resolve any issues. Do you remember me telling you that?

MR. CLARK: You made it abundantly clear that we were to listen whenever somebody wanted to talk.

MR. HOLZER: All right. And so, did you follow that advice?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. No further questions at all.

CHAIR: Anything further?

MR. SCHMIDT: Just very quickly. You're not an acoustical engineer?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. HOLZER: I am.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did you hire an acoustical engineer to do any analysis of the decibels?

MR. CLARK: No, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: At either Beachmont or Redeemer or the subject property?

MR. CLARK: We considered it and --

MR. SCHMIDT: But you didn't. The answer is no.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Well, let him answer.

CHAIR: Hold, hold, hold on. It's really, I, I understand what you're saying.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: However, I also understand what Mr. Schmidt is saying, it's not that complicated. Did you retain some, an acoustical engineer --

MR. CLARK: We, we, we considered it.

CHAIR: Did you retain?

MR. CLARK: We consulted.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: In an attempt to retain.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Did that, as a result of that consultation, did that form any of your, or go to forming any of your opinions? Because that was a question that was asked earlier.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, --

MR. CLARK: No, because the, the, the events were so sporadic that we wouldn't be able to set up equipment to actually measure.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, back to you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, just very quickly. I think what I tried to do during my cross examination on this top, topic, Mr. Clark, is I was trying to identify expert witnesses that you had consulted in connection with this case as you were preparing for your presentation. And you identified Mr. Jakubiak, who is going to testify, an unnamed traffic engineer --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- who you said wasn't worth the money and you decided, whom actually, I think you said, met Mr. Collagero out at the property or when Mr. Coll, Collagero was there --

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- but you didn't, you didn't, he's not here or he hasn't, he's not going to testify. And now there's this acous, at least an acoustical engineer who you dis, talked to but you didn't retain.

MR. CLARK: Attempted to retain.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is there, just so we know, --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- is there any other witnesses, any other expert witnesses? I tried to be broad before.

MR. CLARK: No, I, I know, I know, --

MR. SCHMIDT: And you didn't tell us about the acoustic guy.

MR. CLARK: Well, and the, the, you know, this, this was a direct respond to, you, you stimulated me.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right. Have you talked to any septic people or?

MR. CLARK: Go, yeah, go, no, no septic.

MR. SCHMIDT: No septic.

MR. CLARK: No civil engineers.

MR. SCHMIDT: No landscape architects?

MR. CLARK: No landscape architects.

MR. SCHMIDT: No surveyors?

MR. CLARK: No surveyors.

MR. SCHMIDT: No sanitarians?

MR. CLARK: No sanitarians.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: No, no, you know, I, it's fair and, you know, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, fair enough.

CHAIR: So then it's fair to say that sitting here in the moment, there's nobody else that you would have tried to retain or like a, in terms of consultant or an expert witness, that you not otherwise have identified?

MR. CLARK: That I can, this is --

CHAIR: I said sitting here right now in this moment.

MR. CLARK: The, not as a fudge word, that I can recall.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer, do you have any follow-up as a result of all that?

MR. HOLZER: No, I hope we're done.

CHAIR: And I take it that's it from you, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Because you're packing up.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: I was going to say, don't give him another chance.

CHAIR: Yes. So, well, I wanted to make sure the record was clear that everyone's --

MR. SCHMIDT: Let the record reflect that I was about two hours, less than that, after two and a half days of direct examination.

MR. CLARK: And I appreciate it.

MR. HOLZER: Let the record reflect that he's wonderful. He's a wonderful attorney.

CHAIR: All right. So, you are done on the stand.

MR. CLARK: Even with the potential for cross?

CHAIR: There are the, still minor issues to be resolved, so but as for his testimony he is literally a witness who is done testifying at the moment, but there is the right, obviously, to recall him on those other points.

MR. HOLZER: On the limited issues.

CHAIR: On, for those very limited issues.

MR. HOLZER: Exactly. I don't want him on the stand any longer than --

CHAIR: I'm sure he would also agree with that.

MR. CLARK: And, and, but, but I just want to be clear. I'm pretty much free of all encumberments?

CHAIR: I'm not going to give you advice, other than to say you would be better served to listen to what Mr. Holzer tells you.

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay.

MR. HOLZER: I certainly will tell him.

MR. CLARK: You will.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: So, with that in mind, we are adjourned for today. We are meeting again 9:00 a.m. February 5th. We all know the, we'll call them, we call them minor matters, that are still out there and open and we also have Mr. Jakubiak that day. I'm not asking you today as to what you intend to do with rebuttal because we still have some substantive matters to get through.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MS. DOPKIN: We're off the record.

(ON RECORD – 09:16:33 AM)

CHAIR: Please be seated.

MS. DOPKIN: We are recording.

CHAIR: All right. We are back again today for day nine of Nepali American Cultural Center, case number 18-122-X. As you all may be able to tell, I've been losing my voice. So, so for today, obviously I'll still be doing the same things I normally do, but Ms. Dopkin will be aiding me in certain respects because I'm not able to consistently amplify my voice. Ms. Dopkin, is there anything you want to say?

MS. DOPKIN: I do. As Mr. Garber has repeatedly stated, this is a quasi-judicial body. We take our job seriously. We expect a modicum of decorum from the lawyers and the parties and the witness. We would like you to respect that for us. With that in mind, we want to proceed today efficiently, in a business like and professional manner so that there is a minimum of extraneous back and forth. We want to hear what our witnesses have to say so we can move forward. Mr. Garber is a font of patience. I am not.

So, if you have an objection, stand up so we and the witness know that you have an objection, state the basis for it. We don't want your argument per extended or testimony, we want to know why you're objecting. We'll deal with it. If we have questions, we'll ask you. We'd like to move forward a little more efficiently than we did yesterday without eclipsing anyone's right to speak and be heard. We're much more interested in hearing the case then all the rumble underneath. So, with that in mind, I hope you will not force Mr. Garber to lose his voice any further. And conduct yourselves accordingly.

CHAIR: Thank you. All right. So, the next two days beyond today, February 5th, February 13th, when the notices went out, the time listed was 10:00. We have an amended notice that it will be, the times will be moved to 9:00. Mr. Kotroco is not here, Mr. Schmidt, this is your copy.

MR. SCHMIDT: May I approach?

CHAIR: Yes, of course. Mr. Ghimire is not here. Do you expect him?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I will give it to him. Yes, he sends his regrets but because of the school delay he's (inaudible).

CHAIR: It's quite all right, it, it's quite all right. Mr. Holzer, this is your copy.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Hold on. I'm going to give you the copy for the Clarks, since Dr. Clark is at your table. And others will be mailed because those individuals are not here. That is, who are on the notice, particularly Mr. Kotroco, David Hartman, David Poehler, Morgan Minor and Carol Shaw. Oh, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Ms. Shaw is here.

CHAIR: Ms. Shaw? Good news, I have one with your name on it. So, Ms. Shaw is here and has received, so the ones that have not received it are Mr. Hartman, Mr. Poehler, Ms. Minor and Mr. Kotroco.

MR. HOLZER: If the Board would like, I certainly can deliver those to my clients. I don't know whether you have to mail them or whatever. But I can accept service for them.

CHAIR: If you're affirmatively representing on the record that you are accepting service for those individuals.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Other than Mr. Kotroco, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- I assume, then that's fine and they will not be mailed.

MR. HOLZER: I understand. That's why I'm trying to save the Board some extra work.

CHAIR: I appreciate it.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I can likewise do the same for Mr. Kotroco.

CHAIR: Very well. You have helped, both of you. This is Mr. Kotroco's. And I'm handing Mr. Holzer, excuse me, I think we have one for Motsco too.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, and I can do the same for him.

CHAIR: I apologize. And then, so this is for Ms. Minor, this is for Mr. Poehler.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: And Mr. Hartman. And again, the only change is the time being moved from 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. start. The only change.

MS. DOPKIN: And before we start, we would ask again that you silence all your devices.

CHAIR: Yes. Is there any other preliminary matter that needs to be discussed at the start?

MR. SCHMIDT: Just very briefly. During the course of the proceedings this morning, a young man from my office, who is a member of the Maryland Bar, Zachary Wilkins, may be joining me at the trial table. I don't want to disrupt the proceedings then, but if you see a young man come in and sit next to me, it's Mr. Wilkins and he may be assisting me. He is a member of the Bar and a member of my firm.

CHAIR: Thank you for, for letting us know in advance.

MR. HOLZER: Is Tim still going to be in the case or is he --

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Kotroco is still in the case but he's just not here, at least yesterday and today, obviously.

MR. HOLZER: So, I still have to, if I need to copy you guys, I still have to copy him?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, you should still copy him. Yes.

MR. HOLZER: That's all I needed to know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: All right. Anything else?

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: All right. Where we last left off was the conclusion of the 502.1 factors. Is that everyone's understanding?

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: All right. So, Mr. Holzer, it is your witness.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you, Dr. Clark.

MS. DOPKIN: Do you want to re-swear the witness?

CHAIR: Mine as well just do it because we're here and --

MS. DOPKIN: Mr. Clark, do you swear and affirm under the penalties of perjury, that the testimony you are about to give is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief?

MR. CLARK: I do.

MS. DOPKIN: And if you'd state your name for the record?

MR. CLARK: Oh, yeah. DeWitt S. Clark.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yes?

CHAIR: Your witness.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, now we are at the end of the 502.1 conditions and you've been testifying on behalf of the community association, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, that testimony in regard to the 502.1 conditions have been as the representative of the association from late yes, or yesterday afternoon.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. The, and when we ended last night at approximately 6:30, there was one other section left and that was inconsistent with the purs, purpose of the property zoning classification.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, there, as I understand it, your desire, your association desires to introduce one document which would be the Beachmont decision. Could you, and, and RC, and Grace Church. Are you familiar with that?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I am.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, just for purposes of the record.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: It may be a good idea to have Dr. Clark identify the zoning classification, because if he's going to testify to matters that are going to be inconsistent, just by foundational, he would have to establish what his understanding of the zoning classification is.

MR. HOLZER: Do you know what the classification is of the, well, let's say Grace Church?

MR. CLARK: Yes, RC-5.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and you know the zoning classification for the subject property?

MR. CLARK: RC-2.

MR. HOLZER: All right. I'm going to provide this document to, now, if Mr. Kotroco --

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: -- was here, he would be very familiar with this document.

MR. MCCOMAS: Exhibit 78.

MR. HOLZER: All right, that's Exhibit 78. And are you, do you have it front of you?

MR. CLARK: No, I do not.

MR. HOLZER: Sorry.

CHAIR: Here's another copy here if you need it. Let's mark it --

MR. MCCOMAS: Seventy-eight.

CHAIR: The formal exhibit, Mr. McComas has, but just so you have the copy that says seventy-eight on it.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Okay.

CHAIR: And I see Mr. Schmidt has his copy.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Okay. So, this is the Grace Church decision --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: -- I have here.

MR. HOLZER: And now, could you tell me why you believe this is relevant to the proceedings that we're here to, today on?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. This is a house of worship in the general area.

MR. HOLZER: And when, when you say general area, I want you to be more specific.

MR. CLARK: Okay. It's on, it's on Belair Road, it's within the Kingsville Civic Association cacheman area.

MR. HOLZER: When you say it's on Belair Road, is it in a residential area or more, when, when you say Belair Road I think of commercial.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, no. It, it, it's in, it's past the URDL, it is at 11611 Belair Road.

CHAIR: I, I missed the part, you said it was in with, with the what, cacheman zone?

MR. CLARK: The Greater Kingsville Civic Association cacheman zone.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Okay?

CHAIR: Sorry about that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, just for the record, I've looked at the decision quickly and I have an objection.

CHAIR: Okay. What's the nature of the objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: The nature of the objection is, first of all, I don't believe it's appropriate for this witness to be giving a legal interpretation of this decision. I think it's more properly argument.

CHAIR: I think that objection is premature at this time. I don't know where we're going with this exhibit with this witness. That may be an objection on a future question, I don't know. But, so for now, I'll overrule that objection.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, and there's one other basis, if I may be heard?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: I notice that the property is zoned RC-5, which is not the same zoning classification as is the issue in this case. And I also think as importantly, as I'm looking at the first page of the decision that we've been provided in the actual middle of the first paragraph it indicates that the matter is before, was before the zoning commissioner on a development plan. And it indicates further the use of the subject property is a church, is a use permitted in the RC-5 zone, therefore, no special zoning relief is necessary. And then it continues. So, I believe that the standard that would have been applied in this case, as it relates to whether the development plan should be granted or approved, is a different legal standard than the special exception.

CHAIR: I understand the difference between the RC-5, RC-2 zones, I understand this may be a development decision, but I don't know what use or purpose we have for this exhibit as of yet. And so, Mr. Holzer, --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: -- I'll, I'll overrule it for now but you may, of course, object again when appropriate.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you for hearing from me.

MR. HOLZER: Mr., Mr. Clark, I want to direct your attention to page twenty-four, and twenty-five and twenty-six, of that document.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. HOLZER: Which is signed by Timothy Kotroco.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. HOLZER: The hearing officer at the time and currently one of the attorneys involved in this, in this case. Directing your attention specifically to his imposing certain terms and conditions. Are you familiar with those terms and conditions?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I do not want you to opine in regard to any legal zoning questions. But I want you to define where the, is the Grace Church in an area similar to the proposed site here on Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: It is on a State highway. It is in a, a similar residential, rural residential area. It is in with, it is within the locale.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, all right. Now, in looking, this will, this will lead us into the next questions that I have for you, the next area. But did you review the terms of the conditions imposed by Mr. Kotroco?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Did you find those conditions consistent or relative to the same kinds of concerns your association would have in regards to the proposed project?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: And can you just explain instead of saying yeah. Just a little bit.

MR. CLARK: Okay, yeah.

MR. HOLZER: I don’t want a long diatribe, a little bit. Go ahead.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Well, no, it, it has to do with the size capacity of, of the house of worship, it has to do with traffic management, it has to do with recreational facilities, it has to do with kitchens, has to do with noise, it has to do with outdoor activities, no outdoor concerns, carnivals permitted on the grounds, landscaping, so on and so forth. I mean, I mean, the, the Board can read it for themselves. I, I don't need to --

MR. HOLZER: And --

CHAIR: Do I understand correctly here that you're identifying these conditions as ones that could have some influence on --

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- this matter in the event there's an approval?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right. And you're using this by way of example?

MR. CLARK: And, and Petitioner, or Protestant's counsel was involved with this, their legal team, right.

CHAIR: Well, that aside, --

MR. CLARK: Right, yeah.

CHAIR: -- that's the purpose for this exhibit is to say hey --

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, sir, yes, sir, yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- look, here's an example, the way this, something similar has been treated, even if there are differences in the way it unfolds. But there are conditions imposed here, ones that you think could be --

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- applied here?

MR. HOLZER: Absolutely.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: That's the sole purpose of putting it in. I think the added value is the fact that Mr. Kotroco was the one that, that imposed those conditions. So, it shows that he --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- is sympathetic to those kinds of, of issues or arguments by the neighbors. I, that's all it's put, put in for.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, any objection to seventy-eight?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir. Although I obviously point out that Mr. Kotroco, at the time, was deputy zoning commissioner and not private counsel.

CHAIR: It, it's understood.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: The difference in position and in no way does that influence anything up, you know, for purposes of this hearing. So, yes, it's admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. The next document, which I sort of thought of out of order, would be the Beachmont approval and it's also, excuse me, so I can get this right. It's also authored by the deputy zoning commissioner, Mr. Kotroco. And I'm going to make sure everybody has a copy first before, one, two, --

CHAIR: And sir, if you could hand back the exhibit?

MR. CLARK: Oh, that wasn't mine, yeah.

CHAIR: Seventy-eight. So, Mr. McComas would have his own.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. MCCOMAS: I already got one. Oh, for my, for my --

CHAIR: Right, for your, for your personal file.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: That was yours.

MR. MCCOMAS: It was.

MR. HOLZER: That will be seventy-nine.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MS. DOPKIN: This is case number 94-50-SPH, a Petition for Special Hearing?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: For Beachmont Inc.?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. And, well, I'll let Mr. Schmidt have an opportunity.

MR. SCHMIDT: I note at, at the beginning, just of the decision, and I have not read the decision, that this case apparently was an approval of an amendment of orders in two prior cases, 75-83-X and 89-489-SPH. Mr. Holzer, just out of a matter of completeness, are we going to get all three of the dec, zoning decisions as they relate to Beachmont?

MR. HOLZER: No, I didn't, the only one that I have for now is this one.

CHAIR: Let me ask, are you using seventy-nine in a similar fashion to seventy-eight as it relates to conditions imposed on the Beachmont property, that is, something that Dr. Clark would feel --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- would be perhaps something to be considered in this case, should there be approval?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. And those, and those restrictions were found on page nine of this document, seventy-nine, nine and ten. And if the Board looks at that, you, you can see that it follows pretty much his testimony on exhibit number seventy-eight. But I'll ask him --

CHAIR: Well, the purpose of my asking that question is it resolves the issue --

MR. HOLZER: Exactly.

CHAIR: -- that Mr. Schmidt has raised as to the two prior case numbers.

MR. HOLZER: Exactly.

CHAIR: At least, it would seem on its face. Do you have any objection to seventy-nine then, other than the issue as to case numbers 75-83-X and 89-499-SPH in light of the proffered relevance of this document?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I, I think, I'm sure you're going to have a consistent ruling with the prior exhibit, so I don't object. Maybe the way to handle it is I may have my office see if they can pull those cases and --

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- offer them just so that you have all the cases related.

CHAIR: I appreciate that.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think that's appropriate.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: I have no objection if he does that.

CHAIR: Okay. So, seventy-nine will be admitted, you may ask your questions to Dr. Clark.

MR. CLARK: May I have a copy?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. I keep forgetting that you don't have one. And Mr. Clark, would you look at the last couple pages? Because I've --

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: -- suggested to the Board that that's the reason that we're introducing them. Could you address the, first of all, where is Beachmont?

MR. CLARK: Beachmont is located, as the crow flies, about a half a mile from the subject property. It is not on a State highway, it is on a County road.

MR. HOLZER: What's the County road? Mount Vista?

MR. CLARK: Mount Vista, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: I was going to say, it was already read into the record.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It was a trick question.

CHAIR: That's okay.

MR. CLARK: All right. And it adjoins another property from which it was split off, owned by the Standifer's, I believe, and that has operated as Redeemer School. There's been some confusion about this Redeemer/Beachmont complex. But as these decisions will show, they are two separate entities. And Mr. Kotroco, I think, was well aware of that. But the, the, the conditions are, again, appropriate for, we feel, we feel, the board feeds, that the GFWPA board feels, that these conditions are very similar to what we would like, that would satisfy our concerns on the subject property.

CHAIR: Before we go down another road, because I don't know if this is yet to come, as an individual, because you're here testifying in both capacities, that is, on behalf of the association and yourself --

MR. CLARK: No, I, I think we can pretty much say that --

CHAIR: You're not going to offer any other testimony as an individual as it relates to seventy-eight or seventy-nine?

MR. CLARK: Oh, I see what, I see what you're asking. Other than some rebuttal to testimony, to prior testimony.

CHAIR: Sorry, as it relates to these two exhibits?

MR. CLARK: Well, this exhibit may be brought in as a rebuttal. I would, I --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, do you understand my question?

MR. HOLZER: I understand your question.

CHAIR: Could you --

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I'm sorry, I don't, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: We've had testimony, Dr. Clark as an individual, we have testimony from Dr. Clark on behalf of the association. I don't want to go, talk about his testimony as the association and then find out two hours from now as an individual he also has opinions --

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: -- about the same exhibits.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, I'm sorry. I just didn't follow you at first.

CHAIR: I, I want, yeah, so right, so I apologize for not being clear.

MR. SCHMIDT: I got it.

CHAIR: I want to see if the testimony is coextensive.

MR. CLARK: Now, --

MR. HOLZER: I, I can answer the question. In regard to some prior testimony by various witness Petitioners and so forth, there was confusion or an attempt to combine these properties and even though Mr. Clark is testifying right now for the conditions that could be attached, if the Board so chose, he also subsequently wants to go back when I go back to his personal testimony and explain the confusion that was generated by the Petitioners as to these two properties. That's all he wants to do. He's not going to re-address the decisions or anything.

MS. DOPKIN: Is he speaking for himself individually or still as the spokesperson for the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preser --

MR. HOLZER: He would speaking, at that time, for himself, trying to clarify some of the misunderstandings that occurred in the Petitioner's case.

MR. MCCOMAS: And, and why is that relevant to this case?

MR. HOLZER: Why is?

MR. MCCOMAS: That he --

MR. HOLZER: That they made mistakes testifying, they made mis --

MR. MCCOMAS: No, no, the issue of, of the property that's in this case, why is that relevant to this case?

MR. HOLZER: Oh, it's not relevant. It's not --

CHAIR: He's addressing points made earlier by other witnesses, I believe is what Mr. Holzer is saying.

MR. MCCOMAS: Oh, okay. I thought he was talking about the case in here where they're talking about there was some confusion (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: I'm, no, but I'm sorry, I misunderstood what your confusion was.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, yeah, no, I got the past testimony. What I was talking about is I thought he was going to testify about that there's some confusion in the prior case over --

MR. HOLZER: No.

MR. MCCOMAS: -- the division of land.

MR. HOLZER: No. All he's, all he's doing at this purpose, for the, for the association, is to say many of these conditions also would apply and be acceptable to us in this case. He will then, I will then take him back to go into the testimony as an individual of why there was previous testimony that may have confused the Board in regard to these two properties, that's all.

CHAIR: So, and just to put a, a, an exclamation point at the end of all this discussion, what I'm hearing is he has something separate to say about Beachmont and Redeemer.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: That relates to Exhibit 79. But does he hold an opinion as an individual as to the conditions reflected in seventy-eight and/or seventy-nine --

MR. HOLZER: He just says he did.

CHAIR: -- as an individual?

MR. HOLZER: (inaudible) yes.

CHAIR: And we're, that's what I want to elicit now.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Because the stuff later to come is for impeachment or rebuttal purposes.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, while we have this out, if he has separate opinions about it, as an individual or whatever, that's what, all I'm trying to get onto the record.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Chairman, he just answered your question by saying it's my personal opinion as well as the association.

CHAIR: I, thank you. I, that's why I'm saying, I want to put an exclamation point at the end of that --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- so we can all move on.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Thank you. Okay.

MR. HOLZER: So, I would offer this seventy-nine also, like I offered --

CHAIR: It's already been admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, it has, okay. I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Yes. Because Mr. Schmidt did not have any objections other than the one we discussed. And since he said the ruling for seventy-eight would be applicable to seventy-nine he understood.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: So, it is admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Thank you. In regard to, continuing under the inconsistence with the purpose of the property zoning classification, are there any other points that you want to make on behalf of the association or have we completed that part?

MR. CLARK: Can, can I just re-echo the, you know, the use of the recreation, as a recreational facility --

CHAIR: I think you should answer Mr. Holzer's question.

MR. CLARK: Okay. So, I want to say yes. Ask the question again. I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Are there any other evidence in that relates to the association's concern about the inconsistency of the property's zoning classification?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And what are they?

MR. CLARK: They are the, the string of volleyball events that have been held there and there are the multiple events above and beyond the, the July 29, August 3, including while this proceeding was taking place, the use of it for a community political activism where some seventy-five people attended and we have the video of that in there. And --

MR. HOLZER: Has that video been shown?

MR. CLARK: I don't think completely.

CHAIR: It has not been paid during the course of any hearing --

MR. CLARK: We, we showed parts of it.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: It has not been played during the course of any hearing because it's, that's news to me.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay and the November 4th of use of the property by a group called Belmont Volleyball Group, for a volleyball game. And again, they posted on Facebook for us.

MR. HOLZER: Do we need to show a video of that at this point or would --

CHAIR: Well, please bear in mind Mr. Schmidt, if, I'm assuming these are not on the disc previously because you called them new.

MR. CLARK: And they were given last night.

CHAIR: Okay. So, I'm going to give Mr. Schmidt the benefit of the doubt, as hard working as an individual as he is, and last night we ran a bit late, so he may not have had the opportunity to view them. So, with that in mind, do you have still photos?

MR. CLARK: I think we, yeah, yes.

CHAIR: I want, in other words, I'm trying to give you the opportunity to see the video ahead of time, to, to the maximum extent possible, but of course, our time is limited.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you. I, I seem to recall a video where there was someone from the governor's office who was at the property and we did see a video of that. I assume this is something different than that?

CHAIR: I would, I would say that my rec --

MR. SCHMIDT: When he said, used the word political, that's what I was thinking.

CHAIR: And my understanding was consistent with yours, that is, it does not refer to that, that one.

MR. SCHMIDT: That event, okay.

MR. CLARK: The Belmont Volleyball Group does not.

CHAIR: No, the pol, the one that, --

MR. CLARK: The one on October 6, --

CHAIR: The political activism one.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, where there were about seventy-five people in attendance.

CHAIR: Well, so, we'll stop there. Mr. Holzer, trying to clarify the video. Mr. Schmidt has asked a question. Is this the one that concerned a representative from the governor's office or was it even the lieutenant governor?

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe, as I recall, I think it was someone from the governor's office and I remember there was a video about six or seven people sitting at a table --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- outside and there was some question and answer. I just didn't know if that was what we were talking about or if it was something else.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, so the question --

MR. HOLZER: It was not shown yet.

CHAIR: It was not shown yet.

MR. HOLZER: It's, it's on the document that you have, that you have already, what was shown and what was not. And it was not.

CHAIR: Okay. So, then it's a new one. Just to establish that for the record, that that would be a new video.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Different than what Mr. Schmidt is referring to. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: It was on the original disc.

CHAIR: Oh, okay. We're back to square one.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, apparently you did receive whatever it is before. So, it's --

MR. HOLZER: It's listed on the, on the list sheet.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: As having been on the old documents that were submitted to Mr. Schmidt.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: But for right now, I'd like --

CHAIR: But go, please, please move ahead. I will search for the list and we will untangle that.

MR. HOLZER: These are the photographs of --

MR. CLARK: No, you have to give them to them.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I've got some to give to them.

CHAIR: As long as Mr. Schmidt has it, we have it and there's no question pending, it's fine.

MR. CLARK: Okay, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yep.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just trying, maybe make this earlier, Mr. Garber, --

CHAIR: Go for it.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- this is exactly what I think we were talking about and if you look at page two --

CHAIR: Hold on. We have to mark it first. Mr. McComas?

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, I'm sorry.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible) B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J. So, it's going to be A through J.

CHAIR: What, what number?

MR. MCCOMAS: Eighty.

CHAIR: So, Petitioner's Exhibit 80-A through K are photographs, or excuse me, Protestant's Exhibit 80-A through K. Now, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe, I guess it's B, the second page.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is, I know we've seen the video of that already.

CHAIR: Yes. That, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Because it's, I mentioned the governor's office but appar, I, --

CHAIR: Secretary of State.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- apologize, it was the deputy secretary of state.

CHAIR: Yeah, right, understood.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'm assuming, and again, to be consistent with your rulings yesterday, this is not about a code violation or an illegal event, but it, I don't think --

CHAIR: I don't know why we're discussing it right now.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: I'm going to leave that to Mr. Holzer to ask Dr. Clark.

MR. HOLZER: Dr. Clark, you've seen Exhibit 80. What is the purpose for showing this?

MR. CLARK: Well, if you look at, I guess it would be C, page C.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Okay. It shows a large crowd and it is being used for a purpose other than what the special exception is asking.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, I would offer --

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, any objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe the video is in and to the extent that this is still photos taken from the video, it's already in evidence so I don't have any objection.

CHAIR: Well, let's, let's separate the two. The photos alone, do you have any objection without reference to the video? And I ask that, because I don't know off the top of my head with all the videos that are identified, what was in and what was out. So, of the photos alone, do you have any objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I'll make this easy. I do not have any objection.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank, thank you.

CHAIR: A through K.

MR. HOLZER: And I'm not going to worry about the video. It is what it is.

CHAIR: Yeah, and I, just off the top of my head, because there's so many I don't know what was specifically ruled upon or not. That's the reason why I asked for a separate consideration from Mr. Schmidt.

MR. HOLZER: Now, I'd like to go to one, oh, I'm sorry. You've already had an opportunity to make a, a comment about Exhibit 80 that we just entered into evidence, is that --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Is there anything further you need to say about that? Can we move on?

MR. CLARK: About this exhibit?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. HOLZER: No?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIR: We can move on.

MR. CLARK: We can move on.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Now, let's go to what the, your association board concluded in terms of the special exception.

MR. CLARK: I would like to introduce one more thing, the Belmont Video Group. We did, we, we, we mentioned that and we didn't introduce the pictures from that.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay.

CHAIR: That was on November 4, 2018, while, while these proceedings were going on.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry --

MR. CLARK: And that will also be introduced for rebuttal purposes, I should say, Your Honor, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: Deal with it one step at a time.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, let's do one thing at a time. This, has this, has there, these are photographs from a video, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: From a new video that is on the discs that were distributed last night.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, so they're new.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I did not watch the, the new disc last night.

CHAIR: Right, and it's understandable. Let's start with the photos and see where that takes us.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I haven't seen those, but I'll be happy to look at them.

CHAIR: And this is Exhibit 81.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, obviously not having seen these, I, I guess I would have a technical objection just in terms of the foundation of what this is and where, where it came from, etcetera, because it appears to be a photograph of a computer screen, I am surmising. I guess the other, and I can address this in cross examination, but just to the extent it goes to relevance and I'll try to be very, very brief. I'm not quite sure what I understand the relevance is of people playing volleyball.

CHAIR: Well, if I can, if I could jump in real quick. Mr. Holzer hasn't had the opportunity to try to lay a foundation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, at the time the objections are premature, I would say so they're overruled at this moment.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, if you want to lay a foundation?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Mr. Clark, do we have a video from which these pictures were taken?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Have we shown that video at this point?

MR. CLARK: No, sir.

MR. HOLZER: We have?

MR. CLARK: Not.

MR. HOLZER: We have not shown that video. That video is on the, the disc that was created as a quote, new disc, that was provided to the parties last night?

MR. CLARK: Well, as you can from the date --

CHAIR: The ans, hold on, answer his question.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, answer --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And as you can see from the date, the reason for that is the video was posted on November 4.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and does that, does the date show on the, Protestant's eighty-one, of November 4th?

MR. CLARK: Yes, it is, --

MR. HOLZER: Where is it?

MR. CLARK: -- it is on their video screen under Belmont Volleyball Park was live at Hindu Temple Mandere November 4 at 8:58.

CHAIR: If you go above the center photo, you'll see it says Belmont --

MR. HOLZER: I see.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I see. Thank you.

CHAIR: Yep.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Does, what is your purpose for showing, or discussing Protestant's Exhibit 81 and do we need, in your opinion, the video to show this document?

MR. CLARK: Not unless we need it during cross, but the, the purpose of it is, again, it's a use other than applied for in the special exception.

MR. HOLZER: The, could, could we, in order to avoid Mr. Schmidt's objection, could we show the video now?

MR. CLARK: It is on the USB drive, it's ready to go.

CHAIR: Well, if I could just ask the question. Is what we're about to watch basically what you just said, that is, people were playing volleyball? How long of a video is it?

MR. CLARK: Well, there's, there's two different ones. One is the full thing of twelve minutes and the other is two minutes and eleven seconds.

CHAIR: Okay. So, Mr. Schmidt, you've heard the proffer as what's to be shown on the video. I will leave it to you to decide whether you would like to see that before any further examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I, I really don't need to see people playing video, I, if I could, --

CHAIR: You mean volleyball, the video of the volleyball?

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, I'm sorry, playing volleyball.

And I don't want to ask anything improper. I note that it was apparently posted on November the 4th, according to the date on the document. But I'm looking, for example, at the, the second page and, at least there's one participant who's in a pair of shorts and they look like most of them are in short sleeves and it is November. So, this may have been posted in November. I'm wondering if Mr. Clark knows when this actually happened, whether it was then or whether it was just a video from the summer.

CHAIR: I would say you'll have to wait till cross examination for that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. And then the other, the other point and I, and if I should wait till cross examination please tell me. But from a relevance standpoint, they were playing volleyball. Is, is there an allegation that that's illegal or immoral or improper somehow?

CHAIR: No, I think, okay, so I understand the objection. I'm going to overrule the objection. We've heard from Dr. Clark, why he, he thinks that this is relevant to this case. So, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- as, as for the other question, you can ask that on cross examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: And certainly you can explore whatever you need on cross examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: So, Exhibit 81 then will be admitted.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: And Mr. Schmidt has indicated he did not need to see the video of people playing volleyball.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you, members of the Board. Now, sorry, I, I jumped to the board's 502.1 conclusions and as a result of the board having these opinions, could you tell me in terms of what the board considered, if they have at all, as to what kind of conditions could be imposed by the Board?

CHAIR: Before you answer, you're referencing the board, just to be clear, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- because he's providing testimony on behalf of an association, the board you're referring to is the Board of Appeals. And you're asking --

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: -- the board for the association's opinion as to what the Board of Appeals should be doing as to conditions, is that correct?

MR. HOLZER: That's correct, that's correct. I apologize.

CHAIR: That's okay. We're using the board --

MR. HOLZER: But, in two different fashions.
CHAIR: Right.
MR. CLARK: I am testifying for the Gunpowder Falls Watershed --
CHAIR: Yes.
MR. CLARK: -- Preservation Association.
MR. HOLZER: Yes.
MR. CLARK: That these were authorized by, by the board.
CHAIR: That's undisputed.
MR. CLARK: Okay.
CHAIR: It was just to clarify Mr. Holzer's double use of the --
MR. CLARK: I, I know.
MR. HOLZER: Yeah.
CHAIR: -- board referencing both boards.
MR. CLARK: Right.
MR. HOLZER: Right. Go ahead.
MR. CLARK: I don't know if this would be a good place to talk about how, how this whole thing started, or if you want me to go right into our conclusions.
CHAIR: I want you to answer his question directly.
MR. HOLZER: Answer, answer the question.
MR. CLARK: Okay, okay, okay.
MR. HOLZER: And go into the, the, --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, we have, we have, we have a number, we, we, we, I'm just going to read it, Your Honor.

CHAIR: Read?

MR. SCHMIDT: Is, is there a question pending?

CHAIR: Hold on. He has something he wants to read. Mr. Holzer, do you know what he's ready to read?

MR. HOLZER: I hope it's the same thing I have here, which are some possible conditions that the Board could impose.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Just like the other two exhibits that we submitted.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: All right. The, so this, this is the position of the board.

CHAIR: Go ahead.

MR. CLARK: Okay? We understand it is very unusual for a special exception to be denied, okay? However, there are grounds to decline. One, this application is defective. The Petitioners clearly want to and repeatedly have used the property for purposes other than that stated in their application, okay? B, and I can provide this to you as a written statement. B, --

CHAIR: Hold, hold on. If you're to provide that as a written statement, then you need to provide Mr. Schmidt with it now, before it's going to be put into evidence.

MR. HOLZER: I, just read what you've written for the association.

MR. CLARK: Okay, so just, just read it, okay. Okay. This development provides no benefit to the surrounding community. 502.1 is not concerned about the needs of Parkville, Maryland or the Mid-Atlantic. It is concerned about the impacts of the surrounding community and the locale. Given that the zoning enforcement is non-existent and we dealt with that separately, I understand. You could stand and refute, you could take a stand and refuse to decide this, that you cannot, and refuse to decide this case until the County can guarantee a mechanism that will enforce your decisions. We understand your frustrations.

If you decline these outcomes, Protestants ask that you give the Petitioners exactly what they have testified they want, a place where to ten to fifteen people a day can come to pray. If that had been the case, we would not be here today. This means a well or septic for a maximum of fifty people, parking for ten cars, maximum twenty visitors per day with a controlled entrance and a verifiable count, restrict all improvements to the existing footprints and purpose, place money in escrow to execute equitable relief --

MR. HOLZER: Excuse me. When you, the last one, restrict all improvements to the existing --

MR. CLARK: Oh, okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- could you tell us where the community association got that kind of consideration?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I will do that for now on. Grace Church decision.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Place money in escrow, in, in escrow to execute equitable relief, no recreational facilities, Grace Church, remove the pool, remove the volleyball court. I believe Mr. Ghimire said he was amenable to that. No outdoor lighting. That again is Grace Church. Protestants and their representatives can enter the property for inspection and verification purposes. And that's in Grace Church too, by the way. No day care or educational facility. Grace Church. They had referenced they want to have yoga, language, cultural classes there. Reclaimed buildings to be used only for the original purpose, other than the mansion. Nothing is to be converted to a new use, such as the barn for a venue for a thousand people as Mr. Clarke wrote in one of his letters. That's from the Grace Church. No food kitchen. Again, that's in Grace Church.

We would strongly like you to require an SHA access permit prior to any further use. Headlight screening for the Poehler and Foxworth properties. Submit landscape, signage and road improvements to, to the community association. Signage that fits within the historic nature of the property and the community.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, what was that last one?

MR. CLARK: Signage that fits within the historic nature of the property and the community. The sign that they have put up, it does not fit either the historical context of the property or the community. Regarding to control runoff onto the Foxworth property. No outdoor services of any kind. No outdoor concerts, carnivals permitted on the grounds. There shall be no outdoor out, loudspeakers, outdoor pavilions, temporary or permanent, i.e., tents. That comes out of Grace Church.

All lighting to be approved, if it should be approved, will be limited to light standards, limited to twenty feet in height utilizing cutoff versus flood lighting. Lighting to be turned off no later than 10:00 p.m. Grace Church.

CHAIR: If I could just jump in. Mr. Holzer, I assume you'll be itemizing each condition in detail that you, that may be requested?

MR. HOLZER: You mean in a memo or some --

CHAIR: In your memo.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I can.

CHAIR: And the reason why I'm asking that is --

MR. HOLZER: Oh, sure.

CHAIR: -- because I'm trying to write down the specific, specific requirements or suggestions from Dr. Clark and I'm not going to capture every little bit of it and I don't want to go down a road that in the event it's approved and we start talking about conditions, that if we think something is appropriate, we're not actually meeting what is being specifically stated. So if you could itemize them all, and I'm not saying you can't continue to read, I just want to make sure that it's recorded --

MR. CLARK: I just have two more.

CHAIR: -- accurately and for the Board's review, that we have an accurate recitation of these itemized factors.

MR. HOLZER: I think it's a perfectly reasonable request. It makes a lot of sense and what I was going to suggest was, I can take this, put it on a separate piece of paper and make copies for you, the Board and counsel.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Because it, it seems to me, it is the thing that might provide an, a proper analysis of what the community is asking for, so.

CHAIR: But there were also a lot of specifics--

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yeah.

CHAIR: -- to it and there's both quantity, there's, we have the quantity of it.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: But also, there are very specific details

within --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, right.

CHAIR: -- some of these that I don't want to get lost trying to keep up with writing down the list.

MR. HOLZER: You're not.

CHAIR: So, I want to make sure that everything is accurate and please continue to read --

MR. CLARK: Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: -- the remainder but --

MR. HOLZER: I'm going to take care of that.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Um hm.

CHAIR: It'll just make it easier.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: All driveway parking to be constructed as permeable surfaces, not impermeable surfaces. Visitors must use the left lane to exit south and the right lane to exit north. Entrance to the property will be by a dedicated lane, not a shared lane. In both Beachmont decision and Grace Church decision, Mr. Kotroco found that uses such as this should be restricted to five, to RC-5 zones. Okay?

MR. HOLZER: Now, Mr. Clark, what, what I'm suggesting and the Chairman has suggested is that I take this list with all amplifications that you've adopted and provide a sec, a separate document that I submit to Mr. Garber and the Board and also to Mr. Schmidt. Do you agree we can do that?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, that's what we will do.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Does that complete the, the Board, the association board's request and testimony?

MR. CLARK: Those are the statement, those are statements that were approved by the board, those (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And, and I have no intention of revisiting them personally.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Hold on. Now I have to ask you, when you say you have no intention of revisiting them personally, you're saying individually, you're not going to go recap that testimony, correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, what I'd like to do --

CHAIR: Hold on. I think Ms. Dopkin has a question, please.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: Does that conclude the testimony on behalf of the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association?

MR. HOLZER: That's what I understand.

CHAIR: That's my understanding.

MS. DOPKIN: Before we leave it, I have a question regarding the association. How does one obtain membership? By just owning property within your cacheman area?

MR. CLARK: No, no, no. It's an affirmative act.

MS. DOPKIN: And what is that act?

MR. CLARK: It is either a donation or giving us your e-mail.

MS. DOPKIN: So, there are no membership fees, dues, --

MR. CLARK: No, no, ma'am.

MS. DOPKIN: It's all voluntary?

MR. CLARK: Correct, ma'am.

MS. DOPKIN: That was my question. And so you're telling me it's an unincorporated, voluntary association for anyone living within your boundaries who provides their e-mail address or gives you money?

MR. CLARK: Yes, ma'am. And, and can, can I amplify on that a little bit?

MS. DOPKIN: No, that's all I wanted to know.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Ms. Dopkin, I don't believe there's a geographic limitation. I don't think he testified about that in terms of where you have to live.

MR. HOLZER: Objection. He did.

MS. DOPKIN: Yes, he did.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did he? Okay. I missed that. I apologize.

CHAIR: (inaudible) the record. He indicated Gunpowder north and south --

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, that's right, I'm sorry. I, I apologize,

CHAIR: Glen Arm and Belair. Is that accurate?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and then Long Green Pike out to (inaudible).

CHAIR: Long, right, because I, I asked a follow-up question (inaudible). Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

CHAIR: And I want to be clear as to the conditions that you just identified and read from.

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Those are on behalf of the association?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Are, with respect to you in, individual capacity, are you going to offer any other testimony regarding conditions that you would like to see as an individual that's different in any way from what you've just identified?

MR. CLARK: I promise not.

CHAIR: Okay. So, any conditions on your individual behalf would be included within what has already been testified to?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. CLARK: I, in other words, I have no individual conditions.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Let's, let's go back, because we sort of were diverted initially by the requirement to go to 502.1 yesterday. Are there, are there reasons why you as an individual question the Petitioner's testimony in regard to what they're doing, what, what's going to happen on the property that caused concern to you individually?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I just don't understand the question.

CHAIR: And I'm sorry, Mr. Holzer, if you could repeat your question.

MR. HOLZER: Are there any, is, is there any testimony, documents from, presented by the Petitioners that cause you to question the, their, either their voracity or what their future intentions will be if this is approved?

CHAIR: Now that you've hear the question again, is there any objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. You can answer the question.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Can you take them one at a time and tell us what you're discussing first and whether there are any documents that we need to submit along with your testimony?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir. Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: The, there was testimony that there was an event held in July of 2017 that was a fundraiser. In fact, it was advertised and received as the first annual family fun day.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, I'm sorry to interrupt. I, I am going to object now that I'm hearing what he's talking about. If, trying to be consistent, I, we keep going back to these events which we can certainly argue whether they were proper or improper, or illegal or legal, but the point I think is the proposed special exception going forward and what happened in July 17th to be consistent, I, I'm just trying to avoid getting back as to whether that was a zoning violation and it sounds like where we're going.

CHAIR: Well, I would, I would put it like this. He is now providing, as I understand it, the proffer here, is to provide evidence that some of the way, some of the testimony evidence presented in Petitioner's case, the characterization may not be fully accurate, from his perspective. So, therefore, I don't believe it does go to a code violation or code enforcement matter. It goes, basically, as impeachment, I suppose, as to the testimony and evidence presented by Petitioner. And so, on that basis, I will overrule the objection.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: Now, he may, the, there may not be agreement as to Dr. Clark's perception or whatever. But you have a case in rebuttal still yet to come so.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Yes. Eighty-two?

MR. MCCOMAS: Eighty-one.

MR. HOLZER: Eighty-one?

MR. MCCOMAS: Oh, eighty-two, yeah, yeah, I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Eighty-two?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

CHAIR: Can you please identify Protestant's Exhibit 82?

MR. CLARK: Yes. It is a screenshot of, taken from Dr. Clarke's Facebook page. It was in his timeline from July 27, 2017 and it shows an advertisement for a first summer family fun festival. That they had characterized that event in testimony that it was a fundraiser. And they said this fund, these fundraisers will not be regular events.

MR. HOLZER: Do you recall who testified about the fund, that as being a fundraiser?

MR. CLARK: Mr. Ghimire, I believe.

MR. HOLZER: Ghimire. Okay. Thank you. Is that all you have to say about this?

MR. CLARK: That's it.

MR. HOLZER: I'd move to admit that document.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I would technically object.

CHAIR: And what is the basis for the objection? I don't need an, I don't need any argument, I just need to know the reason for it.

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe the witness indicated at the beginning of this line of testimony that this was being offered because the Petitioners were being untruthful about their plans. This doesn't say first annual summer --

CHAIR: If I could summarize for you, Mr. Schmidt, if I could summarize where you're going? You're going to suggest that the first summer family fun festival is equally consistent with a fundraiser or is not, or not being a fundraiser or something, somewhere in between.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, not only that, but it doesn't say this is the first in a series of annual events, which is what I thought the witness was going to.

CHAIR: So, I'm going to overrule the objection --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- because you're going to be able to put on rebuttal evidence if necessary.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: It is Dr. Clark's understanding that it is not a fundraiser.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: And so, if you believe that that is not the case, you will have an option of presenting evidence on that point.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you. And I, and, and maybe to avoid repetition, I'm just going to say, if I can, and I'll just note a continuing objection. I, I still can't, and I don't want to get into argument but a property owner can use their property for, for different things. There's nothing illegal about having a party at my house.

CHAIR: I believe --

MR. SCHMIDT: It doesn't make my house a catering hall.

CHAIR: I believe that that will be a matter that will be expressed --

MR. SCHMIDT: The memorandums, yes.

CHAIR: -- in, in full detail in your closing brief.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Can, can I --

CHAIR: No, there's no question pending.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Moving on. In terms of other errors or misrepresentations, what is next in terms of your documentation?

MR. CLARK: Well, Mr. Ghimire was adamant in his testimony that volleyball games did not occur on the property.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And certainly not on a regular basis and that they were, at best, pickup games during maintenance and yet we have a, a, I believe it's twenty-four instances between April 1st and June a volleyball, and then the --

CHAIR: Is that 2018?

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry?

CHAIR: April to June 2018?

MR. CLARK: Two thousand eighteen, yes, sir.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: And then, you know, of course we've got the now infamous solitude video that has already been played. And then we have some screenshots of a tournament that was held there.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Do you have volleyball dates and could you tell us how, how you did it? After I give you the documentation.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, thank you.

CHAIR: And this is eighty-three?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah.

CHAIR: Protestant's Exhibit 83.

MR. HOLZER: Now, after everybody has had an opportunity to look at this, Mr. Schmidt, can I go?

MR. SCHMIDT: I've, yes, sir, I've looked at it.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, I don't even know what it is but I've looked at it.

MR. HOLZER: Well, that's what I --

CHAIR: Well, I believe Mr. Holzer is about to get there.

MR. HOLZER: Right. Could you tell us, Mr. Clark, what this, what this document is, how it was constructed and how you can verify the dates or how you came to be able to list these dates?

MR. CLARK: Okay. What you're looking at is there's a function in windows that is called snippet, where you can take a picture of your computer screen. And so this is the folder, Bonaparte file history, Bonaparte audio rec center, okay? Where I had stored all of the movies I had recorded on different dates of them playing volleyball. These are very similar to the solitude movie where you don't see them but you hear them, all right? So, you, you've got the sound, you've got, you've got the traffic going by to verify that yes, this isn't a made up thing. And, and all that kind of stuff. And so what you're looking at are dates when volleyball games occurred.

CHAIR: Well, I'm going to jump in just to ask a question because it's going to, your answer will obviously affect what the questions coming forward from it. How were you able to determine that there were volleyball games being played on those dates?

MR. CLARK: By the sound.

CHAIR: Okay and you said by the sound, what makes it volleyball as opposed to some other activity?

MR. CLARK: Bump, bump, bump, yelling, screaming.

CHAIR: So, your perception is drawn from the bump, bump, bump and the yelling and screaming is that volleyball games were being played on these dates?

MR. CLARK: Correct. Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, would you have video of volleyball, other than what we've seen just prior, do you have any video of the volleyball games on these dates?

MR. CLARK: Of the players, no.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. CLARK: Because, because I didn't, yeah, I didn't trespass onto their property.

CHAIR: And I asked the question because it looks like this is in an audio folder, because it's labeled audio.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: So, these are all the, these were all the audio files?

MR. CLARK: No, they're movies so you can see that, in fact, I was, --

CHAIR: Right, to cap, you'll play the movie, you're not going to see volleyball?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIR: You will hear things that you say are indicia of volleyball?

MR. CLARK: That I, that, that I, that I represent as volleyball.

CHAIR: Sorry, I just want to clarify so we don't go down a road where we're going to start talking about the videos, I want to know what they, everything was ahead of time.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: And his perceptions.

MR. SCHMIDT: Based on the Chair's questions, I object.

CHAIR: We're, well, right now there's no question pending. I don't know what we're objecting to just quite yet so I'll, I'll, I'll --

MR. SCHMIDT: I object to the introduction of the exhibit.

CHAIR: He's explaining the exhibit. I don't know what we're using it for yet. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, would you finish your testimony in regard to what these, what this document reflects, how you developed it and how you can be sure that there was volleyball activity on the site at that time?

MR. CLARK: Pretty much what I, what I said. When, if you viewed the vid, and, and I believe most, if not all, of these are already in evidence in, on, in, in the library. But just like solitude, if you play it, to me it's self-evidence.

MR. HOLZER: No, but I think that the question was how do you know it wasn't, wasn't baseball or football but it was volleyball?

MR. CLARK: Okay. Well, --

MR. HOLZER: What makes the distinction?

MR. CLARK: All right. First, first of all, the, the, there, there, there is no baseball court up there or, or soccer field. They have testified that they can't play soccer because of, of the grade. The, the location of the volleyball court is directly across from my property. There is a berm behind the volleyball court which reflects all the sounds down onto my property. And it is that hard impact on the, hard, it is that impact on the hard surface that we, that we have seen in the videos. It is the cheering, it is there, there, there used to be, the, it's a, it's converted from an old tennis court, hard surface tennis court. We used to hear a lawyer of some repute playing tennis up there, missing the ball quite a bit, but, but we know the difference between tennis and volleyball. What else, I, I mean, that's --

MR. HOLZER: No, that's fine.

CHAIR: If, if those are the factors that form the basis for you to conclude that this was volleyball as opposed to another activity, that's fine.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: That's his, that was his question.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. So, I would now, and the number, I didn't count on this whole list there. How many --

CHAIR: And some of them have duplicative dates, so it may reflect the same event or not and --

MR. SCHMIDT: And times.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Dates and times.

MR. HOLZER: So, my, my question is, based on that list, based on the other date and the other analysis, how many times on different days do you believe volleyball was played in 2018?

MR. CLARK: I think I had counted twenty, twenty-four separate dates.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, okay and are you willing to live with that, those, that number?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: Mr. Clark, I, I just have a clarification because I, so is, you're saying volleyball dates here, so looking at this chart here, it implies that somebody was playing volleyball from 4:15 in the morning to 6:35 in the morning. Is that, --

CHAIR: Which line are you on?

MR. MCCOMAS: Number five, on May 6th. Is that, is that what you're asking us to, in terms of volleyball days?

MR. CLARK: That's probably the camera setting for the time.

CHAIR: Would the dates, to the best of your recollection and knowledge --

MR. CLARK: Yes, the, the --

CHAIR: -- be accurate, the times --

MR. CLARK: -- the dates, the dates, the dates would be accurate.

CHAIR: And the times you feel may not be?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I would offer Protestant's eighty-three.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: And the basis for your objection, please?

MR. SCHMIDT: The document is so inherently unreliable that it has no probative value. As the witness just indicated the dates, and I think as Mr. McComas indicated, the times certainly cannot be correct. I don't believe that on, I'd have to check the Almanac, but I do not believe that on May the 6th they would have been playing volleyball at 4:14 in the morning.

Additionally, these dates are dates of the camera setting and, and not necessarily the date or time of the event, or at least it hasn't been established with that.

And perhaps, also, I would indicate that the witness has indicated that he and, and this exhibit does not disclose any visual evidence of volleyball, just what his perception is and, and I guess I would say with the same objection, which I know we'll deal with in closing argument before the record. I'm still struggling with the fact that somehow people playing volleyball on their property is somehow illegal, immoral or unethical.

CHAIR: You know the argument to that, I'll say it'll be admitted, understanding, of course, the, what, you know, the testimony from Dr. Clark. As to whether or not it's volleyball, as to whether or not what times it occurred and all that stuff, I imagine you'll explore on cross examination, so.

MR. SCHMIDT: There's no way I can explore it. I, yes, sir. Yes, sir, I understand the Chair's ruling.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: And Mr. McComas, what's this number, I apologize?

CHAIR: This is eighty-three.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Eighty-three? Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: It'll be admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Now, there, there is another volleyball point which relates to the Belmont Volleyball Group. Could you explain what that is, when that occurred?

MR. CLARK: Yes. That was, that was November 4.

MR. SCHMIDT: Of what year?

MR. CLARK: Of 2018.

CHAIR: That's (inaudible) Protestant's eighty-one?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

MR. CLARK: And that --

MR. HOLZER: Do, do you want, we don't need to show that (inaudible) --

MR. CLARK: No, we don't, no, no, it's just that it rebuts testimony that there, there are no uses, you know, there's not, there's no regular volleyball up there permitted.

CHAIR: And Mr., Mr. Schmidt objected to that previously and we'll incorporate the same objection to the testimony as it relates to Protestant's Exhibit 81 just now.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Okay. There is another point of rebuttal.

MS. DOPKIN: Mr. Holzer, would you ask a question? Your witness is sort of rambling. If you would ask him about Belmont Volleyball?

MR. HOLZER: I was letting the question, the objection be finished before I asked the next question.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you. Thank you.

CHAIR: I think what Ms. Dopkin is suggesting is there was no question pending at that moment.

MR. HOLZER: I understand. I've tried to slap him on the wrist, but he doesn't realize the proper protocol, but he's learning.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you, I appreciate that.

MR. HOLZER: He's learning. Or trying to learn, let me put it that way. All right, where was I? Let me just address, have you address this last point. As I understand it, the reason why you and the last exhibit had to interpret what was going on was because you didn't trespass on their property, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Has that been an issue by the Petitioners that they told you not to get on their property?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I just don't know what the relevance of that could be.

MR. HOLZER: Well, it's because it goes to the argument that you had about the exhibit.

CHAIR: I will, I will put it like this. It was certainly understood why he would not be on the property.

MR. HOLZER: Right, okay.

CHAIR: In other words, any testimony about that point, is not going to shed any new light on anything else.

MR. HOLZER: Right, I understand.

CHAIR: And it is understood why he has the audio, for example, of the volleyball games and not a video of people playing volleyball. I call it volleyball games because that's how it's been labeled and identified.

MR. HOLZER: Sure. So, the, basically the only way that the community and you, as an individual, have to determine what's going on on the property is through presentations or videos initiated by the Petitioner themselves, is that correct?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. Isn't that the same question that you just sustained the objection?

CHAIR: No, he's, he's asking him for a framework as to why he's come to some of the conclusions he has, drawing largely upon videos that have been posted for some of these conclusions, is that, that's my understanding.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: So, overruled. You may answer the question.

MR. HOLZER: Can you answer it, Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: Can you ask it again?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Did you, since you have never trespassed on the property, is your only way of knowing what's going on is to view the videos posted by the Petitioners themselves?

MR. CLARK: There are other ways.

MR. HOLZER: What other ways?

MR. CLARK: Social media postings.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I'm sorry. Yeah, I, I lumped all that together.

MR. CLARK: Both on Nextdoor and on Facebook pages and it's, it's very difficult because, and, and I understand why, but a lot of the communication is in Nepali and there's not a good translation program for it. And, and in the, you know, as Mr., as Petitioner has pointed out, much of the audio of, of the videos are not useful because we don't know what they are saying, even though they are present in this room.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right. I just wanted to set the, the, the reason why a lot of these documents are not personal photos that you've taken on their property but are off of --

CHAIR: If it helps matters, at, at least from my perspective, it's well understood why they were not on the property.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And Dr. Clark has tried to do what he can with any other source --

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: -- with respect to the events and activities that are going on at the property.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Yeah, I, that's, that's all, because Mr. Schmidt keeps objecting to certain things and --

CHAIR: Hold, hold on, let's not comment on Mr. Schmidt's objections.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Now, could you, am I okay to ask?

CHAIR: As long as Mr. Schmidt has had the opportunity to review.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, I've reviewed the photographs, thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. MCCOMAS: And it's 84-A through D.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Now, could you tell us how you obtained these photographs and can you tell me what relationship does this have with the Belmont Volley Group, Volleyball Group?

MR. CLARK: Actually, this does not have to do with the Belmont Volleyball Group.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Why don't you identify for the record --

MR. HOLZER: Identify.

CHAIR: -- what 84-A through D is?

MR. CLARK: It is a, from a video that I believe we have introduced. And it is from July 23rd and --

CHAIR: Of what year?

MR. SCHMIDT: Of what year?

MR. CLARK: Of 2018, thank you. And it is showing an organized volleyball game on the property. And --

MR. HOLZER: How do you know it's organized?

MR. CLARK: When you go to the second page, you start to see a ceremony where people are being awarded medals and then at the very end, it looks like there is a trophy.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And its purpose, again, is to rebut testimony by Mr. Ghimire that there were no tournaments on the property.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. When, in Mr. Ghimire's testimony, did he indicate to the Board that there were, that they did not have tournaments at, on the site?

MR. CLARK: I believe so.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Holzer, are you moving 84-A through D --

CHAIR: Sorry, thank you. Thank you, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- into evidence?

MR. HOLZER: I'm going to move it when I'm ready to move it.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Well, let's just keep it for housekeeping purposes, is there a reason why you were holding off?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, because this is relative to it.

CHAIR: Okay, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. MCCOMAS: Eighty-five, one, two, three, four.

MR. HOLZER: Could you, after Mr. Schmidt's had a chance to look at it, this is eighty-four, is it?

CHAIR: Five.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, eighty-five.

MR. CLARK: Oh, --

CHAIR: Hold on. No question yet, no answer yet.

MR. MCCOMAS: We'll call it eight, 85-A through C.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: May I start?

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, you ready?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Can you identify this document and, and where you got it?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, again, this is from a Facebook post. You can see the url at top. And it belonged to someone named Hameed Nepali. And you can see again, the advertisement for first summer family fun day, you can see volleyball tournament clearly advertised, and then you can see Belmont Team A, Belmont Team B, Columbia Team A, Columbia Team B.

CHAIR: If I can jump in? We've already seen this exhibit before.

MR. HOLZER: I don't recall --

MR. CLARK: I don't think so.

CHAIR: I recall seeing those names for the teams.

MR. HOLZER: It was only page one.

CHAIR: Only page one, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, okay.

CHAIR: We already reviewed page one and that I recall seeing page one previously.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: I believe it's already in evidence.

MR. HOLZER: I, I am not sure, but --

CHAIR: But, Mr. Schmidt, do you have a recollection?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I believe we've seen it.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: Is it, do you recall if it's in evidence?

MR. SCHMIDT: I would have to look at my exhibit list, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: That's quite all right. It's fine. Please continue.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, thank you. And on page one, even if that page had been submitted, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Excuse me.

CHAIR: Bless you. Bless you.

MR. HOLZER: -- Mr. Clark, it does appear that it was July 29, 30 of 2017, is that right?

MR. CLARK: Yes, and --

MR. HOLZER: So it was a year before 2018, right?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and it does say volleyball tournament and at the bottom it appears to show --

CHAIR: Bless you.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: -- it appears to show at least nine different teams.

MR. CLARK: And it lists the address of the property and it says it's at the Hindu Buddha, Buddha Mandeer.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, page two has a discussion and some photos. But page,--

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And if you look at paragraph two.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: On page two?

MR. HOLZER: On page two.

MR. CLARK: This is a page from Kris Ghimire's timeline.

MR. HOLZER: And it appears to, in the second paragraph, describe how many attendees from across state line came to be part of this festival over two days. We had volleyball teams from New York, Pennsylvania, Columbia, Baltimore, New Jersey, Virginia. And then on page three, you can see a board which sort of lists the process of elimination of the teams from the various teams --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: -- that were listed.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: All right and what, what is the, what is your concern or why is this document being introduced?

MR. CLARK: Well, there, it, it rebuts two points in testimony. One is, again, there, there are not, there, there are no and have been no volleyball tournaments, okay? The second is, well, there's actually three points. But, but the second point is it rebuts the, the notion that this property is to just serve local needs. The third is it rebuts testimony that, that there have only been two or three hundred people in attendance on the property at any given time. And as you can see, this is Mr. Ghimire's own Facebook page.

MR. HOLZER: I would now offer the last two exhibits, because I do think they relate to each other.

CHAIR: They're tied together. Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: And basis?

MR. SCHMIDT: Same as I've voice previously.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Authentication, relevance, etcetera.

CHAIR: Overruled. It will be received.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Now, if I, if I may, hopefully we're finished with volleyball and we can go onto community events that have been held there. And again, this is just not to show that an event was held, it is, is it to rebut prior testimony of someone for the Petitioner?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And explain.

MR. CLARK: They have testified that they have only been there for maintenance and construction purposes and that they have not used the property for anything else other than what was billed as a fundraiser from July 29 to August 3rd, 2018. There are a list of events that we have that are documented by video and I believe most of them are in the record. The, go back and, and, and I, I understand, I do understand the problems with, with whatever exhibit this was.

The exhibit of my --

MR. SCHMIDT: It's been admitted though.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, but what I, I do understand the problems with that. But, --

CHAIR: I want to say eighty-three, (inaudible).

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, that's (inaudible).

CHAIR: Eighty-three.

MR. CLARK: In, in, we, in, in 2017, or actually I was referring to something else. All right. The, the, the --

CHAIR: Well, hold on. Let's do this. Mr. Holzer's question was --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, thank you.

CHAIR: -- what are you, what are you trying to rebut, or impeach --

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- right now with respect to the community events that have been held there?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: You identified certain testimony that you believe --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- illustrates some limitations as to how the property has been used.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: That's where we were --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- before we got sidetracked with some of the other points.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Do you understand the question?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I do, I got, I got sidetracked.

CHAIR: Yeah, so now let's go back to the, to Mr. Holzer's question.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Do you know who testified, can you name the, the, name of the Petitioner's side that testified?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I, I believe Mr. Ghimire testified that there was no other use for the property than maintenance and sprucing things up.

MR. HOLZER: And when you say property, do you mean thirty acres or do you mean the building or do you know what he meant?

MR. CLARK: I would assume it was everything.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, what do we have, what do you have to show that that is mistaken?

MR. CLARK: Okay. We dealt with this earlier as not appropriate for here, other than proffering. But on December 2017, I sent Mr. VanDomelin a series of pictures showing the Protestants exiting the, the property en masse at night and that's where that left hand turn nighttime shot came from. They had the open house in February. There was an event on April 30th that we, there was an event on June 10th, there was an event on June 19th, there was a Jul, event on July 4, there was an event on July 11th. I'm slowing down, I'm sorry. I realize I'm going very fast.

CHAIR: I have June 10, 19, July 4 and 11.

MR. CLARK: Right. There was an event on July 25, there was the event on October 6 and there was the event on November 4. And then they had scheduled an event for 4/19, 4/22/2018.

CHAIR: Hold on, 4/19 to 22.

MR. CLARK: Twenty eighteen.

CHAIR: Twenty eighteen.

MR. CLARK: That they canceled and we have a screenshot of that.

CHAIR: All right. So, the questions that were asked about the volleyball, that is, how you perceived it to be volleyball, I'm going to ask about the dates that you just identified because you referred to them as events.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Number one, what do you mean by event?

MR. CLARK: Where there were more than fifty people.

CHAIR: Okay and two, how did you perceive that there were more than fifty people at these, on these dates?

MR. CLARK: From videos.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: That they provided.

MR. HOLZER: Have they, have we seen those videos?

MR. CLARK: That I'm not sure of.

MR. HOLZER: Well, we don't want to repeat something if we've already --

MR. CLARK: Right, I, I get that, but we --

MR. HOLZER: Would these dates that you've just given the Board, would they be reflected on the video list or screen shots that you have of each one of them?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and they would also be reflected on, on the annotated sheet for the video control sheet.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Protestant's Exhibit 51.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Now, on Protestant's fifty-one --

CHAIR: Hold on. If we're going to, are we going to go through fifty-one in any detail right now?

MR. HOLZER: I hope not.

CHAIR: No, what I mean is, to follow along for all of us, should we have it in front of us?

MR. HOLZER: Well, let me, let me ask the witness.

I'll try to keep this simple.

CHAIR: Because I want to make sure that --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- we have the testimony clear.

MR. HOLZER: So, Mr. Clark, if all of these dates you gave the Board relate to a video of some shape or form, so are those videos in the videos that have been admitted into evidence? Do you know?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: They will be in the library.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: When you say library, you're referring to fifty-one?

MR. CLARK: No, I'm referring to that --

CHAIR: Or you're referring to the earlier hearing that we had on November 29th.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: The library is defined as the multiple, the video --

CHAIR: Four discs, whatever.

MR. HOLZER: -- which were submitted.

MR. CLARK: Well, and, and, and, and, and the appendices to it from the, where (inaudible) video.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, are you following along with that?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, I'm here.

CHAIR: I just want to make sure you're, you understood because I see you searching through your file looking for something. Are you following along?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right. Sorry, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Then, so, so these dates you've testified to, these dates are all in the library previously submitted and admitted in an earlier day, okay? Is there any, what's the matter?

MR. CLARK: Charlie horse, go ahead.

CHAIR: Okay. Do you want to take a five minute break?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. CLARK: Actually, for other reasons, that's probably good.

CHAIR: Okay. Why don't we take a ten minute break.

MR. HOLZER: Ten minute break, okay. Thank you.

CHAIR: All right. So, we'll be back here at --

(RECORDING PAUSED – 10:47:39 AM)

(ON RECORD – 11:00:31 AM)

MS. DOPKIN: Ready?

CHAIR: Please be seated. Thank you. I see Mr. Ghimire, I saw you come in earlier. There was a notice amending the time --

MR. SCHMIDT: He's received it.

CHAIR: Right. Thank you, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. HOLZER: How's your leg?

MR. CLARK: Walked it off, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Thank, thank you to the Board.

CHAIR: No problem.

MR. HOLZER: In regard to these multiple dates that, that you just gave the Board, instead of looking at any videos from them, we do have some screen pictures, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: I believe so, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. At this point, would you like me to present what we have to the Board?

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, do you want to say something?

MR. SCHMIDT: I just don't know that that's a proper question of a witness.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I'm trying to make this a lot faster --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yes?

CHAIR: I understood what you were doing.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: We don't need comment, I understand exactly what you're doing.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: So, the question is, why don't you just show him the photo and then we can just move on.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And then, --

MR. MCCOMAS: Mr. Clark, (inaudible) is how would you categorize those events?

MR. CLARK: Events. You know, --

MR. MCCOMAS: Do, or, is what the volleyball testimony, is that one of the events here?

MR. CLARK: No, that's not one of the events in here, other than the Belmont Volleyball Group on November 4. But the open house was an open house. They advertised it as an open house. And then the June 19th, July 4th, they, they advertised those as get togethers and events. July 11th, and we, we can document all that in the memorandum of law. I don't know that we need to --

CHAIR: No, I, I believe we have testimony about --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: -- (inaudible) --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: And if there's, and I'm sure you'll have cross examination and then there will be some argument, I anticipate, about some of it.

MR. CLARK: (inaudible).

CHAIR: So, all right.

MR. MCCOMAS: Eighty-six A through D.

MR. HOLZER: Can you relate Protestant's Exhibit 86--

CHAIR: Hold on, one second. Mr. Schmidt, we can hear you up here.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: And I understand you're trying to under, trying to make sense of 86-A through D. But we can hear you up here and it's --

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I apologize.

CHAIR: -- interfering with the questioning.

MR. HOLZER: All right. May I proceed?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. On this, Protestant's Exhibit 86, which has just been marked by Mr. McComas, what date does this refer to you in your list of dates that you --

MR. CLARK: July, July 4.

MR. HOLZER: July 4th.

MR. CLARK: Twenty eighteen.

MR. HOLZER: And to your knowledge, what does this depict? I mean, we can obviously see four or five pages, but just tell us what you believe it reflects?

CHAIR: For purposes of the record, I, what I have is A through D, so four.

MR. HOLZER: A through D, okay.

CHAIR: Just to make sure there's not an E, because you mentioned four to five pages.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry, A, A through D.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thanks.

MR. CLARK: Depicts a Fourth of July celebration by a group of people.

MR. HOLZER: Well, and what is that building in the background?

MR. CLARK: That's the, the mansion.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And that's on B.

MR. HOLZER: Is there, is there anything else in regard to the lighting, for instance? Was, was that one of your con, association's conditions?

MR. CLARK: Well, yeah. The, I mean, the, the, the, the use, the use of, of outdoor lighting.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Can I move on? And, and --

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: -- do you have anything else to say?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I, I, I, again, it goes to the testimony that the property is not being used for anything else other than.

CHAIR: Okay. You indicated that this is going to speak to the lighting condition that you discussed?

MR. CLARK: Well, we can strike that.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. CLARK: We, but we can strike it.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Schmidt, any objection to 86-A through D?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. For all the grounds that I've been asserting, not to be repetitious and these exhibits, I, I just don't know how one would say that these exhibits reflect the use of the property with, with a group of people.

CHAIR: If, if I can?

MR. SCHMIDT: Eighty-six, if I can just be heard, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: If your objection is relevance, I'm asking you for --

MR. SCHMIDT: No, now I'm --

CHAIR: -- what the ground for your, your objection is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, one of the grounds of my objection is relevance, yes. And whether any of it is relevant. But the, the purpose of the exhibit, as it has been explained to, by the witness, is to show a gathering of people on the property. It --

CHAIR: Please don't gesture, Dr. Clark.

MR. CLARK: Oh, sorry, sorry, sorry, sorry.

CHAIR: Please.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's what I understand the purpose of the exhibit is. And so, and I'll try to articulate this, Mr. Garber, as best as I can --

CHAIR: I understand you disagree with, as to the characterization by this witness.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, but how, I just, I don't mean to ask the rhetorical question but how does a picture of a single person with a dark background, how, how does one get from that picture, that this is evidence of a gathering on the property? So, it's, it's beyond relevance. It's, it's a picture of Dr. Clarke. This could have been taken at his house, this could have been taken anywhere.

CHAIR: Okay. If I could --

MR. SCHMIDT: And it's, so it's beyond relevance.

CHAIR: -- if I could answer your question, if I could answer your question as to that. I don't know what relevance 86-A has. B, C and D have been, I believe, Dr. Clark has testified as to what he believes the relevance to be. If there is a, a, an argument as to his perception or his conclusions drawn, those are matters for cross examination and argument. So, other than relevance, what I'm hearing, the other matters that you raised can be addressed elsewhere. On the grounds of relevance, I understand the relevance as being proffered by Dr. Clark, therefore, they'll be admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And the objection overruled.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you for allowing me to address the Board.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Sure. This is eighty-seven?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

CHAIR: We have eighty-seven and there are three pages.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible).

CHAIR: Thank you. Mr. Schmidt, you ready to proceed?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I've reviewed the documents.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Mr. Clark, could you tell us what Protestant's Exhibit 87 relates to in terms of the community events that you have given the prior list?

MR. CLARK: It is an open house. The video itself has been removed, but you can see the url in the scroll bar and on the last page, you can see the same url with sorry, this content isn't available.

CHAIR: Do you have the date?

MR. CLARK: The date of --

CHAIR: Dates, sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Date, yes.

MR. CLARK: The, the date of, of the picture?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, no, I tried to authenticate it, I tried to go back and that's when I ran into this content isn't available.

CHAIR: We'll note it just says last Sunday where you expect to find a date.

MR. CLARK: Right, right, right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and so, so you cannot, other than open house ceremony, you cannot give it one of the dates that you list to the Board earlier?

MR. CLARK: No, no.

MR. HOLZER: All right. What does it depict in terms of your, your impeachment of any prior testimony?

MR. CLARK: Again, it is, I don't see any maintenance going on, I don't see any work being done on the, on the building. So, the testimony that the only thing being done on the property is, is work, I would question that.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: And I'm sorry if I didn't catch this, but the third page reflects what you would see now if you entered in the same url as --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: -- pages A and B?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: All right. Mr. Holzer, any other questions?

MR. HOLZER: In terms of the lighting on, I assume that's the building on the subject site, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: The (inaudible) house?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, okay. And the lighting, and for purposes of this particular picture, seems to show a number of people standing on the front lawn.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I would move that, eighty-seven.

CHAIR: Eighty-seven A through C, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: Same grounds as previous?

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, not only that and I, I apologize, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: That's okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm, I'm just trying to preserve the record in this case.

CHAIR: It's understandable, no need to apologize.

MR. SCHMIDT: And since the witness has admitted, or acknowledged, that there is no date of this photograph, this photograph arguable could have been taken prior to my client's ownership of the property. I mean, quite frankly, we don't know when it was taken.

CHAIR: I, I, sorry --

MR. SCHMIDT: And so, I'm not quite sure, since the purpose of the photograph is to impeach, as I understand it, testimony that members of, of the Nepali organization, Nepali Community Center of Baltimore, have illegally or unethically or improperly, or whatever the characterization is, used the property and we don't know when this photograph was taken, how do we know that these people are associated with, with my client and how do we know that they used the property at a time after they acquired it? There's no foundation for the document. Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, that's fine. It'll be received and admitted into evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Understanding that you will be able to cross examine and understanding, of course, the, whatever frailties that you point out would, of course, go to the weight or the significance of the particular exhibit.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Eighty-eight, right?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, eighty-eight (inaudible).

CHAIR: Okay. We've been handed Protestant's Exhibit

88, two pages.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt has it, copies I see.

MR. HOLZER: The witness has a copy.

CHAIR: Please identify Protestant's Exhibit 88.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Is a screenshot from the video of July 11th. And it shows the, it, it shows, I believe it was a promo, this, I believe this is from the promo of July 11th and it shows how many people, it, it shows the property being used for things other than maintenance or caretaking, which again, rebuts testimony.

MR. HOLZER: It'll, does it show the, on the first page, the purpose of that picture, is it for parking, parking on the grass, etcetera?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Second picture is an effort, I guess, and again, I am assuming the building in sight is the building that's the original home and it shows the number of people on the lawn, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes, and it shows the building in its current colors.

MR. HOLZER: What are the current colors?

MR. CLARK: A, a yellow with, with orange detailing.

MR. HOLZER: Was that the original color of the --

MR. CLARK: No, no, and a, and it shows the windows

not boarded up, all right?

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It shows the building rehabilitated.

MR. HOLZER: So, would that show on the previous Exhibit 87, because the color of the building in that picture is the same, it would have had to have been under the Petitioner's --

MR. CLARK: I, I believe, I believe a reasonable person could date that picture from --

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Any other questions that, any other comments you would have on Protestant's eighty-eight? I think you've articulated --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I would offer them.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Same objection. And I just don't, Mr. Garber, maybe to save the Board time as we go through all these various exhibits, I'll just note a continuing objection and that way you don't, I don't need to bore the Board with my ramblings.

CHAIR: Not bored. I would just say, I would prefer if you just incorporate the prior objections for exhibit --

MR. SCHMIDT: Then I will do that.

CHAIR: -- because I don't know what's coming next and I don't know if there will be differences. So there may be something that you're going to want to do differently, so I would prefer if we just, you can say I incorporate my prior objections and we can move on.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: I think that's fair.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: I accept any objection he has.

CHAIR: So, this will be admitted, that is eighty-eight.

MR. HOLZER: All right. I understand the tedious nature of what's, this has been going on.

CHAIR: It's quite all right.

MR. HOLZER: I think I may have given the Board.

CHAIR: Here is an extra copy of eighty-eight. I had two (inaudible) and there's already enough for the Board. So, this is eighty-nine, and I'll give you back the two extra copies.

MR. HOLZER: And --

CHAIR: Wait one second. Mr. Schmidt is trying --

MR. HOLZER: -- oh, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: -- to make heads or tails of it. Thank you. You ready?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes, sir, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: No, it's quite, nothing to apologize for. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Are, can you identify this, this picture?

MR. CLARK: Yes, this is from a promotional film ad, advertising an April 19 to 22, 2018 event. Again, this is the, the video itself is in evidence.

MR. HOLZER: And is this the one that you'd previous, previously said you believe was canceled?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Just to clarify to, the testimony was it was in 2018, April 19th through 22nd.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: It is not reflected upon Protestant's Exhibit 89 what year.

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Twenty eighteen.

MR. CLARK: Twenty-eighteen.

CHAIR: Yes. It ties back to that testimony?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Um hm.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Same objection, doesn't show the year and just, quote honestly, I don't know what, I don't know what it shows but don't know that it has any probative value. But,

objection.

CHAIR: I, understood. It will be admitted and again, the weight of it will be given its due amount.

MR. HOLZER: I think this is the last one for this pile.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, do you want an extra copy back or no?

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

CHAIR: Sorry, I was trying to catch you before you sat down.

MR. HOLZER: That's okay. Thank you.

CHAIR: Sure thing.

MR. HOLZER: This is ninety?

CHAIR: Yes. And so, Mr., Dr. Clark, please identify what exhibit, Protestant's Exhibit 90 is?

MR. CLARK: Protestant's Exhibit 90 shows, is a screenshot from, is a photo taken from Dr. Clarke's Facebook page, which has since been removed. It shows the kitchen of, of, of the building. Those urns you see, you can see being used in a video that's in evidence and it goes back to the testimony by Mr. Ghimire that, it goes back to that whole thing about the, the, the, the temple gate being open and closed and all --

MR. HOLZER: What about the use of the kitchen?

MR. CLARK: Well, and that there was no use of the kitchen.

MR. HOLZER: And you say this, this has been removed from online?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, yes. The last time I checked, it was missing.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: As a matter of fact, almost everything from 2018 was removed.

MR. HOLZER: Do you, do you remember the date of this, because you have on, in your original testimony to the Board, July 28 through August the 3rd.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Is this during that time frame?

MR. CLARK: It is. It was, and, and as I said, you can see these, these urns being used in an opening day ceremony.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I would move that document too.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. To, to, maybe just for clarification, Mr. Clark, when you say being used?

CHAIR: I think it's a fair question, just to figure out what he means by the word used. Do you want him to do that now?

MR. SCHMIDT: What, what do you mean, what, what do you mean being, being used?

MR. CLARK: Well, first of all, they had testified the building would not be opened during the event, that the building would not be used.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm, I'm sorry, sir. But I'm just trying to ask you one direct question and if, when you said the urn --

CHAIR: Well, this is not cross examination. He just wants to get to the point of --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I don't have anything further.

CHAIR: -- hold on, what do you mean by the word used?

MR. CLARK: It's pretty self-evident. There are people in the kitchen.

CHAIR: So, any use at all?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: I have no further questions on that point.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Now, we, we want to go to potential future uses because I, I gather that because the community association, in its testimony in terms of possible conditions that they would agree to or suggest that the Board incorporate in any decision, you, there is some testimony by you as an individual as to future uses. Can we, can we address those?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Go ahead, please.

MR. CLARK: Well, --

CHAIR: I'm sorry, to, to clarify, as an individual or for the association?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, sir, as an individual.

MR. HOLZER: As individual.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: But it'll, as, as you know, it'll relate to the association as well.

CHAIR: Well, that's why I want to clarify, that I understand what the testimony that's --

MR. CLARK: Well, yeah.

CHAIR: -- what, hold on. The testimony to come on whose behalf it's being offered.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Whose behalf is it being offered? Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: No, no, it's being offered on mine. I, I'm just processing Mr. Garber's --

CHAIR: Mine, individually?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, mine, mine individually, but I'm just processing Mr. Garber's, I, I, I understand what your concern is. I think a lot of it has already been covered in,

in, in the testimony that I offered for --

CHAIR: The association?

MR. CLARK: -- the association. And I promised I wouldn't go back and deal with it again.

CHAIR: So, there was testimony regarding conditions and other such concerns for future use.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: During the course of your testimony for the association.

MR. HOLZER: Let, let me try to articulate them and he can either, and you can either say --

CHAIR: That's all right, that's fine. I prefer that you --

MR. HOLZER: -- we don't have to get into it --

CHAIR: -- I prefer that you do it. I'm just trying to figure out what he's saying.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Mr. Clark, is there any reason to go over the number of, of events and the number of people?

MR. CLARK: No, we already covered that.

MR. HOLZER: Is there any reason to go over the yoga classes?

MR. CLARK: That, I believe, is in Protestant's Exhibit 25.

MR. HOLZER: Already an exhibit?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, there's no reason to go over that?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Is there any reason to go over language classes?

MR. CLARK: That, I believe, in Protestant's Exhibit 25.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. What about the hall for rentals?

MR. CLARK: That refers to the barn. I believe that's in Exhibit 44. I don't know if we have the actual Facebook posts where Dr. Clarke talks about that in the barn.

MR. HOLZER: All right. But what is, what is your personal, individual desire in regard to --

MR. CLARK: Well, the barn is not too far from me. And Dr. Clarke has stated he would like to see it turned into a venue for a thousand people.

CHAIR: I remember this testimony, I remember the Facebook posts, I remember Mr. Schmidt's objections to that, that testimony, whatever that may be, is what you're incorporating right now?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

MR. HOLZER: And I'm looking at Protestant's Exhibit 44 and that's what it was, the barn use issue. So, there's no reason to go back into that.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. HOLZER: Kitchen, the soup kitchen and visitors. We've already seen some of your photos.

MR. CLARK: Well, and, and that was, that, that was dealt with in our asks.

CHAIR: In your --

MR. CLARK: For the Board asks.

MR. HOLZER: Requests?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Possible conditions, is that right?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes.

MR. HOLZER: You have to use a proper word.

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: And it was in Protestant's Exhibit 25. I'm looking at it. Okay. Regional and international advertising.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, we have a, a, a slick from, I'm sorry, you know, a promotional slick from 2016.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I think it's like four pages.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: That denotes intent.

MR. HOLZER: And, and what is the relevance of that? I have it, I can submit it, but before I do, what is the significance of that in relationship to your personal testimony?

MR. CLARK: There has been testimony that they intend to do nothing but have a house of worship there.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and I'll then take this document.

CHAIR: Inevitably, the question is going to come up where did you obtain this document?

MR. CLARK: I obtained it from the internet.

CHAIR: Where particularly?

MR. CLARK: I, let, let me see it and, and see if --

MR. HOLZER: Excuse me.

CHAIR: Very well. No, it's fine. I already know the --

MR. CLARK: No, I, I, I get it. I, I, I get it. Yeah.

CHAIR: -- question that will come up, so. Thank you. Ninety-one.

MR. HOLZER: And this would be number?

CHAIR: Ninety-one.

MR. MCCOMAS: Ninety-one.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: All right. I --

CHAIR: Hold on, one second, sir.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: We're waiting for Mr. Schmidt to review.

Before you start, Mr. Holzer, there's one point of clarification. I understood you said that this is from 2016. The only date I see on Exhibit 91 is October of 2014.

MR. CLARK: Right, right, right. But I, I wouldn't have obtained it before, be, before we actually got interested in this issue.

CHAIR: So, it was still available at whatever time that you became available or became interested in this issue.

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Now, now before, I honestly can't remember where I got it, when I got it, all that kind of stuff.

CHAIR: All right. Mr. Holzer, you want to ask questions?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. If you cannot remember where you got a copy of this, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Did you attend any Nepali events where they handed this thing out?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. HOLZER: Did you see it online?

MR. CLARK: I saw it online.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and when you saw it online, did you try to make a, a paper copy of what was online?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I did.

MR. HOLZER: And is that where this would have come from?

MR. CLARK: Yes, it is.

MR. HOLZER: All right. And in, in, in looking at this document, I, I just want to ask you about, and, and I'm not interested in the list of donors and the money. That's really not what I'm --

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: -- I'm interested in. But on page three, the introduction at the top of the page, Nepali in Baltimore Metro, if you look at the second paragraph, okay?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. HOLZER: it says through many community meetings, teams have been formed to further plan and initiate the building of a community center.

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. HOLZER: Is that what brought your attention to this document to begin with?

MR. CLARK: That and the, the second bullet, what are our options, buy or build?

MR. HOLZER: Okay and, and in terms of, in terms of that, what relevance does that have in relationship to the request for the special exception?

MR. CLARK: Well, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. If I may be heard?

CHAIR: Okay, hold on. Hold on. Yes, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: When Mr. Holzer has now asked what does it have --

MR. HOLZER: I'll withdraw the question. I'll withdraw the question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection anyway. If I could be heard?

CHAIR: Well, the question has been withdrawn.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: I would now offer this document.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: Sorry.

MR. SCHMIDT: The witness has indicated that he doesn't know where he got this and doesn't know how he got it, my words, not his.

CHAIR: We recall the testimony of him.

MR. SCHMIDT: So there is no foundation to this document to be evidence, even under, in my view, the relaxed administrative rules of evidence before an administrative body such as the Board of Appeals. But perhaps as importantly, this is a publication, at least if we take the document to be self-authentic, authenticating of the Baltimore Nepalese Community Center. That is not the Petitioner in this case. The Petitioner in this case is the --

CHAIR: Right, Nepali American Cultural Center of

Baltimore, Inc.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Nepali American Cultural Center of Baltimore. This would be as if you had a publication from Burger King and you have a McDonald's case before you. It's a different entity. So, how there could be any relevance to what another organization, which is not the Petitioner, may or may not publish, I do not believe it would be appropriate evidence. Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Take a look at the list of donors --

CHAIR: Please stand up to object, to address.

MR. HOLZER: I'm, I apologize. Take a look at the list of the donors. Many on the list of donors (inaudible) --

CHAIR: Okay. Thank you for bringing that up. I will say that there is indicia that this is, this document, Exhibit 91, has some relationship to this case. It's a Petitioner, though actually not the Petitioners, it is understood. It is understood it was created at a time before the Petitioner's organization was even formed, is a document that was created before the property was even on the market.

As it may reflect an intent by some to find a place for a community center for the Nepalese community. But realistically speaking, there's evidence in this case already that there was a desire to have a religious temple and community center and from others, it has whittled down to a religious temple and that is the subject matter of the Petition, therefore, October 2014 the intent reflected within whether (inaudible) sixteen or not, I, I do believe is too attenuated. The purpose for the, its inclusion is already covered by the record. Therefore, I will sustain Mr. Schmidt's objection.

MR. HOLZER: I would like to put on the record, for purposes of my taking exception to that, is that the individuals are clearly, are listed in this document, number one. Number --

CHAIR: And I will, and I echoed that, that is, I echo what you're saying. That it, there, my, my comment about there is indicia that there is a relationship to Petitioner is derived from that list.

MR. HOLZER: Number two, number two, I believe you're in error in regard to the timing, in regard to, of this particular piece of property and when this occurred and how this occurred. So, I would just take exception. I will, I will put it under the heading of proffering and we will take it further.

CHAIR: Well, Mr. Holzer, if you believe that there's an error as to the timeline, what has been established by the testimony is what I, what my understanding is is already reflected in the ruling. If there, if that's an error please, you may ask the questions of this witness. And if that clarifies the points, perhaps then there's another approach to this. But my understanding is, based on the date of October 2014, that's when this document was created and that Dr. Clark downloaded it or somehow obtained it in 2016 but that's what the testimony and evidence thus far establishes.

MR. HOLZER: In 2014, was the property on the market? Do you know?

MR. CLARK: I don't know, I never paid attention to it.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Just leave it marked as a proffer.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, ninety-one is i.d. only?

CHAIR: I.d. only.

MR. HOLZER: Pardon?

CHAIR: I.d. only.

MR. HOLZER: I.d. only, yes.

MR. MCCOMAS: You use proffer, I use i.d. only.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yeah.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: That's fine, thank you.

CHAIR: And, and, and the Board is interpreting, when you say proffer as i.d. only.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, um hm.

CHAIR: So any references to the same can be read as

that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. HOLZER: For future reference.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Now, do you have any of consistent with what we've been talking about over the last few, number of minutes, relative to reasons to question the Petitioners' voracity, so to speak, that relates to regard for common safety?

MR. SCHMIDT: For what? For compensation?

MR. HOLZER: Common safety.

MR. SCHMIDT: Common safety.

MR. CLARK: I'm trying to respect Mr. Garber's, without killing my opportunity to be heard, it's a dance.

CHAIR: I would just, I would, all I can say is please answer Mr. Holzer's question and we'll see where that takes us.

MR. CLARK: All right. Yes.

MR. HOLZER: I was going to tell him, just say yes and then you can go into the, --

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: -- next analysis.

CHAIR: Well, what's the, so what's the follow-up question then for him?

MR. HOLZER: The follow-up question is then what concerns have not, have already been raised on behalf of the community association that you as an individual want to raise that may differ from the community association's point of view? And is there anything you need to establish or show in regard to that? Do you understand my question?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, no, I do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I do and, and maybe I'm overthinking a lot of stuff, I don't know. But anyway, the, the, the, the Zeller communication about the property should not be in use, however, you know, lack, that's a lack of regard for common safety. You know, because there are no sight, there, there are no safe sight lines for that entrance.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, just to, I want to just clarify. You're incorporating your prior testimony under the association on that point as to you as an individual?

MR. CLARK: And, and the other, and, and we also introduced Zeller somewhere else and --

CHAIR: Yes, I understand.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and --

CHAIR: Do, do I understand your testimony correctly as an individual that it will be consistent or coextensive with what you previously testified as the association?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

CHAIR: On the point of safety?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Was that what you were trying to get at, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Now, is that, is, when you say safety, does that talk about the doors were opening in the wrong way, overcrowding, fire extinguishers, etcetera? I don't want to waste time going into all of that if it's already been covered with the, on behalf of the association.

MR. CLARK: Yes, but, --

MR. HOLZER: Explain the but.

MR. CLARK: Going back to safety at the entrance, all right? There's been no police support for those events and the reason that there has been no police support is because I have an e-mail from the precinct saying that if SHA has not approved the, the, the entrance, they will not be providing police support, okay?

MR. HOLZER: Now, in other, in other words --

CHAIR: I'm sorry, just so, just to clarify one point before you get to the next question. You said these events. By these events were those the ones that you specifically identified by date?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and I think particularly this one, this refers, I had been in contact with them for a ---

CHAIR: I'm just trying to clarify what you meant by these.

MR. CLARK: This, this probably refers specifically to the July 29, August 3rd event.

CHAIR: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Which precinct?

MR. CLARK: Precinct 8. Captain Martin, Lieutenant Franzoni, Officer Gorbitz.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: And I'm handing a document, which --

MR. CLARK: Parkville Precinct.

MR. HOLZER: -- to the witness, or to Mr. Schmidt, also to the Board, also to the witness.

CHAIR: Ninety-two? I'll note that perhaps one or more of the e-mails attached in Exhibit 92 have already been either put into evidence or at least proffered into evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I'm not sure, I'm not sure that what's in evidence is the complete follow-up from the witness to the police department and back. And in looking at the July 6th, 2018, to Mr. Clark from the Baltimore County Police Department declining the request for traffic control.

CHAIR: Well, right. What I was referring to were the Zeller e-mail chain.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, we had those, yes.

CHAIR: That's, that is contained within this exhibit. That was just to identify --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, that's at the bottom of the exhibit.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: But what you don't have, didn't have in that is the top two pages (inaudible).

CHAIR: Yes, good. Mr. Schmidt, did you follow that?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I did, but it sounds incomplete and, and --

CHAIR: We'll get to the objections. I'm just making sure you understand --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- where we are with this. We haven't laid the foundation yet. I'm not saying you can't object. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Mr. Clark, what does this document, which is marked as --

CHAIR: Ninety-two.

MR. HOLZER: -- as Protestant's ninety-two, what does this document, how did it get started and what was the final result? If you could lead us through that, briefly.

MR. CLARK: It was, it was all related to when I was trying to get somebody from the County to pay attention to what was going on.

MR. HOLZER: What do you mean? What do you mean?

MR. CLARK: Well, the large scale events with, with,

with no, in this particular case, at an unsafe entrance with, at an unimproved, all right? SHA does, does call a commercial access and at a, at a, and it had changed from a residential access --

CHAIR: Hold on, I'm going to stop you there.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: The question is, what did, what are these, what is this exhibit?

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: My understanding is it shows e-mails.

MR. CLARK: Right, it shows, it shows --

CHAIR: And you, you are thehistorictimekeeperss@gmail.com?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

CHAIR: And you are sending and receiving e-mails in connection with what you just testified to.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, thank you.

CHAIR: As to what the e-mails say, they say what they say. Mr. Holzer, was that what you were trying to get at? Was that what you were trying to get at?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: For identification?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Now, I understand, Mr. Schmidt, you had something to say. Now, that we've id, what, what it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I don't, I understood the witness to say this is not the full chain of e-mails. I thought I heard him say that at the beginning. Maybe I misunderstood.

CHAIR: Well, I'm going to, I'm going to take it one step back. You objected yesterday to the introduction of e-mails or documents relating to matters that could be something for code enforcement or --

MR. SCHMIDT: Which, which is --

CHAIR: -- why code enforcement did or did not do its job. There was a ruling yesterday already on that. Is, does this speak to an impeachment or rebuttal type of aspect that, that otherwise differs this chain of e-mails, whatever it may be, whether complete or not yet, to, is there a reason to treat this differently than how we treated the ones from yesterday?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: And what is that?

MR. HOLZER: It's, it's a, the Zeller comments are not relevant to whether or not the Baltimore County Police Department would provide support in terms of an event on traffic on Harford Road. And that's what this shows.

CHAIR: I'll do you one better. The Zeller stuff is already in.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay. But the remainder of the stuff it went to, whether or not more should have been done by the County is out.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, if that's the purpose for this, then ninety-two should be out, as I understand it. But I'm giving you the opportunity to identify for me what the difference is between this document and those ruled upon yesterday with respect to what code enforcement should have done or paid more attention to, to Mr. Clark's complaints.

MR. HOLZER: It has nothing to do with Baltimore County code enforcement or Baltimore County government. It has to do with the unavailability of police to protect the neighborhood and the community on Harford Road when there's an event coming. And I have, that's, that's never been discussed up until this point.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, I appreciate you asking Mr. Holzer to, in effect, rehabilitate his witness but --

CHAIR: It was more of a proffer.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- but Mr. Clark said this was all as a result of me trying to get code enforcement action. He just said that. I, I heard him say that. I mean, not only that, there were police there at this event. I mean, --

CHAIR: Well, that's a matter for cross examination and rebuttal.

MR. SCHMIDT: But the, that doesn't mean even if it's time for cross examination or rebuttal that you can submit an exhibit and mischaracterize what it's saying and what the purpose of it is and submit an incomplete exhibit that's not full.

CHAIR: Hold on. Those are two different objections. As to the completeness, we haven't discussed that. As to the first, I was asking Mr. Holzer what the proffered purpose of this document is. I'm still not quite --

MR. SCHMIDT: The witness said --

CHAIR: Hold on, Mr. Schmidt. It's still not fully clear to me what the purpose is, other than to show that police were not at, made available for a particular event.

MR. SCHMIDT: But they were there.

CHAIR: Okay. So, Mr. Schmidt, I imagine you'll be addressing that on cross examination or rebuttal. Whatever Mr. Clark, whatever his perception was as to the police presence may be right, may be not right, may be somewhere in between. I am confident your ability to try to figure out and get to the bottom of that. So, on that basis, I will overrule that objection now that I understand it's not directly related to code enforcement.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, right.

CHAIR: As to completeness, you have another argument.

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe it's not a comp, it's not the complete train of e-mails is what I believe I thought I heard. Maybe I misheard that.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, would you please clarify that?

MR. HOLZER: I'll ask the witness.

CHAIR: That's why, yes.

MR. HOLZER: If I can.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Since I'm not testifying, --

MR. CLARK: I --

CHAIR: No, there is no question pending.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, you've heard the question and the objection. Is this the full extent of the e-mails that relate to the police department of Baltimore County having nothing to do with code enforcement or Mr. Zeller?

MR. CLARK: Correct. I apologize for --

CHAIR: The answer is yes.

MR. CLARK: All right. The answer is yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Thank you. So, on that basis, that objection will be overruled.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: And you're, you're offering ninety-two?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

CHAIR: Ninety-two is admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Going back to where we were in regard to the safety in buildings, the safety at events. I want to very carefully have you review your notes, --

MR. CLARK: Sir, --

MR. HOLZER: -- so that we're not wasting time on something that has already been discussed. With that understanding, take a look at comments in regard to safety at, at, at events because I believe some of this is already been raised or discussed.

CHAIR: I can confirm that.

MR. CLARK: And I agree.

MR. HOLZER: Can you tell us what has not been raised or not discussed or that you have a different testimony, not that of the association?

MR. CLARK: I believe, no.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So we can get past that.

CHAIR: I understood that question to be rhetorical. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Now, we're getting into another area of what you choose to call misrepresentation of facts. Could, and, and one category under that is the County. Do you, do you understand what I'm asking you?

MR. CLARK: I, I know, we're going into --

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, if it has anything to do with code enforcement, with the County dealing with something prior to this hearing, I want you to skip it. But if it has anything to do with the, the Petitioner's testimony then please feel free to address it. If it differs from what you've already said on behalf of the community.

MR. CLARK: Okay. The only one on there.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Again, this goes to voracity.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay? It would be the Archia sign permit, okay? He promised the County --

CHAIR: Hold on, make sure, pay attention to Mr. Holder's question. This testimony that I'm, that we're about to here is different from you as an individual than the association that we've already discussed?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I, I believe so.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. CLARK: I believe so.

CHAIR: And you mentioned sign permit or the signage issue. What is it that you believe the, what was misrepresented --

MR. CLARK: I believe he misrepresented to the County the sign that they intended to put up. He presented to the County --

CHAIR: I'm going to stop you there. This is getting into more of a code enforcement matter because that matter is not in front of us today. We didn't hear testimony from Mr. Archia as to the sign, from what I recall. So, I, I'm straining to figure out where we're going with this as it relates to testimony that we've heard that relates to the way the property is being used, whatever, whatever is represented in the sign petition is not in front of us.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Can I, --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, do you want to ask a question to follow-up on that point?

MR. HOLZER: No.

MR. CLARK: Okay. That settled that.

MR. HOLZER: No. And I'm looking at another comment that, I don't believe is appropriate to ask this Board since it occurred at another location, another venue, which is the ALJ. Okay.

MR. CLARK: We actually covered a lot --

CHAIR: Sir, there's no question pending, please.

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: I'm, I'm looking where facts were presented to the, to this Board, I don't care about anyplace else, but to this Board. Are there areas that you would like to discuss about facts presented to this Board that are not covered by the community association comments? But these would be your personal comments.

CHAIR: Or his other testimony --

MR. HOLZER: Exactly.

CHAIR: -- as an individual throughout his time on the stand.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Here.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, correct.

MR. CLARK: Yes. The answer is yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Could you tell us what area you are answering yes to?

MR. CLARK: In testimony, Mr. Ghimire asserted he had nothing to do with the, and he had no knowledge of the event held at St. John's Church on January 28, 29. We have evidence of --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: I, I anticipated this --

MR. HOLZER: Wait a minute.

CHAIR: -- objection from Mr. Schmidt.

MR. HOLZER: If that relates to the police reports, then it --

CHAIR: It does.

MR. HOLZER: -- is not permitted.

CHAIR: I will note, and I noted this yesterday during the course of the ruling, that Mr. Ghimire did give testimony that would indicate that at first he may have had some role and then he didn't have some role.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: And then when asked questions directly, that he, neither he nor the organization, the Petitioner that is, had any, any sponsorship, leadership or management role in connection with those events. I then understand that Mr. Holzer, as part of that, produced something that showed Ghimire Homes. There is no evidence in the record whatsoever that establishes Ghimire Homes as any connection to Mr. Ghimire. On that basis, I will sustain what I anticipate, I guess, was Mr. Schmidt's objection, so.

MR. HOLZER: You did a lot and I had already said --

CHAIR: What's that?

MR. HOLZER: I'd already said it wasn't appropriate.

CHAIR: I understand. I've been trying to, I'm trying to address what Mr. Schmidt was about to say. I cut him off so we don't have to have extended argument on the point.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Mr. Clark, I, I know a lot of this is confusing in terms of what you want to present, but again, I must ask you to look at what you want to testify. If it relates to the police reports, you cannot because the Board has ruled.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: If it relates to testimony that you've already given you cannot.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: If it relates to testimony that you gave on behalf of the community association you cannot, unless it differs from what the community association position was, okay? So, the question is, is there anything else in relationship to any of the areas of issue that have been discussed, that you need to address subject to those conditions?

MR. CLARK: I, I guess the, the issue of testifying, the, the, the, the testimony of Petitioner, that events will be, that, that they plan to have events held at the new community center.

MR. HOLZER: What new community center?

MR. CLARK: The community center at Taylor Ave. I believe Mr. Ghimire referenced that in particular.

CHAIR: Okay. What about that testimony do you wish to address?

MR. CLARK: I wish, and we started to enter it and then there were problems with the, the documentation.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: But that it simply doesn't have the capacity for the kind of crowd --

CHAIR: I, Mr. Holzer, I seem to recall there was an objection by Mr. Schmidt because that property is not subject of this proceeding or the Petition. So, if there's an occupancy or any type of other issue that may exist at that community center and its capacity to hold whatever amount of events, I seem to recall that there were objections sustained on these points because it is not, it is not, it does not concern the subject property.

MR. HOLZER: Fine. And so, I want to proffer.

CHAIR: Well, I mean, I, I mean, --

MR. HOLZER: I want to proffer this document.

CHAIR: Hold on. Is that your understanding? Let's start with that.

MR. HOLZER: No, but it's your understanding so I'll abide by it and under the circumstances, instead of wasting this Board's time and everybody else's, I am just going to proffer what had previously been marked as Protestant's forty-six, which I believe is what was for identification only, and I want to add this new, this new document for purposes of --

CHAIR: All right. Let's start, can we do one at a time?

MR. MCCOMAS: Let's do one thing, Mr. Holzer. I have 46-A as being admitted, 46-B and C i.d. only and 46-A is a photo on 2906 Taylor Avenue.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry. I, I have this as the photo.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And that's in?

CHAIR: That's what this shows.

MR. MCCOMAS: That's what this shows, it shows here.

CHAIR: I, I will let everyone know, I, I do intend to go through the transcripts to confirm what is in evidence and what is not before the record closes in this matter.

MR. HOLZER: All right and pages two and --

MR. MCCOMAS: 46-B and C, I think, is what you're interested in, I suspect and --

CHAIR: I, and if I can, Mr. Holzer? I have recollection now that I've seen you hold it up, that was objected to because we didn't know the source of the information and its completeness for the record, from what I recall.

MR. HOLZER: Gotcha.

MR. MCCOMAS: And this is B here.

CHAIR: Yes, we're discussing B and C.

MR. MCCOMAS: Is that what you have, is that what you have there?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, B and C.

MR. MCCOMAS: And I have C here.

MR. HOLZER: And, and what I'm about to proffer --

CHAIR: Let me, we'll stop for a second. Do you recall what I just said as it relates to B and C? Those were the objections by Mr. Schmidt were sustained on those, on that basis?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, they were not permitted. I don't know what basis they were denied.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, is that consistent with your recollection?

MR. SCHMIDT: I have a copy of the list that I've been keeping and it shows 46-A admitted and B and C identification only.

CHAIR: Can you show Mr. Schmidt 46-B and C?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, and they are the --

CHAIR: Just so that we can follow along.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- print, printouts.

CHAIR: I'm going to let you give your proffer to be clear.

MR. HOLZER: I, I understand. But it's sort of a waste of time what took place then because --

CHAIR: I have to worry about the record too.

MR. HOLZER: I know.

CHAIR: Do you want to just show that to him? Is that B and C?

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you. May I approach, Mr. Garber?

CHAIR: Yes, of course. Mr. Schmidt, do you recall those documents? Do you recall the objections and the discussion?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I do.

CHAIR: Okay. So, my recollection is that objections were --

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, thank you.

CHAIR: -- sustained on the basis that it, we didn't know the source of the information that was contained within and its completeness. Now, Mr. Holzer has a proffer as it relates to 46-A, excuse me, B and C and is tendering here a new document.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct. This, this --

CHAIR: Have you, have you provided that to Mr. Schmidt, the new document?

MR. HOLZER: I already did.

CHAIR: Okay, just confirming.

MR. HOLZER: The new document is, could we mark this?

CHAIR: Ninety-three.

MR. HOLZER: As what?

CHAIR: This will be ninety-three.

MR. HOLZER: Ninety-three. But it actually gets consolidated with forty-six.

CHAIR: It relates to forty-six but for purposes of this record it will be ninety-three because just, they're listed sequentially by the dates of the hearing and so we can't obviously then squeeze this in between, going back.

MR. HOLZER: I understand. I understand. But I'm connecting it to forty-six.

CHAIR: And for the record, it is connected to forty-six.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Now, with respect to ninety-three, since there's no ruling on ninety-three, even if there isn't one on forty-six, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- what is it you want to ask this witness to do with ninety-three?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, you have Exhibit 93 in your hand. How did you get this document? Where did you get this document? And do you believe it complies with, with the requirement that was rejected on the two pages of the previous Exhibit 46?

MR. CLARK: This is the listing as it was on Zillow.com.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And it shows the details of the building. The, the size and all that.

CHAIR: 2906 Taylor Ave building?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Mr., sorry.

MR. HOLZER: And, and what would you like, or do you want me to offer it now or should I ask him a question?

CHAIR: I'm not, I don't want to interrupt you if you're still laying the foundation.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: If you're still laying the foundation, go, go do that.

MR. HOLZER: And, and you, you now understand that Protestant's forty-six, which is a picture of the building, and now you have Protestant's ninety-three, excuse me, which, which provides certain information, what is your testimony in regard to the use of this property as a, --

MR. CLARK: I don't have any --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: Hold on, sir, sir, sir, hold on.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, your objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I, I believe --

MR. HOLZER: As the community, look, I mean, --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, hold on.

MR. HOLZER: Having that --

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: -- before I even get --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, Mr., Mr. Holzer, you know how this process works.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I do.

CHAIR: He, hold on, he, --

MR. HOLZER: And it's not being complied with.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, please. He's objected. He's, I asked him to state his objections. I will turn to you for a response. I'm not cutting you off from, from whatever you intend to try to get (inaudible) this witness or put in the record in terms of a proffer. So, I want to hear from Mr. Schmidt because he stood up, as he is supposed to, when objecting. Mr. Schmidt, what is your objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: My understanding, Mr. Garber, is that this property is owned presently by an organization that is not the Petitioner and is not related to the Petitioner. I understand the prior Board rulings that, to a certain extent, if it's, has the char, if, if the property or exhibit relates to the interest of, of people from Nepali that it's admissible. But this case, or from Nepal, the, the Board believes it's proper evidence. But in this case, this is, this is a property that's not owned by the Petitioner and it's, this is a property that is not before the Board today on a Petition. It's on Taylor Avenue. So, I don't know what the relevance of what the condition or use of this property could be to the instant case.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, would you wish to respond to the objection?

MR. HOLZER: Test, testimony by Mr. Ghimire was that commercial or community events will be held at 2906 Taylor Avenue.

CHAIR: I have the same recollection.

MR. HOLZER: That's his testimony.

CHAIR: That it was and, just if I can add to that. The, again, my recollection of the prior objection as to why they were sustained was to establish the fact that the number of parking spaces within, when we don't have the source of information or, or in the other, for the other reasons stated and I know that there was some discussion, which Mr. Schmidt just alluded to as well, that it concerned a property other than the one that's the subject of this Petition. Having said that, it, I understand it relates to Mr. Ghimire's prior testimony that community events will be held there. What is it you seek to do with Exhibit 93?

MR. HOLZER: Introduce it to show the Board in their opinion, your opinion, whether or not the events that are being carried about or proposed to be carried out on Harford Road would be consistent with the use at this site. And if, and it, if you can't wrap your head around that, it seems that Mr. Ghimire, in order to show that we're, he, that the Harford Road site is just a religious facility and is not a place for community events, this seems to dispel that testimony.

CHAIR: I see Mr. Schmidt is standing. You wish to address a point there?

MR. SCHMIDT: So, do I understand that the relevance of this document is that if my client chooses to utilize another property or might use another property, then the Board will allow an inquiry as to the suitability of that other property? So, for example, Mr. Ghimire testified, for example, that there would not be food preparation at the subject property. And so, I think he testified that, for example, during some of the events, the rice feeding, for example, --

CHAIR: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- which is somewhat akin to a baptism in the Christian religion.

CHAIR: I recall the testimony.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, Mr. Ghimire, I think, testified in that case, in those instances, that the family may very well then go to a restaurant to host a social gathering following the rice feeding ceremony at the subject property because it would be traditional for the family to have a meal and to share fellowship after that. And so, are we then going to hear testimony akin to this, that the restaurant may not suitable, be suitable, that the kitchen facilities at the restaurant may not be suitable, I mean, that's the path --

CHAIR: Well, I think you're taking it a step too far with that. I understand your point.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, that's the path that we seem to be going down.

CHAIR: I, I understand your point. It seems to me where everything is getting lost here is the testimony, which as I indicated for, when Mr. Holzer, back and forth with him, that Mr. Ghimire did give that said that community events would be held off site at this community center at 2906 Taylor Avenue. The question then is what events? It's obvious by its size, there's only a certain number of events or types of events that could ever be held at the 2906 Taylor Avenue. Then Mr. Holzer is trying to use it to show because of its size, that means there's the potential for these other larger events to be held on the subject property site.

However, we are now so far down the speculative well, I don't think we even need this in evidence. It doesn't aid us in any way, shape or form. This property doesn't have any relevance to us. Mr. Holzer's evidence, or arg, from which he could have that same argument is already in the record. So, he's not going to suffer from a loss of being able to arg, make that point based on the other evidence. For these reasons, and in the reasons already, already stated, as to 46-B and C, it will be, your objection is sustained. It will not be admitted. You may continue with your proffer.

MR. HOLZER: I would proffer that this document goes to the voracity and, and the potential for this Board to analyze the two properties, number one. Number two, it's not, it, it, it is provided for a basis upon which the Board of Appeals can say, well, Mr. Ghimire said that many of the events that we're holding out there, and I'm putting in (inaudible) that the community objects to, the reason that he testified to that is because oh, it'll be on Taylor Avenue. So, what I'm saying is the value of these documents relates to the imposition of conditions that you could put on the Harford Road property.

For instance, you could put, you could say since Mr. Ghimire testified that the, much of the community activity will be at the community center, therefore, there could be a reduction in number of people attending. There could be a reduction in the number of parties that, big events that we're holding. Therefore, we can alleviate some of the community's concerns. That's the relevance of this. And it also puts the Board of Appeals into a position of saying well, look, you know, everything doesn't have to be at Harford Road. There are events and numbers of people, etcetera, that can be held on Taylor Avenue.

So, the purpose of his presenting that material, was precisely relevant to the Board's action in granting or denying this special exception. That's my proffer and I proffer Exhibit 46 and 93 together.

CHAIR: To be clear, --

MR. HOLZER: I know forty-three --

CHAIR: -- 46-A is in evidence.

MR. HOLZER: I understand that.

CHAIR: 46-B and C are not.

MR. HOLZER: I understand.

CHAIR: Ninety-three, we just had that ruling. But you want to make clear for the record that ninety-three is related to 46-A through C, is that?

MR. HOLZER: In my proffer, I'm connecting them so that any future analysis of it doesn't get so totally screwed up they'll never understand it. So, forty three and, and ninety, forty, forty-six and ninety-three are related in that respect. I understand forty-three was admitted --

CHAIR: Forty-six.

MR. HOLZER: Forty-six was admitted.

CHAIR: A.

MR. MCCOMAS: A.

MR. HOLZER: I do understand that, A.

CHAIR: 46-A was admitted.

MR. HOLZER: I understand and part of, part of the analysis in the future is whether or not it was correct for you to deny this, period.

CHAIR: That, understood. Thank you. All right. Next line of questions and/or exhibits?

MR. HOLZER: In regard to amplification of, on Harford Road, --

CHAIR: One second, Mr. Holzer, just wait to the, to this passes, please.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: All right. Sorry, Mr. Holzer. In relation to amplification on Harford Road.

MR. HOLZER: Right. There was testimony, as I understand it, from Mr. Ghimire in regard to the number of microphones in, during the course of his testimony. Do you recall whether there was a condition by the Administrative Law Judge on outside speakers or outside noise from a microphone at all?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. That would have been a matter of code enforcement as to whether there would be an enforcement action instituted against my client for violation of Judge Beverungen's Order.

CHAIR: Hold on, Mr. Holzer, --

MR. HOLZER: Why do you let him object at that point because --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, Mr. Holzer, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: -- I hadn't even clarified it --

CHAIR: One second. What is it that you want to establish with this question? We can eliminate this objection, because I think I know where you're trying to go. What is it you are trying to establish?

MR. HOLZER: The objection was premature because what I was simply --

CHAIR: I, I, I, I want you just to, first to answer my question.

MR. HOLZER: And this has been going on, Mr. Chairman --

CHAIR: I want you to answer my question what, where are you going with this, with, with this question to this witness?

MR. HOLZER: I was going to the point of, first of all, just trying to recall myself whether there was a condition imposed on the approval by the Administrative Law Judge. Simple, very simple. It had nothing to do with code enforcement.

CHAIR: It is foundational then.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay. That's step one. Number two, Dr. Clark here has already testified about amplification in terms of a condition. If that's where the direction you're going, perhaps to see if there's a distinction between him as an individual and an association. If that's not where you're going, I'm not quite sure the, the purpose for it. So, if you could continue with your foundation. But recognize, there's only so far we're going to go before it does cross over to the code enforcement aspect.

MR. HOLZER: I am tired, Mr. Chairman, I am tired of hearing about code enforcement. I understand, after eight days of this hearing, that you allege that you do not have authority to consider code enforcement. I am, obviously, also interested in that aspect from a legal perspective. But I am not going there. I am not going for a code enforcement --

CHAIR: What did I just say? Continue with your foundation. I just said be wary of, if you're trying to get, if it may touch on those grounds, you will hear from Mr. Schmidt again and you'll hear from me again. So, if you're not going in that direction, by all means, ask your question to the witness.

MR. HOLZER: My question was very simple.

CHAIR: I understood that, I, --

MR. HOLZER: Does he recall --

CHAIR: -- I'm sorry, I am going to, I will rehash this one last time. I understood now your question to be foundational. I was allowing you to ask your question because it was foundational. I asked you to proceed and I just said, as a caution, if you start going down the code enforcement road, you will hear from Mr. Schmidt and me. You may proceed with your next question. I'm overruling the objection to the first question now that I understand it was foundational.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Mr. Clark, my original question was, do you recall having attended the Administrative Law Judge hearing and have, and having received what his decision was, was there any discussion or condition imposed by him which related to amplification?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And do you recall what that condition was?

MR. CLARK: No outdoor amplification.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Can you please speak into the microphone?

MR. CLARK: Oh, I'm sorry, I'm sorry. No outdoor amplification.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, if, let's not get into the question of whether on an appeal whether that condition applies or doesn't apply. Do you understand that?

MR. CLARK: Oh, I do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, is amplification, outdoor amplification, a concern to you as an individual?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And why?

MR. CLARK: This section, this, this part of my testimony is about voracity and, and --

MR. HOLZER: No --

MR. CLARK: No, no --

MR. HOLZER: Objection to my own question. Answer the question.

CHAIR: Dr. Clark, we could get through this --

MR. CLARK: I would love to just testify.

CHAIR: -- a lot faster if you just answer directly to the --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: -- questions that are being posed to you.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: I understand this is a, a very big experience for you, it's frustrating, there's a lot going on. We'll get through this quicker if you just answer the question --

MR. CLARK: All right, okay, okay.

CHAIR: -- that's posed to you.

MR. CLARK: Ask me again.

MR. HOLZER: Why is amplification important to you as an individual?

MR. CLARK: Because it affects my property, it destroys my solitude.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Now, as a result of those foundational questions, during the course of the testimony by the Petitioners, was there any discussion by Mr. Ghimire about the use of outdoor microphones?

MR. SCHMIDT: Just a clarification, prospectively or in the past?

CHAIR: That's fair, --

MR. HOLZER: I don't care prospectively or what.

CHAIR: -- no, hold on, hold on. Let's just make sure we're talking about the same timeframe. That is not an unfair insertion into this because it would make it, the record clear as to what we're referring to. So, when you say amplification, are you referring to that which is, that which has already occurred, or that that may occur in the future?

MR. HOLZER: Both.

CHAIR: Well, let's take it one at a time and you may ask both questions.

MR. HOLZER: No, because the question is, did Mr. Ghimire say something about the use of a microphone. I don't need to distinguish when.

CHAIR: And, it, it's the same --

MR. HOLZER: He testified.

CHAIR: All right. Well, you know what? Dr. Clark, you've heard the question as posed.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Do you understand the question?

MR. CLARK: I --

CHAIR: Can you answer the question?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I can.

CHAIR: Please answer the question.

MR. HOLZER: And speak up so that --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: -- Ms. Dopkin can hear you and sit up straight.

MS. DOPKIN: And the recording can hear him.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Dr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: Mr. Ghimire testified that there would be no amplified, amplification of any kind.

MR. HOLZER: As, was that, to your knowledge, relative to a microphone? Did he mention anything about a microphone?

MR. CLARK: Yes, he, he said, he said no microphone, no loudspeakers.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and was that presented as a way, to your knowledge, for the Board to consider that as a condition to any approval?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection.

CHAIR: What is the basis of the, stand up, please.

MR. SCHMIDT: It, I, I believe, I did rise for that, sat down very quickly. I believe the question is asking why Mr. Ghimire testified.

CHAIR: I didn't understand it that way.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think he said, and was that presented for, and then he went on.

CHAIR: Hold on. We'll clarify that.

MR. SCHMIDT: That, and that being what Mr. Ghimire said.

CHAIR: We will clarify that. Mr. Holzer, what was your question again, please?

MR. HOLZER: Could it be repeated? We all, we don't have a stenographer here.

CHAIR: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: I don't even remember at this point.

CHAIR: What question do you, would you want to ask?

MR. HOLZER: You know, --

CHAIR: It was about microphones, loudspeakers, conditions, that's where you were going with this.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. That's got, that's off the track of what these last two questions were. But I'll go back. Did Mr. Ghimire indicate in his testimony there would be no outdoor speakers system --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- or microphones?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And in his testimony before this Board?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. What, if anything, have you reviewed, either past or future, that would address whether or not that is correct or true or not?

MR. CLARK: Well, we, and, and they're introduced as evidence, we have videos of the events --

CHAIR: We've seen the videos.

MR. CLARK: We've got that.

CHAIR: We went, counted the microphones, we did all that stuff.

MR. CLARK: Right. But I'm offering it to rebut that testimony.

CHAIR: Wasn't that already offered for that purpose? I know, I know we --

MR. CLARK: I, I, I, I don't know.

CHAIR: -- we reserved this section as rebuttal but didn't we already go through the video to count the microphones to show this is different than what was represented?

MR. CLARK: I don't, I, I --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, is that your recollection?

MR. HOLZER: No, but if it's yours, that's fine. I'm, I've had it.

CHAIR: I understood, I understood at the time, whether expressly stated or not, that this shows that there's outdoor amplification by virtue of these microphones and speaker system and we sat there, we counted the microphones, we pointed out the speakers.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, we did do, we did do that, I know.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: And there were photographs and video.

MR. HOLZER: But was that considered, at the time, going to the voracity or the witness in terms of the witness'--

CHAIR: By implication, that's how it was understood and that was to address that very point.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, fine. Then I'm going to drop, I'm, I'm going to drop this anymore. I'm tired of dealing with this. As an individual who lives across the street from this site, would, what would your request be to this Board in regard to outdoor amplification and use of either microphones, drums outside, anything else that produces noise, normal than the human voice?

CHAIR: And I, we need to split that question. When you talked about amplification, let's stick to microphones, speakers and that stuff. If you want to address music separately, address that separately.

MR. HOLZER: Well, drums and noise.

CHAIR: I'm not, I'm not disputing, I'm not disputing what you're saying. But you called it amplification. A drum without a speaker system or microphone is different than with.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: So, that's why I'm saying let's split your question in two.

MR. HOLZER: Can you handle it, two questions?

MR. CLARK: I can answer it very easily. It's already been subsumed in my testimony as a representative of the board.

CHAIR: Okay. So, you would like a condition

relating to those both, that is, one the outdoor amplification aspect and two, any outdoor music and that kind of --

MR. CLARK: And I believe they're already in there.

CHAIR: You did specify both during the course of your testimony on behalf of the association with respect to possible conditions?

MR. CLARK: I did not.

CHAIR: You did.

MR. CLARK: Oh, I did? Yes, I thought I did.

CHAIR: Yes, you did.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: At least that's how I recall it.

MR. HOLZER: Will you put that on the record?

CHAIR: No, actually I have it written down because he said no rock concerts, no outdoor events, those kind of things.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, okay.

CHAIR: It's understood that that would include playing drums outside and whatnot.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, in the Board's opinion, that would be included --

CHAIR: That, that is his testimony already covered that ground.

MR. HOLZER: Gotcha. All right. I'm finished there.

CHAIR: Thank you. All right. You said you

finished?

MR. HOLZER: There.

CHAIR: Yeah. I, I, I seized upon the finished part, sorry. What else do we have to go through? Because I, I have to think we have exhausted nearly everything, nearly. I'm leaving, I'm leaving room open there for you.

MR. HOLZER: I still have comments in regard to development expertise and the entire process.

CHAIR: I, I don't know what you mean by those things.

MR. HOLZER: But I do have more testimony.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: There is more testimony.

CHAIR: I, so, --

MR. HOLZER: I will try to limit it, if I can, at lunch time, whenever that is, I don't --

CHAIR: Well, my, my inclination is to finish up his direct.

MS. DOPKIN: Now?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Before the lunch break?

CHAIR: Before the lunch break.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Because I, I want this case to be moving. I don't want to come back to hear we have another two or three hours of testimony or whatever. I'd rather just get through the testimony and then deal with cross after lunch. And if that means that lunch has to be much later than normal for some people, so be it. I see you trying to call a time out.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: And it looks like it's a full time out, so. Do you need a break?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, just a five minute, yeah.

CHAIR: Understood. Okay. We'll go on a five minute break.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, sir.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 12:22:59 PM)

(ON RECORD – 12:32:28 PM)

MS. DOPKIN: We're on the record.

CHAIR: Okay. We are back on the record, thank you. Mr. Holzer, where are we with the end of direct?

MR. HOLZER: We were diverted because of going to the 502.1 criteria, so now I have to go back where we were talking about Mr. Collagero and Mr. Motsco's testimony, I passed --

CHAIR: I, I will, I will add to that, I understand you want to introduce some things or talk about some things for impeachment purposes or rebuttal purposes or whatever the, however you want to classify it or characterize it. To the extent that that information and testimony has already been provided by this witness, that would be impeachment, we don't need to have it identified a second time as impeachment if it's already in the record. What I mean by that is, take the microphone example.

MR. HOLZER: Um hm.

CHAIR: We just had. Even if it's not specifically designated as impeachment evidence at the time given, certainly you're going to be able to argue that it is, in fact, able to be used for impeachment and whatever substantive value this witness had to say about that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: So, just to help streamline things, you don't, we don't need to designate one for one us and have a second use if the same piece of evidence can be used for both, because you're able to certainly make that argument, --

MR. HOLZER: I just wanted to make sure because the Board it, itself, made that distinction and I wanted to make sure that my questions, that was broken down that way.

CHAIR: The reason why we did is because that was what was alerted to us as to how it was organized for Dr. Clark's testimony.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: If it's going to be the same evidence that's used for one purpose, it could be used for any purpose and we don't need to hear about it a second time, third time or whatever the case may be and I use the microphone example just because that's a recent example of it.

MR. HOLZER: I'll try to, as I've been doing all day, trying to limit --

CHAIR: This is not a critique of your performance.

MR. HOLZER: I understand, I understand. So, can I get started.

MS. DOPKIN: Please.

CHAIR: Please do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Mr. Clark, before we got into the 502.1 criteria discussion, before we got into the community association analysis and their testimony, you were talking about as an individual clarification of certain facts, okay? And I want to get to the question of the NACCB, Inc. in terms of who they are, what they are and what, if anything, you've done to analyze that and present it to the Board. So, that's the topical area of --

MR. CLARK: Got it.

MR. HOLZER: -- where we are. Okay? Have you viewed the, the NAACB Articles of Incorporation?

MR. CLARK: I have.

MR. HOLZER: And where did you get that?

MR. CLARK: Well, actually, it's marked as Petitioner's Exhibit 5.

CHAIR: It has been accepted in evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and as a result of that, what comments, if any, in regard to Petitioner's Exhibit 5 do you have as an individual that has not been expressed?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and, and these have not been expressed.

CHAIR: Well, okay, I, I want to make clear, if this is argument about what they should or should not do or anything like that, that I think is better reserved for Mr. Holzer in his closing brief. If there's something more specific factual that you want to identify for us, obviously you're just laying your foundation for it, so I'm going to see where this goes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I think that's the case.

CHAIR: But if you're just reading something to say, again, here's, I like this or whatever the case may be, --

MR. CLARK: Oh.

CHAIR: -- we don't, we don't need to hear that. Because Mr. Holzer will take care of that.

MR. HOLZER: No, Mr. Chairman, I apologize, but I may not even file a brief. So, I don't think we can proceed in that fashion.

CHAIR: Well, I'm not allowing him to answer questions about his interpretation of what the Articles of Incorporation say. So, if there's something factual you want to, you want to elicit from him for the record, by all means, go for that.

MR. HOLZER: That's what I tried to do.

CHAIR: But I'm not going to stand here for, for a critique of Articles of Incorporation unless there's some other foundation laid as to why this witness would be appropriate for that fact, which you can also raise in terms of an argument as to they are supposed to do x, y, z, not a, b, c. Because we will be reading the Articles of Incorporation and have an opinion and an interpretation of the Articles of Incorporation.

MR. HOLZER: And all I'm asking for is him to be able to point out something in the Articles that he believes he's concerned about.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. HOLZER: That's it.

CHAIR: I, I was only cautioning him about the testimony. Mr. Clark, please proceed.

MR. CLARK: All right. Two things. I would like you to look at the purpose of the, of the corporation, okay?

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I would like you to look at the name of the corporation.

MR. HOLZER: Where, where would they find that in Petitioner's Exhibit, Petitioner's exhibit number five?

MR. CLARK: It would be on the second page.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It's the second article and then the third article.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay? I would like you to see on the next page, on page three, where they previously held service, that --

MR. HOLZER: Well, could you just tell us what it is? It's in the document, right?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, well, but he doesn't want me --

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: My, so I'll explain this. We can read the Articles of Incorporation.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: I'm trying to remove that from the purpose of your testimony.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Because we can read that.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: What is it about the Articles of Incorporation --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- that you feel you need to tell, tell the Board that's --

MR. CLARK: The, the fifth item.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Principal place of worship happens to be Mr. Ghimire's real estate office so that served their purposes, okay?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. Objection. This, this has no relevance at all, Mr. Garber. If he's talking about --

CHAIR: Okay. Your objection is relevance, I got that. Mr. Holzer, do you wish to respond?

MR. HOLZER: I'm not going to argue anymore.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Do what you're going to do.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, I would just ask that you reconsider your tone to this Board.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry, but that's been the way I've been treated --

CHAIR: Starting immediately, starting immediately.

MR. HOLZER: Fine, thank you.

CHAIR: Okay. The question was the principal place of worship and you've identified Mr. Ghimire's address.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: There is an objection pending as to the relevance of that. Mr. Holzer, do you wish to ask another question?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, sure. Is there anything else that you would like --

CHAIR: This is to avoid the objection. If you cannot avoid the objection, do you wish to proffer something?

MR. HOLZER: No, I don't want to do anything.

CHAIR: Okay. There is no question pending. Your objection is sustained.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. What other area of the Articles of Incorporation would you like to point out to the Board?

MR. CLARK: The leadership and also I would point out that my understanding as a layman from what I read on the website from the State, okay?

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Is that if you wish to incorporate as a house of worship, you must, you must, in purpose of the corporation, include that you will have a congregation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection, move to strike. That's a legal conclusion. I think it's best reserved for argument as to what's required under Maryland law.

CHAIR: I would agree with you. I will say though I would have sustained the objection but the answer is already out there in the record.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I move to strike it, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: I understand you're moving to strike. It's in the record now. It does not matter. I, but please caution your testimony.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, all right.

CHAIR: Because I would have sustained that from the outset.

MR. CLARK: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Do you have any other concerns about the Articles of Incorporation?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I don't want to be late on this one and I don't know where we're coming from, --

CHAIR: I understand, thank, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- but if it's discussion about the Articles of Incorporation, I don't believe Mr. Clark is a member of the Bar, which would possibly allow him to render some legal opinion about what is required under State of law. The Articles of Incorporation are what they are.

CHAIR: The, Mr. Schmidt, I, I understand your objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: What my comment was directed to was, yes, it sounded to me that he is reading the Articles of Incorporation and/or the SDAT website, coming to some conclusions and asking the Board, or telling the Board about his conclusions when the Board is going to have to do the same thing and is more ripe for the parties' counsel to argue during the course of argument.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, thank you.

CHAIR: Yes. So, on that basis, to the extent that that's where the question was going, I would sustain the objection. However, Mr. Holzer, if that was not the purpose of the question, you may ask another question about the same subject matter.

MR. HOLZER: No, I don't want to ask the same question.

CHAIR: Very well. The objection is sustained. You may move on.

MR. HOLZER: All right. In terms of that area, I am not going to ask any further questions.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Do you understand?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And to be clear, Mr. Holzer can argue that in a brief, if he chooses to do so.

MR. CLARK: I understand that, Your Honor.

MR. HOLZER: There was, there was testimony about the de, well, there was discussion about development expertise. Do you understand?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. HOLZER: What, if anything, do you want to testify to about the, the development of this project by the Petitioner?

CHAIR: Before you start, I saw Mr. Schmidt trying, starting to get up. Mr. Schmidt, just succinctly, what is your objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Primarily, relevance and when I say that, I'll try to be brief, Mr. Garber. I know there's a requirement, for example, when a development plan is being considered, and I'm sure the Board has had cases that there has to be shown as part of the proof a reasonable expectation that the development will occur. That's part of a development plan approval. There is no such requirement, to the best of my knowledge, insofar as a Petition for Special Exception. So, whether the Petitioners in this case know nothing about the development process, or whether they know how to develop property, they may very well retain experts who do. But I don't believe there's a requirement under 502.1

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's my objection, thank you.

CHAIR: I, I am going to hit the pause button on that because I have a question, just to, I understand and, and I don't know if Ms., we'll have Ms. Dopkin and Mr. McComas as well, when we're referring to development expertise, what are you referring to?

MR. CLARK: To the original purchase of the property.

CHAIR: Okay and what about the purchase, or the original purchase of the property, I, I'm trying to figure out where we're going with this --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, no, no, I know, I know.

CHAIR: -- and what this, this development expertise, I don't know what we're referring to yet.

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

MS. DOPKIN: Excuse me. Mr. Holzer, it would help me if when you frame these questions you could give us an indication of what we're trying to demonstrate, if it's, as in the last series of question, impeachment or misrepresentation. That way we might eliminate some of this back and forth, if that's not too much to ask.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay. To answer Ms. Dopkin's question, the whole issue of due diligence and where that falls, where the consequences of a lack of due diligence falls, okay? That, that, that's what I want to address with this.

CHAIR: Okay. I, I just need to know what you're, where we're about to go.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, on your objection I will overrule it for the moment.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: I'm still trying to assess what's happening here but --

MR. SCHMIDT: Can I --

CHAIR: Go ahead.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just to clarify, as I understand, at least I, where I think Mr. Clark is going on this, is he is a, he's going to assert in terms of due diligence that my clients did not do the appropriate due diligence before they purchased this property.

CHAIR: Please don't gesture when you --

MR. CLARK: No, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: As to the, the legal requirements. If that's what he is asserting, I don't think that's relevant. But then I would say that I would understand then that I would be able to argue the Board that my client's would be prejudiced since they purchased the property, the Board should grant the special exception.

CHAIR: I, I, I got to be honest. I, I have no idea where we're going with this yet. So, because of that, I will overrule your objection at the moment but I, you know, obviously you have the ability to object to further questions.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, do you wish to direct a question to --

MR. HOLZER: I'm advising my client on the basis of what's occurred not to get into anything in regard to development expertise.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: So, that takes care of that.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I believe that leaves us with one last area that you wanted to talk about?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I would.

MR. HOLZER: All right. In terms, I would, this question goes to, and his proposed testimony, goes to whether or not the entire process has been corrupted in this case.

CHAIR: By process, I'm trying to understand where --

MR. HOLZER: (inaudible) I'll, I'll make sure you understand.

CHAIR: Okay, because we have, we have the ALJ hearing plus the Board of Appeals, right? So the Petition itself, or is this going to date back to the purchase of the property, you see what I'm saying? There's, there's a lot that could be within there.

MR. HOLZER: I understand.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: All right. The, basically the area that you wanted to address relates to the, initiating with the Van Domelin letter, the Zeller letter, no response from the zoning, and, and again, it's what you've already said you're not here to do. It relates to the code enforcement issues. He feels, and this is, in effect, almost a proffer. He feels that the County has intentionally avoided reacting to the State Highway Administration letter, allowed a certain situation to occur, which all related back to the code enforcement.

That he has not received any zoning compl, response to his zoning complaints from people in the zoning office, including and all the way up to the director. That, in fact, that at the director's level he believes and wants to proffer that the director intentionally did not pursue the zoning violations and so forth.

He wants to indicate that the County Councilman had interrupted and interfered with this matter, and this case, and the process in the very beginning of this. He wants to identify the fact that there has been a political analysis and situation occurring, which created the reason why the community's efforts to ensure the neighborhood back in the very beginning were not protected.

He also wants to testify or re, or comment upon what he calls the secret letter, what I call the letter that I was not as a, as a representative of the, of the Protestants, Mr.--

CHAIR: Exhibit 34?

MR. HOLZER: -- Mr., yeah, the Motion.

CHAIR: The subject of your Motion?

MR. HOLZER: The subject of my Motion. That Mr. Kotroco addressed Mr. Beverungen without notifying me, that Mr. Beverungen made a decision without, without notifying me. I took an appeal from that decision and we heard nothing from this Board in regard to whether or not that could be consolidated with this hearing. I had a Motion to consolidate it but, as a matter of fact, I didn't file it at that, at that point because we had already gotten involved in the case.

CHAIR: Let me say, and let me, let me just jump in. As to the Motion for Exhibit 33, or 34, the testimony that you would like to elicit from Mr. Clark --

MR. HOLZER: I want to testimony, get any testimony from him. It's in the Motion.

CHAIR: There, I thought you, you were giving us a road map as to the matters that perhaps you would be going down with his testimony.

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: I was only going to suggest that why don't we have resolution of that Motion prior to exploring it because it may or may not be needed as a result of whatever happens for that Motion. But out of fairness to Mr. Schmidt, he hasn't had the ability to respond in writing as of yet.

MR. HOLZER: That's not where I was going.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I'm giving you an outline of what he would have said, his comments, so we're not going to present him --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm, I'm not objecting, Mr. Holzer. Ask your questions.

MR. HOLZER: I didn't, I didn't ask you to. I'm not intending to have him answer any of these questions. I'm doing this for purpose of a proffer of what he would have said --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, put it, put it on. Put it on. You can't, I mean, my understanding --

CHAIR: Well, no, hold on, hold on. Mr. Schmidt, I understand where you're going with it. I'm waiting for him to finish.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Let him finish.

MR. SCHMIDT: Then, then I'll be heard at that time. Thank you, Mr. Garber.

MR. HOLZER: That's fine. In regard to Mr. Ghimire's testimony and Mr. Marks being involved in day one, Ghimire's testimony bragging about Brochins, who was a candidate for County Executive at the time, interfering with County employees' performance of their duty and repeated, and repeated --

CHAIR: And correct me if I'm wrong, there is some, there's something in the record about that already?

MR. HOLZER: I know, just a little bit. It was just a comment, I think.

CHAIR: Is that your recollection too --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- is what I'm asking?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: And finally, the Petitioners' repeated attempts to make this case about something other than land use, basically, racial or religious or, you know, efforts to show, to characterize the Protestants in that fashion.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. HOLZER: That's the proffer. I am not going to permit the witness to testify to any of that. At this point it's irrelevant, I don't want it ruled on and as a result, the matter will be raised, as you indicated, in some subsequent action.

CHAIR: There cannot be a proffer of, of testimony that you're not going to attempt to elicit. However, having said that, I will note as to, as it relates to the Zeller letter and SHA and the code enforcement matters that we discussed yesterday, what I recall from the rulings was no, we are not going down the road of the code enforcement or anything like that.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: However, to the extent that something ties to a special exception factor, which I believe is what the Zeller e-mails did, that came into evidence --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- whereas the code enforcement, particularly of Mr. VanDomelin and whomever else, that did not, base, so the ruling was consistent and what has been received is consistent with that ruling. As to the code enforcement matters, we covered that yesterday as to what this Board could do with respect to the non-action or inaction or disregard of any requested action. There's not much we can do sitting here about that.

As to the County Councilman stuff, I don't believe that's appropriate for us to address what the County Councilman should/should not have done or anything to that degree. Plus it doesn't speak to the Petition itself.

As to whatever political analysis that may have been done in terms of why things happened the way they did, once again, that is not something we can, accept, accepting even for the moment, all true, all accurate, that we can do anything about sitting here today and I believe I expressed yesterday I understand the frustration for Mr. Clark, Dr. Clark, based on these e-mails and everything as to the lack of what he, he is, based on your proffer, would say would be a corrupt process, in quotes. I understand that frustration but there's only so much we can do sitting here today and that's discuss the Petition filed by Petitioner plus whatever evidence Dr. Clark and the other Protestants have put in regarding the subject matter of that Petition.

So, with that in mind, do you wish to end, end, ask any questions on that basis with the, that following guardrails?

MR. HOLZER: No, because you just testified, or commented upon all, each of the issues that I touched on and said that they are improper or not to be received by the, by the Board. So, I will leave it at that. And --

CHAIR: And that's, to be clear, that's not what I said, but the record will speak for itself.

MR. HOLZER: Well, the record will show what you just said and it was various denials of, of anything I would call him to say anyway.

CHAIR: Except for, again, the Zeller letter which was admitted into evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Because it spoke to a specific --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- special exception factor. So, if you had anything in that vein, that is, something that speaks to a special exception factor, you know, that has not been ruled upon.

MR. HOLZER: This is what the witness wanted to say and based on your ruling just now, if, if he wanted to talk about the interference of the County Council or County representative, you would not permit that. If it was related to improprieties in, in regard to enforcement, that would not be permitted. So, in effect, you have, what I tried to do is to make the proffer of what he wanted to say, knowing that it would just generate another three hours' worth of discussion and, and you know, at this point I didn't see the relevance of doing that.

CHAIR: I, I don't think you mean relevance but I understand what you mean by that.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, the bottom line is this. I've asked you if there's any other evidence to present along these lines. I understand there is no more evidence to be forthcoming along those lines.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: Does that then conclude the direct testimony of Dr. Clark?

MR. HOLZER: Well, I want to ask him if there's anything else at this point. I've gone through his different lists of what he wanted to present and I have precluded him from presenting the other, and now I've precluded him from presenting this on the basis of the proffer. So, I just want to ask him a few general questions to, to close up.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'd just like the record to reflect that I raised no objection or said very little during this most recent exchange and I agree with the Chair's comment that a proffer in these circumstances is a statement to the Court, or in this case to the Board, of what the testimony would be upon the Board ruling that it will not accept the testimony. I'm not quite sure how Mr. Holzer makes a proffer when he says he doesn't want to offer the evidence. So, I'm not quite sure procedurally how he can do that. I've never, quite honestly, heard of such a thing. But if Mr. Clark wants to testify and allege all different kinds of corruption in Baltimore County and name names and so on and so forth, I have no objection to it.

CHAIR: Well, I, --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. I will accept that -=

CHAIR: -- I, I'm just going to clarify what Mr. Schmidt said.

MR. HOLZER: I understood what he said, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIR: No, I am clarifying it for the record --

MR. HOLZER: And I'll accept it.

CHAIR: -- so my, the ruling that I just elicited, given the subject matter identified by Mr. Holzer, incorporated rulings from yesterday based on objections from yesterday.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, in, in the matter of consistency and efficiency, I have identified that for the record but have asked for any other questions to follow, that Mr. Holzer, Dr. Clark believe could be made part of this record subject to the same rulings that have been applied in this case.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: With that in mind, Mr. Holzer, if there's anything further --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- you wish to say?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, you are now prepared to testify in regard to the entire process has been corrupted, so please begin, start at the beginning and say what you want to say relative to Mr. Ghimire's testimony first and then the VanDomelin letter and let the Board rule on it.

MR. CLARK: In, Mr. Ghimire has testified that Arnold Jablon connected him with Mr. Kotroco at the ALJ, okay? I don't know how to proceed here, that, that's, that's --

MR. HOLZER: Well, why do you think that was wrong?

MR. CLARK: I don't know whether it was right or wrong, it's just, it's just that Mr. Ghimire testified to that. And then we have a letter from VanDomelin dated November 2017 sometime, where he was actually advising the clients on how --

CHAIR: Advising who?

MR. CLARK: The, the, advising the Petitioner.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: How best to apply for a special exception that will get them what they want. And then I didn't understand why there was a cc to whom I have since learned is, is a politician, Bendary, okay? There was a, he, he initialed on it, cc'd Bendary.

MR. HOLZER: Do you, do you, did you obtain that document?

MR. CLARK: By a FOIA request.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and --

CHAIR: Ninety-four.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I show you a copy.

CHAIR: We have multiple, multiple extra copies, Mr. Holzer, if you'd like this back?

MR. HOLZER: Sure, thanks.

CHAIR: Yes. Okay, sir. Could you please identify the one page document that is now marked as Exhibit 94?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, this is, this is a letter to Hindu Buddha Temple complaints and you can read it for yourself.

MR. HOLZER: I want you to point out what, in the letter, that you think is, produced your comment.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: You don't have to read it, just point it out.

MR. CLARK: However, the purpose of, the, the, the last paragraph, also the, the, starting in the middle of the second paragraph, Mr. Jablon, that you meet with the community, which was never done. And then at the top, you'll see that it was also, someone wrote to the, at, at the top in pencil, and this is on the original document, also to Harry Bendary, Nepali Public Affairs Counsel and Tim Kotroco.

CHAIR: Who is also copied at the bottom.

MR. CLARK: Yes, Tim Kotroco is copied at the bottom, yes, yes.

CHAIR: And as I understand it, you don't know whose handwriting that is?

MR. CLARK: I do not.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. CLARK: It, it was on the original document --

CHAIR: In pencil.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Right, understood.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Schmidt, any objection to ninety-four?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Let's, let's move down the list then. In regard to non-response to zoning complaints.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, there was, it was prior to that letter and this is a little bit out of sequence but prior to that letter, I had met with Mr. VanDomelin and he told me that he wanted to know of any events, of any large events held on the property and he would act. So, the pictures that you saw of the nighttime from September 2017 there were about seventy-five, eighty pictures and, and that, and, and I included them in a letter that I sent to him. And in a subsequent meeting, he told me, you know, sometime later, I can't remember, well, yeah, I can't act on that, it's not enough, okay?

MR. HOLZER: Did you receive any notification in regard to that?

CHAIR: To what he just discussed?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: You used the word that, that's why --

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I'm, I'm sorry.

MR. CLARK: Well, yeah, the, the --

MR. HOLZER: Well, stop.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: Remember, we have to wait till the copies are passed out first.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, sorry.

CHAIR: Thank you. Thank you. This is ninety-five? Right, Mr. McComas?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes, yeah.

CHAIR: One, two, three, four, five pages. All right. Dr. Clark, please identify what Protestant's Exhibit 95

is.

MR. CLARK: What these are is, I call them the green cards. They're the certified receipt --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: We're familiar with what green cards --

MR. CLARK: Yes, I'm sure. These are, are the, are to document that I had sent, and it's already in the other thing, okay? The, the letter I had sent. And we got a re, from these letters we got a response from no one.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It was crickets.

CHAIR: Well, it may be helpful if you can identify the addressees because I'm having a hard time reading it.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: And perhaps that's because I don't have my reading glasses on but also because the nature of the copy.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: So, if you could just give an example, like several examples of who, where these were sent?

MR. CLARK: All right. County Ex Moeller, Robin Clarke, Baltimore County Code Enforcement, Councilman Wade Koch, Councilman David Marks, Colonel John, I was really, Colonel John Garvelis (phonetic), who's at the, at MDOT, Arnold Jablon, Richard Zeller, Lionel VanDomelin, Karen Lewis, Matt

Goelle, Vince Gardenia, Ed Reiser, Jan McCook, Tracy Davis, Donna Kilduff, Dennis Kennedy and Lieutenant Yingling of the, of the Baltimore County Fire Marshal's Office.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Not one response.

CHAIR: Okay. When, and again, I know there are stamps on these cards. Can you give just the, the rough date range when these were sent?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, they were all, June 27th it looks like they were all date stamped.

CHAIR: Well, not Bates stamp but they were stamped by post office as being --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: -- received and mailed on the 27th?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes. And while, no, now I'm seeing June 2nd, various dates, various dates, June 2nd to June 27th, the month of June 2018.

CHAIR: You got where I was going with it. I just want to make clear for the record that's the time frame --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- you're referring to when these were sent.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: Any objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Next, I believe I mentioned the secret letter. And so, the Board has the Motion, my Motion in regard to that. I think it is appropriate not to get into that until counsel has had an opportunity to replay, I've had an opportunity to reply to that and then the Board can take it up.

CHAIR: I, I would like that completed by next hearing date. So, in other words, I would like to see your response ASAP and then to give Mr. Holzer at least some adequate time for a response, for a written response.

MR. SCHMIDT: You'll have it by the end of this week.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer, so, I don't, where's the calendar?

MR. HOLZER: I don't have the calendar.

CHAIR: February 5th is Tuesday.

MR. SCHMIDT: The 1st is Friday, you'll have it by Friday if that's soon enough. If not, I'll get it to you by tomorrow.

CHAIR: I would pre, yeah, okay. So, I'll get it, so as long as Mr. Holzer can get it by the 1st, so I would request that not only do you --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll e-mail it.

CHAIR: -- serve it normal process but certainly e-mail Mr. Holzer.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So he has the opportunity to at least try to file a written response by the 5th. So that we can rule and add this, Mr. Holzer, I understood previously, based on your proffer, you did not intend to go into any questions or testimony with Dr. Clark as to the content of that Motion, however it's disposed of?

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: Okay. So, then, because otherwise, you know, we have, there'd be no need to keep him, Dr. Clark's, testimony open for that purpose.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I might say, just, I, I don't want to cause any more problem, more delay, but Mary Clark and Mr. Clark because of the first day hearing where it was referred to but it was not introduced into evidence, caused me to say what are they talking about? What doc, what letter from Mr. Kotroco? So, I asked them, both of them, to go over to Beverungen's office to get me a copy and there was some things that subsequently took place that we were not able to get it initially, but then subsequently, after being told they didn't have it, we were able to go back and get it and that's how we got the, the, the document --

CHAIR: So, you may elicit testimony as to those efforts?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

CHAIR: Depending on how the Motion goes.

MR. HOLZER: Exactly. So, the, other than that, there would be no need for them to do anything else, most of it's my, my business.

CHAIR: Do you intend then to call Dr. Clark on the stand in connection with that, depending on how this resolves?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, or Mary because I know Mary at one point --

CHAIR: I, I, the reason I'm asking is because I'm trying to get through Dr. Clark's testimony --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- be done with him.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: But obviously, if there's still a point that would remain open --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- then it will be subject to whatever that is and --

MR. HOLZER: To the very limited --

CHAIR: And that's my point is, --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- then any cross and all that would be limited to that issue.

MR. HOLZER: Absolutely.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Absolutely.

CHAIR: As long as we're all on the same playing field with that, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: We'll address it that way. But I do expect that we will go and, and discuss and deliberate the Motion on February 5th so that, again, I urge, I know you may not, maybe within where we are with the time for you guys, and I realize that we have a condensed schedule, so I'm asking to please get it to Mr. Holzer as early as possible.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, he'll have it either tomorrow or, or Friday.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I will e-mail it to him and I'll also provide it, hard copy and an e-mail copy to Ms. Cannington.

CHAIR: Of course.

MR. SCHMIDT: If she wants to e-mail, further forward that e-mail to any of the Board members.

CHAIR: In normal course, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: And the same thing for any written res, reply by yourself as well, for the Board's consideration and to address during the course of the hearing on February 5th.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Again, normal course. All right.

MR. HOLZER: Now, now, as a result of that, Mr. Clark, I believe, has some comments about the use of the secret letter that might not be relevant to the argument or my request. But it is, he does have some, some testimony he'd like to give.

CHAIR: I would prefer that be reserved to that, to that day following the written response and reply, because that may influence how that is handled.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Well, then --

CHAIR: In other words, I'm not shutting the door on what you were saying, I just think that that is the more appropriate time to address that.

MR. HOLZER: That's fine with me. I, I don't have a problem with that. There's also the use of a letter to relate to this Board and I think under your, your ruling, I will just include that at, for the time.

CHAIR: I'm going to just follow up real quick. I, just so I understand what you're referring to, and without getting into testimony --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I, I, I don't want to, to get into it.

CHAIR: Okay, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: If it, if it relates to this quote, secret letter, --

CHAIR: That's fine. We'll reserve.

MR. HOLZER: I just want to preserve it for that point.

CHAIR: We'll reserve it to the 5th.

MR. HOLZER: I, I don't think it's appropriate to get into it now.

CHAIR: No, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. All right. Mr. Clark, do you understand what I just told the Board?

MR. CLARK: I do.

MR. HOLZER: All right. So then there is comments about Mr. Ghimire's testimony (inaudible) that you wanted to talk about.

MR. CLARK: Well, in the ALJ below, he testified that Mr. Marks had been involved from day one. Mr. Marks told us at two Greater Kingsville Civic Associations that he could not be involved in any way, shape, manner or form with this whole process.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and do you have copies of the testimony below?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and is it just one, one, just one page? I think it is. I hope that's (inaudible).

CHAIR: Ninety-six?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, ninety-six, ninety-six.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Schmidt, I'll give you the opportunity to review it.

MR. SCHMIDT: I did. I mean, it, it says what it says, but it's one of these things where lines one through twenty are not in there and then the, the full answer isn't even in there.

CHAIR: Okay. So, your objection is to completeness?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. I mean, I'd like to see --

CHAIR: Do you have a copy of that transcript?

MR. SCHMIDT: I do not have a copy of that transcript.

CHAIR: Do you have a full, copy of the full transcript, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, we do.

CHAIR: Okay. So, we are not going to rule on that as of yet because we are going to provide Mr. Schmidt with the full transcript so that he may review the testimony before and at the complete answer, so that, to see if that resolves whatever issue Mr. Schmidt may have. I will ask Mr. Holzer, while Dr. Mary Clark is doing that, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- to proceed to the next question or topic.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, and just, I'll just say, if, if Ms. Clark wants to just give me the transcript, I'm happy to have a copy of it made over the lunch break even and then give it right back to her.

CHAIR: I, I will leave that to --

MR. SCHMIDT: If that's easy enough.

CHAIR: -- the parties to sort out. I'm just requesting that we move on.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: Because we can't resolve that sitting here in the moment.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I mean, what I'm, and not to belabor the point, but as I read it, I mean, the rest of the answer is not there.

CHAIR: Well, I prefer to not here what's going on with it --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, yeah, I'd just like to know what it is.

CHAIR: -- other, other than I understand there's a completeness argument because the answer itself is not complete, nor are you aware of what the testimony or questions or whatever they were, the context of how it came up.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Why don't you let the witness testify what he wants to say? Because otherwise, once they get it and they read it, then I'll have to bring him back for that.

CHAIR: I, I'm more comfortable with having Mr. Schmidt have the opportunity to review it because if he needs to cross examine on it, we're going to be stuck here anyway. So, it would be just better to move on for the moment, try to resolve that during the course of a break.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, all right. All right. Well, this also relates to the question involved, that he started to answer.

CHAIR: I, I'm sorry, can you be more specific just so we have an idea?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. There are affidavits from Carol Shaw and, that she was there and heard the Councilman say that he couldn't get involved.

CHAIR: I, I will note that Ms. Shaw is present in the courtroom.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: But you want to hand up an affidavit of Ms. Shaw?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, because it certainly saves a lot of the Board's time. If you want me to call her as a witness --

CHAIR: Hold, hold on, hold on.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Mr. Schmidt, how do you wish to address this?

MR. SCHMIDT: Can I see the affidavit first?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: That's why I was getting them ready.

CHAIR: I, I, --

MR. HOLZER: And Mary Clark, --

CHAIR: -- I understand.

MR. HOLZER: -- Mary Clark is also here and has her affidavit. So, both of them are here, both of them can testify.

CHAIR: To date, there have been objections to all affidavits.

MR. HOLZER: I know.

CHAIR: Which is why I established this --

MR. HOLZER: I know, --

CHAIR: -- I am establishing this point.

MR. HOLZER: I understand. I'm not being critical. One, two, four.

MR. MCCOMAS: I'll make that ninety-seven.

CHAIR: Ninety-seven.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, ninety-six, I just did i.d. only waiting for the full transcript.

CHAIR: Right, because we're not, there's no ruling on that as of yet.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, this is ninety-seven.

MR. HOLZER: And ninety-seven, for the record, would include two affidavits, Ms. Shaw and Mary, Mary Clark.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. SCHMIDT: No objection.

CHAIR: Just to be clear, we have two pages. One says affidavit of Carol Shaw, the one underneath also says affidavit of Carol Shaw but it's actually Mary Clark's.

MR. HOLZER: You're right, you're right.

CHAIR: I, just for purposes of the record, so when someone's flipping through and they see two Carol Shaw's, if they, if you continue on it's actually from Dr. Mary Clark.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: All right. And there is no objection by Mr. Schmidt, therefore, we'll, we will admit the affidavits that are Exhibit 97.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thank you.

MR. MCCOMAS: Can, can I just get some clarification on this exhibit?

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, I have Carol Shaw's, this is Exhibit 72, on September 19, 2019 I observed the following. I attended the Greater Kingsville Civic Association --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: On September 20th, 2017, so she's attended two, this is two separate --

CHAIR: Well, hold on and wait, let me back up. Because seventy-two is not in evidence. So, all that's been received in evidence is the one about September 20th.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible) checking to make sure that they weren't (inaudible).

CHAIR: Right, no, understood.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: If there's a problem, there's got to be another way to address it.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay. This is ninety-seven so it's already in. So, Mr., Mr. Clark, you have Exhibit 97, which has not been objected to.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's the affidavits, right?

MR. HOLZER: The affidavits.

CHAIR: Well, as, as I understand it then, these are basically stipulations as to the, here's what these people would say if called to testify.

MR. HOLZER: Right, but I need him to articulate what the result of the, his discussion with the transcript --

CHAIR: You're not asking what was said in the affidavits.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right.

CHAIR: That's where I thought you were going, I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: You may proceed.

MR. HOLZER: With the testimony document that was tentatively identified and these two statements, what is your comment, what is your purpose of bringing that to the attention?

MR. CLARK: It's just, I, I can't reconcile it, I can't, --

CHAIR: You can't reconcile what?

MR. CLARK: Re, reconcile his statements to, to --

CHAIR: Whose statements --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, sorry, sorry. I can't reconcile Mr. Marks' statements with his active involvement, with his, no. I can't reconcile Mr. Marks' statements to the Greater Kingsville Civic Association with his apparent active involvement in promoting and, and, and assisting --

CHAIR: Well, we'll characterize it as this it seems. That, that is taken from testimony from Mr. Ghimire, correct? That understanding?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: So, before we classify it as attributable to Councilman Marks directly, that is your understanding based on the testimony of Mr. Ghimire?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Could you, just to be clear on this point, you don't have any other information other than what Mr. Ghimire provided in terms of his testimony as to Councilman Marks' apparent involvement one way or another? That's why, that's what --

MR. CLARK: I, I, I, I, I know.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, I just want to make sure that was clear that you are reconciling those two events.

MR. CLARK: The, yes, yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I want to leave it there.

CHAIR: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Excuse me. Mr. Clark, were you at the September 20th meeting?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I was.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you, both.

MR. CLARK: I spoke, oh, and I spoke directly with Mr. Marks.

CHAIR: To be clear, we understood that you had personal knowledge as to what was communicated with the Greater Kingsville Association.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: And then you had personal knowledge as to your, in your individual capacity as to what Mr., Councilman Marks has sent to you personally?

MR. CLARK: I spoke with him personally.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And among other things, he, he informed me that Mr. Ghimire had been invited to attend that meeting and that Mr. Ghimire declined to attend and he was, he, he seemed rather vexed by that, by that, by that non-attendance. Because that was the meeting where the, the board, where, where the association took the vote on its position.

CHAIR: Okay. That, what I'm hearing is, you're just recapping more of the --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: -- information as it relates to your personal experience and firsthand knowledge --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- as to the communications from Councilman Marks to Greater Kingsville and you personally?

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. This is not a duplicate, this in regard to October 20th, but it's the same two affidavits of the same two witnesses, rather.

MR. SCHMIDT: Once again, it says Carol Shaw.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yeah. This would be?

MR. MCCOMAS: Ninety-eight.

CHAIR: A and B, sure.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible).

CHAIR: Whatever works for everybody, I mean, we're going to be able to identify by who the person is. And we have an extra copy if you need one back, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I, I have one.

CHAIR: Oh, okay, thank you. So, Mr. Holzer, is there, I guess if you could illustrate for the record what the difference is for ninety-seven compared to ninety-eight?

MR. HOLZER: I'd rather have the witness.

CHAIR: I'm not asking you to do it, I'm asking you to ask him that.

MR. HOLZER: I, oh, right. Mr. Clark, there are, there are two different affidavits by Mary Clark and also Carol Shaw. Can you articulate the difference between them so the record is clear?

MR. CLARK: The dates?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. And, --

MR. CLARK: Okay, September, these, these relate to a meeting that I, that I did not attend, okay? On September 19th, 2018.

MR. HOLZER: And was Mr. Marks there at the same, at that meeting also?

MR. CLARK: Apparently.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I, I know you weren't there.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: But according to the affidavits, --

MR. CLARK: According to the affidavits, --

MR. HOLZER: -- it indicates that he was, was there.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Is there anything further that you wanted to articulate or express about --

MR. CLARK: Apparently, Mr. Marks said again that he could not be involved in the NAACCB matter.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: Can I just get clarification here? Because I, from the duplication, is, is there any difference between seventy-two Carol Shaw affidavit and 98-A?

MR. HOLZER: The years, is it the years?

MR. MCCOMAS: No, no, Exhibit 72, Carol --

CHAIR: Does that appear to be the exact same?

MR. MCCOMAS: Appear to be exactly the same. I'd be interested to know what the differences are.

MR. HOLZER: Oh.

CHAIR: Referencing, --

MR. MCCOMAS: Same (inaudible) if you can you're your witness tell us the difference between ninety, seventy-two and ninety-eight.

CHAIR: And by, by way of reference, just for the record, we dealt with Exhibit 72 yesterday, which was not admitted into evidence. We have Exhibit 98 in front of us now. I have another question about ninety-eight though because it states on September 19, 2018, I observed the following and it references an event that took place the following day. So, one of those two dates would appear to not be accurately recorded.

MR. HOLZER: I, I don't have either one of them --
CHAIR: I, I'm just alerting you to this --
MR. HOLZER: Can I ask him? Can I ask the witness?
CHAIR: You could ask the witness.
MR. MCCOMAS: You need Exhibit 72 as well? (inaudible).
MR. HOLZER: We don't have seventy-two here.
MR. MCCOMAS: Here's seventy-two.
MS. DOPKIN: Seventy-two and ninety-eight are the same.
CHAIR: Yeah, there is app, it appears to the Board members that seventy-two and ninety-eight may be the same.
MR. HOLZER: And was that admitted --
CHAIR: Everyone, one at a time, sorry. Mr. Holzer?
MR. HOLZER: Was seventy-two admitted?
CHAIR: It was not.
MS. DOPKIN: I.d. only.
MR. HOLZER: It was not?
CHAIR: It was not admitted into evidence. It is identified for the record.
MR. HOLZER: Okay.
CHAIR: Now, Ms. Dopkin, did you have something you wanted to add?
MS. DOPKIN: If you'll look at paragraph two, what Mr. Garber was pointing out is it is prefaced on September 19th,

2018 I observed the following. Attending a meeting of the Greater Kingsville Civic Association --

MR. HOLZER: On September the 20th.

MS. DOPKIN: On the 20th.

MR. HOLZER: I see that.

CHAIR: If, if you look at Mary Clark's affidavit, it refers to both dates as September 19th.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: I assume that, that the affidavit of Ms. Shaw would be amended to the 19th?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, for purposes of the record, Dr. Clark, did the meeting take place, the Greater Kingsville Civic Association semi-annual meeting, take place on September 19th or the 20th, if you recall?

MR. CLARK: The 19th.

CHAIR: Okay. So, understanding that there would be an amendment to the affidavit --

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: -- at 98-A, September 19th, with that in mind, Mr. Schmidt, any objection to ninety-eight?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir. I mean, along these lines, Mr. Garber, you know, none of this is really about my client. It's, it's an attack, or allegations about Baltimore County. I'm not here to defend Baltimore County. Certainly, it's up to the Board to decide. I was looking at your rules of practice and procedure, and I don't think you need to do it based on an objection, but you can exclude improper testimony if you believe it to be improper for any reason. But I'm not raising an evidentiary objection.

CHAIR: I will comment as, well, my comment to that is as follows. I had been waiting to see if you have any objection because, again, as I already, as I already stated for the record, we made rulings for the subject matter. I would make those rulings consistent, but you have not objected. Therefore, in the absence of objection, objection, I am free to receive whatever evidence or whatever, subject to whatever discretion we have in terms of a stopping point for that r whatever the case may be. Because we are this far down the road on that point, I will admit ninety-eight, but if you have a reservation or another type of objection to some of this material, I would ask that you articulate it.

MR. SCHMIDT: I will be honest, I, I think it's improper and inappropriate to besmirch the reputation of Mr. Marks and other County officials and allege that they're corrupt in this proceeding, when they are not here, nor is a County attorney here to defend themselves. I think it's inappropriate, I don't think it assists the Board in deciding the Petition for Special Exception. If Mr. Holzer and Mr. Clark believe that it furthers their case to label the County people corrupt and criminal and indifferent or whatever the allegation is, then, then again, I don't think it has any relevance to it.

Certainly, I would object to anything that's been consistent with your rulings as it relates to a violation case and I haven't seen these exhibits related to a violation case. Maybe I'm misunderstanding the nature of the exhibit. I do not think it's, I don't think it's appropriate evidence. I certainly wouldn't offer it in this Board but it's not my call.

CHAIR: Well, whether it's something, whether you would offer it, I --

MR. SCHMIDT: It's not my call.

CHAIR: Your objection, I seem to recall yesterday there was a brief objection and discussion about the propriety of going into matters as it relates to people who are not here, particularly Councilman Marks or some others. Those objections were sustained. However, in light of the questions and, and evidence that have come this afternoon, because there were no objections and Mr. Holzer, in response to, to what has been said about the proffer, was going through this, that is why we, this has unfolded the way it has unfolded.

MR. SCHMIDT: But this, Chairman Garber, with all due respect, this is your hearing and you, you are going to run this hearing the way that you think it's appropriate and decide what evidence is appropriate. It's, it's not my hearing. The distinction in terms of people here or not here is that the affidavits that have been submitted today have been signed by Ms. Shaw and Ms. Clark, who are both here. And as I understood Mr. Holzer's comments, in lieu of having them come up and testify and to save time he was going to do the affidavits.

I would continue, like I did yesterday as it relates to Ms. Foxworthy and other individuals who are not here, object to them, those affidavits. That was part of the objections that I raised this year.

CHAIR: You mean, yesterday and today?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes, sir, if I misspoke.

CHAIR: You said this year.

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, yesterday or today, if I misspoke.

CHAIR: Sorry?

MS. DOPKIN: It just seems like a year.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes. But my point being that the affidavits that have been introduced have been signed by people who are here.

CHAIR: That has been noted for the record.

MR. SCHMIDT: And Mr. Holzer, I believe, --

CHAIR: By both Mr. Holzer and, and the Boar.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- said instead of calling them, he would just give the affidavits and since they're here, I can, if I felt that was improper and wanted to cross examine them, I could do so. So, I did not object to that. But in saying that, I mean, I will tell you, I do not think it's relevant evidence but it does not relate to my client to call the officials of Baltimore County corrupt and inefficient.

CHAIR: I, and again, --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm not here to protect Baltimore County.

CHAIR: And that's understood. The purpose, as I have understood it, is in response to the argument that you can't just proffer something, you have to make an attempt and then move forward. Since we are at this point where the last several minutes have been spent introducing this evidence and eliciting testimony as part of that proffer --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- it is not up to the Board to then address that point for purposes of the proffer, proffer. I indicated that I would make rulings consistent with what has been done before. There, since there have been objections, that's why it has come in in furtherance of Mr. Holzer's proffer.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that --

CHAIR: So, we're now at a crossroads, it would seem, because you would now object going forward to continuation along these lines for the reasons you've already stated.

MR. SCHMIDT: I guess it depends on what's being offered. But Chairman Garber, let me, let me just say this. And I mean this with all --

MR. HOLZER: Could I ever get a chance?

CHAIR: Let, that's fair, Mr. Holzer. Go ahead.

MR. SCHMIDT: Obviously, I have not agreed with all your rulings on evidence.

CHAIR: What?

MR. SCHMIDT: But you are the Chair, and I respect your rulings.

MR. HOLZER: Geez.

MR. SCHMIDT: I have not, I have tried very hard today to respond to the comments that I interpreted this morning that Ms. Dopkin was directing them specifically at me regarding the nature of objections. I do not believe that the Chair, I believe that the Chair has sometimes conducted direct examination of witnesses during this case, which I do not believe to be appropriate, recognizing that the Chair can certainly ask questions, as the panel members can, but Mr. Holzer is more than capable of putting his case on and I don't believe that, that the Board has to assist him to do that, as they have. I point all those things out to just merely say that you're sitting in those seats up there and as Judge Gordon Boone told me one time when I said to Judge Boone, Judge, you can't do that. He said, Mr. Schmidt, I'm wearing the dress, meaning his robe, --

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- I can do whatever the hell I want in open court. And so, and I don't mean to be flippant, but you're running in the hearing. If there's evidence that you believe is inappropriate or improper, it doesn't take an objection by Larry Schmidt to mean that it can't come in. If you believe it to be inappropriate then the Chair, as the presiding body in this hearing, can certainly make that ruling and your rules of proper, rules of procedure say as much, that you can exclude and limit repetitive and immaterial testimony. That's exactly what it says in there.

CHAIR: I'm, I'm familiar with what the rules say.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I don't believe, I, I don't believe that, I'll say it this way. I don't believe this testimony is appropriate for this hearing --

CHAIR: I've already comm, I've already made comments --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- whether it's admissible --

CHAIR: Hold on. I've already made comments as to what I personally had thought and what the prior rulings have been. But in light of the issue as to the proffer, that's why we're at where we're at. If there's any, if there are other objections to the materials and testimony to follow, it is understood basically, number one, what you are, what you would object to because you've now stated for the record. But secondly, his proffer is already put in properly then for the record to be preserved for future use. That was the entire exercise.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right.

CHAIR: It was (inaudible) critique as to you can't put a proffer in without making attempts.

MR. SCHMIDT: Which is what you said, I believe.

CHAIR: Right, which he then went down the road. If there were objections made at that time, perhaps there would have been a different understanding. I actually don't think, some of this stuff is not going to be helpful, I would agree, as to the resolution, as to any matter within the Petition for Special Hearing.

MR. SCHMIDT: I don't think it's got anything to do with the resolution of the Petition for Special Exception.

CHAIR: It may speak to certain matters as to credibility of certain witnesses. I could be open to that argument, which as I understood, to some degree, what Mr. Holzer was trying to accomplish.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: So, --

MR. SCHMIDT: If David Marks is a liar and a thief, it doesn't matter, it doesn't bear on the issue as to whether the Petition for Special Exception should be granted.

CHAIR: I will not characterize Councilman Marks in any way, shape or form in that regard.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I'm not, I'm saying, but if that's the allegation --

MR. HOLZER: Well, I would object, I'm going to object to that.

CHAIR: Hold on, hold on, hold on.

MR. HOLZER: Come on.

CHAIR: We are, we now have an understanding of where we all are and why this is where we are at at this time.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: With that in mind, Mr. Holzer, do you have any further questions?

MR. HOLZER: There is one more area that I think he would have covered --

MR. MCCOMAS: Not to go back down the bunny hole here. The, but Exhibit 98, --

CHAIR: That was admitted.

MR. MCCOMAS: Admitted. Does that mean seventy-two is now admitted?

CHAIR: It's the same thing.

MR. MCCOMAS: It's i.d. only, it's only i.d. only at the moment.

CHAIR: Well, ninety-eight is admitted so the substance is already in so it doesn't make a difference. We'll leave the prior ruling alone so we're not disturbing the record in any more detail. But it is in the record.

MR. HOLZER: And it's in the record, Mr. McComas, it's in the record for purposes of a proffer. That's the difference between --

CHAIR: Yes, you said it far more eloquently and succinctly than I could have. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: I doubt that. I, you've, Mr. Chairman, you have expressed exactly. The only reason, if you'll recall, I didn't want to get into this but when that ruling was required that I try, --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- that's why I did it and, and --

CHAIR: And that's what was understood.

MR. HOLZER: I know. And I have, there's one more area that I could ask him a question about and then we're done. At least finish the proffer. I hope we're finished everything but --

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- the proffer. Mr. Clark, there is, in your, in my proffer, there was something about testimony of Mr. Ghimire and Mr. Brochin.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Who was, at that time, was a State Senator and he was running for County Executive. Within that context, be brief, --

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: -- and just explain what took place?

MR. CLARK: In, in, in his day five testimony, Mr. Ghimire asserted that Mr. Brochin approached a County employee in the performance of her duties and basically said, and, and I, the, the quote I have, he said to her, if I had a fundraiser at my house, I'm running for office right now, would you come to my house?

CHAIR: I'm, I recall the testimony.

MR. CLARK: Okay? So, that's the proffer.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and what's the significance of him doing that? As a result of --

MR. SCHMIDT: Of who, Mr. Brochin or Mr. Ghimire or the person who's having the fundraiser?

MR. HOLZER: Of anything that the witness has, has drawn a conclusion from that statement.

MR. CLARK: I don't know. All, all, all, alls I do know is that when, this was a County health inspector, she was responding to our request that she, she go out and insure that sanitation was, requirements were being met. And alls I know is she, she called me and said anything, anything related to this is going to have to go through somebody else's, I think it was Mueller's office.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: That's all I know.

MR. HOLZER: All right, thank you. Members of the Board, I believe in terms of the proffer, that's all that we need at this point and I have no further questions in regard to the proffer. Can I ask one or two last questions if he has anything else that he wanted to address that has not been addressed?

CHAIR: You may ask whatever question you feel appropriate at this time.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: And we'll see where that takes us.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. I hope it takes us to the end. Mr. Clark, you've testified for two, three days now. You've testified on behalf of yourself, your neighborhood and Mary insofar as the effect of this on, on your property and yourself. You have testified on behalf of the community association in terms of their objections. You testified in regard to the community association in regard to their possible request for conditions to be attached. You have acknowledged that your conditions, personally, would coincide with those conditions set forth in the, in the comm, community association. Is there anything else that you are here today to testify that has not been covered by, is it two or three days, I can't remember how many?

MR. SCHMIDT: Three.

MR. HOLZER: Three.

CHAIR: This, yes.

MR. CLARK: I think it might be worth five minutes to, to say, to, to describe how Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association got formed and --

CHAIR: Correct me if I'm wrong, did we not have that testimony yesterday?

MR. HOLZER: No, he didn't testify, he testified about what the, how the community association, what their by-laws, etcetera, were, but he didn't go into how it was formed.

CHAIR: I understand.

MR. HOLZER: And that was one of my questions that I was supposed to ask him.

CHAIR: I, I, I understand now. Okay. The difference --

MR. CLARK: Just, just, just history and background. The Greater Kingsville Association in, in the summer of 2017, hosted a couple community meetings. And it was in response to the neighbor awareness of, of events on the subject property. And what Greater Kingsville Association wanted to know is how disturbing it was to everybody and give the community a chance to come together. Now, I would point out that none, I, that I saw none of the Protest, none of the Petitioners' witnesses at those, at those meetings although they, they may, they would, I don't know if they would have been invited, you know. It was, they did a mass mailing, I don't know what they did. I don't know how I got there, okay?

At any rate, four or five of us decided that since this was in our locale, that we would be best to form our own action with the technical assistance and financial support of Greater Kingsville Civic Association, okay? So, we became an independent organization and we included members of their board on our board to do liaison. I've had some organizational work in my background.

And so, we got together in early September. I ran down and gave Mr. Holzer a retainer check and that started his involvement, September 2017, and we started to organize. We, by the end of January, we had, oh, well, or we decided, this, this goes to Ms. Dopkin's question, we decided that we were not going to handle funds. All funds would be sent directly to Mr. Holzer's office and put into --

MR. HOLZER: Escrow.

MR. CLARK: -- an escrow account, thank you, for this case. So, we, we handle absolutely no funds. And so, we didn't need to incorporate. Plus, and, and, and we didn't bother with a website. We're all fairly old school and tired of computers, you know. And we eventually wound up drawing a hundred and twenty landowners in the area. Those are people who own property in the area. There were several meetings where there was confusion about whether it was appropriate for Mr. Ghimire or Mr. Kotroco to attend. The decision was taken no, the opportunity, this is now an opposition group, there is no point in you being there.

There, there, there are, there, there was some fairly aggressive language used about not being, not being denied access to our meeting, okay? So, we, we had our meetings, we took our positions, we started to organized. We formed, we, we, we formed the board. We made --

CHAIR: Let me stop, let me stop you there, because now I think we're caught up to where the testimony was.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I think so.

CHAIR: So now we have why the group was formed.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: That's, and that was my only purpose for the question.

CHAIR: And, because now, like I said, because now we're caught up to what happened after formation --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- with respect to the rule eight papers and the positions taken by the association.

MR. CLARK: Well, --

MR. HOLZER: And I respectfully request that you not say anymore because the Board has, in effect, ruled, but they are accurate. So, enough is enough. As far as I'm concerned, that's the end (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: End of direct for Dr. Clark. Okay. I'm assuming you may have a question or two on cross examination?

MR. SCHMIDT: I might have just a question or two.

MS. DOPKIN: I have a question for Dr. --

CHAIR: Hold on, before we get to that.

MS. DOPKIN: Before we go to cross, I have one question. I was looking back to your November 1st testimony and you gave us a lot of background about yourself.

MR. CLARK: Yes, ma'am.

MS. DOPKIN: And your education, but I think I missed what you did professionally after school.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: Just to fill in the gap here.

MR. CLARK: No, and, and I worked for a U.S.A. I.D. program out of Hopkins for a couple years, then I worked at, I was building a career. Then I moved to the Maryland State Department of Education where I did a couple, where I did a, actually it was a very important study, on the question of whether or not special ed students are stigmatized by being in special ed. And it turned out the, the results were no different than their other cohorts, I won't go into that with details but it shut down Bennett. And from there, I went to Harford Community College where, among other things, I served on the Affirmative Action Committee. And then --

MS. DOPKIN: Were you teaching? Were you teaching?

MR. CLARK: I, I, I was the Director of Institutional Planning.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: And yeah, I, I did teach, but the, and then I went, I had an opportunity to become involved with a $5 million grant to look at the process of undergraduate medical education, which is the four years of medical school. During the, during the course of that, that was to be my coming out party and during the course of that, the principal investigator had the nerve to die of a drop dead heart attack. A lot of the other vice presidents were very scared about what Lou and I were doing and so, and so I was told to sit in my office and read the newspaper until they figured out what to do with me. At which point, they gave me a non-disclosure agreement to sign --

CHAIR: Hold on, I feel the need to jump in at this point.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: I hope, if, if that non-disclosure agreement is in place, anything you just discussed does not --

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, no, no, no, no, it doesn't.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It doesn't. What --

MS. DOPKIN: This is Harford Community College?

MR. CLARK: No, no, this is for the Association of American Medical Colleges, I'm sorry.

MS. DOPKIN: Oh.

MR. CLARK: It, it, it involved the, the data that Lou and I had acquired.

CHAIR: That was the non-disclosure?

MR. CLARK: Right, that was the non-disclosure.

CHAIR: The data.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Okay and so, now I did publish, as, as a result of, in there and it's published, for example, in 1992, medical schools, U.S. medical schools, were drip, were dipping into their third and fourth time appliers to fill seats, okay? That was the kind of thing Lou and I were looking at.

MS. DOPKIN: Who is Lou?

MR. CLARK: Lou Kettle, he was my vice president.

CHAIR: The one who dropped dead of a heart attack?

MR. CLARK: He was the principal investigator, yeah. And so, and so they, they were fairly nerv, you know, other vice presidents were fairly nervous about what we were doing so when he died, they took the opportunity to clean out his office, had me read a newspaper, I signed a non-disclosure agreement, they, they paid up my retirement and because I was also in the middle of all those health problems that were going on at the time, I just said to heck with it, you know. And I signed a non-disclosure and I took the money and went on from there.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

CHAIR: Anything further then?

MR. HOLZER: Absolutely not.

CHAIR: All right. So, I, again, I understand there will be cross examination of this witness. It is almost 2:00. Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir?

CHAIR: How long would you like for lunch?

MR. SCHMIDT: Forty-five minutes.

CHAIR: I'm, because I'm trying to give you the benefit of the doubt to also help with whatever you need to organize for purposes of the cross examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: Without trying to stretch our schedule boundaries as best as possible.

MR. SCHMIDT: Forty-five minutes is fine with me if that's okay with, --

CHAIR: Okay. So, --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- you know, I'll defer to you.

CHAIR: For, forty-five minutes would be, hold on. Twenty of three?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Do I have that correct?

MR. SCHMIDT: That's, that's great. That's fine, thank you.

CHAIR: Is my math, does that add up?

MR. HOLZER: I, it's close enough for me.

MR. MCCOMAS: That's fine. You're rounding, you're rounding, that's all right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: You're rounding up.

CHAIR: So, all right. So, we'll do twenty of three we'll be back.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, sir.

MR. CLARK: Ms. Dopkin, do I have to eat by myself?

MS. DOPKIN: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: You're on cross examination, so you can't talk about your testimony.

MR. CLARK: So, I have to eat by myself?

MS. DOPKIN: You're still on the stand, yes.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, okay. Thank you.

MS. DOPKIN: And you're still under oath.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 01:52:06 PM)

(ON RECORD – 02:44:28 PM)

CHAIR: Everyone please double check your phones to make sure that they are off. Or any device for that matter.

MS. DOPKIN: We're on the record.

CHAIR: We're back on the record. Everyone is gesturing towards one another. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: No, I, that's okay. I believe, Mr. Schmidt and I have talked about what he's going to do. He's going to cross for a while, I don't know how long. He said it may not be that long. At 4:00, Mr. Jakubiak would have been my next witness. Unfortunately, he has to leave by 4:00. He --

CHAIR: I'll save you, I'll save you because it makes no sense to me to start Mr. Jakubiak at 4:00.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. He has to, he's an, he's the attorney for the Town of Centreville Planning Commission and they have a meeting.

MR. SCHMIDT: The planner.

CHAIR: Yes, exactly.

MR. HOLZER: A planner.

CHAIR: We know he's not an attorney, but I understood from his prior testimony he is a planner.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, right. And he has a prior commitment that he has to be in Centreville --

CHAIR: No, again, I see no reason to start him at 4:00.

MR. HOLZER: I will say this so that the Board has some comfort. I will put him on at the very beginning of February 5th, unless you choose to address some of these other issues that could, maybe could wait and then when he's finished, the only other possible witness that I have is someone from Kingsville to authenticate the, the letter that has just been marked for i.d. at this point.

CHAIR: That relate --

MR. HOLZER: That relates to their position.

CHAIR: Right. Well, if I could offer a suggestion to try to accelerate that.

MR. HOLZER: Uh huh.

CHAIR: If you come up with an affidavit or stipulation as to what may be said, perhaps you can come to an agreement with Mr. Schmidt on that, maybe you can't. But even then, that witness will be very brief.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, it'll, I was going to say, it'll be about two, two or three minutes at most.

CHAIR: Okay. As it relates to exhibits that you would use in connection with Mr. Jakubiak, to the extent that they are not in the record, to whatever you would feel comfortable sharing in advance.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: For example, his c.v. If you get agreement with Mr. Schmidt as to those things, we can blow past --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll stipulate he's an expert planner.

MR. HOLZER: Because he's used him.

MR. SCHMIDT: I've used him before.

CHAIR: Yes. Before we put that affirmatively, what we're doing with that, but I mean, I'm just giving an example as to --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- documents that you feel comfortable sharing at this point, perhaps to help streamline again that process.

MR. HOLZER: No, no problem. When I get the stuff from him on the other --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- thing that he has to deliver --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- I'll also try to get together whatever possible I can share with --

CHAIR: Yes, and I figured that there would be some agreement as to those matters --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- in advance. And lastly, to pick up on the Motion aspect of it, it would be my inclination or preference to resolve that at the top of the morning on the 5th, just to get it out of the way. And then, because there may be things that fall out from there that you're going to, or you're going to or however this plays out, you know, cause some adjustments for perhaps some people you would want present. Sorry, Ms. Dopkin?

MS. DOPKIN: Exhibit 96, the transcript excerpt.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, I was just going to ask you, did they ever pull the transcript?

CHAIR: Ah. Going back to the issue as to Exhibit 96, the tran, the ALJ transcript as well.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

CHAIR: Has that been shared with Mr. Schmidt yet?

MR. HOLZER: No, we haven't, haven't had time.

CHAIR: It, it's okay if it has not happened.

MR. HOLZER: No, it has not.

CHAIR: I, I'm just asking if it has happened.

MR. HOLZER: I, we certainly will do that by the end of the week when --

MR. SCHMIDT: They can send me a copy or --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- give me an original and I'll copy it and return it, whatever they want to do.

CHAIR: Yeah, nobody's rights will be waived as to that particular issue as well.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: In conn, in connection also as we set forth earlier, as to the Motion on Exhibit 34.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Chairman, if I could lend experience of forty-five years --

CHAIR: Yeah, please.

MR. HOLZER: I think, respectfully submit --

CHAIR: It's okay.

MR. HOLZER: That putting Mr. Jakubiak on first, letting him testify, letting him get cross examined, is going to be done, I think not well before lunch time, but maybe by 11:00, 11, whatever. And then go into the secret letter discussion because, frankly, that could be very, I don't want to say explosive but it could get us involved in all sorts of things.

CHAIR: I, I'm sorry if I was not clear. It was my, it would be my inclination, it is by no means set in stone.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And it could very well be that the, the response and reply or whatever that comes forward, makes it apparent that that is an impossibility and it would be far more efficient to have Mr. Jakubiak on first.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: So, I'm, if it's something that was, something that really did not take a long time, that's the reason why I say that. If it's apparent that it will not, it will take longer, obviously I would, I, I would probably more defer to that position.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I just think it's potentially more explosive, if that's an appropriate word --

CHAIR: Understood, okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- to use.

CHAIR: No problem. We'll, --

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: -- we'll deal with it, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: But Mr. Jakubiak has been sitting here, if he --

CHAIR: He is excused at your will.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Jakubiak, you're available to go, you're aware of the fifth, you're aware of, call me tomorrow.

CHAIR: We are, we are starting at 9:00 on the 5th.

VOICE: I'll be here, thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Jakubiak, before you leave, and I noticed this from my other case in which you were involved, I don't have a copy of your resume.

VOICE: Would you like a copy now?

MR. SCHMIDT: Could you send, could you e-mail it to me? Mr. Holzer, I need it for the other case.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

VOICE: There's a copy right there on the desk.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

MR. HOLZER: Glad to be of service in another case.

CHAIR: I understand.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

CHAIR: All right. So, now we have all those preliminary matters aside --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

CHAIR: -- for the afternoon?

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: We can, Mr. Schmidt, I'm assuming you're ready for cross examination of Mr., excuse me, Dr. Clark?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Mr. Clark, let me ask you, and let me start by asking you, do you go by Dr. Clark or Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: I actually go by Dewey, just call me Dewey.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I, the formality would require me to use your last name, but are you a Ph.D.?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I am.

MR. SCHMIDT: You are. Do you go by Dr. Clark or do you prefer Mr. Clark, you tell me?

MR. CLARK: I prefer Mr. Clark.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, that's fine, okay. I'll try not to jump around too much but, and I'll try to be as brief as I can. You introduced during the course of your direct examination exhibit number seventy-eight, which is the decision that Mr. Kotroco issued in the matter related to the Grace Community Church.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: And just so that we're clear, how far is the Grace Community Church from the subject property?

MR. CLARK: As the crow flies?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. CLARK: Well, it's not to where Mr. Clarke's property was, it's about, so if he was two miles, mile and a half?

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Would you describe it as being in Kingsville?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Would you describe it as being in the neighborhood, your neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: I would describe it as being in my locale.

MR. SCHMIDT: In your locale. How about your neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. What's your neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: My, my neighborhood community is, and this is going to sound very --

CHAIR: Just answer the question.

MR. CLARK: -- yeah, yeah, you know, I, I am emotionally focused from say Mount Vista down to, down, down into the park.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Please specify.

MR. CLARK: Gunpowder Falls Park, down Harford Road.

To me, that, that's, that's where I spend most of, most of my time when I'm at home, that's where, that's where I look, that's, all that stuff.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Mount Vista Road to Gun, Gunpowder Falls Park.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, that's what you describe as your neighborhood? But you --

MR. CLARK: I live, yeah, but, go ahead --

MR. SCHMIDT: But you would describe the Grace Church as being within the, I think you used the word locale?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Are you familiar with the Grace Church property?

MR. CLARK: No, not personally.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have you ever been there?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know, if you know, do you know if the, according to Mr. Kotroco's decision, the property is about 16.1 acres of land, is that correct to the best of your knowledge?

MR. CLARK: Do I need to --

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I just, if you know or does that sound correct based on your knowledge of it? Does that sound about --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yes, that sounds correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, about half the size of the subject property?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes?

MR. HOLZER: Do you want the document --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, why, why don't you --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I'm sorry, yeah.

MR. CLARK: -- why, why don't you? Thank you.

CHAIR: Would it be fair to say the information you have as to its size comes from that exhibit?

MR. CLARK: Correct, yes, sir. Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, Exhibit 78.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'm looking --

MR. CLARK: Seventy, yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, just to be fair to you, on page one of the decision, about the middle of the first paragraph, it indicates it's 16.1 acres.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: And it indicates that, at least at the time, was zoned RC-5.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know if that zoning has changed?

MR. CLARK: No, I, I believe it has not --

MR. SCHMIDT: You, you don't know? It has not?

MR. CLARK: I believe it has not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. It also indicates on the decision, within the decision, on page twelve, it's sort of as a result, and I'm looking at the second full paragraph on page twelve.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: After much, quote, after much opposition from the surrounding community, and it goes on to say that the project was redesigned so it was proposed to be a forty-seven thousand two hundred and fifty-seven square foot building. Is that, based on your knowledge, does that sound about right? Is that what actually was built, if you know?

MR. CLARK: I do not know.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't know. Okay. It indicates on the property as, or in the decision as well, that it is such size as to handle a five hundred seat sanctuary. And that's actually, you were talking about the, the restrictions and I'd just draw your attention to page twenty-four. I think you talked about some of those. Restriction number three indicates that the sanctuary will be no more five hundred seats.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: You see that?

MR. CLARK: I see it.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is that what, in fact, is that, is the property still in compliance with that, if you know?

Within that limitation?

MR. CLARK: Seeing as how Kingsville is the monitoring organization, I would assume yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and there's also, as part of that, a fellowship hall and a gymnasium? I'm looking at restriction number four?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and also in Petitioner's exhibit number seven, they were prop, I'm sorry, not seven, --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: In restriction number seven, I'm sorry, restriction number seven, it indicates that, as I, as I read it, that there were two hundred and forty-four parking spaces that were proposed, macadem parking spaces, or paved parking spaces it calls them, for this property, is that right?

MR. CLARK: I think that's what it was reduced to, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, it was reduced to that number.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Two forty-four. And then also, if you go down within seven as well, that restriction number seven, it further provides that the, about five lines, six lines from the bottom of that restriction, the owner/developer shall be permitted to use grassy open areas of the subject property for overflow parking, correct?

MR. CLARK: But there's a condition on that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, only during certain holidays, the, the high --

MR. CLARK: For, for, for two holidays, for two holidays.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, Christmas and Easter holidays.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, two holidays.

MR. SCHMIDT: This is, this is obviously a Christian church.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, but it's two days.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay. So, needless to say, this, this church, the Grace Church is significantly larger than, than the Nepali conversion of the building, the existing building?

MR. CLARK: To the State.

MR. SCHMIDT: Pardon me?

MR. CLARK: To the State.

MR. SCHMIDT: To the State, yes, sir. And that, okay. Were there, is there any proposal under the current Petition that you're aware of to enlarge or increase the footprint of the existing building on the, on the Bonaparte property, on the subject property?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. Now, Mr. Clark, in, I think the last question that you were asked during your cross examination was about some of the jobs that you have done and your occupation --

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- since your graduation from school and the completion of your education. And it sounds to me, is it fair to say, that many of those have involved the field of education?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and, and you're, I guess I would call it vocation, as opposed to occupation, is, at least one of them, is that you're a, you described it as quote, a naturalist, correct?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. That's not, as I understand it, that's not a paid position?

MR. CLARK: No, it is not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It's a volunteer position with the State.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you are not a civil engineer?

MR. CLARK: I am not.

MR. SCHMIDT: You are not a surveyor?

MR. CLARK: I am not.

MR. SCHMIDT: You are not a sanitarian?

MR. CLARK: I am not.

MR. SCHMIDT: You have no credentials, sir, that would allow you to prepare plans or render opinions on the adequacy of say storm water management plans?

MR. CLARK: No, I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Nor could you prepare or submit to Baltimore County for approval plans that might be required for the design or development of a septic system?

MR. CLARK: I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Nor the providing of well water or the drilling of a well?

MR. CLARK: I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, all of your opinions about any potential environmental damage are rendered as a layman and not as an ex, matter with expertise as either an engineer, surveyor, sanitarian or any of those types of occupations?

MR. CLARK: Just as a trained naturalist.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes. Does a naturalist have to be licensed by the State of Maryland?

MR. CLARK: The, the program is a certified master naturalist by the State. You take a, you go through a course and you serve an apprenticeship. The course is down at the Department of Natural Resources and it is taught by the staff at the Wildlife (inaudible) Services. You address a number of issues and my specific area of interest in that has been forest health and as an, I, I, invasive species. Invasive species is not the end all and be all of forest health, forest health is bigger than that, but that's a big part of where I spend my time.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. But you don't have any kind of seal as a naturalist, where you would seal plans? When I say seal --

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, no, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Insofar as, now, there is forest on the subject property, correct?

MR. CLARK: That's a stretch.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't believe it's a forest?

MR. CLARK: No, there, there are woods.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: A lot of them are, what we would term weed, weedy trees.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: There are a couple oaks. And there is a fair bit of ailanthus.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, there's no new --

CHAIR: What was that word you used about the trees, I'm sorry?

MR. CLARK: Oh, scrubby trees, weedy trees, weedy trees, weedy trees, you know, like black gum and, and --

CHAIR: Could you say that word again?

MR. CLARK: Weedy, W-E-E-D --

CHAIR: As in weed?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay. Sorry.

MR. CLARK: Trees that are native but are undesirable.

CHAIR: Understood. I just had not heard that before and I didn't know what that meant.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. There's no new building proposed? When I say building, unlike for example the Grace case, or other cases, where a church may be proposed and a, a structure is going to be built. You've been here for all the days of the testimony, you're aware, sir, are you not, that there's no building proposed here?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that there's no, there will be no loss of trees but for what might be required to expand the driveway, I think we heard testimony about that as well.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You, you also mentioned that this property has some historic designation.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and what is that?

MR. CLARK: It falls within the National Historic District of Long Green Valley.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know what the boundaries of that district are?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, they, they, Mount Vista Road, it intentionally, it looks like it was intentionally drawn around the property, the, the subject property.

CHAIR: Mount Vista Road was?

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, the historic district boundaries.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, okay.

MR. CLARK: All right? The meets and bounds. And then it goes down the center of Harford Road to the park and then it extends over into Glen Arm and Baldwin.

MR. SCHMIDT: How big is it, if you, if you know, in terms of the square miles or acres? If you know. If you don't know, you don't know. That's fine.

MR. CLARK: We, yeah, we, we do have the, the document was provided in evidence, but --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: Do you remember what exhibit? We can find it.

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Are there any limitations which would relate to the Petitioner's plans by virtue of the designation of within a historic district? In other words, does it say by virtue of being within the Long Green Historic District you can't have churches or you can't have Nepalese churches or you can't convert houses to churches or any similar restrictions that you're aware of?

MR. CLARK: I'm not sure of the underlying purpose of the question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, the purpose of the question is you've indicated during direct examination that the property is within Long Green Valley Historic District.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: And there is a suggestion or an inference that that somehow bears on whether this Board should grant the special exception.

MR. CLARK: I am just bringing it to the Board's attention.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, my question is, if you know, sir, and I assume you've researched this, you've done a lot of research on this project, is there any limitation or restriction or other language or requirement by virtue of this designation that would bear on this Board's ability to grant this special exception? In other words, they, the designation says you can't have Nepalese churches within the district, I know that's a ridiculous example, but I'm just trying to give you an example. Is there anything like that?

MR. CLARK: I, I don't understand why we keep going back to Nepalese.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, is there any restriction of any type or nature as it relates to the operation of a place of worship within the Long Green Valley District?

MR. CLARK: Not that I am aware of.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, being, being in the district, doesn't mean that this church can, property cannot be used for religious purposes?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: And indeed --

MR. CLARK: Or I don't, I don't believe so. I don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, you're the one who indicated that you thought it was important for the Board to understand that was in an historic district. And I'm just trying to figure out why that is if it doesn't matter whether it's in a historic district.

MR. CLARK: Well, it was of interest because Mr. Motsco did, in his endorsement, said it does not lie within any national historic districts. So, I presume there is a reason why that is required on the endorsement.

MR. SCHMIDT: What's the endorsement?

MR. CLARK: The endorsement on the plans that he submitted to the County in support of this application.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Are any other historic designations or districts affixed to this property? Not

Federal, but State or local, if you know?

MR. CLARK: The, the mile marker that was introduced.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and what is that?

MR. CLARK: That's a, that's an MHT, Maryland Historic Trust, and it's the mile marker that was introduced yesterday and has been introduced before.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, that marker, that, that actual, the physical marker that we have photographs of, that is what a historic structure, or historic object, is that what you're saying?

MR. CLARK: I, I, I think, I, I, well, in trail work, it's called a structure, anything that is man-made is a structure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. How big is it?

MR. CLARK: It's about, above ground, it's about five feet.

MR. SCHMIDT: Five feet square?

MR. CLARK: No, tall.

MR. SCHMIDT: Tall? Five feet tall, okay.

MR. CLARK: It's, it's a, it's white, I assume it's granite or marble, whatever they were using in the day, it's basically a pylon. The pylon goes down, generally pylons, you plant them as much down as you should, as you have exposed.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you indicated that it's design, it's a designated mile marker by the Maryland Historic

Trust?

MR. CLARK: It's designated by them in, as, as a, it's on their inventory for the Maryland Historic Trust.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and I'd ask you the same thing, is by virtue of being on the Maryland Historic Trust, or by virtue of the fact that this pylon or marker is on the MHT designation, does that in any way restrict or limit the development of this property as a church?

MR. CLARK: My understanding is that there can be no excavation without MHT, MHT approval within six hundred feet of that monument. And that impacts any kind of entrance made, entrance changes made to the property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and where is that authority?

MR. CLARK: That's, that's in the, that, that's in the Maryland Historic Trust. That's in the, yeah. If you're asking me to cite code and verse, no, I can't.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't know, okay. How about any local designation? Is there any local historic designation of anything on the property?

MR. CLARK: I'll leave, you know, a lot of these questions I don't know. Mr. Jakubiak will address them, I'm sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, very well. Thank you. Now, you talked a little bit about your, I guess, advocations, including being a naturalist, which I understand is a, is a volunteer position, correct?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: What is it, Mr., Mr. Clark, that you do for a living or are you employed?

MR. CLARK: I'm a watchmaker.

MR. SCHMIDT: And are you self-employed or do you work for someone else?

MR. CLARK: Self, self-employed.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and where is your business located?

MR. CLARK: It's located in my home, which is a, it's a permitted activity in an RC-2 zone and I have my business license.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and your property is zoned RC-2, is it not?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and how is your business loc, well, let me strike that. If you know, do you know what the RC-2 zone is, what type of zone it is?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: What is it?

MR. CLARK: It is a rural, it is a density designation and it's one lot, one, one house on two acres.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, if you have six acres, you can have three houses in the RC-2 zone?

MR. CLARK: No, because they can't be subdivided anymore, I believe. I, I'm not a zoning expert. I've already, I've already test, I've already been qualified as not a zoning --

CHAIR: Dr. Clark, just answer the question and if you can't answer the question, I don't know is a perfectly fine answer.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, you've rendered a number of opinions about the spirit and intent of the subject use and whether it is compatible with the spirit and intent of the zoning regulations, which is one of the criteria in 502.1. And since you've rendered those opinions, I am trying to explore the depth of your knowledge as it relates to the County zoning regulations.

MR. CLARK: I believe you already established that I am a lay witness.

CHAIR: Hold on, let me make this easy. Don't have an argument back and forth --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: Please just answer his question directly again.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: This will make things go smoother and faster.

MR. CLARK: You promise?

CHAIR: Yeah, well, I, that would be my expectation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Your, you've indicated that the RC-2 zone allows one house for every two acres of land.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: There, therefore, just by way of an example, if one owned ten acres of RC-2 land, one would be able to create five building lots, is that correct? Just on the --

MR. CLARK: I have --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- mathematical formula?

CHAIR: Let him finish, please.

MR. CLARK: Okay, sorry.

CHAIR: And sorry, Mr. Schmidt, do jump in there but before he did, if you would like to restate your question just so it's clear for the record or you think you're fine.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I'm happy to restate it. Not trying to trick you, Mr. Clark.

MR. CLARK: No, I know.

MR. SCHMIDT: You indicated, I believe, that your, your opinion is that the RC-2 zone, which is the zone of your property, allows utilization of that zone at a ratio of one house for every two acres or the, every, every house has to be on a lot that is a minimum of two acres, is that right?

MR. CLARK: I misstated that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Unless, thank you for the opportunity.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. CLARK: One, one dwelling on the property that is, that, that is in an RC-2 zone, that, that is zoned RC-2, that is my understanding.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry, can you say that again?

MR. CLARK: Well, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. One dwelling on a property that is zoned RC-2.

MR. SCHMIDT: Does, does size have anything to do with it, lot size, the acreage of the lot?

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, I misspoke. I was not focusing.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, I'm not trying to be difficult and I want to move on because it's, it doesn't relate to the subject property as much as I'm just trying to find your understanding of the zoning regulations upon which you, you provided lay opinion --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- that you understand the zoning regulations and so on and so forth. So, --

MR. CLARK: Can, can I just tell you that basically is my, my, my understanding is not a heck of a lot more than of a typical homeowner in the County.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, I would beg to differ with

Mr. Clark. After two and a half days of listening to you about the zoning regulations, I would suspect you may know more than the typical homeowner but we're not going to go there.

MR. CLARK: All right, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: If I can mark this as the next exhibit?

MR. MCCOMAS: Thirty-five.

CHAIR: Thirty-five, Petitioner thirty-five.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Thank you, Mr. McComas, and I'll hand up three copies for the Board. And Mr. Clark, I'm showing you just a printout from a, the public domain --

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Maryland business address, which identifies down at the bottom of the first page as a business, the business known as Historic Timekeepers, Inc.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is that your business?

MR. CLARK: That is my business.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that indicates that the principal office of Historic Timekeepers, Inc. is it 12150 Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and how long have you been in business at your property 125, I'm sorry, 1, 12150 Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: Since '93, '94.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and if I could mark as, as the next exhibit --

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, do you want to move for admission?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, I would offer Exhibit 35 and it's only to, I think, confirm what Mr. Clark has said, that his business is located at his home.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Contrary to my other counsel, I have no objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Well, thank you, sir. It will, it will be admitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: Keep it going, Mr. Holzer. I would give to the Board, I'll ask that they mark as exhibit, Petitioner's --

CHAIR: Thirty-six.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Exhibit 36, this is a, I think this was actually taken, maybe Mr. Clark, from your web page, does that sound right?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and I assume, I offer it because I assume, and as a matter of fact, on page, and it might be, well, I guess it's page four or five and six, maybe the famous microscope that you were looking at that plan with, I'm not sure.

MR. CLARK: Oh, yeah, yeah, okay. Yeah, yeah, yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay? But in any event, it in, indicates that I think one of the things that you do in addition, I suspect, to watch repair is that you sell all types of equipment and other information related to your business? In other words, it says watchmake, watchmaker, microscopes, microscopes for sale and so on and so forth, is that accurate? Does this accurately describe, at least, that part of your business?

MR. CLARK: Not quite. It's all mail order.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

MR. CLARK: In, in, including, including my customer base.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you mail these things to people? People don't come to the house, I'm assuming?

MR. CLARK: They do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You keep these, keep products, I assume, since you have pictures of them and all, you keep the products at your house but then they would be mailed to somebody who would buy them, is that the way it works?

MR. CLARK: Yes, and it's, and for example, with microscopes, as you can see from the sold, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. CLARK: -- it's maybe one or two at a, at a time.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It's not, it's not a massive inventory of stuff.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. But, and again, you don't have folks coming to the house to buy pro, buy this, it's mailed from your property to them?

MR. CLARK: If you, if you paid attention closely to my website --

MR. SCHMIDT: Um hm.

MR. CLARK: -- you will note that I do not have an address on it, I only have a phone number.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: That's for security reasons.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. If I would want to get my watch fixed, could I come to your house, drop it off --

MR. CLARK: No, no, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: I would mail it to you?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and just, I would offer that as thirty-six.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: No objection.

CHAIR: So admitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: This is again, I think this is all taken from Mr. Clark's website. I'll off, mark thirty-seven, this is the last one.

CHAIR: Do you, Mr. Schmidt, do you have copies for Mr. McComas, in addition, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Do you need it, I gave three, but I'll give you another one as well.

CHAIR: It would be better because obviously when considering this case, each Board member would like to review the exhibits.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: I mean, that would be the preferred practice.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

MR. CLARK: This is the free advertising.

MR. SCHMIDT: It's a very nice website.

MR. CLARK: Well, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. McComas, I'll approach and I, I think these are the three that I've given you and I have an extra copy as well.

MR. MCCOMAS: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: Certainly. So, okay. So, Mr. Clark, I assume these documents that I've introduced, and I would offer the, thirty-seven?

MR. MCCOMAS: It's thirty-seven.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thirty-seven as well.

CHAIR: And I'm sorry, just to be clear, what is thirty-seven?

MR. SCHMIDT: It's another page from Mr. Clark's website, generally describing some of the services and particularly, some of the goods that can be purchased as he indicated by mail that would be sent from his business as opposed to people coming there.

CHAIR: Understood. Mr. Holzer?

MR. CLARK: And were available.

MR. HOLZER: I, I would just like to know what the purpose of this is, other than to introduce the fact that he does some activity out of his house. What, what's the purpose of these three documents?

CHAIR: Hold, hold on. So, you would object to the document as for relevance?

MR. HOLZER: I don't, I don't want to object to the document. If it, if there is a stated purpose why he's introducing it. I, I, I mean, the witness has already, honestly, answered the first two. I'm just curious as to where we're going with this.

CHAIR: Okay. But as to this, as to this particular exhibit, are you objecting, awaiting a response?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay, fair enough. Mr. Schmidt, what is your response?

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure. There, the purpose is twofold. One is I think the character of the local, of, of the locale and of the neighborhood is certainly at issue. Mr. Clark testified on direct examination that the area is dominated by farms and I think dwellings. In fact, the Clark property is a business. I do recognize that Mr. Clark lives there but, in fact, is a business. So, I think an understanding of the nature of the locale and what's going on in the locale certainly would be important to the Board. That the Board should note what's, what the type of, of activities that are occurring on the lots.

The second reason is, I think from a, we heard an awful lot about credibility and voracity and things like that, and one, one would think it would be important that a witness who is testifying that this church should only operate and should be in strict compliance with the zoning regulations, would he him, he himself, his own property should be compliant with the zoning regulations.

CHAIR: Well, on the first, on the first grounds so offered, it'll be received and admitted. I'm not going to comment on the second set of grounds offered.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I haven't asked all the questions about that yet.

CHAIR: Understood. And obviously, it'll be given whatever weight this is due with this case.

MR. HOLZER: I, I just wanted to say the, obviously, in regard to all three documents, there are no customers coming

there --

CHAIR: It, it's already established in the record.

MR. HOLZER: It's all established, so.

CHAIR: All that.

MR. HOLZER: And, and there has been no showing of any zoning violations by the County.

CHAIR: We're, I would agree that the record at present doesn't show anything to the contrary.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Although, I will note that Dr. Clark has testified, in fact, to the contrary, that his house is in compliance with zoning.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Which leads me to my next question, actually. Thank you, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, you indicated that your, you believe your business, I believe, on your property to be permitted under the County zoning regulation.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: If I can, what's the basis of your belief?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. And I'm looking for my resource holder, because I anticipated this line --

CHAIR: Your?

MR. CLARK: My resource folder, because I anticipated this question.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, what is your --

MR. CLARK: Resource folder.

CHAIR: What is that?

MR. CLARK: Just some documents in, in, in anticipation of this kind of questioning.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay? You will find under permitted activities in RC-2 in the zoning code an explanation of the kinds of small businesses that are allowed in an RC-2 zone.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And mechanics and workshops are part of, are, are among them.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are you referring to the use that is known in the zoning regulations and designated as a home occupation? If you know?

MR. CLARK: No, I don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't, you don't, --

MR. CLARK: I wish, I wish I could put my hands on the document. I did anticipate this. I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Dr. Clark, if you can't find it at the present moment, it's fine. At a break, you can certainly search for it and if it, if it becomes a matter that needs to be explored further by Mr. Schmidt, I'm sure he will --

MR. CLARK: Okay, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay, all right. So, just, and I'll perhaps move on. But you do not believe you are a quote, home occupation, end of quote, under the zoning regulations? You believe you're some other use?

MR. CLARK: I don't know what that means.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, I can tell you, a, a home occupation is a use that's conducted entirely which, within a dwelling, which is incidental to the main use of the building for dwelling purposes and doesn't have any exterior evidence other than a permitted sign, which would indicate that the building is being utilized for any purpose other than a dwelling.

MR. CLARK: Okay. That fits me.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and then which goes on to say, there cannot be within the dwelling any commodity which is kept for sale on the premises, which would not fit you because you've just testified, Mr. Clark, that you, in fact, sell commodities which are stored within your house, as I under, heard your testimony by mail order.

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: The question is it's not on the premises.

CHAIR: Thank you. Sorry, --

MR. HOLZER: He read the code, which says for sale, materials for sale on the premises.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. HOLZER: They are not sold on the premises based on the testimony, they are mail ordered, both receiving and sending.

CHAIR: If I may, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: I would say that this witness does not know what the definition is and how it's interpreted --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll move on.

CHAIR: That would be a matter for any argument down the line to the extent it's necessary.

MR. SCHMIDT: I will move on.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just a couple other questions, if I can, Mr. Clark. How many employees do you have in your business?

MR. CLARK: Just me.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you do, do you have, other than the equipment that you have, that you sell from the property, the commodities, the things that you sell, which you've previously described, do you have any other mechanical equipment on the property? Lathes, ---

MR. CLARK: Yeah, in my shop.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, --

CHAIR: Again, sir, please don't jump on top of Mr. Schmidt's question.

MR. CLARK: Okay, (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. What, and can you describe what that equipment is?

MR. CLARK: They are watchmaker lathes, they are instruments for calibrating watches, they are parts washers, I do have a small floor mill and a medium size, the designation would be an eight inch toolmakers lathe.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. Is that it in terms of equipment?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, do you have something for me to respond to?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir, just, just if you --

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- have given us an exhaustive list.

MR. CLARK: Do, do, do you want all my little screwdrivers and tweezers and --

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir. No, sir, that's fine.

CHAIR: And again, as best as you can answer the question, please do.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: But you can't fire back questions to Mr.

Schmidt.

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Clark.

MR. CLARK: I mean, I've got, I've got drawers full of tools, yeah.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: And obviously, that, the equipment you've described is used in connection with the business?

MR. CLARK: Yes, it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Mr. Clark, do you know Robin Clark who works for the Code Enforcement Division of Baltimore County?

MR. CLARK: No, I don't, as a matter of fact.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. She is not related to you to the best of your knowledge?

MR. CLARK: No, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Now, Mr. Clark, you've, you indicated that you have never been on the subject property.

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Have you ever been invited to come to the subject property by, by anyone on behalf of the Petitioner? Who has asked you to come to any of the fundraising events or just to come to the property to see what the Petitioners are proposing and what they're doing?

MR. CLARK: Early on in the process --

MR. SCHMIDT: Uh huh.

MR. CLARK: -- right after the ALJ hearing, Mr. Ghimire and I decided that we would try and keep the doors of communication open. And that was during the period in which we were also had to file the appeal. In that period, I, I agreed to come up to the property. There was an incident where he attributed words to me on, on the Nextdoor site that were not mine and I asked him to correct that. And being in business, I take trust very, very seriously and once people, I, I take people at face value until I find I can't. And when Mr. Ghimire did that, and it was, also an incident at the time where, this was also the time period where they were posting that, the Protestants, apparently the Protestants --

CHAIR: Petitioner?

MR. CLARK: Petitioners, thank you. The Petition, the apparent, apparently the Petitioners were posting en masse using the property as their address for Nextdoor. That was a violation of terms of use. Someone, not me, reported that as a, as a violation and I talked to the moderator about this. Her name is Izzy Franzon, and, and, Ibby, I can't remember her last name. But, she told me somebody had pulled them down. Mr. Ghimire e-mailed me and asked me what I knew, you know, what, what I knew. I actually went to Nextdoor and posted whoever, and this is before we understood fully what happened, whoever pulled all those posts down, that is incorrect. And should not have happened. So, during that time, Mr. Ghimire had also attributed words to me. I had gone out on a limb for him and I said, you know, Kris, there, there, Mr. Ghimire, there, there's no reason for me to come up there.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is that the only time you were invited to the property, that one occasion by Mr. Ghimire?

MR. CLARK: Other than an open invitation on, in, in February, they issued to the community for an open house.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you were invited once by Mr. Ghimire to come to the property before Mr. Ghimire and for the reasons that you've described, you declined. You were also as part of the general community invited to an open house that the Petitioner was having to reach out to its neighbors and you declined that as well?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did you ever receive a, an additional invitation to come to the property from Mr. Kotroco? Do you recall receiving an e-mail from Mr. Kotroco inviting you to come up to the property?

MR. CLARK: I, I, I don't, there were several invitations from Mr. Kotroco and --

MR. SCHMIDT: To come to the property?

MR. CLARK: Well, I, I, I, I don't, you're, I, I recall, I just recall several invitations from him to meet with people like Mr. Marks and, and Senator Brochin. They, they, and they wanted me to appear without counsel and all, you know, so I, I don't know. It, it, it all blurs together.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Was that, were those extended to you by e-mail to Mr., or via an e-mail from Mr. Kotroco? If you recall?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, oh, yeah, yeah, I think, I think we have the e-mails.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I would, I would, I would have cc'd Carroll on, Mr. Holzer on them.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, the, the, the e-mail that Mr. Kotroco sent to you, and just for your reference, on January 22nd of 2018 at 9:53 a.m., which invited you and others --

CHAIR: Hold on. If, if you're reading from your phone the e-mail, I think it's only fair to show Mr. Holzer--

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: -- the e-mail.

MR. SCHMIDT: See it.

MR. HOLZER: Do we have a copy of this?

MR. SCHMIDT: I do not have a paper copy because I just got that, based on his comments this morning. But I'm, I'll, I'll print it and submit it at the next hearing.

MR. HOLZER: How, how do I, how do I know what the date was so I can check?

MR. SCHMIDT: January the 22nd of 2018 at 9:53 a.m. There's an e-mail, I believe, to Mr. DeWitt and other neighbors from Mr. Kotroco inviting them to, it might also be helpful for those concerned neighbors to be able to see the property and the improvements that have been made thus far.

MR. CLARK: I, I --

CHAIR: Hold on, hold on, sir. You, Mr. Schmidt, you are quoting directly from that e-mail --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- with your question? Thank you. Mr., Dr. Clark?

MR. HOLZER: Could --

MR. CLARK: If, if, if I recall, all right? I'm not saying that as a fudge factor, if I recall, I was advised by Carroll --

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. CLARK: Mr. Holzer, that that was inappropriate at that point in time, because we were filing, we were getting ready to file --

CHAIR: Sir, without going into advice that you may have received from your counsel --

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay.

CHAIR: -- you elected to not attend?

MR. CLARK: Yes. Because we, we were in the process of filing the appeal.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Just on that point, for the record, I was an attorney of record at that point and I never received a copy of the invitation. That goes along with the secret letter type --

CHAIR: We will, we'll deal with that part separately. I understand.

MR. HOLZER: That's all.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I didn't, I didn't need any dialogue on it.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's fine.

CHAIR: Okay, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, I guess at the end of the day, Mr. Clark, you, you've been invited to the property by the Petitioners at least three times, once by Mr. Ghimire, once as part of an open invitation to the neighbors and once by Mr. Kotroco and yet as of today, you've never been to the property?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Since you've never been to the property, do you have any personal knowledge of the condition of the property at the time my client purchased the property?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You have, you are not aware, not just of the property, you are not aware, and I think there were some photographs submitted, but, which you may or may not have seen, you are not aware of the condition of the structure at the time that the, my clients purchased the property?

MR. CLARK: Other, other than the pictures that I have seen and the descriptions by board members who had visited it when it was on sale.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is it fair to --

CHAIR: When you say board, which board?

MR. CLARK: Oh, yeah, by GFWPA board members who had visited it when it, when it, when it was offered for sale.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and at the time it was offered for sale, is it, is it fair to say that the building on the property, the main building and the outbuildings as well, were in a significant state of disrepair?

MR. CLARK: That is what I am told.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is it fair to say that those buildings had been vandalized by, by some persons with, I guess we don't know who?

MR. CLARK: No, we do not know who, but yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

MR. CLARK: As was the farmhouse that was originally part of the property down by me. And when that was purchased thirty years ago, forty years ago, it was in complete, the kids had been using it as a skating rink and the windows were all broken out and --

CHAIR: Is this the barn?

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, no. This is, this is, this is another property --

CHAIR: Oh, another property, sorry.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, that sat abandon and --

MR. SCHMIDT: Not the Nepali property?

MR. CLARK: No, no, not, not the NAACB, Inc. property, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you certainly have had drones and videos and Facebooks, so you've seen the condition of the property now, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is it fair to say that my client has significantly repaired and rehabilitated the property since then?

MR. CLARK: We have a photograph of, from October 6th, of large holes in the roof with people on the roof.

MR. SCHMIDT: Repairing the roof?

MR. CLARK: No, no, having a gathering.

CHAIR: Which structure had that much holes?

MR. CLARK: The, the, the main house.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: We have photos.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry?

MR. HOLZER: Why don't you identify the year?

MR. CLARK: Oh, oh, oh, oh, October 6th, 2018, the, the meeting at, at the property with the Maryland Deputy Department of State. If you go towards the end of that, they all, they, they go through the house --

CHAIR: Hold on. The photos, if they're not in evidence or anything, we don't need a description of them unless Mr. Schmidt asks --

MR. SCHMIDT: Actually, the question that I asked, I'm sorry, I was just very, very clear and --

CHAIR: No, please, it's, it's okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- if, if we can just get an answer to the question that I've asked. Would you, I'll make it simple, Mr. Clark, would you agree or disagree, you can give us a one word answer if that works, that since the property has been acquired by my clients, it has, they, have been significant efforts to rehabilitate and repair the property, the buildings on the property? And the grounds even, in terms of --

MR. CLARK: I don't know if they're significant.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: But when I see a hole in the roof, I'm not sure that's significant.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't think they've done much, okay. Fair enough. Fair enough. There have been two fundraisers on the property since my clients have owned the property, correct? Two fundraising events that you've described, one in 2017 and one in 2018, is that right?

MR. CLARK: The one in 2017 I think we've established was a family fun day.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And a, and a, and a volleyball tournament.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and the one, there was another larger event in 2018, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Were there police at either of the occasions directing traffic or assisting with traffic at either of those occasions, to the best of your knowledge?

MR. CLARK: I believe the Blue Iris videos will show that --

CHAIR: Answer the question.

MR. CLARK: Okay. No.

MR. SCHMIDT: They were not?

MR. CLARK: No, I did not, I did not see, did not observe, did, did not photograph, did not videotape.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: No police helping with traffic on the 2017

event?

MR. CLARK: That I would not know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, you don't know about that?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIR: And no, no police helping with traffic at the 2018 event?

MR. CLARK: The videos that we took show, show that--

CHAIR: I mean, yes or no? That, that's, I just want to clarify --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: To the best of your knowledge, no?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, fair enough. Okay. I'm not trying to be silly with these questions. When one exits the Nepali property, one could turn right onto Harford Road and go north, or left onto Harford Road and go south, correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And if one would turn left onto Harford Road to go south, one would need to cross over the northbound lane of Harford Road to go south, to get to the southbound lane, correct? Pretty simple. When you come out of, onto a road, if you're going to turn left, you have to cross a lane of traffic going the other way to make your left hand turn, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: You would go, the way I execute turns is I go perpendicularly across and make my turn.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, I'm, I don't mean to cut you off, but I'm not asking what your driving habits are. If you could just please listen to my question and answer it. And my question is, would one need to cross a lane of traffic going, in this case, the northbound direction of Harford Road in order to get to the southbound lane of Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and depending on how one operates their motor vehicle, there may very well be a photo taken of that person appearing to drive down the wrong side of the street because they are turning left to get into the southbound lane, is that possible?

MR. CLARK: Do you have something for me to respond to?

CHAIR: Respond to the question.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's all I want you to do.

CHAIR: Respond to the question. He's, as I understood the question, and by all means, Mr. Schmidt, if I've said it wrong, please jump in, is, is it possible that when you're turning out there, when you're making that left hand turn, that people are going through the northbound lane and that's when you capture them on camera?

MR. CLARK: Can I answer your question?

CHAIR: I believe that was his question but in different words.

MR. SCHMIDT: Answer Mr., I'm happy for you to answer Mr. Garber's question.

MR. CLARK: Where that photograph was taken --

MR. SCHMIDT: Sir, I'm not asking you --

MR. CLARK: No, I'm asked, you asked, you said I could answer Mr. Garber's question.

CHAIR: Hold on, it's is it possible?

MR. CLARK: Is what poss, I'm sorry?

CHAIR: Is it possible that the moment the cam, the camera captures the vehicle turning, exiting the property heading left, therefore south, as it crosses over the northbound lane of traffic, is it possible that the camera captures that vehicle in the northbound lane of traffic as it's proceeding into its turn into the southbound lane?

MR. CLARK: From what I know of the circumstances in which that photograph was taken, no.

CHAIR: Okay. You may ask --

MR. SCHMIDT: Can, can we, can we, Mr. Garber, can you please ask the witness to answer the question that I've asked, asked and I believe what you've asked, which is, I believe, when one is exiting the Nepali property to go southbound on Harford Road, one would need, to access the southbound lane, one would need to cross the northbound lane of traffic on Harford Road, is that correct, Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: You would have to cross the, the northbound lane to go southbound.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right, right. And depending on the habits and the skill and the, I suppose, the amount of traffic and other conditions, the time of day, the lighting conditions, etcetera, one may cross the road as apparently you do by proceeding perpendicularly and turning in a ninety degree angle or they may cut, common, like what we would commonly say cut that angle or cross over and appear in a photograph that might be taken at that instant, to be in the wrong lane and headed in the wrong direction, is that correct? It's possible, is it not?

MR. CLARK: At what distance from the, the entrance?

CHAIR: I need to know. The question is, is it possible?

MR. HOLZER: Objection, that isn't the question.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: The question has referred to specifically a photograph, so it ought to be tied to that.

MR. SCHMIDT: It has not.

MR. HOLZER: So it ought to be tied to that.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, Mr. Holzer, he's just asking is it possible that the camera would capture it at that moment, a camera. Okay? So, we're not talking about --

MR. HOLZER: He's referring to a camera.

CHAIR: You, you and I both know that there's a photo that's been introduced --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yeah.

CHAIR: -- but he is referring to a camera that would capture a vehicle in a particular position at a particular moment. Is it possible that it reflects something different than what is understood by this witness?

MR. HOLZER: I would stipulate that he has --

CHAIR: He has said no --

MR. HOLZER: -- to cross the northbound lane to go southbound, that's not what he's driving at. He's trying to say that the photograph that's already in was taken during that time and that's why I'm --

CHAIR: I'll make this, I'll make this clear, because I understand his answer to be no, and he has an explanation as to why the answer is no.

MR. CLARK: Okay. No.

CHAIR: And why, why is that?

MR. CLARK: Where I was standing was, when that photograph was taken, was --

CHAIR: What, okay, now you're referring to the specific photograph.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: That we've seen.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: Do you have that in, handy in terms of the number?

MR. HOLZER: I don't remember what the number was but you've all been discussing it.

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe it's 35-A.

CHAIR: Let's bring the photo out to make this then easier, which I understand --

MR. SCHMIDT: Or 35-B, there are a couple of them around that time.

CHAIR: -- what, that's what you want to go, I know.

MR. HOLZER: That was my point.

CHAIR: But the question as asked did not ref, reference the specific exhibit, but now we're there.

MR. HOLZER: What is it?

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe it's Petit, is it Petitioners or Protestants? Protestants, I believe, Mr. McComas?

MR. HOLZER: 35-A.

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, here it is, here's one and I think we have another one.

MR. HOLZER: There it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I think he's got a copy of it.

MR. CLARK: I do.

MR. HOLZER: I just handed him a copy.

CHAIR: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Holzer. Okay.

Have you had the opportunity --

MR. SCHMIDT: Now, Mr. Clark, you took that photo --

CHAIR: -- have you had the opportunity to review the photos?

MR. CLARK: I did.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, back to you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and Mr. Clark, you took those photos personally?

MR. CLARK: I did.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and is it your testimony that, that those vehicles were proceeding, let me make sure I get my directions correct, southbound in the northbound lane of Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: I think that's what the photo shows.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Let's try this again. Is it your testimony that when you were there observing the traffic, that there were vehicles traveling southbound in the northbound lane of Harford Road?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. For what distance were they traveling?

MR. CLARK: Well, as you can see, I'm, I'm past the telephone pole at the entrance, at, at the intersection of Mark Lane and Harford Road. I am maybe seventy-five feet south of that, okay? So, that means I'm seventy-five feet south of the entrance easily. And assuming they have driven correctly, that coming out of the traffic by going, ex, exiting from the north side of, what do you call that?

CHAIR: Their entrance and exit way --

MR. CLARK: The circle, the stone, the, --

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, assuming that, that, that they were, that they exited out off of that correctly, as Mr. Collagero has testified is the correct practice, then this is probably another what, forty feet from that.

CHAIR: Where the vehicle in 35-A is depicted is thirty-five to forty feet away?

MR. CLARK: No, it would be about a hundred and ten, hundred and fifteen.

CHAIR: I'm, I'm trying to understand what you meant by this, I heard this.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, the, the, sole circle, in--

CHAIR: Take your time.

MR. CLARK: -- that divides the driveway. It has been testified that the proper way to leave there is to go, is to make a left hand turn from the north side of that stone circle. That nobody should be making a left hand turn from the south side of that circle. And so, this is, at this point in time, --

CHAIR: What is this?

MR. CLARK: At this point in time, this car --
CHAIR: You're pointing to 35-A.
MR. CLARK: 35-A.
CHAIR: And the vehicle depicted in 35-A.
MR. CLARK: And the vehicle depicted in 35-A, is probably a hundred and twenty-five feet from the entrance.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.
MR. CLARK: And the --
MR. SCHMIDT: Was there an accident as a result of that driving?
MR. CLARK: No.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. All right, thank you, Mr. Clark.
CHAIR: Are you done with that exhibit?
MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I think he gave that to, Mr. Holzer gave it to him, take it back, yes, sir.
MR. CLARK: Yeah, this goes, yeah, yeah, thank you.
CHAIR: That's why I just want to make sure it gets returned to its proper owner.
MR. HOLZER: Thank you, thank you. I'm the proper owner.
CHAIR: Thank you.
MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, I know we had some preliminary comments before we picked up this afternoon, that Mr. Jakubiak is going to testify. Who retained Mr. Jakubiak to testify in this matter?

MR. CLARK: Kingsville, Greater Kingsville Civic Association.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Did Greater Kingsville retain any other experts, to the best of your knowledge, related to this Petition for Special Exception, whether they are going to testify or not?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. That's irrelevant to the proceedings.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt? Well, first of all, please stand up.

MR. HOLZER: I apologize. I object on the basis that that's irrelevant to these proceedings.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think it's, certainly the witness has offered all types of testimony regarding the issues in this case on behalf of Kingsville, on behalf of Falls, not Falls, I say Falls Road, --

CHAIR: Gunpowder?

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Gunpowder and himself personally. And I think understanding what the basis of his knowledge and how he determined his, the opinions that he's given, is certainly appropriate. And so, if he has consulted experts and has retained or, and has retained experts, I think that's appropriate cross examination for me to determine how he got so, his self-deprecating comments that he's, doesn't know anything about zoning notwithstanding, I think he's testified that he's obviously spent a lot of time educating himself as to the issues surrounding this case.

CHAIR: The, --

MR. SCHMIDT: So, my question is, did part of that education come about from consulting expert witnesses.

CHAIR: I think it's fair to ask about the sources of information that forms the basis of the opinions expressed. The question as asked asked to disclose potential, what may be argued as matters for litigation strategy for Greater Kingsville or for Gunpowder or even for Dr. Clark. In other words, as stated, I will sustain the objection. You can explore what sources from which he got information for purposes of his testimony. Just the manner you asked it --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, I understand.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I will try to abide by Mr. Garber's dir --

MR. HOLZER: I have no objection to that.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- direction. In, you looked at traffic issues as part of your testimony. Obviously, you've taken lots of videos related to road conditions, correct?

MR. CLARK: I did.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you, as a matter of fact, along those lines, just so we're clear, the videos that you take, have taken, I believe were generally of Harford Road, Mount

Vista, there was a part where some were on Mount Vista Road.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: And Glen Arm Road.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: There were some of them that included Glen Arm Road, is that a fair statement, Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I think you characterized those roads and the videos, as sort of the typical country rural roads in this part of the County. I mean, kind of, this is what we see, one lane --

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- traffic, you don't have a median in the middle and the conditions with the topography and curves are sort of typical of what we see in this part of Kingsville and if I'm being --

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- if I'm not describing it correctly, please correct me, but I think that's what you sort of --

MR. CLARK: I agree with what you just said.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- said, this is sort of what, what we get in a rural area such as this. Okay. So, my question is, and those, these roads are pretty typical of a rural area, actually, wouldn't you say?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I mean, you get what you get --

MR. CLARK: -- yeah, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- with them, they're not speedways, or shouldn't be speedways.

MR. CLARK: Well, in, in fact, Ryan McIntyre insisted they stay this way.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure, okay.

CHAIR: Former Councilman McIntyre?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, so in, in answering that, did, in formulating your opinion, did you have any consultation or discussion with any traffic engineering experts about, about educating yourself about traffic issues relating to this case?

MR. CLARK: Well, we, we, we tried to, to --

CHAIR: Hold on. The question was directed to you, sir.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: You're answering we.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: So there is ambiguity as to whom you are answering for.

MR. CLARK: Right. I tried to engage traffic engineers, both in Baltimore County, in the State and I have a friend who ran, who, who developed a company that turned out to be a fairly major regional traffic, civil engineering company.

And I tried to engage them and what it came down to, especially the last one, was no one wanted to threaten their developer work, so --

CHAIR: I'm, I'm sorry. It doesn't answer --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- Mr. Schmidt's question as to whether or not, and I, if I get it wrong, please jump in.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: But it was whether or not you had any information from these, from any person, from traffic engineering. You then started talking about the process in attempting to --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- retain, so we're looking for the source of information and what the information was from that source. Is that a fair way to summarize it?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, it is.

CHAIR: So, we can move on from the --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, --

CHAIR: -- I understand what you're trying to get at with the attempt at retention, but that's not the question that was asked.

MR. CLARK: Okay and we, I, I did have a very short consultation with, I can't remember his name, --

MR. SCHMIDT: If you can't remember you're the one on the stand and nobody else can answer.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, okay, okay, okay. Out, out of, a, a small guy up in Pennsylvania and, in fact, we, I, I consulted with him in preparation for Mr. Collagero's testimony. In fact, he met Mr. Collagero up there at the, up at the property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know his name?

MR. CLARK: Wheels are spinning and, and I can't, I can't ask Mr. Holzer.

CHAIR: That's true.

MR. CLARK: I'm looking pleadingly but.

CHAIR: If you don't recall, no, that's fine.

MR. SCHMIDT: If you don't recall and you don't know, that's, that's an acceptable answer.

MR. CLARK: But, but, but, but, but yeah, I, I found his, his, to tell you the truth, I thought we came up with better cross examinations for Mr. Collagero then, then he gave us.

MR. SCHMIDT: He wasn't helpful?

MR. CLARK: He wasn't. A waste of money.

MR. SCHMIDT: Waste of money, okay. And, okay.

MR. CLARK: And that's on the record.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Other than in, in, in terms of your prepar, preparation, I assume you've met and discussed this matter with Mr. Jakubiak?

MR. CLARK: No, I have, I, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: You have not?

MR. CLARK: No, because the, I have been, since, since the beginning of November, I have been under an order to not discuss my testimony.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And, you know, --

CHAIR: The answer was no.

MR. SCHMIDT: The answer is no.

MR. CLARK: The answer is no.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I guess I, should I take it then that Mr. Jakubiak was retained after you took the stand in November?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Other than Mr. Jakubiak and the unknown, unnamed traffic engineer --

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- who you did consult, but --

CHAIR: That's okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- quote, wasn't worth the money, have, have you had any discussions with any other expert witnesses about issues related to this case as you were formulating your testimony?

MR. CLARK: Me personally, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have there been any discussions

with any members of either the organizations which are affiliated with, namely, the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association or the Greater Kingsville Group, with expert witnesses, since you answered the last question me personally, no.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Has anybody from those groups consulted any experts to help you formulate your opinions in this case? To the best of your knowledge?

MR. CLARK: I really don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't know, okay.

MR. CLARK: I, I, I know what we, what I, what November I had asked for, before November, but I don't know what anybody did after that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Oh, the only other expert would have been the, the, the drone driver.

MR. SCHMIDT: The what driver?

MR. CLARK: The drone driver.

MR. SCHMIDT: The drone driver.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that was about taking the aerial photographs that were taken?

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Mr. Clark, let me ask you, if I can, you, your property is about two acres, correct?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: And it's improved with a single family dwelling in which you and your wife live, correct?

MR. CLARK: And a garage.

MR. SCHMIDT: And a garage. Are there any other improvements on the property?

MR. CLARK: I, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you have a tennis court?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Under the zoning regulations, if you know, could you have a tennis court?

MR. CLARK: Don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I know I couldn't have pigs.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do, okay. Is it your assertion that the Nepali property cannot have what's been called the volleyball court?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIR: Hold on. Is that your, is that your assertion, is that what you said?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, is he contending that the, the owners of the Nepali cannot have the volleyball court on their, on the property that exists there. Is that illegal?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Or somehow contrary or not compliant with some zoning or other standards?

MR. CLARK: I don't even consider it immoral.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: That wasn't the question.

MR. CLARK: I, but, but I've, I heard --

CHAIR: I, we've heard Mr. Schmidt's arguments in the past. The question asked to you was consistency with the zoning regs, basically, --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: -- it is not in conflict with the zoning regs.

MR. CLARK: As far as I know.

MR. SCHMIDT: As a matter of fact, when we look back at the Grace Church case, that I think I started my cross examination with you about, they, in fact, have a gymnasium, or at least Mr. Kotroco's decision indicates that they have a gymnasium, correct?

MR. CLARK: I, I, I agree that I remember seeing that in there, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, so is it fair, fair to say, and I, and I won't try to invade your privacy and ask if you are a church goer or what your religious faith, if any, is but is it fair to say or can you, can you say that many churches have, what I would call recreational type amenities, gymnasiums or other things that they may use as part of their missions program, that the children may play in or, I think, I'm thinking of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, those kinds of organizations, which combine a religious purpose with a recreational purpose?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. I don't understand the question.

MR. SCHMIDT: The question is, if he's --

CHAIR: Please stand when you object.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll try to rephrase it if it's confusing.

CHAIR: Well, let's see if we rephrase it, if it solves whatever issue.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is it fair to say, Mr. Clark, based on your own personal experience, and again, I don't know whether you go to church or not, or how familiar you are with churches, but based, and you may not know, but is it, do you believe it accurate to say that many churches, as part of their program of spreading the gospel or spreading the good news according to whatever the faith is, may have some recreational type of amenity or facility associated with their religious program on their property, just as Grace has a, apparently a gymnasium and Nepali has a volleyball court. Part of the, that, that being part of the church ministry as, as it were, as it would, as it were, is that a fair statement or is that inaccurate?

MR. CLARK: I really don't know what many, most do. I, I know in my experience what I have encountered.

CHAIR: Well, that's exactly what he's asking you.

MR. CLARK: Okay. I grew up Episcopalian --

CHAIR: No, hold on. We, we, without going into --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- your personal journey and background on this --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- what is your experience, what is your awareness of how oper, religious institutional operations go in terms of recreation facilities or amenities?

MR. CLARK: The, the parishes to which I belonged did not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have you ever been to a religious institution that has, that does?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Which? Any, any in Baltimore County or the Baltimore Metropolitan area?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you believe that to be, that having such a recreational facility or having such a recreational component is inappropriate or not permissible for whatever reason?

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: There's an objection. Don't answer the question quite yet.

MR. HOLZER: The objection is, he has already said what he's familiar with or whatever, the question is now speculation, is do you think it's okay in effect, to have that. And that's the very issue that we're involved in here, that the community expressed its concern about. So, I object to that question.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I believe the witness made it exceedingly clear on direct examination, I, and I may have the quote, I tried to write down verbatim some of which he said, that they didn't, they being Nepali, didn't ask for this or didn't request this.

CHAIR: Didn't ask, sorry, you used the word this.

MR. SCHMIDT: This being the volleyball court. And so, since he has, he has opined on direct examination about this issue related to what I would call part of the Nepali ministry, i.e., having children play volleyball there, whether, I'm just trying to see if he agrees with that proposition or not. He's expressed an opinion about it on direct.

CHAIR: Are you suggesting that --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm trying to flush that out a little bit.

CHAIR: -- in a, in a general sense or specific to the subject property --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, I'm going to start off general --

CHAIR: That, I think that's maybe where one part of the confusion is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, well, I was asking him generally whether he would, I'll try to make this as succinct, if I can, whether he would agree with the proposition that many churches, and when I use the word church, I mean, I don't mean to restrict it to a Christian facility. It could be a synagogue, it could be a temple, it could be affiliated with any religion. But, if you know, Mr. Clark, are there many religious buildings and religious uses and institutions which have what I would call a recreational component or part of their ministry, or mission program?

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: He's already answered the, that question saying that --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: He said he didn't know.

CHAIR: He said he personally, the ones he's been to, do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do not.

CHAIR: But he is aware that others have.

MR. SCHMIDT: Are, okay. So, then my next question would be in this case, related to this property, is it your opinion, Mr. Clark, that the Petitioner should be allowed to have a recreational component or amenity, however, whatever you want to, however you want to style it, in association with their religious program?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. Mr. Ghimire already told a member of this Board, who used to be on there, Ms. Murphy, that they would get rid of the volleyball court. It's in the transcript, on his questioning. So, if, there's no need for the witness to answer that question because they have indicated to this Board that they would get rid of the volleyball court.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, do you wish to respond?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I, frankly, don't recall whether Mr. Ghimire testified about that and under what circumstances that he had. But even if it was not a volleyball court, my question would remain the same. Even if it was some other amenity.

CHAIR: If I --

MR. SCHMIDT: There was a swimming pool, which they, I know, are getting rid of and my question is, to the witness is, I, I don't think it's inappropriate and I think it's in line with his testimony on direct, which he spent a lot of time on, and that is does he oppose what I would call a recreational amenity, volleyball court, swimming pool, basketball court, something like that, on this property as part of the religious program, which is being proposed by my clients. I don't think that's an unfair question.

CHAIR: And for, and forgive me, I'm looking through here because I seem to recall this was covered as a potential condition that would be requested on behalf of the association. So, for that reason, the question, I'm going to overrule the objection because I believe that that was testified to as part of the conditions potentially requested. Sorry, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, so I've asked the question.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do I need to do it again?

CHAIR: The, the objection is overruled because of that.

MR. CLARK: I understand, I understand it.

CHAIR: Okay. You may answer the question.

MR. CLARK: Okay. I would have no objection if it were fairly and properly included in the request for the special exception.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, you, if, if it was within, if it was within the language on the Petition for Special Exception, then you would not object to it, is that what you're saying, Mr. Clark?

MR. CLARK: And it was, and it was shown on the plans.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and was shown on the plans. Okay, all right. With that caveat, then that would be acceptable to have a recreational amenity of some type?

MR. CLARK: Subject to the whole issue of noise and--

CHAIR: I, I would anticipate that's where we were going to go. We're just focusing on the existence.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: As to its operation, that would be a separate matter. So, as to the existence of one, could you answer Mr. Schmidt's question? If you had a problem with the noise and lights, that's not, that would not be considered --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, no, no, no, I, I, I, yeah, because this is me personally, yeah. Yes, I would have a problem with it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Now, wait a minute. I thought you said you wouldn't have a problem with it if it was in the Petition and on the plan, but you would have a problem with it?

MR. CLARK: Mr., Mr. Garber just helped, just helped me understand the, the question --

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: I was, sorry, I'm trying to, he started down the noise and lights. I realize that's a separate matter because that deals with operations.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: I understood Mr. Schmidt's question and maybe I should just let this go and let Mr. Schmidt re-ask his question, I understood his question to relate to the existence of any recreational facility independent of all the factors --

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, I would.

CHAIR: -- hold on, independent of all factors as it relates to its operation.

MR. CLARK: Yes, I would.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and, and you would likewise, Mr. Clark, as I understand it, I think one of the restrictions that you said would be to basically prohibit any outdoor activity associated with the temple, is that a fair statement?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do I understand you correctly? Okay. So, just by way of analogy and I just want to make sure I understand, Mr. Clark, and pardon me for, just, I'm just trying to understand when we talk about outdoor activity, that we're sort of on the same wavelength and I'll just say this as, as a very brief preamble. I'm a member of a, of a Methodist church. We have a tradition of, at Halloween time we sell pumpkins and on the front lawn of the church, are delivered pumpkins and then volunteers from the church there, and people from the neighborhood come and buy a pumpkin. It happens for about two weeks every year in October and it's sort of part of the outreach to the community, etcetera, and it's a fundraiser.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: If Nepali had some outdoor function of that nature, which would be seasonal or short term, you would be opposed to anything like that because it's outdoors, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Mr. Clark, you offered as part of your direct examination one of the zoning decisions as it relates to the Beachmont property.

MR. CLARK: I did.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Can you tell us where the Beachmont property is in terms of its proximity, let's start off, to your property and then to the Nepali property.

MR. CLARK: It is by car maybe five minutes from my property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Cutting through the woods, you know, maybe a mile, mile and a half.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Are you familiar with that property?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Have you been to the property before?

MR. CLARK: The Beachmont property?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. CLARK: Visited it briefly.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'm going to show you, thirty-eight. Mr. McComas, if I can approach? And I will give you a fourth but I just want to give one to, to be fair to the witness, and I'd like to have one in front of me as well if I can.

MR. CLARK: Cool, I like this.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr., I'm sorry, Mr. Clark, you said it's about a five minute car drive from your property, correct?

MR. CLARK: Yep, yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is the subject property closer, is the Nepali property closer to Beachmont or for, farther away than you are?

MR. CLARK: Closer.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, okay. Now, so, is, is the Beachmont property in the neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, I'm going to refer you to the last page of the exhibit that I gave you, which is page five of five, which indicates that down at the bottom, that this printout, which I would just say to you is taken again from the public domain of the Beachmont web page, is a Beachmont, it's the Beachmont Christian Ministry so this is a Christian facility, is it not?

MR. CLARK: I don't know what you mean by a Christian, and I'm not being difficult --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, it's not Jewish, it's not Hindu--

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- it's not Buddhist, --

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- it's Christian.
MR. CLARK: Right.
MR. SCHMIDT: And it's a religious facility since it uses the word Christian ministries, is that fair?
MR. CLARK: I would say, no, I would say that's not fair.
MR. SCHMIDT: It, so, so it's not a religious facility?
MR. CLARK: They do not have a pastor on the property.
MR. SCHMIDT: Do they, do they have what you and I would call a church on the property?
MR. CLARK: I don't think so.
MR. SCHMIDT: You don't think they have a church on the property?
MR. CLARK: No, they do not. The church is on Redeemer property.
MR. SCHMIDT: Which is next door?
MR. CLARK: Which is a different organization altogether and that's --
CHAIR: The, the, the question was, is it next door?
MR. CLARK: Yes.
MR. SCHMIDT: Does, does, does it --
MR. CLARK: It's an adjoining property.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, all right. So, there's a church building, we can argue whether it's on the Redeemer property or on the Beachmont property, but there's a church building on the, you believe on the Redeemer property?

MR. CLARK: No, not believe, I know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay. In, insofar, but, but the Beachmont property, or at least the Beachmont organization as identified as the Beachmont Christian Ministries, which is, would you agree with me at least to that extent, that this is a religious affiliated institution of some type?

MR. CLARK: I would say that they invite families of, of, of an identified value set.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I don't know that they, well, I know that they don't have a preacher on site, pastor and I, I have, in fact, I, I, I had the, the sad duty to, to have them resolve an out of compliance issue with, in relationship to the corn maze.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And I have, we have the letter for that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Let's, let's start at the beginning of the exhibit, if I can. So, they have a corn maze on the property?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: It draws people --

CHAIR: That's a yes, sir?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, they do.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. That's an outdoor activity?
MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, it is.
MR. SCHMIDT: And it occurs during how many months of the year?
MR. CLARK: Six weeks.
MR. SCHMIDT: Around the Halloween time or the fall season?
MR. CLARK: Yep.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have you ever been to that?
MR. CLARK: Nope.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I, it looks like in the picture on page one of the young couple holding the baby that they may be standing in the corn maze or near the corn maze?
MR. CLARK: Could be.
MR. SCHMIDT: Is that a fair representation of what the corn maze looks like to the best of your knowledge?
MR. CLARK: Could be.
MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. On page two, it indicates that Beachmont also has a summer camp at the Beachmont Christian Camp, is that correct?
MR. CLARK: Correct.
MR. SCHMIDT: Likewise, they have a flag football league or program or game or something, correct?
MR. CLARK: Correct.
MR. SCHMIDT: They also have dodge ball games going on at, at, at Beachmont, correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Matter of fact, they have the best dodge ball games in Kingsville going on at Beachmont --

MR. CLARK: Do they?

MR. SCHMIDT: -- according to the literature. Now, the golf tournament, I would admit to you, if you look at page three, is that at a golf course, not at Beachmont, and there is not a golf course at Beachmont, okay. Turning to page three, they have a, a, a, I mentioned the eight week program and it indicates in flag football. They have an archery program there, correct?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: They have a home school --

CHAIR: Yes?

MR. SCHMIDT: -- physical education program there?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Turning to the next page, they have a men's softball program at Beachmont, correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Swimming lessons at Beachmont?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and they have an Easter morning 6:30 a.m. --

MR. CLARK: Sunrise service.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- sunrise service. Now, that's an exterior service, correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and since it says the rising of the son and it's spelled S-O-N, I would assume that would be somewhat of a double entendre that they are celebrating not only the rising of the sun from which we get our light and heat, but under the Christian theology the rising of Jesus Christ on that morning, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: I don't know their intent.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, could, would, wouldn't you say that's fair to interpret since they say the rising of the son, S-O-N, meaning a person?

MR. CLARK: I have no opinion on that.

MR. SCHMIDT: You don't know? And they have a volleyball court there?

MR. CLARK: They do.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. Do you know the zoning of the Beachmont property?

MR. CLARK: It's RC-5.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is this, in your opinion, the activities at Beachmont detrimental to the health, safety and welfare of the community?

MR. CLARK: They have been, which is why we have, why, why we had to come, why we had to have, why we had to contact code enforcement, why their director and I came to a resolution about how they were going to resolve it. Basically, I told them that they needed to work with their community, they agreed to that. How, how they and their community are going to resolve it, I don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

MR. CLARK: But they were exceeding the limit of visitors for the corn maze.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I would offer that as the next exhibit.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: I, I think I can resolve the questions by asking some additional questions of the witness when it's my time, so --

CHAIR: So, do I understand you have reservations at the present time as to the admissibility of --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- Exhibit 38?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: And that you are asking that the matter be held open --

MR. HOLZER: Yes, until I have a chance to --

CHAIR: -- until you, and so therefore, we would have to rule at that time.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, I assume that that would not pose an objection to you since you still have the opportunity to have it reviewed and made --

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure. Well, let me ask, let me ask the witness this. Mr., Mr. Clark, the exhibit that I gave you and it's, I'm not trying to trick you, but I, I believe it's a fair representation of the activities at Beachmont. And is it, you are a resident, you've been there, you worked to try to enforce them with the size of the corn maze, so I assume you have some familiarity, living in the neighborhood for thirty years, as to what goes on at Beachmont. Is the exhibit that I gave you inaccurate? Those things don't happen at Beachmont?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. I objected --

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, is that what he's saying? Is that --

MR. HOLZER: I object.

CHAIR: Hold on, Mr. Schmidt, for one second.

MR. HOLZER: I tried to make it easy for the wit, for the counsel, by saying I would like to ask some questions to fully explore the issue before it gets introduced. And instead of that, I get this feedback where he's trying to do the very same thing and force it into evidence now.

CHAIR: I, I would say we resolved that matter --

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm just --

CHAIR: Hold on. But the question that was asked was a proper question, because it doesn't just speak to the exhibit itself, it goes to this witness' understanding of the activities over at Beachmont. So, with that in mind, I'll overrule the objection and you may ask.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think the question was does the exhibit fairly and accurately show the activities that are occurring at the Beachmont property?

MR. CLARK: The only, the only thing I observed was, I guess it was one of the day camp sessions, and the kids were down at, at the pond, at the pool.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. The next exhibit, I'm, I will --

MR. MCCOMAS: So, is, is this i.d. only?

CHAIR: At the moment.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: And again, Mr. Schmidt, because that's i.d. only, I'm going to address this point a little bit later. Just put a little asterisk so we know to go back to the admissibility of that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure, sure.

MR. MCCOMAS: This is thirty-nine.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thirty-nine and I'll give you a fourth copy. I'm going to give you the same kind of thing. Let me give you another one that doesn't have marks all over it, Mr.--

MR. CLARK: Clark.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Clark, I'm sorry.

MR. CLARK: That's all right.

MR. SCHMIDT: I don't want to give you one with writing all over it. And not to be duplicitous, but I believe that this is also taken from the Beachmont --

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- website and just generally describes, again, the type of activities that are occurring on the, on, on the, the Beachmont property and, you know, my question would --

MR. CLARK: No, I, I, I agree, it is what it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and that's, they say what they do and this is the kinds of things that they do?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Now, can --

CHAIR: There's no question pending.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: But, well, you do agree, just so we're clear, that the activities that are shown on Petitioner's exhibit number thirty-nine reflect the activities that are occurring at the Beachmont property?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: Move for the admission of thirty-nine then,

Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Same, same request.

CHAIR: All right. We will reserve a ruling on thirty-nine on the same basis.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And then finally, I have one more page. And Mr. Clark, sort of same drill. And this would be number forty. Thank you, Mr. McComas. And this is just their page related to --

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- to the sunrise service, except they actually give coffee, hot chocolate and donuts after the service.

MR. CLARK: (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Unlike Nepali, so if you're hungry that morning, Mr. Clark, you can go up there. Have you ever attended the sunrise service?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know if there is, indeed, a sunrise service, is that an accurate --

MR. CLARK: I, I have been told by people from Kingsville --

MR. SCHMIDT: People in the neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: -- yeah, and people from Kingsville, you know, that --

MR. SCHMIDT: That they go to the sunrise service?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah.

CHAIR: Please let him finish his answer.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: I, I know that, I know you're trying to move along.

MR. CLARK: I'm going to need a break in a minute.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. We need to take, he wants --

CHAIR: You are familiar, you have heard from other people in the, in, from Kingsville that this occurs at this site?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: And Mr. Schmidt, this is actually from a Google e-mail, looks like an e-mail (inaudible) on the website, just from, just for (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes. I'm, I apologize, it is. Although it's, yes, it came via an, my understanding was it's a link on their website where if you want additional information you e-mail this info@beachmont and this is what you get back.

CHAIR: And Mr. Kotroco is a subscriber to that service.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes. He is the one that actually obtained it.

CHAIR: Exhibit 40.

MR. HOLZER: Same, same request.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark indicated he would like a break and I'm, I'm, think I'm coming somewhat near the end, but I'd be happy to take a break, let me get my thoughts on it, organized and maybe we can be done shortly.

CHAIR: If you would like a break, then that's fine.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, thank you.

CHAIR: Why don't we do that, five minutes. Before we --

MR. CLARK: Thank you, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Mr., Mr. Clark may step out because I know he has other business to attend to. You can go --

MS. DOPKIN: Off?

CHAIR: Actually stay on for a moment. So, real quick, to Mr. Schmidt and Mr. Holzer, as we just discussed with Petitioner's Exhibits 38, 39 and 40, we have a little asterisk next to them, like I said, so we know to go back. Also, just for purposes of the record, there were numerous instances throughout Protestant's case, whether we were in Petitioner's case or during the course of your case, where certain exhibits were offered up, withdrawn, were offered up, objected to, in i.d. only. You indicated that you were going to go follow-up with one or more witnesses to establish proper authentication.

We're trying to, I asked Ms. Cannington, but I'm going to go through to identify which ones are still in this limbo status so that, pardon me, the record can be completed, we all know what is in, what is out. So, for purposes of any future proceedings, there's not going to be a question as to where we stand as to any one exhibit. Having said that, I would request the same of counsel to make sure that everyone's records match as best as possible.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Because I do not want there to be some confusion on any particular exhibit. I want us to all have the same --

MR. HOLZER: I think what you're asking is, is fair, I mean, because we went so late yesterday and because it's late today, I'm going to try to have Mary, if at all possible, to take my notes and make the same kind of list, as far as each exhibit, what is in, what, what is not in and what, if it's not in, is it part of the proffers that I made. I think that will clarify --

CHAIR: And I think yesterday was fairly clear as to where we stand with yesterday's exhibits.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: It's the earlier ones --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- where certain exhibits were identified or shown to other witnesses and then you wanted to withdraw them so that you could authenticate them through the person who may have taken the photos.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: And those kind of things. I'm just bringing that back around because you had expressed the intent to do that --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I --

CHAIR: -- and there was question as to where those exhibits stand and we need to get resolution on all that before the, the record closes.

MR. HOLZER: I agree, I understand, yes.

MS. DOPKIN: One minor question relating to that is when Mr. Morgan testified, he had presented some e-mail posts and, on --

CHAIR: Right.

MS. DOPKIN: -- Nextdoor?

CHAIR: Yes. I believe that was like Exhibit 50 or thereabouts.

MS. DOPKIN: And I had asked if he had the post that it responded to, his original post. Was he in, were you intending to provide that to us?

MR. HOLZER: Well, I, yeah, I, there's a number of things that I think that have been deferred that we need to get --

MS. DOPKIN: Would you please add that to your list of, to address?

MR. HOLZER: -- add, and we can add that to the list. So we can --

MS. DOPKIN: All right.

MR. HOLZER: -- go get all of that straight, because I do want the record straight when, when we finish. Did we --

CHAIR: We're, no, we're on, we're still on break. I just wanted to address that on the record so everybody is aware. Let's make sure that we all have an agreement as to where we stand as to some of those exhibits that are still in this limbo.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Can I take a five, --

CHAIR: No, we're taking a break. We're still, we're still (inaudible), yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I didn't want to leave.

CHAIR: No, that was not your five minute break.

MS. DOPKIN: And we're off the record.

(RECORDING PAUSED - 04:25:59 PM)

(ON RECORD - 04:40:47 PM)

CHAIR: Everyone, please be seated. And to the extent I need to say it again, make sure your cell phones are off. I'm sorry. That should be on the record. Please make sure your cell phones are off. And Mr. Schmidt, we are back to you with cross examination.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you. In an effort to try to move this along a little bit, Mr. Clark, I showed you some information which I believe was from the Beachmont website.

MR. CLARK: Agreed.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I just wanted to, similarly, I've got some information from the Redeemer property, which is located immediately adjacent to Beachmont?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: You indicated that Beachmont was in your neighborhood. Is Redeemer Classical Christian School in your neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You're familiar with that property? That's the one that actually in, according to your testimony, has a church on it?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and that, in addition, that has a school, does it not?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and I'm going to just give you, again, this is taken from the public domain and I'll give a copy to, four copies to Mr. McComas. But this, and I ask you to take a --

CHAIR: Forty-one?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, forty-one.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- take a look at it as, and having marked it as forty, forty-one, which generally sort of describes, I believe, the, bless you --

MR. CLARK: Bless you.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- the activity at the, at the school and apparently the school, according to the information here, was founded in, founded in 1996, is that correct? So, that, that was there --

MR. CLARK: That, that's my understanding.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, that, that started after you were a resident of the neighborhood?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and has two hundred and fifty children in it?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, okay. And similarly, I got, you can see from the first page of that exhibit, there were some information about student life.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

CHAIR: Yes?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: Sorry.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'll mark this as the next sequential exhibit.

CHAIR: Forty-two.

MR. SCHMIDT: Forty-two. And again, it just talks about the kind of things that they do there. Now, this is a Christian school, is it not? If you know.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, Ron, Ron, Ron is a pastor.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Who?

MR. CLARK: Ron Standifer.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: And basically, though, he, he, it's, he really focuses on rhetoric and logic and Latin. They don't, I don't believe they teach religious classes in the school.

MR. SCHMIDT: But it is, it is at least affiliated with the --

MR. CLARK: With the church there.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- with the church?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and then finally, the third page would be athletics, the athletics page, and that would generally be that they have an athletic program there, I believe, which is described on this web page.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and, and I've observed them playing volleyball there.

MR. SCHMIDT: They play volleyball?

MR. CLARK: Soccer, soccer, the soccer.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Soccer and other sports as described in there?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: And so those web pages fairly and accurately depict what's going on at the property at the present time, in terms of the activity of the school and the church?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, for, from my understanding, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and is the church an active church? And when I say that, does it conduct services on a routine basis, if you know?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yes, yes, he does.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and it's a Christian church, so I assume that the services are on, are on Sundays typically?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I believe there are.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know how many services they have on each Sunday, Sunday? One or more?

MR. CLARK: I think one. I, I know it's a very small congregation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you believe it's one?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I would offer those exhibits as well. Just, again, they say what they say and the witness has indicated they describe what's happening on that property generally.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, Exhibits 41 through 43?

MR. HOLZER: I would like them just to be marked for identification till I ask questions about them but --

CHAIR: Same as the Beachmont.

MR. HOLZER: Same as the Beachmont.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I, I don't, I'm sorry, Mr. Holzer, didn't mean to interrupt.

MR. HOLZER: No, I'm, I'm inclined to let them go in, just so that the Board knows.

CHAIR: We understand where we're at with this.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you very much.

MR. SCHMIDT: Let me ask you, if I can, kind of switching gears, Mr. Clark, have you spoken to Councilman Marks about this project? Or any, or anyone in his office?

MR. CLARK: I tried to at, at, at that civic center and he told me he can't talk to me about it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Did he attempt to broker or arrange a meeting between the parties to discuss the issues?

MR. CLARK: That, that would be, that, that was very interesting.

CHAIR: Hold on, answer the question first.

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: He did?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did the meeting occur?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Did, did the meeting occur, or do you know why the meeting didn't occur?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay. So, he called me on Friday morning, on a Friday morning, I don't remember the exact date, but it's easy enough to figure out, and requested my appearance at a meeting with him, Mr. Kotroco, Kris Ghimire and Senator Brochin. I called Carroll Holzer.

CHAIR: You called Mr. Holzer.

MR. CLARK: I called Mr. Holzer.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Mr. Holzer said well, I'm going to, I'm not going to be away and you're not going there without me present, okay? So, --

CHAIR: And just so, I don't want you to go into conversations you had --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I don't want to have any kind of attorney/client --

CHAIR: I, I know, I know, I know. I'm just letting him know in advance so he doesn't go off script or far afield here --

MR. SCHMIDT: That's, and I think we can say --

CHAIR: -- (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Mr. Clark, you didn't, you didn't attend because you were instructed not to by counsel?

MR. CLARK: No, that isn't quite the case.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, okay. I'm sorry.

MR. CLARK: So, after that, and I explained that to actually, to, to Mr., to, to Senator Brochin. He said he, he would call Mr. Marks and set something up for Monday.

CHAIR: Senator Brochin said that?

MR. CLARK: Yes. So, my, on Sunday, Senator Brochin told me that Mr. Marks was going on his vacation and he wasn't going to cancel it --

CHAIR: Mr. Marks?

MR. CLARK: Mr. Marks, okay? He, and, and I wasn't going to change it for this. So, then Senator Brochin said, well, what, why don't you, why don't you, Dewey Clark and Carroll Holzer and I think one or two other representatives?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Meet in Mr. Holzer's office on Tuesday.

We're all sitting there wait, waiting for Mr. Brochin, for Senator Brochin to show up and it wasn't until the day later that we got his regrets.

MR. SCHMIDT: From Senator Brochin?

MR. CLARK: From Senator, I think that's fair, is that accurate? I, --

CHAIR: Well, he can't, you can't ask --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, I know, I know.

CHAIR: -- questions of Mr. Holzer.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: It's the best recollection that you have of it.

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes. I believe that is accurate.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Were there any other meetings prior, prior to that or attempted meetings back at, more so kind of at the beginning of this process that you're aware of?

MR. CLARK: Well, we covered, we covered the, the, the one with Mr. Kotroco and then we covered the ones with Mr. Ghimire inviting me up to the property to, to meet and discuss.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: Correct me if I'm wrong, but you also identified one with Councilman Marks where Councilman Marks, as you put it in your words, appeared vexed by the absence of --

MR. CLARK: No, that, that, that was at the Kingsville meeting and he was vexed that Mr. Ghimire had not shown up and at the ALJ, Mr. Ghimire --

CHAIR: I, I just want to confirm.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: That's yet another example here?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Is that accurate?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.

MS. DOPKIN: Just to clarify, you said Senator Brochin suggested meeting in Mr. Holzer's office?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MS. DOPKIN: Was, was that meeting supposed to include Brochin and Kotroco and Ghimire? Who was supposed to attend?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I, I, I don't think, I don't think Kotroco was, was going to be there, because he, he didn't show, yeah, no, I don't think Mr. Kotroco was supposed to be there.

MS. DOPKIN: So, it would have just been you and Mr. Holzer and Senator Brochin?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, and I think Ms. Shaw was there and I, I think a representative from Kingsville was there.

MS. DOPKIN: But nobody from the Petitioner and neither the Councilman nor the Senator?

MR. CLARK: Correct. Yes, ma'am.

MS. DOPKIN: Okay, thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you, Mr. Clark. Mr. Clark,

I think I'm in the home stretch so, and I would move those exhibits, if I had not formally, --

CHAIR: We have the same --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- but I know Mr. Holzer wanted to wait.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And if there's a foundational issue or something, I'll address it.

CHAIR: We will revisit, again, it's, there's no ruling at all on them at this point.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. Now, Mr. Clark, the Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association, I, I just want to make sure I understand, that's not a corporation?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Not an LLC?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Not registered with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Doesn't handle any kind of money?

MR. CLARK: Nope.

MR. SCHMIDT: Doesn't file a tax return?

MR. CLARK: Nope.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is not a, a 503-C, I believe?

CHAIR: 501-C-3.

MR. CLARK: It's not a non-profit.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm not a tax lawyer. Non, it's not, it's not a non-profit?

MR. CLARK: It's not a, right, it is not a non-profit.

MR. SCHMIDT: It's, and, and I, please don't --

CHAIR: Just wait for his question.

MR. SCHMIDT: I don't mean to, to be insulting, but this is, essentially, an organization that was established by, I think you said four or five people at the beginning, to, to fight this particular project?

MR. CLARK: It was more than that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Well, I mean, I think you said on direct, I wrote down, there were four or five, four or five of us who decided to establish this. I understand that more people are in it now, but it was the brain, is it safe to say, it was the brainchild of you and several others who were leading the charge in opposition to this request?

MR. CLARK: No, the, the, the reason we formed was more than just this. It was a sense of community.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Has the organization taken a position on any other zoning cases?

MR. CLARK: We don't have any that are of, well, we, we probably would have, no, the answer is no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, the --

MR. CLARK: Oh, wait, no, no, no, no, I did.

CHAIR: Hold, hold on, hold on.

MR. HOLZER: I can't tell you.

CHAIR: Could we, could we, just to make --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- this abundantly clear, what is your best recollection --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: -- on that point?

MR. CLARK: We took a position on the Beachmont violation of the zoning where they were exceeding, as, as you saw on Exhibit --

MR. SCHMIDT: The corn maze attendance, I think you said.

MR. CLARK: Right, right. But if you see on the exhibit, on the exhibit related to the corn maze, there is a, a ticket thing. They are, they are required to keep a count of visitors so that they don't exceed their, their, their mail, their daily maximum of I believe five hundred. We had evidence that they were exceeding that. So, the Gunpowder Falls filed a zoning complaint and in order to remove that zoning complaint, that is when I then, the GFWPA then entered into an agreement with Beach, with, with Beachmont camp on how to resolve that issue.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is there, was there a zoning hearing on that?

MR. CLARK: Nope. No, no, no, because we withdrew it because we, we came to a --

CHAIR: A resolution.

MR. CLARK: -- a resolution, thank you, sir.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And we have that letter here.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, all right. But that was, ob, obviously that complaint about Beachmont occurred after you were involved in this particular case, or the issues surrounding this particular property? Because you were, you were formed as a result of this particular Petition for Special Exception.

MR. CLARK: We were formed in 2017.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And we filed the, the, the notice of complaint in, I believe it was June 2018, --

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: -- for the, the, --

CHAIR: Beachmont.

MR. SCHMIDT: Beachmont.

MR. CLARK: -- Beachmont Christian camp violation.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. But you were, I'm not trying to beat a dead horse, the pur, when Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association was formed, it was largely in response to the instant Petition for Special Exception --

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- not Beachmont?

MR. CLARK: No, I, I, I think if you look at our purposes in, you know, that was crafted for, for very specific reasons, our purposes. We, we were very thoughtful in how we did that and --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Now, I under, I'm sorry, didn't mean to interrupt, thought you were finished.

MR. CLARK: -- and, and the, the main purpose was not this, it was the preservation of the watershed, it was the whole sense of community. We, among other things, what we have done, and we were just talking about it during the break, is we have a series of programs, speaker series, for the community. One was on the World's End Hill, the, the history of, of Gunpowder Road, or of Harford Road, the Harford Turnpike. I will be, guess what I'll be presenting on?

CHAIR: I have an idea.

MR. CLARK: Forest, forest health, right? You know, and so on and so forth. And it's a way of bringing the community together because that has been lost to a large extent.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and there's no, I think you indicated there's no dues?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: And actually, if I lived within the geographic confines and I give you my e-mail address I can get in, I'm in?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Insofar as the, some, one of the conditions, you, you ask as a condition, I think, for my client to put some money or equitable relief.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I just don't --

CHAIR: That's a yes?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- I just don't understand what that is.

MR. CLARK: Okay. The idea is that as this Board knows, it, the rubber hits the road with conditions when it comes time for someone to, to file and to get something done, to get something corrected. And given what we have experienced, we would like an escrow account set up so that should we have to take action it doesn't come out of our pockets.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Have you ever heard of the admin, the Office of the Administrative Hearings, which includes Mr. Beverungen and Mr. Stahl's office, or this Board, ever imposing such a requirement before?

MR. CLARK: That was totally my thought as a businessman.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, the answer is no?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. You also want the Protestants to be able to enter the property?

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is there anything prohibiting people from coming on to the property or accepting the invitations that have been extended to this point?

MR. CLARK: I'm not trying to think of how to answer that, I'm just trying to, I'm just trying to think of --

CHAIR: You don't need to explain your pause.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Or your --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- (inaudible) reflection.

MR. CLARK: No, no, yeah, yeah. No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Also, this came up during someone else's testimony and I apologize, there was a lady who was a resident of the area and I, and I was trying to find the name and I can't find my note, who apparently has annual maybe or regular concerts on her property, do you remember that testimony?

CHAIR: These questions were asked of Mr. Poehler.

MR. SCHMIDT: Of Poehl, of Mr. Poehler, yes. Thank you, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know who that is?

MR. CLARK: No, I don't, I, first of all, I, I have never heard that music.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And second of all, I don't think it was identified where the music was coming from.

MR. SCHMIDT: My client told me. Do you know Patty Thorn?

MR. CLARK: I've met her once?

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know where she lives?

MR. CLARK: No, actually I don't.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you don't know how far her house is from you?

MR. CLARK: She lives, I know, I know she lives adjoining the property, --

CHAIR: Which?

MR. SCHMIDT: Adjoining your property?

MR. CLARK: -- adjoining, adjoining, adjoining, adjoining the, no, adjoining the, the --

CHAIR: Subject property?

MR. CLARK: The --

CHAIR: Subject property?

MR. CLARK: -- subject property.

CHAIR: And just to close the loop, Patty Thorn is the name of the woman --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: -- whose property was asked to Mr. Poehler.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know, do, do you know how close Patty Thorn's property is to you?

MR. CLARK: I would assume it's probably no further than the, the farthest bound of their property, of, of the subject property.

CHAIR: You're going to have to explain that.

MR. CLARK: Yeah. All right. I, I, I, I since, since I know her property adjoins subject property, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

MR. CLARK: -- I would assume that her property is no further than the furthest bound of their property from mine.

CHAIR: The southernmost point of their property along Harford Road, is that --

MR. CLARK: Or, or eastern, or eastern, I don't know.

CHAIR: You don't know, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. But you don't know where her property is?

MR. CLARK: No, I've never visited it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you've never heard any music come from her property before?

MR. CLARK: I have not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Suffice it to say then, if she does have concerts and you've never heard them, then at least you can't hear anything that's occurring of that nature on her property given the distance and the topography involved?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. He's already testified.

CHAIR: I'll, I'll say this, Mr. Holzer. I understand your frustration on this. You can save that part of it. Your objection is sustained because obviously it goes to various conditions that we have no idea about. So, as to --

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and I, I built those into my question, Mr. Garber.

CHAIR: That's all right. I understood you said topography and what else we don't know what type of amplification --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- we don't know the volume, we don't know what instruments, we don't know a whole bunch of factors and variables that can play into it. The fact of the matter is this witness has said he has never heard it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

MR. CLARK: I don't think it's going to aid anyone to then say well, given those other factors, if he's never heard it in the first place.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'll save it for argument. All right. Mr. Kotroco asked me about this. The t-shirts that say save our valley that everybody is wearing, which valley is that?

MR. CLARK: The, it, it is the little haystack valley, it's the valley that follows Harford Road.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. It's called the Little Haystack Valley?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: -- historic in some of the historic records. There isn't really a name for it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, so it's not the Long Green Valley?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and, and when it says save ours, our valley, Mr. Kotroco asked me to ask these, who is the our? Who is the owner of the haystack valley?

MR. CLARK: Those who own property on it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is, is the, is the Nepali property part of it?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I would say it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, okay, all right.

MR. CLARK: The, the, the haystack flows, is, is, is the, is the stream that flows on their eastern, not, and, and they don't own the stream but it is on the, on the east, it is on the eastern bound of, of their property.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Thank you, sir. I have no other questions, Mr. Garber. And saved, I, I just want to make sure that all of the exhibits that I introduced through my cross examination of this witness have been marked, they've all been offered. I understand that some have not yet been, been permitted, but other than the fact that addressing those issues relating to the admission of those documents I would be complete in my cross examination.

CHAIR: Thank you. And again, I also, you, we would also have reservation for cross examination on any potential matter that may arise from other things to occur in this case, such as resolution of that Motion that's pending --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- and all the other, the testimony from the ALJ that's still pending and just to whatever other --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I'd like to --

CHAIR: -- exhibits that are still in this limbo --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: -- still yet to resolve. So you certainly would be, have the right to cross examine during that time frame as well.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you. I don't believe I have any exhibits that are identification only.

CHAIR: Other than, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Other than the ones we just put in.

CHAIR: And to be clear, it's not a question as to what's identification only, there were a whole bunch of start and stops with certain exhibits --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: -- that are left in limbo. That, those are the ones I'm more concerned about then what's been already definitively ruled upon as i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right. I, I'm, I'm going to check my--

CHAIR: Your last six fall into that category at the moment.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. But I'm, was going to say, I think my recollection is, I'll have to check again, but I think all the exhibits that I put in in my case in chief, I think were all in without any question, but I'm going to look at it again.

CHAIR: Yes, and that's, that is my recollection. I, I don't profess to have full command over it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: But that's my recollection too.

MR. SCHMIDT: We'll, we'll, we'll definitely find out the answer by next time.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: Back to you, Mr. Holzer, as I know you at least have re-direct as to the exhibits that we were just referencing.

MR. HOLZER: (inaudible).

CHAIR: And I assume you may have others.

MR. HOLZER: I'm going to be very quick.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Trust me.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I don't want to miss dinner like I did yesterday.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, and I have a, I have a meeting downtown at 6:30, so.

MR. HOLZER: Well, you can leave now, I (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I mean, if I could get out of here at 5:30, that'd be great, it's 5:05.

CHAIR: All right. So, let's get to it, this way we can help everybody.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: The first question, the first question was, by counsel, and when I say that, I mean Mr. Schmidt, was in regard to Protestant's Exhibit 78, which dealt with the Grace Church. He specifically wanted us to look at page twenty-five and in the first paragraph.

CHAIR: Do you have that in front of you, sir?

MR. CLARK: I am looking, sir.

CHAIR: Here, I have (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Oh, no, I do, I found it, I found it.

CHAIR: You do? Okay. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. On, in that, we looked at item number seven and I, the only thing I recognized was they cited, or Mr. Clark cited the statement, the owner/developer shall be permitted to use grassy open areas of the subject property for overflow parking only during Christmas and Easter services. However, in our case, there has been testimony in regard to the grassy areas that there should not be parking on those grassy areas. I just wanted to clar, have you clarify that point. Was that not something that was of a concern to the Protestants?

MR. CLARK: Yes, it is because it, because of the topography and the sheet flow and the, the stream on the eastbound, all that, car, car fluids winds up going down. This, this, this is a, yeah, that's it, that's it.

MR. HOLZER: You've exceeded my authority to go beyond that.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, now the last sentence in that paragraph is there shall be no overflow parking permitted on the open fields of this property at any other time during the year. So, in effect, while they were talking about parking in open fields, our testimony related to the grassy area and the fields that you've shown one of the last pictures of all the cars parked on the grass.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: Is that right? Okay, fine. There. In here, there was a question about any proposal or any development suggestion in, in that document related to there shall be no additional buildings --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: -- in the Grace Church (inaudible). In our situation, there has been testimony by the Petitioners that there are no current proposals, and I underline current, because that would, as you understand, would allow additional potential development to come in at a later date or hearing, okay? Is that correct?

MR. CLARK: That is precisely what we're concerned about.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. So, one of the restrictions that I believe you've already covered, was that there would be no additional development. Now, there has been testimony by diff, different witnesses for the Petitioner that they were going to eliminate the swimming pool, or eliminate the tennis court, etcetera. But our position, when I say our, I mean the Protestants, would be that there would be no, not just current proposal to develop an additional building, but a limitation that there should be none on the conditions if some are given, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. The question, that takes care of number two. Question number three related to the historic district. I pulled a, a, Protestant's exhibit number thirty-nine, because there were questions raised by Mr. Schmidt about that. And, as, as to what it encompassed, how big it was, etcetera. And I'll leave it to the Board, but I would just point out, the historic district is six thousand sixty-six acres of agricultural area and would, and it describes gently rolling fields with crossroad villages such as Glen Arm and Baldwin and farm complexes.

CHAIR: Is there a question?

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, this is really argument, I mean, all this is.

CHAIR: I, I, I, I'm, I understood. I assume Mr. Holzer is getting to that.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, this is the, this is the, this is the reason that this historic district is relevant. On the last sentence of the first para, first page, approximately a hundred and twenty-five individual buildings, complexes, objects stand in the district, with the majority contributing to the significance of the district. The major intrusions or non-intrusive elements are industrial complexes around Glen Arm and groupings of post 1930 housing, so --

CHAIR: Okay. Is there a question directed to the witness about that?

MR. HOLZER: Is that, is that what you were referring to --

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: -- when you were talking about the National Historic Registry?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. SCHMIDT: The question is, did I just read that to you? I'm sorry, I don't mean to be smart but --

CHAIR: Well, I think what, I think what, hold on, hold on.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- this is all legal argument.

CHAIR: Hold on, hold, everyone --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'd be happy to address it.

MR. HOLZER: You asked the question.

CHAIR: -- everyone. Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Geez.

CHAIR: Calm down. I understand Protestant's Exhibit 39, it's already in evidence --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- as best as I recall. Is, if Mr. Holzer wants to say is this what you meant when you were discussing your testimony with the district, fine.

MR. HOLZER: That's all.

CHAIR: That, it doesn't matter what was just read, it is what it is.

MR. HOLZER: That's right, it is what it is. And I'm trying to get through it so --

CHAIR: So, overruled on the objection, although please make sure to, show him the, you can just show him the document the next time and then you could have eliminated all that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Let me directly to the point, Petitioner's Exhibit 38, 39 and 40 for i.d. This all relates to Beachmont corn maze, etcetera.

CHAIR: Just to be clear, thirty-eight, thirty-nine and forty?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: May I see that? May, may --

CHAIR: Right? Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Those three.

MR. CLARK: -- may I have a copy?

MR. HOLZER: Pardon?

MR. CLARK: May I have a copy? Thank you. I, I will return them.

CHAIR: Thank you. I've just handed my copies of thirty-eight, thirty-nine and forty and the handwriting on the bottom reflects the number.

MR. HOLZER: Would you, because they've been set up by the Petitioners as, in request of, or in an analysis of Beachmont, my question to you is, can you explain if there is a difference between the effects of Beachmont on those documents, the corn maze, etcetera, Beachmont, how it affects your property and your neighboring property as it relates to the subject site being developed in that fashion?

MR. SCHMIDT: Ob, just objection. Isn't, I don't, I don't know. A lot of this is just legal argument, which Mr. Holzer, I can certainly allow, allow him to, to say --

CHAIR: I, I, I didn't understand the question as it was.

MR. SCHMIDT: But I'm not sure what the question is.

CHAIR: I didn't understand your question.

MR. HOLZER: The question is, the question is, now that this has been introduced by the Petitioners, thirty-eight, thirty-nine and forty.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. HOLZER: How is the relationship of Beachmont affecting its neighbors different from how it affects yours?

CHAIR: Okay. I understand the question.

MR. CLARK: I, I, I would broaden that to say how it affects the communities.

CHAIR: I would answer Mr. Holzer's question.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Just answer my question first, please.

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay. But, but the Beachmont property where all, where they hold all the activities, it's down in a bowl, okay? And all the sound is contained within that bowl. There are, in fact, Reverend Standifer acts as their alarm bell for, for when things get too loud, that would disturb the, the property owners across the road.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I'm sorry, --

MR. CLARK: Okay. Yeah, and, and --

MR. HOLZER: -- you're, you're not finished, go ahead.

MR. CLARK: -- and, and the subject site is on a pinnacle that, as you could see from some of the photos, looks straight down haystack valley. And the sound just travels. So, that, that's a difference in, in, in the sites and how they impact their, their communities.

MR. HOLZER: So there's no, so there's no question that in Beachmont, and as shown in these three exhibits, there's no question that they conduct this kind of activity, is that --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: The question is, if this kind of activity were to be placed on the subject property, would that be a problem in your perspective?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I have no objection to these documents being admitted.

CHAIR: Thirty-eight through forty are admitted.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Now, let's, let's, if we can, --

CHAIR: Hold on. Are you going to do Redeemer next?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: I'm handing out my exhibits for forty-one through forty-three to the witness for that point.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, on Exhibits 41, 42 and 43 for the Petitioner, you understand what that is?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. That is in regard to what takes place at Redeemer?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Redeemer has a church on the property, is that --

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Beachmont, Beachmont has no church or other religious facility on their property?

MR. CLARK: And the two are unrelated.

MR. HOLZER: Well, that was going to be my next question. Is there any relationship between the Redeemer Classic Christian School and the Beachmont project?

MR. CLARK: Other than the fact that the land acquired for the Beachmont property came from Ron Standifer.

MR. HOLZER: Ron Standifer being, for the record, the pastor of Redeemer Christian School.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: Is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: All right. So, on, on these, on Petitioner's forty-one in regards to the activities that take place, a lot of the sporting activities, do you know whether they take place outside or inside the facility? If you know?

MR. CLARK: Well, I, I, I testified I know, I, I have seen, you know, them with the soccer, at the soccer field. I should, yes, yes, and there's, I'll wait for your next question.

MR. HOLZER: Are, are there any activities that take place inside, to your knowledge?

MR. CLARK: I don't think they, other than classroom, I don't think they have --

CHAIR: He's asking whatever your knowledge is.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, right, right, right, right.

CHAIR: So, if you don't know, you don't know.

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, I, --

MR. HOLZER: If you don't know, you don't know.

MR. CLARK: No, I, no, I, I don't think so.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. That's not a problem. In regard to exhibit number forty-three, which are the sporting activities, you've already covered that, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Well, and, and, and the, the fields are in, in a corner that are far, are far away from most, from most of the housing. They went through the process of dealing with the community in setting those things up.

MR. HOLZER: When you say the community, do you mean an organized community?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, there was Mount Vista Civic Association was very involved in setting the, the parameters for, for Redeemer and I don't know who decided that case.

MR. HOLZER: But for, but for, it, we don't really need to know any of that information.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: But otherwise, they resolved the issue, the fields --

MR. CLARK: And the fields were located where they, where, where, and I believe he's got a berm there.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: To, to, to deflect some of the sound.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, there were conditions that were attached to Redeemer and their facility also?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: And we're not saying how it was attached or whether there was a case or not.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: I have no objection to Petitioner's one, forty-one, forty-two --

CHAIR: Forty-one, forty-two, forty-three.

MR. HOLZER: -- or forty-three.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you. They are admitted.

MR. HOLZER: And one thing that has been brought up in regard to the efforts to meet with you, all the questions related to, you know, were you invited here, were you invited there, do you understand where I am?

MR. CLARK: I do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Do you recall me advising you for the last thirty, forty years, I tell every Protestant group that I represent that I desire that they meet with the other side to determine whether there's any way to resolve any issues. Do you remember me telling you that?

MR. CLARK: You made it abundantly clear that we were to listen whenever somebody wanted to talk.

MR. HOLZER: All right. And so, did you follow that advice?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. No further questions at all.

CHAIR: Anything further?

MR. SCHMIDT: Just very quickly. You're not an acoustical engineer?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. HOLZER: I am.

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did you hire an acoustical engineer to do any analysis of the decibels?

MR. CLARK: No, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: At either Beachmont or Redeemer or the subject property?

MR. CLARK: We considered it and --

MR. SCHMIDT: But you didn't. The answer is no.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Well, let him answer.

CHAIR: Hold, hold, hold on. It's really, I, I understand what you're saying.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: However, I also understand what Mr. Schmidt is saying, it's not that complicated. Did you retain some, an acoustical engineer --

MR. CLARK: We, we, we considered it.

CHAIR: Did you retain?

MR. CLARK: We consulted.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: In an attempt to retain.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Did that, as a result of that consultation, did that form any of your, or go to forming any of your opinions? Because that was a question that was asked earlier.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, --

MR. CLARK: No, because the, the, the events were so sporadic that we wouldn't be able to set up equipment to actually measure.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, back to you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, just very quickly. I think what I tried to do during my cross examination on this top, topic, Mr. Clark, is I was trying to identify expert witnesses that you had consulted in connection with this case as you were preparing for your presentation. And you identified Mr. Jakubiak, who is going to testify, an unnamed traffic engineer --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- who you said wasn't worth the money and you decided, whom actually, I think you said, met Mr. Collagero out at the property or when Mr. Coll, Collagero was there --

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- but you didn't, you didn't, he's not here or he hasn't, he's not going to testify. And now there's this acous, at least an acoustical engineer who you dis, talked to but you didn't retain.

MR. CLARK: Attempted to retain.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is there, just so we know, --

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- is there any other witnesses, any other expert witnesses? I tried to be broad before.

MR. CLARK: No, I, I know, I know, --

MR. SCHMIDT: And you didn't tell us about the acoustic guy.

MR. CLARK: Well, and the, the, you know, this, this was a direct respond to, you, you stimulated me.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right. Have you talked to any septic people or?

MR. CLARK: Go, yeah, go, no, no septic.

MR. SCHMIDT: No septic.

MR. CLARK: No civil engineers.

MR. SCHMIDT: No landscape architects?

MR. CLARK: No landscape architects.

MR. SCHMIDT: No surveyors?

MR. CLARK: No surveyors.

MR. SCHMIDT: No sanitarians?

MR. CLARK: No sanitarians.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: No, no, you know, I, it's fair and, you know, --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, fair enough.

CHAIR: So then it's fair to say that sitting here in the moment, there's nobody else that you would have tried to retain or like a, in terms of consultant or an expert witness, that you not otherwise have identified?

MR. CLARK: That I can, this is --

CHAIR: I said sitting here right now in this moment.

MR. CLARK: The, not as a fudge word, that I can recall.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer, do you have any follow-up as a result of all that?

MR. HOLZER: No, I hope we're done.

CHAIR: And I take it that's it from you, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Because you're packing up.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: I was going to say, don't give him another chance.

CHAIR: Yes. So, well, I wanted to make sure the record was clear that everyone's --

MR. SCHMIDT: Let the record reflect that I was about two hours, less than that, after two and a half days of direct examination.

MR. CLARK: And I appreciate it.

MR. HOLZER: Let the record reflect that he's wonderful. He's a wonderful attorney.

CHAIR: All right. So, you are done on the stand.

MR. CLARK: Even with the potential for cross?

CHAIR: There are the, still minor issues to be resolved, so but as for his testimony he is literally a witness who is done testifying at the moment, but there is the right, obviously, to recall him on those other points.

MR. HOLZER: On the limited issues.

CHAIR: On, for those very limited issues.

MR. HOLZER: Exactly. I don't want him on the stand any longer than --

CHAIR: I'm sure he would also agree with that.

MR. CLARK: And, and, but, but I just want to be clear. I'm pretty much free of all encumberments?

CHAIR: I'm not going to give you advice, other than to say you would be better served to listen to what Mr. Holzer tells you.

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay.

MR. HOLZER: I certainly will tell him.

MR. CLARK: You will.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: So, with that in mind, we are adjourned for today. We are meeting again 9:00 a.m. February 5th. We all know the, we'll call them, we call them minor matters, that are still out there and open and we also have Mr. Jakubiak that day. I'm not asking you today as to what you intend to do with rebuttal because we still have some substantive matters to get through.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MS. DOPKIN: We're off the record.

(ON RECORD – 09:09:06 AM)

CHAIR: I'm sorry, everyone, please be seated.

MS. DOPKIN: Ready?

CHAIR: Yeah. All right. All right. So, all right, everybody. We are back here today in the matter of Nepali American Cultural Center of Maryland, 12231 Harford Road, case number 2018-122-X. I believe we're on day eight, having last been here November 29th. First thing I'm going to do, or we're going to do up here, is discuss the Motion to admit Protestant's Exhibits, well, what had been labeled as 23, 24 in the Motion but in the record and as corrected, 22 and 23. So, we'll start with that. Now, I don't need to hear anything further. We've already had a ruling on this. The parties have both submitted, there's a written Motion, followed by the written Response and then a reply by Protestants.

So, it will, I will say we got into this back and forth in large part because I believe at the outset, Protestant's counsel showed Mr. Ghimire, who was a witness on the stand, the proposed exhibits prior to Mr. Schmidt's review and prior to the Board's review.

It is abundantly clear, and this is not trying to point fingers at Mr. Holzer in terms of he did something intentionally wrong or whatever, but by way of course, this is what has caused us to have this Motion and have to respond here today.

So, Mr. Ghimire was asked some questions about it before Mr. Schmidt had the opportunity to review. Now that we've had the opportunity to review and read the transcript as well as to what, the events of that day, I will state the following.

First of all, County Board Rule of Evidence 7-A states, any evidence which would be admissible under the general rules of evidence applicable in judicial proceedings in the State of Maryland, shall be admissible in hearings before the County Board of Appeals. Proceedings before the Board being administrative in nature, the Board will not be bound by the technical rules of evidence, but will apply such rules to the end that needful and proper evidence shall be most conveniently, inexpensively and speedily produced while preserving the substantial rights of the parties.

The, and I'm not going word for word here, but the Board reserves the right as a matter of policy to provide for the exclusion of immaterial or unduly repetitious evidence and the number of witnesses may, well, we don't need that.

Okay. So, let me start with there seems to be some bit of misunderstanding as to the prior ruling. The prior ruling was not solely premised upon why it was being directed at Mr. Ghimire. That is the first hurdle of that analysis. Why are we tendering this over to Mr. Ghimire?

Mr. Ghimire at first started answering questions as if he had some knowledge as to what went on but then denied having any role whatsoever, whether he or the organization, that's Petitioner, had any role in sponsorship, leadership, management or any other type of role in connection with the event at issue. In fact, questions by me, he denied specifically having any type of role.

So, that's not the threshold or, excuse me, that's the threshold matter for why that witness but that's not dispositive of the matter. So, even assuming by, from what Mr. Holzer has submitted, that Ghimire Homes, Homes is Mr. Ghimire's company, that does not make the police reports admissible, even accepting that as a fact.

There is a relevance issue that is any evidence that has tendency to make existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence. Evidence is material if it tends to establish a proposition that is of legal significance to the litigation.

Additionally, Rule 5-403 states that even if relevant, evidence can be excluded if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice. Evidence may also be excluded on the basis of confusion of issues, being misleading to the fact finder, cause an undue delay or waste of time.

So, the question I asked then was specifically directed to Mr. Ghimire. It does not resolve the other matters of the relevance materiality and whether or not its probative value is at issue with the sub, danger of substantial prejudice that could be caused by admission of those police reports.

So, what are we here to decide? We are here to decide the special exception factors. We are here to decide if this proposed use at this proposed site is in some way, I guess, worse off at this location than it would be at any other RC-2 zone location, particularly under Schultz v. Pritz, the Board must assess whether there are facts and circumstances that show the particular use proposed at the particular location would have any adverse effects above and beyond those inherently associated with the special exception use, irrespective of its location within the zone.

Therefore, the best case scenario for Protestants in this regard, is that this property somehow would cause the same result that happened out on an off site event, would occur on this property but not at other properties with an RC-2 zone, which is not at all why it's being proffered. It's being proffered because there's an allegation that it may cause some type of risk to the general welfare or safety because you can't, as I understood it, trust the organizers of that event, some of whom are members of Petitioner's organization to safely run their operations.

Of course, that's an absurd proposition to suggest that somehow this property will be different, whatever events will unfold at this property will be different as to any other RC-2 zone property. In fact, the only way to look at what is being proffered is here is an example of someone who appears or may be Nepali and we can expect this type of behavior to occur at the site because the people who will be using the site are Nepali.

That is how I understand what's going on and I gave Mr. Holzer the benefit of the doubt that that is not his intent for knowing him longer than I have others, you know, in this room for example.

So, I will give Mr. Holzer the benefit of the doubt that that was not his intent, but that is, unfortunately, how it is being received. That it could be only ever used for, frankly, an offensive proposition to paint one group of people with one brush when all we have is a, what appears to be a fist fight between several people and some other altercation, some other disturbance. I'm not going to hold that against Petitioner in any way, shape or form. Moreover, the proposition or the thought of even having to engage in this consideration of where this falls within the line, shows to me, or illustrates the absurdity of using this, these reports in this case particularly.

So, I categorically reject and deny the Motion and the evidence. I understand it is there for identification only, for purposes of any appeal. But I want to make it abundantly clear, this evidence cannot be used in any way, shape or form in this matter. It speaks to none of the issues that the Board has to consider or analyze. It has nothing to do factually with anything that's at issue or somehow sheds light on any matter here.

And even if there was arguable relevance and materiality, Rule 5-403 dictates that it not be admitted. So, I hope this, without any clarification, further clarification needed, ends and resolves this issue as to the admissibility of Pet, Protestant's Exhibits 22 and 23. Ms. Dopkin?

MS. DOPKIN: I concur.

CHAIR: Mr. McComas?

MR. MCCOMAS: I concur as well.

CHAIR: With that in mind, are the parties ready to proceed further or do you need a couple minutes to collect yourselves to then assemble whatever you think is coming next?

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm ready to move forward.

MR. HOLZER: I'd like to have a few moments, if I could, five minutes, or ten, ten minutes.

CHAIR: Okay. Before we go there, I'm just going to do a couple housekeeping things for purposes of today's hearing. Remember, that when we come back, we are on the record here and things are being recorded. As I cautioned in hearings past, please have your cell phones off. Please, to the best of your ability, and I know this particularly applies to you people here on Protestants' side, try to avoid sitting in the back row, just so that's able to be used as ingress and egress from the other side so people don't have to come around the front. I realize if it gets too crowded, there's only so much we can do. So, there's that.

Also, keep in mind this is a courtroom and we will have everyone act accordingly. There's to be no talking amongst yourselves, nodding in agreement, high fives, nodding your heads in approval or mouthing answers or anything to, to that extent. There's to be no reaction to testimony either.

Finally, as it relates to the inclement weather policy, because we are getting snow today, and I understand that for today and tomorrow's hearings, there have been phone calls that have already been made to the Board. If the Baltimore County government offices are closed, all hearings are cancelled and rescheduled at the earliest possible date. If there's a delay, we will be on delay. So, if you in, are intending to be here tomorrow at 9:00 a.m. and you think there's the possibility we may be closed, you need to check the Baltimore County government website or otherwise find that information to determine when we are open. All right. With that in mind, I'll give you five minutes?

MR. HOLZER: Could I make a request before that? Number one, I would, I understand that it, that based on your denial of the Motion and the agreement of both members of the Board other than yourself, was that deliberated prior to today?

CHAIR: Absolutely not.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, there's that, that encompassed the deliberation when you asked each party for, whether they agreed or didn't agree and they had no advance ruling of what you were going to rule?

CHAIR: They had no idea how I was, well, I would say, except for Ms. Dopkin would have an idea because she was part of the Board when we actually did this originally. Mr. McComas may be familiar because of the transcripts, but outside of that, no. This was not discussed in any way, shape or form with either Ms. Dopkin or Mr. McComas as to the, whatever I said in terms of the Motion, how it was decided or anything else.

MR. HOLZER: And, --

CHAIR: I just, I, I would say the only thing was to make sure that they had copies of everything, that was it, and that was right before we came in here today.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. We have a new member of the Board, Mr. McComas, is sitting here in front of us. He has not been introduced, he has not been identified as having read all of the other material and I would like that on the record as to what's going on in terms of the Board membership --

CHAIR: I will --

MR. HOLZER: -- and whether or not Ms. Murphy is no longer going to participate, etcetera --

CHAIR: Fair point. I will say this. Ms. Murphy is slowly getting back to work. She is unable to sit as a member for this panel. So, you can expect going forward it will be Ms. Dopkin, Mr. McComas and myself.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: Mr. McComas has been provided with the materials. I can't speak to anything else he's done with the materials. I'm not going to ask him to say anything with the materials, but I expect that he will be, have some, some familiarity by virtue of the fact that he is a Board member and he had access to the materials. So, I am assuming that he is up to speed and ready to go. I'm not going to ask him questions or put him on the spot as to his command over anything in the record.

MR. HOLZER: So, at this point the record does not indicate one way or the other whether he's read any of the transcripts from the prior seven hearings?

CHAIR: I'm not going to do that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: Sure thing.

MR. HOLZER: We can take a break if that's your pleasure.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just one other question, I'm sorry.

There was another Motion that was recently filed by Mr. Holzer.

CHAIR: Thank you for bringing that up.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I just wanted to know if we were going to address that today.

CHAIR: I understood, and correct me if I'm wrong, that you have not submitted a response as of yet, --

MR. SCHMIDT: I have not. I am prepared to discuss it but I, I would want to present a written response so it's in the file.

CHAIR: And, and I apologize. Yes, that is correct. We have not received a written response from you and I don't think by time it was even due as of yet.

MR. SCHMIDT: That's correct.

CHAIR: So, we are not going to be ruling on that today, we're going to give you the opportunity to file a written response and then have Mr. Holzer, give him some opportunity, to the best as possible, to reply. Now, keeping in mind our schedule, which is we have tomorrow and I want to say it's February 5th and February 13th is the backup date and also has to be the last date for any possible evidence if we're not completed before then.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: In light of the fact that we are trying to get then memos in and an opinion out the door before April 30th. So, with that in mind, I don't know when your response would be due. I'm assuming it's not due by tomorrow, so that would tell me that February 5th would be the date that that would be addressed.

MR. SCHMIDT: And let me just say, Mr. Garber, because of the time I'm not going to be using my full eighteen days or fifteen days in mailing. I'll have something filed, I would anticipate, the very beginning of the week. I'll, I'll send a copy to Mr. Holzer so that you all have it quickly. I'm happy to do that to try to move and, and keep, be mindful of the schedule.

CHAIR: I appreciate that and I think that's best. Mr. Holzer, I also have a recollection that there has been some discussion, perhaps, or maybe I'm wrong on this point. That there may be, had, had been some discussion as to the effect of Petitioner's Exhibit 34? Is that not your recollection?

MR. HOLZER: Petitioner's Exhibit 34, is the, that the Motion that we're talking about?

CHAIR: The second Motion, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- the one regarding the --

MR. HOLZER: What about it?

CHAIR: -- its purported clarification from Judge Beverungen on the ALJ Order, right? To the best of your recollection, that has not been addressed in, by this Board?

MR. HOLZER: No. As I said in, in the, the Motion, I took an appeal from that, even though, and we were within the thirty days in terms of --

CHAIR: This isn't a question about that.

MR. HOLZER: Oh.

CHAIR: The question is, we, there's nothing in the record presently on that point?

MR. HOLZER: That's exactly right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: You're exactly right.

CHAIR: That's where I'm at.

MR. HOLZER: That's why I waited to file the Motion.

CHAIR: Okay. So, you heard from Mr. Schmidt.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Obviously, I'm going to try to give you some window to res, to reply if you feel the need to reply.

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

CHAIR: But other than that, we'll just take a brief five minute break.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: And then we'll get to the testimony because we do have a lot to get through today as best as we possibly can because of the condensed schedule, so.

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

CHAIR: All right, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, sir.

MR. MCCOMAS: If you guys, if you guys can also just confirm, I have Protestant, we're on the, the next exhibit would be forty-eight and on the Petitioner the next exhibit would be thirty-five is what I have.

MR. HOLZER: Forty-eight, okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: Forty-eight and thirty-five.

(RECORDING PAUSED - 09:25:34 AM)

(ON RECORD – 09:35:57 AM)

CHAIR: Please be seated. Are we back on the record? Okay. I understand a question has arisen about sign in sheets, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, I'll address that. As I understand it, you have asked Ms. Cannington for a sign in sheet, or asked about the presence of a sign in sheet --

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: -- today and in conjunction with any other days that have passed. It is my understanding that as per Board practice in every other case, we do not provide sign in sheets unless there is a specific need to do so or reason to do so that's identified in advance. Moreover, it is the common practice of this Board to have, the parties usually provide their own sign in sheets to indicate who is here or whatever. And then there's always the question about are they admissible, or even admissible in the case as it is. We usually just as a courtesy accept them into the record, or at least as part of the file. But in, it doesn't speak to any particular issue. So, with that in mind, would you or would you not like a sign in sheet?

MR. HOLZER: Well, the first six days we had sign in sheets here and both parties signed in.

CHAIR: I don't know that, I assume that to be the case, I'll take your word for it.

MR. HOLZER: Well, I'm sure everybody signed in on both sides, including over, over at the County Council.

CHAIR: I don't know that to be a fact. If it --

MR. HOLZER: Well, but that's been the practice of this Board for years and years is to have a sign in sheet, at least --

CHAIR: I would disagree with, with that respectfully. And I say that because I don't, we don't ever leave sign in sheets out on the tables for parties to sign. Usually, there are, the parties themselves have sign in sheets. If there are sign in sheets, I understand that also it tends to be that counsel retains some of the sign in sheets, because the Board doesn't receive them, the Board will receive them in evidence or at the conclusion of a hearing if there are any.

MR. HOLZER: I have sign in sheets from January 7, January 17th, it looks like January, anyway --

CHAIR: It couldn't be January 17, it must be July maybe?

MR. HOLZER: Maybe it was Jul, July. In any event, I've got all the copies of sign in sheets, which we got from the Board.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Schmidt, you have anything you want to say on this point?

MR. SCHMIDT: I have no position either way, to be, quite honestly.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, is it your intent to put that in the record, the sign in sheets?

MR. HOLZER: I can.

CHAIR: I'm asking, what do you want to do? I, I'm really asking what is it do you want?

MR. HOLZER: Well, I, I just want to understand why things, I understand why there were no sign in sheets at the last hearing, because there was no evidence to be taken.

CHAIR: There wasn't, correct.

MR. HOLZER: And there were a number of people that came, a number of people that didn't come. But we have, had a history of, of sign in sheets on both sides, both parties, throughout the whole hearing and I was shocked to see that there was no sign in sheet for today.

CHAIR: I, you are telling me things that I would have no knowledge of because it is my understanding there's no sign in sheets that are left on the tables for, for the parties, it's up to the, the parties get their people who are present to sign in but whatever it is you want to do with the sign in sheet, if you want one today, we can certainly have one today and if that makes it better, you want to put that into the record, we can do that.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: But we're, I'm going to defer to Ms. Cannington at all times.

MR. HOLZER: That's fine.

CHAIR: On that, on that issue.

MR. HOLZER: I would too. She's been around a long time, so.

CHAIR: She is excellent at her job and I'm going to just listen to her.

MR. HOLZER: I'm going to proffer that the prior sign in sheets for all the earlier days were obtained by us from the Board's office and I can introduce these, if you'd like, but I don't see where it's necessary. I'm just proffering that all the sign in sheets were obtained and kept by this Board and if you'd like, I can show you.

CHAIR: I will, I mean, again, I'm, I'm not disputing anything you're saying about this. I'm, if the purpose of it is to say that you've had a number of people on behalf of the community here present for these hearings, I think --

MR. HOLZER: No, no, no.

CHAIR: -- we can certainly --

MR. HOLZER: It's, it's not, what I --

CHAIR: -- visually we are well aware of how well attended these hearings have been.

MR. HOLZER: No, I want, I want these in the record now.

CHAIR: Okay, then that's fine.

MR. HOLZER: And the reason that I want them in the record is because there was testimony about them in regard to the Motion and the, and the evidence that was submitted in, in regard to the activities offsite that caused eleven police cruisers to have to appear. The Motion that you just ruled on, and so these documents, as collective, would be --

CHAIR: Are you ready, Mr. McComas?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yeah, well, act, actually, I'm looking at Protestant's sign in sheet, exhibit number one. And it's, something has already been, has already been entered. I don't know whether that is what you're going to give to me or not or whether that's something else.

CHAIR: Oh, no, this is, I think this is just from the --

MR. MCCOMAS: Well, it says here, I'm looking at the description, Protestant's sign in sheet. So,

CHAIR: Well, this was probably from either the hearing below or (inaudible) board meeting for them.

MR. MCCOMAS: Is that what it is? All right.

CHAIR: Yeah, this is all from below.

MR. MCCOMAS: All right.

CHAIR: This is the ALJ.

MR. MCCOMAS: All right. So, (inaudible) not the same.

MR. HOLZER: I understand that these are copies of what was in the Board's --

CHAIR: And I understand. Mr. Schmidt, do you have any, any --

MR. HOLZER: -- I cannot intro, I cannot introduce them today because there is writing on them.

CHAIR: It's for the --

MR. HOLZER: Could I make copies and have them submitted?

CHAIR: I'm just asking if he has any objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just, objection to the sign in sheets?

CHAIR: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: Okay. So, when you're ready to submit the actual copies, if it's tomorrow, so be it.

MR. HOLZER: I would, I would offer them as Protestant's forty-nine, is it --

MR. MCCOMAS: Forty-eight.

MR. HOLZER: Forty-eight, okay.

CHAIR: Do you want to give them then to Ms. Cannington for copying so you can receive them back today so that there's not a question?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, that would be perfect.

CHAIR: Can I see that?

MR. HOLZER: That would be perfect.

MR. SCHMIDT: And Mr. Holzer, that's the sign in sheets from everyone, both sides?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: That, that, I mean, if I just reflects who's here.

CHAIR: Well, do you want --

MR. HOLZER: Actually, --

CHAIR: -- let's do, here's what we're going to do. We're going to, I, can we, let's just get to the evidence today. Here's what we're going to do. At a break, Mr. Schmidt, please review the files to make sure you're satisfied.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: When that is done, hold on, at a break, not now.

MR. HOLZER: Well, citizens and Petitioners.

CHAIR: And then, once that's done, you give them to Ms. Cannington for copying, we'll put it formally into the record. This issue is resolved. So, this way we can just move on, we don't have to spend our time worrying about sign in sheets. So, --

MR. HOLZER: Okay, will do.

CHAIR: Next, so we're in the middle of Protestant's case, we've heard from Dr. Mary Clark, we've heard from Joyce Mason, Dave Poehler, Kris Ghimire, as an adverse witness, and we last left off with Dr. Dewey Clark.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: And that's where we're at.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct. But before Dr. Clark goes back on the stand, I've got a one other live witness today, has a document from King, Greater Kingsville Civic Association I just want to put in.

CHAIR: Well, we're actually in the middle of Dr. Clark's testimony, so Mr. Schmidt, this is an irregularity in presentation, do you have any objections?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, if there is someone who can only be here today and Mr. Holzer wants to put him on.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm, I'm find with that.

CHAIR: As long as you have no objection, we can do that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Where did my stuff go? What I'm handing to counsel is the Greater Kingsville Civic Association Rule 8 with the vote attached. And I'm giving you the original and three copies.

CHAIR: So, for, for the record, because we were starting to identify the sign in sheets, this will be Exhibit 48, not the sign in sheets.

MR. HOLZER: Oh.

CHAIR: I'm just clarifying it for the record.

MR. HOLZER: Gotcha, okay. Okay. So change, right.

CHAIR: So, and this is from the Greater Kingsville?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, the original, originally I had introduced the fact that I was representing them.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And we didn't have the Rule 8.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: So, now that's what Rule 8 is and --

CHAIR: Well, just, what's the formal name again? Greater Kingsville?

MR. HOLZER: Great, yes, Greater Kingsville Civil Association.

CHAIR: Civic Association, Inc.

MR. HOLZER: Yep.

CHAIR: Okay. Any objection, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, can you, can you just give me a minute or can I defer on that? I just want to look at Rule 8 and look at the document and see if it comports with Rule 8. If it does, I have no objection. But I just haven't seen it, so I don't know what it is.

CHAIR: No problem.

MR. MCCOMAS: I've got a question for him. So, so I've got two originals, we have two references for me to put exhibit numbers on there, are there any differences here?

MR. HOLZER: I'm, I'm sorry. Look at the sign, look at who signed, it should be ink, both of them.

CHAIR: Dorothy (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: This is the original.

CHAIR: I can't read the name.

MR. MCCOMAS: So you have two originals?

MR. HOLZER: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: So you're going to submit --

MR. HOLZER: Well, I don't, I'll take one back if it's okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: All right. I'm just going to, I'm just going to cross this off. That's what I've already marked here.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, what I'll do is, just so we don't--

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I wanted to make sure.

MR. MCCOMAS: Because (inaudible).

MR. HOLZER: Gotcha, thank you.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible).

CHAIR: Here. Take my copy, that's fine. So, to, to move on further from this, Mr. Schmidt, at a break, I'll let you, let me know your opinions as to where you stand on it. Exhibit 48 will be conditionally admitted pending Mr. Schmidt's review and any objections. Therefore, I'm, this way we can move forward.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: So, it'll be conditionally admitted on that basis and Mr. Schmidt will inform us after he's had time to review Rule 8 and the paperwork.

MR. HOLZER: Fine.

CHAIR: Okay?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Morgan?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, good morning.

CHAIR: Good morning. Does everybody have their cell phones off? Okay.

MS. DOPKIN: All right. Don't sit down quite yet. Do you swear and affirm under the penalties of perjury that the testimony you are about to give is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief?

MR. MORGAN: I do.

MS. DOPKIN: Would you state your name and address for the record, spelling your last name?

MR. MORGAN: Bruce Morgan, M-O-R-G-A-N, and I'm on 3 Longknoll Road, that's in Kingsville, Maryland 21087.

CHAIR: 21807.

MR. MORGAN: 21087.
CHAIR: 21087.
MR. MORGAN: Yes.
CHAIR: And you said Longknoll Way?
MR. MORGAN: Long, Longknoll Way.
CHAIR: K-N-O-L-L?
MR. MORGAN: Yeah, Longknoll, one word, --
CHAIR: Oh, okay, that's one word.
MR. MORGAN: Yeah, Longknoll, one word, Way.
CHAIR: Thank you. And he's been sworn.
MR. HOLZER: Mr. Morgan, Mr. Morgan, how long have you lived at that property?
MR. MORGAN: Two years.
MR. HOLZER: Okay and how far away from the proposed site is that property?
MR. MORGAN: As the crow flies, maybe three miles.
MR. HOLZER: Okay and do you have any neighbors that are involved in this case?
MR. MORGAN: Yes, Dr. Clarke lives, I think, like four doors down from me.
MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, how did you get involved in this particular case when you live three or four miles away?
MR. MORGAN: Originally, --
CHAIR: I should, real quick, he did point to a gentleman who's sitting on Petitioner's side of the room, I believe he identified he was Dr. Clarke.

MR. MORGAN: Yes, I believe it's Dr. Clarke, yes.

CHAIR: Okay. Sorry, Mr. Holzer, to cut you off, but I do want to get that into the record, that he's pointing to a gentleman who he's identified as his neighbor.

MR. HOLZER: Thanks. No problem. How did you get involved in this particular, as an interested party, in this particular issue since you --

MR. MORGAN: I got a, I got a letter about a year ago, I believe it was, that this newly formed GFWPA was holding a meeting to discuss the Bonaparte situation. I, I went primarily because I had just moved into the area, I didn't know anything about what was going on and I had actually been to that, I actually did work at that property probably twenty-five years ago. So, I went out of curiosity.

MR. HOLZER: What kind of work do you do now?

MR. MORGAN: Termite and pest control.

MR. HOLZER: And you had actually visited the site before?

MR. MORGAN: They had asked me to examine the site at one point in time, it had been a long time ago.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I mean, can, can you sort of give a ballpark figure of how long ago that was?

MR. MORGAN: Probably, at least twenty-five years ago.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and certainly if that, that wasn't under the current ownership of the property?

MR. MORGAN: No, no.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, --

MR. MORGAN: I don't remember who the owner was at the time, but it was, somebody was there.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. How long have you lived in the area of Kingsville, Baltimore County?

MR. MORGAN: Two years.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: Two years. I moved there from, from Perry Hall.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, you, you were, when you were in Perry Hall, were you familiar with the site? Obviously, you went there for one occasion but are you familiar with the road system?

MR. MORGAN: With the roads, in traveling there, I drive about thirty-five, forty thousand miles a year in my business and that's all in the, in the general metropolitan area so I've been up and past that property many, many times.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Now, as a result of going to the, the first meeting to find out what was going on, what happened then?

MR. MORGAN: Well, I, I had listened to statements from members of this newly formed group and was concerned about their issues relating to noise and traffic and so forth that had been put on the local community there. And, you know, I was, I was concerned because I felt that, that if this type of activity were permitted there, in a, a rural, agricultural, residential property, that it could happen anywhere in Baltimore County.

CHAIR: If I, I'm sorry, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I, I'm, I would, I held off making any statement, Mr. Garber, because I was trying to figure out --

CHAIR: Well, hold on, is this an objection?

MR. SCHMIDT: It is an objection. And I would object to, to the witness' testimony.

CHAIR: Well, I, I get that. What's the reason?

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, first of all, I don't think there's any standing that this witness has living three miles away from the property, that that is such a distance that he just seems to be a matter, a member of the general public and, as you know, there must be a showing that there is some standing, normally guided by proximity and I know this Board has had recent cases on that issue. So, I'm not going to lecture you on that.

Above and beyond that, I, I kept waiting to hear where we were going with this and I think the remarks that he started his last answer with is he's concerned about traffic and the impact from a standpoint of, the impact on rural areas. If he's not a land planner or someone with ex, traffic engineer, it would seem to me that he would, I was waiting to see if he was going to be qualified as an expert witness and apparently he is not.

So, based on the fact that this is a member of the public who lives three miles away, I would object.

CHAIR: Okay. You can save yourself. As you well know, Mr. Schmidt, the concept of standing here in an administrative level is broad, is actually an interested party and that is a broader topic than standing if we were in District or Circuit Court, or Circuit Court, excuse me. And Mr. Morgan has testified that he travels up and down Harford Road.

One of the issues raised in this case is the traffic issues. He, as someone who apparently has testified already, that he commutes with some regularity up and down Harford Road and is familiar with the property and drives past the property, certainly he could provide testimony as to whatever Mr. Holzer is going to elicit out of him and then the Board can receive it for whatever weight that is due.

He's not being received as an expert so with, if something comes up that would be an expert opinion, obviously feel free to object. This is not a ruling as to any future testimony. I did have one question, sir, though.

MR. MORGAN: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, let me (inaudible) direct objection it is overruled. The question I have for you is your concerned because of this type of activity permitted there in a rural, agricultural property, it can happen anywhere in Baltimore County, is what I understood your testimony to be. What did you mean by this type of activity?

MR. MORGAN: What the members had told me regarding the large groups that were there, the noise, long term over courses of days. That disrupted the quiet, tranquil nature of their area. As well as the, as well as the traffic issues on Harford Road, which we travel, we travel frequently. I travel it going home almost every day, my family who, my kids who live in Perry Hall come up couple, several times a week, they come up that way. So, I have a concern about that.

CHAIR: So, you said it's the, the, I'm, the, what I'm trying to get at is to what you meant by this type of activity. And just so I have it correct, you're saying your understanding is the large groups where there's noise and it takes place over, over days and that you're concerned about the traffic on Harford Road. That's the activity that you're referring to?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer, back to you.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, thank you. Mr. Morgan, have you attended other hear, days of the hearing on this case?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Did you hear anyone else testify who lived further away?

MR. MORGAN: Ms. Twining who lives at the end of Sharon Road is, is actually a little bit less from Bonaparte as the crow flies than she's, she's actually a little bit further away as the crow flies than my house is on Longknoll Way. And then Mrs. Barton --

CHAIR: And if I can just jump in? We already, I've already made a ruling --

MR. HOLZER: I know, but I'm making a record, Your Honor.

CHAIR: Well, --

MR. HOLZER: I need a record on rulings on objections in this case because --

CHAIR: So, --

MR. HOLZER: -- it's now gone way beyond what the normal process has been, as you know, because of so many days. I want this record clear and I want this witness clear in case he ends up being a witness or an appellant in this case.

CHAIR: Right, let's, --

MR. HOLZER: I need to establish that.

CHAIR: -- let's not go too far afield because I've already said --

MR. HOLZER: I won't.

CHAIR: -- he can testify as an interested party.

MR. HOLZER: I understand.

CHAIR: And Ms. Twining testified as an interested party, I get that. And I understand if your testimony is that Ms. Twining lives further away, that's certainly a matter you can raise in an argument to us on these points. I mean, the record will establish their distance from the property site. I'm just requesting that we don't go too far down this road.

MR. HOLZER: I won't.

CHAIR: That we've already ruled in, frankly, your favor.

MR. HOLZER: I understand.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I'm not oblivious to the fact that every once in a while I win one, so. What about Marcy Barton who lived ten miles away? Did you hear her testify?

MR. MORGAN: I, I did.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, and that was for the Petitioner's case?

MR. MORGAN: That's correct.

MR. HOLZER: So, under the circumstances, you, did you feel it was appropriate for you to be able to come and share with your, your thoughts with the Board?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Let's get over that now. Have you, well, we've already covered, you've attended a number of hearings, you've heard some of the testimony on both sides, is that correct?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. What is, what are your concerns in terms of the approval of this property for a, a community type center, a recreational facility area, and a religious facility?

MR. MORGAN: That it could, that a rolling --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection to the extent that the first two are not proposed.

MR. HOLZER: Well, we'll get to that.

CHAIR: I, I will have to sustain the objection because what Petitioner has argued is it's solely for religious use. There is an argument to be made, I understand, on your side that maybe it's not just confined to that. But your question as asked is argumentative and it is inconsistent with what Petitioner says it is.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, fine.

CHAIR: If he has an understanding, you can ask about the, that understanding or whatever else you want to get into but as your question as phrased, I'll sustain the objection.

MR. HOLZER: I'll limit it to a rel, as a religious facility with accompanying activities.

MR. MORGAN: If I might answer this way. The, the activities that have occurred to date at the property, my concern would be that those types of activities might be permitted as a precedent, sending a precedent, that those types of activities might be permitted in other parts of the County. I'm particularly concerned because my brand new house, my dream home of a lifetime, that I just built in Longfield Estates, backs up to Langenfelder Mansion, Rockwood. And it's for sale right now and I would be horrified if this were going on there, since it's a similar type property. I know Mr., Dr. Clarke, I think probably would not be happy if this activity were occurring at Langenfel, at Langenfelder.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I mean, how's he know what Dr. Clarke would think of another project not at this property?

CHAIR: He, he doesn't know, unless you had a specific conversation. He's just putting himself in his shoes that he should have the same concern. That's how it's being received by the Board.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: It's not being received as substantive evidence that Dr. Clarke, in fact, would have the same concerns.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry, I don't mean to make this any longer.

CHAIR: It's okay. So, overruled. You may continue.

MR. HOLZER: Did you --

MR. MORGAN: If I might --

MR. HOLZER: -- do you have a document in regard to Mr. Clarke --

MR. MORGAN: Well, if I might? Dr. Clarke wrote a letter, a nice letter but he, he talked about he enjoys --

CHAIR: Why don't we, if you're going to talk about the letter, do you have the letter with you?

MR. MORGAN: It's, it's, it's in evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: It's already in evidence?

MR. MORGAN: But I, I have it here. I just --

CHAIR: Hold on, hold on, before you do. Mr. Schmidt has to follow along to know what you're referring to.

MR. MORGAN: I apologize, in the effort, --

CHAIR: Hold on, sir, just wait one second. Just wait till --

MR. HOLZER: Would the Board like your copies now or not?

CHAIR: Is this in the record already?

MR. HOLZER: That's what he said.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: I don't have the exhibit number that it is.

CHAIR: Is it, all right. We'll just assume that it is not in the record only because you're hanging it up here. If it is in the record already, it is what it is. How's that?

MR. HOLZER: Well, he said it's in the record. That's his testimony.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, can he, can he tell us what exhibit number it is? I've got a list of the exhibits, I'm sure --

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I'm sorry, it is not in the record. I was just advised it was not in the record.

MR. MORGAN: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, this is Exhibit 49.

CHAIR: Okay, this is Exhibit 49, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Could you, --

MR. MORGAN: If I could --

CHAIR: Hold on, before you start.

MR. MORGAN: Okay.

CHAIR: Let Mr. Schmidt have the --

MR. MORGAN: Okay.

CHAIR: -- opportunity to review --

MR. MORGAN: Okay.

CHAIR: -- before we start with any question and answer. We don't want to get ourselves in a situation where we have to go through another Motion as to any admissibility issues. So, let's give Mr. Schmidt a minute.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. MCCOMAS: Can I, can I have a little more help? Because I don't see who, who's the letter from and --

CHAIR: We're giving it just one second.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, these, this document, Mr. Morgan, does not have a signature.

CHAIR: Hold on, Mr. Holzer, just wait one second till Mr. Schmidt's done. I promise you'll get the opportunity to ask him these questions. Mr. Schmidt, have you had the opportunity to review?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay. Let's identify this then for the record first.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I'm trying --

CHAIR: Mr. Morgan, the letter that you just handed up to the Board and Mr. Schmidt, what is this letter?

MR. MORGAN: I believe it's a letter from Dr. Clarke talk, talking about the, where he has lived, talking about their intentions with the property --

CHAIR: Well, if I can, before you go further. There's handwriting in the upper right hand corner. Do you see that?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

CHAIR: Do you know what that handwriting --

MR. MORGAN: I, I, I do not.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer, can you shed light on the handwriting in the upper right hand corner?

MR. HOLZER: No, I can't see it either on, on this attachment. If I could have a second?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: No, I, I cannot find anything other than the document itself appears to be written by the person the witness says it is written by because he gives his address and his daughter's name and so forth. And I think the only purpose of this letter was to relate to the nature of his enjoyment of his home.

CHAIR: Okay and so do I understand then that the proffer for this letter is basically Dr. Clarke expresses his enjoyment of his home in his location and it ties into the testimony that was just provided by Mr. Morgan --

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: -- as to hey, we also have this big property behind us, what would happen if this were to be developed in a similar fashion.

MR. HOLZER: Well, he just, he doesn't go that far. He just simply says he enjoys the rural nature, tranquil nature, enjoys seeing deer or geese from my deck to the pond, take my grandson, so that's all it is.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Schmidt, any objection to the admissibility?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: Okay. So admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you and that's exhibit number forty-nine.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Can I, can I ask one question? You asked about the writing on the page.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And there's, there's a, a, a black out, it looks like, or some, that's my --

MR. MORGAN: I tried to address that --

CHAIR: Hold on, sir, he's got a question for me.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- my copy. I don't know, does the Board's copy have this --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- second paragraph and then written above that is, and maybe the witness could address what that is, if the witness did that.

CHAIR: Well, hold on, we're going in order. Mr. Holzer, you have questions and then if it's not asked to your satisfaction during the course of direct --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- you may certainly ask it in cross. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Morgan, you heard counsel's --

MR. MORGAN: I, I can, --

MR. HOLZER: -- could you tell us how --

MR. MORGAN: -- I can address that, yeah. In my effort to, I had used an orange, this is the original, original copy.

CHAIR: Let's do this, can you show Mr. Schmidt the original copy? Maybe that resolves the situation entirely and we can all move on. Thank you, Mr. Morgan.

MR. SCHMIDT: And you just wrote above the orange place --

MR. MORGAN: Yeah, when, when I highlighted it, it didn't copy well and it blacked it out.

MR. SCHMIDT: Got it, no problem.

MR. MORGAN: So, I wrote, I wrote the text above it.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt's curiosity is satisfied.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm fine.

CHAIR: It's admitted, we're all good on that.

MR. MORGAN: Okay, good.

CHAIR: Okay. So, back to you, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: All right. What, if, if you could just repeat your position in regard to the tranquility of the neighborhood --

MR. MORGAN: It's a very quiet, very tranquil neighborhood that I'm sure, you know, that Dr. Clarke enjoys just as much as we do. And the whole point of it was that should that type of activity occur at Langenfelder, which is similar, I think, to Bonaparte, it's a big old mansion with the property around it, I think that I would be horrified by it. I think Dr. Clarke would not be real happy about it either since he, he obviously has stated that he enjoys the tranquil, quiet nature and away from the crowds and noise.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. You've testified already to your involvement in regard to traffic and, and we're referring to traffic on Har, Harford Road in the vicinity of the subject site and the circular roundabout that, that takes place above it and, and subsequent, the neighborhood. Which, could you talk about that a little bit? And you're not a traffic expert?

MR. MORGAN: I'm not a traffic expert, no.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: But in traveling that over a period of, of forty years, being in the business that I'm in, I have come upon numerous accidents at that location.

CHAIR: Hold on. What do you mean by that location?

MR. MORGAN: At, at the, at the location of the entrance to Bonaparte.

CHAIR: So, you're saying at --

MR. MORGAN: Right at the curve.

CHAIR: At the entrance to the subject property, you have encountered a number of accidents?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, sir. Between --

CHAIR: Over forty years?

MR. MORGAN: Over a forty year period of traveling that, that road.

CHAIR: Sorry, sorry, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: And, and an, and an occasion where I actually came upon an overturned vehicle at that, at that location. The, and again, I'm not being a traffic expert but, rounding that curve at forty miles an hour, which is reasonable, you're only four seconds from the entrance to that property. And, you know, my fear is that with my kids coming with me, my kids coming up and down, that these events where you'll have cars entering that property, particularly cars that may be backed up onto Harford Road, there's not going to be enough time to, at forty miles an hour, I don't know how someone is going to stop in time if cars are literally stopped on Harford Road trying to enter that property.

I also had an experience on, I believe it was on, on September 14th. If you don't mind I just want to refer to the, yeah, on September 14th of this past year, I was traveling south from the circle and when I got to the entrance of Bonaparte, car, a car two cars ahead sort of started to slow, hesitated, put the brakes on, which we, almost as if they didn't, weren't sure that that was where they wanted to go. And we're all traveling at, you know, from the circle, we're up, up to thirty-five, forty miles an hour now. The, the car then started to proceed, a car came around the corner on the northbound direction, which only gave this person a certain amount of time, so rather than try to make it, they, they came to an abrupt stop halfway in the southbound lane, halfway in the northbound lane and fortunately, we had enough following distance that we were all able to stop in time and avert a collision. But it was, it, it was scary, it was frightening to say the least.

So, that's my concern about the road there is that, and this, this was not on a day when there was an event, where there were, you know, where there may have been a lot of traffic going in and out of the site. This was a, a single vehicle trying to turn left into the property.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Have you experienced anything else of an unusual nature on, on the site, at that intersection of the entrance way and, and the road?

MR. MORGAN: I, I noticed yesterday on the way home that there's now a, a bumper or some piece of an automobile that wasn't there before that's laying in the ditch just above the driveway entrance to Bona, to Bonaparte on their side. So, there's, there's --

CHAIR: And you say just above, heading in what direction, it's on your side?

MR. MORGAN: I'm heading, I'm heading north. The Bonaparte entry is to my right.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. MORGAN: I've passed the, I'm, I'm just past the driveway to the entry to Bonaparte and laying in the ditch there is a, a bumper or bumper cover or something that's, that's, I --

CHAIR: Do you know where the driveway is after the Bonaparte driveway?

MR. MORGAN: Do I know whose driveway?

CHAIR: No, no. Do you know it, do you know that there is a driveway some distance past --

MR. MORGAN: Yes, this is in between Palmer's, this is in between Dave Palmer's driveway and the Bonaparte driveway.

CHAIR: Thank you, that's what I was trying to clarify.

MR. MORGAN: Yes, yeah. Yeah, it's, it's in the ditch right, just north of the driveway.

CHAIR: It's in between two driveways?

MR. MORGAN: Yeah, there's, there's two entrances but there's no ravine in between. There must be a pipe or something there, but then there's a ditch to the north of the northern entrance and it, and it's, the material was laying in the, which is fairly new, I don't know, in the last day or two.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Is there anything else you would like to address in regard to the traffic or the nature of the road, etcetera?

MR. MORGAN: Just that it, you know, in my experience in driving and, again, I'm not a traffic expert but in my experience of driving the, the metropolitan area, that, that is without a doubt to me, one of the most dangerous sections of roadway anywhere and I, I don't remember any other place where I've seen as many cut, just happened upon as many collisions as I've seen at that location.

MR. HOLZER: And you said you, I think you said you testified that you drive about thirty-five thousand miles per year?

MR. MORGAN: Thirty-five thousand plus, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Wow.

CHAIR: I believe the testimony is thirty-five to forty thousand.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and is that, is your traveling experience all over Baltimore County?

MR. MORGAN: Over the entire Baltimore metropolitan area, all the surrounding counties and that, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, all right. I just wanted to put it in perspective what, how you drew your conclusion that this was a dangerous area. Okay. As a result of your taking the position that you have, have you received any responses or feedback from the other side that were directed to you?

MR. MORGAN: Well, I, I, I received responses from, from folks that I believe were in favor. I don't know when you say the other side, I, I --

MR. HOLZER: That's what I meant.

MR. MORGAN: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: People who were supporting the request, the Petitioners.

MR. MORGAN: I, I had, on Nextdoor, and I had posted some opinions on Nextdoor, and I got a response from Hindu Buddha Temple, which I believe was representative of the, the, the, the establishment group itself. I think that, that, that particular site got pulled down and because they had to be individuals. I think you, you have to be a named, you, you have to have a name, a Bruce Morgan can do it but I think a group, Nextdoor doesn't want a group, they want individuals to, to do it but back the, back then there was a response to me--

CHAIR: Are you reading something, sir?

MR. MORGAN: I have copies.

CHAIR: Then please show Mr. Schmidt before you start reading.

MR. HOLZER: Okay, I'll get them.

CHAIR: And before you pickup your testimony, let Mr.

Schmidt have the opportunity to review.

MR. MORGAN: Yes, um hm.

CHAIR: Are there additional copies for the Board?

MR. MORGAN: There, there are.

CHAIR: We will mark this as fifty for identification at the moment. Does that work for you?

VOICE: (inaudible).

CHAIR: So, we've been handed, just for the record, three pages, the first page being stapled to the other two and folded in half, which, well, we'll have that identified in a second.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, before, I already see you shaking your head. Let's identify it for the record what it is and then if you have an objection, you certainly can insert your objection. Mr. Morgan, the limited question at the moment is, what is, what was just handed up to the Board and to Mr. Schmidt?

MR. MORGAN: They're, they're excerpts from Nextdoor Kingsville.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: These are postings from --

CHAIR: Page one, is that you (inaudible)?

MR. MORGAN: The, the one on top?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. MORGAN: Is from me.

CHAIR: To whom?

MR. MORGAN: To Kris.

CHAIR: And do you know who Kris is?

MR. MORGAN: I, I, I don't know if it's Kris Ghimire or whether there, I believe there's another Kris that's also--

CHAIR: Very well. Page two, which is a full page,--

MR. MORGAN: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- my copy has orange highlight, Mr. Schmidt, does yours?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay. What is page two?

MR. MORGAN: Page two is a post from the Hindu Buddha Temple. It's also from Nextdoor Kingsville.

CHAIR: Okay. So, it's different, it's not a response to your first one on page one, it's a different response, correct?

MR. MORGAN: It, it is a different res, it's not the same response.

CHAIR: Right, it's not the same, right, back and forth, it's a different --

MR. MORGAN: It, it is, it, it's in the same, it was in the same threat, it was in the same conversation on Nextdoor, yes.

CHAIR: Okay, I got it now. And then what is page three?

MR. MORGAN: Page three, oh, that was just a map that showed the Bonaparte site, it showed Ida Twining's house and my house.

CHAIR: So, I mean, correct me if I'm wrong, page three, does that, is that associated with pages one and two in Exhibit 50?

MR. MORGAN: Only in, in the respect that I, I, if I might, it was in respect to in answering this --

CHAIR: Okay, we can stop there.

MR. MORGAN: Okay.

CHAIR: It does relate to, to the (inaudible) --

MR. MORGAN: I, I believe so.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr., Mr., Mr. Garber, I, I don't know what this is trying to prove or assert as it relates to the question that the Board is going to answer, which is whether the special exception should be granted. I, I understand this is an administrative body and you're not bound by the rules of evidence. We, we don't even know who, he said, I mean, we don't even know who wrote the, the one thing.

CHAIR: Well, I guess if you just tell me what your objections are.

MR. SCHMIDT: Hindu, Hindu Buddha Temple, is that my, is that alleged to be my client? I mean, that's not the name of my client. There's no --

CHAIR: Let's stop there. What are, what are your specific objections? That is, we don't know who the author is?

MR. SCHMIDT: There's, there's no, there's no foundation for this document in terms of who, other than Mr. Morgan acknowledging that he wrote the stapled page, we don't even know who wrote the page below it. It's not signed, it's not signed by the Nepali Cultural Center, it says Hindu Buddha Temple. There's no, he's indicated in his response that there are a couple of Kris' and he doesn't know which one it is. So, I would generally say there's no foundation for the document, number one.

Secondly, I don't think the document has any relevance to it. It's, as I've read it, it doesn't talk about the impacts of the temple on the surrounding locale but it's some sniping back and forth as to whether people should do that --

CHAIR: Yeah, well, we, without the characterization, you're objecting on the basis of lack of foundation and relevance.

MR. SCHMIDT: And relevance, yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer, do you wish to respond to the objections?

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: Okay. I do need to ask a question. What is this being used for? What is the proffer?

MR. HOLZER: I, I can, if I can be --

CHAIR: Well, I'm asking you for a proffer here as to what this is being used for?

MR. HOLZER: It's being used to show that, that some, the neighbors have been intimidated to some extent or suggested that they not be able to testify before this Board because they either don't live close enough or they have a racial or religious angst in regards to these people. And I think Mr. Morgan is here to testify that he has none of those. He has no racial, no religious objection to them. It's, it's only a land use issue that he's trying to raise and, and participate in.

CHAIR: Okay. Well, let's, how about we, here's where I think this falls. The problem is how you tie this, again, back to the association. I do see, or the Petitioner, excuse me. I do see it says, at least in one part on page two, I am one of the representatives of NACC but we don't know who that is and we don't even know if they actually are. So, leaving that aside, can't you ask your questions independent of this? That is, does he have any --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, sure.

CHAIR: -- I mean, this way, this way the questions, and there aren't many that would come with the admission of, of Protestant's Exhibit 50 because we don't know who responded or anything to a degree --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- we don't even know where they live as well in relation to this.

MR. HOLZER: I can certainly ask him what his concerns are about his ability to testify. It's that simple.

CHAIR: Okay. With that in mind, for the moment, this is not admitted, this is i.d. only. But you can, you may ask your questions.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Morgan --

MR. SCHMIDT: What number has this been marked as?

CHAIR: Fifty.

MR. SCHMIDT: Fifty, thank you.

CHAIR: It is not in evidence, it is i.d. only.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: And again, for those of you who just came in, please make sure your cell phones are off. Sorry, Mr. Holzer, you may continue.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Mr. Morgan, I mean, I think you brought this as, as some way of being able to introduce your own testimony about your own concerns and what your concerns are related to this, this zoning request. Why don't you just tell the Board what your feelings are in regard to that? We don't need what somebody said that you're a racist or you don't know what you're talking about or you live too far away. Why don't you just address the, your concerns and your feelings about getting stuff like this?

MR. MORGAN: Well, I, I --

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. I just don't see the relevance of any of this. If he wants to testify about his concerns about the proj, the project, he can certainly do that. But this is, is this an allegation that he's been intimidated not to testify? Is that what you're saying, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, (inaudible).

CHAIR: Hold on, hold on. First of all, hold on, everyone. You know, you don't direct questions to Mr. Holzer during the course of the objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry, Mr. Garber, but --

CHAIR: You state your objection. I understand your objection. Mr. Holzer, do you wish to respond to the objection?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. There has been a, a series of intimidations in this case, not only by the applicants or the Petitioners, but responses by this County and they will be introduced or, and if they're not introduced, they will be documented by proffers. And at the end of this case, the Board will have an opportunity to evaluate what's been going on. But in this particular case, I want to limit his testimony just to him personally and why he is able to articulate why he's there. I never objected to the witnesses being brought by the other side.

CHAIR: If I could stop you there on that point?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: The mere fact that you didn't object to that happening does not make it less objectionable for Mr. Schmidt as to whether or not --

MR. HOLZER: (inaudible).

CHAIR: -- as to whether or not they are objections that will be sustained, they're, they're all individual factually, you know, dependent matters --

MR. HOLZER: I understand that.

CHAIR: -- so one does not depend on the other, but the fact that you didn't object before, which maybe actually the right call, the right course of action to not have objected because there wasn't a particular point of relevance or materiality for this Board to consider, I understand that, but that does not mean that one is equal to the other in any context or in any way, shape or form. They're not related. So, as to Mr. Morgan, if Mr. Morgan has a particular concern, you've identified the concerns as to what you have with the proposed use. Did you have, I guess the question is, did you have concerns as to your, voicing your opinions as to how this property should be used? Is that fair?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, that's a fair question.

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

CHAIR: Okay. What are those concerns?

MR. MORGAN: Well, I, I think that, maybe intimidation was, is too strong of a point, to a strong of a, of a description. But certainly someone who, like me, who is voicing a valid opinion online in a conversation with people who are in, in support of the project, and then to have someone say well, that I'm not entitled to an opinion, you know, I, I think it is intimidating to, to have that. And have it directed directly at me saying that I'm spreading lies, you know, some inference that I may be racist in some way. I don't like being called a liar, I don't like being called a racist because I'm neither of those.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer, does that satisfy then what you're trying to elicit from this witness?

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Were you, in fact, ever called a, one of those names?

CHAIR: Sir, did that preclude you from being here today, being those names? Did you have hesitation in any way, shape or form?

MR. MORGAN: Did I hes, do I hesitate to be here?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. MORGAN: Did I hesitate to be here?

CHAIR: Does it cause you any hesitation to be here to present your testimony?

MR. MORGAN: I, I, no, because I was determined.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Is there anything else that you need to testify before the Board that relates to the land use issue only in regard to any of the criteria of 502.1 the zoning, etcetera?

MR. MORGAN: An opinion, an, an opinion that, looking at 502.1 and the, the limitations therein, it seems that the, the, the behavior that has occurred on the property to date seems to be contrary to the welfare and the safety of the people in the area.

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection and move to strike. I don't think he can offer comments and ex, what, what I would consider to be expert opinion as to Section 502.1 of the Baltimore County zoning regulations unless he's qualified as an expert with some special knowledge of the zoning regulations.

CHAIR: I believe that he's testifying as a lay person. I don't think he's being offered as an expert witness testimony. He's offering his interpretation of 502.1. It was never going to be received as expert testimony. Sir, so do I understand your testimony then to be that the behavior, the, to be clear, it was summarized to you by others in virtue of the letter and the, and the meetings you attended --

MR. MORGAN: That's, that's correct.

CHAIR: -- that that behavior as described to you seems inconsistent or contrary to 502, the factors of 502.1 based on your understanding of those factors?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Sure.

MR. HOLZER: You have any other --

CHAIR: So, the objection will be overruled and understood that the evidence will be received on the basis that he is a lay witness, not an expert witness, on those factors and the application of the Baltimore County zoning regulations.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. Is there anything else that you'd like to present to the Board?

MR. MORGAN: I, I, no, no, sir.

MR. HOLZER: No further questions.

CHAIR: Thank you. Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Morgan, are you a neighbor of this property? Would you consider yourself a neighbor of this property?

MR. MORGAN: To the extent that others have felt they were a neighbor, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm not asking if others feel they're a neighbor.

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you feel you're a neighbor of the property?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: How close do you have to be to a property to be a neighbor in your opinion?

MR. MORGAN: As far away as I am, I believe. I mean, (inaudible) --

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, up, up to three miles would, would be considered a neighbor?

MR. MORGAN: Or, or so. I mean, I, I have to travel past that property as close proximity to my home, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sir, okay. Okay. So, the test of being a neighbor is whether you have to travel close to this property? That's how you determine if you're a neighbor?

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, that's what the witness just said.

CHAIR: Hold, hold on one second, hold on. We have an objection. First of all, stand up for your objection so I know that you're objecting. Second, Mr. Schmidt, just wait till the objection comes and you may have an opportunity to respond. Mr., Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: I just wanted him to have the opportunity to finish the question.

CHAIR: To finish his answer?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, answer to the question.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: All right, --

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, we are jumping on top of one other. So, Mr. Morgan, please keep clear, let Mr. Schmidt finish his question.

MR. MORGAN: Sure.

CHAIR: Start your answer, Mr. Schmidt, please then start your question when he's finished with his answer. We can all move on. Mr. Schmidt, back to you.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think you said, Mr. Morgan, if I understood it correctly, that you believe you are a neighbor because you drive by here, is that what you said?

MR. MORGAN: Yes. I also said that I feel that I live close enough to be considered a neighbor.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, all right. Thank you, sir. You talked about an incident that occurred on September the 14th of 2018 near the subject property.

MR. MORGAN: Yes, sir.

MR. SCHMIDT: And there was a car that stopped suddenly in front of you?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: You drive thirty-five thousand miles a year, is that correct?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Would you say that, other than this event and the other times that you've driven in 2018, that cars have stopped suddenly in front of you on other occasions?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Doesn't that pretty much happen to all of us who drive cars almost every day?

MR. MORGAN: I'm sure it does.

MR. SCHMIDT: The car that stopped suddenly, did it turn into this property?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know who was driving that car?

MR. MORGAN: I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know if it was a member of the group or if it was somebody who was trying to turn around because they were lost or if it was somebody who turned into the wrong driveway? Do you have any idea who that person who was driving that car and where they were going or for what purpose they were --

CHAIR: Well, we're asking multiple questions. But I understand what you're trying to get at. Sir, do you know why that person turned in the driveway?

MR. MORGAN: I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You don't know who that person was?

MR. MORGAN: I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. There was no accident that was caused?

MR. MORGAN: No, there was not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay. You also testified that, I wrote this down, that you believe it's reasonable on that stretch of road and that stretch of road I'm going to define as the roadway immediately in front of or adjacent nearby the entrance to the Bonaparte, or the Nepali property, to drive forty miles an hour?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, sir, and it's within the speed limit.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, irrespective of it being within the speed limit, were you here for the testimony of Mr. Collagero?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Are, are, are there indeed signs in that proximity which show that there are severe turns in the road, at that proximity?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that Mr. Collagero testified that generally people have to slow down to a mucher, much slower speed than the posted speed limit --

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- because the road is so curve, is --

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- curved at that location?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

CHAIR: Hold, hold on, sir. Now you're jumping in on his question.

MR. MORGAN: Oh, sorry.

CHAIR: Let him, let Mr. Schmidt finish --

MR. MORGAN: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: -- his question.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Would you agree with that?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. But you think forty miles an hour is reasonable at that location?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You said that there were numerous accidents at that location.

MR. MORGAN: That I have seen over the course of years, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: How many?

MR. MORGAN: I, I don't know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Have you looked at any accident data?

MR. MORGAN: I have not.

MR. SCHMIDT: In, where you live in Kingsville, sir, on Longknoll Way, correct?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And do you work out of an office?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: And where's your office?

MR. MORGAN: Cockeysville.

MR. SCHMIDT: And when you drive from Longview Way to Cockeysville, do you go in front of the property?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is that your commute?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, you drive in front of this property twice a day, once going to work and once coming home from work?

MR. MORGAN: No, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: No?

MR. MORGAN: I, I usually drive four times during the day. I drive in twice and back twice in the course of the day.

MR. SCHMIDT: You go home for lunch or something?

MR. MORGAN: Yeah, sometimes, I always stop at home during the day.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. What do you do, sir? Do you still do pest control?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you drive a passenger vehicle or a?

MR. MORGAN: No, I drive a pickup truck.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and who do you work for?

MR. MORGAN: Atlas Exterminate, I own the company.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. At, at the time you, you described events occurred, that occurred on the property, on the Nepali property during your testimony, that you had objection to, I believe, correct?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: At the time of those events, were you aware they were going on?

MR. MORGAN: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: You didn't hear anything?

MR. MORGAN: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: You didn't see any traffic on those days?

MR. MORGAN: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, they didn't personally impact you?

MR. MORGAN: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: At the time they occurred?

MR. MORGAN: No, they did not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You also, I, I think you said, I just was trying to write it down so I want to make sure I got your testimony correctly. That, that your, your real concern here is the precedent that could be established if this approval was granted, particularly as it relates to the, I'm sorry, I forgot the name, Langfelder?

MR. MORGAN: Langenfelder.

MR. SCHMIDT: Langenfelder property? Okay and the Langenfelder property, can you tell the Board a little more, what is the Langenfelder property in terms of how big is it and what's on the property, what improvements?

MR. MORGAN: I, I think it's six or eight acres. There's a large historic mansion there.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is it occupied at the present time?

MR. MORGAN: It's for sale, it's unoccupied and for sale right now.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and how has it been used?

MR. MORGAN: As a single family residence.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know what the zoning of that property is?

MR. MORGAN: I think it's RC-7, I, I think.

MR. SCHMIDT: You think.

MR. MORGAN: I think it's RC-7.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Is there, to the best you know, any type of religious building that's proposed on that property?

MR. MORGAN: No, I am not aware of that.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, your concern is that that property could also be developed as a religious building, a church or a temple or a synagogue or some religious type of activity if this property obtains similar approval?

MR. MORGAN: I, I, if I could? I think that if this were approved --

MR. SCHMIDT: This being the Nepali project?

MR. MORGAN: The Nepali, that that could extend to not just Langenfelder, it could extend to other properties in, in residential areas, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay and that would, that would be, since you admittedly are not close enough to hear any activity on the Nepali property, correct?

MR. MORGAN: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: And in terms of traffic, the impact on you is when you would be driving by as opposed to a backup of traffic from reaching your street, is that fair to say?

MR. MORGAN: No, that's correct, and my family.

MR. SCHMIDT: And your family as well.

MR. MORGAN: My family, which, which travels that area frequently.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. All right and since you don't have any direct impacts, if I use, trying to choose my words carefully, of the proposed use (inaudible) three miles away, the concern that you have is more the precedent that could be established for the Langenfelder or other properties?

MR. MORGAN: And, and the traffic.

MR. SCHMIDT: You ever been in any traffic accidents in your years of driving?

MR. HOLZER: Objection. What's the relevance of that?

CHAIR: Please stand up when you object.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry. Objection. What's the relevance of that?

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt? I would have the same question.

MR. SCHMIDT: The, the, the witness made an inference, not an inference, but suggested that because there are, because there have been accidents at this prop, in, in this proximity, that it is, I, I don't, trying to look at his exact words, that it was inherently a dangerous section of road.

CHAIR: He did say it would be a dangerous area, something to that effect.

MR. SCHMIDT: Something to that effect. And I'm just trying to establish whether every place that has accidents is a inherently dangerous place because there are accidents there, which seems to be the basis of his opinion.

CHAIR: Well, it is cross examination. I mean, I don't know how much utility you'll get out of that line of questioning, but it is cross examination. There is a suggestion that he travels thirty-five to forty thousand miles a year, that he is, by way of comparison, compared to other areas, the general Baltimore regional area, in terms of its, as he considered it to be a dangerous area. So, to some extent, I can see the purpose of the question, the relevance of the question being directed to this witness to so, Mr. Schmidt, you may --

MR. SCHMIDT: I'll tell you what, I'll withdraw the question, make it easy.

CHAIR: Well, then we don't have any problem.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Morgan, you also testified about a bumper or a bumper cover that you observed in a ditch near the entrance to the Bonaparte, Nepali property, correct?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did you, when you saw that, did you stop and look at it?

MR. MORGAN: No, no.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know what, what it was exactly? Do you know what kind of vehicle it came from?

MR. MORGAN: I do not, it just appears to be a cover, either a bumper cover or a, or a bumper.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you have any idea how it got there?

MR. MORGAN: I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, somebody who was disposing, who was disposing of it could have been driving by and thrown it out the window of their vehicle and landed in the ditch is possible?

MR. MORGAN: I guess anything is possible.

MR. HOLZER: Objection.

CHAIR: Hold on, again, stand up when you're objecting, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry. I'll withdraw it.

MR. MORGAN: I, I guess anything is possible.

MR. SCHMIDT: But you, you just don't have any idea?

MR. MORGAN: No, I don't.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Fair enough. No other questions.

MR. HOLZER: No questions.

CHAIR: Ms. Dopkin?

MS. DOPKIN: I have one question with regarding to what was identified as Protestant's Exhibit 50, including these Nextdoor posts?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MS. DOPKIN: Do you have copies of what you posted that provoked this response?

CHAIR: Page two.

MS. DOPKIN: Because it's clearly in response to something that was previously posted by you. I don't --

MR. MORGAN: I, I do not, I do not have copies of that with me. I do not have copies of that with me. I can retrieve that by going back on to Nextdoor --

MS. DOPKIN: I'd just be curious to know what elicited such a strong response and I think it doesn't, this is out of context otherwise, that's all.

MR. MORGAN: I understand.

CHAIR: Just by way of, purposes of the record, at this time Exhibit 50 is not in evidence but it sounds as if the witness is going to come up with a full, I guess, printout of the initial post and responses then, in response to your question? Is that the understanding?

MS. DOPKIN: I was --

CHAIR: That's your understanding, he's coming up with that for you?

MS. DOPKIN: He has offered to, yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, I didn't ask any questions about it because it was not accepted into evidence.

CHAIR: It's still, it's still not.

MR. SCHMIDT: But I, I, I mean, I, thank you, Ms. Dopkin. I mean, I would agree that it's incomplete. In addition to being no foundation and relevance, which were the grounds I asserted, it, it appears to be a part of a conversation and not the entire conversation.

CHAIR: I think it's evidence rule one, I want to say 106 or something to that effect, 5-106, lack of completeness of the record. So, be that as it may, we're, it doesn't change what we're, where we're at with that particular exhibit at this time. So, but if Mr. Morgan produces that to Mr. Holzer and Mr. Holzer feels that it is worthwhile to explore, than --

MR. HOLZER: I certainly might.

CHAIR: And so, Mr. Holzer, I mean, we can perhaps then revisit it another time but as for now, I assume there's no re-direct then?

MR. HOLZER: No re-direct.

CHAIR: All right. Thank you, Mr. Morgan, for your time.

MR. MORGAN: Thank you, thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark.

CHAIR: Are we ready to, because I see we have a stand here, are, are we going to have any presentation or, or not? Do you need time to set up is really the question to you?

VOICE: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Do we need time to set up?

VOICE: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: All right. So, why don't we take a ten minute break. We'll give you, a ten minute break will be sufficient for you to set up, Mr., or Dr. Clark?

VOICE: My time, yes.

CHAIR: Yeah, right, okay.

VOICE: Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: Ten minutes, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Ten is fine.

CHAIR: Okay.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 10:37:10 AM)

(ON RECORD – 10:37:11 AM)

CHAIR: And then now, during this break, Mr. Holzer, if you can, please show Mr. Schmidt the sign in sheets. Make sure that he's satisfied with whatever they are, then we'll hand it to Ms. Cannington to copy and then we can revisit that issue as well. Does that work for you?

MR. HOLZER: Works for me, sir.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, thank you.

CHAIR: All right, ten minutes. Thank you, all.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 10:37:34 AM)

(ON RECORD – 10:53:03 AM)

CHAIR: Thank you. And we're back on the record. All right. We have Dr. Dewey Clark back on the stand. Sir, --

MR. HOLZER: You want to finish up with Mr. Schmidt, with Mr. Schmidt?

CHAIR: What's that?

MR. HOLZER: And the documents that he --

CHAIR: I apologize. Thank you, Mr. Holzer, very much.

MR. HOLZER: No problem.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber and members of the panel, I've looked at the, the documents. I mean, I have no real objection to them coming in. The --

CHAIR: I feel like there's about to be a but coming.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, there is, there is one but. Twofold, on, on the ones that are from January, I'm sorry, let me find the right ones, I apologize. From the folder marked day two, September 6, 2018, the, the sign in sheets are printed with a bunch of e-mail traffic on the back.

CHAIR: So, you --

MR. SCHMIDT: And I don't know what – -

CHAIR: -- right, so, you would object, you would object to --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I just --

CHAIR: -- what, whatever is on the back, you just want the sign in sheet, so just copy page one, like the one page rather than the double side?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, yeah, because the back's got a bunch of e-mail traffic in it.

MS. DOPKIN: That would seem to indicate that the parties bring them not (inaudible).

CHAIR: Yes, I would, I would agree with that. Mr. Holzer, I assume you don't have a problem with that, if you want the sign in sheets in, that we just copy the page one, that shows the people who are here as opposed to whatever copies that were used?

MR. HOLZER: It was on recycled paper --

CHAIR: It's quite all right. Yes, and --

MR. HOLZER: We'll, we'll straighten that out.

CHAIR: Okay. We're all good with that?

MR. SCHMIDT: I mean, other than the fact that it shows who was here, I, I'm not sure I know what the purpose is but it's not prejudicial.

CHAIR: Okay. So, let's do this. Dr. Clark, that is, Dr. Mary Clark, I see you have all the files there. Are you going to be handing them forward to us? I'll go run it out to Ms. Cannington so she can make the copies and return the originals before we get started.

MR. HOLZER: Can she address your question?

CHAIR: I had a question? You're, go ahead, Dr. Clarke.

DR. CLARK: Excuse me, Mr. Garber. You asked if I was going to hand these to Ms. Cannington?

CHAIR: You want to hand them to Ms. Cannington, that's fine too.

DR. CLARK: And I, I'll explain to her that there's some duplicates in there.

CHAIR: We will, and we will check, you can, you can explain that. Mr. Schmidt, I assume that's fine by you?

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: And then before it's actually formally admitted, if you want to then just review again just to be on the safe side we could do that and then that will reserve it in its entirety.

DR. CLARK: And these are all the copies that I had received from Ms. Cannington or Tammy.

CHAIR: Okay. Thank you, Dr. Clark.

MR. HOLZER: Thanks.

MR. SCHMIDT: Just, and Mr. Garber, just a couple of other loose ends.

CHAIR: Sure.

MR. SCHMIDT: I had, during the break, and I think you mentioned, obviously, that Mr. McComas is here but I thought it might be appropriate for the record. I looked at the Board's rules of practice and procedure and Rule 1-C says after talking about three members of a panel and a chairperson and I quote, during the course of a hearing if any member of the original panel is unable to continue to serve, the chairman shall appoint a member to fill the vacancy, end of quote. And just for the record, so we're clear, I'm assuming that you have made a determination that Ms. Murphy is unable to continue and thus have appointed Mr. McComas. I just think that ought to be in the record.

CHAIR: I appreciate the clarity for the record. That is an accurate assessment. We also discussed this on November 29th as how to best proceed with this.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: And we had scheduled four Board members for this in the event that Ms. Murphy could not continue in light of circumstances. So, she's not able to, able to be part of the Board so on that basis, yes, that is why Mr. McComas is part of this panel now instead of Ms. Murphy and we will not be shifting back to Ms. Murphy for when she may be fully available to serve.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. One other thing, just and we can handle it now or later, I did have an opportunity to take a look at --

CHAIR: Yes, thank you. Rule eight papers?

MR. SCHMIDT: -- ex, exhibit, yeah. And I guess I have, as I read, as I read rule eight, and let me turn to it again in the, in the rules of practice and procedure for the Board of Appeals, it indicates as the very first words in this, in the two paragraphs, first two paragraphs. Before any person shall testify on behalf of, and then it goes on to say what rule eight is, is supposed to be.

CHAIR: Um hm.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, I don't know if, is this coming in to support the testimony of an individual? I mean, that was my understanding what the purpose of this is or is this just a letter or a correspondence that, that the Board would get in the mail from a person or an association and put it in their file? Because, I mean, I know Ms. Shaw, or Ms. Shaw I think was here at one, I don't know if she's still here, but I've seen her testify for the organization but my understanding, again, is that the purpose of, of a rule eight document is to authenticate --

CHAIR: For the witness on the stand.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- the, essentially, authenticate the witness --

CHAIR: The witness is there, right --

MR. SCHMIDT: And we don't have a witness.

CHAIR: That's a very good point. I was anticipating that at some point those two things would match up and I ask Mr. Holzer then, the rule eight paperwork for Greater Kingsville Civic Improvement Association, I assume you're going to be having a witness testify as to their position on the proposed use?

MR. HOLZER: Well, I certainly can. And Ms. Shaw is not here, not here today. She has been here and attended all the hearings so far. I certainly can have her testify. I thought that, under the circumstances, just having this document introduced would save the Board and counsel and everybody else some time.

CHAIR: If I can, are, basically, are you proposing a stipulation that if the proper representative from Greater Kingsville was present here today and they would be authorized by the Greater Kingsville Civic Improvement Association based on Protestant's Exhibit 48 that that person would testify that they are opposed to the proposed use?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: On behalf of the Association? Mr. Schmidt, I'll leave it to you as to whether or not you would accept that proposal or that stipulation, that that person would come in to say that they are opposed.

MR. SCHMIDT: I, I'm sure they would, Mr. Garber. And I'm not trying to lengthen this out. I think my fundamental question is whether this property is within the auspices of the Greater Kingsville Community Association. I do not know if it is or not. Obviously, I've heard it described as being Long Green or Glen Arm and other places, not Kingsville and whether it is within Kingsville, which is part of the rule eight, so I can't --

CHAIR: So, your question is a map as to the boundaries of this association.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah.

CHAIR: And it's significance then as to the proposed stipulation and testimony.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I just, I don't know what the boundaries of Greater Kingsville are.

MR. HOLZER: It is included, but if, I don't want to be the one to have to testify that it is. So, if that is the objection, someone will come in and test --

CHAIR: If I, if I can suggest something?

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

CHAIR: Can you provide a map of the boundaries of the Civic Improvement Association, provide it to Mr. Schmidt to see if he would then be satisfied, precluding then, of course, then someone having to appear unnecessarily to do the same thing.

MR. HOLZER: I certainly can try.

CHAIR: Even if you don't get it done by lunch time, I'm not asking that. I'm saying if you could just do so perhaps, because there are a bunch of people here today, that perhaps someone can make an effort to try to get that map so that we can get that issue resolved and then, therefore, you don't have to worry about having someone come. Because it seems to me if that person would come in to say that Greater Kingsville is opposed, --

MR. HOLZER: That's it, that's what I was trying to (inaudible).

CHAIR: -- and, and if, I think I'm hearing Mr. Schmidt correctly, his only question is, okay, well, what is the basis for them to weigh in on it, the point, that is are, is it within or adjacent or whatever the case may be, what is the relationship of Greater Kingsville Association here to the subject property. So, I think that's a fair question. So, therefore, if you could just work on getting the boundaries to us.

MR. HOLZER: I'll try.

CHAIR: Then we can see if Mr. Schmidt is satisfied and obviously you would still have the ability to call someone if necessary but that's the way to get around that problem.

MR. HOLZER: No problem.

CHAIR: So, would that be satisfactory, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I, yes, sir, I believe, I believe so.

CHAIR: Would that answer your question if there is a map --

MR. SCHMIDT: Certainly, it would, it would answer it as to that. I guess the only thing I would answer, I'm not trying to be difficult, but I'm just looking at the document and apparently this was a vote, and Mr. Holzer might be able to produce minutes or something like that, of the board as opposed to the entire general membership of the organization and I don't know who the board is. And maybe that's something, if there are minutes, as to who was there. That might be appropriate as well.

CHAIR: So, you would like a copy of the meeting minutes and/or identification of who the board is, as part of it?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: Is that what's required under rule eight?

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, it says --

CHAIR: And I don't have rule eight in front of me so forgive me if I don't have encyclopedic knowledge of it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, sure. It says the personal shall show that he has accurate knowledge and the number of members in the association and the geographic limits, which I think goes to the geographic limits.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: And then it goes on to say, --

MR. HOLZER: I, I'm going to go ahead and call someone.

CHAIR: Hold, hold, let, hold, hold on. Mr. Holzer, wait one second.

MR. HOLZER: I'm --

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt is, Mr. Schmidt is articulating what his questions are. And then I promise you you will have the ability to respond.

MR. HOLZER: I don't --

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, go ahead.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, I think that goes as to the limits of the association and as I generally rule eight, obviously --

CHAIR: Yeah, I, I recall that now, that yes, there should be an identification of the number of members or the person's knowledge of the number of members.

MR. SCHMIDT: And it, it does not require minutes but it just says that they're authorized to speak and present views of the civil association.

CHAIR: Well, I, I believe that that's what the paperwork does --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- identify, even if it's not full in terms of identifying the boundaries and the, and the members.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, I think it's just a question of their geographic limits.

CHAIR: Same, so hearing that, Mr. --

MR. HOLZER: I'm calling a witness.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer, again, I'm just trying to figure out a way to, to prevent someone to come in unnecessarily. If you feel it's best for you to call someone, so be it, we can all move on and we get to Mr., or to Dr. Clark's testimony.

MR. HOLZER: I have a, I, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Yes, to answer your question, Ms. Dopkin, yes.

MR. HOLZER: I have a comment or statement or position that I want to put on the record now.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: The history of this case is certainly cre, has created certain difficulties. Obviously, a member of this Board for appropriate reasons was not able to sit and continue based on Mr. Garber's testimony or his comments. The last hearing date in which testimony was received was day six,

--

CHAIR: November 1st.

MR. HOLZER: -- November the 1st, and today is day eight, January 29th. That time period is what has called a delay in the continuation of this case. Day seven, in case the record wants to know, was no evidence was taken and just a procedural comments in regard to how we're going to proceed to present the rest of the case.

CHAIR: It was to resolve the objections to --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- to the video --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- and to figure out a best way forward for that evidence in light of the volume of evidence.

MR. HOLZER: That's correct, that's correct.

CHAIR: That was at stake. And to also give Mr. Schmidt the opportunity to review it, given these, the substantial volume.

MR. HOLZER: And as a result of that, the Board has indicated this morning that February the 13th will be the last day for any testimony or presentation. I don't know whether it's the last day for any briefs to be filed, but it's certainly the last day for presentation of evi, any evidence.

I object to that limitation in terms of February 13th being the last day on the basis of a violation of Protestant's due process. It is not our, it was not our fault that it, and I don't really want to use the word fault, because when, when a member of the Board has a problem, that's, and a legitimate problem in this case, then I believe I can understand and so there's no aspersion being cast on the Board.

But I believe it is improper for the Board to limit any further evidence to February 13th --

CHAIR: If I could interject real quick to make it easy for you?

MR. HOLZER: Well, could I just, I can, I can finish --

CHAIR: Because I think it may short circuit some of what's going on. I'm not suggesting that February 13th is an absolute drop dead we're not taking evidence after February 13th. It's an aspirational goal in light of the fact that we have Board members whose terms expire in April. And if we wrap it up by February 13th, it gives us the ability to have the memos put in, the deliberation and ability to write an opinion, have it out before the expiration of that term. Because if that term expires, and there's a new Board member that will be on the, that will take place, there, this panel will again need to appoint yet another new Board member to this panel to review all the evidence.

So, it is in our best interests, to the extent we possibly can, get it to February 13th, at the absolute last, great. If, by whatever reason that's not feasible, it is, then we will have to figure out additional dates. However, having said that, keep in mind that as the November 29th date, the issue as to Ms. Murphy's participation on this panel, that was an event that arose close in time to that already scheduled date.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, I know.

CHAIR: We did not have dates scheduled after that as of yet, and then when asked of counsel for mutual availability, these were the dates selected as mutually available for counsel. So, this is not a matter of a delay on behalf of the Board beyond just asking everybody when are you guys all available. My suggestion was to just start scheduling it in early January and we all clear our schedules to figure out how to be here as early as possible. Unfortunately, that was not within the cards due to conflicts. So, that's why we're here and that's why the schedule is what it is.

I understand that there has been a, a, a delay. The delay is actually not, in my opinion, related to Ms. Murphy's, the prompted, that prompted Mr. McComas' replacement of Ms. Murphy as much as scheduling among counsel and the, involved in this case. So, I hope you understand that my February 13th admonition earlier is really maybe just a restatement of a, of an aspirational goal, not an absolute deadline. It is not meant to preclude you from putting on your case.

MR. HOLZER: Well, thank you, because that did begin to concern me based upon how long it's been taking just to go through one simple witness this morning and, and as a result of that, we are now heading in to a more difficult presentation, as you, as the Board knows from the last time, when Mr. Clark was on in regard to showing videos, etcetera.

So, I, I just wanted to protect the record. I wanted to protect the record that, that if, in fact, February 13th was, was being called the last day and we hadn't finished our presentation for whatever reason, then I just wanted it on the record because this case, obviously, as the Board can understand, there, the record is going to have to be very clear on what's been going on.

CHAIR: And I should also mention too that we asked the parties as to how many more days were, were necessary to be scheduled for this case. We were told three, three were scheduled but then we scheduled a fourth just in case there was a problem. That if snow, ice, whatever else would go on, would limit one other of those three days, then at least we had a backup plan. What I'm hearing from you today is there's a possibility that your case may extend out another day and perhaps beyond.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, there's no doubt. Not the way, not the way the objections are going so far. But that's all I really wanted to say.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: I wanted to protect the record in, in the event, you've explained the Board's position, which I appreciate and I, I think you're accurate in what you said with regard to the history and how the process evolved.

If I can get off of that, I want to make a preliminary statement in regard to the testimony of Mr. Clark.

CHAIR: Well, please hold on. Keep in mind, Mr. Clark is still under oath. His testimony is still active and so any statement you are about to say you need to be sensitive to the fact that he is a witness who is on the stand.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: And, you know, obviously, though I understand --

MR. HOLZER: I'm talking to the Board not to him, in terms of --

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- of the merits. At the last hearing, day seven, the Board and Ms. Dopkin asked if we could go back and try to simply, clarify the presentation of various videos because, as you will recall, at least two members will recall, the, there were a lot of questions about where this video was coming from, how it was done, all sorts of, all sorts of questions. So, at the last hearing, I asked the Board if I have permission to address and to talk to Mr. Clark in order to do the things that the Board wanted us to do.

CHAIR: I recall.

MR. HOLZER: And, and, and I have done that. As a result, and I told Mr. Schmidt this earlier this morning, the, as a result, we have reduced the number of videos. We have also, because the last time we had to put, you may remember the big disc that we had, we had to put that in and then draw up on that disc the video that was going to be two minutes or, or thereabouts in order to find it. And that took time.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. HOLZER: So, what I have asked Mr. Clark to do is to, is to consolidate the videos that he wants to use in, in his, in his testimony, eliminate the ones that are duplicitous or not necessary at this point and then take those videos off of the CD's and put them on a, what do you call these little things that you stick in?

CHAIR: Thumb drive?

MR. HOLZER: Thumb drive. I have real trouble with computers and stuff. Put them on the thumb drive. On the thumb drive, it will refer to the disc that have already been introduced in terms, that you have knowledge of. So, it's not like we're coming in with anything new. What we're doing is we're taking them off of the big disc, putting them on the thumb drive so it can easily be retrieved and, and shown. And I thought making this statement about the process would assist the Board and also Mr. Schmidt and also help ease our way through (inaudible).

CHAIR: I appreciate you doing that because yes, I do feel that that is a good foundation to explain what is going on.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: Why we're seeing what we're seeing and, and how this came to be.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: Thank you for doing that. Mr. Schmidt, do you under, did you understand what Mr. Holder had to say?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay and I assume that does not cause you any problem?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir, not at this point.

CHAIR: Okay. So, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: Not at this point, okay. I'm going to ask Mr. Clark in my beginning questions to layout exactly what he did so I don't want it, my testimony being the one that's the basis for this. I --

CHAIR: But your proffer, but you just proffered what he did.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: And so, I would just say, since Mr. Schmidt does not have a problem with your proffer, if you ask him simply, did I summarize that accurately as to the process by which we came up with this thumb drive? That we don't have yet. Then maybe that resolves that entire point, we could just move straight to the substantive aspects.

MR. HOLZER: I'll try, I'll certainly try to do that and looking at him I'm seeing snow coming down on the outside, which it must have just started. Okay. Can I now ask questions on the record?

CHAIR: Yes, yes, well, hold on. We have to do Ms. Dopkin first and then.

MS. DOPKIN: Please stand up, do you swear, up.

MR. CLARK: Sorry.

MS. DOPKIN: And affirm under the penalties of perjury, that the testimony you are about to give is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief?

MR. CLARK: I do.

MS. DOPKIN: And just for the record, restate your name, please.

MR. CLARK: DeWitt S. Clark.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, you've now heard me make a proffer to the Chairman and the Board as to what you've done since the last hearing date when you were on the stand and we were presenting the beginning part of your testimony, you understand that? Okay. You have to answer yes or no.

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes, I understand what, what you're asking.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Without regurgitating everything I said, can you simply say in a couple words what we're about to experience based on what I just said.

MR. CLARK: Okay. You kinda sorta got it right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Yes, we reduced everything. Some are reduced to screen shots, okay? We have produced a, what I call a video control sheet, which will show each of the videos we're going to show, the length of time, where it is on those discs that, the disc library, okay? And then we have for purposes of authentication, what I called an annotation sheet, which has, I believe it's A through J, which gives the specific URL's from which those videos were drawn.

MR. HOLZER: What are URL's?

MR. CLARK: Resource --

CHAIR: They're basically the, the addresses you type in on a browser --

MR. CLARK: The, the, the web address, yeah.

CHAIR: -- to pull up a website or --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. CLARK: Right. All of them were, were produced by Petitioner and I copied them off of face page, Facebook pages, that they themselves published.

CHAIR: When you say they themselves, you're saying the Petitioner or members --

MR. CLARK: Petitioner.

CHAIR: -- for the Petitioner, or members, whatever the (inaudible) --

MR. CLARK: I don't know who Ed Nepalese is but he was very active.

CHAIR: All right, so --

MR. CLARK: All right. So, now, now, there, there was, there was another issue that came up.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Some, particularly those that were on Dr. Clarke's page have been taken down, okay?

CHAIR: Since, we --

MR. CLARK: Since, since, since my November testimony, okay? When I first introduced the videos, okay? They, they are noted in, in the sheets. We had a question about, I'm sorry, were you, were you about to ask something, Mr. Garber?

CHAIR: No, I was about to cough, we're good.

MR. CLARK: We, Mr. Garber had, or Mr., Petitioner had a question about sound on, on, on the videos, okay?

CHAIR: If I could jump in on that, what I recall from the ruling was that the sound of the one fundraising event was not admissible but the video was. The reasoning for that was the sound would not fairly and accurately represent the sound that would be heard by someone like yourself or your wife because it's the remote, more remote distance and the prior testimony describing the sounds that were heard. So, that as what is played in this Court is not the same as what you would have heard.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: That was the, my understanding and my recollection. So, with that in mind.

MR. CLARK: Can I argue with you?

CHAIR: No. You can tell me, you can tell me what you're about to say. I'm just recapping what I --

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

CHAIR: -- recall from the, from the ruling.

MR. CLARK: As I, as I recall, you also said that there may be other pur, purposes, the, the discussion centered around whether or not we could understand what people were speaking, since they were speaking in their native language. And then you posited correctly, in my view, --

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: -- that, that there may be other, that there may be reasons other than understanding what they're saying to introduce the sound.

CHAIR: Okay. So, yes, I do seem to recall that the issue was, the ruling as to the sound was limited to whether the sound would be the same as what you would hear from your property. That was what the ruling was based on. If there was a different, and then also the language, but then if there's a different purpose for playing the sound then we could revisit that issue.

MR. CLARK: Okay, thank you, sir.

CHAIR: So, yes, I do think that is accurate. Mr. Holzer, is that your understanding?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, was that your understanding?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: As to whether or not you may still have objections, that's not before us. Ms. Dopkin, do you recall it the same way?

MS. DOPKIN: Oh, yes.

CHAIR: So, okay. We're all on the same page.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: All right. Sorry, Mr. McComas, I know you were not part of that but.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Now, I would also point out, Petitioner questioned whether or not the sound, the, the relative volumes were manipulated, either inadvertently through copying or, or, or, or purposefully, okay? I would point out that they've had three months --

CHAIR: Well, hold on, we'll, I'll stop you there because there's already a ruling on that basis, that is the volume itself, whether manipulated or not, the, --

MR. CLARK: Okay. I, --

CHAIR: -- for the purposes of the sound and whether or not that is fairly and accurately portrayed is what you may hear from your, from your house or anywhere else in the surrounding area --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- that's already ruled upon --

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

CHAIR: -- whether it's manipulated or not. So it doesn't make a difference.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

CHAIR: Right. So, I don't, and again, I don't believe Mr. Schmidt was pointing fingers saying this has been manipulated --

MR. CLARK: No, no, he wasn't.

CHAIR: -- or whatever, but I do recall that as part of the November 29th hearing --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: -- so with that in mind, if you have another reason to play the sound, I'm sure Mr. Holzer will try to elicit that from you and we can work our way through that at that point. I hope this doesn't get us bogged down so does, do we have an accurate description as to what we're about to hear, what we're about to see?

MR. HOLZER: I want to introduce these documents for you so that you can follow.

MR. CLARK: And I will, I will explain them and –

CHAIR: That's fine. So you're, basically you're giving me a road, or giving us a road map.

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: To Mr. Schmidt first, please.

MR. HOLZER: The first thing is the video control sheet that was referred to by the witness.

CHAIR: All right. So, this is fifty-one, is it?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes.

CHAIR: So, this is Protestant's Exhibit 51.

MR. HOLZER: Yes. Do you need a copy of this?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I probably ought to have a copy.

CHAIR: And then we're calling, I'm sorry, the, Mr. Holzer?

MS. DOPKIN: Video control sheet.

CHAIR: Thank you. Video control sheet. Thank you, Ms. Dopkin.

MR. HOLZER: I think, I think this is (inaudible) and this was fifty-one?

CHAIR: Fifty-one. And Mr. Schmidt, I see you have a copy?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.
CHAIR: Yes, I see. Okay.
MR. CLARK: Uh, --
CHAIR: Well, hold on, before you start.
MR. HOLZER: No, no, no.
CHAIR: No, let me ask this. Out of what's been handed up to me and everyone here, I have Protestant's Exhibit 51. How many of these do we know that we've already heard in evidence?
MR. HOLZER: I'll get that from him. I don't, --
MR. CLARK: I, I can answer it.
MR. HOLZER: No, just, if I may --
CHAIR: There's no question pending to you necessarily yet.
MR. HOLZER: (inaudible) the URL's --
CHAIR: You're going that --
MR. HOLZER: -- so that you have the whole package.
CHAIR: That's fine. Okay.
MR. HOLZER: And then he can articulate where we are.
CHAIR: Thank you.
MR. HOLZER: Do you need a copy?
MR. CLARK: Yes, please.
CHAIR: So, what you're about hand, what you're handing him now is Exhibit 52 and that is the URL addresses?
MR. HOLZER: Of evidence sources provided by Petitioners.

CHAIR: Sort of, video source, sources of the videos.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, correct. And one, two, three, four, and that is, did you say fifty-two?

CHAIR: Fifty-two. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: If I could refer you back to fifty-one, Exhibit 51, the date introduced on the right hand side of that sheet, are these the ones that are being shown today? Not shown today, have already been shown?

CHAIR: That would make sense considering the date that's identified.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Thank you, Dr. Clark.

MR. HOLZER: It's good that somebody keeps me straight.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry, can you say that again, Mr. Holzer.

CHAIR: The far right column --

MR. HOLZER: The far right column --

MR. SCHMIDT: The ones that have a date, we've already seen on that date?

MR. HOLZER: Exactly.

MR. SCHMIDT: And what we're going to see is the other one, other, other ones?

MR. HOLZER: Some of them.

MR. SCHMIDT: Some of the other ones.

CHAIR: And I seem to recall for the most part there was, all those were admitted with the, I mean, obviously this is, I'm going to rely on the November 29th ruling and the record there.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: But from what I generally recall, most of those were already admitted to, subject to no objection, other than the sound one that we've already identified here.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right.

CHAIR: That's my recollection and, again, the record will speak for itself.

MR. HOLZER: I think you're correct.

CHAIR: So.

MR. HOLZER: Now, Mr. Clark, confine yourself to Exhibit 52 and tell us, you don't have to walk through every one of them, but tell us what all this A through K means and how it relates to your proposed testimony.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Okay. The, this authenticates where the, the, the files came from.

CHAIR: Um hm.

MR. CLARK: Okay? Some of them may still be there, some of them may not be, still be there.

MR. HOLZER: Take, take B, for example.

MR. CLARK: All right, that was on the --

MR. HOLZER: That, that has a date whereas on, --

MR. CLARK: Oh, okay.

MR. HOLZER: -- on A it does not. Explain that for us.

MR. CLARK: Okay. After the slash, those are notations to me, as I, as I documented things. So that A refers to an open house event.

CHAIR: There's no date identified on fifty-two as to the open house event, fair? Is that a fair way to look at it?

MR. CLARK: Wait a minute, on, on, on, on fif, oh, on fif, yes, yes, yes. Although it will be on the control sheet.

CHAIR: Okay. And then by way of illustration, fifty-two, we have it, this, for number, or letter B, a video from what has identified July 4. Now, the July 4 reference, is that the day that you captured or the day of the post --

MR. CLARK: That will be on the control sheet.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: The, the, the, the, the, after the slashes were simply notes to me as I was accumulating the, the, the videos. So that I knew what they were.

CHAIR: Just to be clear, the dates identified on Exhibit 52 do not reflect the date of the event captured but the day that it was captured by you, as opposed to the date of the event that's depicted within the video? Is that fair?

MR. CLARK: I just zoned out.

CHAIR: That's okay. My, these things happen. The July 4, that references when you captured the video or the event depicted in the video?

MR. CLARK: The event.

CHAIR: Thank you. All right.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, sir. Thank you very much.

CHAIR: And I understand that there's a creation date on fifty-one, but for anyone looking at fifty-two in isolation, we would know that that is the event date --

MR. CLARK: Right, right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Right, right. Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Now, is there, keep your, keeping on these two documents alone --

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

MR. HOLZER: -- is there anything else that you need to explain?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, there's, there's, there's, there's several.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Could you take the next one and address that?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, the, the files names are in the left hand column.

MR. HOLZER: Of fifty-one?

MR. CLARK: Of fifty-one, thank you, sir.

MR. HOLZER: You got to re, always refer to the fifty-one or fifty-two.

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay. Fifty-one, the file names that, that, that we will be, that we will or have introduced are in column one. In column two is the evidence disc. You remember those A-1, A-2, A-3's?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. CLARK: All right. Now there are some, I believe it's eight, that I have acquired in the last couple months and those are marked as new.

CHAIR: Well, we'll deal with those separately.

MR. CLARK: That's, yes, thank you, sir. Then in the other, then in the next column is the length of the video, not necessarily the length of what we're going to show, but the length the, of the total length of the video. Creation date is the date the video appeared on those websites or the date I created them from dashcam or my, my, my property or whatever. That's the creation date. Posted by, created by, you see a lot of Clarks there.

CHAIR: No, I, I, I get it. So, fifty-two would correspond to where it says see attached note A, the (inaudible) --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: You would find A on Exhibit 52 and so these two documents work together.

MR. CLARK: Right. And then date copied is the date I copied them on, on, and then the date introduced is the date that we introduced them to this body.

CHAIR: Okay. So, now we have the process by which we come up with Exhibits 51 and 52, correct?

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. MCCOMAS: I have a question. So, so if I type in this URL for number A, is that DSC6978 (inaudible) --

MR. CLARK: Oh.

MR. MCCOMAS: -- or is that, is it the digits up here that direct me to the actual --

MR. CLARK: Thank, thank you. Yeah, DSC6978 shows the, the --

CHAIR: Hold on. I think his question is where, what is that designation? What is the significance of it? That designation, the significance of it is there, is Protestant's designation on their system or their computers or, and they're on the disc as to the file name. So it is separate from the source material but that's where they have it stored for the, for the, for the purposes of the exhibit.

MR. MCCOMAS: But is the Facebook file the digits here, the --

CHAIR: The last character for the, for the URL address would be the backslash, before it says open house.

MR. CLARK: Correct. Thank you, sir. Yeah, I was trying, I guess I did too many things on one piece of paper, yeah.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Now, is there anything else related to Exhibit 51 or 52 to understand the process of your testimony and, as it proceeds? Do we need to know anything else so that we can avoid problems?

MR. CLARK: I don't know.

CHAIR: All right. So, let's do this. Looking at the video list in fifty-one and fifty-two.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

CHAIR: I'm assuming that some of these are targeting certain aspects of your case, the concerns that you may have. So some, for the sake of argument, I anticipate we'll see some video that would concern your noise issues, that is the complaints that has been, have been raised by several witnesses or Protestants of noise, including your wife, Dr. Clark. But she's already testified in full, that's why I reference her, and plus you would have, you would already be familiar because you live at the same address.

MR. CLARK: Understood.

CHAIR: Some may depict other conditions, such as traffic, correct? So, if we're going to be playing some of these videos, I would request, to the extent you can, what the video is supposed to target. So, this way we know what the relevance is of the particular video that we're about to watch, or whatever snippet and this way it helps Mr. Schmidt follow along as to what am I watching and why.

MR. CLARK: Mr. Garber, there, there, there will be, on some of them, we will be showing just screen shots and saying this is what this video represents, do we, do we, do we need to show the whole, whole video to enter it into evidence.

CHAIR: Okay. Now, out of all the ones that are listed, have we already ruled upon those other than where I see it says date introduced, have there been specific rulings as to the admissibility of some of these? I have to think the answer is yes.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: It would be helpful to know which ones, because I don't have my trusty sheet here in front of me, at some point which ones have already been admitted so this way it saves Mr. Schmidt time if he was inclined to object again if it's already been resolved.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: But we'll deal with that as it comes up since I don't have that readily in front of me at the moment. Is that satisfactory to you, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I mean, I, I don't re, off the top of my head remember which ones were shown and all the specific objections. I'll try to be consistent. I did have one other question if I could ask it, just on these sheets?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Bef, in the column on Protestant's exhibit number fifty-one, that is the column that is titled posted/created by, there are a number of references which says, which say see attached note and then identify a note. Is --

CHAIR: I'm sorry, I thought that that was clear, that that's what refers to the letters on fifty-two.

MR. SCHMIDT: Ah, that's what that is. I just wanted to make sure that was clear.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, okay.

CHAIR: And the ones that say Clark, I assume, are the ones that he did with his own dashcam.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Very well.

CHAIR: And that's what I understood from the testimony.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I just wanted to verify that, that that's what that was referring to.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR: So, with that in mind, Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Clark, is there anything else that rel, that is going to come up that relates to your testimony and the showing of any of these videos or introduction of any of the, any documents?

MR. CLARK: Well, are, are we talking about, we're talking about testimony going forward from here.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

MR. CLARK: Including, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

MR. CLARK: -- more than these?

MR. HOLZER: Well, yes. In other words, is, are there any documents that you have that are, you want to introduce that are not listed on fifty-one or fifty-two?

MR. CLARK: Oh, yes.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and as we get to those, we will lay the foundation of where we got them and --

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: -- intended purpose of introducing them and that would be separate from what's listed on fifty-one and fifty-two.

MR. CLARK: Right and can, can, if, if I can expand on that?

MR. HOLZER: Go ahead, that's why we're trying to do this now.

MR. CLARK: Right. The evidence that, that I'm going to be producing today and maybe tomorrow have to do, have nothing to do with zoning enforcement, all right? Nothing.

CHAIR: You mean code enforcement?

MR. CLARK: Code enforcement, yes. Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: Just for clarification for the record.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I, I, I have three attorneys and you to explain to me that this is not --

CHAIR: This is not a code enforcement hearing.

MR. CLARK: That's right. Everything has to do with land use, with, with pass, with the land use over the last year --

CHAIR: Are you, well, let's do this. Are, it sounds to me like you're about to tell me about prior decisions or something to that effect?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIR: Is what you, okay --

MR. CLARK: No, no, no, no, no, no, no. It, it all, it will document how they have been using the property, all right? It will document vor, voracity, all right? It will document basically use and voracity phys, and physical use of the property.

CHAIR: Well, we're, we'll cross those bridges when we get there.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: I understand that you may have, from what I understand is you're talking about maybe potential evidence to show that what has been testified to may not be fully accurate?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: Or some other characterization, I'll leave that to anybody else to decide, but we're not there yet. Let's just go with what we have here. Please keep in mind we don't need to have repetition on undul, let's just say, repeated instances of the same thing. So, just do your best to streamline whatever you can. I understand that this is already a streamlined version, but if it's to show, again, hey look, there's noise that's going to affect us, we obviously have a good idea from all the witnesses already and some of the other videos already in, so.

MR. CLARK: As painful as it was to hear, --

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. CLARK: -- I took Ms. Dopkin's question to heart.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. CLARK: Okay? The only reason for including into the record, not to show, but including into the record multiple videos, for example, of volleyball is to show the extent, all right? They're not of the same, you know, that I, I, I showed an exemplar, right? But there are twenty-four dates that I have documentation, all right? I am not going to show twenty-four.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. CLARK: Okay? But it all, you know, the, the, the reason for having the density is simply to document the extent.

CHAIR: All right. Well, let's just start working through this because (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: But I'm just trying to reiterate the problem of when we had to try to work through on November 29th that I don't want to get bogged down here today then I feel like we're already getting there. So, why don't we just plow forward with what we can to get the evidence that you feel we need for our decision making here. So, Mr. Schmidt, you look like you want to say something?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I just, Mr. Garber, and I just, do, do you want me to raise any objection as we go along, save it to the end? I mean, I, I want to be consistent, I mean, we talked about videos and you've given us rulings previously and I'm just trying to be consistent. I mean, I'm sure the Board will want to be consistent with its previous rulings and I think I've outlined in great, excruciating detail the basis of my objections. And I don't want to keep going over the same thing. I know Mr. McComas is new to it but --

CHAIR: I'll say this. Your objections are preserved for the record, that the playing of the videos here that you previously objected to and there have been rulings on --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: -- you don't need to object again.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Okay. If you have, if there's another reason for an objection, obviously I'm not going to preclude you from raising an objection that you feel is appropriate, as long as it's not something that previously either had been ruled upon or could have been ruled upon and not been made. For example, we had talked hypothetically about the sound issue. If you have an issue as the sound is being played and it's being used for a different purpose, that has not been ruled upon. Obviously, we couldn't rule across the board without knowing testimony --

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: -- the last time around.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, that's what you understand as well?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: All right. Then let's continue.

MR. SCHMIDT: All right. Thank you.

CHAIR: And, and to be clear, for the record, your objections previously asserted in writing and during the course of that hearing and any other hearing, are preserved for when they, these videos are played here today.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, because we, let me be, honestly, we may see a video that we've seen before and I don't remember every single one that we've seen and whether I objected to it, to be quite honest. I just --

CHAIR: Well, I'm not, I'm assuming we're not playing again the ones that have already been admitted that had already, you know, for example, all the ones dated November 1st, I'm assuming we're not going into them again a second time.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and I'm hoping the ones that you have ruled that are not admissible, we're not, they're not trying to get those in again too.

CHAIR: Well, again, I'm going to defer to the November 29th hearing and, and the Order or, I know it's not reduced to writing as of yet, but that transcript to determine, so if it, one is played here today and subsequently determined that it was actually objected to and that objection was sustained previously, obviously that will be stricken.

MR. SCHMIDT: Very well. And I don't have to jump up again.

CHAIR: It will be identified for the record, but it would be stricken in terms of its receipt in evidence.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir. Thank you.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: I have no problem.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Can I --

MR. HOLZER: All right. Mr. Clark, let me --

MR. CLARK: Can I make one, any, any, if I do introduce something, it's not, it's not intentional, okay?

CHAIR: It's fine, Mr. Clark. Or Dr. Clark, it's understood --

MR. CLARK: And, and, and Mr. Holzer and I haven't had a chance to really talk about this.

CHAIR: We know that there's a lot of stuff so, sometimes mistakes happen. Whatever, we'll figure it out. We'll get to that point and we'll keep moving.

MR. HOLZER: I, I would say for the record again, that because he was on the stand and then there was a long period of time where we had to try to refine and so forth, I did have conversations with him but I don't know what he's going to say. We, we didn't talk about the actual --

CHAIR: Substance.

MR. HOLZER: -- substance, right. Only how to proceed and try to accommodate the Board's --

CHAIR: I assume that to be the case because of, you know, the fact that you're an attorney who's --

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: -- representing your client and understands the rules of ethics and professional conduct.

MR. HOLZER: Exactly.

CHAIR: So, that was assumed on my part.

MR. HOLZER: Well, thank you, sir. I appreciate that. And we tried in, in going, setting all this up that you've heard to, so far --

CHAIR: The full scope of the, the nature of the conversations and why we're at where we're at sitting here in this moment.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: With that in mind.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Mr. Clark.

MR. CLARK: Sir.

MR. HOLZER: In, in, in terms of, I believe, of your initial comments, there are some documents that might be new that you want to introduce and could, not videos, but documents, I think. Could you explain what they are --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- and, and, and when, when, why you label them new?

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: I'm sorry, you said documents.

MR. HOLZER: Documents.

MR. CLARK: We're off videos.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: We're off of videos.

CHAIR: Okay. Wouldn't it make sense to show whatever documents you intend to introduce, just, as to why he's characterizing them as new, if we don't have them they're going to be new to everybody up here.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: So, I'm just trying to figure out why we're asking him if --

MR. HOLZER: Because I was going to go through them in, in --

CHAIR: I'm just saying, just get to that.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: That would work.

MR. HOLZER: Well, that's where I am.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: That's where I am.

CHAIR: Okay, I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: And, and Mr. Clark, can you explain what new, just explain what new documents you intend to produce for the Board now and then we will pull them out and, and give them to the Board (inaudible) that's a preliminary question.

MR. CLARK: Yeah. What, what I am about to introduce, I was talking about this is not a code enforcement hearing. These documents will represent our efforts to get the County to do something about what was happening at the property.

CHAIR: Well, let's take it document by document and see where this takes us.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Take the first one.

MR. CLARK: All right. Letters to Baltimore County.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Wait a minute, is this the right thing? Is this the right, no, what about this one? Oh, okay. All right. The first document, --

CHAIR: And before you answer, ask any questions and start test --

MR. CLARK: Oh, this ---

MR. HOLZER: Shh, quiet.

CHAIR: Hold on. Mr. Schmidt needs to review.

MR. CLARK: But this isn't it.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, wait a minute. What do you mean it's not it?

MR. CLARK: This is the one with Zeller.

CHAIR: Okay. Why don't we just start with that one then, --

MR. CLARK: Okay, okay, okay.

CHAIR: And then we'll get back to whatever else. So, here's what we'll do. Give Mr. Schmidt a second, Mr. Holzer will pass it out to the Board.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Before there's any question or testimony, everyone needs the opportunity to review and then we'll identify what it is for the record and whatever substance that you wish to convey --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- subject to --

MR. HOLZER: Sure, and this --

CHAIR: -- normal processing.

MR. HOLZER: -- number would be?

MR. MCCOMAS: Fifty-three.

MR. HOLZER: Fifty-three.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, this is fifty-three?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: This is fifty-three.

MR. HOLZER: Fifty-three.

CHAIR: All right. So, Dr. Clark, what is Exhibit 53?

MR. CLARK: Fifty-three is an e-mail exchange between myself and Mr. Rich Zeller, who is the head of State Highway Access Permits for State Highway Administration.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: What it shows is that he did not --

CHAIR: Hold on, hold on. Mr. Holzer, do you want to ask a question as to the document?

MR. CLARK: Oh.

MR. HOLZER: I can, I mean, --

CHAIR: Please do.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. This, this document marked fifty-three was dated July of, 5th of 2018?

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. HOLZER: And it was to you, I assume, from Mr. Zeller?

MR. CLARK: Correct.

MR. HOLZER: You've decided, you, you testified who Mr. Zeller is. Was this in response to an inquiry that you asked Mr. Zeller?

MR. CLARK: There is, if you look on the last page, I say I'm pleading for help, okay?

MR. HOLZER: The last page of the document?

MR. CLARK: Of, of the document, of Exhibit 53. You'll see my, my, my initial request and then on page, at the bottom of page two, Mr. Zeller replies, I'm not trying to avoid this issue, but Baltimore County is in charge of land use issues, not SHA. County has the SHA letter and is aware of our position regarding the entrance on MD-147. If the County has not approved this site for this activity, they, Baltimore County, must prohibit the NACCB, Inc. from having the activity. SHA has no authority to enforce this, okay?

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Then the, at, at the top of page one of fifty-three, so these are in reverse order, right? They're, they're like a typical e-mail thread.

CHAIR: I understand, I understand.

MR. CLARK: Okay? Mr. Clark, it's my understanding that the County has not approved this site for the proposed use, the SHA has not approved the existing entrance for this use. From the SHA perspective, this site should not be operating at all. Will the County be shutting them down?

MR. HOLZER: Okay and that's it?

MR. CLARK: That's it.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and the purpose of showing this to the Board?

MR. CLARK: Is to say that the, it was the County's responsibility to shut this down and that SHA had, their opinion, their finding, was that this should not, their conclusion was that this site should not be being used.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. It says what it says.

MR. CLARK: It says what it says.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. I would move, do I need to move each one of these as we go?

CHAIR: Do you want to establish the record?

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, I, --

CHAIR: I, it's understood that once you're done with it, --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- that you were looking to move these into evidence?

MR. HOLZER: Yes, that's correct. That's correct.

CHAIR: So, so Petitioner's, or Protestant's Exhibit 53, Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Objection. Move to strike. The witness started his testimony by saying he was not talking about code enforcement. That's precisely and exactly what this is. It was his efforts to institute a code enforcement activity, not to prohibit an activity which is proposed under the special exception per se, which is the religious use of the property. But to stop an event that occurred in July of 2018. What does this possibly have to do --

CHAIR: Relevance.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- with the ultimate issue in this case?

CHAIR: Relevance, based on the fact that it's, you believe it's code enforcement based, understood.

MR. HOLZER: The relevance is still the fact that their access, their entrance way, in terms of your approving this project still has not been granted by the State Highway Administration.

CHAIR: And that, I believe, is already established by even Mr. Coligaro that it's not, we're not even there yet.

Is that your recollection?

MR. HOLZER: That's correct.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: And to save you some time, it's already in as Exhibit 43.

CHAIR: I was about to say, we've seen this before.

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: I'm sure this is already an exhibit in evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Yes, it's already been introduced in evidence.

CHAIR: So, I mean, on that basis --

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, then why are we introducing it now?

CHAIR: I think he just wanted to establish his back and forth with it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: As to whether or not, do we need duplicate copies of it? We do not. But the testimony it, he's basically going off this letter and, and showed him the letter or, excuse me, the e-mail chain so this way he'd get the testimony on the record from Dr. Clark.

MR. HOLZER: Mr. Garber, I also want to point out for the record that Mr. McComas is sitting here for the first time and while there are prior days and you will not get into that material, he is entitled to hear this as his first day of sitting here.

MR. SCHMIDT: No, he's not --

CHAIR: Hold on, hold on, Mr. Schmidt. Let Mr. Holzer finish.

MR. HOLZER: I, I therefore, because of the interruption and through no fault of the parties or the Board, a Board member is not sitting here. We have a new Board member. I believe he's entitled to hear some of this documentation and understand what has been going on or what is going on now. So, I think in fairness that he be permitted to see and hear some of this documentation for himself.

CHAIR: I will say, obviously I'm not Mr. McComas, but I will say that we don't need to review testimony and, and documents that have already been introduced or go over that stuff that's already in the record. And the reason being is, Mr. McComas, I, I understand, has been provided a copy of every transcript and has been provided the exhibits. Mr. McComas has made his own review and has his own understanding at this point. If Mr. McComas feels that he needs further clarification on a particular point, when it's being, when it's raised or even when it's not raised, I'm sure Mr. McComas will speak up and say wait a minute, I have a question, which he's already done here today, at least once or twice.

So, on that basis, I don't believe we do need to review everything again for him. When I say everything, anything again that's already in the record. If you want to then point to something in the record that you feel is important, certainly you're going to have that opportunity in part with your, with your memo, at the conclusion of the evidence. But also, to the extent that there's other evidence you can say, just like this occurred on whatever other day, you could reference that way, if you feel the need to do so.

So, Mr. Schmidt, with that in mind, is there anything further from you on that point?

MR. SCHMIDT: I just, just want to make it clear. Mr. McComas, unfortunately, finds himself in a very unusual place because --

CHAIR: We all do.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right, but he, in particular, because he's got to now go through transcripts and tape recordings and a long time and I, I would stress very, very strongly he's coming in in the middle of the Protestant's case. The Petitioner has already offered its case, I mean, if there is some inference and I, not, not an inference, but a direct point that Mr. Holzer makes, that he gets to offer evidence again so Mr. McComas can hear it from the horse's mouth, in effect, that's entirely inappropriate unless on rebuttal you want me to re-present my case again.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, you've heard my ruling.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you, sir.

CHAIR: I don't believe we need to go over the same thing that we've already done before.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: The evidence is already in the record. Do we need to have Protestant's Exhibit 53 in the record if it's already in the record as forty-three, as it has been identified, which I accept the representation it is what it is, but.

MR. HOLZER: I, I would like it be marked as, since it's been marked and pulled out as fifty-three, that's fine.

CHAIR: All right. Since it's already admitted, I'm going to admit it.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you. All right, next up.

CHAIR: But again, I, please be careful about re-introducing things that are already in the record. And I realize you're, I know you're trying your best, there's a lot of stuff going on, I recognize that.

MR. HOLZER: I know. And I'm trying to keep it simple, not only for the Board but for the record. All right. There is a new document marked from you to Mr. --

CHAIR: Hold on --

MR. HOLZER: I just want to --

CHAIR: -- he, he needs to be the one to identify what the document is. Unless there's a, give it to Mr. Schmidt first.

MR. HOLZER: No, because I have to have him identify what it is first.

CHAIR: But Mr. Schmidt needs to see it, so please hand it to Mr. Schmidt, whatever copy you have. Please hand it to Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Now, that, I don't understand that ruling.

CHAIR: You don't understand how --

MR. HOLZER: No, I don't understand.

CHAIR: Here's how we offer evidence. You have a document you want to introduce into the record, you need to provide it to counsel before you start asking your witness as to what this document is. Mr. Schmidt has the opportunity to review. You now can ask him, what is this document? But Mr. Schmidt needs to see it before you start questioning about it.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, from now on --

CHAIR: That's the way this has always been. This has not changed. This is how we got, why we had this motion earlier today that we had to resolve is because you showed the witness first before Mr. Schmidt had the opportunity to object. We are past that point. All we need to do now is hand it to Mr. Schmidt, or ask Dr. Clark then what is the document which is going to be labeled as fifty-four for purposes of i.d., what is this document? We can't start questioning until Mr. Schmidt has at least the opportunity to take a look at the document you intend to ask about. So, with that in mind, Mr. Holzer, back to you.

MR. HOLZER: I'm waiting for Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, I've looked, I've reviewed it, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Well, you didn't tell me so I didn't know.

CHAIR: Okay, listen. Let's move through this. You've had the opportunity to review it, he's reviewed it. Mr. Holzer, your question to Dr. Clark, please.

MR. HOLZER: What is that document?

MR. CLARK: This is a date stamped letter received by Mr. Jablon's office from me to Mr. Jablon.

MR. HOLZER: May I give it to the Board?

CHAIR: Yes, you should, and to clarify that further, my prior speech, when you give it to Mr. Schmidt, please provide it to the Board too, to the extent that you have the necessary copies, that would be ideal.

MR. HOLZER: I think I gave you five.

CHAIR: This, and this is for purposes of the record, identified as Protestant's Exhibit 54. All right. So, this is a letter then from Dr. Clark, President of Gunpowder Falls Watershed Preservation Association to Mr. Jablon received on July 11, 2018 and apparently also sent on July 11, 2018, one page document. So, with that in mind, Mr. Holzer, your questions?

MR. HOLZER: My question is, why is this relevant?

MR. CLARK: Actually, it relates to another document that's going to be introduced right after this, I hope, from Vince Gardenia, okay? So, --

CHAIR: Well, let's get that in the record if the two are going to be interrelated, that is if you want to provide that document to Dr. Clark, since he needs both, if he's saying that they're related.

MR. HOLZER: Do you need both?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yes, yes, please.

CHAIR: Provide the Board two with the copies, so we can --

MR. HOLZER: Oh, I thought I had to give --

CHAIR: I'm sorry. If I was, if I was being unclear, when you provide it to Mr. Schmidt, provide it to the Board at the same time so we at least have the copies before you start asking what is this document and then having testified to it. We realize when you're handing it up it's going to be marked for identification only, then we'll leave it to you to decide whether or not you're moving it into evidence.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: Is that, we're on the same page on this, on how this is going to work? All right. You now have the doc, is that the document you were just referencing, sir?

MR. CLARK: I don't have the Gardenia letter.

MR. HOLZER: No, he doesn't have the document.

CHAIR: You don't have it yet.

MR. HOLZER: Because normally I walk up and give it to him and then give it to the Board.

CHAIR: Okay, I, I apologize, I thought he had it. I'm just a step ahead in this regard for once.

MR. HOLZER: And this would be fifty-five.

CHAIR: Fifty-five.

MR. CLARK: No, this is the wrong one.

CHAIR: All right. Let's do this. Dr. Clark, what is it, I assume you, you intend to pro, to introduce into the record there is --

MR. CLARK: Oh, oh, oh, no. It is here, it is here, it is here.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. CLARK: It's on the very last page.

MR. HOLZER: Well, let's start with fifty-four, now that you have the letter to Mr. Jablon.

MR. CLARK: Okay. Fifty-four is the last one?

MR. HOLZER: Fifty-four is the letter to Jablon.

CHAIR: Fifty-four is the one page letter.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, thank you.

CHAIR: Fifty-five is the multi-page, what appears to be an e-mail chain.

MR. CLARK: Okay. This, this, this is a letter that references an Order issued by Arnold Jablon regarding the, no activities on the site, dated July, well, that I received, all right. But a previous Order dated July 1, okay? To NACCB, Inc., okay? And I was notifying him that they are proceeding with this event in defiance of that Order. That Order, you will see on, I don't, Mr. Garber?

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. CLARK: This last page I have no idea why that got stapled there.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I have no idea why that's there.

CHAIR: Understood. Last page of fifty-five that's been handed up actually appears to be from the video exhibits from what we've already resolved.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I'm not trying to re-introduce again.

CHAIR: They're not, they're not related, understood. No problem.

MR. SCHMIDT: Can we delete the last page?

MR. CLARK: Yes, throw it out, please.

CHAIR: Fifty-five, just tear that off. So, for the record, page, Exhibit 55, the last page has been tear, torn out of the original that's actually up here in the possession of Mr. McComas, who is handling the exhibits today.

MR. CLARK: All right. So, the last page is an exchange that came out, came out, I, all right. Now, the bottom line is, the last page is, is where Vince Gardenia sends me a copy of the enforcement Order that was sent to Mr. Kris Ghimire, okay?

Now, the way that came about was we were getting nowhere on sanitation issues and all that. And so, I went to Kevin Weis on the first page, who is the chief of the Baltimore division for Maryland Department of the Environment. He then told me that Vince Gardenia is the guy that, that he, he contacted Vince Gardenia and had Vince Gardenia get in touch with me and then finally Vince Gardenia sent me the enforcement Order that VanDomelen had sent. Why did I have to get it from Vince Gardenia? Why wasn't it sent directly to us and to counsel? That, that enforcement Order.

CHAIR: Oh, okay.

MR. CLARK: But, yeah, yeah, I mean, but --

MR. HOLZER: He doesn't answer (inaudible).

MR. CLARK: Okay, I'm sorry.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Moreover, I couldn't answer that question.

MR. HOLZER: So, this, these two documents have no relationship to a code enforcement situation?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Why are you then producing these two documents, fifty-four and fifty-five?

MR. CLARK: To show that we made numbers, a number of efforts to, to, to alert the County that their Orders were being ignored and trying to find out exactly how this process worked.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And no one, other than Vince Gardenia, no one ever responded to us and I believe that's going to be the subject of the next --

CHAIR: Well, if I, just to help move this along. Understanding that you guys made a, some efforts to reach out to the County to discuss why is this property being used what it is, you know, the way it is, when the Order reads a certain way and you believe that to be inconsistent with the way it's being used, right? Is that --

MR. CLARK: It goes, it goes beyond that.

CHAIR: It goes beyond that.

MR. CLARK: It goes, it goes to denial of right to due process.

CHAIR: Denial of the right of due process.

MR. CLARK: Yes. Willful, willful neglect.

CHAIR: Willful neglect. Okay. I'm intrigued by this.

MR. HOLZER: You'll, you'll find out.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: The Board will find out.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Because as I said earlier, there has been improper activity on the part of the County and this is --

CHAIR: We can be, hold on, Mr. Holzer, we could be completely sympathetic with that position, that is, the County should have done more as it relates to these events and all that. It does not speak at all though to the special exception factors --

MR. HOLZER: I understand that.

CHAIR: But that's why we're here.

MR. HOLZER: But I've been around, Your Honor, and let, let me just say this.

CHAIR: Go ahead.

MR. HOLZER: For the Board. It's time that someone brings to the attention of the Courts or this Board the impropriety of what has been taking place below in terms of activity in regard to enforcing County law, rules and regulations. And if I cannot do it by having this testimony, I will proffer every one of these documents because on review, it becomes clear what has happened in this case. And I'm not blaming anybody at the Board level but, as you know, I submitted a Motion in regard to a letter ex parte that was done between the --

CHAIR: We (inaudible) --

MR. HOLZER: I know we're not getting into it.

CHAIR: I heard, I know that that is an issue that's still pending in this matter.

MR. HOLZER: I understand and I'm not getting into it now. But this has been going on in this case and it's, it's time that this Board was provided with the documentation of not code enforcement, but what has been taking place. So, that's the relevance of why this has been, been presented.

CHAIR: My response to that and, again, with all, just to summarize this, to move this forward, Dr. Clark, to everybody else who has participated in this, I recognize you have certain frustrations and I realize that you have certain things that you think the County has failed you in your positions, in your opinions.

The big problem is, this Board cannot do much by way of addressing those problems. This is also not a code enforcement hearing. This is a matter of special exception. That is, we have certain factors. As to how any of these events and all this is, you put it, a denial of due process or whatever, however it's characterized, as to how that effects the special exception hearing and those factors, that is our limited jurisdiction as to what we could do.

We can't tell the County Council, we can't tell Code Enforcement, we can't tell anyone else how they should have treated this back in July, back in August or any other time, because that matter certainly is, one, is not in front of us, but two, we can't compel that. To compel those things, perhaps that's subject to a mandamus action or some other type of action, but it's certainly not one that we can actually remedy sitting here today or any other day, because it's not something that is within our, what the, the matters that we are allowed to review, nor is it in the Petition from Petitioner or the appeal from Protestants that is relating to the Petition.

This is a matter, seems to me, they are using this property inconsistent with the prior Orders, do something about it. They didn't do something about it, we can't change that fact even if I'm completely sympathetic to your plight in terms of hey, why aren't people coming out to do something about this when it's apparent on its face? I'll accept all of that as true, in the end, we can't change that sitting here today.

MR. HOLZER: But you, but you can consider past activity and practice in regard to how you approach the issue of the land use issue, which is do I grant the special exception or do not. That's something that you can listen and you can evaluate the truth, truthfulness of what is being done. That's number one.

Number two, for the record, I've been, been down this road many times. There's something called exhaustion of administrative remedies and although it could be said oh, you got to present this at the Circuit Court, the ruling in a Circuit Court could say it should have been presented at the hearing before the Board of Appeals and that is exactly what I've been through battles for forty-five years doing.

CHAIR: And I, I appreciate, I appreciate what you just said greatly. My suggestion is, is to proffer that so there could be a ruling upon whether or not your administrative remedies have been exhausted by us. This, I know we've done this --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- in other cases where --

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: -- I don't want to say the same things, because it definitely wasn't the same type of activity, or even a special exception case, where we have done that. We have made specific rulings, the administrative remedies have been exhausted and therefore it's ripe for the Circuit Court and for the next step on these particular issues.

MR. HOLZER: I, I can accept, I accept that. So, the question is, how do we do that? Do I try to proffer everything right now that's not related to your limitation that you've imposed? Or as we go along and we present various documents, those documents could be determined to be out of your area of responsibility or however you would want to phrase it. We can mark that exhibit that way and, in effect, at the end, we will be in a position of saying oh, exhibits, you know, one, two, three, four, --

CHAIR: My, my thinking on that is tonight you guys could come up with that list of documents, submit it as a package, of course provide a copy to Mr. Schmidt. This was it will be submitted, you'll have your proffer, it's taken care of, we can move on. Because it's more important to get to the special exception factors. If there's any impact or any issue as it relates to anything you want to raise --

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: -- in connection with these documents and this, the matters that Dr. Clark wants to testify about, how it relates to the special exception factors, of course, that's evidence we need to hear it and whatever.

But as to what should we tell the County about what they did or did not do, that is well beyond what we have control over, well beyond what we are allowed to do and if you want to make sure that administrative remedies have been exhausted, my suggestion is, put it into a packet, say here's what we're proffering and then we can move on from there, because we're not going to go through every document if that is the issue to say this is beyond our jurisdiction, or this is beyond the boundaries of this case. We are here to determine whether or not the special exception factors, the satisfaction of the level of evidence presented on that issue, as to whether or not Petitioners get their use.

MR. HOLZER: I understand. I understood all that.

CHAIR: And whatever conditions, if any, would follow.

MR. HOLZER: I understood all of that. I understood what the Courts require, --

CHAIR: Yeah.

MR. HOLZER: -- I understand what's happened in the past. I also would suggest that there is going to be evidence or testimony or documents related to the voracity or factual correctness of other witnesses or --

CHAIR: That's a different matter.

MR. HOLZER: I know it's a different matter, but I wanted to alert you to the fact that some of the material coming in through the witness is of that nature. So, there is a difference between both of these.

CHAIR: And then if there is a difference with some documents or some evidence compared to others, so be it. We'll go down that road and we'll, I'll see where that takes us. But as to hey, our needs are being ignored by the County, I'm telling everyone here we cannot do anything about that, unfortunately. Even recognizing your frustration with the whole process with it. And it's, I'm sorry that, if this is the first time you're hearing this. But the fact of the matter is, we are here to talk about a special exception case, special exception factors. If the County did not do what, what you believe that they should have done, we can't change that outcome.

MR. CLARK: I think I got it.

CHAIR: Yeah. And I just want to make that clear, it's not a rejection of what you're saying, it's just an explanation as to why we're here, what we could do. Let's get to that rather than, you know, sit here and go through all this stuff when we realize, in the end, we can't change that.

MR. HOLZER: I, I would like to be able to get these documents identified as a, with a document number.

CHAIR: I didn't say you couldn't. I'm saying tonight, come up with your list of documents for that purpose, that you just, we just went through, put it in as a packet tomorrow with a proffer as to what that evidence is.

Obviously, you've heard, Mr. Schmidt, my inclination on those matters. Obviously, you'll get a copy tomorrow. If there's any comment that needs to be said, will be limited, of course. But we could go through it, this way it's in the record for purposes of identification and for purposes of the tran, any transcript so you can do whatever you feel you need to do as a result of that. Is that --

MR. HOLZER: I understand.

CHAIR: And that's --

MR. HOLZER: Whether that can be done tonight or not is another story. Whether we're going to be here tomorrow with the snow is another story. But I'll try to get that done. If I can't get it done or we don't have the hearing tomorrow, it's going to have to be later.

CHAIR: Well, then, then it would have to be submitted on February 5th, if that's the case, because that's the next, that's the next hearing date. But I'm saying to you, we have a whole bunch of documents, as I understand, we want to go through with this particular issue. By tomorrow, if you want those documents into the record, I would highly recommend you getting them into one packet so we can move forward. I don't want to sit here and delay this case anymore. Let's get to the special exception factors.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: And this way you have what you need in the record. That's the reason for my now ten minute, maybe more, explanation as to how this has to unfold.

MR. HOLZER: All right.

CHAIR: And again, I want to acknowledge at least, what Dr. Clark had to say in terms of why they're presenting this and what their intent was, but that we can't do anything about it. In, in that respect.

MR. CLARK: I have a question.

CHAIR: Well, you, sir, you're under oath at the moment, so I, you can't ask questions, but.

MR. MCCOMAS: (inaudible) so you're asking him to put together any additional, because we already have fifty-four and fifty-five, so any additional ones, following the similar theme, you're --

CHAIR: Right.

MR. MCCOMAS: -- asking him to put them all together in one packet and say here are all the ones?

CHAIR: Whatever you --

MR. MCCOMAS: Not including (inaudible).

CHAIR: Right, whatever else you intended to put in on that very point, the County is not paying attention and, you know, --

MR. HOLZER: I understand.

CHAIR: -- that they should have done more or whatever the case, here's how the property is being used in this regard and the County ignored our request, State Highway said this, that and the other thing and maybe somebody else weighed in and said wait a minute, hold on, why are they doing that or whatever. All that together, so this way everyone is protected by whatever that follows. But let's get to the special exception factors.

MR. HOLZER: Part of the special exception factors are the fact that this Board can grant the relief requested with conditions. Now, isn't it appropriate for some of this material to come in? For instance, the State Highway Administration. To, to say the, the entrance is unacceptable to us but that's up to the County to enforce. Well, but that's also a condition that this Board could put on its approval as--

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, exactly. If you feel that speaks to --

MR. HOLZER: So, how can we get that in?

CHAIR: -- hold on, if you, hold on. If you think that speaks to a specific special exception factor for us to, that we need to weigh, then yes, you may try to put that into evidence and we'll see where that takes us. As to that point, yes, that is a, perhaps a valid argument from your perspective.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: As to how this has to be addressed. It is in evidence. That is SHA is saying hey, wait a minute, we got a problem here or whatever the case may be, perhaps that speaks to whatever factor under 502.1. I'm sure we'll hear from Mr. Schmidt, and as well as yourself, in memos on that point. So, that is not to exclude evidence that's connected to a special exception factor, to the contrary. I want it narrowly tailored to that special exception factor because we can't do anything about why Code Enforcement doesn't go out or why the County doesn't go out to enforce this when they're supposed to.

MR. HOLZER: But see, the problem with what you're suggesting is that if I make a packet of this material that is for purposes of the Circuit Court, potential Circuit Court argument, it's not in front of you, you're not putting it into evidence from which you could draw to make the conclusion that the access has to be by the State and, in other words, --

CHAIR: I'm not limiting you to put in evidence as, on that point.

MR. HOLZER: Than I have to go through --

CHAIR: I'm saying that if you have, if you have, for example, what looks to be fifty-five. Fifty-five, to me, fifty-four, seemed to be complaining about why aren't you guys going out to cite them for code violations, okay?

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: That is what I'm referring to by this proffer. When it comes to fifty-three, by way of example, this is saying SHA is saying they shouldn't be using this entrance way for whatever reason, that speaks to the specific special exception factor. This is treated differently than fifty-four and fifty-five.

MR. HOLZER: Correct, correct. That's why --

CHAIR: Right, so there's a difference. I asked you for your discretion in determining that line. These documents speak to special exception factors, these speak to code enforcement matters or the failure to enforce. The failure to enforce and code enforcement matters are not part of our, what we're reviewing here. If you want to argue to us that the SHA comments here are dispositive or at least aid us in terms of evaluating that factor, yes, this, --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- can, you can certainly, I'm not going to make a, a ruling saying that that's all admissible sitting here at the moment, because I don't know which each one is.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: But yes, this would be subject that's appropriate for it, and I asked for your discretion in determining where that line is drawn.

MR. HOLZER: But that's the problem. I, I have to then limit or narrow and, and try to guess what this Board will admit and what you won't admit.

CHAIR: No, no, --

MR. HOLZER: Really.

CHAIR: Again, it's a proffer. You're saying look, these documents speak to code enforcement or lack enf, or lack of enforcement. They're not tied to a special exception factor. If they're tied to a special exception factor, we will work through each document.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: But I mean, I, if it's going to be like ten document, or ten documents regarding noise, again, much like the videos, we don't need ten documents.

MR. HOLZER: I understand.

CHAIR: Dr. Clark can testify on the following dates I sent correspondence or had communications with folks in the County about noise because noise was doing x, y, z. That's a different matter than, again, fifty-four and fifty-five which seem to speak to hey, you guys, here's the Order, why aren't you coming out to enforce?

MR. HOLZER: If Your Honor would permit me, then let me take what I know Mr. Clark wants to introduce and just ask him, in his opinion, are these related to a possible condition that the Board would, could impose or is it just frustration as to what took place? Can I do that? Say, and save some time?

CHAIR: I, I would, I would say if you can give guidance to Dr. Clark on that, looking at these documents, that's probably the best way to go about achieving this end goal for us all. This way you have what you need in evidence for special exception factors.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: And you have your record established for purposes of the other stuff that you feel should be admissible but perhaps you need to do something more because of exhaustion of administrative remedies.

MR. HOLZER: Right.

CHAIR: So, this way your record would be protected, but also it would be streamlining the case and we can get to the heart of the matter, which again, is the special exception factors.

MR. HOLZER: Could, could I ask for the lunch break now so --

CHAIR: Oh, I was going to insist upon it.

MR. HOLZER: It's twenty after twelve.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: And if, if you can give us an hour.

CHAIR: Yes, an hour is fine.

MR. HOLZER: And, and understanding that I am going to go over, I'll ask very few questions of Mr. Clark, because he's on the stand. I'll talk to Mary and see the list of potential documents that he wanted to introduce now and see if I can decem, separate them.

CHAIR: And correct me if I'm wrong here, but this seems to be incredibly, we're making this incredibly more complicated than it needs to be. We have heard numerous, we've heard testimony from all the witnesses thus far as to their concerns as it relates to the proposed use. You all have documents there that you want to put into evidence that will illustrate, perhaps, or from Dr. Clark's perspective and your perspective, here, this speaks to those particular factors. Separate those from everything else that would otherwise speak to the code enforcement matters. It should be pretty simple because we already know what the issues are, because we've heard from Dr. Clark, we've heard from Dr. Mary Clark, we've heard from others about the issues.

I already, I think we have a pretty good grasp as to where we are, as to what the complaints are and I'm sure that they're going to be echoed by others. And I'm not restricting you in terms of being able to produce whatever evidence you need, but at the same time, we have to do this in a, a more efficient or have any efficiency in pursuing testimony and evidence from Protestants --

MR. HOLZER: I'll try to do that during the lunch break.

CHAIR: Thank you. So, why don't we do this. What time is it, like, almost 12:30? Why don't we come back at 1:30 so you'll have actually an hour and eight minutes.

MR. HOLZER: Good.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm all in favor of lunch.

CHAIR: Thank you.

(RECORDING PAUSED – 12:20:37 PM)

(ON RECORD – 01:32:08 PM)

CHAIR: All right. We are back on the record, please be seated. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Mr., members of the Board, Mr. Chairman, your office was kind enough to make copies of the sign in sheets. I've provided one to Mr. Schmidt. I would provide the Board one and I'd keep one.

CHAIR: Yes. You have the originals too back.

MR. HOLZER: I, I don't know whether these are the, oh, they gave us the originals here.

CHAIR: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: So, your Board took whatever was in this packet that --

CHAIR: Right, copied it, except, copied the one side because I understand it's on recycled paper. And there was various writing on the, on the other side of it.

MR. HOLZER: Correct.

CHAIR: Of the sign in sheets.

MR. HOLZER: So, I would, so I would offer --

CHAIR: Mr. McComas?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes, fifty-six.

MR. HOLZER: I'm sorry, fifty-six?

MR. MCCOMAS: Yes, fifty-six.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and so that is taken care of. And during the lunch break, I tried to save as much time as possible.

CHAIR: I appreciate that.

MR. HOLZER: If I could ask Mr. Clark to step up and ask Mr. Morgan, Bruce Morgan, who previously testified, to step back. He is a member of Kingsville, he does know the parameters. He was not there at the time the original vote was taken, but he's aware of it. Now, do you want me to put him on in this --

CHAIR: I, I'm going to leave it to you to present your case.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

CHAIR: I don't, it's up, it seems to me that if there's a stipulation that can be reached about it, then perhaps it resolves the issue. But I, you know, I don't know if that is possible or not based on, I don't know what, whether he, Mr. Morgan is charged --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- Mr. Morgan is charged with the responsibility under the rule eight papers that have been submitted, that being able to do what is necessary, but Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm not trying to be difficult.

CHAIR: That's okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: I just don't know what Mr. Morgan is going to say. Again, I assumed that the, that the, well, if he wants to come on and, and testify about the parameters, I have no objection to that. Was he at the meeting or is he authorized to speak or?

MR. HOLZER: He is, he is a member of the board. He was not there at the time of the original vote. I understand he was there when they reiterated the position, to write the letter to me, to represent them and take that position, so.

CHAIR: I don't think there's a question as to the position taken. I think the question is the map and, and also was it the membership or no? That wasn't really your issue, it was the map?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I'm, I'm going to have to pull the, the rule.

MR. HOLZER: He's here and I felt since he's here.

CHAIR: I, I know, I appreciate the fact that you're trying to move that forward.

MR. HOLZER: Yeah, right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sure, why don't we put him on and we'll make quick work of it.

MR. HOLZER: Sure.

CHAIR: All right. So, once again, Dr. Clark, thank you. Just for the sake of, doesn't hurt to be sworn in twice, I suppose.

MS. DOPKIN: Do you swear and affirm under the penalties of perjury, that the testimony you are about to give is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief?

MR. MORGAN: I still do.

MS. DOPKIN: Thank you.

MR. MORGAN: Thank you.

CHAIR: And please identify yourself for the record?

MR. MORGAN: Bruce Morgan.

CHAIR: We're recalling Mr. Morgan for a limited purpose. Mr. Holzer, you want to take that?

MR. HOLZER: Well, Mr. Schmidt just asked if, if he could ask the questions. All I wanted to do is to have Mr. Morgan define, he has a map and he also has it on his phone and he can testify to that and then he's welcome to answer any other questions.

CHAIR: Have you shown the map to Mr. Schmidt?

MR. MORGAN: I have not.

CHAIR: Why don't we start with that? And I recognize, oh, you, so it's not just on your phone, you have a printout.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, thank you.

CHAIR: And so, if you have a printout, why don't you send that up this way as well if you have an extra copy.

MR. MORGAN: I'm sorry I don't have enough copies.

CHAIR: That's quite all right, I understand.

MR. MORGAN: We made what we could while we were on lunch.

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Morgan, that's quite all right. So, this will be fifty-seven for purposes of identification.

MR. HOLZER: The original document was forty-eight for i.d.

CHAIR: Right. Okay, so, but for purposes of --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- the record, the map is coming in as fifty-seven, is that your understanding?

MR. HOLZER: Yes.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Morgan, the map that you've given us which is fifty-seven it's two pages and there's a shaded area, correct?

MR. MORGAN: That's correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: And the subject property would be, looks like the map goes along Harford Road sort of below the word Glen Arm and Glen Arm Road. And I think, is it correct, that the sub, subject property is located within the gray area to the right of Harford Road?

MR. MORGAN: That's correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, just so I'm clear, the property if this, if this map is north, south, in terms of the top of the page and the bottom of the page, the property on the other side of the street from the subject property is not within the greater Kingsville area? That's, that's not the gray, that's not grayed, correct?

MR. MORGAN: Well, if, if I could refer to here, refer to the description. There's a, there's a --

MR. SCHMIDT: Right, and it says in the description click here for map.

MR. MORGAN: Yeah, that, and that is the map that comes up.

MR. SCHMIDT: And that's the map that you get when you click?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, sir.

MR. SCHMIDT: And is the gray area the area that the Kingsville, Greater Kingsville Community Association has interest or jurisdiction over?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, again, this, this is sort of at the, this is, this is on, this is within the gray area, but across the street from the subject property's entrance on Harford Road, those houses across the street are not in the greater Kingsville area, that's white, correct?

MR. MORGAN: That, that's correct.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: And now the, the community assoc, the greater Kingsville people met and produced a document, exhibit number forty-seven, I believe it is.

MR. HOLZER: Forty-eight.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry, forty-eight. That indicates that the Greater Kingsville Association opposed, opposes this request, correct?

MR. MORGAN: Yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. You were not at that meeting, as I understand it?

MR. MORGAN: I was not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Was that a meeting of the entire membership of the Greater Kingsville Association --

MR. MORGAN: As I understand it, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- or just the board of directors?

MR. MORGAN: Yeah, no, it was the semi-annual September meeting.

MR. SCHMIDT: September of 2018?

MR. MORGAN: Twenty seventeen.

MR. SCHMIDT: Twenty seventeen. Has the association considered the request in any subsequent meeting to the best of your knowledge since 2017, since September 2017?

MR. MORGAN: I, I don't understand the question, what is the question?

MR. SCHMIDT: Have, has the association considered the matter further in view of anything that's happened since September of 2017, to the best of your knowledge?

MR. MORGAN: I think there was some discussion at the general meeting, which was like a month ago.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: There was some discussion. There wasn't any voting or anything.

MR. SCHMIDT: But there was no new vote?

MR. MORGAN: No, no, sir.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Has any representatives of the Petitioner, Nepali, been at any of the meetings when these occurred, if you know?

MR. MORGAN: Only the, only, only that I'm aware of because I wasn't at this meeting, I was only at the, this, this previous meeting like a month or so ago. Dr. Clarke was there and I think Kris, I think Kris Ghimire was there.

MR. SCHMIDT: Ghimire was there at the subsequent meeting, at --

MR. MORGAN: At this most recent meeting like maybe six or eight weeks, six weeks ago maybe.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know if anyone from Nepali had an opportunity to make a presentation at any of the prior meetings?

MR. MORGAN: I, I do not know.

MR. SCHMIDT: You, you don't know one way or the other?

MR. MORGAN: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: I, I wasn't, I wasn't in attendance at the prior meetings.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know how many, do you know how many people there are who are members of the association or how many homes there are?

MR. MORGAN: Approximately, I think I gave that sheet up. But I think it was written in the corner as two hundred and thirteen, I believe. Somebody has that top sheet.

MR. SCHMIDT: Is that, is that, is that individuals or homes? Like a husband and wife, do they count as one or two?

MR. MORGAN: Yeah, that's a single, yes, that's a single membership.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, it's, so a husband and wife would be two people?

MR. MORGAN: Would, would be a one membership.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, it would be one membership?

MR. MORGAN: Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, two hundred and thirteen people in this area that's highlighted in gray are actually members of the association?

MR. MORGAN: Yes, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: Do you know how many, you have any idea how many houses there are in, in this area?

MR. MORGAN: No, I don't.

MR. SCHMIDT: You do not? Okay.

MR. MORGAN: More than two, more than two hundred and thirteen, I would suspect.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, I don't know how, you know, I know it's a rural area, so okay. And do you know when the association took the vote, I understand you weren't there, but do you know from any other way how many people there were at the meeting when the vote was taken?

MR. MORGAN: I do not, I was not in attendance.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. So, do you have to have a quorum in order to take a vote such as this?

MR. MORGAN: They're usually, the meetings, as I understand, are, are typically very well attended.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. But you don't know about this one?

MR. MORGAN: I, I don't know because I wasn't there.

CHAIR: And if I could jump in --

MR. SCHMIDT: Very well.

CHAIR: -- do you know if you need a quorum of the membership or any type of percentage of the membership or is it just a quorum for the board of directors or how that is --

MR. MORGAN: I know there's a quorum for the board, I do not know because I've never been in attendance at a general meeting where there was a mem, where there was a vote taken.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Do you know how many board members there are?

MR. MORGAN: No, I do not. I think there's twelve of us.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay and you're a board member at the present time?

MR. MORGAN: Just recently, yes, sir.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. When did you come onto the board?

MR. MORGAN: At the last general meeting.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. The document, number forty-eight, that Mr. Holzer gave us, actually titles itself on the first page of it board position regarding case number 2018-0122-X, so on and so forth.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, before you go further, do you have that in front of you, sir?

MR. MORGAN: I do not.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I'll show it to you.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: This is the, I'll show you my copy.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: And I'm referring to exhibit number forty-eight. And this is from apparently the October 10th, 2018 meeting of the Greater Kingsville Civic Association?

MR. MORGAN: The more recent one, yes.

MR. SCHMIDT: So, am I correct when I read that to say that this was the position of the board? It says board position.

MR. MORGAN: This is the first time I've seen this document. I can't speak to this document. It's the first time I've seen it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. MORGAN: I didn't produce it, I didn't help produce it. I, I don't know about that.

MR. SCHMIDT: You do not know?

MR. MORGAN: I do not know.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay. I don't have any further questions.

CHAIR: All right. So, where does that leave us in terms of your position on the admissibility of Exhibit 48?

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, it appears that the property is within the proximity, I guess, it kind of goes to the weight of the document to a certain extent. We don't know whether, I mean, it speaks for itself. And it says the board position and I don't know whether there was a quorum or how that works. And we, we don't know. I don't, Mr. Garber, I'll leave it to your discretion --

CHAIR: In other words, the (inaudible) board position and, and whether the board position is, reflects a membership and board vote or just a board vote is what your question is?

MR. SCHMIDT: And we just don't know because Mr., you know, to be fair to the witness, he wasn't there and wasn't on the board at the time, so.

CHAIR: So, we need to, so from your perspective we would need to know how the board can act?

MR. SCHMIDT: It might be, you know, I think, so the record is clear and we've got subsequent days so maybe somebody who was there can shed some light on it at a subsequent hearing date. Maybe the Board can, this Board, not Kingsville board --

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Maybe the Board of Appeals can just defer on that until we see if there's another witness. I would like to know whether it was a vote of the entire membership and how many people were there because I understand that this has caused a split in the community and there may very well have been a sizeable portion of people who are in favor of it, which I think is relevant.

CHAIR: Very well. We'll, Mr. Holzer, we'll just do it that way. If Mr. Schmidt is not ready to stipulate to its admissibility, we may need another person to address the rule eight issue for Protestant's Exhibit 48 to determine its admissibility. I think you've heard the issues that he has and you'll have the appropriate person at the right time for that.

MS. DOPKIN: So, are we trying to clarify one that it was properly adopted according to the by-laws of the organization and how the vote came out for and against?

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and whether, I think too, whether it was the board's vote or whether it was the general membership.

MS. DOPKIN: Or it was a full membership.

CHAIR: But that speaks to the, whether it's adopted properly --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- as, because, for example, by way of background, I know, for example, my community association, the board can act for the entire membership.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: We don't need to have a big meeting that invites everybody there to then take a vote, the board takes a vote. I don't know if it's that way for this particular association but that is a question that Mr. Schmidt has that Mr. Holzer will find a witness one day that we can address those very issues to figure out where Greater Kingsville stands on it, though it is obviously now stipulated that the property is within --

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes.

CHAIR: -- the bound, proper boundaries here for Greater Kingsville Civic Association. So, we've at least accomplished one check on that list.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. MCCOMAS: So, forty-eight remains i.d. only, fifty-seven is accepted?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir, as far as I'm concerned.

CHAIR: Very well.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: You may step down, thank you.

CHAIR: Fifty-seven is admitted, forty-eight is still subject to further testimony and evidence.

MR. HOLZER: And to get to the next level of testimony, Mr. Clark.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, just while Mr. Clark's coming, I was at my office over the lunch break and I got a text from the Bar Association that the Circuit Court is closing at 3:30. I don't know if that affects any other building but I just wanted to tell you that. As I was walking back, the door to come here, so you may --

CHAIR: We go by the Baltimore County --

MR. SCHMIDT: No, I got a text from the --

CHAIR: No, no --

MR. SCHMIDT: -- Baltimore County Bar Association saying that the Circuit Court was closing at 3:30.

CHAIR: Right. So, we go by the County government.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: We'll figure out where that stands at another break in the process here. Anyway, Dr. Clark --

MR. SCHMIDT: I just didn't know if you had heard, I wanted to --

CHAIR: No, I appreciate that, yes. Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: -- give you a heads up, I had heard that.

CHAIR: Yes. Thank you very much. Dr. Clark, you're still under oath, you're still on the stand. You may have a seat.

MR. HOLZER: And I'm going to ask him about exhibit number forty-eight. Mr. Clark, are you a member of the Greater Kingsville Civic Association, Inc.?

MR. CLARK: Yes, I am.

MR. HOLZER: You've seen the site plan or the plan for the area that they encompass and is your house outside of or within that area?

MR. CLARK: It's outside what the map shows but I am still a member.

MR. HOLZER: And how long have you been a member of the Kingsville Civil Association?

MR. CLARK: Ten, fifteen years.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and are you familiar with the vote that was taken by them on April 4th, 2018?

MR. CLARK: No, I was, I was not there for that meeting.

MR. HOLZER: Oh, okay.

MR. CLARK: I was there, I was there for a number of subsequent, earlier meetings.

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Including the pre, including the 2017 vote.

MR. HOLZER: The 2017 vote, okay. What was, when was the, the 2017 vote?

MR. CLARK: That was at the semi-annual meeting on 2017 it was the full membership.

MR. HOLZER: Full membership?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

MR. HOLZER: Okay

CHAIR: Let me, let me --

MR. CLARK: Now, that doesn't mean full attendance --

CHAIR: -- stop there.

MR. HOLZER: You don't want it --

CHAIR: Only because forty-eight doesn't speak to that vote.

MR. HOLZER: I know.

CHAIR: And I understand your frustration with it, but forty-eight doesn't speak to that vote. Let, the vote was taken in April of '18. You were not there for that vote?

MR. CLARK: No, I was not.

CHAIR: I understand that the, I understand the representation that there has been opposition taken by the association.

MR. HOLZER: I will go to extra lengths to make sure the Board hears everything there is to know about the vote and this document.

CHAIR: Understood. Thank you.

MR. CLARK: At the earlier meetings, --

CHAIR: Hold on.

MR. HOLZER: No.

CHAIR: Sir, there's not a question pending at this point.

MR. HOLZER: No, it's no use wasting time or the Board's time. We will do something to answer all of the questions which will probably take us not tomorrow but more than likely in February. So, the longer this drags on, the more concern I have with the February 13th.

CHAIR: Again, Mr. Holzer, I understand.

MR. HOLZER: I understand, but I'm just explaining.

CHAIR: Protestant's Exhibit 48, again, identifies a vote taken April 4, 2018. Since the whole point of having rule eight paperwork coming forward is tied to that Oct, or that April 4th, 2018 vote, --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- information from the 2017 vote does not speak to Exhibit 48.

MR. HOLZER: I understand.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. HOLZER: I understand. Now, Mr. Clark, is it true that you met with me during the luncheon break to address the Board's concern about documents which may, which may illustrate some sort of, of inactivity or confusion on the part of the County in its addressing certain letters and e-mails that you brought up --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

MR. HOLZER: -- is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: We met, that's all we met about?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: All right and in reviewing the outline or the testimony that you had proposed to provide, I, I want to list these as documents that I will have to try to put together for tomorrow sometime. But it appears that a Zeller package also as Protestant forty-three --

MR. CLARK: Are we --

MR. HOLZER: -- don't, just let me read it.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: The Jablon letter of July 11th, the Mohler letter of July the 11th, the Gardenia July 8th letter, the Gardenia July 10th letter, the e-mail to Jablon dated July 10, the Beverungen July 24th document, the Zeller/Jablon June 18 document, the VanDomelen September 12th, 2017 document, those, those documents will be placed in a packet for purpose of protecting or addressing the exhaustion of administrative remedies as Mr. Garber has requested.

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. In addition to those documents, the Clarke FB of September 17th, 2018, the Ghimire and Clarke FB of 5/1/18, the Ravine and Clarke FB 5/1/18, the White America Next Door document, the Clarke FB September 20th, '18 document, the Kotroco letter to Mohler, I'm striking out anything in regard to the police reports as per your direction.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: The Joann affidavit, all will be removed from your testimony before the Board today and will be placed in the packet for the Board to see and I'll submit it tomorrow.

CHAIR: Yes, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Hopefully, I can submit it tomorrow, okay?

CHAIR: Assuming we're open tomorrow at any point, yes, thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. So, that is my effort --

CHAIR: Thank you very much, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: -- to take that material out. Now, that leaves us with going back to his regular testimony under another heading.

CHAIR: Fair enough.

MR. HOLZER: Okay?

CHAIR: Fair enough.

MR. HOLZER: And just so the Board understands, I required the witness to create headings for different parts of his testimony so that it would be organized and --

CHAIR: I appreciate that.

MR. HOLZER: -- and, and we are now going to go into a heading of clarification of facts, which I think will specifically address your concerns about the 502 and the land use issue. Okay? Now, Mr. Clark, let's turn to the clarification of facts and what, where would you like to start? And if there is going to be a written document, tell me. Or if there's going to be a visual presentation, you can tell us that and then we can proceed from there, okay?

MR. CLARK: Okay. There will be, there will be three videos shown.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay? One will be, and they all relate to the way the road is used as it is today, okay? One will be of people using it as a pedestrian, people using it as cyclists and how, how the clearances are so constricted that tractor trailers cross, have to cross the line to make their turns, okay?

MR. HOLZER: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Those, those are the videos.
MR. HOLZER: All right. Do you want to do those now?
MR. CLARK: Why don't we, why, why don't I talk about the other things first?
CHAIR: Wait, hold on. We're just talking about three videos that we may be showing the Board.
MR. CLARK: Right.
CHAIR: And everything, why, why would we be going to another --
MR. HOLZER: Yeah, let's just --
MR. CLARK: Okay, no, no, that's fine. I'm just -- CHAIR: I know, but let's not get like, let's not get lost.
MR. HOLZER: Right.
CHAIR: The testimony has brought us to this point.
MR. CLARK: Yeah, yeah.
CHAIR: It would seem that we have three videos on Exhibit 51, where would I, where are these videos?
MR. CLARK: Okay. I need my video control sheet.
CHAIR: Sorry, do you need a copy?
MR. CLARK: No, I've got one. Thank you, sir. Okay. Let us start with road walker.
CHAIR: Sorry?
MR. CLARK: Road walker, and he is --
CHAIR: Hold on. You have to show us where --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, on, on the video control sheet, sheet two.

MS. DOPKIN: Next to the last one.

CHAIR: Rural road walker from 10/14/18?

MR. CLARK: Yes, right.

CHAIR: All right. Now, you have another one, dash cam E road walker on page one.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, that, that, that's, that's, that's from where the snippet was taken. That's, that's --

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: -- my effort to try and --

CHAIR: That's fine. I just, for purposes of the record, they say the same designation. Rural road walker A-4 thirteen seconds 10/14/18 taken by you on page two, Exhibit 51. Is this something that previously, I guess it had to have been made part of the A-4 previously?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, it's not new, right.

CHAIR: All right. So that means Mr. Schmidt would have had the opportunity to review this previously.

MR. SCHMIDT: I think we saw that in the hearing.

CHAIR: I, as, as far as I recall, I don't recall seeing this.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: That is in terms of what has been presented actually during the course of the hearing.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Recognizing it's on the disc and you've had the opportunity to review it previously. So, with that in mind, we can hit play. All right. Now if we hit stop right here.

MR. CLARK: All right, stop, stop.

CHAIR: Dr. Clark, please identify what we are looking at.

MR. CLARK: Actually, what we are looking at is Harford Road south of the property, just south of the property, above Hutschenreuter Road.

CHAIR: And we're heading north?

MR. CLARK: South.

CHAIR: We're heading south?

MR. CLARK: Right. And you see that black splotch on the right?

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: On the shoulder? That, watch, watch him carefully.

CHAIR: Hold on. I need to make sure I understand what this is. You're heading away from the property?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

CHAIR: And this is south of the property --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- correct?

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: All right. Now, you said it's before Hutchenreuter Road?

MR. CLARK: Hutchenreuter Road is, is down around that bend.

CHAIR: Okay. So, it's after the bend there?

MR. CLARK: Right. And, and, and this is, and I just pulled out of my driveway, which in the County is called Mark Lane.

CHAIR: Understood, okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: How far away is this from the Bonaparte entrance?

MR. CLARK: The Bonaparte property is right there on the left.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: So you're traveling alongside?

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: And this is you after you pulled out of your driveway?

MR. CLARK: Correct. Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay. So, that gives us a starting point, thank you.

MR. CLARK: Now, now, before she starts it again, all right? Joyce, can you put the cursor on the, the guy on the shoulder, right there, okay?

CHAIR: I understand that's where we keep our focus on.

MR. CLARK: Right, focus there because it goes by fast.

CHAIR: Understood.

MR. CLARK: Okay, go ahead.

VOICE: Play?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

CHAIR: Oh, wow, that was fast.

MR. CLARK: Go back, we missed it. But I, I, what I do is I --

CHAIR: Okay, just start it. Everyone stop talking. Let's just start from here and then see where that takes us.

MR. CLARK: All right.

CHAIR: Thank you. Okay.

MR. CLARK: All right. And anyway, there's a rural road, you know, people use, people use that as, as a walkway. I do have screenshots of it.

CHAIR: It's, it's okay. It's understood that you can find pedestrians along the roadway on the side of the road.

MR. CLARK: Right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Did I miss something or did it --

CHAIR: It, it de-pixilated and then jumped. But, I mean, I, I don't think it's disputed that --

MR. SCHMIDT: People walk on the road.

CHAIR: -- people can, people have the ability to walk along the roadway.

MR. CLARK: And then, and, and then look at --

CHAIR: And people, in fact, do is what I'm hearing from, from Dr. Clark, is that fair to say?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And that you can see the guardrail on the shoulder.

CHAIR: Right. So, there's limited space you're saying --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- between the guardrail and the shoulder.

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: The shoulder is striped.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: Excuse me. We have photographs to make it clearer.

CHAIR: Okay. I'll say this, Dr. Clark, in the interest of expediency. If the testimony is going to be that there are occasionally pedestrians, cyclists who are on Harford Road in this stretch, we don't necessarily need to see videos of it. I imagine that the people are doing this. You've seen it, you can probably testify to those points, I'm assuming. That is, you've seen people out walking, you've seen people cycling, right?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, just to avoid the same situation where we had to de-pixilate and then jump and doesn't give an accurate portrayal of what you were trying to show.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

CHAIR: Is it your testimony that you have seen people walking along Harford Road heading south?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: And that is before Hutschen, Hutschenreuter Road?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay and then heading north?

MR. CLARK: Heading north, I actually walk on Harford Road north. When, when I have my car serviced up there at Carl's Service Station.

CHAIR: Is that, where, where's Carl's?

MR. CLARK: That's up in Fork.

CHAIR: Fork, is that at the light at Fork?

MR. CLARK: Yes, it's at the light.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And you know, that, that's --

CHAIR: Is that where the post office is?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: All right and I, you know, I grew up walking four or five miles a day, you know, to go, to get someplace. We didn't have a car. So, for me to walk along that road, it's not a big deal. But I, you know, I'm mindful of the, the, the, the sight problems.

CHAIR: So, you are using these videos to show us the sight problems but also, as you pointed out earlier, the guardrail and the shoulder space?

MR. CLARK: Yes, yes.

CHAIR: Okay. Now, as to cyclists, have you seen people on bicycles going south, starting from your driveway, to Hutchenreuter Road?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: Have you seen them coming north from Hutchenreuter Road up to Mount Vista?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: People heading northbound, okay.

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir. In fact, fairly, there, there's a couple events, you know, these, these fundraiser events where it is used as the route. What, the, I don't want to show a video if I don't have to, --

CHAIR: I'm not suggesting yes or no. I'm just figuring out what you're --

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- trying to do. But you have firsthand knowledge because one, you have done certain things but you've also seen certain things.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: So, even independent of any video, if there's any future issue, we can, your testimony is already in the record on these points.

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: So, okay. So, now we have this photo here, which is, just to go through it, which is fifty-eight? Okay, fifty-eight.

MR. HOLZER: Two pages.

CHAIR: Now, fifty-eight shows a still shot, and it shows the beginning, more or less, of the video after you pulled out of your driveway, is that correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: And the person who is walking or on the bike and forgive me, I don't have my reading glasses on, --

MR. CLARK: He's walking.

CHAIR: Okay. Who is up on the right, which you previously indicated on the video with the cursor as the same as --

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- what we saw, just saw on the video?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: I am assuming then page two, had the video not jumped and de-pixilated, we --

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: -- would have seen that very picture. And that gentleman is still the same person as, on page one, also in the video?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir, and --

CHAIR: This, go ahead.

MR. CLARK: Okay. You will see how we are in the habit, when we come across a pedestrian, we actually cross into the double yellow line.

CHAIR: I don't think you're alone in that, I think that it's --

MR. CLARK: Right, but --

CHAIR: -- a common occurrence for most if they someone on the side of the road, they try to --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: -- give as much space as possible, typically speaking. Speaking of which though, for Exhibit 58, Mr. Schmidt, do you have any objection to the admission of Exhibit 58?

MR. SCHMIDT: No. Mr. Clark, you were driving and this is your car you took this?

MR. CLARK: Yep, that is my 2007 Jeep Liberty.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Okay, do you know this fellow?

MR. CLARK: No.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: No, in fact, we have seen homeless people on there, you know, it's, it, you know, it just is.

CHAIR: Okay. So, fifty-eight is admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Sure thing.

MR. HOLZER: Now, now Mr., the Chairman has already indicated about a cyclist. We have a pictures, still pictures of the cyclist. Do you have a video or should I just show --

MR. CLARK: Well, the, the, the, the only reason, the only reason I would show the video is it would, is, is it shows clearly how people have to cross the road to avoid a cyclist, passing a cyc, when they're passing a cyclist.

CHAIR: Well, I'm going to caution everyone there, only that this cyclist video, if I'm reading fifty-one correctly, was taken on December 7th, which is after, of course, the November 29th --

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: -- day we had the review, the videos and everything, and therefore, Mr. Schmidt has not had the opportunity to see this video --

MR. CLARK: You're absolutely correct, yes.

CHAIR: So, with that in mind, first, let's show Mr. Schmidt the photos.

MR. CLARK: And we do have --

CHAIR: One second, Mr. Clark, there's no question pending.

MR. CLARK: Sorry.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir?

CHAIR: In looking at these photos, do you have any objection to the photos?

MR. SCHMIDT: I do not.

CHAIR: All right. We can admit the photos then, Mr. Holzer.

MR. HOLZER: All right, thank you. Mr. Clark, --

CHAIR: So, as to the video, --

MR. HOLZER: Yeah.

CHAIR: -- Mr. Schmidt, what is your position on the video?

MR. SCHMIDT: I haven't seen it. I mean, if it shows this, is that what you're asking?

CHAIR: Well, I'm asking, do you want to have the opportunity to view the video?

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Clark, does the video show this? Is it the same deal that we just had with the guy walking?

CHAIR: Exhibit --

MR. CLARK: Yes, this is a screenshot from the video.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

CHAIR: Fifty-nine is a screen shot from the video.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. I don't have, I don't have to see it.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: I'd like to show it.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, okay.

CHAIR: Then, that's why, what I'm hearing is --

MR. SCHMIDT: Then I'll watch it.

CHAIR: -- he's saying go ahead, show it.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Yeah, go ahead, show it.

MR. CLARK: Now, yeah, I don't know if you saw how far out a field the van had to go.

MR. SCHMIDT: Well, he wasn't crossing the center line, was he?

CHAIR: Well, hold on. We're not getting to a debate as to what the video is showing.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, he was, yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Joyce, can you slow it down?

VOICE: I'm not sure.

MR. CLARK: Okay. There's the bicyclist, you just passed it.

VOICE: Okay.

CHAIR: I think what he wants you to do is go back a little farther, if you don't mind.

MR. CLARK: Right there, and go back a little bit further from there. Right.

CHAIR: That's good, probably there, right?

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: Okay, let it play.

MR. CLARK: Now, watch him cross, he cross, see how far over the line he was?

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: And he's coming back into the line now.

CHAIR: Hold on, that, where we have stopped up there appears to more or less reflect what's fifty-nine anyway.

MR. CLARK: Um hm.

CHAIR: So, as to its interpretation, whatever someone's position is as to that, obviously we can see the photo, we can see the video, as to what it means, I understand because it seems to be there may be a dispute between Mr. Schmidt and, and Dr. Clark on that. We don't need to go into any argument as to --

MR. SCHMIDT: It shows what it shows.

CHAIR: It shows what it shows.

MR. SCHMIDT: Speaks for itself.

CHAIR: Thank you very much. All right. Is there anything more in that video you wish for, to show us?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIR: Okay. So, we're done with that video.

MR. HOLZER: Are there any other videos that relate to how the road is actually used and haz, and any hazards?

MR. CLARK: I lost my place.

CHAIR: We did pedestrians and we did cyclists.

MR. CLARK: Oh, oh, oh, oh, yes, there are. I would like to show you how tractor trailers have to, have to cross the double yellow line to make those turns, okay? First --

CHAIR: When you say make the turns, you mean go around the bend?

MR. CLARK: Go around the curves, yes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

CHAIR: So, let's start with fifty-one. Where would that be on fifty-one?

MR. CLARK: All right. Dash cam B low boy, right after cyclist.

CHAIR: Okay. So, this is, it would be on disc A-2. This is something that Mr. Schmidt would have received previously.

MR. CLARK: Correct.

CHAIR: And would have been able to see previously.

MR. HOLZER: And this is sixty? Yeah.

MR. SCHMIDT: Sixty. Mr. McComas, are you labeling these A and B when it's two pages? Or just sixty?

MR. MCCOMAS: I didn't (inaudible).

MR. SCHMIDT: Okay. Just --

CHAIR: Yeah, we just, we're just labeling it --

MR. SCHMIDT: Just calling it sixty? Okay.

CHAIR: We'll identify for the record if there are two pages as we, to the extent that that's needed.

MR. HOLZER: Right, right.

MR. MCCOMAS: My description I'm putting two pages, but I don't have A and B.

CHAIR: So, Exhibit 60 is two photographs, so when discussing them, if you're discussing a distinction between them, you have to specify page one, page two, Exhibit 60.

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right. So, with that in mind, what is it you want to tell us about Exhibit 60?

MR. CLARK: Sixty shows a, a heavy truck, a tractor trailer carrying heavy equipment and to make that, to make that turn down below they all always have to cross that line.

CHAIR: Correct me if I'm wrong here, in terms of orientation, but are we looking at the, more or less the same, this is after you pull out of your driveway and you're facing, bless you.

MR. SCHMIDT: Excuse me, excuse me.

CHAIR: You're facing south?

MR. CLARK: South and Hutschenreuter, we haven't hit Hutschenreuter yet.

CHAIR: Right, because if you compare page one of Exhibit 58 to page one of Exhibit 60, it looks to be roughly, you can see the similar features --

MR. CLARK: It's almost identical, yes.

CHAIR: Although you are closer in Exhibit 60 than you are in fifty-eight.

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Thank you. Bless you, Mr. Schmidt.

MR. SCHMIDT: Excuse me, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer, back to you.

MR. HOLZER: Are we going to show this video now or you want to describe these pictures first?

MR. CLARK: Pictures, page one of Exhibit 58, --

MR. HOLZER: Sixty.

CHAIR: Sixty.

MR. CLARK: -- sixty, page one of, of Exhibit 60 shows a tractor, a low boy carrying a piece of heavy equipment and in order to make that curve down there, he has to cross the double yellow line.

MR. SCHMIDT: And, and I just object in order to make that --

CHAIR: Please stand up if you're, if you're objecting.

MR. SCHMIDT: I'm sorry. In order to make that curve down there. I mean, it shows what it shows.

CHAIR: He, he's providing --

MR. SCHMIDT: He could be asleep, he could be drunk, he could be any number of things.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt, it's being received for what it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, what it shows.

CHAIR: For what it shows.

MR. SCHMIDT: I object to the commentary that this man couldn't make the curve driving this truck unless he crosses the center line.

CHAIR: Let me ask you this, Dr. Clark, have you seen other tractor trailers in this area?

MR. CLARK: That is my testimony.

CHAIR: Okay. So, the other tractor trailers you see in this area, what do you see of them as they come around the curve?

MR. CLARK: They all cut the curve.

CHAIR: And in a similar position, as to where Exhibit 60 --

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: -- and the truck is shown?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: On page one and two?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. SCHMIDT: Mr. Garber, I'm, I'm, I'm sorry. The photographs speak for themselves and I just object to the witness' embellishment, that's all.

CHAIR: And I under, and I understood that, Mr. Schmidt. And I was trying to get an understanding as to why he said what he said. And he has clarified that point. Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: I don't have anything to say.

CHAIR: Back to you.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Are we going to show the video?

MR. CLARK: Yes, we should. And it, and, and to clarify, it is my testimony that trucks do that on a regular basis.

CHAIR: Well, you did testify to that slightly earlier but here we are --

MR. CLARK: Thank you, sir, yeah.

CHAIR: -- with the specific photos.

MR. CLARK: This is why we had photos. Oh, cut the sound, cut the sound. Sorry about that.

MR. HOLZER: For some reason there's a glare on it, I can't see anything.

CHAIR: I would agree with that.

MR. HOLZER: Can we turn the lights off?

MR. CLARK: This is coming out of my drive.

CHAIR: There we go.

MR. CLARK: Sorry, I should have made this snippet shorter.

CHAIR: It's quite alright.

MR. CLARK: All right. So, there's Harford Road and my, and Mark Lane.

MR. HOLZER: Did you stop at the stop sign?

MR. CLARK: I do. All right, and you'll start there.

CHAIR: All right. I assume that's what you wanted to show us?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, that's it, that's it, yeah.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: You can kill it, Joyce. Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Are there any other examples related to the road that we need to address?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, there's a, coming south from the traffic circle, okay? We have dash cam C, truck crossing.

MR. HOLZER: I don't see --

CHAIR: Which was taken October 22nd and it's on disc A-2, Mr. Schmidt therefore would have had the opportunity to have reviewed it in advance.

MR. CLARK: Right.

VOICE: Ready?

MR. CLARK: Yep.

CHAIR: No, hold on. Hold on. There are photographs.

MR. HOLZER: There are photographs.

CHAIR: Mr. Schmidt gets that first.

MR. SCHMIDT: Oh, thank you.

CHAIR: Thank you. Is this sixty-one? All right. Looking at photos sixty-one page one and two, what is it you want to tell us about those?

MR. CLARK: Well, page one I want to tell you that that wasn't supposed to be in there. I don't know why --

CHAIR: Page one is not supposed to be there?

MR. CLARK: Yeah. I don't know why I was concerned about the guy crossing, well, all right, leave it there. Because it shows how people cut to shoulder too.

CHAIR: Okay. So, going to, to page two of Exhibit 61.

MR. CLARK: And there you have the tractor trailer having to cut the curve, to cut the yellow lines there to make his turn. This is, this is the very turn that Mr. Collagero says is, is so dangerous.

CHAIR: Hold on. Again, to identify it, where is this in relation to this --

MR. CLARK: This is --

CHAIR: -- hold on, wait for my question. Where is this in relation to the subject property?

MR. CLARK: The subject property is on the left. It is just south of Bonaparte Ave and Harford Road, which is --

CHAIR: So, this is after the entrance way for the subject property?

MR. CLARK: Going south.

CHAIR: Right. And we should be, if we were to follow this photo along, your property will be up, well past where the tractor trailer is off on the right?

MR. CLARK: Correct, sir.

CHAIR: All right.

MR. CLARK: Thank you.

CHAIR: So, we now we have --

MR. SCHMIDT: This is sixty-one?

CHAIR: This will be sixty-one. So, we have the orientation of the photos.

MR. CLARK: Are, are heading south.

CHAIR: Yeah. No, we got that.

MR. CLARK: Okay. I'm sorry.

CHAIR: Yes, thank you. So, you want to then show us a video that shows --

MR. CLARK: Well, I would also draw your attention to the arrow mark.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: All right? That is --

CHAIR: There's an arrow mark in the top roughly center of the photo.

MR. CLARK: Right.

CHAIR: On page two.

MR. CLARK: Right. That is the, that is the very area that Mr. Collagero was so concerned about.

CHAIR: All right. Coming out of the circle?

MR. CLARK: Yep. I don't know why that's, oh, that's her, that's her computer. Sorry, Joyce. All right and there's Mr. Poehler's house on the left. There's Bonaparte on the right. There's the property entrance on the left. And there he goes.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: I will testify that I have seen --

CHAIR: Hold, there's no question pending. Mr. Schmidt, you have any objection to sixty (inaudible)?

MR. SCHMIDT: Not one bit, no, sir.

CHAIR: Those two are admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Do you have any exhibits of trucks crossing the line at night?

MR. CLARK: No, but I do have, showing what happens when the tractor trailers are going in the opposite direction at night.

MR. HOLZER: Okay and is that a video or just the pictures?

MR. CLARK: I think that's a video.

CHAIR: Okay. Where is that located on fifty-one?

MR. CLARK: That, that is dash cam D, night semi Glen Arm.

CHAIR: That was taken June 28, 2018, therefore, located on A-2, Mr. Schmidt would have had a copy in advance, or been able to view it in advance.

MR. CLARK: Or do I, do I have a photo of it?

MR. HOLZER: You have, --

MR. CLARK: I, I probably, yes, --

MR. HOLZER: -- I can't, it appears there's only one page.

MR. CLARK: Yeah. Mr. Garber, I'm sorry, I was up real late last night.

CHAIR: That's quite alright, Dr. Clark. You can tell us when you receive the photo whether or not that's the photo you, you think may exist that shows what you're talking about.

MR. CLARK: Yeah.

CHAIR: So, photo, Protestant's Exhibit 62, which is one page photo at nighttime, what does it depict?

MR. CLARK: It depicts going east on Glen Arm Road up towards Harford, okay? And this is how narrow the roads are and at night you can see, you can just barely make it out in, in, in, with the contrast of this photograph. But that's the truck body and then my car is where the car is.

CHAIR: Okay, hold on. At the, where the arrow signs are at the top center of the photo, the, the only, really the visible portion of the photo, is that Glen Arm or is that Harford?

MR. CLARK: That is Glen Arm.

CHAIR: So, Harford is past this point?

MR. CLARK: Harford is up the hill.

CHAIR: Right.

MR. CLARK: It, it's, yes, yes. About, about a quarter of a mile.

CHAIR: Okay. Mr. Schmidt, anything?

MR. SCHMIDT: No, sir.

CHAIR: Do you wish for this to be admitted?

MR. SCHMIDT: Yes, sir.

CHAIR: All right. Well, that was easy. So admitted.

MR. SCHMIDT: If you can tell what it is, that's fine.

CHAIR: Well, now we have a description as to where it is.

MR. SCHMIDT: Right.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: Half a mile away or so.

MR. CLARK: Quarter mile away.

MR. SCHMIDT: Quarter mile away from Harford?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Mr. Holzer?

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Do you want to show the video of --

MR. CLARK: Yeah, because, because there's questions about where the truck body is here.

MR. HOLZER: Right, okay.

MR. CLARK: So.

CHAIR: Well, I should ask this, you know, in relation to where the subject property is, I mean, this is, if it's a quarter mile away from Harford Road, therefore, it's an additional amount of distance away from the subject property.

MR. CLARK: Yeah, I, I'd say, as, well, as the crow flies, since that seems to be so popular, it would be half a mile.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. CLARK: It's, it's in the, it's in the locale.

CHAIR: Okay.

MR. SCHMIDT: It's typical of the locale, of the roads in the locale.

MR. CLARK: Thank you, sir. I appreciate that.

MR. HOLZER: Are we going to show it?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: If you would, if you would like to show it.

MR. HOLZER: Just, go ahead.

MR. CLARK: Now, her, I'm sorry.

CHAIR: It's all right. Are you, are you on Harford

Road there or Glen Arm?

MR. CLARK: No, no, that's Glen Arm. That, the whole clip is Glen Arm.

CHAIR: On approach to Harford?

MR. CLARK: Yes, sir. And, you can, you can end it, Joyce. If you need to see it again, but, you know, the, the idea is is the clearances and all of that, you know.

CHAIR: Understood. Sixty-two has been admitted.

MR. HOLZER: Thank you.

CHAIR: Sure.

MR. CLARK: And, and I would like --

CHAIR: There's no question pending at the moment.

MR. CLARK: Okay.

MR. HOLZER: All right. Are, we're finished with the pictures of, of the road and the vehicles on the road, cyclists and so forth, is that correct? Yes or no?

MR. CLARK: Yes.

CHAIR: Hold on. Thank you. All right.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. Can we go to any testimony in regard to the sight, required sight distances and in terms of Mr. Collagero's testimony? Do you have any comments about that?

MR. CLARK: Yeah, yes, yes, I do. And this is just as someone who knows how to add two plus two.

MR. HOLZER: You're not an ex, traffic expert?

MR. CLARK: No, but I know how to subtract.

MR. HOLZER: Okay. All you knew is know how to add two and two and subtract, is that --

MR. CLARK: And sometimes I get five, but you know,--

MR. HOLZER: Okay, so --

CHAIR: Well, we'll, we'll cross that bridge when we come to it.

MR. HOLZER: All right. So, what is your comment about his testimony?

MR. CLARK: Well, his testimony on day three, he confirmed that both intersection sight distance and decision stopping distance cannot meet SHA requirements, all right? At the required forty-five and fifty miles an hour, okay?

MR. HOLZER: Do you --

CHAIR: With, hold on, with the existing, are you talking about from the existing entrance way?

MR. CLARK: And, and he said, no matter what they do.

MR. SCHMIDT: How, how about if the witness just testifies what he wants to say instead of giving us a description of what he thinks Mr. Collagero and what he thinks everybody else said? The record is what the record is. And he, if he wants to say whatever he, he wants to say but this, it's not even a question and answer, it's a speech and --

CHAIR: So you object?

MR. SCHMIDT: I do. It would be nice if he could just testify.

CHAIR: Thank you.

MR. HOLZER: Let me go, let, let me rephrase it. Can you testify as to the facts that you're familiar with, having read Mr. Collagero's testimony on day three, and if you know where it was you can point that out, and why it may or may not be correct?

MR. CLARK: Yes. He test, he, he clearly testified--

MR. SCHMIDT: When?

CHAIR: Hold on. Mr. Schmidt, this is not cross examination.

MR. CLARK: On day three. On day three.

CHAIR: He's responding to Mr. Holzer's question. If you have an objection, you know you have to stand for objection and say you have an objection. Right now we're in the middle of Mr. Holzer's question to Dr. Clark. Dr. Clark started his answer so day three, Collagero testimony, go ahead.
